ALLEN stated that sometime during January, 1964, a Mrs. GEWERTZ called him at his residence and inquired if he desired to trade copies of film with her. He stated she told him she was attempting to contact numerous individuals who had obtained movie shots of the Presidential motorcade throughout its route and that her film clip was taken not far from his position and showed him in her pictures and, therefore, she was contacting him to determine if he would care to trade a duplicate of his film sequences for a duplicate of hers. ALLEN stated he told Mrs. GEWERTZ he had already turned over this film to Mr. PARR of the Glendale Camera Shop and that Mr. PARR was likewise attempting to obtain other film clips from various individuals and that if Mrs. GEWERTZ would care to talk to Mr. PARR about his clips she would be free to do so. ALLEN stated that subsequently the PARR group of which he was a part later joined with the group headed by Mrs. GEWERTZ

JOE CERN BROWN, partner, Air Line Ground Transportation Company, Love Field, advised his company provides limousine service between Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas. He stated he resides at 7008 Hovenkamp Street, Fort Worth 18, Texas. BROWN said he was born May 28, 1913, at Stoneburg, Texas.

BROWN advised he knew of the scheduled arrival of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY at Love Field on November 22, 1963, and on this date kept his son, JAMES DOUGLAS BROWN, out of school and brought him to work with him so he could witness the arrival of President KENNEDY and his entourage and take movies of this event. He said that around 11:20 a.m. or so he was at his place of employment at the Baggage Reclaim area at Love Field and it was at this time his son left him and went out to gate No. 28 to await the arrival of the President. He said when the President arrived his son took several sequences of this arrival from different positions at the airport. He said one film sequence was taken from the roof of the south concourse of the terminal building and another film sequence was taken from inside the fenced enclosure at the point of the President's arrival. He said his son had taken his Wollensak Model 43 8 mm camera with him for this purpose. He said the camera was loaded with Ansco color film.

BROWN stated President KENNEDY in his opinion was one of the greatest presidents, very special to him, and in support of this opinion related the following story:

BROWN said he was a sergeant in the First Marine Division in World War II, was assigned Serial No. 46 19 42, and served from September, 1942, to March 15, 1945, receiving an honorable discharge. He said during this period of service he participated in a number of assaults on enemy islands. He said on one occasion his division was assigned to assault one of the islands, name unrecalled, in the Russell Island group in the Coral Sea. He said his division was brought to this location by the destroyer Mandley and during the night they transferred from the destroyer to 50 foot lighters. He said in the particular lighter he was in there were 11 marines and two navy personnel, a lieutenant junior grade and a coxswain. BROWN stated that on the way to the shore this lighter was hit by shore fire and knocked out of commission. He stated that for three days this lighter was at the mercy of the sea and all aboard had given up hope of being rescued. He advised on the third night a navy torpedo boat, PT 109, answered their signals. Within 30 minutes of this BROWN stated the destroyer Helena pulled alongside and rescued him and the other men aboard the lighter. Later BROWN stated he learned the PT 109 was commanded by JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and it is to KENNEDY that he and the other members aboard the lighter owe their lives. BROWN said it was because of this that he kept his boy out of school and brought him to Love Field with him so he would have the opportunity to see President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

BROWN said he did not witness the arrival at Love Field of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, and further he said at the time President KENNEDY was assassinated he was at his place of business in the Baggage Reclaim area at Love Field.

BROWN advised the film his son took of the arrival of President KENNEDY and his entourage was sent by him direct to Montgomery Ward for processing.

BROWN advised in late December, 1963, or early January, 1964, he was contacted at Love Field by Mrs. FRANCES HAYS and Mrs. IRVING GEWERTZ. He said they inquired of him if he had taken any movies of the arrival of the Presidential party on November 22, 1963. He said he informed them he had not but his son had taken some film sequences of the President's arrival. BROWN advised he was informed by Mrs. HAYS and Mrs. GEWERTZ they were attempting to contact people who had taken movies of the President on his arrival on November 22, 1963. He said their purpose in doing so was to arrange an exchange of film between people who had taken movie sequences so all could have a more complete record of the Presidential motorcade on that fateful day. BROWN said he was in complete accord with what they were trying to do and informed them that LARRY THOMAS, another employee at Love Field, had also taken some movies of the President's arrival.

BROWN stated after several other contacts with Mrs. GEWERTZ he learned there were approximately 18 people who had taken film sequences of the Presidential motorcade on November 22, 1963, known to Mrs. GEWERTZ and the idea evolved that if they put these film sequences together into a movie it could be marketed commercially. BROWN stated that on March 18, 1964, these 18 people including himself incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated. He said all of the 18 stockholders will share equally in any profit realized from the sale of this movie. He further advised he believes this film will be available for public sale sometime in June, 1964.

BROWN stated he did not know and to his knowledge never had any contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

BROWN said that on November 22, 1963, he accompanied his father to Love Field, Dallas, Texas, for the purpose of seeing President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and taking movies of his arrival. He said he arrived at Love Field between 10:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. He said he took his Wollensak Model 43 8 mm camera with him for the purpose of taking movies of the arrival of President KENNEDY and his group. BROWN advised at about 11:15 a.m. he proceeded to the gate where President KENNEDY was scheduled to arrive. He said he believes the gate number was 28. He advised that around 11:50 a.m. the Presidential plane arrived and he took movies of this. He advised that after taking a film sequence of the Presidential plane landing he climbed upon the roof of the south concourse section of the terminal building and got some pictures of President and Mrs. KENNEDY deplaning. He said after they left the plane he jumped down off of the roof and ran down to the fenced enclosure where he obtained some more movie shots of the President and his party. He said he took between 10 and 15 feet of film of the President's arrival. BROWN said after he took the film he watched the President get into his car and leave the airport. Following this, BROWN stated he stopped at the airport restaurant, had a Coke, and returned to the Baggage Reclaim area where his father was working. On the way to this location, BROWN said he heard from various people that President KENNEDY had been shot.

Dr. HOWARD YOUNG SIGLER

HOWARD YOUNG SIGLER, M. D., 6936 Lakeshore Drive, advised he specializes in orthopedic surgery and has offices located at 4217 Swiss Avenue, Dallas, Texas. SIGLER said he was born June 10, 1909, at Dallas, Texas.

SIGLER said shortly before noon on November 22, 1963, he took up a position on the northwest corner of Harwood Street, about fifty feet north of McKinney Street, Dallas, Texas, with the intention of viewing the Presidential motorcade and taking some movies of the President and his entourage as the motorcade passed his position. SIGLER said he learned what route the motorcade would take from an article he read in a Dallas newspaper on November 21, 1963. SIGLER said he had his 8 mm Kodak Electric Zoom Automatic Camera loaded with Kodachrome II Film with him for the purpose of taking the film sequence of the motorcade.

SIGLER advised that around 12:10 PM the Presidential motorcade passed his position and he was able to take about ten feet of film of the President and the motorcade. After the motorcade passed, SIGLER said he took his film to Fox Studios on North Henderson Street, Dallas, Texas, to have it developed. He said a Mrs. FRANCES HAYS was working there at the time and he informed her that the roll of film he left contained a film sequence of President JOHN F. KENNEDY's motorcade.

SIGLER related that toward the end of November, 1963, Mrs. FRANCES HAYS telephoned him and informed there were several people she knew who had taken film sequences of the Presidential motorcade, and advised that they had expressed a desire to exchange film with others who had also taken film sequences of the Presidential motorcade. SIGLER said he thought this would be a good idea in view of the assassination of President KENNEDY, since he would like to have as complete a record of the motorcade as possible.

RUDOLF VIKTOR (RUDY) BRENK was interviewed at his place of employment, Exline-Lowdon Company, 1818 South Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas, where he is employed as General Supervisor. BRENK furnished his residence address as 4404 Ivy Street, Mesquite, Texas.

BRENK advised he was born May 14, 1920, in Mannheim, Germany, and entered the United States December 15, 1954, and subsequently became a naturalized citizen in Dallas, Texas, in April 1964.

BRENK advised that he was aware of the forthcoming arrival of the Presidential Motorcade a few blocks from his place of business on November 22, 1963, and, as he is the Vice President of the Cinema Guild of Texas, an eight-millimeter camera club, he decided to attempt to obtain some eight-millimeter color movies of the Presidential Motorcade from the best vantage point available.

He advised, therefore, that he left his shop at about 12:00 Noon on November 22, 1963, in the company of Mr. MACK HARRIS, an Exline-Lowdon Company salesman, and drove to the vicinity of Harwood and Ross Streets. He stated he took up a position on the northwest corner of Harwood and Ross Streets to await the arrival of the motorcade.

He advised that as the motorcade passed at approximately 12:20 P.M., he obtained about five to six feet of movie film, using a Camex Eight-Millimeter movie camera loaded with Dynachrome color film. BRENK advised he subsequently forwarded this film to the Dynacolor Company, located on Halifax Street in Dallas, Texas, for processing.

BRENK recalled that sometime during February 1964, a Mrs. GEWERTZ called him at his place of employment and asked if he would be interested in exchanging whatever film he had of the Presidential Motorcade for film sequences which she had taken. BRENK advised he recalled that Mrs. GEWERTZ told him she was referred to him by Mr. ALBERT BUNNELL, who was also a member of the Cinema Guild of Texas camera club. BRENK advised that after several such conversations with Mrs. GEWERTZ, he agreed to take time to view her film and he, accordingly, arranged for the use of the Community Room of the Republic Savings and Loan Association one evening for a meeting. He advised he had been told by Mrs. GEWERTZ that there were several others with film sequences who would also like to attend the showing, and that several of these people appeared at the Community Room and ran their respective film clips.

BRENK advised he did not at that time feel the film sequences he had observed were of sufficient quality or number to be of any value to him, and he told Mrs. GEWERTZ that he was not interested at that time. BRENK stated, however, that the following day he received a telephone call from a Mr. WYMAN PARR to the effect that he, likewise, had similar film clips depicting the Presidential Motorcade and asked BRENK to view this film. BRENK stated he agreed to view the film clips by Mr. GEORGE SHAWVER, and that he visited PARR's residence that evening to see this film.

BRENK advised that, after viewing the film in the PARR group and the film belonging to the GEWERTZ group, he told both PARR and GEWERTZ that he would agree to join in this enterprise only if the two groups could agree to get together and combine all film clips from members of both groups into one continuous film. He stated after much haggling with both sides, they agreed to join together and both groups, numbering eighteen in all, including himself, incorporated on March 18, 1964, into Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc.

BRENK advised that due to his greater experience in editing and film processing, all members turned over their originals to him for editing, and that he ultimately combined the valuable portions of each original into one single film.

IRVING DAVID BRENK, 6622 Bryan Hill Lane, Dallas, employed as an architect and author, stated he was born [redacted] in the Borough of Manhattan on January 4, 1923.

DL 100-10461 in the presence of his wife, ANN BRENK.

He advised, further, he subtitled the completed film, which he estimated to be about one hundred seventy-five feet, excluding the leaders, having a running time of approximately twelve minutes at sixteen frames a second.

BRENK advised that upon completion of editing and subtitling, he sent the film to Technicolor, Inc. of Burbank, California, for further processing in an effort to achieve more uniformity in shading and coloring. He advised that the cost of the master film from Technicolor, Inc. amounted to a charge of $13.50 from each of the eighteen members.

He stated he received the first answer print from Technicolor, Inc. about three weeks ago and, after making a few changes at his request, Technicolor, Inc. furnished two other answer prints, which he received May 18, 1964.

BRENK explained that his group had signed a contract with Sanger-Harris Department Stores of Dallas, allowing Sanger-Harris exclusive rights of sale in the Dallas area only for a one-month trial period to allow his group to test public acceptance. He advised the completed and packaged film should be ready for sale in about the middle of June 1964 and the contemplated retail price will be $24.95.

BRENK advised that at no time in the past has he had occasion to meet, converse with, or contact LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

IRVING DAVID GEWERTZ, 6422 Walnut Hill Lane, advised he is self-employed as an architect and artist. He said he was born at New York City in the borough of Manhatten on January 4, 1923. GEWERTZ was interviewed in the presence of his wife, ANITA GEWERTZ.

GEWERTZ said that on November 22, 1963, he was employed by ROSCOE DeWITT, Architect, 2025 Cedar Springs Road, Dallas, Texas. GEWERTZ advised he knew of the arrival of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and his entourage on November 22, 1963, and the route that this motorcade would take through Dallas, Texas. He said he and his wife had planned to view the parade along with their son, MARTIN ANSON GEWERTZ, who was a sophomore at Hillcrest High School, Dallas, Texas. GEWERTZ stated that at around 11:50 a.m. or so on November 22, 1963, his wife and son came to his office. He said they all listened to the radio and followed the progress of the President upon his arrival at Dallas, Texas. He said that around noon, he, his wife, and son took up a position in front of 2025 Cedar Springs Road, which is on the north side of the street, and awaited the arrival of the Presidential motorcade. GEWERTZ said that at about 12:20 p.m. the Presidential motorcade passed his position. He said his son, MARTIN, had their Bell and Howell 8 mm Model 416 camera and was attempting to take movies of the motorcade as it passed. He said they had previously experienced difficulty with the electric eye on this camera and when his son was trying to take movies of the motorcade again experienced difficulty with the electric eye on the camera. He said he noticed his son shaking and banging the camera and generally showing frustration. He said his son finally was able to get a short movie sequence of the Presidential motorcade as it was disappearing on Harwood Street. GEWERTZ advised that because of the difficulty his son had had with the electric eye on the camera he became terribly upset because he had missed taking movies of the Presidential motorcade. GEWERTZ said he felt sorry for his son and told him they would go to the Trade Mart at 2100 Stemmons Freeway where the President was scheduled to speak.

GEWERTZ said he, his wife, and son got in their car and proceeded to the Trade Mart. He said they got as far as the service road opposite the Trade Mart and observed the car bearing President and Mrs. KENNEDY speed by on Stemmons Freeway. He said a Secret Service man was lying across the back of the car as it passed. GEWERTZ advised he did not know at the time what had happened but shortly learned on the radio that President KENNEDY had been shot. He said when he learned of this he proceeded to Parkland Hospital on Harry Hines Boulevard where President KENNEDY had been taken. He said they parked there for quite a while observing the activity and at approximately 2:00 p.m. the hearse bearing the body of President KENNEDY left the hospital. He said his son took a film sequence of the hearse as it left the hospital. GEWERTZ advised that following this he returned to work at about 2:30 p.m.

On the following day, November 23, 1963, GEWERTZ said he and his family visited the assassination site and along with many others took movies of this area.

Within a few days following the assassination GEWERTZ said he and his wife took the film that their son had taken of the Presidential motorcade to Sanger-Harris Department Store at Main and Lamar Streets, Dallas, for developing. He said they contacted BRYANT BOREN, the manager of the camera department there, and complained because the camera was not operating properly. He said he had previously informed BOREN of this and had been advised by BOREN to try one more roll of film before doing anything to the camera. GEWERTZ said in discussing the assassination with BOREN the thought developed of obtaining film sequences of the motorcade from others who might bring their film to Sanger-Harris for processing.

Following this, GEWERTZ stated his wife began telephoning various businesses along the route of the Presidential motorcade in an attempt to learn of others who had taken film sequences of the motorcade. He said that one of the people his wife contacted was Mrs. FRANCES HAYS, whose husband had taken a film sequence of the Presidential motorcade. He said she discussed this with Mrs. HAYS and then the two of them began calling additional people in an attempt to learn of other people who had also taken movies of the Presidential motorcade. By following this procedure GEWERTZ, his wife, and Mrs. HAYS got together a group of people who had taken film sequences of the motorcade and this eventually led to the formation by this group of the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated.

GEWERTZ advised the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated, had the thought of putting together film sequences of the Presidential motorcade into a movie and marketing it commercially. He said he felt that everyone should have an opportunity to view the last motorcade of President KENNEDY.

GEWERTZ stated this movie made by the Dallas Cinema Associates, Incorporated, is presently at Technicolor, Incorporated, Burbank, California, and should be available for sale sometime in June, 1964.

GEWERTZ exhibited a commentary which he said would be included with each roll of film sold and furnished a copy of this commentary which is as follows:

"After the tragic numbing hours of November 22, 1963 and its fateful aftermath had settled into its place in history, a pall of self-recrimination, misconceptions and unjust accusations still lingered in the minds and hearts of people in this country and abroad.

"Foremost amidst this background of suspicion was the besmirching of the City of Dallas and its citizens for the supposed hostility toward the person of the President and his entourage. Having witnessed the exact opposite of this in an unprecedented show of warmth and affection towards the President, his wife Jacqueline and the remainder of his party including the then vice-president, Lyndon B. Johnson, in the course of his motorcade through Dallas, a group of citizens endeavored to gather a photographic record of this particular event that would best illustrate what they saw and to show the world the pleasant warmth and enjoyment that surrounded the President on this, his last hour on earth.

"Upon investigation, it was found that the news media had no documentary film on the motorcade itself, having concentrated on the President's airport arrival and crowd scenes along the route, anticipating a complete story coverage on his luncheon address before the gathered leaders of the city of Dallas, a destination never realized because of the assassin's bullets. Thus it was that the only available filmed record of the Dallas motorcade itself was that taken by amateur movie-makers along the route of travel.

"After an exhaustive search was made to locate people who had taken movie film of this particular event, enough film was found to tell a coherent, poignant story of November 22, 1963, when a President and a city had a rendezvous with history.

"This film, 8 MM., 200 feet in length and in full color is being presented by Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc. P. O. Box 15521, Dallas, Texas, under the title, 'President John F. Kennedy's Final Hour, Dallas, Texas, November 22, 1963.'"

Mrs. IRVING (ANITA) GEWERTZ, 6422 Walnut Hill Lane, was interviewed in the presence of her husband, IRVING DAVID GEWERTZ. Mrs. GEWERTZ said she was born February 19, 1925, at Kansas City, Missouri. Mrs. GEWERTZ advised that on November 22, 1963, she and her son, MARTIN ANSON GEWERTZ, born December 3, 1948, at Dallas, Texas, as planned, went to her husband's place of employment, ROSCOE DeWITT, Architect, 2025 Cedar Springs Road, Dallas, Texas, to view the Presidential motorcade. She said she and her son arrived there around 11:30 a.m. She advised they listened to the progress of the Presidential motorcade and at about 12:05 p.m. she, her husband, and son took up a position in front of 2025 Cedar Springs Road, which is on the north side of the street, to view the Presidential motorcade as it passed this position. She said her son, MARTIN, had their 8 mm Bell and Howell camera with him and attempted to take movies of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and the motorcade as it passed their position at approximately 12:20 p.m. She said the camera was not working properly and her son was completely frustrated because he was unable to get a satisfactory film sequence of the motorcade as it passed. She said she and her husband felt very badly because of this and told their son they would go to the Trade Mart in Dallas where President KENNEDY was scheduled to speak. She advised they all got into the car and proceeded in the direction of the Trade Mart and when they arrived at Irving Boulevard and the service road of Stemmons Freeway they observed a number of pickets who were awaiting the President's arrival at the Trade Mart. She said there were eight or ten pickets carrying a variety of signs which were anti-President Kennedy and his policies and who also had tape over their mouths. She said she did not know the significance of the tape over their mouths but believed this was because of articles which had appeared in Dallas newspapers a day or so before the President's arrival. She said these articles encouraged the people to warmly welcome the President because of his visit to Dallas and not to engage in partisan politics. The tape over the mouth she said was a show by these pickets that they were being gagged and not able to voice their opinion.

She said that shortly after their arrival at this position they heard the sirens and saw the lights of the Presidential motorcade proceeding north on Stemmons Boulevard. She said the motorcade was proceeding at an unusually high rate of speed, which surprised them.

As it passed their position, she said she noticed a Secret Service man lying over the back of the President's car who was pounding with his fist on the hull of the car in an apparent show of frustration. Shortly after this, Mrs. GEWERTZ said she heard the announcement over the car radio that President KENNEDY had been shot and taken to Parkland Memorial Hospital. Upon learning this, Mrs. GEWERTZ advised she, her husband, and son drove to Parkland Memorial Hospital on Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, to see what else would develop. She said at approximately 2:00 p.m. they observed a hearse leaving the hospital and encouraged her son to take a movie of this which he did. She later learned this hearse bore the body of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

On the following day, Mrs. GEWERTZ stated she, her husband, and son visited the site of the President's assassination at the Texas School Book Depository building and took movies of this general area. She said they also went to the rooming house on N. Beckley Street where OSWALD had lived and took still photographs of this residence.

Within a few days Mrs. GEWERTZ said she and her husband took the film which their son had taken of the Presidential motorcade to the camera department at Sanger-Harris Department Store, Main and Lamar Streets, Dallas, to process it. She said they had previously contacted BRYANT BOREN, manager of the camera department, and informed him their camera was not working properly. She said BOREN advised them he could find no difficulty with the camera and instructed them to try another roll of film before sending the camera in for repairs. She said because of the difficulty their son had with the camera and because they had previously complained about it to Mr. BOREN they were somewhat bitter since the camera was not working properly at the time of the Presidential motorcade. She said BOREN informed them that several other people had brought film in for processing and he would attempt to obtain copies of these film sequences from them so they would have some record of the Presidential motorcade. Mrs. GEWERTZ said it was at this time she got the idea of telephoning residences and businesses along the route of the Presidential motorcade in an attempt to locate film. She stated after telephoning a number of people she located Mrs. FRANCES HAYS who had taken a film sequence of the Presidential motorcade. She stated she informed Mrs. HAYS what she was doing and Mrs. HAYS agreed to help her locate other film sequences of the motorcade.

Mrs. GEWERTZ stated in the process of contacting people who had taken film sequences of the Presidential motorcade she learned that WYMAN PARR, owner of the Glendale Camera Shop on S. Marsalis Avenue, Dallas, Texas, was also collecting film sequences of the Presidential motorcade. She said she contacted Mr. PARR and after some friction and disagreement with him, his group and her group finally got together and incorporated under the name of the Dallas Cinema Associates, Inc.

Mrs. GEWERTZ said it was her original intention to secure film sequences of the Presidential motorcade for her own use and to keep as a memorial to President KENNEDY. She said however after she had made a number of calls such interest was elicited from the people that she contacted that she decided any film sequences she might be able to put together should be made available to the general public. She said this was the reason the Dallas Cinema Associates was formed.

Mrs. GEWERTZ advised that RUDY BRENK, 4404 Ivy Street, Mesquite, Texas, the President of the Dallas Cinema Associates, edited the film sequences of the Presidential motorcade, and put it together into a movie. She said the movie is about 200 feet in length and has a running time of approximately 12 minutes. She said this movie at present is at Technicolor, Incorporated, Burbank, California, and should be ready for sale sometime in June, 1964. Mrs. GEWERTZ stated that in the process of telephoning various people along the route of the Presidential motorcade she learned that PHIL WILLIS, 2824 Ava Lane, Dallas, Texas, telephone No. EV 1-1326, had witnessed with his wife and daughter the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and had taken still photographs of the Presidential motorcade in the vicinity of the Texas School Book Depository building. Mrs.

GEWERTZ stated she also learned that O. B. ASHMORE, 4421 Hyer Street, Dallas, Texas, telephone No. LAkeside 8-5582, had taken still photographs somewhere in the vicinity of the Trade Mart, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. GEWERTZ said she did not know and to her knowledge never had any contact with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

THOMAS P. ALYEA, newsman, residence 2333 Lockhart, employed WFAA-TV, Communications Center, furnished the following information:

On November 22, 1963, he and RAY JOHN, also employed by WFAA-TV, were driving back from covering President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY's visit at Fort Worth, Texas, and were stopped at the traffic light located at Commerce and Houston Streets, Dallas, Texas, when a voice, later identified as Chief of Police CURRY, advised over the police radio "all units Code 3 Parkland." A few seconds later over the commercial radio, JOHN ALLEN, WFAA Radio Station, advised shots had been fired at the President at Houston and Elm.

ALYEA grabbed a fully loaded camera, a Bell & Howell, 70 DR, 16 mm., and three extra cans of film which, along with the one can of film he always carries in his back pocket, gave him 500 feet of film. ALYEA ran toward the intersection of Houston and Elm taking photographs as he went. Upon arrival at the intersection he began looking about for some sign of a struggle or an arrest. He did not see the President's vehicle which apparently was already racing toward Parkland Hospital.

He then noticed several people pointing toward the upper floors of the Texas School Book Depository building and he immediately ran inside along with a number of others who appeared to be law enforcement officers. Once inside, he filmed the search for the assassin and when the rifle was located on the sixth floor he photographed it in its original position. He also photographed the dusting of the rifle for fingerprints by the Dallas Police Department Laboratory man.

He remained in the building until about 2:30 p.m., before he was allowed to leave. He had been in the building about 45 minutes before learning the President had been hit by the rifle fire. During the time he was inside the building, he used up all 500 feet of the film.

officers inside the building but cannot identify anyone else by name. He did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD on November 22, 1963, and to his knowledge has never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He was the only cameraman inside the Texas School Book Depository to his knowledge on the early afternoon of November 22, 1963.

He had not previously contacted anyone in law enforcement regarding the film he had taken in the Depository since he had made no secret of it while filming and it had been used extensively in television broadcasts both from Dallas and from CBS, New York.

He advised the film has now been cut and spliced with other film regarding the assassination and it is no longer in the original five rolls. He stated WFAA would dub a copy of all of the 500 feet which they could locate and identify and furnish it to the FBI.

RE: PHOTOGRAPH IN SATURDAY EVENING POST RESEMBLING LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On December 11, 1963, a woman who identified herself as ALICE LEE GRAYSON, 1720 Bolton Street, Baltimore, Maryland, telephoned the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to advise that while reading the December 14 issue of the Saturday Evening Post, she noticed a picture of the Texas School Book Depository. The photograph was reportedly taken after the first shot was fired at President KENNEDY. It shows a man standing in the doorway of the Depository Building. Miss GRAYSON stated that the photograph showed the man had features resembling those of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and she believed this photograph might indicate that OSWALD was in a doorway of the building rather than in a window when the President was shot.

Date April 6, 1964

On December 31, 1963, Mr. MELVIN R. KURR, 838 Woodbine, Oak Park, Illinois, advised Complaint Clerk RANDALL L. SWAN of the following:

While watching a television rerun of the assassination of President KENNEDY on NBC, KURR and his wife believed they saw a man in the window of the building in the background of the picture. This man appeared to be firing a rifle and in the opinion of KURR, fired, worked the bolt of the rifle and fired again. After the second shot, the man threw the rifle to the side and stood up. Mr. KURR advised that both he and his wife believed this man had been wearing a suit and tie and was not dressed in the manner that OSWALD was dressed. KURR furnished Thermo-fax copies of the following communications, his letter to Mr. REX GOAD, NBC News Director and the answer received by him from Mr. GOAD:

On the upper right-hand corner of this film I believe I saw a man fire a weapon, reload and fire again, then throw the weapon to the side and at the same time stand up, look out of the window and then leave.

"If this was the case I would very much like to know (1) Why was this picture not blown up and printed in the news-papers?

(2) Why out of the millions of viewers, who saw the same film, no-one questioned who this man was?

(3) Could it be my imagination and if so why then did I see him work the bolt of the weapon when at this time it was unknown by the public that a bolt-operated weapon was used.

"As to it being my imagination, I should add that my wife also remembers seeing a man at the window of said building; but assumed if she saw it then it did not go unnoticed by all other viewers.

"I wonder if you would be so kind as to answer my questions. I should also like to know when N.B.C. plans to show this newsreel again on television.

RE IDENTIFICATION OF ASSASSINATION RIFLE

JAMES GRANT, 112 Kearny Avenue, Kearny, New Jersey, advised SA GORDON S. KIRTLEY, JR., on November 23, 1963, that he is a gunsmith and, therefore, familiar with the weapon he observed on television as the murder weapon in the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated that the weapon described as an Argentine Mauser is a Carcano Italian Mannlicher. He added that the weapon was made in both 7.35 mm (29 caliber) and 6.5 mm (26.4 caliber).

Mr. GRANT added that the weapon of the type in question is imported through two establishments, the Golden State Arms, Los Angeles, California, and Hunters Lodge, Alexandria, Virginia. He commented that these establishments distribute this type weapon to numerous retail stores.

WILLIAM FULTON, 5641 East Copper, Tucson, Arizona, furnished the following information:

FULTON, while watching television, viewed and heard a description of what he considered to be the murder weapon used in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. FULTON concluded that it must be a 6.5 caliber, bolt action rifle of Italian manufacture, bearing a four-power telescopic sight, and a "turned-down bolt". He recalled having noticed an advertisement for what he considered to be the identical firearm in two nationally circulated magazines and had located these advertisements; one was in the November, 1963 edition of "GUNS AND AMMO" and the other in the September, 1963 edition of "RIFLEMAN".

FULTON explained that KLEINS, 227 West Washington Street, Chicago 6, Illinois, carried advertisements for the weapon with what he described as the "unusual configuration of a turned-down bolt and a four-power, high-mounted scope".

He considered that the Chicago company may have turned the bolts down to accommodate the telescopic sight. He had not noticed any information to reflect the firearm with those specifications could be obtained originally from any other source.

FULTON desired to furnish the above information for possible assistance in this case.

Scope Sight on Assassination Rifle

The following investigation was conducted by SA ROBERT S. BAKER:

AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

SIMON ZERVOS, 1825 La Jolla Rancho Road, La Jolla, (a suburb of San Diego, California), on December 1, 1963, advised he had recently read or heard over the radio or television that the weapon used to assassinate President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was fitted with a scope sight manufactured by Pantechnics, Incorporated.

Mr. ZERVOS stated that in May of 1963, he purchased Pantechnics, Incorporated, of Solana Beach, California, from O. R. L. Industries, Bedford, Massachusetts. He said many of the Pantechnics company records were turned over to him, and he would be willing to check these records in an effort to establish whether or not LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a past customer of the company.

Mr. ZERVOS, on December 3, 1963, was advised that the assassination weapon and scope sight were purchased from Klein's, Chicago, Illinois.

WILLIAM J. WALDMAN, Vice-President, Klein's Sporting Goods, Incorporated, 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, was contacted regarding Klein's Purchase Order #1243, Klein's Sporting Goods, Incorporated, and other records of that firm pertaining thereto.

Mr. WALDMAN produced copies of these records which were re-examined in detail.

Purchase Order #1243 is one sheet of a multi-page document containing data from various purchases. Mr. WALDMAN explained that this Purchase Order sheet is the bottom page of a multi-page document, all pages of which are concerned in the purchase of Italian Mannlicher-Carcano Rifles. He noted in the center of this page a series of vertical columns each bearing the designation at its head "A/R." He noted that on an unused Purchase Order blank there would be contained several other pages, each with their leading edges extending to the vertical lines of the center columns appearing on the bottom page. Each subsequent page, he noted, would be narrower in width than the succeeding page and as a result would make reference only to a specific vertical column and the data contained thereon.

In the case in question, Mr. WALDMAN stated, the Purchase Order was addressed to Crescent Firearms, 2 West 37 Street, New York 18, New York, and bears an "Effective date" of January 15, 1962. This date, Mr. WALDMAN explained, is utilized for administrative purposes only by their firm and indicates when the Purchase Order was first initiated by someone of their firm. This date does not indicate in any way the date order was placed, the date of shipment, billing date, date of invoice, etc. In actuality, Mr. WALDMAN stated, this date has no bearing whatever on the shipment in question but is rather an administrative device utilized by his firm. He stated the date January 15, 1962, is correct.

Mr. WALDMAN noted that the Purchase Order in question makes various references to quantities of described rifles showing such figures as 200, 100 and 400; however, the column headed by Order Number 1243 dated January 24, 1963, and bearing a vertical line drawn through the column makes reference only to a shipment of 100 of described rifles which, he noted, is the shipment in question containing— Rifle #C2766.

Mr. WALDMAN stated that the figures in adjoining columns, namely "200" and "400" do not have direct reference to the shipment in question and have no reference whatever to the shipment of 100 rifles containing the specific weapon in question.

Mr. WALDMAN reiterated that this Purchase Order as shown makes reference only to an order and subsequent shipment of 100 Italian Mannlicher-Carcano Rifles, Klein's catalogue #C20-T749. He noted that at the bottom of the Purchase Order is noted a receiving record bearing date February 21, 1963, showing that ten packages which comprised this shipment of 100 rifles was received on that date via Lifschultz Freight weighing 750 pounds and utilizing bill of lading #3041342. Freight charges are shown as $39.53. Further, he noted that this form under column "Accounting Department" and "Extension" bears Klein's extension #85000 and shows that the receipt of the 100 rifles was recorded for accounting purposes on February 22, 1963. Continuing, Mr. WALDMAN stated that all entries contained on this Purchase Order were made by Klein's personnel.

Continuing, Mr. WALDMAN stated that this purchase of 100 rifles is further recorded on ten "Customers Invoices" of Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, 2 West 37th Street, New York 18, New York. Each of these invoices, he stated, makes reference to a specific carton in the shipment in question, each of which contains ten of the described rifles. The rifles contained in each carton are itemized by serial number on this customers invoice. The ten customers invoices show an accounting for the 100 rifles in the shipment and specifically to receipt of rifle, serial number C2766, which is recorded on Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, Customers Invoice #3620, which bears carton #3376 and lists this specific rifle as item #3 under caption "Serial Number."

Mr. WALDMAN stated that all ten of the customers invoices were prepared by Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, and all entries made thereon were apparently made by employees of Crescent Firearms, Incorporated. Mr. WALDMAN noted that this is an assumption on his part; however, he can state emphatically that these invoices are received by Klein's as shown and that the entries made thereon are not made by Klein's employees.

Mr. WALDMAN stated that further documentation of this shipment is shown by Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, invoice #3178, dated February 7, 1963, made to Klein's Sporting Goods, Incorporated, 4540 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, which is concerned directly with the shipment of previously described weapons including rifles bearing serial number C2766.

Completing the documentation, Mr. WALDMAN stated, is Klein's voucher and attached check, both bearing number 28966. The check is dated March 1, 1963, in the amount of $850 made payable to Crescent Firearms, Incorporated, and the voucher attached thereto bears date "2-7" for invoice #3178 in the amount of $850.

On January 7, 1964, Mr. JOHN W. SIPES, Deputy Director, Office of Munitions Control (MC), Department of State, and Mr. JOHN F. DEPENBROCK, Chief, Arms Traffic Division, MC, furnished the following information to Special Agent (SA) KENNETH J. HASER:

"An informant of unconfirmed reliability who is an officer in a surplus small arms company, advised the Office of Munitions Control on December 18, 1963, that he was in possession of firm evidence that the ammunition used to assassinate President KENNEDY was imported into the United States in contravention of Section 414(b) of the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended.

"The informant stated that the ammunition had been positively identified as Winchester Western 6.5 mm. (Italian); that the ammunition was manufactured by Winchester in 1951-2; and that it was furnished to the Government of Greece under the Greek Aid Program in 1952 or 1953. Further, the informant stated that two lots of this ammunition were exported from Greece to Canada by a Greek national named FONTINELLIS who was acting as an agent for International Firearms, Montreal, Canada. He advised that Mr. SUCHER is the principal stockholder in International Firearms Company. The informant continued that one of the two lots of the subject ammunition was sent from Greece to Canada after February 1, 1962. The informant alleges that this ammunition was imported into the United States in contravention to the section of the law that restricts the return to the United States for resale any ammunition of United States manufacture furnished to foreign governments by the United States under any foreign assistance program. He further alleges that there was no other ammunition of this type available in the United States, as it was manufactured specifically for the Greek Government under the Greek Aid Program. The informant has reason to believe that the ammunition was imported from Canada under the provision of the International Traffic in Arms regulations which exempts imports from Canada where the ammunition has come from a third country and has been in Canada more than one year. (22 CFR 123.23c)

"The informant believes that the ammunition was consigned to Century Arms in St. Albans, Vermont, based on his knowledge that Mr. SUCHER, the principal stockholder of International Firearms, is a brother-in-law of Mr. MANNEY WIGGINSBURG (phonetic), who operated Century Arms. Accordingly, the informant concludes that S. KLEIN could only have gotten the ammunition from Century Arms, who in turn obtained it from International Firearms."

Mr. SIPES noted that his informant's "angle" on this is that for years the small arms dealers have been trying to get something done about trans-shipment of ammunition via Canada to get around regulations, which adversely affects their business. SIPES explained that we have an arrangement with Canada allowing importation of various armament items, providing that the items have been in Canada at least one year. This latter condition seeks to eliminate in part shipments to Canada first which are intended for the United States.

Mr. SIPES also explained that a 1958 amendment to the Mutual Security Act of 1954 prohibits the reimportation of ammunition into the United States if this ammunition was originally sent to another country under the terms of any United States aid program, a device to protect our own industry to some extent. If the ammunition used in the assassination of President KENNEDY was part of any United States aid program shipment to Greece, it could not legally have been brought into the United States for resale except for personal use by a collector or for military use, notwithstanding the United States - Canada agreement.

Mr. SIPES stated that the Department of State is not taking any action with regard to investigating this allegation about the ammunition. He advised that State is definitely interested in doing whatever can be done to tighten up controls at the Canadian border with regard to ammunition importation and will probably have conversations with other interested government agencies in this connection. He stated that the Office of Munitions Control would be interested in receiving any information pertinent to this which the Bureau (FBI) might develop with regard to the information furnished by the informant.

Mr. HULEN V. WHITSON, 5017 El Campo, stated his wife's sister is a Mrs. DEWEY BRADFORD. Mrs. BRADFORD and her husband live in Austin, Texas. The BRADFORDs were in Fort Worth, Texas, during the early part of November, 1963, to attend the football game between Southern Methodist University and Texas which was to be played at Dallas, Texas. DEWEY BRADFORD is interested in antique guns and asked Mr. WHITSON if he knew of any places in Fort Worth where he might buy some. He accompanied DEWEY BRADFORD and wife to Morgan's Gun Shop on Jacksboro Highway. DEWEY was looking at the guns when a young man walked into the gun shop and asked for some rifle ammunition. WHITSON stated he did not pay any attention to this young man and was not in a position to say whether he was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or not. He stated he doubted that this individual was identical because LEE HARVEY OSWALD did live across the street from him when LEE HARVEY OSWALD was about 17 years of age. He saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the neighborhood on several occasions and, therefore, believed if this had been the individual in the gun shop he would have recognized him.

Mr. H. V. WHITSON, 5017 El Campo, Fort Worth, Texas, stated he has lived at that address for the past thirty-six years.

During the period about 1956, he was a salesman on a used car lot owned by CLIFF MAGERS at 901 North Main Street, Fort Worth, Texas. About 1956, he noticed a young boy about sixteen years of age riding a bicycle. He saw this boy approximately five or six times in a neighborhood Gulf Service Station. This Gulf Service Station is located almost directly in front of his home, but the service station is on Camp Bowie Boulevard. The owner of this service station, J. C. SWAFFORD, told him this boy and his mother, Mrs. OSWALD, lived at 4936 Collinwood Avenue, which is about one block distant from his home, but is partially visible from the Gulf Service Station. As he recalls, this young boy was always alone and was usually getting air for his bicycle tires when he saw him in the Gulf Service Station. WHITSON stated he never had occasion to talk with this boy. WHITSON also noticed a woman sitting on a bus bench in front of this service station and the service station owner told him it was Mrs. OSWALD, the mother of the boy. As he recalls, he saw Mrs. OSWALD two or three times. He is not sure he could have identified LEE HARVEY OSWALD or Mrs. OSWALD at this date. He stated Mrs. OSWALD and son lived at the above address for three or four months. After they moved from the neighborhood, he has never seen Mrs. OSWALD or her son.

Shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, the Gulf Service Station owner, Mr. SWAFFORD, called WHITSON's attention to the fact Mrs. OSWALD and her son, LEE HARVEY, had lived at 4936 Collinwood Avenue for three or four months about 1956. He then recalled having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD on a bicycle in his service station on some five or six different occasions.

WHITSON stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to his knowledge, had never frequented the used car lot owned by CLIFF MAGERS.

J. C. SWAFFORD, 1051 Haskell, Fort Worth, Texas, stated he operated the Gulf Service Station at 5001 Camp Bowie Boulevard in Fort Worth for the past 10 years. In April 1956 Gulf opened a new station there.

During the summer of 1956 or 1957 Mrs. OSWALD and her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, moved into one of the apartments at 4936 Collinwood Avenue. The apartment house is across the boulevard about one hundred yards from the Gulf Service Station but is visible from the service station. SWAFFORD stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD was about sixteen years old and came in his station on two or three occasions to get air in his bicycle tires.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD caught her bus in front of his service station. She did not own a car. There is a cement bench at the east corner of his station for bus patrons. Mrs. OSWALD would sit there. If it were raining, she and other bus patrons would come inside his station and wait for the bus. That is how he met Mrs. OSWALD. She was very talkative. She told him she worked for some downtown store, but he cannot now recall the place.

He never saw Mrs. OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD together.

He believes Mrs. OSWALD stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD was her son.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD was always alone. LEE HARVEY OSWALD never said anything unless SWAFFORD spoke to him. On these occasions LEE HARVEY OSWALD would answer but never did any talking. Mrs. OSWALD and her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, only lived at 4936 Collinwood for about two or three months. He has never seen either of them since they moved.

About two to three years later an article in one of the Fort Worth newspapers carried LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture and the story stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD had moved to Russia.

When the assassination of President KENNEDY occurred, he read that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been arrested. This was the first time he knew that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had returned from Russia.

He stated to his knowledge, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had no friends while living at 4936 Collinwood Avenue. He stated he had no idea who might remember Mrs. OSWALD, unless it would be someone who lived at 4936 Collinwood during the time the OSWALDS lived there.

She is unable to recall any description of the individual and is unable to identify LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the OSWALD mentioned above.

On April 6, 1964, JOHN L. VOGEL, Bookkeeper, 210 West Irving Boulevard, made available the receipt books for October 1, 1963, through November 22, 1963, for Swiss Cleaners No. 2, formerly operating at 223 West Sixth Street.

On April 6, 1964, a review of the receipt books, as described above, by SA QUIGLEY and ROBERTSON failed to reflect anyone having used the name OSWALD.

The following individuals at Dallas, Texas, on the dates indicated, advised SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY telephonically the machine laundry mark "030" or "30 030" and the machine dry cleaning mark "B9738" are not identifiable with marks used in their laundry:

On April 7, 1964, HARRY YOUNG, City Manager, Dallas Tailor & Laundry Supply, 502 Second, Dallas, Texas, advised SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY and SA THOMAS T. TRETTIS, JR., he has been in the laundry supply business for over twenty years.

Upon viewing a photograph of the grey cotton jacket, K42, he stated, in his opinion, the laundry mark in the collar would be "030" and not "30 030." He feels the first "30" at best is a partial printing which did not take and the last "030" is the actual number.

He feels the "030" was printed by a National Laundry Marking Machine, in view of the spacing, which is wider than the normal laundry marking machine. The National machine is spaced slightly larger, since it uses an inked pad rather than a ribbon as other machines. The extra spacing on the National machine is necessary to keep the print from blotting when applied to clothing.

He stated the dry cleaning tag "B9738" was made by a Tag-O-Lectric Machine.

In his opinion, the only way to identify the laundry mark and dry cleaning mark with a particular laundry would be to match the machine to the printing on characteristics peculiar to a particular machine. The machines are not widely used in the Dallas area, and are used for the purpose of eliminating the use of the customer's name.

Mr. YOUNG also pointed out the "030" could possibly have been printed by a Tag-O-Lectric Machine, as it can be employed to mark directly on the clothing.

On April 8, 1964, HARRY L. KRISS, President, Southern Cleaners & Laundry Supply Company, Inc., 150 Glass Street, Dallas, Texas, advised SA QUIGLEY and SA E. J. ROBERTSON he has been in the business in the Dallas area for thirty years.

Upon viewing a photograph of the grey cotton jacket, K42, he stated the laundry mark in the collar could have been made by a National type machine. The dry cleaning tag in the jacket was no doubt made by a Tag-O-Lectric Machine. Neither machine is widely used in the Dallas area, to his knowledge. He does recall selling a Tag-O-Lectric Machine to the BAKER Brothers, who operated the Irving Cleaners in Irving, Texas, several years ago.

He stated he would have no way of determining how many cleaners in the area did have Tag-O-Lectric Machines and knew of no way to obtain a list of such cleaners.

On April 8, 1964, Mrs. EDITH HANCOCK, Lasco Supply Company, Irving Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, advised SA QUIGLEY and SA ROBERTSON the Lasco Company deals in cleaner supplies, but does not handle any type of marking machinery.

On April 8, 1964, RUTH SCOTT, Irving Cleaners, 116 South Jefferson, Irving, Texas, advised SA QUIGLEY and SA ROBERTSON the Tag-O-Lectric Laundry & Dry Cleaning Marking Machine has not been used for over four years. The cleaners now uses a hand-marking system which is faster and more efficient.

Upon viewing the photograph of the grey cotton jacket, K42, she advised the laundry and dry cleaning marks are not familiar to her.

On April 8, 1964, Mrs. V. R. FORD, Ford's Cleaner, 2815 Carpenter Road, Irving, Texas, advised SA QUIGLEY and SA ROBERTSON she has been in the cleaning business for thirty-six years in the Irving, Texas, area.

Upon viewing a photograph of the grey cotton jacket, K42, she advised no one in the laundry and cleaning business in the Irving area used marking equipment like the one on the jacket.

The following investigation was conducted by SA R. NEIL QUIGLEY:

At Grand Prairie, Texas

On April 10, 1964, BILLIE BRAMHALL, B & M Cleaners, 3012½ East Main (formerly Gene's One-Hour Cleaners), on viewing a photograph of the gray jacket, K42, advised the laundry mark and dry cleaning mark were not familiar to her.

At Dallas, Texas

On April 9, 1964, HARRY YOUNG, City Manager, Dallas Tailor and Laundry Supply, 502 2nd Avenue, advised the only Tag-O-Lectric machine in Irving, Texas, belongs to the Baker brothers who operate the Irving Cleaners.

YOUNG advised AL DAVIS, Textile Marking Machine Company, Kansas City, Missouri, residence 1844 E. 48th Street, Kansas City, Missouri, is the representative for Tag-O-Lectric laundry marking machine in the Texas-Louisiana area and would probably know the location of each machine in that area.

On April 9, 1964, JIM WYATT, Assistant General Manager, Blue Ribbon Laundry and Dry Cleaning Service, 3824 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, advised telephonically his firm uses a Tag-O-Lectric type marking machine, however, no letters are used in their coding system, only numbers.

On April 10, 1964, HYMAN ZELAZNY, Executive Vice President, Dallas Tailor and Laundry Supply, 502 2nd Avenue, advised telephonically the dry cleaning tag "B9738" on the gray jacket, K42, is without a doubt the mark of a Tag-O-Lectric marking machine since it uses a double offset stapling device which attaches to the fiber strip in the center.

Dallas, Texas

The only nine machines in Dallas to Mr. ZELAZNY's knowledge are located at White Star Laundry and the Blue Ribbon Laundry. In Fort Worth, Texas, the only such machines to his knowledge are located at the Modern Laundry, Sunshine Laundry, Hill's Cleaners and Launderers, and Rodriguez Laundry.

He feels the "B" prefix on the white colored fiber strip indicates a sub station and therefore a large chain type laundry operation. He feels it quite possibly is a large chain operation in Louisiana such as the Chalemette chain.

The following individuals advised telephonically on the dates indicated they could not identify the laundry mark or the dry cleaning mark on the gray jacket, K42:

Under date of April 11, 1964, the Kansas City Office advised that on that date Mr. AL DAVIS, Textile Marking Machine Company, Kansas City, Missouri, had advised that he does not know the location of all cleaners using Tag-O-Lectric machines in Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas, and New Orleans, Louisiana. Under date of April 14, 1964, the Bureau advised that none of the other items of OSWALD's clothing available contained any dry cleaners or laundry markings that were similar or could be associated with the "30 030" laundry marking and the "B9738" dry cleaner tag appearing on the K-42 jacket.

Detective Edward Thompson, Laundry Mark File, Technical Research Bureau, furnished the following information concerning the laundry and/or cleaning marks located on K-42, a gray jacket:

The Laundry Mark File maintained by that department pertains to laundry and cleaning establishments in the northeastern section of the United States, with occasional submissions from other sections of the country. The imprinted number, 30-030, and the tag containing the number B-9738, were not identified in this file, however, each geographic section of the country has its own system of marking and filing.

In general, however, in regard to the 30-030 mark, the first group of numbers (including any letter prefix which might be indicated by the blur preceding the first 3) pertains to the retail cleaner or launderer and the second group to the individual customer. The imprinting of the number into the cloth is indicative of a steam laundry or a dry cleaning plant which sends its work out. The B-9738 stapled ticket is indicative of a "one hour cleaner" or an establishment which performs work on the premises. For an effective check, however, the area where the garment was cleaned or laundered would have to be known, according to Thompson.

CHARLES CHUCK

Mr. CHARLES R. PEZET, 5738 Goliad Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he operates the H. L. Green Watch Repair Company located in the main floor of the H. L. Green Company Department Store, 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas. Mr. PEZET advised that prior to November, 1962, his watch concession was located in the basement of this store; that he moved his operation to the third floor of this same building just prior to Thanksgiving day, 1962, and has been in his present location on the main floor of the H. L. Green Company since March, 1964.

Mr. PEZET was shown photographs of the expansion identification bracelets belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD and he stated he at one time stocked cheap bracelets similar to the ones in the photographs but does not have this type of bracelet in stock at present. He said he was unable to recall whether the bracelets he previously stocked were identical with those in the photographs and would be unable to resolve this since his records would not show the type of bracelet he previously handled. Mr. PEZET advised that bracelets of this type have the decorative border machine engraved on the name plate when they are received and that the only additional engraving would be the name desired by the customer. He examined the engraved name "Marina" on Mrs. OSWALD's bracelet and advised this work was very similar to work done by him. He said it appeared to have been done by an electric Burgess Vibro-graver type machine and that although he does not use one at present he has employed this type of engraver in his work in the past. Mr. PEZET said that in order to be positive he would like to engrave the name "Marina" on some test plates to compare with the name shown in the photograph. He then engraved the name MARINA on two test plates and compared these engravings with the name appearing on Mrs. OSWALD's bracelet. After a careful comparison, Mr. PEZET advised it was his belief he had engraved this name on the bracelet. He observed that due to the vibration of the engraving tool, no two name engravings are exactly identical but that since the formation of the letters in the name MARINA was the same as his writing, it is his belief that he engraved this name.

Mr. PEZET was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he advised he was unable to recall OSWALD as a customer of his watch shop at any location in the H, L. Green Store.

He added however that it was quite possible OSWALD may have purchased articles in his shop and he would not recall him since he waits on numerous persons during the course of his business day. He stated he could not recall OSWALD as a watch repair customer at his shop. He advised that until one month ago he did not keep a name file on customers and accordingly was unable to determine whether OSWALD might have been a customer of his at any time.

He was shown photographs of the bracelet of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that while the bracelet appeared similar to those sold by him at one time he is positive the name "Lee" engraved thereon was not done by him.

Mr. PEZET was shown a girl's silver-type metal expansion identification bracelet bearing the stamped mark "Japan" which had been purchased by SA J. HALE McMENAMIN on April 8, 1964, at the jewelry counter of the H. L. Green Company. After examining the bracelet construction and machined decorative border engraving on the bracelet, he advised it was his opinion the bracelet was identical to Mrs. OSWALD's bracelet before the name "Marina" was added.

Mr. PEZET recalled that in October, 1963, the electric engraving tool being used by the girls working at the jewelry counter of the H. L. Green Company broke down and he was asked whether they could use his Burgess Vibro-graver. He said since he was using a larger engraving machine at this time he readily agreed.

He advised he did not normally do engraving work for the purchases made by customers at the H. L. Green jewelry counter but does recall that in the first week in October, 1963, he believed on a Thursday evening, he received a call at his shop on the third floor from one of the H. L. Green Company's managers on duty that night who asked him whether he might be able to engrave a purchase for a customer. The manager, who he believed was either KEN WOMACK or BOB WEBER, informed him that the girl who normally did do the engraving was away from the counter and he desired PEZET to expedite the sale. He said he proceeded to the jewelry counter of the H. L. Green Company on the main floor where he engraved an item purchased by the customer. He was unable to recall whether this was a bracelet or some other item. He said neither could he recall the nature of the engraving nor could not definitely say whether he had engraved the name MARINA at this time. Mr. PEZET pointed out that since the article was not purchased from him he paid very little attention to the customer and the article and could not now recall specific details concerning either. He said the jewelry counter was using his engraving machine at this time but had also repaired their own machine and he could not state which machine he used to make this engraving. Mr. PEZET, who is 6' tall, stated that while engraving this purchase he had the impression of a shorter person who was the customer standing near by awaiting the finished article. He added he did not observe this person closely at any time and was unable to say whether it was a man or a woman.

Miss JUANITA DAVALOS, Merchandise Buyer, Jewelry and Cosmetics Department, H. L. Green Company, 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, viewed photographs of a silver-colored expansion identification bracelet bearing the engraved name "Marina" and advised it was similar in design to a bracelet sold by the H. L. Green Company. She then viewed a bracelet presented to her by SA J. HALE McMENAMIN which was purchased from the jewelry counter of this store after which she stated she thought it definitely to be the same design as the bracelet appearing in the photographs. Miss DAVALOS continued that the border design on the name plate of the bracelet is done by the manufacturer and purchased with the border design already etched; however, any names engraved into the name plate are done by employees of the H. L. Green Company.

Similarly, Miss DAVALOS viewed photographs of an expansion bracelet bearing the engraved name "Lee" on the name plate of the bracelet and identified this bracelet also as being handled by the H. L. Green Company. She stated that on occasion she waits on customers at the jewelry counter and when engraving is required is capable of this type of skill but that the names MARINA and LEE as they appear on the above bracelets were not engraved by her.

Miss DAVALOS advised that the H. L. Green Company is one of the stores owned by the McCrory, McLellan, Green Stores Corporation and in the Dallas - Fort Worth area there are four other stores in this chain which handle these bracelets both of which are purchased from Originalities of New York Corporation, 890 Broadway, New York City. She stated the bracelet purchased by SA J. HALE McMENAMIN is purchased as a girl's hand-engraved expansion identification bracelet, order No. 1231, while the bracelet bearing the engraved name "Lee" is believed by her to be identical with order No. 1220 and purchased from Originalities of New York as a men's expansion identification bracelet.

Miss DAVALOS stated she is not aware that any other stores in Dallas carry this bracelet other than the H. L. Green Company at Mrs. PEGGY LINDIG, 3111 W. Jefferson Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised she is employed as cashier and payroll clerk at the H. L. Green Company department store, 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas. She said the personnel records system of the store is not set up by individual departments due to the turnover of personnel and transfers within the store of employees from one department to another. She said for this reason it would not be possible to determine from her records the names of girls who had been employed at the jewelry counter of this store during the period March through October, 1963.

Mrs. LINDIG suggested that these names be obtained from either JUANITA DAVALOS, merchandise buyer for the jewelry and cosmetic department, or from Mrs. VELMA SCOTT, the floor supervisor who arranges the working hours for girls in these departments. Mrs. LINDIG stated neither Mrs. DAVALOS nor Mrs. SCOTT are required to keep records for these girls and that both would have to rely on their personal knowledge and recollection of these employees.

BRENDA JOYCE DANIEL, 8407 Nisqually Street, Dallas, Texas, who has been employed by the store from October 24, 1962, to the present and is presently employed at the stationary counter.

Mrs. VELMA SCOTT, 770 Bethpage Street, Dallas, Texas, advised she is employed as supervisor of Department No. 25 at the H. L. Green Company department store, 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, and this department is made up of the drug and cosmetic counters. She said one of her duties as supervisor is to arrange the working hours for the girls employed at the jewelry counter.

Mrs. SCOTT advised she has no records to show exactly which girls worked at the jewelry counter during the period March through October, 1963, but from notations in her workbook regarding the hourly schedules, she believes the following girls were employed at the jewelry counter during this period of time:

PAT STONE
DORIS BRADLEY
SANDRA KINSLOW and BRENDA DANIEL.

Mrs. SCOTT said she did not have complete names or addresses for these girls but believed they could be obtained from the payroll records.

Mrs. SCOTT advised she believes a young school girl worked part time at this counter but stated she could not recall her name.

Mr. KENNETH WOMACK, 3915 Buena Vista, Apartment D, Dallas, Texas, advised he is currently employed as manager of the M. E. Moses Store, Pleasant Grove Shopping Center, Dallas, Texas having formerly been employed as a store manager with H. L. Green Stores, Inc., 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. WOMACK advised that in early October, 1963, at 6:00 or 7:00 PM, which would have been on a Thursday evening as the store does not stay open that late on other nights, he recalls that the girl at the jewelry counter called for him to assist in engraving an identification bracelet. He stated he examined the bracelet and decided he would rather obtain the services of Mr. CHARLES PEZET, who runs a watch repair concession within the confines of the H. L. Green Store, and called upon him to come down from his quarters on the third floor of the store and perform this piece of engraving.

WOMACK stated he cannot now recall who the girl was on duty at the jewelry counter that particular evening and paid no particular attention to the customer and had no conversation with this customer. He pointed out the only thing he can recall is that the customer was a male, but from viewing the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised he could not determine whether this customer was identical with OSWALD.

Mr. WOMACK viewed a photograph of a bracelet belonging to MARINA OSWALD which bears the engraved name, "MARINA", on the name plate of this bracelet and advised that although he has done some of this engraving in the past, the engraving on this bracelet was definitely not performed by him. He pointed out, however, after viewing photographs of this bracelet, he does recall that the bracelet mentioned above, which he felt required the services of CHARLES PEZET to engrave, was similar in type to that appearing in the photograph as he recalls the name plate on the bracelet had a curved rather than a flat surface.

Green Company department store in downtown Dallas from March, 1963, until the first week of April, 1964. She said during this time she was mainly employed at the jewelry counter although she did fill in at other counters occasionally. She said her normal hours of employment were from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily with the exception of Thursday of each week when she worked from 9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Mrs. BRADLEY was shown photographs of the expansion identification bracelets belonging to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD. She said she feels sure these bracelets are exactly the same as identification bracelets which were sold at the jewelry counter of the H. L. Green Company store. Mrs. BRADLEY stated that occasionally articles were sent to Mr. PEZET on the third floor of the Green Company department store building when other personnel were not available to engrave them. She said she also recalls that Mr. PEZET came to the counter on several occasions to engrave articles for the employees.

The following investigation was conducted by SA'S RAYMOND J. FOX and J. HALE MC MENAMIN at Dallas, Texas:

Mrs. LUCILLE MC MILLEN, 340½ Lake Cliff Drive, advised on April 13, 1964, that Mrs. PATRICIA STONE no longer resides at this address. She said that Mrs. STONE rented an apartment in her home for a period of a few months and moved out about February 15, 1964. Mrs. MC MILLEN advised that Mrs. STONE left no forwarding address, but she believes that her mother, Mrs. BEULAH FREMMING, 1431 Arizona Street, Dallas, Texas, may know her present address.

Mrs. BEULAH FREMMING, 1431 Arizona Street, Dallas, Texas, advised on April 15, 1964, that her daughter, PATRICIA STONE, was employed by the H. L. Green Company Department Store, 1623 Main Street, Dallas, Texas, until approximately three weeks ago. Mrs. FREMMING advised that PATRICIA is married to TOMMY STONE and that until Saturday, April 11, 1964, both resided at 4315 Bryan Street in Dallas. Mrs. FREMMING stated that PATRICIA's husband is [an alcoholic] and that she quit her job in order to take care of him. She said that PATRICIA and her husband moved from the apartment on Bryan Street on Saturday, April 11, 1964, and she does not know their present address.

Mrs. FREMMING stated that PATRICIA and her husband have moved on various occasions in the past and the only way she could learn her daughter's address was when PATRICIA called her after several weeks' absence. She stated that she and her husband have made numerous efforts to locate her daughter, PATRICIA, since last Saturday with no success.

Mrs. FREMMING advised that, in the past when TOMMY STONE has been [drinking] for several weeks, PATRICIA has taken him to his parents' home in Grand Saline, Texas, and she feels they may be living with his parents at present. She said that TOMMY STONE's father is EUGENE "DUCK" STONE, that he resides at Grand Saline, Texas, and has telephone number YO 2-3528. She said that EUGENE STONE is [also an alcoholic and not reliable]. Mrs. FREMMING stated that TOMMY STONE's grandmother is very reliable and may know where PATRICIA STONE and her husband, TOMMY, are residing. She said that TOMMY STONE's grandmother is Mrs. S. T. SCOTT, SR., and that she resides on Frank Street, Grand Saline, Texas.

Mrs. PATRICIA STONE, 4315 Bryan Street, Dallas, Texas, appeared at the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on April 16, 1964, at which time she advised she had just returned to Dallas from Grand Saline, Texas, where she had been residing with the parents of her husband, TOMMY STONE.

Mrs. STONE stated she was employed by the H. L. Green Company department store, 1623 Main, Dallas, Texas, from September, 1963, to March, 1964, and that during this time she was employed mainly at the jewelry counter although she also did some work at the cosmetics and novelty counters.

Mrs. STONE was shown photographs of the identification bracelets of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, and, after examining both, she stated they appear to be identical with bracelets sold at the jewelry counter of the H. L. Green Company. She said these bracelets appear to be the same as the bracelets sold to the store by Originalities, Incorporated, of New York City.

Mrs. STONE examined the engraving on both the bracelets and she said that neither the name LEE nor the name MARINA was engraved by her. She pointed out that she estimated that approximately twenty of these bracelets were sold each week and it was extremely difficult to recall any particular sale. Mrs. STONE advised she was unable to recognize the engraving on the bracelets but stated the engraving could have been done by most any of the employees. Mrs. STONE said that in addition some engraving was done at this counter by Mr. CHARLES PEZET who operated a watch repair counter in the store and that this engraving could have been done by him.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was shown to Mrs. STONE and she advised she could not recall having seen him as a customer at the store at any time.

Mrs. STONE stated she and her husband plan to move back into an apartment at 4315 Bryan Street, Dallas, Texas.

Miss LINDA CAROL RAGLAND, 3110 Minoco Street, Dallas, Texas, advised she was employed by the H. L. Green Company department store at downtown Dallas from August 22, 1963, to October 4, 1963. She said during this period of time she worked at the jewelry counter from 1:00 p.m. until the store closed. Miss RAGLAND advised she did quite a bit of jewelry engraving during this period and that the evening hours were her busiest. She was shown photographs of the identification bracelets of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA OSWALD, and she identified both bracelets as being identical with the type sold at the H. L. Green Company department store. She examined the name LEE engraved on one of the bracelets and said she is positive she did not engrave this name. With regard to Mrs. OSWALD's bracelet, she said she did not believe she had engraved this name. Miss RAGLAND stated that due to the vibrations of the engraving tool it was difficult for her to determine who might have engraved the name MARINA on this bracelet. She pointed out that an identification bracelet is particularly difficult to engrave since it cannot be placed flat on the table and the expansion band interferes with the engraving procedure.

Miss RAGLAND advised that since her last day of employment with the H. L. Green Company store was October 4, 1963, she clearly recalls that on the night before she worked until 9:00 p.m. and this was a Thursday evening. She said it is her recollection that during that evening a man purchased a bracelet as a gift however she is unable to recall who engraved this bracelet. She was shown photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and was unable to identify him as a customer at the store at any time. She advised however that it is possible he could have been the person who purchased the bracelet on the Thursday evening before she left this employment but could not definitely identify him.

Miss RAGLAND advised she believes that CHUCK PEZET engraved some articles at the counter on her last evening at the store but since so many sales were made she is unable to recall the exact circumstances under which he did the engraving.

D. Traveling Bags of LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Date 5/4/64

SHAN BENTLEY, Supervisor, Stationery Supplies, Continental Trailways, 1500 Jackson Street, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited photographs of two traveling bags determined to be possibly the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and identified as Commission exhibit A-1, a blue cloth zipper bag, and Commission exhibit C254, a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4" bag.

Upon viewing photographs depicting portions of two paper stickers affixed to the top surface of the "Bee 4" bag and a photograph depicting the top portion of a baggage check tied to the handle of the "Bee 4" bag, BENTLEY identified the adhesive stickers as sensitized identification labels utilized by Continental Trailways for customers' convenience in further identifying the bag and BENTLEY identified the string tag tied to the handle as the top portion of a Continental Trailways baggage check.

BENTLEY furnished samples of the adhesive backed identification labels and it was noted they are printed on slick white paper in red ink and the words "Continental Trailways" appear across the top of the sticker followed by three ruled lines and the words "Name, Address, City." Printed across the bottom of the sticker are the words "Route of the SILVER EAGLES." BENTLEY advised these stickers have a sensitized adhesive back indicating the stickers are affixed to the baggage by peeling off a paper backing which protects the adhesive surface. BENTLEY advised the adhesive backed identification label has been in use by Continental Trailways since May of 1962 and that previously the company utilized string-tie identification labels similar to the baggage checks.

BENTLEY stated his records reflected that the first order for the new sensitized identification label was placed in April, 1962, for one million labels and that delivery was made on May 23, 1962, at which time the labels were immediately dispersed to all Continental Trailways outlets. The labels are described as 1 1/4 inches by 2 7/16 inches in size and are shipped 1,000 per roll. BENTLEY stated these labels are purchased from the Printer, Allen, and Company, Post Office Box 169, Arlington, Texas.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

With regard to the photograph depicting a torn upper portion of a baggage check, BENTLEY advised the baggage check affixed to the handle of the "Bee 4" bag in the photograph bears the number 2-1125-2 in the upper right-hand portion and the words "Form No. T-13" in the upper left-hand portion indicating that this is a portion of a baggage check discontinued since January, 1964. BENTLEY stated the baggage check now in use is identical in format with the exception that the printer's mat number set forth in the upper right-hand corner is now No. 2-4672-3 and that the upper left-hand corner now bears the Continental Trailways symbol instead of the words "Form No. T-13." BENTLEY added that in addition the new tag is printed in black ink whereas the discontinued tag was printed in blue ink. BENTLEY advised the first order for new baggage check No. 2-4672-3 was first placed with the printer August 31, 1963, however, due to the large backlog of old tags in the hands of the printer, this baggage tag was still in use as of January, 1964, and, in fact, the last order of the old tag was received in early January, 1964. BENTLEY was unable to advise as to the significance of the printer's mat number located in the upper right-hand corner of the baggage check, however, BENTLEY stated baggage checks for the Continental Trailways system are printed by the Ennis Business Forms Company, Ennis, Texas.

BENTLEY observed further that the brown manila patch at the top portion of the baggage check bears the words "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas." BENTLEY advised that all baggage checks for the Continental Trailways system which are dispersed through the stationery supply center in Dallas bear the same designation "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas," and that this indicates simply that the baggage checks are handled through the Dallas stationery supply center. BENTLEY stated that the Dallas stationery supply center supplies all Continental facilities throughout the states of Texas and Arkansas and the Rocky Mountain area. He stated that other stationery supply centers are located in Omaha, Nebraska; Alexandria, Virginia; Wichita, Kansas, and Los Angeles, California, and that supplies including baggage checks dispersed through those centers would accordingly bear the name of the supplying city.

With regard to the photograph depicting yellow chalk markings on the side of the "Bee 4" bag, BENTLEY advised he is sure the Continental Trailways system within the realm of his experience does not utilize such system and he feels sure this method of identification is not in use by any other bus company.

CYRUS H. TOLMAN, Director of Traffic and Sales, Continental Trailways, 315 Continental Avenue, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited photographs of two traveling bags identified as Commission exhibit A-1, a blue cloth zipper bag, and Commission exhibit C254, a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4" bag, which bags were possibly the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Upon viewing the photographs depicting two partial stickers affixed on the top surface of the "Bee 4," TOLMAN readily identified these stickers as portions of sensitized adhesive identification labels which are furnished to customers at the time the customer checks his baggage into the bus station preparatory to his departure. The customer is requested at that time to fill in his name, address, and city on the face of the label and to affix the adhesive backed label on to his, the customer's, bag. TOLMAN advised these sensitized labels are the only such labels utilized by Continental Trailways in the general course of business and that the two photographs of the portions of the top surface of the "Bee 4" bag represent the top right-hand portion of one label and the other portion represents the lower left-hand corner of an identification label.

TOLMAN pointed out further that the sensitized adhesive identification label has only been in use by Continental Trailways Company since the spring of 1962. Prior to that time, TOLMAN advised, the company had utilized a string-tie identification tag similar in appearance to the baggage check.

With respect to the baggage check, TOLMAN advised the torn baggage check portion depicted in the photograph as being affixed to the "Bee 4" bag is of a type discontinued by Continental Trailways about January, 1964, indicating this tag was undoubtedly issued to a customer prior to that time.

TOLMAN advised the format of both tags is identical with the exception that the words "Form No. T-13" set forth in the upper left-hand corner of the discontinued tag have been replaced with a Continental Trailways symbol and the new tag is now printed in black ink whereas the previous tag was printed in blue ink.

TOLMAN viewed the photograph of the "Bee 4" reflecting markings in yellow chalk consisting of the numerals "9/26" and a third indistinguishable mark above the "26." TOLMAN advised that Continental Trailways has a strict policy against marking or defacing the customers' bags in any way and all identifying markings and data are affixed to the customers' bags by string-ties or adhesive labels. TOLMAN stated further that he was not aware of any system of marking customers' bags with chalk utilized by any bus company, railroad, or airline operating in the Continental United States. TOLMAN suggested however that this system of marking would be unique in itself and might possibly be prevalent in Mexico or used by other foreign travel services.

LEONARD F. GEHRIG, Financial Vice President, Ennis Business Forms, 214 Knox Street, Ennis, Texas, advised that for the last two years his company has been commissioned by Continental Trailways to print baggage checks as well as other material for that company in accordance with a nationally adopted format. GEHRIG exhibited a Continental Trailways baggage check formerly printed for and utilized by Continental Trailways bearing in the upper right-hand corner of the tag the number 2-1125-2 and bearing in the upper left-hand corner "Form No. T-13." GEHRIG explained that the words "Form No. T-13" represent a format recommended by the Interstate Commerce Commission for use by all common carriers and is a generally accepted and widely used form. GEHRIG explained that the number set forth in the upper right-hand corner represents a printing mat number and that all baggage checks printed according to that format bear a printer's mat number for reference purposes.

GEHRIG stated the initial order for this tag was received by his firm from Continental Trailways on March 14, 1962, requesting a printing of 600,000 baggage checks tags using printer's mat No. 2-1125-2 for format. GEHRIG advised there was a total of two orders under printing mat No. 2-1125-2 and that periodic shipment of these orders was made in 1962 and 1963 as follows:

Order of March 14, 1962 - For 600,000 tags - blue ink

10/30/63 -	Sixteen cartons -	Shipped -	155,000 tags
		TOTAL	250,000 tags

GEHRIG advised that the initial order for the new tag under printer's mat No. 2-4672-3 was placed August 31, 1963, by Continental Trailways and indicated only minor changes from the previous baggage check in that Continental requested the new tag be printed in black ink and that the words "Form No. T-13" in the upper left-hand corner be replaced with the Continental Trailways copyrighted symbol. GEHRIG advised the first shipment of the new baggage check was made on January 13, 1964, for 175,000 tags which were shipped to Continental Trailways, Dallas.

GEHRIG advised that the printer's mat No. 2-1125-2 has no significance in establishing when a particular tag was issued or through what Continental Trailways station other than to signify the tag was furnished to a customer sometime between April, 1962, and January, 1964. GEHRIG advised that all baggage checks furnished to the Dallas Office of Continental Trailways likewise bear the words "Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas," on the brown reinforcing patch at the top portion of the baggage check.

BARKER, Desk Clerk, registered LEE HARVEY OSWALD on October 3, 1963. McREE said to the best of his recollection he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD when he registered into the YMCA.

It measures approximately 24 inches long by 18 inches high by 11 inches wide. RAE G. BARKER, Desk Clerk, Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 605 North Ervay, advised he was on duty as Desk Clerk from 4:00 PM to 12:00 PM, on October 3, 1963. BARKER said, upon a review of receipts for October 3, 1963, he would estimate that he registered LEE HARVEY OSWALD into that YMCA, Room 601, between the hours of 4:00 PM and 4:30 PM. He said he could not recall registering OSWALD, inasmuch as he registers numerous people throughout the day. DALLAS, TEXAS

BARKER was exhibited a color photograph of Commission Exhibit A-1, a cloth zipper bag, blue in color, with black plastic edgings and two black plastic handles. This bag has a zipper at the top and on one side. It measures approximately 21 inches long by 11 inches high by 9½ inches wide. There are no markings on this bag, which was believed to be the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BARKER was also exhibited a color photograph of Commission Exhibit C254, which is a cloth bag, green in color, known as a "Bee 4" bag. It measures approximately 24 inches long by 18 inches high by 11 inches wide. This bag has markings on one side in yellow which appear to be the date "9/26" and an unreadable mark above the numeral "26" which may be an initial. On the top portion of C254 are two fragments of what appear to be bus company stickers and a small decal believed to be the trademark of the bag. Attached to the handle of C254 is the top portion of a baggage check of the Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas. This bag was also believed to be the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

BARKER said he cannot recall ever seeing these bags and stated he does not know what type luggage LEE HARVEY OSWALD had at the time he registered into the YMCA on October 3, 1963.

DALLAS, TEXAS

Mrs. EVA MARSHALL, 5932½ Oram, advised she worked part time as a Desk Clerk at the Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 605 North Ervay, Dallas, Texas. Mrs. MARSHALL said she was so employed between the hours of 8:00 AM and 4:00 PM, on October 4, 1963. Mrs. MARSHALL said she recalls the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD and recalls she checked him out of the YMCA sometime between noon and 4:00 PM to the best of her recollection. She said she recalls the incident because she thinks the name OSWALD is a very ugly name. She said to the best of her recollection OSWALD was alone.

Mrs. MARSHALL was exhibited a color photograph of Commission Exhibit A-1, a cloth zipper bag, blue in color, with black plastic edgings and two black plastic handles. This bag has a zipper at the top and on one side. It measures approximately 21 inches long by 11 inches high by 9½ inches wide. There are no markings on this bag, which was believed to be the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. MARSHALL was also exhibited a color photograph of Commission Exhibit C254, which is a cloth bag, green in color, known as a "Bee 4" bag. It measures approximately 24 inches long by 18 inches high by 11 inches wide. This bag has markings on one side in yellow which appear to be the date "9/26" and an unreadable mark above the numeral "26" which may be an initial. On the top portion of C254 are two fragments of what appear to be bus company stickers and a small decal believed to be the trademark of the bag. Attached to the handle of C254 is the top portion of a baggage check of the Continental Trailways, Dallas, Texas. This bag was also believed to be the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

After viewing the above photographs, Mrs. MARSHALL stated she does not recall what bags OSWALD might have had with him when he checked out of the YMCA on October 4, 1963. She stated he probably placed any bags he had on the floor on the other side of the four-foot high desk from where she was standing. She stated she would not have been able to see any bags thusly placed. She stated she recalls nothing further about this incident.

Mrs. MARY BLEDSOE, 621 N. Marsalis, Dallas, Texas, advised LEE HARVEY OSWALD formerly rented a room at her residence from October 7 through 14, 1963.

Mrs. BLEDSOE viewed photographs of two traveling bags believed to have possibly been the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and identified as Commission exhibit A-1, a blue cloth zipper bag, and Commission exhibit C254, a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4" bag, for possible identification. Mrs. BLEDSOE stated she recalls that at about 3:30 p.m. on Monday, October 7, 1963, OSWALD entered the house carrying a small zipper-type bag similar in appearance to the photograph depicting Commission exhibit A-1, however, she is unable to state positively the bag in his possession at that time is identical to the photograph of Commission exhibit A-1. She advised she could recall no name tags or other identifying data affixed to the bag and has no way of identifying the bag further.

Mrs. BLEDSOE stated further that on that Monday afternoon OSWALD left the rooming house shortly thereafter and returned in a little while carrying a second larger bag but she stated she is unable to say if this bag is identical to the photograph of the "Bee 4" bag exhibited to her. She stated she paid little attention to the second bag and would be unable to state even if the bags were of the same type. She stated further she does not recall observing any tags or labels or other markings on the larger bag which she observed OSWALD carrying and, therefore, she has no way to further identify it.

Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON, 1026 N. Beckley, Dallas, Texas, owner of rooming house where LEE HARVEY OSWALD formerly resided in October and November, 1963, was exhibited photographs of two traveling bags identified as Commission exhibit A-1, a blue cloth zipper bag, and Commission exhibit C254, a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4" bag, for possible identification.

Upon viewing these photographs, Mrs. JOHNSON advised she recalls seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD in possession of a bag similar in size, type, and color to the photograph of the small blue bag identified as Commission exhibit A-1. She advised she does not recall observing OSWALD in possession of this bag at the time he rented the room but stated she believes she observed him leaving the rooming house at about 11:30 a.m., Saturday morning, November 16, 1963, which she believes was the only weekend OSWALD spent at the rooming house and stated she observed him walk across the street in the direction of a coin-operated laundromat. She advised she was of the impression at that time that the bag contained dirty laundry and that he was taking the bag and contents to the laundry to wash his clothes. She stated OSWALD returned to the rooming house about 45 minutes to one hour later and took the bag to his room. Mrs. JOHNSON advised that upon observing the photographs of the bags she does not recall any tags or other marks of identification on the small bag.

Mrs. JOHNSON further advised she does not ever recall seeing the large "Bee 4" type bag at any time in her rooming house or otherwise in the possession of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, furnished the following information, after examining colored photographs of items designated as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C254. A-1 is a blue cloth zipper bag, approximately 21" x 11" x 9½". C254 is a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4", approximately 24" x 18" x 11".

On October 4, 1963, when Mrs. PAINE arrived at her residence in Irving, Texas, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had already arrived at her home and she did not see what luggage, if any, he brought with him at that time.

On October 7, 1963, when OSWALD left Mrs. PAINE's home for Dallas, Texas, he had with him a bag similar to that depicted in the photograph of Commission Exhibit C254, and she believes this is a photograph of the bag which he had with him at that time.

Mrs. PAINE advised she does not recall seeing the figures "9/26" at any time on the bag carried by OSWALD on October 7, 1963, or on a similar bag at any time.

At the time RUTH PAINE and MARINA OSWALD moved some of the OSWALD effects from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Irving, Texas, in Mrs. PAINE's Chevrolet Station Wagon, she does not specifically recall any bags resembling Commission Exhibits A-1 and C254.

Photographs of the fragmentary stickers and tag on Commission Exhibit C254 were shown to Mrs. PAINE, at which time she stated she does not recall seeing these before and does not know when they were put on Commission Exhibit C254.

On April 24, 1963, RUTH PAINE recalls taking LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the Continental Trailways Bus Depot in Dallas, Texas, at which time he took his luggage into the bus station, apparently checked it, and returned to her car. She recalled he had two green duffel bags, a tan, portable, Russian-made radio, and some suitcases, but cannot specifically recall whether these suitcases resembled the photographs of Commission Exhibits A-1 and C254.

ROBERT OSWALD was interviewed at the office of WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE, attorney, Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas, and furnished the following information:

He examined colored photographs of items designated as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C254. A-1 is a blue cloth zipper bag approximately 21" x 11" x 9½". C254 is a green cloth bag known as a "Bee 4", approximately 24" x 18" x 11".

OSWALD advised that he is sure that these are photographs of two bags belonging to his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, deceased, and that he first saw them about June 1962, at which time LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA, moved into the ROBERT OSWALD home at 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas. This was after LEE and MARINA had returned from Russia. They stayed at ROBERT OSWALD's house for three or four weeks, leaving about July 1962 and taking the two bags, depicted in the photographs, with them when they moved.

ROBERT OSWALD examined the photographs of fragmentary stickers and a tag found on C254 and stated that he does not recall ever seeing these items on Commission Exhibit C254. He further stated he does not know when they were affixed to Commission Exhibit C254. He examined what appears to be a "7" in the photograph of one of the fragmentary stickers and stated that while he had never noticed this sticker before, he believes that the "7" is a part of the address 7313 Davenport Street, Fort Worth, Texas, which is ROBERT OSWALD's previous address where he lived from May 1, 1957, to March 4, 1963. He stated that from time to time, his brother, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, used this as a home address since ROBERT OSWALD was the only one in the family whose residence was fixed during this period. On March 4, 1963, ROBERT OSWALD moved to Route 5, Box 140, Malvern, Arkansas.

ROBERT OSWALD examined the marking "9/26", above which appears an initial in the photograph of Commission Exhibit C254, and stated that he does not recall seeing this marking previously and does not know the significance of this marking and does not know when it was placed on the bag.

ROBERT OSWALD examined replicas of the fragmentary tag and stickers found on Commission Exhibit C254 and stated that he cannot recall seeing any such items or fragments thereof at any time on Commission Exhibit C254.

ROBERT OSWALD stated that he has no idea whether LEE HARVEY OSWALD had the bags, identified as Commission Exhibits A-1 and C254, with him in New Orleans, Louisiana, or in Mexico City, or whether he had them in his possession when he arrived in Dallas in October 1963, since he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD from Thanksgiving 1962 until November 22, 1963, when he saw him in the Dallas City Jail.

ROBERT OSWALD advised that he has no knowledge of what, if any, buses were utilized by LEE HARVEY OSWALD between Dallas and New Orleans, New Orleans and Mexico City, or Mexico City and Dallas, and, in fact, knows first-hand of no bus trips made by LEE HARVEY OSWALD using Continental Trailways buses.

At 6:30 p.m. on November 24, 1963, an anonymous male caller telephonically advised SA EDWIN D. KUYKENDALL that at about 5:30 p.m. he learned from an unidentified sack boy at Wyatt's Supermarket, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, Irving, Texas, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD on Thursday, November 21, 1963, had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. He said he could furnish no further details concerning this matter and does not know if it is true or how the boy found out this information.

The above anonymous male caller sounded as if he was a normal, stable individual, but said he did not desire to identify himself.

On November 25, 1963, SA EMORY E. HORTON proceeded to Irving, Texas, and found the Irving Sports Shop was closed. RAY JOHN, Television News Department, Channel 8, WFAA-TV, corner Young and Houston Streets, Dallas, Texas, advised that he recalls that on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he arrived at his office at approximately 1:00 P.M. to coordinate the recent news events.

JOHN advised that he received a telephone call sometime between 3:00 and 3:30 P.M. of that day from an anonymous male caller, who stated that he believed "OSWALD" had had a rifle sighted at a gun shop located in the 200 block on Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas. JOHN advised he interpreted the name "OSWALD" to mean LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he recalled asking the anonymous caller where he obtained this information and that the caller declined to elaborate. The caller did not support his statement by any other corroborating information, and for that reason JOHN did not place too much credence in the story.

JOHN advised, however, he decided to offer this information to law enforcement for whatever it might be worth, and he, accordingly, called the office of J. WILL FRITZ, Captain, Homicide and Robbery Division, Dallas Police Department, at about 3:45 P.M. and furnished this information to Detective FAY TURNER of that Division.

JOHN advised he could recall the anonymous caller had a very husky, deep bass voice and was definitely a male.

JOHN stated he has never had occasion, to his recollection, to talk to either Mr. GREENER or Mr. RYDER of the Irving Sports Shop, either in person or by telephone, and in any case feels he would be unable to recognize the voice of the anonymous caller if he heard it again.

JOHN advised the caller was on the line only a matter of seconds and that no other conversation took place, to the best of his recollection.

Mr. CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, 2015 Rosebud, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, which GREENER stated he owns.

Mr. GREENER stated he cannot recall stating to anyone that he could fix the date that the Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" was prepared between November 4 and 8, 1963, and does not recall stating it appears the gun for that tag was brought in between those dates. He said he only recalls stating he was out of Texas during the period November 1 through 13, 1963, and he is confident that if the gun represented by that tag was brought in it was brought in while he, GREENER, was out of the store as he has no recollection whatsoever regarding the transaction.

Mr. GREENER was asked if there is any question in his mind that a gun represented by the repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" was brought into the store. Mr. GREENER said he had answered the previous question as he did as he was recently interviewed by a representative of the President's Commission and that person pressed him, GREENER, on the point of whether the pertinent repair tag represented an actual gun and repair job. Mr. GREENER said it is his opinion that the repair tag represents a bona fide transaction pointing out that DIAL RYDER has been employed by him, GREENER, for the past six years and during that period he has found RYDER to be a good, steady, reliable employee and he has never known of RYDER doing anything wrong, therefore, he has every confidence in RYDER. He said he, GREENER, goes away and leaves the entire business in RYDER's care "and I never worry a minute about the business."

Mr. GREENER stated that the number on the pertinent repair tag means absolutely nothing and is of no use whatsoever in attempting to fix the date that the repair tag was prepared. He stated the repair tags come in boxes of approximately 500 and when they open a box they dump them out on the workbench and make no effort whatsoever to use them in sequence. He stated that when work is brought in the person accepting the work will reach over, pick up a repair tag, and fill it out and they may take a tag from any part of the batch of tags lying on the workbench.

GREENER stated that the fact that the claim check portion was still attached means nothing because in nine out of ten cases the claim check stub is not detached from the repair ticket and given to the customer. He pointed out that he has found that to require a claim check is not practical as most customers will not bring the claim check with them when they pick up their equipment, therefore, he does not make any effort to require claim checks.

Mr. GREENER stated that he did cause a review to be made of his cash register tapes for the ten day period in early November, 1963, when he was away from the store and found several entries for even $6.00 amounts. He pointed out that due to the number of $6.00 entries found he realized that would be of no help in determining when the work called for on the pertinent repair tag would have been picked up, therefore, he made no record of the $6.00 entries located.

Mr. GREENER stated that they, the GREENERs, have checked every way possible to pin down the date that the above referred to repair tag was prepared and/or the item picked up by the customer and "there is no earthly way the date can be more closely established."

DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard (BL 3-4876), was interviewed at his place of employment, Irving Sports Shop, 221 E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. Mr. RYDER said he first noticed repair tag No. 18374 which bears the name of "OSWALD" as the owner of the gun to be repaired on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He stated that on that occasion he, RYDER, was cleaning off his workbench, it being cluttered with various tools, shop towels, and repair tags, and it was during this cleaning up that he noticed the tag bearing the name "OSWALD." He pointed out that the tag attracted his attention as the name "OSWALD" had been mentioned frequently in the news on November 22 and 23, 1963.

Mr. RYDER stated that prior to finding the repair tag, he had no recollection of doing any work for a person named OSWALD even though he had heard the news of the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had seen his picture on television on numerous occasions on November 22 and 23, 1963.

Mr. RYDER said he usually prepares repair tags in pen as he carries a ballpoint pen in his shirt pocket but does recall that on one occasion on an unrecalled date during the first two weeks of November, 1963, when he had used a pencil during the greater part of a day. He recalled that on the date he had used a pencil he made a trip to Cullum and Boren Company, Dallas, Texas, and picked up some items of unrecalled nature. He said he has not made any review of his records to try to identify the day that he used a pencil and visited Cullum and Boren Company in downtown Dallas as it would be very difficult to determine that date from his records. Further, if the date were determined he questions that it would be of any real significance as far as establishing the date that he prepared repair tag No. 18374 because he does not use a pen exclusively, pointing out that frequently a customer will bring a gun or other work into the store and he, RYDER, will pick up a repair tag and pencil from his workbench and prepare the tag. He stated that on other occasions he will sign items in pencil if a pencil is handy or if someone hands him a pencil when giving him an invoice or other item to be signed.

JOYCE (Mrs. BOB G.) HOLLAWAY, 1241 Marlynn, Irving, Texas, (BL 4-7191) was interviewed at the home of Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH, 315 South Jefferson, Irving, Texas. Mrs. HOLLAWAY said EDITH WHITWORTH is her, HOLLAWAY's, mother.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said she and her husband have two sons; they being JEFFRY LYNN HOLLAWAY, who was born October 10, 1963, and BRYAN DOUGLAS HOLLAWAY, who was born October 28, 1961. Mrs. HOLLAWAY said her children are Mrs. WHITWORTH's only grandchildren.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY recalled that soon after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, Mrs. WHITWORTH told her that when she, WHITWORTH, first saw the picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television she thought he looked familiar. Later, when Mrs. WHITWORTH saw pictures and/or heard the descriptions of OSWALD's wife and children, Mrs. WHITWORTH then thought she recognized the OSWALDS as a family that had been in WHITWORTH's furniture store in the recent past and whom Mrs. WHITWORTH referred to a sports shop. She said her mother mentioned the family that came into the furniture store had two small daughters, as Mrs. WHITWORTH said she told that family that they and her, WHITWORTH's, daughter should get together as the HOLLAWAYS had two small sons.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said she understands there was another woman in the furniture store at the time the above-referred to family came into the store, but she, HOLLAWAY, does not know the identity of that person.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said her mother undoubtedly referred the family to the Irving Sports Shop as that was the only sports shop in that area of Irving, Texas.

Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH, 315 S. Jefferson (BL 3-2538), stated she formerly operated the Furniture Mart, a furniture store, at 149 E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, having closed the business during the latter part of January, 1964.

Mrs. WHITWORTH said she is confident in her own mind that the man, woman, and two small children who visited the Furniture Mart on November 6, 7, or 8, 1963, as she has previously related, were LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MARINA OSWALD, and two small children.

Mrs. WHITWORTH stated that on the occasion of the visit, LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered the store and asked for an unrecalled part for a gun. Mrs. WHITWORTH said she told him the gun shop had moved and directed him to a gun shop that had a gunsmith that was located nearby. She stated she does not specifically recall which gun shop she referred OSWALD to but in all probability referred him to the Irving Sports Shop which was only one block east of the Furniture Mart. She stated she might have referred him to Ed's Pawn Shop, 616 E. Irving Boulevard, which is operated by ED FULBRIGHT. She explained that WARREN GRAVES previously operated a gun shop in the space occupied by the Furniture Mart but GRAVES sold out to FULBRIGHT in early 1963 but continued to work for FULBRIGHT at Ed's Pawn Shop, therefore, she might have referred OSWALD to that shop in view of her acquaintanceship with GRAVES.

Mrs. WHITWORTH recalled that after she gave OSWALD directions to the gun shop he noticed that she had furniture and stated he would be needing some furniture within two or three weeks and started looking around. She said she started showing him used furniture and talking to him trying to determine what he was really interested in and during this period they were joined by a woman who was carrying a baby and accompanied by a two year old girl. She said she later saw pictures of the woman on television and in the newspapers and now knows her to be MARINA OSWALD, wife of the late LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She started talking about the children and LEE HARVEY OSWALD told her that the baby was two weeks old at that time which brought to mind her grandsons as one was born October 10, 1963, and the other was born October 28, 1961, which made their birthdays near that of the OSWALD baby. She further pointed out that her older grandson was near the age of OSWALD's older daughter.

Mrs. WHITWORTH stated she knows that the couple who visited the Furniture Mart on the above occasion were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD. She said LEE HARVEY OSWALD was wearing a white shirt and a dark sweater while MARINA was wearing a car coat believed to be blue. She said she has no recollection how the two year old daughter was dressed and only recalls the baby was wrapped in a blanket of unknown color and description.

EDWARD ED FULBRIGHT, owner, Ed's Pawn Shop, was interviewed at his place of business, 616 E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. Mr. FULBRIGHT stated he bought out W. A. GRAVES in January, 1963, at which time GRAVES was operating a small gun shop in the space occupied by the Furniture Mart on E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. FULBRIGHT stated that GRAVES continued to work for him, FULBRIGHT, for a period of four weeks after he bought the business, with GRAVES being terminated on February 16, 1963. He stated during this period of time GRAVES worked at Ed's Pawn Shop, 616 E. Irving Boulevard, as a gunsmith and he, FULBRIGHT, has not had a gunsmith or performed any repair work on guns since GRAVES was terminated.

Mr. FULBRIGHT stated he has observed numerous photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD during recent months and he has no recollection whatsoever of ever meeting or seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD and specifically has no recollection of OSWALD ever visiting Ed's Pawn Shop or making inquiry regarding any type of gun repair.

Mrs. GERTRUDE (J. T.) HUNTER, TEXAS was interviewed at her residence, 141 S. Hastings, at which time she furnished the following information:

Mrs. HUNTER stated she visited in the Furniture Mart, a furniture store previously located on E. Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, frequently during the latter months of 1963. She explained the Furniture Mart was operated by Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH and she, HUNTER, would go to the furniture store on Wednesday and/or Thursday afternoon of each week to make plans with Mrs. WHITWORTH for attending the Irving High School football games that were held on Friday evenings. She said she always arrived at the Furniture Mart between 1:00 and 2:00 p.m. and would leave between 4:00 and 4:15 p.m.

Mrs. HUNTER recalled that on one of her visits which she feels sure was November 6, 7, 13, or 14, 1963, she was at the Furniture Mart visiting with Mrs. WHITWORTH when a young man who Mrs. HUNTER later learned was LEE HARVEY OSWALD came into the store and asked if the gunsmith was in explaining that he, OSWALD, wanted something fixed on his gun, but Mrs. HUNTER does not recall the nature of the work he wanted performed. Mrs. HUNTER said she does not recall that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had a gun in his hands at the time he was in the store. She recalled Mrs. WHITWORTH referred OSWALD to an unrecalled gun shop which had a gunsmith and she only recalls the place to which OSWALD was referred is located east of the Furniture Mart in Irving, Texas. She recalls the place to which OSWALD was referred is to the east as OSWALD started to turn east on to Irving Boulevard when he left, noting that Irving Boulevard is a one-way street west. She said that she, HUNTER, told OSWALD it would be necessary for him to proceed west on Irving Boulevard to the traffic light, turn left one block, and then back east to the gun shop to which he had been referred.

Mrs. HUNTER recalled that during the conversation with OSWALD, who was accompanied by his wife and two small girls, Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH had jokingly referred to trading a little boy for one of the OSWALDS' little girls so each family would have a boy and a girl. She stated that in referring to the little boys Mrs. WHITWORTH was making reference to her grandsons.

Mrs. HUNTER stated that on the occasion of the visit to the Furniture Mart LEE HARVEY OSWALD, his wife, and two children were the only persons in the car driven by OSWALD and she recalls the car as being a 1957 or 1958 Ford, two-tone blue and cream. She said she is confident that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was driving the car as there was no one else in the car with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MARINA OSWALD, and their small daughters.

Mrs. HUNTER said she is confident the car was a blue and cream 1957 or 1958 Ford as she has friends in Houston, Texas, who own a blue and white 1958 Ford and her brother-in-law has a 1957 Ford, therefore, when the OSWALDs parked in front of the furniture store, she observed the car and immediately thought of her friends in Houston, Texas.

Mrs. HUNTER said she is definite that the man and woman with small children who visited the Furniture Mart on the above referred to occasion were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD with their children. She said when she, HUNTER, first saw pictures of the OSWALDs on television and in the newspapers, she was sure she had seen them but could not immediately place the occasion that she had seen those persons. She said that a few days later she again visited the Furniture Mart and at that time she recalled the couple who had visited the store and realized they were LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD. She said she then mentioned this to EDITH WHITWORTH and Mrs. WHITWORTH told her that she, WHITWORTH, had previously realized the couple who visited the store were the OSWALDs but had not mentioned this fact to Mrs. HUNTER.

Mrs. HUNTER stated that on the occasion of visiting the Furniture Mart, MARINA OSWALD was not neatly dressed, wearing a jacket of unrecalled description but believed to be either orchid or purple in color. She stated she recalls LEE HARVEY OSWALD was neatly dressed, wearing unrecalled casual clothing and a jacket of unrecalled description.

It should be noted that previous investigation has established that Mr. H. S. AIKEN, Bookkeeper, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, made available the official payroll records for the Texas School Book Depository, which records specifically covered employment of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

These records reflected that OSWALD first worked for this company on October 16, 1963, and worked continuously at eight hours per day from October 16, 1963, through November 22, 1963, without missing any day's work. During this period of time he was off only on Saturdays and Sundays, and November 11, 1963, which was a company holiday.

It should also be noted that previous investigation has reflected that Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Manager, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, advised that the men working at the warehouse of the Texas School Book Depository have regular working hours of 8:00 A.M. to 4:45 P.M., five days per week, with a lunch period from 12:00 noon to 12:45 P.M. He stated, however, that they do not have to punch time clocks, and there was no one who kept a strict accounting of the time they took for lunch. Mr. TRULY advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was one of these employees, and these are the hours he was assigned to work.

LEON HUMBERSON, Manager, Wyatt's Food Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, was asked if any information had come to his attention to the effect that one of the sack boys at that store had any information to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. HUMBERSON said he had not received any such information and very seriously doubted that any employee would have information like that without it coming to his attention.

HUMBERSON said he would contact all of his employees at Wyatt's Food Store and question them to determine if any of them had any information to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop. He also said he would determine from them if they had any information at all which would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

LEON HUMBERSON, Manager, Wyatt's Food Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, stated he questioned all of the employees at that store to learn if any had any information that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. He stated that all advised him they had no information relating to this incident and none which would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

HUMBERSON further advised he is positive in his own mind, because of the notoriety the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY had reached at that time, that if any employee had any information relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD it would have been a common topic of discussion among all the employees at that store.

HUMBERSON stated the Wyatt's Food Store located at the Plymouth Park Shopping Center is the only Wyatt's Food Store located in Irving, Texas.

Miss NAOMI GABRIEL, Administrative Assistant to Sales Manager, R. L. Polk and Company, 7168 Envoy Court, Dallas, Texas, publishers of Polk's City Directories for the Dallas - Fort Worth area, furnished the following information relative to preparation of the City Directories by her firm:

Miss GABRIEL explained that the Dallas division of R. L. Polk and Company covers a six-state area of the southwestern portion of the United States and that the company employs in this area approximately two hundred travel enumerators who are continuously compiling resident information of principal communities throughout this six-state area. Groups of travel enumerators are dispersed to these areas where scheduled compilations are made and the company enumerators then hire local individuals in their respective communities to conduct a door-to-door canvass to obtain the desired information. Each resident is asked to supply the following information: head of household; wife (or spouse); number of residents 18 years of age or older; occupation of all occupants at each address; whether householder owns home or rents; whether residence has a telephone.

The house-to-house canvasser is furnished a list of specific addresses and is asked to obtain information regarding occupants at all addresses, including apartment dwellers and occupants of rooming houses who have taken up residence in excess of one month. The canvasser is required to make three personal contacts in an effort to obtain the desired information, and if canvasser is unable to contact the resident on third attempt, a self-addressed card is left at the residence with the request it be filled out and forwarded to R. L. Polk and Company, Dallas. If the card is not returned within seven days, the canvasser will resort to second-hand information, that is, neighborhood contacts, in an effort to obtain the information.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Miss GABRIEL advised the canvass is so comprehensive the company estimates less than one-half of one per cent of all residents of a community are not listed and this is usually at their request. In many of these instances a householder may desire not to be listed in the directory, but in such cases the available information regarding the householder is listed anyway, unless he furnishes a personal, signed letter to R. L. Polk and Company confirming this request. A check of these records by Miss GABRIEL revealed no such letter having been received from an OSWALD.

Miss GABRIEL advised, further, that upon completion of the compilation, the results of the canvass are reviewed by checkers at the Dallas office for correct spelling and other entries and are then sent to the R. L. Polk and Company printer in Hutchinson, Kansas, for final assembling and binding.

Miss GABRIEL advised her records reflect that the 1963 Irving, Texas, Directory canvass was started December 3, 1962, and was completed January 5, 1963, and the completed directory was delivered to R. L. Polk and Company customers in April 1963. The canvass for the 1963 Dallas Directory was started September 22, 1962, and completed January 12, 1963. The completed directory was delivered to Polk customers June 21, 1963.

The canvass for the 1964 Dallas Directory was initiated December 1963 and completed March 19, 1964, and is presently being printed at the R. L. Polk and Company plant, 1 South Lorraine Street, Hutchinson, Kansas. This directory is expected to be delivered to directory customers around June 1, 1964. The canvass for the Irving, Texas, Directory was started May 4, 1964, and is expected to take five weeks to complete. It is contemplated this directory should be ready for distribution in August 1964.

The Fort Worth Metropolitan Directory was delivered to directory customers in November 1963 and the Fort Worth

Suburban Directory was delivered October 6, 1963. The canvass for the 1964 Fort Worth Metropolitan and Suburban Directories has not yet been initiated.

Miss GABRIEL advised the results of the canvass for the 1964 Dallas Directory which is now being printed are not available at the R. L. Polk and Company Dallas office, and a proof copy of the composite directory is not expected to be received by their office until the end of May, 1964.

Detective FAY M. TURNER, Homicide and Robbery Division, Dallas Police Department, advised he recalls that on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he was on duty in the offices of Captain J. WILL FRITZ and he received a telephone call from one RAY JOHN, who he knows to be a member of the news staff for Channel 8, WFAA-TV, Dallas. To the best of his recollection, this call was received in his office at approximately 3:45 to 5:00 p.m. DALLAS, TEXAS

He advised JOHN told him that he, JOHN, had just received a call at the Channel 8 offices from an anonymous caller to the effect that "OSWALD" had taken a rifle to a gun shop located in the 200 block on Irving Boulevard on November 21, 1963, to have the rifle "sighted-in." TURNER stated he checked the city directories in his office and determined that the Irving Sports Shop was located at 221 E. Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas, and this appeared to be the only shop of its type within several blocks of that address. TURNER stated he contacted the Irving Sports Shop and talked to a Mr. GREENER, manager of that establishment, regarding this information as received from the anonymous caller and that GREENER told him he and his employee, RYDER, had discussed the matter of the assassination in connection with repair work they may have done in their shop but that neither could remember having done any work for LEE HARVEY OSWALD and in particular could not recall having performed any work on a Mannlicher Carcano rifle which rifle was believed at that time to be the assassination weapon.

TURNER advised he has no information whatsoever indicating the identity of this anonymous caller other than that furnished to him by Mr. RAY JOHN of Channel 8 news and in fact was not aware of whether the caller was a male or female prior to this interview. TURNER advised further that he has discussed the matter of this anonymous call in connection with the Irving Sports Shop with other members of his department and none were able to furnish any substantial information leading to the identity of this individual.

Mr. CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, 2015 Rosebud, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at his place of business, Irving Sports Shop, 521 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas.

Mr. GREENER stated that he first saw and learned of the existence of an Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" on a date that he is confident was November 28, 1963. He explained that he recalls this occurred on a date when the store was closed that was a few days after the President was assassinated; therefore, he is sure that it was Thanksgiving day, November 28, 1963. He said he was contacted by representatives, names unknown, of a television station and he accompanied them to the Irving Sports Shop where pictures were made, which pictures later appeared on a television program.

Mr. GREENER said he was also contacted by a reporter of the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper, who said he, the reporter, had talked to DIAL RYDER by phone regarding the work performed for someone named OSWALD before RYDER had been interviewed by an Agent of the FBI. Mr. GREENER stated that he does not know the name of this reporter and has no knowledge as to how this reporter might be identified other than the fact he assumes this reporter is the individual who wrote the article that appeared in the "Dallas Times Herald" of November 28, 1963.

Mr. GREENER stated that he has absolutely no idea who might have made the initial calls regarding the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had work performed by the Irving Sports Shop. He stated that he does know that a Mrs. WHITWORTH, who previously operated the Furniture Mart on East Irving Boulevard, about one block west of the Irving Sports Shop, has stated that OSWALD, his wife and children were in the Furniture Mart in early November 1963 looking for a gunsmith, therefore, suggesting the possibility that Mrs. WHITWORTH may have made the initiating telephone call.

Mr. RYDER stated that he definitely had not talked to any representative of any newspaper or other news service prior to being contacted by Special Agent EMORY E. He stated he found the Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" as customer on November 23, 1963, but had not told anyone, other than his wife, about finding the tag prior to being interviewed by SA HORTON on November 25, 1963.

The following investigation was conducted on May 18, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, by SA's EUGENE F. PETRAKIS and A. RAYMOND SWITZER:

KENNETH SMART, City Editor, 4th Floor, "Dallas Times Herald", Herald Square, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited a clipping taken from the "Dallas Times Herald" edition of November 28, 1963, captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING". SMART advised, upon perusal of this article, that on Thursday, November 28, 1963, he was at home as a result of a virus infection and, therefore, did not read the rewrite on this article which was routed over the City Editor's desk. SMART advised the reporting and rewrite of this article could have been handled by the following reporters:

GEORGE CARTER, police reporter, DALLAS TIMES HERALD attached to the Dallas Police Department and Dallas County Sheriff's Office every day except Thursday and Sunday;

DARWIN PAYNE, alternate police reporter, DALLAS, TIMES HERALD who handles Police Department and Sheriff's Office on Thursday and in the absence of CARTER; DALLAS, TEXAS

BEN STEVENS, rewrite desk, who may have handled the rewrite of this article. STEVENS presently is on vacation;

JAMES LEHRER, city reporter, DALLAS TIMES HERALD, DALLAS TEXAS

HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., county reporter, who handles all outlying areas on a roving reporter basis, including Irving, Texas.

The above-noted article was exhibited to GEORGE CARTER, DARWIN PAYNE and JAMES LEHRER, and all advised they did not write this article and could not recall anything else concerning it. JAMES LEHRER, however, stated he recalled this matter had been handled by HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., and that SCHMIDT had written the article upon receipt of information which he believed was based upon an anonymous tip.

HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., county reporter, "Dallas Times Herald", Herald Square, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed regarding an article appearing in the November 28, 1963, edition of the "Dallas Times Herald", captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING".

SCHMIDT advised he recalled writing this article on the morning of November 28, 1963, in his offices on the fourth floor of the Times Herald Building. He stated that on the morning of November 28, 1963, he arrived at work at 7:00 A.M., as is his usual custom; and, as he entered the city news room, he was advised by other reporters already on duty, to the effect that information had been received by them that the Dallas Police Department was in possession of information that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had had a telescopic sight mounted on his rifle at a suburban gun shop. He stated he was told that a gunsmith by the name of "RYDER" had mounted a scope on a rifle for an individual by the name of "OSWALD" and that this matter was currently being investigated by the Dallas Police Department. SCHMIDT stated the gun shop allegedly was located in the suburban community of Garland, Texas, and this matter was brought to his attention inasmuch as he was assigned to handle the outlying suburban areas.

SCHMIDT advised he checked city directories for Garland and surrounding areas and was unable to locate a gun shop employing an individual by the name of RYDER. He stated he then checked city directories for the name RYDER and determined that DIAL D. RYDER of Irving, Texas, was employed by the Irving Sports Shop, located on Irving Boulevard in that city. He stated he attempted to contact the Irving Sports Shop by telephone, but, after receiving no answer, then called DIAL D. RYDER at his residence. SCHMIDT estimated the time of his call to be between 7:30 and 8:00 A.M. on the morning of November 28, 1963.

SCHMIDT advised the telephone was answered by an individual claiming to be DIAL D. RYDER of 2028 Harvard Street,

Irving, Texas, and that, after identifying himself fully as a reporter for the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper in Dallas, Texas, he then asked RYDER if he had attached a telescopic sight to a rifle for a man named OSWALD. SCHMIDT advised that it was obvious from the opening conversation that he had awakened RYDER and RYDER made mention of the fact that he was quite sleepy and had not slept well the night before. RYDER, however, was very helpful and cooperative in answer to SCHMIDT's questions, and appeared to be very happy to furnish answers to any questions submitted by SCHMIDT.

SCHMIDT stated RYDER advised him he was employed at the Irving Sports Shop, located on Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas, and that part of his duties consisted of performing repair work on rifles and other weapons for customers of that sports shop; and, in the course of his business, he recalled having attached a telescopic sight and bore sighted a foreign-made rifle for a customer named OSWALD about a month prior to that time. RYDER told him he could not recall the make of the rifle, although he believed it to be foreign made, but would be unable to further identify it.

RYDER explained to him that he had located an undated ticket made out to one OSWALD reflecting the notations, drilling and tapping $4.50, and bore sighting $1.50, total charges $6.00. RYDER explained this ticket could only reflect that he had drilled and tapped screw holes for mounting a telescopic sight and that, according to the charges reflected on the ticket, the work done on the rifle would consist of drilling three holes for which he charges $1.50 each, and the other $1.50 would reflect charges for bore sighting.

SCHMIDT advised RYDER went on to explain to him in detail the significance of the term "bore sighting", which SCHMIDT interpreted to mean the alignment of the telescopic sight to the rifle bore for accurate shooting.

SCHMIDT advised he recalled RYDER volunteering that insofar as he could remember, the customer OSWALD bought no ammunition for this rifle from him.

SCHMIDT advised he recalls specifically questioning RYDER as to the further description of this OSWALD for whom RYDER allegedly performed this work, but that RYDER explained to him that he had performed work of this type on a great many rifles during that time of year as the hunting season was approaching, and he had no recollection whatsoever of the individual named OSWALD for whom he performed this work. SCHMIDT advised that at the conclusion of the interview, RYDER appeared very cordial and he recalled RYDER inviting him to recontact RYDER at any time in the future in the event he desired further information in this regard.

SCHMIDT stated that, based upon the information received from RYDER, he immediately sat down and wrote the article captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING", and, that after submitting it to the rewrite department for approval, it was dispatched by messenger to the press rooms immediately thereafter so that it could be included in the next edition of the "Dallas Times Herald". SCHMIDT explained that he believes this article came out in the 11:00 A.M. edition, although he could not be positive as there are five editions a day of the "Dallas Times Herald". SCHMIDT advised the article appeared in the lower left-hand corner of the front page, but did not carry his by-line. He stated, however, the article was well received and he recalled answering several inquiries that day from other members of the press and television media.

SCHMIDT advised that while at his residence the evening of November 28, 1963, he observed a taped television interview on the 10:00 o'clock news of CBS Television, in which RYDER denied furnishing any of the information to a "Dallas Times Herald" reporter as set forth in the article, and, although RYDER indicated the possibility existed the Irving Sports Shop could have performed work for LEE HARVEY OSWALD without the knowledge of RYDER, RYDER did not mention the work ticket or any of the items listed thereon as he had to SCHMIDT early that morning and, in effect, denied having furnished the contents of the article as written by SCHMIDT.

SCHMIDT advised he was naturally upset over the denial by RYDER, and the following morning, November 29, 1963, at approximately 9:00 to 10:00 A.M., he telephoned the Irving Sports Shop again and spoke to a Mr. GREENER, the owner of the shop. He advised GREENER that the information set forth in his article of the preceding day was exactly as related to him by RYDER and that he had no other source of information. He asked GREENER if RYDER had discussed this matter with him and inquired as to the reasons why RYDER had denied furnishing him, SCHMIDT, this information. SCHMIDT stated GREENER advised him that he, GREENER, was completely unaware of any of the information set forth in the article of November 28, 1963, until he was contacted by CBS Television reporters on the afternoon of November 28, 1963, and, after being interviewed by the television reporters, he confronted RYDER with the facts set forth in the newspaper article, but that RYDER denied furnishing any of these facts to any reporter at any time.

SCHMIDT stated GREENER told him that RYDER did admit receiving a telephone call in the early morning hours of November 28, 1963, but that he denied furnishing any information to the caller.

SCHMIDT stated that as a result of the conversation with GREENER and the denials of RYDER, he did not pursue the matter any further and wrote nothing else about the Irving Sports Shop.

SCHMIDT advised the only time he has ever spoken to RYDER was on the morning of November 28, 1963, and the only occasion he has had to converse with Mr. GREENER was on the morning of November 29, 1963, as related above. SCHMIDT denied having any other source of information for the article of November 28, 1963, and reiterated the fact that all the information set forth in this article was furnished to him solely by DIAL D. RYDER in the course of their telephonic conversation between 7:30 and 8:00 A.M. on the morning of November 28, 1963.

It is pointed out that DIAL D. RYDER and HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., the reporter for the "Dallas Times Herald", were interviewed simultaneously by different Agents on May 18, 1964, at which time they were not aware of the information being furnished by each other. It should be noted that HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR. states he called RYDER between 7:30 A.M. and 8:00 A.M., November 28, 1963, at which time RYDER reportedly furnished the information contained in the "Dallas Times Herald" article of that date, captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING", while RYDER admits receiving a call at approximately the same time on November 28, 1963, but denies having furnished any information whatsoever.

Mr. HERMAN W. Physical observation of the rear of the residence of Major GENERAL EDWIN A. WALKER, 4011 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas, was made by SAs ROBERT M. BARRETT and IVAN D. LEE on May 18, 1964. It was determined from this observation that the photograph depicting the residence of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER, marked as Commission exhibit No. 5 and as FBI inventory No. 369, is identical with the rear of WALKER's residence.

Physical observation on May 18, 1964, of the alley behind the residence of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER and comparing the photograph taken by SA IVAN D. LEE on February 1, 1964, determined that the photograph listed as photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, was taken in the alley at the northeast edge of the property line of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER's residence looking to the southwest.

On May 18, 1964, physical observation of the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas railroad tracks which are located in the vicinity of the residence of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER was made by SAs ROBERT M. BARRETT and IVAN D. LEE. It was determined that photograph No. 5, Item No. 6, was taken with the individual taking the photograph facing south by southeast approximately 67 yards from where the curb line of Newman Street if extended would cross the railroad tracks. It is noted that Newman Street runs in a southeasterly to a northwesterly direction and it would intersect the railroad at a point almost due east of the Dallas Theater Center.

In the photograph marked as photograph No. 5, Item No. 6, the bridge railing observed in the middle of the picture is identical with the one which crosses over Lemmon Avenue East. The building in the left center of the photograph is identical with the Stoneleigh Hotel. What appears to be a building or structure to the left of the Stoneleigh Hotel and just to the right of the metal utility pole (which is on the left-hand side of photograph) is a large air conditioning water cooler. To the left of the metal utility pole is a dark object which appears to be a building. This is identical to the apartment house roof line of the Turtle Creek Apartments. In the middle of the photograph and just to the right of the railroad bridge railing an electric utility pole with a transformer can be observed extending above the trees. Also observed on the right-hand edge of the photograph are telephone poles with a heavy telephone cable running between the poles. In the physical observation of the area all of the above items were noted by SAs BARRETT and LEE.

By automobile mileage from the parking lot at the Dallas Theater Center which is located approximately 200 feet from where the photograph was taken it is 0.7 mile from Major General EDWIN A. WALKER's residence.

It has been determined from examination that the picture identified as Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, depicts the alley behind the residence of Major General EDWIN A. Mr. BEN B. PASSMORE, 314 Cottonwood, Richardson, Texas (AD 5-2838), stated he is a Construction Inspector with the Dallas Inspecting Office, Federal Housing Administration, 1621 Main Street, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. PASSMORE said he has been assigned since sometime in 1962 as the inspector on a high-rise apartment now being completed at 3883 Turtle Creek Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, same being known as 21 Turtle Creek Square. Mr. PASSMORE said he maintained daily construction progress logs on the construction of 21 Turtle Creek Square.

Mr. PASSMORE viewed Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, and identified the high-rise building under construction depicted in that photograph as 21 Turtle Creek Square. Mr. PASSMORE, with Special Agents ROBERT M. BARRETT, IVAN D. LEE, and EMORY E. HORTON visited the area where Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, was taken, at which time Mr. PASSMORE viewed the building known as 21 Turtle Creek Square as it now appears from that position and compared its present appearance to the view depicted in Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7.

Mr. PASSMORE produced a 35 mm slide, taken by himself, that depicts 21 Turtle Creek Square, and said this slide was made at the time the building was completed to its full height, but before the penthouses were constructed. After studying the slide and Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, Mr. PASSMORE stated Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, appears to show one more bay on the construction elevator tower than does his slide. From this, Mr. PASSMORE opined that Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, was taken after the twenty-second floor of the building was completed and the form for the shear wall was being raised on the northeast corner of the building so the concrete could be run thereby forming the supports for the roof.

Mr. PASSMORE then referred to his daily construction logs and determined that the building was at the stage of construction referred to above on March 8 - 12, 1963. He pointed out there do not appear to be any workmen depicted in Photograph No. 2, Item No. 7, which suggests that the photograph may have been made on a weekend, as they did not work on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. PASSMORE referred to his calendar and determined that March 9 and 10, 1963, were a Saturday and Sunday.

In one of the photographs depicting the rear of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER's residence and marked on the back of the photograph as DL 36, a 1954 Ford bearing 1963 Texas license PL 9139 is observed on the right-hand side of the photograph.

On May 21, 1964, Mrs. JOE MOBLEY, Clerk, Dallas County Tax Office, advised 1963 Texas license plate PL 9139 was issued to a 1954 Ford two-door, owned by JOSEPH R. DRAKE, 11720 Alston Lane, Dallas, Texas.

The Dallas, Texas City Directory for 1963 does not contain the name of JOSEPH R. DRAKE under the alphabetical listing and numerical listing by street.

Dallas indices are negative concerning the name JOSEPH R. DRAKE.

In connection with the photograph listed as President's Commission Exhibit No. 5 and as FBI inventory No. 369, it is noted a 1957 Chevrolet is sitting in the driveway and that the area containing the license number has been mutilated. In an effort to identify the owner of this vehicle, Detective H. M. HART, Dallas Police Department, was contacted on May 21, 1964, and advised as follows:

HART stated in investigation he has conducted concerning visitors to the WALKER residence, he has ascertained that CHARLES F. KLIHR of 2046 Rosebud Street, Irving, Texas, has frequented the WALKER residence. HART stated KLIHR is the owner of a 1957 Chevrolet two-door, bearing 1964 Texas license plate NM 2893.

Dallas indices are negative concerning the name CHARLES KLIHR.

G. Piece of Wood Removed From Bottom Window Sill of Window at Texas School Book Depository

1 Date 4/24/64

ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Supervisor, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that he recalls that on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, that Lieutenant CARL DAY, of the Dallas Police Department Crime Laboratory, was collecting numerous items of possible evidentiary value, with the assistance of several detectives, on the premises of the Depository Building. TRULY advised, however, he does not specifically recall accompanying Lieutenant DAY to the sixth floor of the TSBD to remove a piece of molding from the window believed to have been used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the commission of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

DALLAS, TEXAS

TRULY accompanied interviewing Agents to the sixth floor of the Depository Building and pointed out the window believed used by OSWALD. The window was observed to be a wooden frame, double-hung window, containing four lights in each window half, and was located on the southeast corner opening to the south. TRULY, through tape measurements, determined the window to be 39 1/2" wide by 70 7/8" high and containing eight 15 5/8" by 17 5/8" glass lights. Examination of the window sill determined that a 3/4" strip of wooden molding was missing and TRULY advised the window had been untouched since the assassination and, as it was the only window with this piece missing, he believed this strip of wood in question probably had been removed from the sill by Lieutenant DAY. Examination of the sill disclosed four nail holes. Measuring from the east end of the window to each of the four nail holes, the following distances were noted:

1 5/8"; 14 9/16"; 26 1/16"; 38 1/16"

TRULY pointed out that each of the adjacent windows of similar type had a 3/4" thick molding for weather stripping purposes running along the sill, and that this particular window was the only one with this strip missing.

DL 100-10461 Lieutenant CARL DAY, of the Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, advised that during the afternoon of November 22, 1963, he removed a small piece of wood which had the color green painted on two sides; one side was painted pink and one side was unpainted. He stated he removed this wood from the bottom window sill where it was nailed for the purpose of examining it for latent fingerprints.

The window where this wood was located is situated on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building, where it was believed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD fired the shots that killed President KENNEDY and struck Governor JOHN CONNALLY. DAY related that, prior to the time he was to examine this wood, it was decided that it should be turned over to the FBI and sent to Washington, D. C., for examination by the FBI Laboratory and he, accordingly, furnished this item to Captain GEORGE DOUGHTY, Crime Laboratory, who, in turn, released this item to representatives of the Dallas FBI Office.

H. Application for Rental of Post Office Box 6225, Dallas, Texas

RH:eah

On November 23, 1963, an application for the rental of Post Office Box 6225, located at the Terminal Annex, Post Office Station, Dallas, Texas, dated November 1, 1963, and signed LEE H. OSWALD was obtained. This application is identified as Federal Bureau of Investigation Laboratory Exhibit D-17.

This application stated that the name of the firm or corporation for which the box was being rented was the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and American Civil Liberties Union. LEE H. OSWALD's home address reflected on this application was "3610 N. Beckley."

On May 5, 1964, a check of the 1963 Dallas City Directory failed to reflect any 3600 block of North Beckley Street in Dallas, Texas.

On May 5, 1964, a physical check of North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, revealed that such street continues north to the 3000 block. There is no 3600 block of North Beckley Street.

I. FBI Laboratory Examinations, Including Translation of Foreign Language Material

On April 9, 1964, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning a document examination requested by Dallas T-1 on March 31, 1964:

Specimens received 4/2/64

Resubmission of Q332
(Transportes Fronteras bus company passenger list covering a trip made by bus No. 340 from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, 10/2-3/63, bearing the name "Oswald" in the space for seat No. 4)

K73 A form of Transportes Fronteras bus line used as a passenger manifest, reservations and ticket sales record, on which the date "2 Oct 1963" has been stamped with the date stamp used by the ticket salesman of that company at the Mexico City terminal, FRANCISCO ALVARADO

This is a sample from a passenger manifest of Transportes Fronteras used for the purpose of recording thereon the "2 Oct 1963" date stamp in use at the Mexico City terminal of the bus line.

K74 One block of forms for Transportes Fronteras bus line which allegedly were used in connection with the operations of that company during most of the month of October, 1963

This block of forms is bound together at the top in pad form by a gum-type substance. According to Dallas T-1 specimen K74 was found by Transportes Fronteras ticket salesman and dispatcher, FRANCISCO ALVARADO, on a lower shelf in the Mexico City baggage terminal of that company and ALVARADO believes the questioned manifest, Q332, was located by the manager of the terminal, GILBERTO LOZANO GUIZAR, and torn from the block of forms for delivery to the Mexican authorities who retrieved it at the bus terminal.

Result of examination:

The date stamp impressions on K73 are similar in size and style to the questioned impressions at the bottom of Q332 but the K73 impressions have a different spacing between the "T" in "OCT" and the "1" in "1963" which indicates a different date stamp was used. The date stamp impressions on K74 are similar in size, style, and spacing to the questioned impressions on Q332 but these questioned impressions lack sufficient significant details to definitely establish whether the same rubber stamp was used on K74 and Q332.

The handwriting, format and appearance of the block of manifests, K74, agree with the handwriting, format and appearance of Q332. In addition indented writings and extraneous marks were noted on Q332 which indicate that this sheet was originally on top of the present top sheet in K74.

No indentations were found on the present top sheet in K74 which correspond to the writing in black ink on the top two lines of Q332, the black ink writing on line forty and immediately below this line or the handwritten notation in red at the top of Q332 in the wording "Transportes Frontera."

With respect to the handwritten entries on Q332, fragmentary portions of these entries were found to be indented on the present top sheet of K74 except no indented handwriting was found to correspond to the Oswald entry on line four of Q332 and the handwritten entries on lines eight and thirteen of Q332 did not produce any corresponding identifiable indented impressions on the top sheet of K74.

Specimens received from FBI, Boston on 3/26/64

Q559 C308 Hunting knife with black and gold striped handle in sheath received from Imperial Knife Company, Incorporated, Providence, Rhode Island

Results of examination:

The knife, C306, has a black and silver striped handle and in this respect only is different from the knife, B5, previously submitted to the Laboratory by the Dallas Office as having been recovered by the Dallas Police Department from the residence of Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas.

The knife, C308, is identical in all respects to B5. C308 and B5 are 3 1/4" in length and have four inch blades. The blade of each knife bears the stamped inscription "Imperial Prov. R. I. USA.". A small figure representing a crown appears over the second "i" in the word "Imperial" on each blade. The die used to stamp the inscriptions in C308 and B5 produced individual microscopic characteristics. Comparison of these marks resulted in identifying the marks on C308 as having been produced by the same die as that used on B5.

C308 and B5 have black and gold striped handles.

C306, C308 and B5 are contained in sheaths of identical construction and physical characteristics. These sheaths could have originated from the same source; however, in the absence of individual characteristics, it cannot be definitely stated that they were made by the same manufacturer.

Under date of April 10, 1964, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning firearms examination requested by the Dallas Office on March 31, 1964:

Specimens received 4/6/64

Q564 C309 Box of 20 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridges from John Thomas Masen, Masen's Gun Shop, 7402 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas

Q565 C310 Box of 20 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridges from John H. Brinegar, The Gun Shop, 11448 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas

Results of examination:

The cartridges in the C309 box were comprised of Western 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases which are the same in all observable physical characteristics as the C6, C7 and C38 cartridge cases found in the Texas School Book Depository Building. The bullets in these cartridges are "soft point" hunting type bullets and are not the same as the full metal jacket type assassination bullet and bullet fragments. An examination of these cartridges revealed mechanical marks in the extractor grooves which are of the type produced by the "shell holder" of a reloading tool when a bullet is pulled from the cartridge case.

The 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridges in the C310 box are the same in all observable physical characteristics as the cartridges represented by the assassination bullet and bullet fragments, C1 through C3, and the C6, C7 and C38 cartridge cases, as well as the C8 cartridge from the C14 rifle.

However, nothing was found from an examination of the cartridges in these two boxes to indicate whether or not the ammunition used in the assassination came from either of the sources represented by C309 and C310.

On April 22, 1964, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning a Firearms - Spectrographic examination requested by the President's Commission on April 9, 1964:

"Evidence as listed on attached pages. Personally delivered by Special Agent Robert E. Neill of the FBI Laboratory on 4/9/64. This material was obtained from the President's Commission at the request of Arlen Specter, Staff Attorney.

"Q566 C311 Black suit coat worn by Governor John Connally

"Q567 C312 Black suit trousers worn by Governor John Connally

"Q568 C313 White dress shirt worn by Governor John Connally

"Q569 C314 Necktie worn by Governor John Connally

"Results of examination:

"Each hole in Governor John Connally's coat, shirt and trousers has the general appearance of a bullet hole and could have been made by a bullet. No hole was found in the tie.

"The hole in the back of the coat is approximately 1/4" by 5/8", being elongated in a horizontal direction. The elongation could be due to one or more of the following: (1) a bullet passed through the cloth at an angle to the surface, (2) the cloth was folded when a bullet struck (3) the hole was made by a mutilated bullet or (4) a bullet struck sideways.

"The hole in the front of the coat is approximately 3/8" in diameter and circular in shape.

"The hole in the sleeve is approximately 3/8" by 5/8" being elongated in a horizontal direction. The elongation of this hole could be due to one or more of the aforementioned causes.

"It is to be noted that holes corresponding to the three holes referred to above were found in the shirt. Due to the excessive tearing of the cloth, none of these holes were well defined.

"The hole in the left trouser leg is approximately 1/4" in diameter and roughly circular in shape.

"It was determined from the locations of the holes in the coat and shirt that a bullet entering the back, passing undeflected through the body and leaving the front, would have passed through Governor Connally at an angle of approximately 35 degrees downward from the horizontal and approximately 20 degrees from right to left if he was sitting erect and facing forward at the time he was shot. These angles are such that it would have been possible for Governor Connally's right arm and left leg to have been in direct line with the projectile. Any change in Governor Connally's position would affect the angles set out above. The possibility should not be overlooked that garments can shift from their normal position on the body. There is no way of determining, from an examination of the clothing, whether such a bullet may have followed a straight line path or may have been deflected in the body.

"Nothing was found to indicate which holes were entrances and which were exits. The coat, shirt and trousers were cleaned prior to their receipt in the Laboratory, which might account for the fact that no foreign deposits of metal or other substances were found on the cloth surrounding the holes. Further, no characteristic position of the fibers of the cloth around the holes, which is one of the factors considered in determining whether a hole is an entrance or an exit hole, was found. The sizes of the holes in the clothing do not necessarily aid in this determination since a hole can be enlarged if a bullet strikes at an angle, sideways or partially sideways, or if it passes through a fold in the cloth. Also, if a bullet is irregularly mutilated, an entrance hole could be larger than an exit hole.

"It was not possible from an examination of the clothing to determine whether or not all of the holes were made by the same projectile or projectile fragments.

Q573 C317 Metal plate bearing the engraved names "Marina" and "Lee"

Q574 C318 Metal plate bearing the engraved name "Marina"

Results of examination:

The "Marina" bracelet, D75, was compared with the C315 bracelet obtained from the H. L. Green Company, Dallas, Texas. Several links of the D75 bracelet were identified as having been marked by the same machine as several of the links of the C315 bracelet; therefore, these bracelets have a common origin.

The hand engraved borders on the D75 and C315 bracelets are similar in design but were engraved with tools producing different individual microscopic characteristics.

The differences could be due to the use of different tools or to changes in the cutting edges of the same tool through sharpening.

A tool with a vibrating stylus was used to inscribe the name "Marina" on D75. There are not sufficient individual microscopic marks of value for identification purposes in the name "Marina" on D75 or the metal plates, C317 and C318. Further, there are not sufficient individual microscopic marks of value for identification purposes in the name "Lee" on the C317 metal plate or on Lee Harvey Oswald's bracelet (D35) previously submitted.

The box containing the D75 bracelet was found to be identical in type, size, construction and compostion to the C316 box. Further, the cardboard and cloth fillers in the boxes are of the same type, size, shape and composition. The cardboard box fillers are both stamped "Japan."

A label inscribed "GIRLS' Hand Engraved E·X·P·A·N·S·I·O·N IDENT" is glued to the cloth filler of the C316 box. At the corresponding location on the D75 box a label has been removed.

The bottom of the C316 box bears a small, white price tag inscribed "Mc CRORY'S 0 12311 1.00 021" indicating a price of $1.00. This label is self-adhering and can be removed without leaving a residue on the box. No price tag is present on the D75 box.

Due to the limited nature of the name "Marina" engraved on D75 and the name "Lee" on D35 and due to the nature of the engraving tool, it was not possible to determine if the engravings on D75 and D35 were prepared by the person who prepared the engravings on C317 and C318.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West 5th Street, furnished the following information:

When she was originally interviewed by Agents of the FBI regarding the possibility of her making available letters and notes received from MARINA OSWALD by her, she at that time declined to furnish these items, primarily because of the personal nature of these letters and notes having to do with the marriage difficulties of RUTH and MICHAEL PAINE, and LEE and MARINA OSWALD. One reason that she declined to furnish these letters at this time was that she felt that information being furnished to the Commission had, on occasion, been "leaked" to the press.

She based this opinion upon the fact that about February 28 or 29, 1964, she had received a telephone call from a member of the press in which she was asked if she "knew about the rifle" on October 23, 1963. She stated that from the way the question was asked, she was of the opinion that the questioner had received information about the notation "Oct. 23" in the left-hand, upper corner of Mrs. PAINE's calendar for the month of March 1963. Mrs. PAINE stated that no one had discussed this notation, "Oct. 23", until she was asked about it by Agents of the FBI a short time before she received the telephone call from this member of the press. She, therefore, concluded that the information about this notation had been "leaked" from authoritative sources. She stated that she did not believe that the questioner had the full information since he did not mention that the notation appeared on a calendar, but he had enough information to ask the question about the significance of the date October 23, 1963.

She stated that she is unable to recall who the man was that called her and asked this question since she talked to so many representatives of the press since November 22, 1963, but that she believes it was either JACK LANGGUTH of the Los Angeles Bureau of the New York Times or ISAAC DON LEVINE, a

Mrs. PAINE also advised that since her first observation she has also theorized that the person asking her this question might have obtained his information from MARINA OSWALD since this was after MARINA had testified before the Commission and that MARINA could have been shown the calendar with the notation on it or may have been asked directly about the entry "Oct. 23".

CHARLES H. RIPLEY, 3801 Cole Avenue, Apartment 201, advised he is employed by Neiman-Marcus, Dallas, Texas, as a watchman. RIPLEY said he was born October 31, 1894, at Shullsburg, Wisconsin. RIPLEY said he is a veteran of both World War I and World War II.

RIPLEY was exhibited a "throw away" which was 8½ inches by 11½ inches in size and bore the printing "OSWALD WAS A LIBERAL BEFORE HE BECAME A COMMUNIST." At the bottom of the "throw away" appeared the name "CHARLES H. RIPLEY, 3801 Cole Ave., Apt. 201, Dallas 4, Texas." RIPLEY said he had a number of these "throw aways" printed and had "handed out" a few of them.

RIPLEY said he would describe himself as a "rank conservative" and an "extreme rightist." He said he is not a member of the John Birch Society but operates on his own and said that anything he has printed he always affixes his name to the printed material.

Regarding the "throw away" bearing the statement "OSWALD WAS A LIBERAL BEFORE HE BECAME A COMMUNIST," RIPLEY said he "got this out" to humiliate the liberals and to show they are one step away from being communists. RIPLEY stated he knows OSWALD was a liberal because he read an article in the newspaper which disclosed that OSWALD attended a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas. He said he knows OSWALD was a communist from a statement attributed to OSWALD which appeared in a newspaper to the effect that OSWALD said he was a Marxist. RIPLEY stated a Marxist is the same thing as being a communist. RIPLEY stated this is the only information he had that OSWALD was a liberal and a communist.

RIPLEY stated the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY was a tragedy and dealt a real blow to the conservatives. He said he had no information which would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

RIPLEY said he receives numerous letters in the mail which are critical of him and his conservative views. He exhibited two of

Mr. JOSEPH P. GRINNAN, 811 Wilson Building, who resides at 4640 Southern, and is employed as an independent oil operator, advised he had solicited funds which had been used to pay for the advertisement which appeared in the "Dallas Morning News," on November 22, 1963. This full-page ad was signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman. GRINNAN said he could think of four individuals who contributed somewhere around $1,500, "give or take a hundred," which was used to pay for the ad in the "Dallas Morning News."

DALLAS, TEXAS

He said that he had become acquainted with LARRIE SCHMIDT, a friend of BERNARD WEISSMAN, at a meeting of an organization called the "Young Americans for Freedom." He said LARRIE SCHMIDT and BERNARD WEISSMAN were soldier friends, having served in the Army together, and through LARRIE SCHMIDT he became acquainted with BERNARD WEISSMAN. LARRIE SCHMIDT wanted to protest the visit of President KENNEDY to Dallas on November 22, 1963, in a dignified way; therefore, they got together and LARRIE SCHMIDT wrote the ad with some suggestions by GRINNAN. GRINNAN stated he did not write out anything when the advertisement was being written. He said the four contributors for the advertisement read the advertisement before publication.

GRINNAN stated that the American Fact-Finding Committee was a paper name only and that no organization sponsored this advertisement, other than the American Fact-Finding Committee, which name they made up. He said that if anyone composed the American Fact-Finding Committee it was himself, LARRIE SCHMIDT, and a fellow named BILL from Baltimore, Maryland, who was a friend of LARRIE SCHMIDT and BERNARD WEISSMAN. He said he was pretty sure that BERNARD WEISSMAN took the advertisement to the "Dallas Morning News" and made arrangements for its publication. He said they intended no personal harm to come to the President.

Regarding the source of the funds to pay for the advertisement, he said he was reluctant to give the names of the contributors, because he did not want to hurt anyone. He said-

Mr. GRINNAN advised he would call the Dallas FBI Office on April 24, 1964, after he had made contact with his attorney, Doctor MORRIS.

At 3:35 P.M., Mr. JOSEPH P. GRINNAN, 811 Wilson Building, an independent oil operator, telephoned the Dallas FBI Office and stated he wanted to give the information concerning the funds for "The Dallas Morning News" advertisement which had previously been requested of him. Mr. GRINNAN stated he preferred to give the information on the telephone at that time.

Mr. GRINNAN stated that the reason the full-page advertisement was placed in "The Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman, was because he and the other individuals responsible for this advertisement considered it a dignified way of protesting the policies of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, with due respect to the office of the President. Mr. GRINNAN stated the contributors to the fund which was used in payment of "The Dallas Morning News" advertisement were as follows:

H. R. BRIGHT, an independent oil operator with offices in the Mercantile Commerce Building, Dallas, Texas

EDGAR CRISSEY, an insurance man with offices in the Fidelity Union Life Building, Dallas, Texas, who resides at 3320 Villanova Street, Dallas, Texas

NELSON BUNKER HUNT, an independent oil man with offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, Dallas, Texas, who is the son of H. L. HUNT, a well-known Dallas oil man.

All of the aforementioned persons reside in Dallas, Texas, and Mr. GRINNAN advised that Doctor ROBERT MORRIS, his attorney, was at that time present while Mr. GRINNAN was furnishing the above information.

Mr. GRINNAN stated he did not know the amounts each of the contributors gave to the fund, but felt that they had

Mr. HARVEY ROBERT BRIGHT, who is also known as "Bum" Bright, an independent oil operator of the firm of Bright and Schiff, Mercantile Continental Building, was interviewed commencing at 10:48 a.m. and was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised he had a right to consult with a lawyer before making any statement. DALLAS, TEXAS H. R. ABRIGHT

BRIGHT stated he desired to be interviewed in the presence of his attorney, ROBERT PAYNE, who sat in on the interview.

Mr. BRIGHT stated he did not know JACK RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had had no contact or dealings with them at any time.

BRIGHT stated that sometime prior to the time the full page advertisement which was signed by the American Fact Finding Committee appeared in the "Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963, he had been solicited to contribute to such an advertisement. BRIGHT declined to give the names of the persons who had contacted him, terming them "A" and "B." He said that "A" first called him and asked him if he would make a contribution to such an advertisement and BRIGHT agreed. He said that later "A" and "B" came to his office in the Mercantile Continental Building in Dallas which was two or three days or perhaps a week prior to the time the "Dallas Morning News" ran this advertisement. "B," according to BRIGHT, stated he did not have the money to put up for the advertisement and Mr. BRIGHT stated he put up "B's" money for him and considered it in the nature of a loan. He said he currently carries it on his books and it is believed that "B" owes him $300 or $400 now but did not remember whether all of this was for the advertisement. BRIGHT stated he wrote out a check for "B's" contribution for the advertisement as well as for his contribution and that "B" signed notes for the amount owed BRIGHT. BRIGHT stated he had not collected any money from "B" and that the money contributed for the advertisement was his own and was not supplied by any other persons. He advised he did not solicit any funds from others in connection with this matter. He remarked that he might have "bankrolled" "B" for this contribution as he did not know whether "B" was going to pay him back or not. On the other hand, he said "B" might

Mr. EDGAR R. CRISSEY, an insurance man associated with E. F. White & Associates, 1115 Fidelity Union Building, who resides at 3330 Villanova Street, Dallas, Texas, was advised that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was advised that he could consult with a lawyer prior to making any statement.

CRISSEY stated he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and never had had any contact with either of them. CRISSEY collected contributions, he related, for the insertion of an advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News," on November 22, 1963, which advertisement was edged in black, and signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee, BERNARD WEISSMAN, Chairman. CRISSEY stated he had never known WEISSMAN, but solicited contributions at the request of a friend, JOE GRINNAN. CRISSEY stated he contributed $15.00 in cash for this advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News" and had collected, in all, approximately $135.00 from two or three other people. He declined to give the names of these individuals, stating the money was collected as a matter of confidence and he promised them at the time that their names would not be divulged. He stated that these people who had contributed to him, he was sure, did not know OSWALD or RUBY. The approximately $135.00 collected by him was turned over to JOE GRINNAN for expense concerning the insertion of the advertisement.

JOE GRINNAN contacted CRISSEY about one week prior to November 22, 1963, stating he desired to place the advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News," and requested him to solicit funds for an advertisement to be placed in the "Dallas Morning News." CRISSEY understood that the Legal Department, of the "Dallas Morning News," had reviewed the advertisement prior to its being run in the November 22, 1963, issues of the "Dallas Morning News." CRISSEY stated that they had very little time in which to obtain contributions and he understood that BUNKER HUNT had contributed and a person known as "BUM" BRIGHT, with offices in the Mercantile Continental Building, was also a contributor.

Mr. NELSON BUNKER HUNT, 4508 Lakeside Drive, Dallas, Texas, with offices on the 7th Floor, Mercantile Securities Building, an independent oil operator, at the outset of interview requested that his secretary call his attorney prior to being interviewed. He was, therefore, interviewed in the presence of his attorney, IVAN IRWIN. BUNKER HUNT

HUNT readily admitted having contributed cash to JOE GRINNAN for the purpose of placing an advertisement in the "Dallas Morning News." This advertisement appeared on November 22, 1963, and was signed by the American Fact-Finding Committee. HUNT termed it an article which asked some embarrassing questions of President KENNEDY. He said he could not recall the amount he contributed, but believed it to be between $200.00 and $300.00. He gave the contribution to JOE GRINNAN in cash, merely reaching in his pocket and pulling forth the contribution. He exhibited this by reaching in his pocket and exposing a roll of bills while being interviewed. He said JOE GRINNAN contacted him several days before the "Dallas Morning News" ran the advertisement and told him by telephone that the "Dallas Morning News" would publish this advertisement. He later came by the Hunt office and received the money, Mr. HUNT related.

HUNT was unable to state whether he had read the article prior to publication, but stated that GRINNAN might have read some of it over the telephone or might have told him about it. He stated the article was a criticism of President KENNEDY in a dignified way. He stated the money contributed by him was his own money and he did not solicit or obtain contributions from any other person.

HUNT stated he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and stated he had never had any contact with them. He did not know the names of others who had contributed toward the cost of the advertisement and did not know BERNARD WEISSMAN, whose name appeared on the advertisement. He understood that WEISSMAN came from New York from reading the papers, he said.

The following investigation was conducted concerning allegations contained in a book, "Who Killed Kennedy?", by THOMAS G. BUCHANAN, among which allegations were the following:

BUCHANAN claimed that Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and JACK RUBY "all lived within a few blocks of each other." He also claimed that JACK RUBY's sister, Mrs. GRANT, had told reporters that RUBY and TIPPIT were "like two brothers." He also stated that TIPPIT was alone in his police car, when "standing orders for police in Dallas as in other cities are that radio cars of the type TIPPIT was driving must have two policemen in them."

Mrs. EVA GRANT, Apartment I, Oaklawn Plaza Apartments, 3929 Rawlins Street, Dallas, Texas, sister of JACK RUBY, convicted murderer of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was interviewed at her apartment. BORN ABOUT 1909

Mrs. GRANT advised she is 55 years of age and has resided in Dallas, Texas, on and off for the past 22 years, during which time she has been engaged in the nightclub and restaurant business. She advised she has most recently acted as the manager of the Vegas Club, 3508 Oaklawn Avenue, Dallas, which club was at one time principally owned by her brother, JACK RUBY. Mrs. GRANT explained JACK RUBY was the principal owner of both the Carousel Club in downtown Dallas and the Vegas Club, and her brother had requested her assistance in managing the Vegas Club, inasmuch as he "needed someone to trust" to manage one of the clubs.

Mrs. GRANT was apprised of a statement set forth in a recently published book entitled "Who Killed Kennedy?", by THOMAS G. BUCHANAN, to the effect that JACK RUBY's sister, "Mrs. GRANT", had told reporters that JACK RUBY and Officer J. D. TIPPIT, allegedly killed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, were "like two brothers". Mrs. GRANT advised that she did not at any time, either before or after the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY or the murders of Officer J. D. TIPPIT and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, make such a statement to any reporter or group of reporters. She advised, further, she has never met, conversed with, or even heard of a writer or reporter by the name of THOMAS G. BUCHANAN, and, further, would not make such a statement under any circumstances, inasmuch as the statement allegedly attributed to her is completely untrue and without foundation.

Mrs. GRANT conceded, however, that on at least one occasion she has made the statement to a group of reporters to the effect that her brother, JACK RUBY, was always friendly and hospitable to all police officers who visited his place of business or with whom he had made personal contact during his frequent visits to the Dallas Police Department. Mrs. GRANT explained further that due to the nature of the business that JACK RUBY was engaged in, as many as two or three visits a night by pairs of police officers, principally from the Vice Squad, were made on official business to the Carousel Club, personally managed by JACK RUBY, as well as the Vegas Club, and that these visits consisted of a walk through the club by these officers to observe the clientele and that these officers would depart shortly.

She advised on other occasions a police officer would come into one or the other of the clubs to use the telephone at the personal invitation of JACK RUBY, and that she felt over the years JACK RUBY became acquainted with about half of the members of the Dallas Police Department.

Mrs. GRANT advised, however, that of the members of the Dallas Police Department, she felt no more than half a dozen were considered by JACK to be good friends of his, and that of these officers JACK frequently spoke of them to her and to others. She advised, therefore, that in her opinion, if Officer J. D. TIPPIT had been considered by RUBY to be one of these friends, she feels sure RUBY would have made mention of this friendship to her.

Mrs. GRANT advised she believes she recalls observing a police officer come into the Vegas Club on at least one occasion wearing a nameplate identification badge on his shirt pocket bearing a name closely resembling TIPPIT. She advised, however, she could not be sure of this fact and could not positively state this officer was identical with Officer J. D. TIPPIT. She advised, further, however, that sometime in December 1963 she had occasion to observe a photograph of Officer J. D. TIPPIT in an unknown detective magazine carrying a story which she believes to have been captioned "What Really Happened in Dallas", and that, upon observing this photograph, she felt this officer was somewhat familiar to her and that she felt at that time Officer TIPPIT may have visited the Vegas Club on official business approximately one month prior to the assassination. Mrs. GRANT advised, however, she could not be sure of this fact and feels she may have observed other photographs of Officer TIPPIT subsequent to his death which may have caused her to believe she had seen him personally.

Mrs. GRANT advised the only reporter or writer in which she has confided to the extent of revealing friends, associates and past history of herself and JACK RUBY is a Mr. WILLIAM R. WOODFIELD of 12336 Rye Street, Studio City, California, a professional writer whom she and JACK RUBY commissioned to write a story about RUBY's life in an effort to raise funds for her brother's defense. She advised the story, ghost written by WOODFIELD, was captioned "My Story" by JACK RUBY, and that the completed article was sold to a number of syndicated newspapers throughout the country, one of which she recalls to be the "Houston Chronicle".

Mrs. GRANT advised, therefore, that any allegation to the effect that she told reporters that JACK RUBY and Officer J. D. TIPPIT were "like two brothers" is completely false, inasmuch as she most certainly did not make this statement, even to Mr. WOODFIELD.

Captain JAMES M. SOUTER (NA), residence 5614 Bell Street, Dallas, a Platoon Commander, Radio Patrol Division, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following:

Captain SOUTER has been a member of the Dallas Police Department for 23 years.

The Radio Patrol Division is divided into three shifts. The "day shift" works from 7:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.; the "evening shift" works from 3:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m., and the "late night shift" works from 11:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m. All officers assigned to the Radio Patrol Division are assigned to a platoon, and there are three platoons in the division. Each platoon rotates its working hours each month so that during a three month period each platoon will work one of the above shifts then the procedure is repeated.

Captain SOUTER advised it is the policy of the department that about 80% of the patrolmen working the day shift are assigned alone to a squad car or unit. The remainder work with another officer or "partner," and not necessarily the same partner each day. All patrolmen assigned to the night shift and late night shift work in pairs or two patrolmen to a squad car. During the night shift, between 4:30 p.m. and 6:00 p.m, several "partners" are assigned to directing traffic, alone, in heavily congested areas. During this period, their respective partners are alone in the squad cars, but after 6:00 p.m. the officers working traffic rejoin their "partners" in the squad cars. This is the only exception to the policy.

Sergeant CALVIN B. OWENS, residence 1830 Melbourne, Dallas, assigned to the Oak Cliff Sub-station, Dallas Police Department, furnished the following:

Sergeant OWENS has been a police officer for 23½ years and had known Patrolman J. D. TIPPIT for about 11 years prior to the death of TIPPIT on November 22, 1963. During this 11 year period, OWENS had been TIPPIT's supervisor for about 10 years and was his supervisor on November 22, 1963. For about six months to a year prior to his death, TIPPIT had been assigned to District 78 in the Oak Cliff area of Dallas. From November 1, 1963, until his death, TIPPIT had been assigned to the day shift, working from 7:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Sergeant OWENS explained that it is Police Department policy that the Patrol Division rotates its working hours each month, therefore, each patrolman will work one month from 7:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. or the "day shift," then one month from 3:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. or the "evening shift," and then one month from 11:00 p.m. until 7:00 a.m. or the "late night shift," then repeat this procedure.

Sergeant OWENS advised it also is Police Department policy that about 80% of the patrolmen working the day shift, work alone, while during the remaining two shifts all patrolmen work with a "partner" or with another patrolman in the squad car and not necessarily the same partner each day. OWENS stated that Officer TIPPIT was one of those patrolmen working the day shift who was working alone. OWENS advised during the day shift on November 22, 1963, there were about 13 or 14 squad cars operating out of the Oak Cliff Sub-station and that three of these were two-man units while the remaining were one-man units. TIPPIT, according to OWENS, was one of the latter.

E. Remarks Made in Speech by Attorney DAVID AARON WITTS Before Dallas Salesmanship Club, Dallas, Texas, May 21, 1964, and Basis for Such Remarks

The Thursday, May 21, 1964, issue of "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper contained the following article captioned as follows:

"DEFEND DALLAS, LAWYER URGES

"Dallas attorny David Witts told the Dallas Salesmanship Club Thursday that the city is being falsely accused throughout the world for a tragedy in which it had no guilt.

"'As shocking as the tragic assassination itself is the use which has been made, whether by ignorance or by plan, to turn the murderous act of a Communist into a vicious complaint against Dallas and Texas,' Mr. Witts said at a noon luncheon in the Dallas Athletic Club.

"Mr. Witts charged that in all communications media a massive effort has been made to cover up the fact that the assassin was a Communist.

"He told the group that when Lee Harvey Oswald defected to the Soviet Union he took with him such important military code and electronic secrets that the Marine Corps had to change its whole system of codes on the West Coast.

"'The speed with which Oswald obtained a Russia visa, when it normally takes from 60 to 90 days, indicates the Soviets gave him special attention,' the lawyer said. 'He either had a visa while still on duty as a Marine or received one immediately, cutting through red tape.'

"Mr. Witts said that among other things that would indicate favored treatment by the Soviets for Oswald was his job in Minsk, where he could not possibly have lived on the income the Soviets claimed he did.

"The Dallas attorney said Minsk was also the location of a Soviet assassins' school.

"'And on that salary he travvuled, enjoyed social life, met and married the relative of a Soviet intelligence agent, all fitting the pattern for espionage agents,' the lawyer said.

"Mr. Witts said that when Oswald 're-defected' back to this country the Soviets granted his visa and passports for his wife immediately and while the U. S. embassy paid for his trip, someone else paid for his wife's.

"'Oswald received unusually special treatment by the Soviets and this would not have been done unless it was of some use to the Soviet intelligence service,' Mr. Witts said.

"He said the first news bulletin from Radio Moscow after the assassination was that the shots were fired by right-wing extremists.

"'That was the party line and it has been amplified ever since by the Communists,' he said.

"Mr. Witts told the club members that Dallas is one of the truly great cities of the world and he considered it time for Dallasites to speak up in defense of the city.

"He demonstrated his statement that a continuing smear campaign is being conducted against Dallas by holding up copies of national and international magazines books and newspapers, describing Dallas' 'shame.'

"Mr. Witts told the group that guilt was not collective and that a fundamental truth of Christian faith was being ignored by those who would try Dallas as a whole rather than the man who committed the crime."

DAVID

DAVID AARON WITTS, Attorney, Room 1000, Vaughn Building, 1712 Commerce Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he is engaged in the practice of general civil law as a partner in the firm of "Witts and Ewing" at that address. WITTS advised he was born December 13, 1920, at Denton, Texas, and presently resides at 6007 Glendora Street, Dallas, with his family.

TEXAS

WITTS was exhibited an article published in "The Dallas Times Herald" newspaper, dated Thursday, May 21, 1964, captioned, "Defend Dallas, Lawyer Urges," in which the article sets forth certain allegations concerning communist affiliations of LEE HARVEY OSWALD allegedly made by him, WITTS, before the Dallas Salesmanship Club on May 21, 1964. WITTS was asked to specifically advise interviewing Agents as to the basis for the alleged facts set forth therein and the circumstances surrounding his speaking engagement.

WITTS advised that the statements attributed to him in this newspaper article were, in fact, made by him before an assemblage of the Dallas Salesmanship Club at their monthly business luncheon which was, in this instance, held at the Dallas Athletic Club, Athletic Club Building, 1805 Elm Street, Dallas, on Thursday, May 21, 1964.

WITTS explained that, although he is not a member of the Dallas Salesmanship Club, nor does he have any business affiliations with this group, he was asked to attend the luncheon as a guest speaker by a banker friend, as he is frequently called upon to speak at similar functions and is considered an enlightening speaker on legal phases of general business activity. He advised that on this occasion, however, he digressed from his usual speaking format and developed the theme as set forth in this article in retaliation to the volume of bad publicity about the City of Dallas and its citizens, which has been so widespread in the last several months. He stated it was about time someone spoke up in defense of the City of Dallas and he decided to take it upon himself to do so on this occasion.

WITTS emphasized that all of the statements made by him regarding LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as set forth in this article, were based upon other articles and items in several periodicals, and that the alleged facts as announced by him at this luncheon were taken in text from these articles and news items. WITTS stated he has no private source of confidential information as regards the LEE HARVEY OSWALD case and it was not his intention to offer personal conclusions concerning the communistic background of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WITTS advised the articles from which these alleged facts were taken are as follows:

United States News & World Report, issue of December 9, 1963;

United States News & World Report, issue of December 16, 1963;

Pamphlet captioned, "Washington Report," published by American Security Council, Executive Offices and Research Center, 123 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois; Washington Bureau Offices, 1025 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, D. C.; Western Office, 5931 West Slauson Avenue, Culver City, California, issue of March 16, 1964, containing article captioned, "Background for Assassination." WITTS explained this "Washington Report" pamphlet was furnished to him by a friend and that he, WITTS, is not a subscriber to this pamphlet.

WITTS was asked to specifically point out in these publications the text upon which he based his statements in answer to the following questions relating to statements made in the article of "The Dallas Times Herald," May 21, 1964:

1) Statement that OSWALD was a communist.

9) Lastly, statement to the effect that the first news bulletin from Radio Moscow following the assassination of President KENNEDY stated that the shots were fired by right-wing extremists.

WITTS furnished a photocopy of the "Washington Report," dated March 16, 1964, to interviewing Agents; however, he was unable to locate exact text taken from the two issues of United States News & World Report.

Miss FRANCES BLANTON, 6619 Ascot Lane, who is employed as a bookkeeper at the North Haven Gardens, 7700 Northaven Road, Dallas, Texas, advised she had been sorting out some old magazines at her residence on Sunday, April 19, 1964, and came upon "Time" magazine, Volume 81, No. 25, dated June 21, 1963, with the printed label addressed to LEE H. OSWALD, Box 2915, Dallas 21, Texas. Miss BLANTON furnished this issue of "Time" magazine which bears the label with the following printing: "DEC 63 OWA 9991SL97T780321, LEE H. OSWALD, BOX 2915, DALLAS 21, TEXAS."

Regarding this magazine, Miss BLANTON stated in the latter part of June, 1963, she was in GONZALO ANCIRA's office in the Hartford Building, Dallas, Texas, and among the mail on his desk was this issue of "Time" magazine. Miss BLANTON said that ANCIRA is a self-employed consulting engineer with offices adjacent to the Wade Corporation where she was employed as a secretary at the time. She said ANCIRA was employed on a contract basis by the Wade Corporation on a contract that that corporation was in the process of fulfilling.

Concerning the above issue of "Time" magazine, Miss BLANTON said she checked the cover and noticed it contained an article concerning MEDGAR EVERS which she was interested in reading. She said she asked ANCIRA if she could take the magazine home with her and he said it did not belong to him. He then requested, Miss BLANTON stated, that she give the magazine to him and when she did, he, with ink, scratched through the name and address appearing on the label on the magazine. She said ANCIRA then handed the magazine back to her and she took the magazine home to read. On the following day, Miss BLANTON stated ANCIRA asked for the magazine and she informed him she had left it at home and he told her it would be all right for her to keep it.

Miss BLANTON said GONZALO ANCIRA resides at 1803 Cooper Street, Irving, Texas. She also said she believes he is a Mexican National and owns a rather large ranch in Mexico which he frequently visits. Miss BLANTON stated on the day of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY she asked ANCIRA if he was going to watch the Presidential motorcade to which ANCIRA replied, "He's not my President,"

GONZALO ANCIRA, Room 1305, Hartford Building, Dallas, Texas, advised he is self-employed as a consulting engineer with offices adjacent to the Wade Corporation, and resides at 1803 Cooper Drive, Irving, Texas. ANCIRA said he was born December 15, 1929, at Sabinas Hidalgo, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and stated he is a citizen of Mexico. He said he attended Southern Methodist University and that his wife and three children are American citizens.

ANCIRA said he obtained Post Office Box 2915 at the Main Post Office, Dallas, Texas, on May 20, 1963. He said up until the assassination of President KENNEDY there was placed in his box mail addressed to LEE H. OSWALD. He said most of this mail consisted of what appeared to be foreign periodicals originating from Russia. ANCIRA said he would mark through the address and note on this mail that it was not for this box and would then return it to the mail drop in the Post Office.

ANCIRA was exhibited "Time" magazine, Volume 81, No. 25, dated June 21, 1963, with the printed label addressed to LEE H. OSWALD, Box 2915, Dallas 21, Texas, which label had been scratched through with ink. ANCIRA was asked if he recalled seeing this particular magazine before, and further if he had loaned this magazine to Miss FRANCES BLANTON, who was an employee of Wade Corporation, Hartford Building, Dallas, Texas, at the time the magazine was issued or if he had loaned this magazine to any other person. ANCIRA stated he cannot recall ever seeing this magazine or loaning it to anyone. He stated however that it appeared he did scratch through the name and address appearing on the label because this is the way he usually marked the mail addressed to OSWALD which was placed in his box.

ANCIRA said he could not recall the names of any of the foreign publications or periodicals addressed to OSWALD which had been placed in his box. He advised he could not recall the names of any domestic publications or periodicals addressed to OSWALD which were placed in his box.

Regarding the statement allegedly attributed to him to the effect that he said when asked if he were intending to view the Presidential motorcade, "He's not my President," ANCIRA stated that inasmuch as he is a Mexican citizen he was simply referring to that fact without intending to disparage the President of the United States in any way whatsoever. ANCIRA said he did not view the motorcade and when he first heard of the assassination of President KENNEDY he was in front of the Southland Building and a passing motorist informed him that the President had been shot. ANCIRA stated he was shocked and amazed that the assassination of President KENNEDY could occur in the United States. ANCIRA stated he returned immediately to his offices and subsequently learned over the radio of the death of President KENNEDY and he left the office at approximately 2:30 p.m. and while en route to his residence in Irving, Texas, he heard over the radio that one LEE HARVEY OSWALD was considered a suspect in the assassination. Recalling the previous boxholder of Box 2915 through which he had been receiving mail, he immediately returned to the Hartford Building intending to notify the appropriate authorities of this fact and located a uniformed police officer near the building and advised this officer of this fact. He accompanied the officer to the Main Post Office and after verifying the previous boxholder to be LEE H. OSWALD, the officer telephoned his headquarters.

ANCIRA advised further that he is the owner of an 18,000 acre cattle ranch in the state of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and is required to make frequent business trips to that property and as a result intended to visit the ranch the weekend of November 23-24, 1963. Following the assassination of President KENNEDY, however, he learned the United States-Mexican border was closed on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He, therefore, delayed his departure until Sunday, November 24, 1963, at which time he departed for Mexico with his wife and three children. While en route to Laredo, Texas, he learned via radio broadcast of the killing of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Sunday, November 24, 1963. He advised that per his usual schedule he remained in Mexico for four to five days before returning to his home in Irving, Texas.

ANCIRA stated he was not acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and to his knowledge had no contact with either.

He stated he was driving a friend's car which she did not see. She asked him for a credit card and he did not have one. He stated he was in the publishing business. The woman had nothing to say and was smiling the entire time they were in the office.

Mrs. DOYLE refused to rent the man an automobile. She stated she reported this man to the FBI at San Antonio, TEXAS as possibly being identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD who she had seen on television when he was shot and killed in Dallas, Texas. She also saw OSWALD's wife on television when he was buried.

Mrs. DOYLE stated her only reason for reporting the man and the woman as possibly being identical to OSWALD and wife was that "I have never encountered people of this type before at the airport."

JESSE EASTERLING, Owner and Operator of Skyline Motel, located on Route #11 West of Pulaski, Virginia, advised in September, 1963, he believes LEE HARVEY OSWALD, his wife and two small children spent a night at his motel. He stated when the individual first checked into the motel he had a beard; however, after shaving, the individual appeared to look more like JACK RUBY than LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

He added that the man whom he believed to be OSWALD advised him he had been to Centerville, Ohio and was headed West. He described the two small children accompanying this individual as being about three years and four months in age, respectively.

EASTERLING stated that the individual signed his full name when registering and he thereafter kept the registration card on his desk because he "never had anyone by the name of Oswald stay here before". He stated that he has since destroyed the registration card.

EASTERLING advised that this individual and his family stayed at his motel only one night and he did not observe the party when they left. He could recall no details concerning the automobile they were driving or any further details concerning them.

He concluded by stating that he has been thinking about this individual for some time and since he believes him to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he decided to report the incident as it may be of interest.

In response to a telephone call to the Dallas FBI Office requesting that a Special Agent contact him, Mr. JIM COLEMAN was contacted at his office, 2646 Andjon Street, Dallas, Texas, on April 10, 1964, by Special Agent E. J. ROBERTSON. Mr. COLEMAN operates the Coleman Advertising Service at this address, which is engaged in religious advertising.

Mrs. COLEMAN received a letter postmarked Dallas, Texas, April 7, 1964, containing a letter from VERA EDENS, 1509 Gaston Avenue, Plano, Texas, with four mimeograph sheets enclosed. A review of this material reflects that it is anti-Jewish in nature and contains the following paragraph:

> "Lee Oswald did not kill John Kennedy. He only shot at General Walker to try to show he MEANT TO KILL HIM when he agreed with the C. I. A. & the Kennedys to do so. He ne ver meant to kill him. Marina Oswald told that Lee told her he shot at Gen. Walker...this to The World, to vindicate her husband's honor THE BEST SHE KNEW HOW. She wanted the C. I. A. to know Lee kept his word to kill Walker. . . Oh, what's the use in opening your mouth....THE WHOLE DAMN WORLD is gone crazy. Minds are as blank as the day it is born. "

Review of the files of the Dallas FBI Office reflect that VERA EDENS has been publishing a mimeographed form, anti-Jewish and anti-United Nations in nature, since September, 1950.

On April 9, 1964, Mrs. MARY L. HAMMER, 8216 Wilbur Avenue, Reseda, California, advised SA VINCENT J. She could not recall any descriptive or background information regarding this individual, but believed he was living in an adulterous relationship with a 17-year-old girl who moved to Sun Valley from Austin, Texas.

At that point Mrs. HAMMER became incoherent and could not develop a single train of thought. During the evening of April 22, 1964, Mr. OTTIS DAVID HONAKER, 4624 South 32nd Street, Tulsa 7, Oklahoma, appeared at the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished the following information to SA EMORY E. HORTON:

JACK BURKETT (deceased), who previously resided in Tulsa, Oklahoma, was a former employee of Mr. HONAKER when HONAKER owned and operated the Century Manufacturing Company, 51st and Sapulpa Road, Tulsa, Oklahoma, which employment was during the period of about 1929 to 1942.

During December, 1963, BURKETT, acting on a request of Mr. HONAKER, became friendly with BROUDER BRUNDADGE, a Communist Party (CP) area leader, who resides at an unknown address in Tecumseh, Oklahoma. BURKETT told HONAKER that while intoxicated BRUNDADGE gave the following information to BURKETT, who relayed same to HONAKER:

On November 11, 1963, NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV, Premier, USSR, called to his office in Moscow, Russia, two of his "leading helpers," identities not further known, and told them, "This damned KENNEDY has thrown on the brakes and I want him killed and I want it done so the American people will think an American was responsible for his death."

The two "helpers" then gave the orders to the two Communist, USA, leaders in Washington, D. C., identities unknown, and they called a meeting in Washington, D. C., of about seventy communists, which meeting was held during the evening of November 11, 1963. At the meeting, the two USA, CP, leaders told the assembled group to casually and suggestively let it be known around Washington, D. C., that President JOHN F. KENNEDY should make trips to the southern, southwestern, and western states of the United States so he would be seen by the people and children to "make them feel better." This resulted in the President's decision to make some trips during the latter part of November, one of which was to Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

The two CP, USA, leaders then called PEARL RIPPEY, white female, approximately sixty years of age, a member of the Communist Party, who lived in an unknown town in Northern Florida. Mr. HONAKER stated that he learned RIPPEY was a member of the Communist Party in 1942 while in Washington, D. C., on defense contracts. He said he has fully reported the information on PEARL RIPPEY and BROUDER BRUNDADGE, an area communist leader in Tecumseh, Oklahoma, to the Oklahoma City Office of the FBI.

Returning to the current matter, Mr. HONAKER stated the CP, USA, leaders called PEARL RIPPEY and BROUDER BRUNDADGE and an unknown person who resides in Fort Worth, Texas, and assigned those persons the job of assassinating President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The three, RIPPEY, BRUNDADGE and the unknown party, met at the bus station, Fort Worth, Texas, at about 11:00 AM, November 21, 1963. There, they reportedly learned the President would not go through Fort Worth, Texas, but would visit Dallas, Texas. They then took a taxicab from the bus station in Fort Worth, Texas, to an unknown bus station in Dallas, Texas. They then proceeded three blocks east and one and one-half blocks or one-half block south from the Dallas bus station, where they rented a room in a rooming house located on the west side of the street. The three persons then walked around Dallas and picked out a building where school books are stored as being the likely place for the assassination. PEARL RIPPEY then went after LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who she had apparently previously met under unknown circumstances. She brought OSWALD to the rooming house where the three were residing and they "brainwashed him" and promised him $10,000 to help them kill President KENNEDY. OSWALD departed the rooming house at approximately 11:00 PM, November 21, 1963, after agreeing to assist them with the planned assassination.

The following morning, November 22, 1963, OSWALD returned to the above referred to rooming house and brought two pistols and a rifle. OSWALD and BRUNDADGE then proceeded to the back storage building, previously mentioned, where BROUDER BRUNDADGE shot the President two times, one time in the neck and one time in the head. BRUNDADGE then shot the Governor of the State of Texas one time. BRUNDADGE then had OSWALD take the two pistols, but leave the rifle, and instructed OSWALD to proceed home as fast as he could, asking him to run all of the way, and told him, OSWALD, that if he should be stopped by the police he should shoot his way out. The idea behind this plan was to get OSWALD killed by the police. Reportedly, two police officers tried to capture OSWALD, with OSWALD killing one of the officers, but being captured by the other officer who possibly had some help. OSWALD was then taken to the Dallas City Jail by the officers who took him into custody.

RIPPEY, BRUNDADGE and the third conspirator from Fort Worth, Texas, were afraid OSWALD would tell the entire story, so the unknown conspirator introduced PEARL RIPPEY "to a fellow named RUBY." RIPPEY brainwashed RUBY for a day and a half, that being the afternoon of November 22 and November 23, 1963, and on the following morning, November 24, 1963, BRUNDADGE and the Fort Worth conspirator told RIPPEY that OSWALD was to be transferred that morning from the Dallas City Jail to the Dallas County Sheriff's Office.

RIPPEY then hypnotized RUBY and had RUBY go into the Dallas City Police Building and shoot OSWALD two times. The three conspirators then departed Dallas, Texas, and returned to their respective homes, that is, RIPPEY to an unknown town in Florida, BRUNDADGE to Tecumseh, Oklahoma, and the third person to Fort Worth, Texas.

After returning to Florida, PEARL RIPPEY started bragging about killing President KENNEDY. Her actions in this regard were reported by unknown Florida communists to the communist leaders in Washington, D. C., and the unnamed leaders had PEARL RIPPEY killed at an unknown town in Florida on an unknown date, which was about five or ten days after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Further, BRUNDADGE told BURKETT that he, BRUNDADGE, has killed twenty-eight persons in the State of Oklahoma. BRUNDADGE said he choked his victims to death and they were found dead with the causes of death being undeterminable. Further, PEARL RIPPEY allegedly has killed thirty-two persons in the State of Florida, using the same method.

HONAKER stated that JACK BURKETT furnished the above information to a party or parties unknown to HONAKER and about one month after the assassination, this being during the latter part of December, 1963, BURKETT was shoved in front of a car by unknown party in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and killed.

Mr. HONAKER stated the above constitutes the only information he has regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY and explained that this information was given to him by JACK BURKETT prior to BURKETT's death, which was around Christmas, 1963.

Mr. HONAKER furnished the following information regarding himself:

Name:	OTTIS DAVID HONAKER

Residence:	4624 South 32nd Street, Tulsa 7, Oklahoma (owns home) (no phone)

Mr. HONAKER stated that in about 1951 BROUDER BRUNDADGE put out a rumor that he, HONAKER, was mentally ill. HONAKER said he then voluntarily turned himself in to the mental hospital, Venita, Oklahoma, where he was confined for six or seven months, being released in late 1951 or early 1952 as mentally competent. Mr. HONAKER explained that he asked the County Court, Tulsa County, Oklahoma, to have him, HONAKER, committed to the mental hospital but, after his release from the Venita, Oklahoma, hospital, which declared him competent, he returned to Tulsa County, Oklahoma, presented the evidence to the County Court in that county, which "restored my legal competency so I could again transact business."

Mr. HONAKER denied ever being confined to any other mental institution or having been treated for any mental condition since that date.

Mr. HONAKER stated he made the trip from Tulsa, Oklahoma to Dallas, Texas, on April 22, 1964, and proceeded immediately to the Dallas FBI Office after arriving in Dallas; therefore, he had no Dallas address, but said he planned to return to his home

JUDITH BROWN, Clerk, Central State Griffin Memorial Hospital Records Department, Norman, Oklahoma, furnished the following information as obtained from the files of that agency.

The records reflect that O. D. HONAKER entered the hospital on February 6, 1959, by certification of the Pottawatomie County Court on petition by JACK D. HONAKER, M.D., 121 North Ninth, Frederick, Oklahoma, who is a son of the patient.

Case history of HONAKER reflects his mental disability had existed since 1950 and he had been confined to the Eastern State Hospital from 1955 to 1957. He had been treated as an out-patient clinic on September 22, 1958, at Central State Hospital in Norman. Diagnosis by staff members of HONAKER's mental condition classified him as schizophrenic reaction - paranoid type manifested by delusional thinking, suspiciousness, hostility, hyperactivity, hypomanic demeanor, euphoric and inappropriate affect, pressured speech, irrelevance, incoherence, loose associations, delusions of grandiosity (owns many plants, is worth millions, is a famous industrial manager, etc.) delusions of persecution (people are after him, trying to ruin him and his family, police and FBI involved) severely impaired judgment and lack of insight.

HONAKER's history at the hospital has been one of continued unauthorized absences as follows: Admitted February 6, 1959, AWOL September 2, 1959; returned October 28, 1959, AWOL August 30, 1960; returned October 6, 1960, AWOL June 6, 1961; returned July 19, 1961, convalescent leave November 16, 1961; returned March 24, 1962, AWOL July 9, 1962; returned August 13, 1962, AWOL July 1, 1963; returned July 3, 1963, AWOL September 19, 1963; returned September 24, 1963, AWOL April 22, 1964.

Mrs. BROWN pointed out that the hospital does not have finances or organization to return AWOL patients and its policy is to notify the county of commitment after a patient's unauthorized absence and it is thereafter necessary for patient to be recommitted unless he returns voluntarily. At present HONAKER's status is AWOL.

H. Allegation by HART K. JOHNSON That Governor CONNALLY Was Target of Assassination Rather Than President KENNEDY

On November 26, 1963, a letter, postmarked November 25, 1963 at Chicago, was received at the Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Chicago, Illinois. This letter is set forth as follows:

"Hart K. Johnson
Sales Representative
1611 Rascher Avenue
Chicago 40, Illinois
Nov. 24, 1963

"F B I
Chicago, Ill.

"Gentlemen:

"In connection with the sad happening last Friday in Dallas, I have not seen an account that the shots actually were aimed at Gov. Connelly and not at the President.

"From the 6th floor to a moving street vehicle, there could be a thousand feet distance. A bullet aimed at a human head at a thousand feet at a target moving at 20/25 MPH well could miss by the distance separating the Governor from the President (possibly 3 feet) enough so that aimed at the advance target actually hit the object behind.

"It is possible the assassin aimed at the Governor, the possible object of his complaining letter, published, and actually hit the Preseident purely by miscalulation.

"At least, it's a thought.

PETER MC LAUGHLIN, 160 Magnolia Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey, by letter dated December 27, 1963, to the Attorney General of the United States, Washington, D. C., asked if LEE OSWALD was a red-haired man. He indicated he was in Mexico from October 3, 1962, until November 3, 1962, at which time he met a young American who told him he had been in the United States Marines. He also noted this man had a barracks bag full of books.

Mr. MC LAUGHLIN was contacted on January 21, 1964, at the above address and he stated he sent the letter since he had never read in the newspaper regarding the color of OSWALD's hair but did read he had been in Mexico during the above period of time in 1962. When advised that OSWALD's hair was not red in color, he stated it was definitely not OSWALD whom he had met but recalled the name given by this individual as JOHN OTTO BRIDGE. He stated he had met BRIDGE in Mexico City in October, 1962, and had been told by him he had been in the United States Marines. He noted BRIDGE had a Boston accent and was very interested in reading.

MC LAUGHLIN volunteered he was fifty-nine years of age; was born in a small town twelve miles from Glasgow, Scotland; came to the United States in 1927 after attending school until fourteen years of age and working in a steel mill in Scotland; was in the U. S. Army Air Force from 1942 to 1945 as a radio operator; has had different jobs in various parts of the United States, in particular in the Transit Bureau of Philadelphia, the Scioto Golf Club, Columbus, Ohio; and at the present is employed as a kitchen helper at the Harvard Club, 27 West 44th Street, New York, New York.

K. Allegation by Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ That FIDEL CASTRO Connected With Assassination

CUBA

Date 5/14/64

Mr. ED HERBERT, News Director of KTVT, Fort Worth, Texas, stated Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ appeared with him on the 10:30 P.M. program, "Point of View", Channel 11, KTVT, but never mentioned anything about the assassination; however, earlier in the day at 3:00 P.M., ROY COOPER of Television Station KTVT, covered a speech by Dr. PENABAZ at Calvary Presbyterian Church. Fort Worth, Texas

A summary of what ROY COOPER stated PENABAZ mentioned in his speech is being set out below:

DAVE NAUGLE, news commentator, read COOPER's report on the 11:00 P.M. news, which came on immediately following "Point of View". HERBERT stated PENABAZ is a prominent Cuban in exile who lives in Coral Gables, Florida.

Dr. PENABAZ was introduced to the gathering of about one hundred by retired Air Force Captain KENNETH RYCKER. PENABAZ startled his audience by claiming that FIDEL CASTRO definitely had a hand in the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas on November 22, 1963. The Doctor said he had reliable information that the Inspector General of CASTRO's Cuban Air Force, QUINTIN PINO, was waiting at an airfield near Dallas to rescue LEE HARVEY OSWALD following the shooting of President KENNEDY. According to PENABAZ, PINO was to fly OSWALD to Mexico, but OSWALD, he said, panicked after the death of the President, shot Officer TIPPIT, and was captured before he could make a contact. Dr. PENABAZ said if OSWALD had not stopped by his rooming house to change clothes, the plan might have been successful. His contact supposedly did not recognize him because of the different clothes he was wearing. Dr. PENABAZ said the FBI is checking the story.

L. Allegation by ROBERT ADRIAN TAYLOR That He Possibly Purchased Rifle From LEE HARVEY OSWALD in March or April, 1963

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

ROBERT ADRIAN TAYLOR, residing in Apartment 1, at the corner of Jelmak Avenue and Hard Rock Road, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised his mailing address is Route 1, Box 125G, Grand Prairie, Texas. TAYLOR said that since April 15, 1964, he has been employed by the City of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, driving a wrecker for the Police Department Wrecker Service. TAYLOR said he was born June 13, 1916, at Loyalville, Pennsylvania.

TAYLOR said he was previously employed as a mechanic at the Shell Service Station on the southwest corner of Rock Island and Story Streets, Irving, Texas. He said while thusly employed in March or April, 1963, two men drove into the station complaining of engine trouble in their car. He determined that the generator of the automobile needed repairs and total cost would be $11.50 to make these repairs. TAYLOR stated that between the two they did not have $11.50, at which time the passenger riding in the car asked him if he would like to buy a rifle. TAYLOR replied that he might be interested, at which time one of the two men opened the trunk of the car and said, "There it is."

TAYLOR asked what kind of a gun it was, and received the reply that it is a "0 Six." TAYLOR advised he took the weapon out of the trunk, looked at it and offered $12.00. The driver of the vehicle then said, "You're not going to let it go for that. You paid $35.00 for it." The passenger then replied, "No, we need the money."

TAYLOR advised he obtained $12.00 out of the cash drawer and purchased the rifle. He then proceeded to repair the generator and charged them $11.50, which they paid, and departed. TAYLOR stated he does not recall the make and model of the automobile, but believes it was a 1959 Chevrolet. As to the exact date that this transpired, TAYLOR said he could not give a closer approximation of the time he purchased the rifle, other than March or April, 1963. He did state he believes it was on a Saturday in the morning hours.

TAYLOR described the rifle as a Springfield Bolt Action.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

30.06 Caliber. It contained the marking, "U. S. Rock Island Arsenal, Model 1906," and has Serial No. 66091. TAYLOR said he was of the opinion the rifle had never been fired, as it had a great deal of grease in the barrel. It appeared to him the rifle was a typical surplus rifle that was probably released for sale by the government during the last five or ten years. TAYLOR said when he purchased it he is sure, in his own mind, the rifle was in exactly the same condition as when it was issued originally by the government. He said he has seen many similar-type rifles.

TAYLOR advised that, since purchasing this rifle, he has "sporterized" it. He said he removed the top part of the wooden stock, and shortened the forepiece of the bottom of the stock. He said he removed the sling, the front sling holder, the metal bands that held the top part of the wooden stock, and also removed the movable peep sight. In addition, TAYLOR stated he filed down and bent the bolt actuating arm, so it would not interfere with the telescope sight, which he later had installed. TAYLOR advised he had the gun drilled and tapped (four) for a scope mount at John Furrer's, 1112 Sowers Road, Irving, Texas. TAYLOR further stated that he purchased a Herter's 4X Scope direct from their factory at Waukesha, Wisconsin, which he mounted on the rifle. He said that he, at present, does not have the scope on the rifle and has stored it for safekeeping. TAYLOR said he did not shorten the barrel of this rifle.

TAYLOR advised that on November 23, 1963, he was watching television and, upon viewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD, commented to his wife, "Say, that looks like the guy I bought the 30.06 from." He stated, however, he cannot be positively sure the man who sold him the rifle was OSWALD. He stated he feels that it was OSWALD since, upon viewing OSWALD on television, he immediately thought of this rifle and, at that instant, thought OSWALD was the man who sold the weapon to him.

On reflecting back, TAYLOR stated he had never seen either of these two men before. He stated there is a possibility the man he believes to be OSWALD came into the station several weeks to a month later after he had purchased the rifle from him and he was, at that time, a passenger in another automobile, this time driven by a woman. He said he cannot recall what kind of automobile the woman was driving and would hesitate to give a description of it. Further, TAYLOR stated, he is rather doubtful that the individual from whom he purchased the rifle was ever seen by him either prior or subsequent to the time he purchased the rifle. He said he may have seen him another time, but he is not sure.

Concerning this woman and male passenger who he thought to be the man from whom he had purchased the rifle, TAYLOR said he is very doubtful that this actually was LEE HARVEY OSWALD because, on reflection, he recalls the person from whom he purchased this rifle had promised to give him two boxes of ammunition for the rifle. He said he is almost sure that, if OSWALD had been this person in the station at that time, he would have remembered him because of the promised ammunition.

TAYLOR related that it is his practice each year to go deer hunting during the deer hunting season. He said the deer hunting season for the State of Texas for the year 1963 ran from November 15, 1963, through December 31, 1963. TAYLOR advised that, during the first week of deer season, he took this rifle with him to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, BENJAMIN and SHIRLEY MOKU, 502 Carroll Drive, Killeen, Texas. He said this address is "just off" Fort Hood, Texas, where his son-in-law, BENJAMIN MOKU, is assigned as an SP5. TAYLOR said that during the first week of deer season on some day before November 22, 1963, this gun was registered by either himself or BENJAMIN MOKU with the Provost Marshal at Fort Hood, Texas, for use in deer hunting on the Fort Hood military reservation. He said this rifle stayed at the residence of BENJAMIN and SHIRLEY MOKU until the last day of deer season, December 31, 1963, when he, TAYLOR, brought it back home with him.

TAYLOR made available this rifle for examination by the FBI Laboratory.

It should be noted that previous investigation has established that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was employed in Dallas, Texas, at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., in March 1963 and until April 6, 1963, and that he left Dallas for New Orleans, Louisiana, in the latter part of April 1963.

He noted that he was intoxicated at the time and that because of his intoxicated condition he was questioned by an officer who he believes was assigned to the District of Columbia Police Department. This officer did not arrest or book CRAMER but merely took his name and his permanent address, which he furnished to the officer as 515 North Trenton Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

By way of background, CRAMER advised that he has a criminal record involving petty thefts in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and Los Angeles, California.

CRAMER indicated that he has spent time as a mental patient in the Philadelphia State Hospital, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on two occasions. The first of these occasions took place in the latter part of 1962 when he was committed to this hospital by the Philadelphia County Court for observation. The second such occasion took place in 1963 when he was committed for four months for observation, again by the Philadelphia County Court, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On the occasion of this second instance he was likewise committed to the Philadelphia State Hospital.

CRAMER stated that following his release from the hospital after four months in June, 1963 and as a part of his therapeutic treatment he was under the care of Dr. ABRAHAM BARON, a psychiatrist with offices in Ventnor, New Jersey.

Doctor EARL FORREST ROSE, County Medical Examiner, Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, Texas, advised that during the autopsy performed on the body of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on November 24, 1963, no tattoo of a dagger with a snake was noted on the left forearm of OSWALD.

Doctor ROSE referred to his Autopsy Report, No. M63-356, a copy of which he previously made available, and stated that, had there been any such tattoo on the left forearm of OSWALD, a notation concerning same would have been reflected in his autopsy report.

Doctor ROSE added that, had there been any removal of a tattoo from the body of LEE HARVEY OSWALD within a two-month period prior to the autopsy, evidence of same would have been noted and so recorded in his autopsy report.

Doctor ROSE stated he could unequivocally state that there was no tattoo on the left forearm of OSWALD, and that no evidence of the removal of a tattoo was apparent at the time of the autopsy.

O. Allegation by BENJAMIN C. WARD That He Had Been With LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Summer, 1963, and Had Loaned Him Money

JTB:plw:eah

On March 13, 1964, Dallas T-3, who is an elected public official, advised he received a letter from BENJAMIN C. WARD, 822 Summitt Street, Montgomery, Alabama, in which letter WARD indicated that he had been with LEE HARVEY OSWALD last summer and had loaned him some money.

On March 25, 1964, JOHN D. CHAPMAN, Contact Officer, Veterans Administration Regional Office, Montgomery, made available the claim file of BENJAMIN C. WARD under Number C21637384. A review of this file reflected the following:

A report dated February 9, 1962, by Dr. C. C. ALLEN of the VA Hospital at Tuskegee, Alabama, reflected that the patient, a 24 year old white male, who was admitted to the hospital on September 27, 1961, shortly after his release from the Alabama State Mental Hospital in Tuscaloosa, had a history of uncontrollable violent and destructive behavior involving the destruction of two radios at different times and there was a suggestion that he may have been out of touch with his environment at least temporarily.

This report continues that WARD's intelligence, judgment, mental capacity and trend of general knowledge appear well maintained but insight is lacking. This report reflected the diagnosis of Schizophrenic Reaction, Undifferentiated Type, manifested by rigid affect, impaired memory, poor insight, history of irresistible to destructiveness and uncontrollable temper, now in remission.

The report of Dr. C. C. ALLEN of the Tuskegee VA Hospital, dated June 28, 1962, reflected WARD was discharged on that date against medical advice for refusal to submit to disciplinary action after committing an infraction of the hospital rules. This report reflected that the patient was adjudged competent.

Another report in this file was that of Dr. T. J. THOMAS, dated October 22, 1962, reflecting a Neuro-psychiatric examination at the VA Hospital in Montgomery, Alabama. This report reflected as follows:

The veteran is incompetent. He is very limited in his social adaptation and has made no economic adjustment. It is probable he will soon need to be hospitalized on account of the problem he creates in the parental situation. Patient was diagnosed as Schizophrenic Reaction, Undifferentiated.

A report dated January 10, 1963, by Dr. C. C. ALLEN of the Tuskegee VA Hospital reflected WARD was admitted

November 21, 1962, and discharged December 20, 1962. The psychiatric diagnosis this time was Schizophrenic Reaction - Undifferentiated Type, manifested by history of episodes of impulsive behavior of a destructive nature, and insomnia, chronic and moderate. The report continued that the patient was considered to be competent, although it was doubted that he would make a sustained social adjustment.

Mr. CHAPMAN advised that it was clear from WARD's file that WARD should be hospitalized for mental treatment and care; however, WARD's mother constantly declined to permit WARD to be hospitalized for a sustained length of time. Mr. CHAPMAN stated it appears the only way WARD can maintain any semblance of fitting into society is through a constant use of strong tranquilizer drugs.

On March 25, 1964, a check of the records of the Montgomery Police Department and the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office, failed to reflect any record of BENJAMIN C. WARD.

On March 25, 1964, Assistant Chief of Police E. P. BROWN, Detective Division, Montgomery Police Department, advised that WARD has not engaged in any activities which have come to his attention.

On March 25, 1964, BENJAMIN C. WARD, 828 Summit Street, Montgomery, Alabama, was interviewed at his home.

WARD advised that due to an extremely nervous system, he has a custom of walking to the downtown Montgomery area quite frequently about two or three o'clock in the morning. At approximately this time in either January or February, 1963, he had walked to the Trailways Bus Station in Montgomery to buy a magazine. He observed three or four men sitting at the coffee counter drinking coffee and engaged all of these men in a general conversation for several minutes. He did not obtain any of the names of these men and has no recollection whatever concerning the things discussed, but he does know that it was nothing of any particular import which they discussed during this time.

After the photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD was published in newspapers, magazines and displayed on television, WARD advised he recognized these pictures as being one of the men with whom he talked at the Trailways Bus Station on this occasion. He recalled that he heard one of the men with this person call the man identified by him as OSWALD by the name of ART.

WARD stated that he saw this same man on one other occasion which was the Friday before Labor Day in 1963. WARD stated at approximately 1:15 PM that date, he caught the Greyhound Bus from Montgomery to Mobile, Alabama, for the purpose of going to Pensacola, Florida, later to the dog races. While in the bus station in Montgomery prior to boarding his bus, he met this same man, identified by WARD as LEE HARVEY OSWALD and talked to him for some ten or fifteen minutes in the bus station. This man apparently had been on the bus when it came into the Montgomery station as he was permitted to board the bus before the passengers who were getting on for the first time in Montgomery.

After boarding the bus, he again had a lengthy discussion with this man and after telling the man he was going to Pensacola from Mobile to watch the dog races, this man stated that he, too, would get off in Mobile and go to Pensacola with him although he planned to go to New Orleans.

WARD stated that he and the man identified by him as OSWALD arrived in Mobile at approximately 6:00 PM and almost immediately caught a bus to Pensacola where they attended the dog races. Both returned by bus to Mobile, arriving about midnight and he, WARD, obtained a room in a hotel across the street from the bus station; however, the man identified by him as OSWALD stayed at the bus station stating he was going on to New Orleans. WARD stated that he has not seen this individual since that time.

WARD stated that the man identified by him as OSWALD never did tell him what his name was and he never did ask the man for his name. WARD stated that he and this man did not discuss anything in particular concerning where the man had been and where he was going, what he planned to do, and as a result, he knows nothing whatever about this individua as a result of his conversations with him.

WARD was asked if he loaned this individual some money, and he stated that he had not, that they had both bet on the dog races and this man had won about $800 in this manner and he himself had won about $125 on that occasion.

WARD was asked if he had observed this individual in the vicinity of the State Capitol in Montgomery, Alabama, during the time ~~Attorney General~~ ROBERT KENNEDY was visiting in Montgomery. WARD stated he did not go around the capitol during the time Attorney General KENNEDY was in Montgomery and has no idea if this man was in that vicinity. He stated that he does recall that the visit to Montgomery by Attorney General KENNEDY was on the day after he had seen the man identified by him as OSWALD at the Trailways Bus Station in Montgomery in January or February, 1963.

WARD was asked if he were convinced beyond any doubt that the man he had met on the two occasions in Montgomery was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. WARD stated that he could not swear that this individual was definitely LEE HARVEY OSWALD; however, based on this man's appearance and OSWALD's appearance as depicted in his pictures, he feels rather certain that this man was identical with OSWALD.

RE: JERRY PELLEGRINO
BLADENSBURG, MARYLAND

On December 4, 1963, Mrs. GEORGE M. HARRIS, Jr., 4000 52nd Avenue, Bladensburg, Maryland, advised Special Agent ROBERT L. LANPHEAR that GENNARO PELLEGRENO, also known as JERRY PELLEGRENO had rented a room from her from about March to May 1963. He had a mother, Mrs. GENNARO PELLEGRENO, who lived at 500 E. 119th Street, New York 35, New York, telephone FI. 8-4420. PELLEGRENO gave Mrs. HARRIS his place of employment as an electronics firm and provided her with the same telephone number he had given WALTER ANDREW KOOPMAN. On his arrival, he had displayed Army discharge papers, which indicated his age as about 35. Mrs. HARRIS further described PELLEGRENO as a white male, short and stocky, having dark close-cropped hair and as being a crackpot with some association with the John Birch Society.

Miss HELEN WHITE, Personnel Department, Fairchild Stratos, 5006 Jackson Boulevard, Bladensburg, Maryland, advised Special Agent LANPHEAR on December 4, 1963 that her records show J. PELLEGRINO was an employee of a sub-contractor of their firm, the Arde Engineering Company, 11 Hill Street, Newark, New Jersey and had been employed during March 1963 as a structural designer.

Mr. WALTER ANDREW KOOPMAN, who resides at 2404 Parallel Lane, Silver Spring, Maryland, was interviewed at his place of business the Saab Motor Company, at 4922 Cordell Avenue, Bethesda, Maryland. KOOPMAN furnished the following information:

In the current issue of U. S. News and World Report on page 59 or 69 there appeared a close-up photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who is accused of the assination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Upon seeing this photograph KOOPMAN stated that it looked very much like a man who came into his place of business on Cordell Avenue sometime between February 15, 1963 and March 15, 1963. KOOPMAN advised that the person resembling OSWALD called himself JERRY PELLEGRINO and had come to him to determine whether he would be able to trade his Volkswagen for a Saab. During the conversation, KOOPMAN advised that it became quite obvious that PELLEGRINO was not interested in trading cars but was more interested in talking, which he did at length.

PELLEGRINO stated that he had been living in either St. Louis, Missouri or St. Louis, Illinois, but had lost his job a week or ten days earlier. PELLEGRINO spoke a great deal about the "shape the country was in" and the lack of leadership.

KOOPMAN advised that a few days later, PELLEGRINO returned briefly to his place of business and left a picture post card in an envelope. This card had a picture of the United Nations Building and imprinted across the picture was "The House That Hiss Built." On the back of the card was the printed words "Isn't it time we did something about this?" KOOPMAN no longer has this card; however, PELLEGRINO at the same time left a manila envelope addressed to Mr. JERRY PELLEGRIM, 500 East 119th Street, New York City 35, New York. The manila envelope was apparently a business envelope from Allen-Bradley Company, Quality Motor Control, 136 West Greenfield Avenue, Milwaukee 4, Wisconsin.

Q. Allegation That ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER Associated With LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico City Prior to Assassination

DL 100-10461

On March 20, 1964, Dallas T-4 advised that he was in Mexico City until approximately two weeks ago. While in Mexico City he had occasion to visit the Casa de los Amigos operated by the American Friends Service Committee in Mexico City. While visiting the Casa de los Amigos, he met one ARNOLD (last name unknown) who was residing at the Casa de los Amigos.

ARNOLD had in his possession a press card which identified him as an employee of the "Mexico City Times", but he was not employed by that publication at the time he met informant. In addition, informant was unable to furnish any information as to where ARNOLD was working at the time.

ARNOLD related he had been in Mexico City for approximately four months and commented to informant that he had had dinner with LEE HARVEY OSWALD on the occasion of the latter's visit to Mexico City prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. ARNOLD did not say where this dinner engagement took place, nor did he relate any of the details of the conversation he had with OSWALD on the occasion of this dinner. Informant advised he did not learn whether ARNOLD met with OSWALD on any other occasion either in Mexico or elsewhere.

Informant described ARNOLD as a white male American, twenty to twenty-four years of age, 5'10", 160 pounds, blond hair, ruddy complexion, and full mustache. Informant noted that ARNOLD claimed to be from Berkeley, California.

Informant concluded by stating he has no additional information regarding the above matter, no further description of ARNOLD, and no idea where ARNOLD is living and working at the present time.

On April 7, 1964, Investigative Clerk DAVID L. DE WEESE reviewed at the Passport Office, United States Department of State, a passport application dated September 9, 1963, for ARNOLD

LOUIS KESSLER, born September 28, 1942, at Detroit, Michigan. This application was filed at San Francisco and revealed that a passport was issued to him on September 10, 1963, at San Francisco.

The aforementioned records reflected that KESSLER's permanent address was 18266 Pinehurst, Detroit, Michigan. His approximate date of departure from the United States was October 1, 1963, and he indicated he intended to stay abroad six months. His proposed itinerary was Brazil, Peru and Argentina, and the purpose of his trip was to visit relatives in these countries.

The aforementioned records contained the following description of KESSLER:

Height	5'9"
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown
Occupation	Student

The aforementioned records contained a photograph of ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER dated September 10, 1963. A copy of this photograph was exhibited to the original source in this matter, who advised that he met "ARNOLD" while visiting the Casa de los Amigos in Mexico City.

The aforementioned informant advised on April 14, 1964, that ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER was positively identical with the "ARNOLD" he met at the Casa de los Amigos.

Records of the University of California, Berkeley, California, reflect that ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER, born September 28, 1942, Detroit, Michigan, was admitted to the University of California Berkeley, in the spring of 1962 and officially withdrew September 1, 1963, for lack of money

The aforementioned records contained no information reflecting KESSLER's intention to return to the University of California and the only relatives shown in these records are his parents, SAM KESSLER and PAULINE BUCKLER KESSLER, 18266 Pinehurst, Detroit, Michigan.

Subsequent investigation was conducted to locate ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER. He was located and interviewed, the results of which have previously been reported. KESSLER stated during interview that he had, at no time, met LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

RE: ALLEGATION THAT LEE OSWALD WAS IN WELCH, WEST VIRGINIA, November 11, 1963

On December 2, 1963, Mr. PAUL HARRISON, Superintendent, Susquehanna Toll Bridge, Perryville, Maryland, advised SA GLYNN W. EILAND, that on December 1, 1963, a former employee of his at the toll bridge, [ODELL S. DANGERFIELD] had attempted to reach him via long distance telephone but was unable to do so. [DANGERFIELD] left the following message with an employee at the bridge and asked that it be given to Mr. HARRISON, "OSWALD, who killed the President, was reported to have been in Welch, West Virginia, on November 11, 1963, while Vice President JOHNSON was there".

Mr. HARRISON stated that he had fired [DANGERFIELD] in 1957 for being unreliable due to his drinking habits. He added that [DANGERFIELD] had returned to West Virginia. He had recently heard that [DANGERFIELD] was arrested for bootlegging at Iaeger, West Virginia, and that he was reported to be living there.

On December 2, 1963, Miss LEEDA KIPROW, Secretary to RUSSELL DAVIS, Personnel Director, State of Maryland, State Office Building, Baltimore, Maryland, advised SA J. STANLEY ROTZ that the only address they had for [ODELL S. DANGERFIELD] was that in 1957 when he resided at [RFD 1, Box 17] Elkton, Maryland. [DANGERFIELD] was employed as a guard at the Susquehanna Toll Bridge, Perryville, Maryland, from April to September, 1957.

On December 4, 1963, the Pittsburgh Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, advised that on December 3, 1963, [ODELL SYLVESTER DANGERFIELD] had been interviewed by SA FRANCIS E. BURKE at Redbird near Iaeger, West Virginia. [DANGERFIELD] had advised that a coal miner, whose identity he could not recall, mentioned to him about December 1, 1963, that he had heard that LEE OSWALD, President KENNEDY's assassin, was seen in Welch, West Virginia, November 11, 1963, at a celebration attended by LYNDON B. JOHNSON, then Vice President.

JSR:dgr

Chief of Police CLEVE HILTON, Iaeger, West Virginia, advised SA BURKE on December 3, 1963, that [DANGERFIELD] is a heavy drinker and totally unreliable. Chief of Police BUSTER DODSON, Welch, West Virginia, advised that no allegation of OSWALD's presence in Welch, West Virginia, as indicated by [DANGERFIELD] had been reported to Chief DODSON and he doubted the story.

Since previous investigation placed OSWALD in Dallas, Texas, on November 11, 1963, no further investigation was conducted concerning the foregoing allegation.

T. Allegation That LEE HARVEY OSWALD Met With FIDEL CASTRO's Agents in Mexico for Instructions as to how to Assassinate the President as Furnished by Mr. LEE DAUGHERTY

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

On 4/17/64 Mr. LEE DAUGHERTY, P. O. Box 537, Half Moon Bay, California, furnished the following information to SA MAX H. FISCHER:

Mr. Daugherty is a retired Army Officer presently working for Western Auto Company and is temporarily visiting in the Pebble Beach, California, area.

During the latter part of February, 1964, Mr. Daugherty took an Eastern Airlines flight from Tampa, Florida, to Dallas, Texas. The flight had originated in Miami, Florida, and was to terminate either in Phoenix, Arizona, or Albuquerque, New Mexico. When he got on the plane, he sat down next to two Cuban doctors (obstetricians) who had boarded the flight at Miami, Florida. One was an older man who sat next to the window and spoke almost no English. The other was about 45 years of age and was en route Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where he had obtained a position as a Resident physician in an Oklahoma City hospital. He was accompanied on the flight by a wife and either two or three small children.

This doctor, whose name Daugherty cannot recall, said he had recently come to the United States from Spain and the only way he could get out of Cuba was to go to Spain and thereafter obtain a visa to come to the United States. He indicated that he had been educated in the United States before World War II and served as an interne at St. Vincent's Hospital in New York City during World War II.

As the plane approached Dallas, Texas, this doctor asked Mr. Daugherty what he thought about the assassination of President Kennedy. Daugherty replied that it had been a horrible thing and wondered whether the truth would ever be known to the American people. The doctor replied that the truth would not be published for at least ten years and that he knew Lee Harvey Oswald had been to Mexico prior to the time of the assassination and had met with some of Fidel Castro's agents for instructions as to how to assassinate the President. He did not say how he had such knowledge but his statement was to the effect that he had knowledge that such were true facts and not a theory that the doctor had developed.

Mr. Daugherty thought about the conversation later and wondered how the doctor could have so much knowledge about the President's assassination when he supposedly was in Cuba until recently.

He stated that the exact date of the flight could be established at New Orleans, Louisiana, as it was the day the "Cotton Queen" arrived there for the Mardi Gras and newspaper photographers were on hand to take her picture.

On April 23, 1964, Mr. ROBIE LOVE, Justice of the Peace, Dallas County, Texas, telephonically advised SA CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., as follows:

Mr. LOVE said his wife received a telephone call from an unidentified colored man, who advised Mrs. LOVE he is the yardman for a woman residing at 2307 Finley Road, Irving, Texas. This unidentified colored man told Mrs. LOVE he desired to report some information to Mr. LOVE because he knew Mr. LOVE and he had been "scared to death" to say anything about this previously because he was afraid they might "kill him."

The man told Mrs. LOVE he was working in the yard at 2307 Finley Road, Irving, on the day of the assassination, November 22, 1963. He overheard the woman who lives at 2307 Finley Road talking to her son-in-law on the telephone, at which time there was a conversation reflecting the son-in-law had conspired with LEE HARVEY OSWALD to assassinate the President. On November 22, 1963, this unidentified son-in-law arrived in Dallas, Texas, and visited with the woman living at 2307 Finley Road. This man allegedly came from Tennessee or Georgia and reportedly left Dallas at 2:20 PM, on November 22, 1963, after the assassination, to return to Tennessee or Georgia. The woman at 2307 Finley Road supposedly had a great hatred for President KENNEDY.

This unidentified man told Mrs. LOVE he had worried over this matter for months and he desired to get it off his mind.

SA CHARLES T. BROWN, JR., checked the Criss-Cross Directory for the Dallas area, at which time it was ascertained LEWIS MAX ASHBURN resides at 2307 Finley Road, Irving, Texas.

Mr. LOVE, in furnishing the above information, stated his wife obtained a telephone nurber, "BL 5-6249," and believed that number was connected in some way with the call from the yardman.

A check of the Dallas Criss-Cross Directory fails to list a listing for "BL 5-6249."

Mr. LOVE did not know whether this telephone number applied to the yardman or to the woman residing at 2307 Finley Road, Irving.

On April 29, 1964, Lieutenant JOE HUBBARD, Irving Police Department, Irving, Texas, telephonically advised that at 9:00 P.M., April 20, 1964, Officer WALTER LIPSCOMB, Irving Police Department, received a telephone call from an unknown male telling the police to go to 2307 Finley Road and they would find a man that was wanted. The caller then hung up.

Lieutenant HUBBARD said that at 9:30 P.M. on April 25, 1964, Officer LIPSCOMB received another telephone call, believed to be from the same individual, who stated that he bet that Georgia would like to know who was at 2307 Finley Road and that the caller then hung up.

Lieutenant HUBBARD advised that at 10:05 P.M. on April 26, 1964, Sergeant W. L. DRAKE, Irving Police Department, received a long distance telephone call from Captain A. L. HUTCHINS, Georgia Bureau of Investigation, Atlanta, Georgia. Captain HUTCHINS advised Sergeant DRAKE that the Georgia Bureau of Investigation telephone operator had received a long distance telephone call from a person who stated that he would not tell his name because he did not want to get killed, but that there was a woman who lived at 2307 Finley Road, Irving, Texas, who had a son-in-law that knew who killed the three Georgia policemen. Captain HUTCHINS advised Sergeant DRAKE that the caller then hung up.

Lieutenant HUBBARD stated that inquiry at 2307 Finley Road reveals this is the residence of Mrs. BERNICE CLICK, who purchased the property from LEWIS MAX ASHBURN recently. According to Lieutenant HUBBARD, MARION B. MEHARG is the former son-in-law of Mrs. CLICK, whose daughter and her present husband, Mr. and Mrs. DAVID MILLER, reside at 125 Northern Avenue, Apartment Number 2, Atlanta, Georgia, telephone 377-4168.

Lieutenant HUBBARD advised that he is convinced that the telephone calls above were made by MARION B. MEHARG and that he has sent a teletype to the Georgia Bureau of Investigation advising them that he suspects such call they received was from MARION B. MEHARG.

Previous investigation has been conducted concerning MARION B. MEHARG and information attributed to him which is set forth on pages 49 to 56 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, and pages 99 through 118 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated January 22, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

The facts developed in connection with the information allegedly furnished by MEHARG were presented to Assistant U. S. Attorney B. H. TIMMINS, JR. at Dallas, Texas, on February 14, 1964, at which time he advised that, after reviewing the results of the investigation, he was declining prosecution with respect to MEHARG making false statements and impersonating a U. S. Secret Service agent because he did not believe the facts indicated an offense which could be proved in Federal Court. He further stated that the facts indicated that a domestic situation was responsible for the alleged actions of MEHARG and that he did not believe the Federal Court should be used to solve such a domestic situation.

W. U. S. Treasury Department Tax Form 1040 Bearing Writing "LEE OSWALD Was Here!" in Yellow Ink Found in U. S. Post Office, Waterloo, Iowa

By communication dated January 6, 1964, the Omaha Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation furnished a U. S. Treasury Department Tax Form 1040 with a printed sticker addressed to KATINKA A. MALOY, 241 Prospect Avenue, Waterloo, Iowa, with the writing "Lee Oswald was here!" in yellow ink. This form had been furnished to the FBI Resident Agency, Waterloo, Iowa, by Mr. THOMAS GORGAS, Assistant Postmaster, U. S. Post Office, Waterloo, Iowa, who stated it had been noted in a mail pouch received at that U. S. Post Office from the Internal Revenue Service, Ogden, Utah. He said that all mail in the pouch was Internal Revenue Service forms, pre-addressed for mailing at Ogden, Utah, and that when the pouch was opened for distribution of the forms in the Waterloo area, it was noted the writing was on this form. He said the writing "Lee Oswald was here!" was apparently written on the form before the typed address sticker was applied, as the address sticker covers part of the writing. He said that another Internal Revenue Service Form 1040 in this same bag had the words "Hello there" on it, but said he could not locate this form; however, it appeared to have been written by the same type and color of pen. GORGAS could furnish no other information on this matter, nor could he relate any other instances of similar writing noted in this mail pouch or other mail items. He said that a duplicate Form 1040 has been mailed to KATINKA A. MALOY, the addressee, and said he consulted the Postal Inspector and Internal Revenue Service, Waterloo, Iowa, who advised him to furnish the above item to the FBI for any assistance it might be in an investigation.

On February 12, 1964, FRED WIGNALL, Acting Director, Western Service Center, Internal Revenue Service, Ogden, Utah, examined the Form 1040 reflecting the above hand printed words. He advised he could place no significance on this writing, except that it apparently was some employee's idea of a joke. He said the Western Service Center had handled mailing of all 1040 Forms to taxpayers west of the Mississippi River, the total tally being 15,163,202. These forms were prepared for mailing on mechanical addressing machines, three of which were used during the period from the first of October to the latter part of December, 1963. These machines were manned on two shifts, five days a week, approximately twenty-five people on each shift. He exhibited the addressing machines, which are presently in operation preparing different tax forms for mailing.

It was observed that the forms are received in large cardboard cartons and fed into the machines in stacks of approximately fifty forms. The machine attaches a pre-printed adhesive address slip to the form and they emerge from the machine in a continuous process. They are thereafter gathered into bundles for each town or placed in mailing bags.

The addressed forms are given a very rapid and cursory examination, which Mr. WIGNALL said was only for the purpose of detecting address slips which are not firmly attached or which have been folded over. He said no attempt is made to remove forms to which an address is not attached, as these are later discarded by postal authorities and the operation is too rapid to attempt to examine the forms as they emerge from the machine. He said that marking pens with various ink colors are available throughout the area, which include the addressing machines, and he was unable to suggest any way in which it might be possible to identify the employee who had written on the form in question.

The following information in part supplements information previously set forth on Pages 453 through 462, of the report of SA ROBERT P. It should be noted that previous investigation has established that Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, the housekeeper for Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, where OSWALD was residing at the time of the assassination, is a sister of Mrs. BERTHA CHEEK.

JESS LYNCH, painter at the Glen Canyon Dam Project for the Merritt, Chapman and Scott Contractors, Page, Arizona, furnished the following information:

During 1959 or early 1960, LYNCH managed a rooming house at 5212 Gaston Avenue, Dallas, Texas, which was owned by Mrs. BERTHA CHEEK. Mrs. CHEEK's sister, a Mrs. JOHNSON, also helped in running this establishment. From the pictures of Mrs. JOHNSON seen on television, LYNCH believes that she is Mrs. A. C. JOHNSON, renter of the room to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Just prior to LYNCH leaving his job as manager of the rooming house, two Cuban males rented a room in the boarding house at 5212 Gaston Avenue for a period of about six weeks. Both Mrs. JOHNSON and Mrs. CHEEK appeared to be quite "friendly" with these two Cubans. LYNCH gave no further description of these two Cubans nor any information relative to their actions or reasons for being in Dallas.

LYNCH indicated both Mrs. JOHNSON and Mrs. CHEEK have received mental care in the past, and Mrs. CHEEK also owned the Twin Oaks Apartments in Dallas.

Mrs. BERTHA CARDELIA (VOGLE) CHEEK, 5901 Hillcrest, Dallas, Texas, advised she formerly resided at 3914 Swiss Avenue, Apartment 2, Dallas, where her telephone number was TA 7-9301. She said she received a notice dated April 7, 1964, from the President's Commission on the assassination of President KENNEDY which advised she would be called to appear before the Advisory Staff of the President's Commission at Dallas, Texas. She said she was called and did appear before the Advisory Staff of the President's Commission on Tuesday, April 14, 1964.

At that time, she was questioned by Mr. GRIFFIN at Dallas concerning her acquaintance with JACK RUBY. Mrs. CHEEK said she reported that she had read RUBY's advertisement in a Dallas newspaper some years ago, exact date not recalled, to the effect that RUBY wanted to sell one-half interest in a club. She said she was unable to recall the name or location of the club. She did recall that RUBY wanted $12,000 for the deal and she and RUBY could not reach an agreement about it.

She said JACK RUBY contacted her in about November, 1963, to see if she was interested in investing $6,000 in a private club. Mrs. CHEEK said she met with JACK RUBY who would not name the location of this club so she did not enter into any contract or agreement with him on the deal. She said she has not had any other dealings with JACK RUBY.

Mrs. CHEEK said she told Mr. GRIFFIN she had complete records concerning the renters, boarders, and workers who have rented or worked for her at rooming houses and/or apartments in Dallas, Texas. She said she told Mr. GRIFFIN she would make the records available for the President's Commission if necessary.

Mrs. CHEEK said Mr. GRIFFIN did not examine any of these records. She advised that her sister, EARLENE ROBERTS, was employed as a caretaker by a Mrs. JOHNSON at 1026 N. Beckley in Oak Cliff in Dallas, Texas, in 1963 while LEE HARVEY OSWALD rented a room at that address prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY at Dallas on November 22, 1963. C. Photograph Allegedly Depicting JACK L. RUBY Among Bystanders During Presidential Motorcade

RPG/dg

On April 29, 1964, Mr. FELIX PARKER, 10225 Lake Gardens Drive, Dallas 18, Texas, telephone DA 7-3408, who operates a Martinizing dry cleaning establishment, telephonically advised SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING that he had been shown a large photograph, approximately eight by ten, depicting President KENNEDY in his motorcade, and that such picture also depicted bystanders very clearly.

Mr. PARKER stated that the above-described photograph had been exhibited to him by Mrs. WANDA SCHAFER, who operates Hurst Reweaving, 2722 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas. He stated that Mrs. SCHAFER did not state from whom she had received this photograph, and Mr. PARKER states he does not know the actual location reflected in the photograph. Mr. PARKER stated, however, that one of the bystanders depicted in the photograph resembles JACK RUBY.

Mr. PARKER stated that he felt Mrs. SCHAFER would be most happy to make such photograph available for any purpose it might serve in the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY, and for this reason was making the above information available.

EFP/d

The following investigation was conducted by SA's EUGENE F. PETRAKIS and A. RAYMOND SWITZER on May 5, 1964:

Mrs. C. D. (WANDA) SCHAFER, proprietor and sole owner, Hurst Reweaving Shop, 2722 Greenville Avenue, Dallas, Texas, residence 5545 Vickery Boulevard, Dallas, was contacted at her place of business regarding a photograph in her possession allegedly depicting an individual resembling JACK RUBY viewing the Presidential Motorcade. Mrs. SCHAFER exhibited a blown-up black and white photograph, 8½" by 10½" in size, taken of the Presidential car carrying President JOHN F. KENNEDY and party by a group of spectators. In the upper right-hand corner of this photograph stands an individual wearing a fedora hat, whom Mrs. SCHAFER pointed out resembled to her a photograph she had observed of JACK RUBY.

Mrs. SCHAFER advised that her husband, Mr. CHARLES DAVID SCHAFER, is employed as a cutter at the Egan Printing Company on Ross Avenue in Dallas, and that sometime during the middle of December 1963 her husband brought home this blown-up photograph, which he stated he had obtained from an employee of Egan Printing Company.

Mrs. SCHAFER was unable to advise who had taken the photograph or the location where the photograph was taken.

Mrs. SCHAFER advised she felt there were numerous other copies of the photograph in her husband's possession which could be obtained at the Egan Printing Company.

Mr. CHARLES DAVID SCHAFER was contacted at his place of employment, Egan Printing Company, 912 Ross Avenue, Dallas, regarding circumstances surrounding his obtaining the photograph depicting the passing Presidential Motorcade. SCHAFER advised a copy of this photograph had been furnished him by a fellow employee, Mr. AARON FOSTER, Foreman of the Cutting Department, at Egan Printing Company, and that it was his impression that FOSTER had made a large number of copies of this photograph for the benefit of all the employees who desired a copy.

SCHAFER was unable to advise who took the original photograph or the location where the photograph was taken.

AARON FOSTER, Foreman, Egan Printing Company, Dallas, Texas, advised that sometime during the middle of December 1963, an employee at Egan Printing Company, one P. V. BEARDEN, came to work one day with a blown-up copy of a photograph of a portion of the Presidential Motorcade, and that FOSTER borrowed the photograph from BEARDEN and had the Photo Processing Department in the plant reproduce approximately fifty copies of this photograph, to be distributed to fellow employees who desired a copy.

FOSTER stated that BEARDEN told him he had purchased this picture from an unknown Negro male who was selling these photographs on Forest Avenue in Dallas, Texas for $1.00. BEARDEN told FOSTER, however, he did not know the identity of this Negro, nor did he know from what location the photograph was taken.

Mr. FOSTER made available a copy of his photograph to interviewing Agents.

A review of previous investigation conducted in case captioned "JACK L. RUBY; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, (Deceased) - VICTIM; CIVIL RIGHTS", reveals a like photograph was submitted to the Dallas Office on January 9, 1964, by a Mr. MORRIS WEINKRANTZ of 5508 Forest Lane, Dallas. WEINKRANTZ advised that several days following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he purchased an enlarged photograph of President KENNEDY and the Presidential party from a Negro, identity unknown now, who was selling these photographs on Forest Lane in Dallas. WEINKRANTZ stated the Negro told him the photograph had been taken of President KENNEDY in his automobile as it was turning from Houston onto Elm Street and that JACK RUBY was standing in the background when this photograph was taken. Mr. WEINKRANTZ said the man with the hat, standing in the upper right of the photograph behind the man with the camera in his hand, had been pointed out to him as JACK RUBY, and WEINKRANTZ stated he thought this photograph might be of some value to this Bureau.

SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS, who had previously interviewed JACK RUBY over a period of some three and one-half hours on December 21, 1963, viewed the photograph on January 10, 1964, previously submitted by WEINKRANTZ, and advised the photograph does not, in his opinion, include anyone closely resembling JACK RUBY.

A comparison of the photograph submitted by Mr. WEINKRANTZ and the photograph in possession of Mrs. SCHAFER, as well as employees of Egan Printing Company, reveals these photographs are identical in every way and were obviously enlarged from the same negative.

It is further noted that previous investigation as reported in case captioned "JACK L. RUBY; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, (Deceased) - VICTIM; CIVIL RIGHTS", reveals the following employees of the "Dallas Morning News", interviewed December 4, 1963, have asserted that JACK RUBY was present in the advertising office of that newspaper from at least 12:00 Noon to 1:30 P.M., November 22, 1963, and that JACK RUBY could not, therefore, have observed the Presidential Motorcade as it passed the corner of Elm and Houston Streets:

GEORGIA MAYOR, secretary, Advertising Division, "Dallas Morning News", corner Young and Houston Streets, Dallas (observed RUBY 12:30 P.M., November 22, 1963)
DON J. CAMPBELL, advertising salesman (observed RUBY from 12:00 Noon to 12:25 P.M., November 22, 1963)
BILLIE A. RAY, advertising salesman (observed RUBY from 12:40 P.M. to 1:30 P.M., November 22, 1963)

On April 10, 1964, Detective H. M. HART, Special Service Bureau, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, made available a letter, dated January 7, 1964, directed to L. M. "TEX" EDMUNDS, 713 Sabine Street, Dallas 3, Texas, postmarked at Tracy, California, on January 7, 1964, from EWING E. CLEMONS, 225-C West Carlton, Tracy, California. This letter stated:

"Dear Tex;

Re} the Oswald Case;;; Its very probable that when Oswald secured rooms away from his wife, that it was because he had a 'girl' he was dateing...Also its very probale this, 'GIRL', was one of Ruby's GANG...Also its probable this, 'GIRL', may have also Roomed in this same house, and that Rubenstien made the DEALS with OSWALD through this GIRL... And its very probable this GIRL may NOT now be around, because she may have been disposed of ... Silenced Jew style (last three words written in longhand).

"If you know any State Operators working on this case, which can be DEPENDED ON, check this out with them, so they can work from this angle...It may require private investigation, that is some_one to seek rooms at this house, live there and get acquainted, even with neighbors, who may have seen a GIRL come there with OSWALD or leave with OSWALD, and perhaps it can be learned WHO the GIRL is, and her connections with Rubenstien... It is unlikely Rubenstien made a direct deal with Oswald, but went through some_one else, had some_one else make the pay_off, which could have been the 150 dollars reported FOUND in HIS Apt... Probaly thirty 5.00 bills, (30 Prices)

"Its generally beleived now throughout the Nation, that this Rubenstien was the MAN behind this killing, but its for SURE this so-called INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE, is NOT going to even TRY to get the FACTS about it, but rather do all it can to COVER UP FACTS...The GIRL angle fits, the known

"evidence even points to it, Oswald with this Apt. AWAY from his WIFE and Baby, indicates Oswald had a REASON to want another place, so as to MEET some_one, probaly a GIRL...I am much inclined to beleive there IS a GIRL involved, and this will be the KEY to it all, but naturally they will SILENCE HER if there is any suspicion shown, but in this case, this GIRL has a FRIEND, she has FOLKS, she has a HISTORY and this is VIP...All question have answers but the X has to be FOUND, and in this case, its very probale even very likely the X is a GIRL, that is the GO BETWEEN, Rubenstien and OSWALD...

"Personally I do NOT have any confidence any more in any PUBLIC INVESTIGATOR connected with either Federal or State Cases. I know some of the OLDER FBI boys, were as straight as they come, and I also know how their hands have long been tied, that if they did uncover anything, it was useless to report it...You know this too, and perhaps know some of these OLDER BOYS, many of whom have been weeded out some tims ago...But there ARE some of them, that is still around, and still able to DIG OUT FACTS...

"I myself beleive this TIPPITS, who was killed was placed or Stationed near the WARE HOUSE to GET Oswald the minute he ran out the door, whether he knew it or not, probale he did not even know!!! I also beleive Oswald did NOT go out of this Building where he usually went out, but via another door...But I do beleive TIPPITS knew OSWALD on SIGHT... Its for SURE this KKKE had CONNECTIONS with the DALLAS POLICE DEPT, else he could not have operated like he owned the Police Station, and its very likely there was either some_one or some few, who knew what the score was ... connected with the POLICE DEPT...of DALLAS, TEXAS... Even with a GRAND JURY investigation these DAYS, with HAND or JEW PICKED JURYMEN, there is not much hope in this...

"Even if the LADY who runs the rooming house TOLD these so-called INVESTIGATORS that Oswald had a GIRL they would never disclose it...But its for/SURE that OSWALD did NOT have this ROOM, simply to get away from his wife and be ALONE by himself...

"If the SHERIFF'S DEPT there, wanted to see some re-action, some SWEAT out on RUBENSTIEN'S MUG,,,if they arrested some of RUBY's GIRLS, and be SURE that RUBY knew about it, this KIKE would start squirming like any SNAKE does... If it COULD be the GIRL that OSWALD was tied up with, then the KIKE would, that is IF they are NOT in Control also of Sheriffs Dept., the KIKE RUBY would probably go into spasms and fits..."

Detective HART also made available a Photostatic copy of what is believed to be the reply of EDMUNDS to this letter which, in part, stated as follows:

"Refering to your suggestions re Oswald-Rubenstein investigations,, You may rest assured all points you mentioned have been covered, recovered and are still under investigation by competent, honest Dallas officers, Sheriffs Officers and a special contingent from the State Dept. of Public Safety..There is probably quite a bit that will come out when Rubenstein's bail hearing comes up Jan. 20 and far more in reserve for his trial. I know of NO TEXAS LAWMAN IN THE GROUPS MENTIONED WHO HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE TRUTH BEING MADE PUBLIC BY THE SPECIAL WARREN COMMITTEE or any other Johnson may appoint.. However, this may not bottle up all information permanently since 'leaks' similiar to the 'note Oswald wrote on the attempt he made to kill Maj. Gen. Walker are sure

"to occur...AT THE PRESENT TIME INFORMATION IS NOT BEING RELEASED THAT MIGHT HAVE ANY BEARING ON RUBY'S TRIALS..MIGHT ALSO ADD NONE WILL BE RELEASED BY DALLAS POLICE, SHERIFF OR DEPT. OF SAFETY UNTIL IT IS USED IN COURT."

Another letter was produced by Detective HART dated January 16, 1964, to EDMUNDS, which Detective HART believed was from EWING E. CLEMONS, which stated as follows:

"Dear Tex;

"I have this date received a very interesting REPORT re. the DALLAS INCIDENT, as its now being called, and feel I should inform you of some of the high points in it...

"The Rooming House where Oswald roomed was at 1026 North Beckly Street...

"Oswald and Wife were taken in by a Mr. Mrs. Paine, an ENGINEER, and Mrs. Paine had a Station Wagon, which evidently was used to take Oswald to Old Mexico.. and other Places (last three words written in longhand)

"Bernard Weissman and another New York jew drove from New York City to Dallas to place an AD, FULL PAGE in DALLAS Papers...

"The Paines were evidently members of the 'American Civil Liberties Union,' and took Oswald to meetings with them.

"Mr. Truly, is the Manager of the Texas School Book Depository, and Mrs. Paine, called Mr. TRULY and got Oswald the job there... Evidently TRULY was IN on this...

"Five anti-Communists were seized and held by Dallas Police for FOUR DAYS seized within moments after the shooting of Kennedy...do you know who they were, if they were Anti-Reds? (Last eleven words written in longhand)

"Jacob Rubenstien its reported was in a Dallas News Paper Advertising Office, placing an AD for his JOINT, and the Kennedy passed this Office, others ran to window to see Kennedy go by, but Rubenstien never bothered to take a look... Was Kennedy really an IDOL to Rubenstien?

"Rubenstien seemed calm until it was announced that Oswald was going to TALK, and THEN became panicy

"Mrs. Paine evidently attended Antioch College and the University of Pennsylvania, is a UNITARIAN... She sheltered and transported Oswald, BUT no photo of her or her husband has ever been made public...WHY???

"Its very probable some_one in Yellow Springs, Ohio may have some News_Papers or items, which mention left wing activities which would show what Mrs. Paine did while attending Antioch, which was VERY ACTIVE in the ABOLITION of the HUAC COMMITTEE ...

... "Oswald's wife is reported to be a HIGHLY SKILLED PHARMACIST. Mrs. Paine studied Russian and was able to talk with Oswald's wife, its reported the only person who was and did talk with her...

"Oswald's wife's name before marriage was - Marina Pruskova, reported to be a very attractive girl.

"Oswald and wife arrived in USA from Russia June 13-62 Michael Paine is reported to have offered to publish a BOOK for Oswald, is there a Publixsher in Dallas by this name ?????

A copy of the letter believed to have been written by EDMUNDS to CLEMONS, dated January 19, 1964, was made available by HART, which stated the following:

"Dear Mr. Clemons:

"Yours of the 16th. Jan. received and contents noted. Your statements seem to be eminently correct with one glaring error in par. 8 on page 1..

"The facts are that Rubenstein was in the Dallas News advertising office at Young & Houston Streets which is SIX BLOCKS south of ELM ST. & HOUSTON WHERE THE KENNEDY CAR WAS WHEN HE WAS 'LIQUIDATED'..The advertising office has no windows facing NORTH - therefore any view of the Kennedy caravan or parade fro__ that location was impossible..The news building is six blocks South and on the southeast corner.. Kennedy's carhad already turned WEST on the Elm St. approach to the triple underpass..Even from the roof of the News Bldg. or from any window facing north a person COULD NOT HAVE SEEN THE KENNEDY CAR or parade..However one could have seen the Texas School book Depository from such a vantage point..Incidentally Rubenstein was stalling around the Dallas News Ads Office, and used a phone from there at about the time Kennedy was shot...RUBY SET UP A PERFECT ALIBI FOR HIMSELF THAT WAS AND WILL REMAIN SHOT PROOF AS FAR AS HIS PERSONAL POSITION AT THE TIME ACTUALLY WAS...He seemed very nervous to persons in the office and later cancelled the advertising he placed for the Saturday and Sunday papers..No part of this corrected date should be taken to mean anything beyond what I have stated--Ruby's alibi for the time of the liquidation is letter perfect....

"Par. re PAINE'S occupation--He is an aeronautical engineer with BELL HELICOPTER, near Ft. Worth in Tarrant County, Texas and is separated from his wife who resides in IRVING, TEXAS - between Dallas and Ft. Worth..I do not know if they are divorced but ther are and were seperated when Oswald liquidated JFK..

"I turned the Chronicle tear sheets over to my old friend Sheriff Bill Decker and presume he turned them over to Henry Wade, Dallas County Dist Atty within 48 hours of their receipt by me...

"Rubenstein's Bond hearing comed up tomorrow (Jan. 20) in Judge Brown's Court and Belli is trying for release on bail and for a change of venue to Fort Worth where a Jew stooge in a State, or in a Federal Court, could preside We'll know what success he has when this hearing is over// They are running additional psychiatric tests and an electric 'brain wave test' on Ruby today. apparently Belli hasn't gotten the right Psychiatrist for the Defense so far.

"I will probably be talking with Sheriff Decker after the Bail Bond deal is disposed of and shall show him your letters for his information..I am of the opinion that all points you have mentioned have been and ARE BEOHG very thoroughly covered..Un fact know several are still being checked but am not in a position to discuss any part of them..Belli obviously wants to definitel_ put the monkey on Oswalds back for the assassination and plans to try to do so during the Bond hearing..As of now it looks as though he won't be able to introduce that evidence..

"With best wishes as always,"

Detective H. M. HART stated that L. M. "TEX" EDMUNDS is a well-known segregationist in Dallas, and he had received information that EDMUNDS belonged to the National States Rights Party and the Indignant White Citizens Council of Grand Prairie, both organizations being segregationist groups. EDMUNDS, according to HART, is anti-Jewish and anti-Negro, and is a chronic and frequent letter writer to newspapers. (Characterizations of the National States Rights Party and Indignant White Citizens Council are attached).

Detective HART described EDMUNDS as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	70
Height:	6'
Weight:	250 - 275 lbs.
Hair:	Graying
Remarks:	Wears thick glasses, almost blind, sloppy appearance, retired.

On July 16, 1963, Detective DON STRINGFELLOW, Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised that L. M. "TEX" EDMUNDS is well known to the Dallas Police Department as a very elderly and eccentric old man who writes numerous letters and attends various anti-integration meetings.

Re: Bail Bondsman who is attempting to raise bail for JACK L. RUBY

On November 24, 1963, Mrs. ROBERT BURRETT, Traverse City, Michigan, advised SA ROBERT M. SMITH that she was watching a Columbia Broadcasting System television broadcast of a movie in which LEE HARVEY OSWALD was passing out literature on a street corner in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Mrs. BURRETT advised that she then switched to a local Traverse City television station and watched an interview with a bail bondsman who is a friend of JACK L. RUBY and who was attempting to raise bail money for RUBY. She advised this bail bondsman was the same person she saw in the first program accepting some literature from OSWALD. Mrs. BURRETT advised she was unable to furnish the name of the bail bondsman.

Mr. O. V. CAMPBELL, Vice President, Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm (RI 7-3521), stated that all records pertaining to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's employment at TSBD have previously been furnished to Agents of the FBI. He stated the only employee records maintained by TSBD that would contain OSWALD's handwriting and/or signature are OSWALD's application for employment and Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate which have previously been furnished.

Mr. CAMPBELL stated the only records maintained by Texas School Book Depository that would show the hours worked by OSWALD are the payroll records reflecting the employment of OSWALD from October 16 through November 22, 1963. Mr. CAMPBELL pointed out that these records are prepared in their entirety by Mr. H. S. AIKEN, employee of TSBD, and OSWALD did not participate in any manner in preparation of same. He stated TSBD does not utilize a time clock or other device to record an individual's times of arrival and departure as such information is maintained by Mr. AIKEN and employees in the warehouse are paid in cash; are not required to sign any type of receipt for their pay; therefore, there is no additional record pertaining to OSWALD's employment at TSBD. Regarding the payroll records maintained by TSBD, Mr. CAMPBELL pointed out that copies of same had previously been furnished to an Agent of the FBI.

CHESTER ALLEN RIGGS, JR., 350 Carroll, furnished the following information:

LEE OSWALD rented one side of a duplex at 2703 Mercedes Street, from about July, 1962 to October, 1962. RIGGS does not have old rental records to reflect exact date of occupancy. OSWALD paid $59.50 a month for this duplex and always paid his rent in cash.

All the utilities at this address were in the name of RIGGS. OSWALD paid the water, gas and electric bills, in addition to his rental of $59.50. The utility bills came to RIGGS and he, or one of his employees, would take them to OSWALD. Sometimes OSWALD would pay RIGGS, or one of his men, in cash for the utilities but, in most instances, OSWALD paid the utility bills direct to the companies in Fort Worth. RIGGS stated OSWALD did not have a telephone in this duplex.

The utilities averaged approximately $12.00 a month for gas, water and electricity. RIGGS does not have any of the old records to reflect the exact figures on the utilities. He rented some similar-type apartments with utilities and he always charged an extra $12.00 a month to cover these bills. He had kept a record of the utilities on similar-type duplexes and they would average about $12.00 per month.

Mr. D. S. WATERS, Store Controller, Montgomery Ward, West 7th Street Store, stated his company had cashed the following Leslie Welding Company payroll checks which were payable to LEE OSWALD:

Check No.	Date Cashed	Amount
6189	July 21, 1962	$ 46.82
6315	July 28, 1962	53.01
6557	August 11, 1962	50.79
6677	August 18, 1962	46.24
6797	August 25, 1962	47.15
6952	September 1, 1962	47.96
7067	September 8, 1962	46.24
7192	September 15, 1962	46.24
7296	September 22, 1962	46.24
7419	September 29, 1962	35.68

Mr. WATERS stated he could identify these checks by his company's stamp on the reverse side of the checks. He stated there was no fee charged for cashing any of these checks. He stated that according to his records, LEE OSWALD did not cash any other checks in his store. He explained that when an individual cashes a number of checks the cashiers usually prepare a name card so they may refer to it. He stated he had made a search and found no such name card for LEE OSWALD which indicated to him that OSWALD had cashed only payroll checks at his store. He also stated it was his company policy for payroll checks to be cashed only at the cashier's office. He stated he had a frequent turnover in employees in the cashier's office and there was only one employee working there now who cashed some of the above checks. He identified this employee as RUTH THOMPSON. He stated from his records he would say that LEE OSWALD had not attempted to cash any other checks. He stated in his retail store there are more than 200 salesmen. He stated it would be virtually impossible to determine if OSWALD had or had not made any purchases from his store or how often he had visited this store. He stated OSWALD was residing in July, August, and September, 1962, at 2703 Mercedes Avenue, which is only a short distance from his store which, in his mind, explained why OSWALD had cashed the above payroll

He stated also that the Leslie Welding Company is located only a short distance from his store and because of this his company frequently cashes payroll checks of employees of the Leslie Welding Company. He stated he had no other information that might assist in tracing any of OSWALD's expenditures.

Mrs. RUTH THOMPSON, 233 Hallbrook Drive, Fort Worth, Texas, stated she had been employed for the past three or four years by Montgomery Ward at their 7th Street store as a cashier. She is employed in the cashier's office. She stated she and the other employees in the cashier's office are the ones who cash all payroll checks which are tendered to the store for cashing. She stated she recalled cashing some of the Leslie Welding Company payroll checks for LEE OSWALD. She explained that during the time she has worked in the store she has cashed several checks for only two individuals who used a passport for identification. She stated because of this she remembered LEE OSWALD cashing some of his payroll checks during the months of July, August, and September, 1962. She furnished these dates after refreshing her memory by examining the photostat copies of the Leslie Welding Company payroll checks during those three months which checks were issued to LEE OSWALD. She stated so far as she can remember these are the only checks she ever cashed for LEE OSWALD. She stated after the assassination of President KENNEDY she saw LEE OSWALD's picture on television and immediately recognized him as the individual who had used a passport to cash payroll checks issued to him by the Leslie Welding Company. She stated she has no other information concerning LEE OSWALD and this is the only transaction she had with him.

Mr. RAYMOND L. BOYD, Assistant Cashier, West Side State Bank, Fort Worth, Texas, stated after examining Leslie Welding Company payroll check No. 6422, dated August 4, 1962, in the amount of $57.27, payable to LEE OSWALD, that this check was cashed at his bank. According to the stamp on the check, he stated it was cashed by his teller No. 5 on August 10, 1962. It bears the following endorsements on the reverse side of the check: "Lee H. Oswald, R. L. Oswald, 7313 Davenport." Mr. BOYD stated this indicated to him that ROBERT OSWALD had cashed this check for his brother, LEE OSWALD. Mr. BOYD stated ROBERT OSWALD had an account in his bank up until about March, 1963, at which time he closed the account. Mr. BOYD stated so far as he knows LEE OSWALD never did any banking with his bank. Mr. BOYD stated naturally there would be no charges for cashing this check as ROBERT L. OSWALD had an account at the bank. He stated he had no other information concerning LEE OSWALD.

1. He said the check was definitely cashed at Store No. 72 but since no initials are legible on the face of the check he could not tell who authorized that it be cashed. He said the check was cashed sometime after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 31, 1963, through close of business on Friday, November 1, 1963.

2. ERWIN stated no fee was charged for cashing the check.

3. ERWIN stated to his knowledge OSWALD did not cash any other checks at A & P Store No. 72.

7. ERWIN stated he had no information regarding OSWALD which may be of value in tracing OSWALD's expenditures. He did state that Mrs. RUTH PAINE, a resident of Irving, Texas, is a regular customer of A & P Store No. 72 and shops in the store about three times a week.

CARTER, Jr., Credit Manager, Montgomery Ward, Fort Worth, Texas, residence 1912 Martel, stated his records reflect LEE OSWALD purchased a television set from his company on September 22, 1962. At the time of the purchase, he listed his address as 2703 Mercedes, Fort Worth, Texas. Sometime later, he changed his address to Post Office Box 2915, Dallas, Texas. At the time of the purchase, he bought it on credit, and as he had no previous credit record with Montgomery Ward, and was unable to furnish any credit references, a co-signer on his credit purchase was required. His brother, ROBERT L. OSWALD, signed the note guaranteeing payment. ROBERT OSWALD listed his residence as 7313 Davenport, Fort Worth, Texas.

On his application, LEE OSWALD listed his age as 22, married, wife's name, MARINA, one dependent. Prior to his employment with Leslie Welding Company, he stated he had been in the U. S. Marine Corps for four years and was assigned to the base at El Toro, California.

Mr. CARTER stated this television set was purchased by LEE OSWALD as reflected on their sales ticket No. 528-98. This ticket reflected that LEE OSWALD, 2703 Mercedes Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, on September 22, 1962, purchased one television set for $127.40 including tax. No down payment was made on this set and no payment was ever made on it. On October 10, 1962, the set was picked up at the above residence of LEE OSWALD at his request. OSWALD stated the set was unsatisfactory and requested that the set be picked up and the sale be cancelled. Mr. CARTER stated this was done and this is the only transaction that was handled with LEE OSWALD by his company.

C. Interviews With Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, Mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and Data Relating to Her Theories on the Assassination

Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald
Mrs. M. C. Oswald

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, telephonically contacted the Fort Worth Resident Agency on Thursday, April 30, 1964, at approximately 11:00 a.m. She desired to have three Agents come out to her home and see her regarding information that she had in her possession and also some information about a photograph. She said she was going to have photostats made of this photograph.

Mrs. OSWALD was telephonically contacted around 3:00 p.m. on April 30, 1964, and advised that it would not be possible to have three Agents contact her on that afternoon. She said that was satisfactory as she had changed her mind and was going to see her attorney and that she wanted to turn this information over to the President's Commission.

Mrs. OSWALD called the Fort Worth Resident Agency on Friday morning, May 1, 1964, around 11:00 a.m. She said she had driven over to Dallas and after arriving there had changed her mind and returned to Fort Worth, Texas. Upon arriving in Dallas she had decided not to give this information to her attorney or the President's Commission. She wanted to turn this information over to the FBI and requested Agents to contact her at her home.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, furnished the following information:

She owns a Sonomatic tape recorder which she purchased for $39.95. She uses this machine in recording some conversations on her telephone and also in recording conversations with individuals in person. On the night of April 28, 1964, she telephonically contacted GLORIA JEAN MERCER, 1000 University Drive in Fort Worth, Texas. Miss MERCER is a sister to Mrs. ROBERT OSWALD, who lives in Denton, Texas. Miss MERCER is employed as a teacher in the public schools in Fort Worth. She talked to Miss MERCER about the family, about misunderstandings in the OSWALD family, and also about her testifying before the President's Commission. Mrs. OSWALD made a tape recording of this conversation. The next day she was playing the entire tape back and she noticed that part of the conversation was garbled and she could not understand it. The tape ran for about two minutes and she said it sounded as if someone was talking in a foreign language. She believed it was Russian or French. She could hear a man's voice in the background on one or two occasions. Mrs. OSWALD played this portion of the tape for Agents and it sounded as if two or more conversations were recorded on this particular part of the tape. The last part of the conversation with MERCER was clear. Mrs. OSWALD believes someone living in the vicinity of her home or the home of Miss MERCER was shooting a beam into her home or the home of MERCER and in that way was interfering with telephone conversation. Mrs. OSWALD believed this unknown party was listening in on the conversation and she believes she picked up some of this foreign language when the unknown person left the key open on his machine and he did not know she would pick up his conversation. She was unable to explain how part of this conversation was garbled and the other part of it was clear.

During the past several weeks, Mrs. OSWALD received cards and letters from a Mrs. FLORA FILKO HYATT, 402 Valentine Street, Apartment 1008, Houston, Texas. Mrs. HYATT advised Mrs. OSWALD she had valuable information regarding her son and it would be worth her while to come to Houston to talk to her in person. Mrs. OSWALD drove to Houston around April 18, 1964, and visited with Mrs. HYATT for about one half day. Mrs. HYATT is 70 years of age. Mrs. HYATT said she did not believe LEE HARVEY OSWALD had shot President KENNEDY. She said there was a large conspiracy involved in this shooting between top officials of Neiman-Marcus store in Dallas and officials of Sakowitz store in Houston, Texas. They were members of an organization known as "Black Ax" and this organization dates many years back into Germany. HYATT advised these officials communicate with each other and transmit information in their store ads in Dallas and Houston newspapers. Mrs. HYATT had some newspaper ads to explain this method of communication to Mrs. OSWALD. After looking at some of these ads and the wording in the ads, Mrs. OSWALD believed the story as told to her by Mrs. HYATT.

Mrs. OSWALD exhibited one ad from the "Houston Chronicle" dated March 29, 1964. This ad concerned table settings of silver and china. The title of the ad was "Tables are Turned" and read in part: "Twelve of Houston's prominent hosts have created table settings for your pleasure." Mrs. OSWALD interpreted this ad to mean twelve of Houston's prominent leaders and officials of Sakowitz store were involved in this conspiracy.

Another ad exhibited by Mrs. OSWALD appeared in the "Houston Chronicle" on March 22, 1964. This ad had a drawing of a woman with a hat on her hand and a bracelet on her wrist. Mrs. OSWALD said the bracelet stood for handcuffs and this ad was connected with the conspiracy by the use of these handcuffs. Another ad was cut from the "Dallas Morning News" dated April 30, 1964, by Neiman-Marcus store in Dallas. This ad had a picture of a woman wearing a pearl necklace. The ad covered a number of pearl necklaces. The headline on the ad read "The Connecting Link." Mrs. OSWALD definitely believed this meant there was a connecting link between Dallas and Houston and this was a vital message in the conspiracy against her son. Mrs. OSWALD advised she was going to follow the ads between these two stores and believed they had a definite bearing on the conspiracy against her son.

Mrs. OSWALD was in Dallas during the RUBY trial and stayed at the Jefferson Hotel. She became acquainted with a white female, 38 to 40 years of age, tall, dirty blond hair, but does not recall her name. This woman introduced her to three French newspaper men and they had dinner one night at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas. The French newspaper men were interested in a photograph of Mrs. OSWALD and she posed for a photograph for them. The woman said she was from San Antonio and was in Dallas to go to work for Neiman-Marcus company. In looking through the Associated Press book, "The Torch is Passed," she saw a woman on page 13 wearing dark glasses with a scarf around her head. She believes this photograph is identical with the woman she met at the Jefferson Hotel. She does not know her name but believed she was involved in this conspiracy against her son as she said she was going to work for Neiman-Marcus in Dallas. She also believed this woman was involved as she was in this picture very close to the car occupied by President KENNEDY.

RE: MRS. FLORA FILKO HYATT, also known as Flora Filke Hyatt,
Mrs. William Harvey Hyatt

The investigation at Houston, Texas, was conducted by SA's GRAHAM W. KITCHEL and EDWIN DALRYMPLE.

The following letter was received by the Attorney General in Washington, D.C.:

"Houston, Texaa, April 17, 1964.

"Honorable Attorney General,
Mr Robert Kennedy,
Hickory Hill, McLean, Vi.

"Dear Sir;

"I am enclosing the address of a lady who says she has important information concerning the death of your brother, the late President. The assination she claims, is still well guarded secret. It was a Plot, --carried out by the members of the Highest Echelon of the Synddicate, called The Members of the ~~House~~ of Ax.T Tex.

"Details are available by --Mrs Filko Hyatt,-402 Valentine,-Apt. 1008,-Houston, Texas. Telephone Fa 3 1765.

"She has tried again and again to bring this to your attention; she has called your office five times and left her number three times. Feb. second, 1964, she called the WHITE HOUSE BETWEEN eight-thirty and nine, and asked for you, but was refused.

"She also claims her mail has been sabetaged since June 1959, when she first tried to bring the technique of the Syndicate to the attention of Mr Herbert Hoover. She asked me to refer this knowledge to you for her. She has the information, but will not discuss it with anyone but you. If you can get in touch with her, you may get some valuable information. 'Why don't you go to the F.B.I.?' I asked. 'I was there November 13th, 1963.'

"Mr. Kennedy, please, I do not want any publicity; I know nothing about these Organizations,-am just trying to help, I hope. My impression is it is family affair,-She spoke of book that is being written.

"With best wishes, am,
"Sincerely,

"/S/ Berta Phillips

"/T/ Miss Berta Phillips,
2517 Taft Street,
Houston, 6, Texas.

"The lady mentioned in letter, lived next door to me in same Apt Building, in 1963; she is German, but came to America about 1935.

"I am well known in city; Captain Willis of Police Dept. knows me well.

"/S/ Berta Phillips"

On May 4, 1964, Miss BERTA PHILLIPS, 2517 Taft Street, Houston, Texas, advised she had written the above letter to the Attorney General at the request of Mrs. FLORA FILKO HYATT. She stated she did not know whether or not Mrs. HYATT was a "mental case," but Miss PHILLIPS stated she "talked of people dressed in black." She stated Mrs. HYATT had informed her that she "heard voices" and received much of her information in this manner. Miss PHILLIPS stated she had at first thought Mrs. HYATT was a spiritualist but has now decided she is not because Miss PHILLIPS stated that she is a spiritualist and for this reason knows Mrs. HYATT could not be one.

Miss PHILLIPS stated that according to Mrs. HYATT it had been "told to her ear" that the plot to assassinate President JOHN F. KENNEDY was made in Houston. She stated Mrs. HYATT told her that the main individuals involved in this plot were Mr. SAKOWITZ, head of Sakowitz Department Store, and FRED NAHAS, a local news reporter. Texas Houston, Texas

Miss PHILLIPS stated that Mrs. HYATT was divorced from her husband and she feels this divorce was brought about by Mrs. HYATT's peculiar actions. She stated in her conversations with Mrs. HYATT she could get no actual sense out of her. Miss PHILLIPS pointed out that she herself had no information whatever bearing on the assassination of President Kennedy and her action in directing a letter to the Attorney General was based solely on her desire to assist Mrs. HYATT, who was apparently reluctant to write this letter herself. Miss PHILLIPS pointed out that she is 88 years old and due to her frail condition is unable to go about the town without assistance.

On May 4, 1964, Mrs. FLORA FILKO HYATT, 402 Valentine, Apartment 1008, was interviewed and furnished the following information:

Mrs. HYATT stated that she had requested Miss BERTA PHILLIPS, a friend of her's, to write a letter to the Attorney General to bring to his attention certain information which had come to her attention through demons who spoke into her ear.

She stated she has learned that the Attorney General was interested in the syndicate known as Cosa Nostra but she wanted to point out to the Attorney General that the Cosa Nostra was actually the lowest echelon of the syndicate. It dealt only with the physical aspects of the criminal situation in the United States and the world. She stated she was in touch with the highest echelon of the "syndicate" through demons and "werewolves" who were continually with her and spoke to her when she was in private, in her left ear. Mrs. HYATT repeatedly referred to what she called her frequent contacts with the metaphysical world, pointing out there are sometimes five or six "beings" speaking to her at once and imparting information concerning happenings outside the physical world, to which normal people are restricted.

Mrs. HYATT stated that she felt she could be of assistance to the Attorney General in his investigations of Cosa Nostra and had in the past endeavored to contact him by telephone and through the FBI.

Mrs. HYATT advised that the higher echelon of the "syndicate" was made up of members of the House of Ax. She stated that in 1959 she had tried to bring this information to the attention of former President HERBERT HOOVER by letter. She stated since she has not received answers from letters of this type she feels that her mail has been delayed or misdirected through activities of members of the House of Ax.

She stated she had "explored" the syndicate and has determined that there are only two men who are willing and able to act against the syndicate and these are the President of the United States and the Attorney General. Mrs. HYATT explained that her efforts to relate this information personally to the Attorney General were based on her belief there were very few people capable of understanding the metaphysical world, and she doubted that FBI Agents had had adequate training in this specialized field to equip them to handle such information.

In regard to the assassination of President Kennedy, Mrs. HYATT states that as is frequently done by werewolves, she feels that such a demon could have entered the body of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, assassinated the President, and then returned the body to OSWALD. She stated in several murder cases which received considerable newspaper publicity in the Houston area, she feels that the accused in these murders was not actually the one involved but his body was being used by werewolves.

She stated it is also possible that President KENNEDY was not shot from the Texas Book Depository Building because werewolves could shoot him with a soundless gun from any position.

Mrs. HYATT advised that the Attorney General could learn a lot from her through the study of the activities of the members of the House of Ax.

When questioned for specific statements concerning the circumstances of President KENNEDY's assassination, Mrs. HYATT related that a voice told her on November 18, 1963, that two businessmen from Houston had gone to Dallas on that date. She identified these men as LEWIS LECHINGER, owner of a large jewelry store in Houston, and a Mr. SAKOWITZ, one of the owners of the Sakowitz Department Store. Mrs. HYATT stated she felt these two men were top leaders of the House of Ax and the trip to Dallas was undoubtedly related to the plans for the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mrs. HYATT does not believe either of the above men was personally involved in the actual shooting but they had exerted their power through metaphysical forces acting on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She stated information of this nature is received by her not only from voices but also from "the stars."

Mrs. HYATT stated that she had had difficulty in bringing the above information to the attention of any responsible people because it seemed that no one wanted to listen to her story. Mrs. HYATT stated she had been able to relate this information to Mrs. OSWALD, the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she understood that Mrs. OSWALD had recorded her information on tape. Mrs. HYATT stated she expected Mrs. OSWALD would turn this tape over to the Attorney General.

Mrs. HYATT advised that she was born and raised in Germany and came to the United States in 1927.

The files of the Houston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation reflect that FLORA FILKO HYATT was interned on December 29, 1941, by an Alien Enemy Hearing Board sitting in the Southern District of Texas. This board held that HYATT entered the United States as a quota immigrant at Houston, Texas, on December 22, 1927, under her maiden name, FLORA FILKO. Prior to her marriage and after her separation from her husband, she did household and domestic work for moderate compensation. She also received help from the Family Service Bureau in Houston after separation from her husband.

The Hearing Board set out that based on information furnished, Mrs. HYATT is almost fanatical in her loyalty to HITLER and to Germany and has so expressed herself on numerous occasions. They point out that the only excuse for her attitude might be that she is mentally unbalanced on this subject. She has also been in frequent touch with German propaganda agents, if not one herself. The board pointed out there were found in her possession several photographs of HITLER and of German troops in action, and writings containing Nazi propaganda.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Houston, Texas, reflect that Mrs. HYATT is an alien.

Mrs. HYATT is described as follows:

At 12:00 noon, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD telephonically contacted the Fort Worth Resident Agency and furnished the following information:

At about 11:45 A.M., May 12, 1964, she received a telephone call from Mr. CHARLIE KUNKEL, U. S. Secret Service, Fort Worth, Texas. In this conversation, Mr. KUNKEL stated he had a letter that he obtained from the FBI. The letter was dated December 6, 1963, postmarked Jamaica, New York. Mr. KUNKEL advised Mrs. OSWALD he would like to come out to her residence and ask her some questions about the letter.

Mrs. OSWALD does not remember this letter and cannot imagine why he would want to talk to her in regard to this letter.

During the course of the conversation Mrs. OSWALD asked how to spell the name KUNKEL. When she was advised it is spelled K-u-n-k-e-l, she said she thought it was spelled C-o-n-n-e-l-l. She said she remembered him and at this point she became hysterical and went into a tirade. She said she remembered him at the Inn of the Six Flags on the day of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She continued that KUNKEL and another Secret Service Agent, whose name she cannot remember, were with MARINA OSWALD and the two babies. Mrs. OSWALD stated that KUNKEL made the statement that there was no doubt in his mind that LEE HARVEY OSWALD assassinated the President because his rifle was found on him. Mrs. OSWALD related that she told him, "Well, just because it's his rifle does not indicate that he assassinated the President. He is innocent until proved guilty."

Mrs. OSWALD referred to MARINA OSWALD throughout the conversation as the Russian wife and two babies.

Mrs. OSWALD said she told the other Secret Service Agent, "Why, the nerve of that guy, who does he think he is?" The Secret Service Agent, according to Mrs. OSWALD, stated,

"Well, Mrs. OSWALD, you will have to forgive him because he helped guard Mrs. KENNEDY for 20 years." Mrs. OSWALD said she told the Secret Service Agent, "I will not forgive him because there's no sense in anyone making a statement like that about my son."

Mrs. OSWALD said she was "deathly afraid" of Mr. KUNKEL and is afraid that he will harm her. Mrs. OSWALD said she will not let him in her house because she is afraid of him and does not want to have any dealings with him.

Mrs. OSWALD was advised that Mr. KUNKEL would have no reason to harm her, that he is probably just coming out to her house to inquire about the letter.

At no time during the conversation did Mrs. OSWALD request any assistance from the FBI or to see an FBI Agent.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, telephonically advised that she would like to present new evidence in the case of her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She stated she had received in today's mail a letter which she would like to turn over to the two FBI Agents who interviewed her recently at her residence. She inquired as to the names of these two Agents, and she was informed that the Agents were SA EARLE HALEY and SA ROBLEY D. MADIAND. She then requested these two Agents to come out to her residence and pick up this evidence, as she was afraid to give this information over the telephone as her telephone is being "bugged." She further stated that she had reported this to the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, but they had done nothing about it, and there was nothing else she could do. She stated that she knew the FBI was not "tapping" her telephone line. She was assured by Investigative Clerk JAMES VON WHITE that the FBI was not "tapping" her telephone line.

Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, furnished the following oral information:

Mrs. OSWALD stated that it is her belief that there is "someone in this town with a badge thwarting my moves." Mrs. OSWALD said she says this because she believes that Fort Worth Police Car No. 338 is near her all the time and, as a matter of fact, for the past two months, she has observed this particular car on the west side of Fort Worth, on the east side of Fort Worth, and points in between, and believes that the car surely must be following her.

Mrs. OSWALD said further that it is her belief someone is listening in on her telephone. She said she has called this to the attention of officials of the telephone company and they have assured her there is no one listening on her telephone; however, Mrs. OSWALD said she intends to again call this to the attention of high officials at the telephone company and request they send a personal representative out to look at her telephone lines.

Mrs. OSWALD said further that it is her belief her mail is being opened before she receives it. Mrs. OSWALD said she now has a Post Office Box, which is 9578, and is located at the Arlington Heights Substation at Fort Worth. She said she receives all her mail at this Post Office now and does not have a home delivery, even though letters come to her addressed to her street address on Thomas Place.

Mrs. OSWALD exhibited a letter and envelope, which envelope was postmarked May 16, 1964, at Fort Worth, Texas, and the letter within was signed by an ALTA WHITLOCK, 309 Grace Street, Fort Worth, Texas. The letter, in substance, was that WHITLOCK told Mrs. OSWALD, "It's too bad about you having to drive a ten-year-old car and now have a new car." The letter continued by saying that she and her eighty-five-year-old mother had sent two $5.00 checks to Mrs. OSWALD during the first period of her troubles, that the checks were cashed, and Mrs. OSWALD had not even thanked them for the checks.

Mrs. OSWALD further stated the letter had been opened when she received it from her Post Office Box and the end opened had been stapled closed. She said she immediately called this to the attention of Mr. REDDING, Superintendent of Mails, at the Arlington Heights Post Office Substation, and Mr. REDDING had given her a typewritten memorandum to the effect that the letter had been cut open and stapled. Mrs. OSWALD said it is possible this letter could have been opened for some reason by WHITLOCK prior to WHITLOCK's mailing the letter and that she, Mrs. OSWALD, was attempting to telephonically contact WHITLOCK in order to ascertain this but, to date, had been unable to contact this person. Mrs. OSWALD said that, if WHITLOCK did not open this letter herself prior to mailing, that this is another example of her being "thwarted."

Mrs. OSWALD said further she believes her son is innocent of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and she is continuing her investigation into the matter. She said the President's Commission in Washington, D. C., apparently "can't do anything" because there is a "Red" working on the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD exhibited a newspaper story datelined Washington, D. C., May 11, 1964, by United Press, to the effect that Senator KARL MUNDT, South Dakota, said in the article that a "Red front man had been hired as a hundred-dollar-a-day consultant for the Warren Commission," and described this man as NORMAN REDDICH. The article continued by saying that MUNDT told the Senate he understood that "possibly a second representative" from a communist front organization is employed by the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD stated she intends to write Senator MUNDT and obtain the name of the second individual with whom he is concerned who is working on the President's Commission in Washington, D. C. Mrs. OSWALD said this is one reason she is continuing her private investigation into the matter, as she does not feel "justice" will be done.

Mrs. OSWALD said NORMAN REDLICH is Mr. RANKIN's right-hand man on the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD said she knows this from having testified before this Commission.

Mrs. OSWALD stated she had made charges against two Secret Service Agents to the President's Commission at the time she testified and that these two men are MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL. She said she first met both of them at the Inn of the Six Flags, at which time KUNKEL appeared to be "very upset." She said this was shortly after the assassination, at which time she, her daughter-in-law, MARINA OSWALD, and MARINA's two children were taken to the Inn of the Six Flags. Mrs. OSWALD said she asked MIKE HOWARD, "What is wrong with him?", pointing to KUNKEL, and said HOWARD told her KUNKEL was upset because he had guarded JACQUELINE KENNEDY for two years.

Mrs. OSWALD said she is actually "afraid" of HOWARD and KUNKEL and does not want anything to do with either person. Mrs. OSWALD said about two weeks ago KUNKEL called her on the telephone, wanting to make an appointment concerning a letter Secret Service had, and she refused to allow him to come to her home.

Mrs. OSWALD said further she believes that PETER GREGORY, a person who was interpreting for the Secret Service at the Inn of the Six Flags, MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL were the ones who influenced MARINA OSWALD not to live with her or to have anything to do with her. Mrs. OSWALD said at that time ROBERT OSWALD, her son, told her that MARINA did not want to have anything to do with her and the reason MARINA would not talk to her was because of "just the way you're acting now, Mother." Mrs. OSWALD said she was acting no more than a mother would under the circumstances. Mrs. OSWALD said that ROBERT will not have anything to do with her at the present time and does not contact her. She said MARINA OSWALD does not contact her.

Mrs. OSWALD said further it is her opinion MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL influenced MARINA to sign a contract with a man named MARTIN and an attorney named THORNE, and it is her belief these two would be cheating her two grandchildren out of money.

Mrs. OSWALD said further that when MARINA OSWALD went to Washington, D. C., to appear before the President's Commission that she left the small child in Dallas, and Mrs. OSWALD said she believes MIKE HOWARD made MARINA do this on a threat that the child would be harmed if MARINA did not do what HOWARD told her to do. Mrs. OSWALD said she knows MARINA well enough that she does not believe MARINA would have ever left her child in Dallas and gone to Washington, D. C., alone, unless she had left the child due to a threat from MIKE HOWARD.

Mrs. OSWALD said that all the information concerning KUNKEL and HOWARD had been given by her to the President's Commission at the time she testified before them. Mrs. OSWALD said, "I fully expect to be recalled by the Commission in the future to give more evidence."

Mrs. OSWALD stated she trusts no one any longer in this matter but the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and she does not desire to give any information to anyone. Mrs. OSWALD said, "We are on the same team," because the Federal Bureau of Investigation is investigating and "so am I." Mrs. OSWALD said she was going to continue her investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY.

On March 2, 1964, Mr. WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE, attorney for MARINA OSWALD and ROBERT L. OSWALD, advised SA VINCENT E. DRAIN that a REX JOHNSON, a physician in Fort Worth, Texas, had treated ROBERT OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD during their youth and that he was furnishing such information in the event it was desired to conduct any investigation pertaining to this.

On March 10, 1964, a check of the Fort Worth telephone directory by SA EARLE HALEY failed to reflect a listing for a Dr. REX JOHNSON in Fort Worth. A check of the names of all physicians and surgeons listed in Fort Worth also failed to reflect the name Dr. REX JOHNSON. Texas

On April 13, 1964, Mr. WILLIAM A. MC KENZIE, attorney for MARINA OSWALD and ROBERT L. OSWALD at Dallas, Texas, advised SA VINCENT E. DRAIN that with regard to his having furnished previously the name of Dr. REX JOHNSON at Fort Worth as having treated the OSWALD children several years ago in Fort Worth, he had since learned that this doctor's name was actually Dr. REX J. HOWARD, who has offices at 930 5th Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, telephone number ED 5-4174.

Mrs. MAXINE WALKER, Business Manager, Rex Howard Clinic, 930 Fifth Avenue, furnished the following information:

Records of the clinic reflect Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 3124 West 5th, first received treatment at this clinic under Dr. REX HOWARD on August 11, 1959. She complained of pains in her right shoulder and neck. She stated these pains were caused by an injury received while working for King Candy Company at a local department store in Fort Worth, Texas. She claimed a box fell on her face while working behind a candy counter. She was last seen by Dr. REX HOWARD in October 1959. Mrs. OSWALD also asked Dr. HOWARD to write some kind of letter to a branch of the armed services telling them she was injured, disabled and needed her son, LEE OSWALD, dismissed from the service to provide for her. Dr. HOWARD refused to write any type of letter.

Mrs. OSWALD did not pay for any medical services until she received a settlement from the insurance company for the accident which happened while working for King Candy Company.

In August 1959 Mrs. OSWALD listed her address as 3124 West 5th Street. In October 1959 she listed her address as 1013 5th Avenue in Fort Worth.

ROBERT OSWALD was treated by Dr. REX HOWARD as an emergency patient at Harris Hospital in Fort Worth on July 18, 1961, for pains in his back. He later came to Dr. HOWARD for treatments of these pains and was dismissed on February 1, 1962. He paid his bill promptly.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD has never been a patient of Dr. REX HOWARD.

At the time of the assassination, Mrs. WALKER and Dr. HOWARD discussed the OSWALD family and they recalled Mrs. OSWALD, the mother, and ROBERT being patients but commented that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was never a patient and they did not recall ever seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mrs. WALKER recalled that Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD talked a great deal about her hardships and that everyone was against her.

CLARK recalled that during the first interview he was not sure as to the source of OSWALD in obtaining the name of Mrs. CLARK but first thought it might have been the Fort Worth Public Library. He later talked to his wife, Mrs. GALI CLARK, and she said that when OSWALD called her the first time he told her he had obtained her name from some person at the Texas Employment Commission. CLARK further advised that his wife vaguely recalled that OSWALD might have told her the name of this person was SMITH but she was not certain as to this information. CLARK advised that his sister works at the Texas Employment Commission and one of his aunts was employed there for many years until her death three years ago. He related that many persons at the Texas Employment Commission are acquainted with him and also know that his wife is from France and is of Russian descent. CLARK stated he and his wife had made some inquiry out of curiosity to try to learn the name of the person who gave Mrs. CLARK's name to OSWALD but they had not been successful.

Mrs. ANNIE LAURIE SMITH, 301 S. Bowen Road, Arlington, Texas, employed as a Counselor at the Texas Employment Commission, furnished the following information:

She has been so employed for the past nine years. She interviewed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in June of 1962 when he came to this office seeking a job. OSWALD had not been to the employment office before and was not sure as to his qualifications for any particular type of job. In applicants of this type, the Counselors interview these persons to obtain their background, their job experience, and try to advise them the type of job they might best be qualified for. Mrs. SMITH talked to LEE HARVEY OSWALD on two different occasions. She recalled that at times he was quite cooperative then other times he acted rather moody and did not want to furnish some of the information.

Near the close of the last interview, LEE HARVEY OSWALD mentioned to Mrs. SMITH that his wife was from Russia; that she could only speak the Russian language, and he would like to get acquainted with any persons in Fort Worth who might speak the Russian language and in this way his wife could talk to them and maybe they could make more friends in Fort Worth. Mrs. SMITH advised she is personally acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. PETER PAUL GREGORY and she wrote the name of Mr. GREGORY on a piece of paper showing the office number and phone number of Mr. GREGORY and she gave this to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. During part of this conversation, a Mrs. HALL, sitting at the next desk to Mrs. SMITH, overheard the conversation and mentioned to Mrs. SMITH that Mrs. MAX CLARK who lives in Fort Worth is of Russian descent and speaks Russian and also French. Mrs. SMITH recalls Mrs. HALL wrote the name and phone number of Mrs. CLARK on a slip of paper, handed it to Mrs. SMITH, and she in turn passed it on to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mrs. SMITH advised she was not personally acquainted with Mr. or Mrs. MAX CLARK but had heard of them. She stated that Mrs. HALL never talked to OSWALD and she only furnished the name of Mrs. CLARK to Mrs. SMITH and she in turn gave it to OSWALD.

Mrs. SMITH stated that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not discuss any politics or anything about the governments of the United States or Russia and that she only talked to him about his past employment and the type of work he had done prior to going to Russia, also the work he had done in Russia, and if he had done any work since he had returned from Russia. She stated he wanted the names of these individuals so that he and his wife might visit them and OSWALD's wife would then be able to talk to these people in Russian since she could not speak any English.

PAUL DIMITRIK, 3785 Legendary Lane, Apartment 123, Dallas, Texas, advised he was formerly known as PAWEL DYMITRUK and that he is presently employed as an Engineer with Geophysical Services, Inc., a division of Texas Instruments, with offices in the Exchange National Bank Building, Dallas, Texas.

Mr. DIMITRIK advised he was formerly married to LYDIA DIMITRIK, nee BERDJAEVSKAJA, also known as LIDYA DYMITRUK. DIMITRIK advised they were married in Belgium in July, 1956, and divorced in Dallas on December 21, 1960. DIMITRIK stated that, according to his former wife, she was born in Rostov on the Don in the USSR and, at age 15, she was taken, together with her older sister, ANNA, to Germany as a slave laborer. Following the end of World War II, DIMITRIK advised his former wife and sister both married Belgium citizens whom they had met in Germany, and they moved to Belgium. DIMITRIK advised that his former wife's first husband's name was KARL, last name unrecalled, but he does recall it was a Flemish name. DIMITRIK stated his former sister-in-law was married to a man whose last name was BUCHAT. She is now divorced and is living with a Russian whose last name is CHACKIWITCH, first name unknown. This Russian was allegedly formerly in the Vlassov Forces during World War II.

DIMITRIK advised that his former wife's parents still reside in the Soviet Union and that her father was arrested by the Soviet Army when they reoccupied Rostov, because they had not evacuated Rostov in accordance with Soviet orders. He was, therefore, accused of collaborating with the Germans and was held in Soviet prison for a number of months before being released.

DIMITRIK stated he met his former wife through her sister, ANNA, in 1954, having previously met his former wife's sister while studying at the University of Louvain. DIMITRIK stated that, before he met his former wife, she had been living with a man named VASILIY, last name unknown. According to DIMITRIK, this VASILIY had been active in the National Labor Alliance (NTS), an anti-Soviet Russian exigre organization, and had served as a Lieutenant in the Vlassov Forces during World War II. DIMITRIK explained that he, also, had served in the Vlassov Forces, which was a large force of Soviet citizens who fought with the Germans against the Soviet Union during World War II, being made up mostly of captured Soviet military troops. DIMITRIK further stated that this individual named VASILIY later returned to the Soviet Union and he has heard conflicting stories as to the reason for his return, some people, names unrecalled, stating that he, VASILIY, had been pressured into returning through pressure on his parents in the Soviet Union; other individuals, names unrecalled, stating VASILIY was actually a Soviet agent working in the Vlassov Forces and later in the NTS forces, and reporting to the Soviets as to their activities.

DIMITRIK stated he did not believe his former wife ever knowingly assisted VASILIY in any pro-Soviet activities. He stated his former wife was opposed to communism and the Soviet Union. However, he has no proof whether she did or did not assist VASILIY.

DIMITRIK stated that prior to the time he met his wife when she was married to a Belgium citizen named KARL, last name unknown, his former wife had attended several social meetings and dances given by the organization known as United Soviet Patriots in Belgium, which DIMITRIK described as a pro-Soviet organization. DIMITRIK stated that, from information available to him, his wife was under doctor's care and was suffering from what DIMITRIK described as mental trouble, and the Belgium doctor, whose name he does not know, advised his former wife to associate with other Russian-speaking individuals. She then attended several social meetings of this group prior to her divorce from her first husband. DIMITRIK stated that, after his first wife divorced her first husband, she began associating with Russians who were active in the NTS and apparently met VASILIY through this group, since he was reportedly quite active in the NTS. DIMITRIK advised that his former wife was also acquainted with the leader of the NTS in Belgium, but he does not recall his name. However, DIMITRIK does recall this individual suffered from a lung disease. He also recalls she was a friend of a taxi driver, name unknown, who was active in the NTS at Brussels, Belgium, and a woman named ZOYA, last name unknown, who is now in New York City.

DIMITRIK stated he began living with his former wife about six months before they were married, which was in July, 1956, and he, DIMITRIK, did not want to become associated with the NTS and his former wife then stopped associating with these individuals. DIMITRIK stated that he married his former wife about two days before he left Belgium to come to the United States in July, 1956, and he finally succeeded in bringing her to the United States in March, 1959. DIMITRIK stated he came to the United States first and then got the necessary papers to bring his former wife to the United States.

DIMITRIK stated that when he came to Dallas he met GEORGE BOUHE on one occasion, but did not associate with BOUHE or his group, since he, DIMITRIK, is a Baptist and BOUHE was associated with the Russian Orthodox Church in Dallas. DIMITRIK stated that his former wife, however, was a member of the Russian Orthodox Church in Dallas, Texas and, therefore, associated with GEORGE BOUHE and his friends.

DIMITRIK stated that he never, at any time, ever met LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife, MARINA OSWALD, and, to the best of his knowledge, his former wife never met either individual. However, he is not certain she could not have met the OSWALDS after their divorce in 1960.

Mrs. LYDIA DYMITRUK, 3542½ Kent Street, Fort Worth, Texas, advised that she first met MARINA OSWALD in either October or November, 1962, when a friend of hers named ANNA MELLER asked her to assist MARINA OSWALD in taking her sick child to a doctor. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated it was on a Tuesday that she went to MARINA OSWALD's apartment in the Oak Cliff area of Dallas, Texas, and then took her to Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Texas. They arrived at this hospital sometime between 9:00 AM and 10:00 AM and the doctor present said that there would be no doctor to see children until about 6:00 PM that evening. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated they then went to the Children's Hospital in Dallas, Texas, but were refused service there, so she took MARINA OSWALD back to her apartment but, since Mrs. OSWALD's little girl was still ill, she agreed to return that evening and take MARINA OSWALD and her daughter to the Parkland Hospital.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she returned to the apartment of MARINA OSWALD shortly before 6:00 PM. At this time, LEE OSWALD had returned from work and had started eating his supper. When MARINA OSWALD told LEE OSWALD she wanted to take the baby to the hospital for treatment, he told her that it wasn't necessary, that there was nothing wrong with the child. However, after arguing with LEE OSWALD for a period of time, he finally agreed to accompany them to Parkland Hospital. After arriving at Parkland Hospital, they examined MARINA OSWALD's daughter and gave her some medicine. They then gave LEE OSWALD a slip and told him to go to the cashier. The cashier asked LEE OSWALD where he worked and he stated that he didn't work, that he did not receive unemployment compensation, and that he lived through the assistance of his friends. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated MARINA OSWALD understood enough English to know what LEE OSWALD was saying and she called him a liar in the Russian language. The cashier then gave LEE OSWALD a slip of paper and he put it in his pocket and walked out without paying.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated the next time she saw MARINA OSWALD was in about May, 1963, when she, Mrs. DYMITRUK, was working in a Wyatt Grocery Store in Irving, Texas. MARINA OSWALD entered this store with a woman who Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she later learned was Mrs. RUTH PAINE. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she talked to MARINA for a short while, then Mrs. PAINE started talking to them in what Mrs. DYMITRUK described as broken Russian. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she asked Mrs. PAINE if she was of Russian descent and how she learned Russian. Mrs. PAINE told her she learned Russian in college and Mrs. OSWALD was staying with her so that she, Mrs. PAINE, could improve her Russian language ability.

MARINA OSWALD then advised Mrs. DYMITRUK that her husband, LEE OSWALD, was now in New Orleans and had a job and that she, MARINA OSWALD, would join him in that city very shortly. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated MARINA OSWALD and Mrs. PAINE then departed in Mrs. PAINE's station wagon.

Mrs. DYMITRUK advised that, to the best of her knowledge, her former husband, PAUL DIMITRIK, had never met or talked to either LEE or MARINA OSWALD.

Mrs. DYMITRUK furnished the following background information on herself:

She was born on April 2, 1926, in Rostov on the Don, USSR, maiden name BEHDJANSKAJA. In 1942, when she was not quite sixteen years old, the German Army captured Rostov and shortly thereafter took a large number of the young people from the city back to Germany as slave laborers. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she and her older sister, ANNA, were among those taken to Germany. They were both assigned as domestic helpers in Dusseldorf, Germany. Shortly before the American Army captured this city in 1945, all non-Germans were removed to a prison camp and, shortly before the American Army arrived, Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she, together with her sister and two Belgians, escaped from this camp. When the American Army arrived, the various non-German groups were placed in camps according to their nationality and she and her sister went with the two Belgian citizens to the Belgian camp, rather than go to a Russian camp, since it was learned that all of the Russian citizens would be forced to return to Russia, and she and her sister did not desire to return to the Soviet Union, because they realized there was a much better standard of living in western Europe. Mrs. DYMITRUK advised that, a short time later, a French Army Officer came to the camp where they were staying and told her and her sister they would have to move to a Russian camp. However, when they told this French Army Officer they did not desire to return to the Soviet Union, he said that the only way they could avoid this was to marry Belgian citizens. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she had been living with KARL VERELST, a Belgian citizen, so she was married by an American Army Chaplain to him and thus permitted to remain in the Belgian camp. They were later transferred to Liege, Belgium, and finally returned to her husband's home in Antwerp, Belgium.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that during this period the Soviet Government was permitted to send repatriation officers throughout western Europe in an attempt to talk Russian citizens into returning to the Soviet Union. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she was contacted several times, but refused to return to the Soviet Union.

In 1949, when she was still married to KARL VERELST, she attended several social meetings of the Union of Soviet Patriots in Belgium. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she knew that this organization was pro-Soviet and was controlled by the communists; however, she went to the meetings for social reasons to meet other Russian people and to dance and see movie films. Mrs. DYMITRUK explained that, at this time, the Belgium Government would not force any Soviet citizens to return to the Soviet Union, so she felt perfectly safe in attending meetings of this organization for purely social reasons, even though she knew this organization to be communist controlled. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that, after 1946, she started receiving letters from her mother, who advised her that her father had been put in prison by the Russians for a short while in 1945, apparently because her father would not retreat from Rostov when the German Army occupied that city. Her mother urged Mrs. DYMITRUK and her sister to remain in Belgium and not to return to the Soviet Union.

Mrs. DYMITRUK further explained that another reason she attended meetings of the Union of Soviet Patriots in Belgium was because she had what she described as mental trouble and also had considerable trouble with her mother-in-law and father-in-law, and the doctor urged her to associate with other Russian people. Because of these troubles, Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she then left her husband in Antwerp and went to Brussels, where her sister, ANNA, now named BOUCHAT, resided.

Gen. Ref. - 11351.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that, while in Brussels, she began living with a man named VASILIY KOSTENKO, who had formerly served in the Vlassov forces, which Mrs. DYMITRUK described as an Army force which fought with the Germans against the Soviet Union during World War II, being made up of Russian prisoners of war. KOSTENKO, according to Mrs. DYMITRUK, was a Lieutenant in the Vlassov forces and when she met him he was a leader of an anti-communist group, which Mrs. DYMITRUK stated was called either Cvomr or Chohp. This group was not connected with the National Labor Alliance (NTS), but cooperated with the NTS and was made up of former members of the Vlassov forces. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she lived with KOSTENKO for two or three years and left him because he drank too much. According to Mrs. DYMITRUK, she helped KOSTENKO in his work in this organization, but she cannot recall the names of any other individuals in this group. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that KOSTENKO's father was allegedly a Russian engineer who was shot by the Soviet Government, because of religious beliefs, and that his mother was allegedly Polish, and he had escaped, being sent back to Russia after the war by posing as a Pole.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated KOSTENKO was a very militant anti-communist and had tried to join a group of individuals who were parachuted into the Belorussia area of the Soviet Union. According to Mrs. DYMITRUK, this group was captured immediately by the Soviet Government as soon as they landed, and they were all allegedly shot. KOSTENKO then became quite upset about this matter and stopped associating with his Russian friends in Brussels. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that she had, meanwhile, left KOSTENKO and she later heard he went to Germany and then returned to the Soviet Union. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she did not believe KOSTENKO was a Soviet agent and she stated that he was a militant anti-communist and had returned to the Soviet Union because his attempts to fight communism through refugee groups had apparently failed, and she believed he had gone back to the Soviet Union to fight communism inside the Soviet Union.

When Mrs. DYMITRUK was asked how she thought KOSTENKO could fight communism from inside the Soviet Union, she merely stated that she was sure he was an anti-communist and not a Soviet agent.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she read in a Russian language newspaper in Belgium of KOSTENKO's return to the Soviet Union, but has heard nothing further from him or about him.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that, a short time later, she began living with PAUL DIMITRIK, who immigrated to the United States in 1956. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that in 1957 when she attempted to join him in the United States, she was denied an American visa because of her past membership in the Union of Soviet Patriots in Belgium. However, after two or three years, her former husband succeeded in getting a visa for her and she entered the United States in 1959. Mrs. DYMITRUK stated she and her former husband were divorced in Dallas in 1960, and she has not seen her former husband since that time.

Mrs. DYMITRUK stated that she wanted it to be known that she was never a communist or a communist sympathizer, and was not pro-Soviet in any manner, and hoped to become a citizen of the United States in the near future.

Miss YAEKO OKUI, 5648 Loring Drive, Apartment 149, Dallas, Texas, was contacted at her residence for interview.

Miss OKUI advised she was born January 19, 1933, Tokyo, Japan, and resided at the residence of her parents, 843 Yamashita-Cho, Sumoto City, Hyogo Prefecture, Japan, until her travel to the United States in 1959.

As a matter of background, Miss OKUI advised her father was a practicing attorney in Sumoto City, Japan, until the time of his death approximately four years ago, and that her mother, Mrs. TOYO OKUI, is presently a Certified Public Accountant operating accounting firms in Sumoto City and Wakayamac City. Miss OKUI advised she attended Wasada University in Tokyo for three and one-half years, majoring in Business Administration and Economics. She advised she did not receive a degree from this university, but lacks only the submission of a thesis, which she plans to submit upon her return. In addition, Miss OKUI completed seven years of study at the Sogetsu School of Professional Flower Arrangement at Tokyo, for which she received a Teacher's Certificate, allowing her to practice professional flower arrangement teaching throughout the world. Miss OKUI advised she is further proficient in Kato music, which Miss OKUI described as a large, thirteen-string instrument, which is quite popular in Japanese symphony orchestras. Miss OKUI stated she, likewise, holds a Teacher's Certificate in this instrument and she, accordingly, has conducted several classes in Kato music during her residence in Dallas.

Miss OKUI advised that in the Spring of 1959, upon completing her studies at the Sogetsu School in Tokyo, she came in contact with a Mr. OZAWA, President of Ozawa & Company, Osaka, Japan, which company is the Japanese agent for Schwabach Perutz & Company, a Dallas corporation dealing in cotton exchange. Miss OKUI expressed a desire to Mr. OZAWA to visit the United States for cultural purposes and, accordingly, Mr. OZAWA arranged for her employment with Mr. GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President of Schwabach Perutz & Company, in his offices in the Cotton Exchange Building, Dallas. Mr. WEINSTEIN agreed to act as Miss OKUI's sponsor for a two-year period during her employment by him in the United States and, accordingly, she arrived in the United States and Dallas, Texas, in the Summer of 1959.

Miss OKUI explained that, due to the diversity between her home land and that of the United States, she requested Mr. WEINSTEIN employ her as a governess in his home in the beginning to allow her to acquaint herself with western world customs, such as buying her groceries and other domestic differences.

Miss OKUI stated she continued her employment with Mr. WEINSTEIN until approximately June or July, 1961, when she obtained a position with Nippon Service, Inc., 13 West 46th Street, New York City, whereupon she took up residence in New York at 22 East 95th Street. Miss OKUI explained that Nippon Service is operated as an American representative for the Takashamaya (phonetic) Department Stores, Japan's largest department store chain. Miss OKJI advised she was employed for Nippon Service under the direct supervision of Mr. MICHIO KUSHI, President of that company, until her return to Dallas, in August, 1962. She advised she returned to Dallas at the request of Mr. KUSHI to act as the southwestern representative for Nippon Service, Inc. She explained her duties were primarily in the public relations field, in that she was required to make numerous contacts with southwestern firms having Japanese connections in the name of her company.

Miss OKUI stated that, upon her return to Dallas in August, 1962, she took up residence with the family of Mr. & Mrs. WARREN LESLIE, 11415 Hillcrest, Dallas, Texas. Mr. LESLIE, at that time, was Vice President of the Neiman-Marcus Department Store in Dallas. She advised she resided with the LESLIE family until the Spring of 1963, when Mr. & Mrs. LESLIE became separated and she then occupied a guest house to the rear of the residence of Mr. & Mrs. LEE STARR, 5710 Chathar Hill, Dallas, President of Titche-Goettinger Department Stores, at their invitation. Miss OKUI stated she has lived at her present address for about six months.

Miss OKUI stated further she is no longer employed by Nippon Service, Inc., as she has terminated her position with that firm in preparation for return to her home in Japan. Miss OKUI is scheduled to depart the United States on June 10, 1964, via NYK Lines from San Francisco, California; however, she intends to remain in Dallas until the end of May, 1964.

Miss OKUI related that, in addition to her services with Nippon Service, Inc., in the southwestern area of the United States, she lectures on an average of two to three times a week before ladies' clubs and other similar groups in the art of Ikebana, the Japanese art of flower arrangement, and in Origami, the Japanese art of paper folding. Miss OKUI engages in these teaching lectures as a free-lance speaker, for which she receives a fee.

Miss OKUI stated that, while attending a chamber music concert in Dallas approximately four years ago, she became acquainted with a Mr. LEV ARONSON, who is a widely acclaimed cellist and music teacher in the Dallas area. Miss OKUI characterized Mr. ARONSON as a Latvian by birth, who speaks Russian fluently, and is conversant in several other languages, and it was through Mr. ARONSON she had occasion to become acquainted with Mr. & Mrs. DONALD FORD. She advised she has attended several functions in the company of Mr. ARONSON as a guest of the FORD family, and she recalls attending a party at the FORD residence, in the company of Mr. ARONSON, in the latter part of December, 1962. Miss OKUI advised this party was held at the North Dallas residence of Mr. & Mrs. FORD, 14057 Brookcrest Drive, and that this party was occasioned by the celebration of the Russian holiday season which, she explained, is held a few days following the Christmas season in this country.

Miss OKUI recalled that, upon arrival at this party, she was introduced to a large number of people in attendance, none of whom she can recall now, but she does recall being introduced to an individual, who she now knows was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and his wife, MARINA, who were also in attendance at the party. Miss OKUI stated she recalls further having a conversation with MARINA OSWALD, through Mr. ARONSON as interpreter, and she received a good deal of attention from the guests at the party, inasmuch as she was the only Oriental in attendance. Miss OKUI recalled she discussed with MARINA OSWALD the fact that she, MARINA, had recently arrived in the United States and had had little or no opportunity to see the country and get acquainted with the people.

Miss OKUI further stated she does recall having a discussion with MARINA's husband, whom she now knows to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, concerning Ikebana, or flower arrangement, and OSWALD, to the best of her recollection, queried her about how she liked the United States in relation to Japan, insofar as the customs of the people were concerned. She stated OSWALD did not, at any time, broach the subject of politics and, if he had, she would have been inadequate in that regard, as she takes little interest in that subject.

Miss OKUI stated that, if there was some consternation by any of the guests at her discussion with OSWALD, she was not aware of it and, in fact, feels certain Mr. ARONSON was at her side at all times that evening. Miss OKUI stated further that that was the first and last time she had ever met or talked to either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his wife, MARINA OSWALD, and, in fact, did not, at any time, know his name until OSWALD received notoriety as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY. Miss OKUI also stated that, to the best of her recollection, Mr. ARONSON did not, at least not to her, express any displeasure over her discussion with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and she stated she feels certain he would have mentioned it had that been true.

GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President, Schwabach Perutz and Company, Room 1610, Cotton Exchange Building, 608 N. St. Paul, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his offices regarding the employment of Miss YAEKO OKUI in the spring of 1959.

WEINSTEIN advised that his firm deals in the purchase, sale, and exchange of cotton throughout the world, principally in the Orient, and that his company is represented in Japan by Ozawa and Company, a brokerage firm located in Osaka, Japan. He advised that in the spring of 1959 he desired to employ a Japanese girl as governess for his children and discussed this matter at length with Mr. GEORGE PERUTZ, a member of the board of Schwabach Perutz and Company, and that Mr. PERUTZ advised him at that time that his wife, Mrs. PERUTZ, was acquainted with a well-educated, English-speaking Japanese girl residing at that time on Awaji Island located about ten miles off the coast of Kobi, Japan. WEINSTEIN stated Mrs. PERUTZ accordingly contacted this Japanese girl, who he now knows to be Miss YAEKO OKUI, and inquired of her availability for a position in the United States as governess for Mr. WEINSTEIN's children. WEINSTEIN stated Miss OKUI answered Mrs. PERUTZ' inquiry by return mail to the effect she would be very much interested in employment in the United States for a period of two years and that upon being advised of this by Mrs. PERUTZ, WEINSTEIN communicated with Mr. OZAWA of the Ozawa Company in Osaka, Japan, and requested his assistance in arranging a two year temporary visa for Miss OKUI. WEINSTEIN stated he, through his attorneys, submitted the appropriate forms to the Immigration Service reflecting his intentions to act as sponsor for Miss OKUI in the event her visa were granted and promising round trip transportation from Japan to the United States and return.

WEINSTEIN advised arrangements were made by Mr. OZAWA through the U. S. Consul in Tokyo for a two year temporary visa for Miss OKUI and that Miss OKUI arrived by ocean liner to San Francisco and subsequently Dallas in the middle of the summer of 1959. He advised Miss OKUI immediately took up her duties as governess at his residence and remained in that position through the entire two year period ending in approximately July, 1961. He advised Miss OKUI then arranged through subsequent friends she had made in Dallas for an extension on her visa and upon the expiration of her employment period with him she subsequently obtained a position with the Nippon Service Company, Incorporated, in New York City which Mr. WEINSTEIN stated he understands acts as United States representative for the Takashamaya (phonetic) Department Store chain of Japan. WEINSTEIN stated to the best of his recollection she remained in New York approximately one year at which time she returned to Dallas as a southwestern states representative for that firm. WEINSTEIN advised he and his family have lost contact with Miss OKUI subsequent to her employment in New York City and have seen her on only three or four occasions since her return to Dallas.

WEINSTEIN stated that during the tenure of her employment at his home he and his family thought very highly of Miss OKUI and found her to be a highly intelligent, well-educated, and talented girl. He stated she accepted her responsibilities fully and was always quietly polite and unassuming while a resident in his household.

WEINSTEIN advised he was not aware that Miss OKUI had attended a dinner party at which LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD were also in attendance; however, he knew that she had become friendly with many of the Russian-speaking people in the Dallas-Fort Worth area inasmuch as she had become a close friend and companion to Mr. LEV ARONSON, who he believed to have been of Russian origin, and who was fluent in the Russian language. WEINSTEIN attributed this association to their mutual enjoyment of parlor music in which both were quite gifted rather than to any amorous relationship.

WEINSTEIN advised that around the first of May, 1964, he received a letter from Miss OKUI expressing her intentions to return to Japan and as he, WEINSTEIN, remained obligated to pay for her passage home he accordingly arranged passage aboard the Africa Mara scheduled to depart San Francisco June 8, 1964. He advised further he has arranged for her belongings to be shipped to San Francisco in care of the William Diamond and Company, Pier 23, for subsequent shipment to Japan.

GEORGE PERUTZ, Director, Schwabach Perutz and Company, Room 1610, Cotton Exchange Building, 608 N. St. Paul, Dallas, Texas, advised he first became acquainted with Miss YAEKO OKUI through his wife, SIDNEY PERUTZ, who he recalls met Miss OKUI at a flower arrangement show in a Tokyo park sometime during 1956 or 1957. PERUTZ explained that he and his wife make frequent trips to the Orient and most notably Japan as a result of his business interests in that area of the world and that these trips are usually made in the spring of each year for the purpose of selling cotton futures to Japanese textile mills and other purchasers. He advised that Miss OKUI and his wife became close friends and, in fact, his wife has visited the OKUI home on several occasions and he recalls his wife spending a full week with the OKUI family on one occasion. PERUTZ stated that following their return to the United States Miss OKUI and his wife corresponded frequently regarding floral arrangements and other Japanese cultural arts in which Miss OKUI was quite proficient.

Mr. PERUTZ recalled that Mr. GERARDO WEINSTEIN, President of Schwabach Perutz and Company mentioned to him early in 1959 the need of a governess for his children and that he, Mr. PERUTZ, suggested to WEINSTEIN that he discuss his needs with Mrs. PERUTZ as she was acquainted with a number of talented Japanese girls who would be desirous of employment in the United States. He advised Mrs. PERUTZ recommended Miss OKUI to Mr. WEINSTEIN and WEINSTEIN subsequently made arrangements with Mr. OZAWA of Ozawa and Company, the Schwabach Perutz and Company representatives, for a two year temporary visa for Miss OKUI to the United States. He stated Mr. WEINSTEIN was required to furnish proof of his intentions to act as sponsor for Miss OKUI during her stay in the United States and he recalls Miss OKUI arrived in the United States and in Dallas in the early summer of 1959. PERUTZ stated Miss OKUI and Mrs. PERUTZ continued on friendly terms while Miss OKUI was employed for Mr. WEINSTEIN in Dallas but that following her employment in New York Miss OKUI and Mrs. PERUTZ drifted apart as Miss OKUI found many new friends in Dallas and neither he nor Mrs. PERUTZ have seen Miss OKUI more than five or six times in the last three years.

Mrs. SIDNEY PERUTZ, 11405 St. Michaels, Dallas, Texas, advised she first met Miss YAEKO OKUI at a flower arrangement show being held in a Tokyo, Japan park early in the summer of 1957 and that due to their mutual interest in flower arrangements and as Miss OKUI had a fluent mastery of the English language, she and Miss OKUI became well acquainted. She stated Miss OKUI expressed an avid interest for life in the United States and its customs and that she and Miss OKUI exchanged ideas on this subject. She advised she too was interested in the customs of Japan and accordingly visited the residence of Miss OKUI and family at Miss OKUI's request on several occasions. She advised that Miss OKUI at that time was residing with her mother and two younger sisters on Awaji Island off the coast of Kobi, Japan, and that on one occasion Mrs. PERUTZ spent a week on Awaji Island with the OKUI family.

Mrs. PERUTZ advised she recalls that Mr. OKUI, YAEKO's father, had been a prominent attorney in Japan at one time but that in 1957 he was already a bedridden invalid and that she knows he has subsequently passed away. She stated Mrs. TOYO OKUI, mother of YAEKO, is a Certified Public Accountant and operates one or more accounting businesses in Japan from which she has sent her youngest daughters, including YAEKO, to college. Mrs. PERUTZ advised from her recollection the family consists of an older sister whom Mrs. PERUTZ has not met but who she knows to be married to an English naval officer who is now retired from the service and living in California, name unrecalled. She stated YAEKO is the next oldest sister and that she has two other younger sisters who are both to her knowledge still living in Japan after having completed their college education, names unrecalled. She advised she has heard indirectly through Miss OKUI that she also has a half brother living in Tokyo who is married to a member of the prominent MITSUBISHI family. Mrs. PERUTZ believed she also has another brother who has been hospitalized for some years in a mental institution somewhere in Japan. Mrs. PERUTZ was unable to furnish any other information regarding the family or background of YAEKO OKUI.

at which LEE HARVEY and MARINA OSWALD were also in attendance, Mrs. PERUTZ stated she did not find this unusual as Miss OKUI frequently attended Russian gatherings in the company of Mr. LEV ARONSON, a noted Dallas cellist and music teacher who she believes to be of Russian origin and who has many Russian-speaking friends in this area. Mrs. PERUTZ advised she is of the opinion Miss OKUI would have had no social relationship with either LEE HARVEY or MARINA OSWALD other than through mutual attendance at one of these Russian gatherings and knows that Miss OKUI has never mentioned the OSWALDs to her at any time either before or after the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mrs. PERUTZ stated further that she feels positive there could be no social relationship between Miss YAEKO OKUI and LEE HARVEY OSWALD inasmuch as their obvious cultural and educational levels are so diverse.

MICHIO KUSHI, 67-77 136th Street, Queens, New York, was interviewed at the offices of the Nippon Service, Incorporated, 1[illegible] West 46th Street, New York, New York. Mr. KUSHI is the President of the Nippon Service, Incorporated.

He said he is acquainted with Miss YAEKO OKUI and that she is a young attractive lady who resides in Dallas, Texas. She is a native of Japan and is a charming person, possessing above average intelligence. He described her as a person who has many friends and acquaintances and one who has an engaging personality.

To the best of his knowledge, Miss OKUI arrived in the United States from Japan in the spring or summer of 1959. She moved to Dallas, Texas, and was employed by an unknown firm in Dallas for approximately two years.

KUSHI advised that he was formerly a Vice-President of the Takashimaya Department Store, 562 5th Avenue, New York City, which is Japan's largest department store chain. The Nippon Service, Incorporated represents several Japanese firms in the United States and his representatives contact numerous firms throughout the United States. He wanted to explain the above since it was in this connection he met Miss OKUI. In the summer of 1961, he travelled to Dallas on business and he met Miss OKUI while contacting firms. He offered employment to her and in the summer of 1961, she came to New York City, She was employed by the Nippon Service Incorporated, but assigned to the Takashimaya Department Store for sales training. She worked until the summer of 1962, when she returned to Dallas to serve in the public relations field for his firm. She was required to contact firms in the Southwest with whom his company had business relations. Miss OKUI contacted him about two weeks ago and telephonically advised she was returning to Japan around the last part of May, 1964.

He advised he is not aware that Miss OKUI attended a party in December, 1962 which was also attended by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his wife, MARINA. He said he is not closely associated with Miss OKUI but he feels sure she would not have had an opportunity to meet OSWALD in her business contacts. This party evidently was a social affair and not in relation to her business contacts. He felt sure she is not in a position to discuss politics in the United States, and based upon his association with her she would not enter into any discussion of politics.

He pointed out Miss OKUI is a professional flower arrangement teacher and is quite proficient in Kato music. She engages in teaching and has held lectures in regard to the above in the Southwest but he would doubt she ever met OSWALD through these lectures.

He has no basis for his statement but stated Miss OKUI probably met OSWALD once and only once and probably did not even recall him.

He has no record of OKUI's employment to the best of his knowledge but, while in New York City she resided with Mrs. KAZUKO OGURA, an accomplished flower arranger in New York City.

about the same time as LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following investigation was conducted by SA MARION E. TORRENS:

AT SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

GEORGE FISHER, Attorney at Law, 1505 United States National Bank Building, on January 8, 1964, made available an article from "The San Diego Union" dated November 1, 1959. The article reads as follows:

"Ex-Marine, 20, To Renounce U. S. For Russia

"Moscow, Oct. 31 -- Lee Harvey Oswald, 20, a recently discharged U. S. Marine from Fort Worth, Texas, disclosed today he had taken steps to renounce his American citizenship and become a Soviet citizen. He said the reasons for his move were 'purely political.'

"'I will never return to the United States for any reason,' Oswald said in a room at Moscow's Hotel Metropole.

"No Regular Job

"The young Texan declined to give any details on his background or the exact reasons for his decision. However, a U. S. Embassy official said Oswald had told him he arrived in Moscow on Oct. 13 immediately after his discharge from the Marine Corps and had no regular job in the United States.

"(Oswald's mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, lives in Fort Worth. His sister-in-law, Mrs. R. L. Oswald of Fort Worth, said 'He wanted to travel a lot and talked about going to Cuba. This is a stupid thing he's doing.')

"Third American

"Oswald is the third American in recent months to apply for Soviet citizenship upon arriving in Moscow.

"Nicholas Petrulli of Valley Stream, N.Y., filed a renunciation form, then changed his mind and decided to keep his U. S. citizenship. Robert Webster of Cleveland completed formalities for taking Soviet citizenship 10 days ago.

"Oswald said he hoped to hear from the Soviet authorities 'within a few days' on his request for Soviet citizenship."

Mr. FISHER explained that he is a retired General of the United States National Guard and maintains an index, mainly from newspapers, on persons alleged to be connected with subversive matters. He stated he was bringing this information to the attention of the FBI since the above newspaper article indicates PETRULLI and WEBSTER were in Moscow, Russia, about the same time as LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Investigation has been set out to interview NICHOLAS PETRULLI and ROBERT E. WEBSTER.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her residence, 629 Belt Line Road.

She was questioned concerning information received from PHILIPPE VAN DER VORM regarding the difficulty a young American had at Kilometer 26 while riding on the Del Norte bus from Mexico City en route to the United States Border, which was the same bus on which OSWALD traveled from Mexico to the Border. MARINA stated OSWALD had not told her about any difficulty he had with any Mexican officials or other persons while he was on his visit to Mexico in September - October, 1963. She said she does not believe OSWALD had any such difficulty or that he was removed from a bus in Mexico. She said he did not speak of being fined or otherwise approached for payments of any money on leaving Mexico.

MARINA was also shown photographs of MARY LOUISE CAMACHO, nee Patterson, as information has been received that this person possibly knew OSWALD while he was in Russia. Upon viewing these photographs, MARINA said she did not recognize the person therein depicted and did not know this person by name. She said she did not believe OSWALD knew this person, as she had never heard him speak of such a person.

MARINA was questioned concerning the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was photographed with a Mrs. MARIE LORETTA HYDE, of Port Angeles, Washington; Miss RITA NAMAN, and Mrs. MONIKA KRAMER, all residents of the United States, while they were on a visit in Minsk, Russia, in August, 1961. MARINA said she did not know of any such photograph which had been taken, although it was entirely possible OSWALD had become acquainted with such persons and had had his picture made. She was not aware, however, that such had occurred.

She was exhibited a colored photograph which is labeled D-209 and which depicts three women, two men and a small boy standing near a small white automobile, with a large building in the background, and a statue of JOSEF STALIN on the left. She stated that the person standing to the extreme right in this photograph with his right hand (the only one visible) in his pocket is LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she can recognize his features, his stance and his shirt.

She was also shown a photograph in black and white which depicts two of the women shown in the previous photograph, number D-209, the small boy, the two men and an additional man standing to the extreme right. This photograph also had what appears to be the same large building in the background and had the same automobile in the foreground. She identified the man standing with both hands in his pocket, second from the right, as being LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she can recognize his features, his stance and his shirt.

She was also shown a colored photograph which appears to be the same scene as that depicted in the black and white photograph described above. She again identified positively the person standing second from the right as being identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARINA OSWALD said she can recall that sometime during the summer of 1961, which was the year of her marriage, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had mentioned he had met some American people in Minsk. She said she recalls OSWALD had gone to the store for some groceries and, upon returning, mentioned that he had seen these people. She said she remembers OSWALD remarked the American people had told him, OSWALD, he could speak very good English. OSWALD did not tell the American people that he was an American himself.

MARINA OSWALD said she cannot recognize any of the other people in the above-described photographs. She does not know whether or not the occasion when OSWALD met the American people in Minsk is the same as depicted in these photographs.

MARINA was questioned concerning the traveling bags used by OSWALD on his trip to New Orleans, Louisiana, in April 1963 and on his trip to Mexico in September-October 1963. She said she cannot recall exactly, but believes OSWALD took two bags on his trip from Dallas to New Orleans in April 1963 when he preceded the family on that move. She emphasized that her memory on this point was not very good. She said she believed OSWALD took the blue canvas zipper bag which he owned and which is depicted in the photograph labeled Commission Exhibit A-1, and the larger folding green canvas bag, which is labeled Commission Exhibit C-254. She was exhibited both of these photographs and identified each as being the property of OSWALD.

She said again she cannot remember well, but believes OSWALD took only the blue zipper canvas bag (Commission Exhibit A-1) on his trip from New Orleans to Mexico. She emphasized that she had not been in New Orleans at the time OSWALD left, and, therefore, could not be sure what he had taken with him. She seems to recall that the larger green canvas bag (Commission Exhibit C-254) was at the PAINE garage at the time OSWALD was in Mexico, but again she cannot be sure of this. She said she cannot recall what bags or bag OSWALD had in his possession at the time he first came to the PAINE house after his Mexico trip, but she believes that he did have the blue zipper bag with him (Commission Exhibit A-1).

MARINA was also exhibited photographs depicting torn baggage stickers and check, each labeled C-254, and she said she cannot recall specifically that she had seen these torn stickers or check on any bags owned by her husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She was also exhibited the new and unused stickers and baggage check obtained at the Continental Trailways in Dallas, but she could not identify them as being similar to any stickers or tags she had previously seen on any bags owned by LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARINA was again questioned concerning the method of transportation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the PAINE house on his first visit after his Mexico trip. She said she recalled she previously had advised in an interview with the FBI that Mrs. PAINE had picked OSWALD up at the bus stop in Irving, Texas, after he telephoned the PAINE house and brought him to the PAINE house. She said she cannot be definite in this; however, because she does recall that on one occasion OSWALD caught a ride with a Negro person somewhere in Irving and was brought to the PAINE house. She said it was possible that Mrs. PAINE had not driven OSWALD from the bus stop in Irving to the PAINE house on the occasion of his first visit to the PAINE house after the Mexico trip. She said she recalled on one occasion when OSWALD visited the PAINE house that Mrs. PAINE's automobile was being repaired. She said it was possible this was the same occasion that OSWALD had caught the ride with the Negro person. She said, however, that she is not completely sure of this as she has no way of connecting the two incidents.

MARINA OSWALD was questioned as to which bus line OSWALD had used when he traveled from Dallas to New Orleans in April 1963. MARINA said she cannot remember the names of the bus lines but can recall that she and Mrs. PAINE accompanied OSWALD to the bus station on the day before he left when he checked a bag or two bags at the bus station. She said this bus station was located near the bridge separating Oak Cliff from downtown Dallas and the buses in the terminal were large, light-colored buses with a picture of a running dog thereon. She also recalls the bus station was quite near the Texas School Book Depository Building where OSWALD held his last job.

In this connection, it is noted the Greyhound Bus Station is located within a few blocks of the bridge separating Oak Cliff and downtown Dallas, and within a few blocks of the Texas School Book Depository Building, whereas the other bus station in Dallas, the Continental Trailways, is located a few blocks east of the Greyhound Bus Station and further away from the described bridge and the Texas School Book Depository Building.

MARINA was asked if the numbers "9/26" which appear on one side of the valise depicted in Commission Exhibit C-254 bore any significance or if she recalled seeing these numbers. She said that these numbers had no significance to her and she could not specifically recall them appearing on the bag.

MARINA also advised that the partial number which appears on the address sticker of Commission Exhibit C-254 does not have any significance to her because she cannot recall seeing this sticker on the bag.

MARINA was questioned as to what valise OSWALD took with him when he left the PAINE residence for Dallas immediately following his visit to the PAINE residence after his Mexico trip. She said she believed OSWALD took his blue zipper case to Dallas, and perhaps also the other green valise but she cannot now recall which he took or if he took both.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her residence, 629 Belt Line Road.

She was questioned concerning her aunt, POLINA VASILIEVNA PRUSAKOVA MIKHAILOVA, who is her mother's sister. She stated her aunt's husband is YURI MIKHAILOV. They have three sons, VALENTINE YURIEVICH MIKHAILOV, ALEXANDER YURIEVICH MIKHAILOV, and VLADIMIR YURIEVICH MIKHAILOV. Her uncle, YURI, is a building engineer. She said her aunt, POLINA, had sent money to her and her sister when they were young. She said she had never sent any money to her aunt.

MARINA said her aunt and uncle live in Kharkov, Russia, at the address Trinkler Drive. She said she believed the address on that street was House 5, Apartment 7. Her aunt and uncle lived at this address when she visited them on a vacation trip in 1961 after she was married to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARINA said she personally does not know anyone by the name of IRINA ALEKSEYEVNA MIKHAYLOVICH, VAVA, OLECHKA, MARUSYA, or OLYA, and she has never heard her aunt or uncle in Kharkov mention these names.

MARINA cannot recall any other address where her aunt and uncle have lived in Kharkov.

MARINA said the name "MIKHAILOVICH," if a Russian name, would be used as a middle name rather than as a last name. If this name "MIKHAILOVICH" or "MIKHAYLOVICH" was a Belorussian name, it would very probably be used as a last name rather than a middle name.

MARINA was also questioned concerning her knowledge of LYDIA DYMITRUK.

She advised she first met LYDIA DYMITRUK at Mrs. DECLAN FORD's house in Dallas, Texas, about the time she had temporarily resided with Mrs. FORD. She said this was about a year and a half or more ago. She again came in contact with LYDIA DYMITRUK when the latter used her automobile to take MARINA, her baby JUNE, and LEE HARVEY OSWALD to Parkland Hospital in Dallas for the purpose of having JUNE examined by a doctor there. At this time, the OSWALDs lived on Elsbeth Street in Dallas. MARINA cannot recall exactly how it came about that LYDIA DYMITRUK took them to the hospital but she believes she requested DYMITRUK for this favor. She recalls DYMITRUK came into their home on this occasion. When they arrived at Parkland Hospital it was found the doctor who was to examine the baby was not there. DYMITRUK returned MARINA and JUNE (LEE HARVEY OSWALD was not present on this trip) to the Elsbeth address and in the early evening DYMITRUK again took MARINA and JUNE to Parkland Hospital. LEE HARVEY OSWALD accompanied them on this trip.

MARINA cannot recall the exact details of what transpired at the hospital on this occasion. She cannot recall whether any questions were asked LEE HARVEY OSWALD as to his employment or whether any request was made that he pay for the treatment of his daughter, JUNE.

She can recall again seeing LYDIA DYMITRUK at a store in Irving, Texas, when she was living with Mrs. RUTH PAINE. Mrs. PAINE and MARINA went into this store. MARINA saw LYDIA DYMITRUK and the latter came over to greet MARINA. MARINA introduced her to Mrs. PAINE. The three of them thereafter had a cup of coffee. MARINA was pregnant at this time and LYDIA DYMITRUK commented on this fact. MARINA said she had gone to New Orleans to join her husband in May of 1963 and as her second daughter, RACHEL, was born in October of 1963, this meeting with LYDIA DYMITRUK must have taken place about April or May of 1963 but no later.

MARINA has again seen LYDIA DYMITRUK recently at the Russian Orthodox Church in Dallas. This last time that MARINA saw LYDIA DYMITRUK was on May 4, 1964, when the Russian Easter services were celebrated at the Russian Orthodox Church in Dallas.

MARINA said she does not particularly like LYDIA DYMITRUK and has never been friendly with her. She said LYDIA has spoken very little about her past life. She advised she does know LYDIA lived in Belgium prior to coming to the United States. She knows LYDIA is divorced and the husband lives in the Dallas area. She has heard LYDIA state that the latter has a sister in Belgium at the present time. MARINA does not know PAUL DYMITRUK, the former husband of LYDIA. She said LYDIA DYMITRUK speaks good Russian and she understands that she also speaks Flemish.

Mr. F. PIERCE WOOD, JR., who resides at 413 La Salle Street, Richardson, Texas, was interviewed at Room 202, Patterson Hall, Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas, and furnished the following information:

Mr. WOOD was displayed a copy of the visitors' register, American Museum of Atomic Energy, and immediately identified his signature and address on this register under the date of July 26, 1963. It was pointed out to Mr. WOOD that on the line immediately below his signature and under the date of July 26, 1963, there appeared the name LEE H. OSWALD. Mr. WOOD stated he did not observe the person placing this name on the visitors' register after he had signed it on July 26, 1963.

Mr. WOOD explained that he had been granted a scholarship to attend a summer workshop for administrators on higher education for adults at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee. He visited the American Museum of Atomic Energy as part of the seminar course attended at the University of Tennessee. He stated that on July 26, 1963, a Friday, he attended class until 11:30 AM and thereafter, with several other students, proceeded to Oak Ridge, Tennessee, to visit the American Museum of Atomic Energy. He stated he remembers the group waited for approximately 30 minutes for a new tour to commence. During this period of time, between 1:15 PM and 1:45 PM, he signed the visitors' register.

Mr. WOOD stated that he had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD on several television broadcasts and had seen his picture in numerous newspapers and magazine articles and to the best of his remembrance, he never saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the American Museum of Atomic Energy on July 26, 1963.

He further explained that there were several persons waiting in the lounge area of the museum for a new tour to commence and no one conducted themselves in such a manner as to attract attention.

Mr. WOOD was displayed a picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Dallas Police Department No. 54018, taken November 23, 1964. After viewing this photograph, Mr. WOOD stated it did not refresh his memory and he still does not remember seeing

IX. APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby, influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 30, 1963, a second source advised that the National headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by VINCENT "Ted" LEE, who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed LEE has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations including the CP and the SWP when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, LEE has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. LEE feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

The CP and the SWP have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

INDIGNANT WHITE CITIZENS COUNCIL (IWCC)

"The Dallas Morning News," Dallas, Texas, on July 28, 1963, stated that a newly formed Dallas County organization opposed to the Kennedy Administration, the Supreme Court, and the Negro drive for civil rights would holds its first membership drive at 9:15 PM, Sunday (July 28, 1963), on the west side of Mountain Creek Lake at Armstead and Cardiff Road.

Grand Prairie Grocer Bob Joiner, President of the new Indignant White Citizens Council (IWCC), said the organization, numbering thirty members in Grand Prairie, is a white group "indignant at the injustices thrown upon us by the present administration, the colored race, the Attorney General and the Supreme Court." Objective of the group was to picket when and where Negroes demonstrate for civil rights, the newspaper related.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY
(NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 251, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

SUBJECT: ARTICLE "KENNEDY KILLED BY RED, CAPTIVE PILOT WAS TOLD" APPEARING IN 5-22-64 ISSUE OF THE WASHINGTON "EVENING STAR" NEWSPAPER

Captioned article datelined 5-22-64, San Francisco, California, related that the Army released on 5-21-64 a transcript in which one of two newly released prisoners of the North Korean communists said his captors told him "with a big smile" of President Kennedy's assassination and said a "loyal Communist Party member" did the shooting. The article attributes the above statement to Captain Charlton W. Voltz, a helicopter pilot who was released by the North Korean communists 5-15-64 after being held prisoner for a year.

This matter was discussed by liaison 5-23-64 with Lieutenant Colonel John Downie, Office of Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence, Department of the Army. Colonel Downie advised that Army Headquarters files here in Washington, D. C., contain no elaboration on Captain Voltz' statement. Colonel Downie said that his records show that Captain Voltz did, in fact, make the statement when he was released in Korea 5-15-64. At that time, according to Colonel Downie, Lieutenant General Thomas W. Dunn, the United Nations Commander in Korea, met Captain Voltz and Captain Ben W. Stutts, the other released prisoner, and during a conversation with the two captains General Dunn remarked to the captains that President Kennedy had been assassinated to which Captain Voltz said he had heard this from one of his captors who told him that a loyal Communist Party member did the shooting.

When Captain Voltz and Captain Stutts were returned to the U. S. at San Francisco, they were not permitted to be interviewed by newspaper reporters because of their very poor physical and mental condition. In lieu thereof the Army provided the reporters with a transcript of the conversation that had previously taken place between General Dunn and the two Army captains. Colonel Downie added that to this date the Army captains have not been debriefed by Army intelligence. He said their physical and mental condition is such as to preclude debriefing. Army doctors estimate that they will not be able to be debriefed for another two or three weeks. At the present time, according to Colonel Downie, the two Army captains are confined to Letterman General Hospital located at The Presidio, Sixth Army, San Francisco, California.

ACTION:

We are having our San Francisco Office contact the G-2, Sixth Army, to obtain a copy of the above transcript and to also obtain the results of the debriefing of the two Army captains with specific reference to statements regarding the assassination of President Kennedy.

Kennedy Killed by Red, Captive Pilot Was Told

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22 (AP).—The Army released yesterday a transcript in which one of two newly released prisoners of the North Korean Communists said his captors told him "with a big smile" of President Kennedy's assassination and said a "loyal Communist party member" did the shooting.

The transcript was of a conversation between Lt. Gen. Thomas W. Dunn, United Nations commander in Korea, and Army Captains Ben W. Stutts and Charlton W. Voltz, helicopter pilots who were released last Friday after being held prisoner for a year.

Capt. Voltz, 27, said he was told on Thanksgiving day about the assassination. He said the North Korean who told him was "very proud of the fact. It was with a big smile that he said President Kennedy had been shot by some loyal Communist party member in the United States."

Capt. Stutts, 31, said he learned of the November 22 assassination on December 7.

"But that's the only thing they told me about it. They wouldn't give me any more information," said Capt. Stutts.

The transcript was released just before a news conference with the two captains and their wives. The men arrived here Wednesday.

They were captured May 17, 1963, when their helicopter was shot down by North Korean ground fire. The U. N. command said they were on a routine patrol of the Korea demilitarized zone and accidentally strayed into Communist territory.

Re Dallas teletype to Bureau, 5/1/64, reflecting results of an interview with Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which was conducted at her request.

Enclosed for the Bureau are ten copies of a letterhead memorandum reflecting the results of the interview with Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD. One copy of such LHM is being furnished the Houston Office for its information, in view of the fact Houston has been requested by Bureau airtel, 4/27/64, to interview a Miss BERTA PHILLIPS and a Mrs. FILKO HYATT. The latter individual is mentioned by Mrs. OSWALD. The Bureau airtel to Houston carried the "Assassination" caption. However, it is now felt the results of the investigation at Houston should be included in a subsequent report under the OSWALD caption and, for sake of clarity, it is believed Houston should furnish Dallas twenty-five (25) copies of the inserts or FD-302's reflecting the investigation requested in the above-mentioned Bureau airtel which will be incorporated along with the results of the interview with Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, telephonically contacted the Fort Worth Resident Agency on Thursday, April 30, 1964, at approximately 11:00 AM. She desired to have three Agents come out to her home and see her regarding information that she had in her possession and also some information about a photograph. She said she was going to have photostats made of this photograph.

Mrs. OSWALD was telephonically contacted around 3:00 PM, on April 30, 1964, and advised that it would not be possible to have three Agents contact her on that afternoon. She said that was satisfactory as she had changed her mind and was going to see her attorney and that she wanted to turn this information over to the President's Commission.

Mrs. OSWALD called the Fort Worth Resident Agency on Friday morning, May 1, 1964, around 11:00 AM. She said she had driven over to Dallas and, after arriving there, had changed her mind and returned to Fort Worth, Texas. Upon arriving in Dallas, she had decided not to give this information to her attorney or the President's Commission. She wanted to turn this information over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and requested Agents to contact her at her home.

On May 1, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

She owns a Sonomatic Tape Recorder which she purchased for $39.95. She uses this machine in recording some conversations on her telephone and also in recording conversations with individuals in person. On the night of April 28, 1964, she telephonically contacted GLORIA JEAN MERCER, 1000 University Drive in Fort Worth, Texas. Miss MERCER is a sister of Mrs. ROBERT OSWALD, who lives in Denton, Texas. Miss MERCER is employed as a teacher in the public schools in Fort Worth. She talked to Miss MERCER about the family, about misunderstandings in the OSWALD family, and also about her testifying before the President's Commission. Mrs. OSWALD made a tape recording of this conversation. The next day she was playing the entire tape back and she noticed that part of the conversation was garbled and she could not understand it. The tape ran for about two minutes and she said it sounded as if someone was talking in a foreign language. She believed it was Russian or French. She could hear a man's voice in the background on one or two occasions. Mrs. OSWALD played this portion of the tape for Agents and it sounded as if two or more conversations were recorded on this particular part of the tape. The last part of the conversation with MERCER was clear. Mrs. OSWALD believes someone living in the vicinity of her home or the home of Miss MERCER was shooting a beam into her home or the home of MERCER and in that way was interfering with telephone conversation. Mrs. OSWALD believed this unknown party was listening in on the conversation and she believes she picked up some of this foreign language when the unknown person left the key open on his machine and he did not know she would pick up his conversation. She was unable to explain how part of this conversation was garbled and the other part of it was clear.

Bradenx 1394

During the past several weeks, Mrs. OSWALD received cards and letters from a Mrs. FLORA FILKO HYATT, 402 Valentina Street, Apartment 1008, Houston, Texas. Mrs. HYATT advised Mrs. OSWALD she had valuable information regarding her son and it would be worth her while to come to Houston to talk to her in person. Mrs. OSWALD drove to Houston around April 18, 1964, and visited with Mrs. HYATT for about one-half day. Mrs. HYATT is seventy years of age. Mrs. HYATT said she did not believe LEE HARVEY OSWALD had shot President KENNEDY. She said there was a large conspiracy involved in this shooting between top officials of Neiman-Marcus Store in Dallas and officials of Sakowitz Store in Houston, Texas. They were members of an organization known as "Black Ax" and this organization dates many years back into Germany. HYATT advised these officials communicate with each other and transmit information in their store ads in Dallas and Houston newspapers. Mrs. HYATT had some newspaper ads to explain this method of communication to Mrs. OSWALD. After looking at some of these ads and the wording in the ads, Mrs. OSWALD believed the story as told to her by Mrs. HYATT.

Texas,

U.S

Mrs. OSWALD exhibited one ad from the "Houston Chronicle," dated March 29, 1964. This ad concerned table settings of silver and china. The title of the ad was "Tables Are Turned" and read, in part, "Twelve of Houston's prominent hosts have created table settings for your pleasure." Mrs. OSWALD interpreted this ad to mean twelve of Houston's prominent leaders and officials of Sakowitz Store were involved in this conspiracy.

Another ad exhibited by Mrs. OSWALD appeared in the "Houston Chronicle," on March 22, 1964. This ad had a drawing of a woman with a hat on her head and a bracelet on her wrist. Mrs. OSWALD said the bracelet stood for handcuffs and this ad was connected with the conspiracy by the use of these handcuffs. Another ad was cut from the "Dallas Morning News," dated April 30, 1964, by Neiman-Marcus Store in Dallas. This ad had a picture of a woman wearing a pearl necklace. The ad covered a number of pearl necklaces. The headline on the ad read "The Connecting Link." Mrs. OSWALD definitely believed this meant there was a connecting link between Dallas and Houston and this was a vital message in the conspiracy against her son. Mrs. OSWALD advised she was going to follow the ads between these two stores and believed they had a definite bearing on the conspiracy against her son.

Mrs. OSWALD was in Dallas, Texas, during the RUBY trial and stayed at the Jefferson Hotel. She became acquainted with a white female, 38 to 40 years of age, tall, dirty-blonde hair, but does not recall her name. This woman introduced her to three French newspapermen and they had dinner one night at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Dallas. The French newspapermen were interested in a photograph of Mrs. OSWALD and she posed for a photograph for them. The woman said she was from San Antonio, Texas, and was in Dallas to go to work for the Neiman-Marcus Company. In looking through the Associated Press book, "The Torch Is Passed," she saw a woman on page 13 wearing dark glasses with a scarf around her head. She believes this photograph is identical with the woman she met at the Jefferson Hotel. She does not know her name, but believed she was involved in this conspiracy against her son, as she said she was going to work for Neiman-Marcus in Dallas. She also believed this woman was involved, as she was in this picture very close to the car occupied by President KENNEDY.

Doubts About Dallas

IT HAS always seemed to be that the conspiracy theory of history makes its strongest appeal to the weak-minded. I refuse to believe that some plumed and belted earl wrote Shakespeare's plays. I decline to accept that gypsy crone, who calls herself Anastasia, as the daughter of the Czar.

Such notions are, of course, revealed truth to people who know there are hordes of Communists in the State Department and armadas of flying saucers Out There. I sit in the skeptic's corner. That's why I am astonished to find myself somewhat troubled by the recent spate of writings, here and abroad, suggesting that Lee Harvey Oswald may not have been the assassin of President Kennedy.

These writings, let me say quickly, are not conclusive in any sense. But they do cast certain doubts on the official case against Oswald.

A dramatic piece of evidence—again, inconclusive—was the photograph reproduced in the weekend papers. Taken at the very instant the President lurched forward in his car, the photo showed a dimly familiar figure in the doorway of the Texas Schoolbook Depository. Enlarged several times, the figure bears a marked resemblance to Oswald. Was it he? If so, how could he have been, at the same moment, six flights above the street firing a rifle?

If we are to believe the FBI, the man in the doorway was another employee of the depository, a man who rejoices in the name Billy Lovelady.

From the day of the assassination, a considerable body of opinion in Europe has inclined toward the conspiracy theory. One of the most talked-about books in England is "Who killed Kennedy?" by an American expatriate, Thomas Buchanan.

Buchanan's main theses are not new. But they remind one again of how very touchy the FBI has been in its brief, almost noncommittal replies to the inevitable questions.

Because there were five bullets (Buchanan insists) and because one apparently entered Kennedy's throat from the front, he feels there must have been two assassins.

Buchanan's conclusion: Right-wing, oil-rich Dallas hired left-wing, dirt-poor Oswald to do the awful deed, then supplied a second killer in case Oswald weakened or missed the target.

A more scholarly case has been marshalled by a Canadian, a former Rhodes scholar now teaching sociology at Berkeley. Prof. Mordecai Brienberg says in The Spectator (a slim but influential British weekly), that District Attorney Wade changed his statements on half a dozen crucial points. He takes the official version of Oswald's movements after leaving the warehouse and demolishes it, step by step.

Brienberg also finds it odd that the doctors who worked so valiantly on Kennedy have now been forbidden to discuss the case, particularly since, he says, their report cannot be reconciled with police reports.

In his meticulous way, the professor finds it significant that Oswald had in his possession the private phone number of the FBI official in charge of "subversives" in Dallas. "This information is not obtainable from the Dallas phone directory," he writes. "Moreover, the agent had contacted Oswald several times before the assassination." Could Oswald, he seems to be asking, have worked as an informer for the FBI?

Whatever the merits of these writings, the question of who killed Kennedy will doubtless be argued by historians still unborn. As citizens, the aspects of the case we should find most troubling are the ineptitudes of the Dallas police, the carelessness of the Secret Service and the arrogant, above-the-fray attitude of the FBI. In a democracy there is no place for "secret police," however holy their reputation.

Your attention is directed to page one, paragraph 2 of your instant letterhead memorandum indicating Deaton is currently being held in $20,000 bond. Your teletype of 5-18-64 indicated subject was being held in $50,000 bond. Please clarify.

Your attention is also directed to page 2, paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of your letterhead memorandum. The grammar in each of these 3 paragraphs is poor and it is most difficult to comprehend what is involved in each of the 3 agreements mentioned. These 3 paragraphs should be rewritten to make this data completely clear. In addition, in setting forth identities of Lasator, Bell, Howard and Funderburgh, set forth identifying data concerning these individuals, if available. This would include place of employment and residence address.

This matter should be given the immediate attention of your office and an amended page 2 of your letterhead memorandum submitted immediately to the Bureau. Form errors should be charged to responsible personnel who initially prepared the instant letterhead memorandum.

Re Bureau airtel to San Antonio and Legat, Mexico, dated 5/20/64, which set forth a lead to contact EULALIO RODRIGUEZ.

It is to be noted that referenced airtel pointed out that this individual (RODRIGUEZ) sat next to RUIZ MEZA on Transportes Del Norte buses from Mexico City to Laredo, October 2-3, 1963. RODRIGUEZ was described as tall, heavy, age about 54 and of Mexican extraction. He was traveling to Houston. Referenced Bureau airtel furnished address of EULALIO RODRIGUEZ PERALES at McAllen, Texas.

On 5/25/64, SA HAROLD H. CROSSETT interviewed EULALIO R. PERALES, McAllen, Texas, who denies having been on the bus and whose description definitely does not fit that furnished by RUIZ MEZA.

For the information of the Houston Division, Legat letterhead memorandum dated 4/7/64 reflects that Mr. EULALIO RODRIGUEZ was listed on the Passenger-Reservations list of Transportes Del Norte 8:30 a.m. bus, 10/2/63. His destination was reflected as Houston, Texas, and his ticket number was reflected as 13742. This letterhead memorandum further notes that RUIZ MEZA described the man seated next to him on above mentioned bus as being tall, heavy and about 54 years of age.

May 21, 1964

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 18, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, telephonically advised that she would like to present new evidence in the case of her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

She stated she had received in today's mail a letter which she would like to turn over to the two Special Agents of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who interviewed her recently at her residence. She inquired as to the names of these two Agents, and she was informed of the identities of the two Agents. She then requested these two Agents to come out to her residence and pick up this evidence, as she was afraid to give this information over the telephone as her telephone is being "bugged". She further stated that she had reported this to the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, but they had done nothing about it, and there was nothing else she could do. She stated that she knew the Federal Bureau of Investigation was not "tapping" her telephone line. She was assured that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was not "tapping" her telephone line.

On May 18, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, furnished the following oral information:

Mrs. OSWALD stated that it is her belief that there is "someone in this town with a badge thwarting my moves." Mrs. OSWALD said she says this because she believes that Fort Worth Police Car Number 338 is near her all the time and, as a matter of fact, for the past two months, she has observed this particular car on the west side of Fort Worth, on the east side of Fort Worth, and points in between, and believes that the car surely must be following her.

COPIES DESTROYED

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, that it is her belief someone is listening in on her telephone. She said she has called this to the attention of officials of the telephone company and they have assured her there is no one listening on her telephone; however, Mrs. OSWALD said she intends to again call this to the attention of high officials at the telephone company and request they send a personal representative out to look at her telephone lines.

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, that it is her belief her mail is being opened before she receives it. Mrs. OSWALD said she now has a Post Office Box, which is 9578, and is located at the Arlington Heights Substation at Fort Worth. She said she receives all her mail at this Post Office now and does not have a home delivery, even though letters come to her addressed to her street address on Thomas Place.

Mrs. OSWALD exhibited a letter and envelope, which envelope was postmarked May 16, 1964, at Fort Worth, Texas, and the letter within was signed by an ALTA WHITLOCK, 309 Grace Street, Fort Worth, Texas. The letter, in substance, was that WHITLOCK told Mrs. OSWALD, "It's too bad about you having to drive a ten-year-old car and now have a new car." The letter continued by saying that she and her eighty-five-year-old mother had sent two $5.00 checks to Mrs. OSWALD during the first period of her troubles, that the checks were cashed, and Mrs. OSWALD had not even thanked them for the checks.

Mrs. OSWALD further stated the letter had been opened when she received it from her Post Office Box and the end opened had been stapled closed. She said she immediately called this to the attention of Mr. REDDING, Superintendent of Mails, at the Arlington Heights Post Office Substation, and Mr. REDDING had given her a typewritten memorandum to the effect that the letter had been cut open and stapled. Mrs. OSWALD said it is possible this letter could have been opened for some reason by WHITLOCK prior to WHITLOCK's mailing the letter and that she, Mrs. OSWALD, was attempting to telephonically contact WHITLOCK in order to ascertain this, but, to-date, had been unable to contact this person. Mrs. OSWALD said that, if WHITLOCK did not open this letter herself prior to mailing, that this is another example of her being "thwarted".

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, she believes her son is innocent of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and she is continuing her investigation into the matter. She said the President's Commission in Washington, D. C., apparently "can't do anything" because there is a "Red" working on the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD exhibited a newspaper story datelined Washington, D. C., May 11, 1964, by United Press, to the effect that Senator KARL MUNDT, South Dakota, said in the article that a "Red front man had been hired as a hundred-dollar-a-day consultant for the Warren Commission," and described this man as NORMAN REDLICH. The article continued by saying that MUNDT told the Senate he understood that "possibly a second representative" from a communist-front organization is employed by the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD stated she intends to write Senator MUNDT and obtain the name of the second individual with whom he is concerned who is working on the President's Commission in Washington, D. C. Mrs. OSWALD said this is one reason she is continuing her private investigation into the matter, as she does not feel "justice" will be done.

Mrs. OSWALD said NORMAN REDLICH is Mr. RANKIN's right-hand man on the Commission. Mrs. OSWALD said she knows this from having testified before this Commission.

Mrs. OSWALD stated she had made charges against two Secret Service Agents to the President's Commission at the time she testified and that these two men are MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL. She said she first met both of them at the Inn of the Six Flags, at which time KUNKEL appeared to be "very upset". She said this was shortly after the assassination, at which time she, her daughter-in-law, MARINA OSWALD, and MARINA's two children were taken to the Inn of the Six Flags. Mrs. OSWALD said she asked MIKE HOWARD, "What is wrong with him?", pointing to KUNKEL, and said HOWARD told her KUNKEL was upset because he had guarded JACQUELINE KENNEDY for two years.

Mrs. OSWALD said she is actually "afraid" of HOWARD and KUNKEL and does not want anything to do with either person. Mrs. OSWALD said about two weeks ago KUNKEL called her on the telephone, wanting to make an appointment concerning a letter Secret Service had, and she refused to allow him to come to her home.

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, she believes that PETER GREGORY, a person who was interpreting for the Secret Service at the Inn of the Six Flags, MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL were the ones who influenced MARINA OSWALD not to live with her or to have anything to do with her. Mrs. OSWALD said at that time ROBERT OSWALD, her son, told her that MARINA did not want to have anything to do with her and the reason MARINA would not talk to her was because of "just the way you're acting now, Mother." Mrs. OSWALD said she was acting no more than a mother would under the circumstances. Mrs. OSWALD said that ROBERT will not have anything to do with her at the present time and does not contact her. She said MARINA OSWALD does not contact her.

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, it is her opinion MIKE HOWARD and CHARLES KUNKEL influenced MARINA to sign a contract with a man named MARTIN and an attorney named THORNE, and it is her belief these two would be cheating her two grandchildren out of money.

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, that when MARINA OSWALD went to Washington, D. C., to appear before the President's Commission that she left the small child in Dallas, and Mrs. OSWALD said she believes MIKE HOWARD made MARINA do this on a threat that the child would be harmed if MARINA did not do what HOWARD told her to do. Mrs. OSWALD said she knows MARINA well enough that she does not believe MARINA would have ever left her child in Dallas and gone to Washington, D. C., alone, unless she had left the child due to a threat from MIKE HOWARD.

Mrs. OSWALD said that all the information concerning KUNKEL and HOWARD had been given by her to the President's Commission at the time she testified before them. Mrs. OSWALD said, "I fully expect to be recalled by the Commission in the future to give more evidence."

Mrs. OSWALD stated she trusts no one any longer in this matter but the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and she does not desire to give any information to anyone. Mrs. OSWALD said, "We are on the same team," because the Federal Bureau of Investigation is investigating and "so am I." Mrs. OSWALD said she was going to continue her investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY.

While an effort has been made to document as fully as possible the sources of information relating to the report, in several instances this office received information from the Bureau or a domestic field office by telephone or cable, with respect to which it was not possible to establish full and complete documentation as to sources of that information; however, in order to make the summary complete, more readable and more congruous, some items of information were utilized in the summary without the usual documentation thereof. In those instances, the information, as summarized, was attributed to the Mexico City Legal Attache's files.

All the information of substance appearing in the enclosed letterhead memorandum has been reported previously to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination.

Investigation by Bureau Agents

As the Bureau is aware, early phases of the investigation in Mexico of the travel and activities of OSWALD were handled by various agencies of the Mexican Government and also by symbol informants of this office. Since Mexican Government investigators were contacting numerous sources of data in connection with OSWALD's travel, hotel accommodations, etc., it became delicate and difficult for symbol informants to follow in their footsteps without considerable risk to their status as informants and the security of this office.

I. INTRODUCTION

The information recorded herein was furnished by a confidential source abroad, who on November 22, 1963, was advised of the assassination at Dallas, Texas, of President JOHN F. KENNEDY of the United States of America and was instructed to institute investigation for the purpose of explaining all aspects of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's connections and contacts in Mexico, possibly with any enemies of the United States of America, and to evaluate the possibility of any foreign direction in the assassination of President KENNEDY.

II. TRAVEL TO MEXICO BY LEE HARVEY OSWALD (September 26-27, 1963)

(A) OSWALD's Application for United States Passport, June 24, 1963

United States State Department records disclose that on June 24, 1963, OSWALD applied for a United States passport at New Orleans, Louisiana, stating that he intended to depart from New Orleans during the period from October to December, 1963, for proposed travel as a tourist of three months to a year's duration to England, France, Germany, Holland, Russia, Finland, Italy and Portugal. He was issued United States Passport No. DO 92526 at New Orleans on June 25, 1963.

This passport was valid for three years for travel to all countries except Albania, Cuba and those portions of China, Korea and Vietnam under communist control.

This passport was found among OSWALD's effects following his arrest at Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

(B) OSWALD's Mexican Tourist Visa

Oh November 23, 1963, T-1, a confidential source abroad, advised that the official records of the Mexican Government reflected that one LEE, HARVEY OSWALD had entered Mexico on September 26, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and had departed Mexico at the same place on October 3, 1963.

On November 24, 1963, source made available a copy of the Mexican form FM-8 (tourist card) used for the entry of this person into Mexico. The FM-8 is reproduced on the following page.

The FM-8 bears No. 24085 and was issued on September 17, 1963, by the Mexican Consulate General in New Orleans, Louisiana. As noted above, it was issued in the name of LEE, HARVEY OSWALD. It would appear that the comma was placed on the card in error inasmuch as the signature appearing on the original and duplicate portions of the FM-8 is LEE H. OSWALD. OSWALD listed his profession as "photographer," stated that he was 23 years of age and married, and presented a birth certificate as proof of his citizenship. The FM-8 was valid for a single journey to Mexico for a period of fifteen days.

According to the rubber stamp impression appearing on both the original and the duplicate copy of the FM-8, OSWALD was admitted at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, by Mexican Immigration Service employee HELIO TUEXI MAYDON. A rubber-stamp impression on the original of the FM-8 indicated that he departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, his departure having been handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA.

By way of general information, T-1 has stated that Mexican tourist cards are issued in duplicate. The duplicate copy of the card is picked up at the time of entry into Mexico of the bearer of the card. The latter retains the original of the card until departure from Mexico, at which time the original is picked up at the port of departure. Both the original and the duplicate copies of the card are date-stamped at the port of entry and, in addition, the original is date-stamped at the port of departure.

Reproduced above is the original portion of the Mexican FM-8 with which LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered Mexico on September 26, 1963, and departed therefrom on October 3, 1963. Although he is known to have traveled by bus from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City, his mode of travel is not recorded on the FM-8, which was retrieved and cancelled by ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA at the time of his departure. No space is provided on the card for recording means of travel upon departure, and no such information appears on the above card. The back of the FM-8 contains no information other than printed instructions and warnings to the traveler in Spanish, English and French.

On November 27, 1963, Father ANTONIO MORENO, Sacred Heart Catholic Church, 215 North 16th Street, Edinburg, Texas, advised in Edinburg, Texas, that Father RICHARD LAWRENCE PHILION, who formerly resided at this address, obtained a Mexican tourist card on about September 17, 1963, with which to enter Mexico. He added that Father RICHARD LAWRENCE PHILION is now assigned to the Santa Maria Magdalena Church in Tequixistlan, Oaxaca, Mexico, and that his mailing address is Apartado Postal No. 93, Salina Cruz, Oaxaca, Mexico.

T-2, a confidential source abroad, advised that Father PHILION stated at Salina Cruz, Oaxaca, Mexico, on December 13, 1963, that he had obtained his Mexican tourist card, form FM-5 No. 4373765, at the Mexican Consulate in New Orleans, Louisiana, on September 17, 1963.

Father PHILION examined various photographs of OSWALD, and he could not recall any person of OSWALD's description being present at the Mexican Consulate in New Orleans when he obtained his Mexican tourist card.

Father PHILION advised that it was his best recollection that he was in the Mexican Consulate in New Orleans at about 1:30 p.m. on September 17, 1963, and that he arrived shortly before the Mexican Consulate was scheduled to close. He recalled that his tourist card was the last one issued on the day of September 17, 1963, and that one man and a woman were present at the Mexican Consulate when he was securing his tourist card. He did not recall any individual resembling OSWALD while he was at the Mexican Consulate in New Orleans.

(C) Results of FBI Laboratory Examination of OSWALD's Tourist Card

Mexican tourist card, FM-8 No. 24085, issued on September 17, 1963, by the Mexican Consulate General in New Orleans, Louisiana, was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory, Washington, D. C., for examination, and on December 6, 1963, the FBI Laboratory concluded the following, after examination of the tourist card issued to OSWALD:

"It was concluded that handwritten OSWALD signatures on the two portions of the tourist card, FM-8 No. 24085, issued to OSWALD by the Mexican Consulate General at New Orleans, Louisiana, on September 17, 1963, were written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

"No latent fingerprint impressions of value were developed on OSWALD's Mexican tourist card."

(D) Closing of United States-Mexican Border

Immediately upon receipt of information of the assassination of President KENNEDY, the Mexican Government closed all border traffic between the United States and Mexico for the specific purpose of forestalling the escape of the assassin.

The Mexican border was reopened following the apprehension of OSWALD.

(E) Mexican Newspaper, "Excelsior," November 25, 1963, Issue re: OSWALD's Trip to Mexico

On November 25, 1963, Mexican newspaper "Excelsior" published at Mexico, D. F., Mexico (Federal District of Mexico which encompasses Mexico City), contained on page 1-A an article in the Spanish language, a translation of which is as follows:

"THE APPARENT ASSASSIN OF KENNEDY SOLICITED VISAS HERE (MEXICO, D. F., MEXICO) IN ORDER TO GO TO MOSCOW VIA HAVANA.

"LEE HARVEY OSWALD, alleged murderer of President KENNEDY and who was assassinated by JACK RUBINSTEIN, entered Mexico on September 26, last, with a tourist card which our Consul in New Orleans issued him on the seventeenth of the same month, with his birth certificate, which he presented, accrediting him as an American citizen.

"Excelsior has confirmed that on September 26, 1963, he crossed the border at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and the following day arrived at this capital by vehicle highway.

"According to inquiries made, on the same September 27, OSWALD went to the Consul General of Cuba in Mexico in order to obtain a transit visa because he was thinking of traveling to Moscow via Havana.

"The Consul, EUSEBIO AZCUE, indicated to him that in order to issue him the visa which he was soliciting, he had to consult directly with his own government. The operation, therefore, would require from ten to twelve days.

"LEE HARVEY OSWALD, because of his irritable temperament, had an argument with Consul AZCUE and departed from his office giving a hard slam to the door as he left.

"The following day, or on the 28th of September, OSWALD interviewed the Consul General of the Soviet Union, accredited in Mexico, in order to solicit his corresponding visa for entry into the USSR.

"He supported his petition with the fact that his wife was a Soviet citizen; that he was a militant communist; and that he had lived for three years in Russia.

"OSWALD told the Consul of the Soviet Union in Mexico that they could easily verify his words by communicating telephonically with his wife, who could be found lodging in a hotel in New Orleans.

"Following the normal procedure carried out in these cases, the Soviet Consul indicated to him that he would first have to consult with his own government and that the lapse of time for obtaining an answer was from three to four months.

"The apparent murderer of President KENNEDY again became angry and repeated the scene which he had made the day before at the Cuban Embassy, arguing with the Soviet Consul, and departing highly disgusted from his office.

"OSWALD returned to Texas on the third day of October through the border at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas.

"The inquiries which have been made to the present in Mexico apparently indicate that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had no interviews with highly placed officials at the Soviet Embassy or at the Cuban Embassy accredited to our government."

(F) Checks Made on Compania de Aviacion Passenger Manifests for September 26-27, 1963

T-3, a confidential source abroad, advised that on November 25, 1963, FERNANDO FARIAS, Assistant Sales Manager for Compania Mexicana de Aviacion (CMA), Balderas 36, Mexico, D. F., stated that he had caused a careful check to be made of all CMA passenger manifests for CMA flights between Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, and Mexico, D. F., and for all CMA flights between Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and Mexico, D. F., for September 26 and 27, 1963.

FERNANDO FARIAS stated that there were no passengers listed on these manifests using the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD or any name variation thereof.

(G) Check at OSWALD's Port of Entry into Mexico

On November 25, 1963, HELIO TUEXI MAYDON, Mexican Immigration Service employee, advised at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, that OSWALD entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, using a fifteen-day tourist card issued September 17, 1963, by the Mexican Consulate General at New Orleans, Louisiana.

TUEXI MAYDON had no independent recollection of OSWALD but considered that OSWALD may have been in the company of a young American couple.

An exhaustive search was made of Mexican Immigration records at Nuevo Laredo, which disclosed that there was only one young American couple whose entry into Mexico may have coincided with that of OSWALD. This couple was named BILL and ELAINE ALLEN of Miami, Florida.

On November 27, 1963, TUEXI MAYDON advised that no information had been developed regarding the exact time or specific mode of travel of OSWALD at the time he entered Mexico. He stated that OSWALD's entry into Mexico on September 26, 1963, took place between 6:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. as he had handled OSWALD's entry and he worked this shift at the border port of entry at Nuevo Laredo. He added that OSWALD's departure from Mexico was at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on October 3, 1963, between 12:01 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. and that this shift was supervised by ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA, Mexican Immigration Service employee.

On November 27, 1963, MARIO DEL VALLE PLATA, Mexican Immigration Service employee, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised that no Mexican Immigration Service employee who was on duty at Nuevo Laredo when OSWALD entered or departed from Mexico had any independent recollection of OSWALD by photograph or otherwise with regard to his entry or departure from Mexico.

(H) Check of Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Baggage List for Passengers for September 26, 1963, Trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F.

The baggage list for passengers for September 26, 1963, of the Mexican bus line Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) for the bus which left Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, at 2:00 p.m. on this same date, reflects that there was a total of 18 pieces of baggage. The baggage list reflects the following:

1. PABLO VASQUEZ
2. Second piece of luggage attributed to PABLO VASQUEZ
3. S. MOROU
4. ALFREDO BRISENO
5. ROIG SORQUIS
6. T. GONZALEZ
7. ANDRES MORALES
8. Second piece of luggage attributed to ANDRES MORALES
9. Gpe. MARTINEZ (possibly GUADALUPE or Capt. MARTINEZ)
10. (FNU) ROWEN
11. HARRY J. MITCHELL
12. Second piece of luggage attributed to HARRY J. MITCHELL
13. Third piece of luggage attributed to HARRY J. MITCHELL
14. LEE H. OSWALD
15. (FNU) BOWEN (believed identical with JOHN H. BOWEN)
16. Second piece of luggage attributed to BOWEN
17. JOHN McFARLAND
18. Second piece of luggage attributed to JOHN McFARLAND

The driver of this bus was listed as ROBERTO MORALES.

The baggage list has the number "18" at the bottom, which, according to the Mexico City terminal manager of Flecha Roja, signifies that 18 pieces of luggage had been checked and ticketed on that bus.

T-4, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 16, 1963, that he had talked to ROBERTO MORALES, driver of the Flecha Roja bus No. 516 on September 26, 1963, and MORALES stated he could not recall the passengers on the trip of September 26, 1963, because so much time had elapsed; and since he makes two round trips between Nuevo Laredo and Mexico, D. F., each week, he could not recall any information regarding OSWALD or any other passengers who were on the bus.

JOHN H. BOWEN was identified from Mexican Immigration records as 30 years of age, born Houston, Texas, a United States citizen, residence Houston, Texas. Mexican tourist card was issued to him at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, upon presentation of his birth certificate.

HARRY J. MITCHELL was identified as 41 years of age, a United States citizen, a lawyer, residence Palmyra, Missouri. Mexican tourist card was issued to him at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963.

ANNIE MARIE MITCHELL was identified as apparently being the wife of HARRY J. MITCHELL, above, 22 years of age, a United States citizen, residence same as husband, above.

Dr. JOHN BRYAN McFARLAND and his wife, Mrs. ANNA MERYLE REID McFARLAND, 10 Fulwood Park, Liverpool, England, were interviewed in England and advised they were on the Flecha Roja bus from Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, to Mexico, D. F., September 26-27, 1963. They stated that they observed the following during this trip:

> OSWALD was on this bus trip traveling alone and he sat next to an 80-year-old man, described as a United States citizen, who appeared to be 60 years of age and who resides in Cuernavaca, State of Morelos, Mexico, and in the State of Tennessee in the United States. This individual was identified further as a school teacher who taught in India and Arabia and currently was writing a book on the Lisbon, Portugal, earthquake of 1775.

During this trip, OSWALD spoke to two Australian girls in their mid-twenties who boarded this bus in Monterrey, State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and these two girls got off at Mexico, D. F., Mexico.

With regard to the first individual described by the McFARLANDs, JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, listed above with tourist card FM-5 No. 4329926, was considered possibly to be the elderly United States citizen who sat next to OSWALD, and he could be contacted in care of Calle Carranza No. 4-A, San Martin de Texmelucan, State of Puebla, Mexico. Extensive investigation to locate JOHN HOWARD BOWEN was made, and the results are set forth hereinafter.

With regard to the two Australian girls in their mid-twenties, these girls were considered identical with PATRICIA CLARE ROSHLEIGH WINSTON, 22 years of age, Australian citizen, native of Fiji Islands, bearer of Mexican tourist card FM-5 No. 4225835, issued August 24, 1963, by the Mexican Consulate in New York, New York, home address listed as 222 West 23rd Street, New York, New York, and PAMELA LILLIAN MUMFORD, 21 years of age, English citizen, born Fiji Islands, bearer of Mexican tourist card FM-5 No. 4225836, issued the same date and place as that of WINSTON. According to Mexican Immigration records, WINSTON and MUMFORD entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 25, 1963, one day before OSWALD entered Mexico.

PATRICIA WINSTON and PAMELA MUMFORD advised the following on December 17, 1963, when interviewed in the United States:

WINSTON and MUMFORD boarded a bus at Monterrey, State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, at 7:30 p.m., en route to Mexico, D. F. Both identified OSWALD as a passenger on this bus and both observed him sitting next to an Englishman who had lived in Mexico for thirty years. This latter individual was described as being in his late sixties, heavy build, gray hair - balding, with a distinctive English accent, and both believed him to be retired from business.

WINSTON and MUMFORD recalled that OSWALD introduced himself and exhibited to them his United States passport. OSWALD advised WINSTON and MUMFORD that he had lived in Russia for two years and that he had had a hard time getting out of Russia. OSWALD stated that he had been in Japan.

OSWALD made no comment concerning communism or Cuba. He did not state why he was traveling to Mexico, where he was going, and he did not advise concerning his occupation or future plans.

OSWALD stated that he was from Fort Worth or Dallas, Texas. He was observed to be traveling alone. He had only one piece of luggage and a small zipper bag. He wore a gold wedding ring.

OSWALD recommended that WINSTON and MUNFORD stay at the Hotel Cuba, Mexico, D. F., where he claimed that he had stayed several times before. He pointed out that this hotel was inexpensive but that he was not staying at the Hotel Cuba on this trip.

WINSTON and MUMFORD recalled an English couple aboard the bus. This couple is considered identical with Dr. JOHN BRYAN McFARLAND and his wife, Mrs. ANNA MERYLE REID McFARLAND, mentioned above.

JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, who has been known as Reverend ALBERT OSBORNE and has resided at Calle Emilio Carranza No. 4-A, San Martin de Texmelucan, State of Puebla, Mexico, and 4114 Drummond Street, Montreal, Canada, was determined to be the holder of Canadian Passport No. 5-605377. T-2 advised on January 7, 1964, that BOWEN, while posing as Reverend ALBERT OSBORNE, stated in Mexico that he was acquainted with Reverend JOHN HOWARD BOWEN and furnished misleading information concerning the alleged whereabouts of BOWEN.

On January 28, 1964, T-5, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised the records at the Mexican Ministry of Gobernacion (Ministry of the Interior) reflect that ALBERT OSBORNE was ordered deported from Mexico on April 5, 1958, through Laredo, Texas. OSBORNE had been charged with selling an automobile in the Oaxaca, Mexico, area without paying the import duties. These records reflect also that, in 1958, OSBORNE was known as JOHN HOWARD BOWEN and was located in Mexico and determined to be without proper Mexican immigration papers.

On January 30, 1964, T-6, a confidential source abroad, advised that inasmuch as ALBERT OSBORNE had been illegally in Mexico, he would be detained for deportation if located in Mexico.

BOWEN was interviewed at Florence, Alabama, on February 8, 1964, and advised that he recalled making a bus trip from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963, and sitting next to a young man whom he described as 29 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, 150 pounds in weight, with thin, blond hair and a dark complexion, who appeared to be of Mexican or Puerto Rican descent. This individual went to sleep soon after boarding the bus, and, after a lunch stop at Sabinas Hidalgo, Mexico, this person moved to the back of the bus where he reclined on a seat and went to sleep. BOWEN claimed that he did not talk to the above person and was unable to identify press photographs of OSWALD.

BOWEN stated that he is acquainted with an ALBERT OSBORNE, described as a Baptist preacher or missionary from Canada, and while in Oaxaca, Mexico, in 1958, BOWEN misplaced his identification papers and during a census taken at Oaxaca he borrowed OSBORNE's identification papers. BOWEN claimed that he had never before or afterward used the name of OSBORNE.

Interviewed further at Nashville, Tennessee, on March 3, 1964, OSBORNE admitted that he had used dual identities as OSBORNE and JOHN H. BOWEN for many years in Mexico and the United States. He continued to deny any knowledge of OSWALD, however.

(I) List Obtained of Entry of All Non-Mexican Citizens on September 26, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico

T-1, who is thoroughly familiar with the workings of the Mexican Ministry of Gobernacion (Interior), furnished the following information concerning the procedures utilized by the Mexican Immigration Service in connection with the entry and departure of non-Mexican citizens into and out of Mexico. It is to be noted that the Mexican Immigration Service is a part of the Mexican Ministry of Gobernacion.

Tourists usually enter Mexico on a Mexican tourist card. There are two types of such cards, one being called the FM-8, which is valid for a stay in the country of only 15 days, and one designated as FM-5, which has validity for a 180 days' stay in Mexico. Both types are issued at Mexican Consulates throughout the world and can also be obtained from the Mexican Immigration Service at border ports of entry. FM-8 tourist cards also are available at airlines ticket offices and tourist agencies.

At the time of entry into Mexico, the traveler surrenders the duplicate portion of the tourist card, and both the duplicate and the original, which remains in the possession of the traveler, are stamped with a rubber stamp which shows the name of the Mexican representative handling the entry, the date of the entry and the locality of the port of entry. When the traveler leaves Mexico, he surrenders the original portion of the tourist card and it is stamped with a rubber stamp which carries the name of the Mexican representative, the date of the departure and the locality of the port of departure.

Each Mexican port of entry is required on a continuing basis to prepare a form called form FM-11. The FM-11 for both entries and departures is prepared each "quincena" (fifteen-day period). Entries and departures are set up on the FM-11 in chronological order and thereafter, within each date, the names of the tourists are listed in alphabetical order. Basic information appearing on the FM-11 is taken from the tourist card presented by the traveler. At the time the FM-11 is prepared, a number is placed on the tourist card, these numbers being in sequence according to the alphabetical order of the names within each date and thereafter by date. By way of example, the first traveler in alphabetical order entering at a port of entry on the first day of the month or a "quincena" is assigned number 1. Thereafter, all travelers entering that port on that date are assigned numbers in sequence, according to alphabetical order. This sequence continues on the second day of the month and throughout the remaining 15 days of the "quincena."

T-1 made available for examination the forms FM-5 and FM-8 for all non-Mexican citizens entering Mexico at Nuevo Laredo as tourists on September 26, 1963, as well as the copies of forms FM-11 containing the recapitulation of the entries to Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on this date.

From the tourist cards (FM-5 and FM-8) and the copies of the forms FM-11, the following summary of information concerning each person who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, has been obtained. The summaries have been divided into those persons traveling on form FM-5 and those traveling on form FM-8, since the forms FM-11 are so set up. The number appearing before each name is the number which appears on form FM-11. The following is a brief resume regarding each person who entered Mexico on September 26, 1963. Information was available regarding the mode of transportation on entry, a brief description of the person, the residence listed, proof of citizenship was shown and the Mexican Immigration Service employee who handled the entry, and this information was set out in detail in memorandum dated March 16, 1964.

(J) Persons Interviewed in Mexico Who Entered Mexico September 26, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo

T-7, a confidential source abroad, advised that SOLOMON BANDECK, residence 18652 Kelly Road, Detroit, Michigan, stated at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, on December 11, 1963, that he is a retired jeweler and he traveled from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, in his personally-owned automobile. He again entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and returned to Monterrey.

He had no contact with OSWALD and he could not furnish any information concerning him.

T-8, a confidential source abroad, advised that ANDREW WEBSTER CHRISTOPHER, residence Lerdo de Tejada 320-A, Guadalajara, State of Jalisco, Mexico, stated on December 16, 1963, that he entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, on September 26, 1963, in his personally-owned automobile.

He was unable to identify photographs of OSWALD and stated he had not observed OSWALD in Nuevo Laredo at the time he entered Mexico.

T-9, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 13, 1963, that CARLOS ALMAGUER ECHARTEA, residence Calle Lic. Jose

Maria Bocanegra No. 1105, Colonia Industrial, Monterrey, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, had stated that he and his wife entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, in their personally-owned automobile and that they had not seen or heard anything about OSWALD until November 22, 1963.

T-4 advised on December 18, 1963, that GUILLERMO HEVIA VILLAR, residence 217 West Johnson Street, San Antonio, Texas, and Mrs. MARIA OTERO PABLOS, residence 1101 Pecan Street, McAllen, Texas, who had entered Mexico by automobile on September 26, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, had no pertinent information concerning OSWALD and they had not observed him.

T-8 advised that HARVEY TUTTLE, residence Calle 6 No. 208, Atemajac, State of Jalisco, Mexico, stated on January 4, 1964, that he entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo by bus on or about September 26, 1963, which exact date he could not recall because he did not have in his immediate possession his tourist card.

He could not recall anyone resembling OSWALD at Nuevo Laredo or on the bus on which he traveled.

T-10, a confidential source abroad, advised that CHESTER STANLEY STEMP, residence 7223 Jarnecke Avenue, Hammond, Indiana; employed as a mathematics teacher, American High School, San Salvador, El Salvador, stated in San Salvador, El Salvador, on January 14, 1964, that he entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, on September 26, 1963, on the first bus which crossed the border on this date at about 6:00 a.m. He traveled to Laredo, Texas, by Greyhound bus from San Antonio, Texas, and boarded a Transportes del Norte bus in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. He traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, by bus, arriving at the latter place at about noon on September 26, 1963. He took a train from Monterrey to San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, and Mexico, D. F., arriving at noon on September 28, 1963.

He could not identify a photograph of OSWALD and stated that he had not seen him.

(K) Interview of ROBERTO MORALES, Driver of Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus No. 516 from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City on trip for September 26 and 27, 1963.

T-11, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

On March 14, 1964, ROBERTO MORALES, driver of Flecha Roja bus No. 516 on September 26-27, 1963, from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., Mexico, furnished the following information:

He could not recall specifically the trip which he made on September 26-27, 1963, from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City, because he has made numerous trips and seen a large number of passengers since that time. He was shown the baggage list recording the names of some of the passengers on that trip and stated he is not acquainted with any of the names and does not know any of the persons listed. He was unable to identify photographs of OSWALD and of JOHN HOWARD BOWEN, true name ALBERT OSBORNE. MORALES stated that his co-driver from Monterrey to Mexico City usually is ALFREDO GARCIA CERVANTES, who resides in Mexico City, address unknown to him.

On May 14, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, manager of the Mexico City terminal of "Servicios Unidos Autobuses Blancos Flecha Roja, S. A. de C. V." (The Unified Services of White Autobuses Red Arrow, Incorporated), Calle Heroes Ferrocarrileros 45, provided the following information with respect to the Flecha Roja baggage manifest mentioned above:

The baggage list reflects it was prepared for bus No. 516, which departed from Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, at 2:00 p.m., September 26, 1963, driven by ROBERTO MORALES. The number "18" encircled at the bottom of the list indicates that 18 pieces of baggage were checked and baggage claim checks issued for storage and handling in the baggage compartment of the bus and revision by Mexican Customs.

SAUCEDO affirmed that the number of passengers departing on the bus from Nuevo Laredo is not specified on the baggage list and that only the persons who check and become responsible for one or more articles of baggage are listed thereon. He pointed out that unaccompanied baggage also may be sent in this manner and the presence of a name on the baggage list does not insure that the person actually traveled on the bus.

T-12, a confidential source abroad, advised on April 21, 1964, that ERNESTO HERNANDEZ, co-driver of Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) bus No. 516 on September 26 to 27, 1963, from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., Mexico, furnished the following:

He resides at Aldama No. 4, Tizayuca, Hidalgo, Mexico, and for the past nine years he has been employed as a bus driver for the Flecha Roja bus company.

He has no independent recollection of having been the co-driver of bus No. 516 on September 26 to 27, 1963, but when his recollection was refreshed, he stated that for the first and only time he had been the co-driver for ROBERTO MORALES on bus No. 516 on the trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., on September 26 to 27, 1963. He normally does not work as a co-driver with MORALES but did recall having substituted for MORALES' regular partner, ALFREDO GARCIA CERVANTES.

He was unable to identify the photographs of OSWALD and JOHN HOWARD BOWEN. He could not associate OSWALD with anyone he might have seen in the past. He had seen photographs of OSWALD in the newspapers following the assassination of President KENNEDY but he did not associate OSWALD with anyone he has seen.

He was shown the baggage list for passengers for the above trip and he did not know any of the names on this list. He advised that it was difficult for him to distinguish one trip from another or to recall individual passengers in the absence of a particular incident which might occur on a trip. He could not recall the above-mentioned trip made by bus No. 516, the portions of the trip during which MORALES had operated the bus or between what points he, HERNANDEZ, had driven the bus.

He could not furnish any data to assist in identifying OSWALD as being a passenger aboard Flecha Roja bus No. 516 on September 26 to 27, 1963.

III. OSWALD IN MEXICO CITY

(A) "New York Times" Newspaper Account

The Western Edition of the "New York Times," dated December 3, 1963, carried an article by Correspondent PETER KIHSS, which is reproduced hereinunder and reports information purportedly gleaned by the correspondent in Mexico City:

"OSWALD FOLLOWED LONELY PATH DURING RECENT VISIT TO MEXICO

"Inquiry Finds $30 Could Have Covered All Expenses of Month-Long Trip

-- His Travels Are Detailed

"By PETER KIHSS

"Special to The New York Times

"MEXICO CITY, Dec. 2--More lonely steps along the trail of LEE H. OSWALD in the last autumn of his life came to light today.

"Evidence turned up concerning the trip that OSWALD made here in late September and early October presented a picture consistent with that pertaining to other periods in the life of the accused assassin of President KENNEDY.

"The Mexican Ministry of the Interior disclosed that the results of its intensive police investigation had indicated that OSWALD was alone here. The ministry's findings have been transmitted to United States authorities.

"Indeed few mysteries remained as to OSWALD's trip here, following painstaking inquiry. The investigation disclosed that the often impecunious OSWALD could have financed his entire trip to Mexico Sept. 26 to Oct. 23 with less than $30-- thus apparently disposing of the question of where he could have obtained substantial funds for the trip.

"Newsmen identified the bus line on which OSWALD traveled from Nuevo Laredo, across the (border) to this capital and back. It was Transportes Frontera.

"At its office on Buenavista Street, a clerk, LUCIO LOPEZ, said the Mexican police had been given the lists of passengers on that run that the line keeps.

"Investigators were understood also to have checked a number of the guests who were at the Hotel Comercio, the hotel where OSWALD stayed. He was the only American among a clientele composed mostly of Mexicans and a few Cubans, the latter apparently exiles.

"The Cuban Foreign Ministry has confirmed that OSWALD, while in Mexico City, sought a Cuban visa on Sept. 27 as a transit traveler to the Soviet Union. The ministry said that when OSWALD was told the consulate could not issue such a visa without Havana authorization, he left 'visibly displeased.' The ministry also said such a visa would not be granted unless a visa had been previously issued by the country of destination.

"Met Delay on Soviet Visa

"The Mexican Interior Ministry said OSWALD's effort later to get a Soviet visa had also been met with a consular statement that there would have to be a delay. A Mexican official said OSWALD told the Cubans and the Russians he was a Communist who had lived two years in the Soviet Union and had married a Russian woman.

"The police investigation was reported to have found no indication that OSWALD had visited anyone else of political interest.

"Cuban exiles opposed to the regime of Premier FIDEL CASTRO have been trying to check on OSWALD's activities here. So far they have not turned up anything of consequence. This is a sprawling city of nearly five million inhabitants but even in this multitude OSWALD's tracks have been uncovered.

"OSWALD took a 2:30 P.M. bus Thursday, Sept. 26, from Nueva Laredo for the 750-mile trip scheduled to end here Friday, Sept. 27, at 8:30 P.M. The one-way fare on the Frontera line is $5.71 at the exchange rate of 12½ Mexican pesos a dollar.

"There are at least two-score of what Mexicans call humble hotels within a radius of five blocks of the bus terminal. OSWALD appears to have been fortunate to have found the well-kept Comercio on block-long Bernardo de Sahaguan Street, named for a Spanish colonial missionary who befriended Indians.

"For 16 pesos a day--$1.28--he got room No. 18, with private bath, in the four-story glazed red brick hotel.

"SEBASTIAN PEREZ HERNANDEZ, desk clerk, said OSWALD had arrived alone and had left early in the morning and come back late at night. He had no visitors.

"The hotel proprietor, GUILLERMO GARCIA, was shocked when investigators found OSWALD's signature on the registry. Mr. GARCIA admired President KENNEDY as a friend of Mexico and a Roman Catholic. He had never connected the name of his guest with the assassination.

"OSWALD had one leather suitcase, about two feet long. He wore short-sleeved shirts. He talked only briefly with the night watchman and the chambermaid, in Spanish.

"Next to the hotel is the lunchroom La Esperanza. Mrs. DOLORES RAMIREZ DE BARRERO, a widow who has run the neat eating place for six months, remembered having seen OSWALD three or four days. She said he had eaten there only once.

"A Chop for 21 Cents

"He had a lunch of steak and rice, which came to about 26 cents. The costliest item on the bill of fare is a chop, cooked to taste, for about 21 cents.

"Mrs. BARRERO said OSWALD's Spanish had been hard to understand and he had eaten alone, in silence.

"Newsmen calculated that OSWALD could have stayed within $8 for meals in Mexico for eight days. He paid $11.42 for bus fare, $6.40 for five days' rent and 50 cents for a special 15-day tourist card he got in New Orleans Sept. 17. These figures add up to $26.32.

"On the same block with the hotel are a number of modest apartment houses. Across the way is a parking lot. At the end of the street is a typical little park, with stone benches. The neighborhood is the Guerrero District, largely commercial.

"OSWALD left Mexico City on Wednesday, Oct. 2, on a Frontera bus that was scheduled to depart at 1 P.M. and arrive at Nueva Laredo at 6:30 A.M. Thursday, Oct. 3.

"A Mexican Interior Ministry official suggested that OSWALD might have spent most of his time here, which included a weekend, as a tourist, perhaps also taking in some movies.

"It is believed OSWALD left New Orleans on Sept. 24, after having sent his wife to Dallas the previous day with a friend. He vanished from his cheap apartment there on that day without having paid his rent.

"He is believed to have hitchhiked to Laredo on the American side of the border, where he arrived Sept. 26. It was his custom to travel by hitchhiking wherever possible.

"It was presumed that he probably hitchhiked north to Dallas from Laredo on his return from Mexico City. He arrived in Dallas the evening of Oct. 3 and checked into the Dallas YMCA. The distance from Laredo to Dallas is 475 miles."

(B) OSWALD's Visits to Cuban and Soviet Diplomatic Establishments - Investigation by Mexican Authorities

On March 24, 1964, Captain [redacted] made available a copy of a signed statement which had been made by SILVIA DURAN to the Federal Security Police on November 23, 1963. A translation from Spanish of that statement is recorded hereinunder:

"At the City of Mexico, Federal District, at 6:00 p.m. of November 23, 1963, the undersigned, Captain FERNANDO GUTIERREZ BARRIOS, Assistant Director of the Federal Security (Police), proceeding legally with witnesses present, makes record: that with the presentation in this office of Mrs. SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN for the purpose of being interrogated concerning the matters which are herein set forth, this document was prepared:

"Promptly upon the presentation of the person who under normal conditions is called SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, having been warned to tell the truth and advised of the penalties which are incurred by those who furnish false testimony, described herself as follows: that her name is as recorded, 25 years of age, married, without religious preference, an employee, literate, a native and resident of this city, with domicile at Constituyentes #143, Apartment #3, with respect to the matters under investigation declares: that she has been legally married to Mr. HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO since November 5, 1958, and is the mother of a child named PATRICIA, who, at the present time, is three and one-half years of age; that in the month of July or August of 1961 the deponent was invited to join the Mexican-Cuban Institute of Cultural Relations, which, at that time, was directed by Attorney AGUSTIN CUE CANOVAS, as a Coordinator, and, although she does not recall specifically who it was that recommended her, she can clarify that for some time previously she was friendly and visited with frequency the employees of the Cuban Embassy, being a personal friend of Ambassador PORTUONDO, as well as the Cultural Attaches, TERESA PROENZA and LUIS ALVERU, as well as with the female employees, but principally with the secretary of Consul EUSEBIO ASCUE, Miss MARICARMEN OLAVARRI, of Spanish nationality but a relative of ASCUE; that at the Institute the activities were exclusively of a cultural nature and were attended on occasions by the afore-mentioned Cultural Attaches and some Cubans, but in a greater number by Mexicans, always artists and intellectuals, without any political discussions, although she recalls that at the time of the October Cuban crisis in connection with the threatened invasion of Cuba and the subsequent blockade of the island by the North American Government, they listened by shortwave radio to the news from the 'Prensa Latina' (Latin Press), on the basis of which they made up a bulletin which was read of the news that they had listened to directly from Havana, agreeing also to the effect that Cubans and Mexicans attending said meetings discussed the political problem of Cuba on a private basis without doing so in any official character; that the declarant was receiving a salary of 500 pesos ($40 U.S.) monthly in her capacity as Coordinator at the Institute, with her work schedule being from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. daily, and the money for the maintenance of the Institute itself coming from a monthly subsidy from the Cuban Embassy, the amount of which she is not aware, but also with each one of the members paying a quota, and also contributions were received from persons whose names she does not recall because usually they were made anonymously, being unable to fix the monthly receipts, although she was the person who personally received all of the funds received at the Institute; that in addition to the speaker, only Mr. FELIPE ROJAS, who worked as a secretary at the Institute during the mornings, received any monthly salary in the same amount of 500 pesos ($40 U.S.), with the remainder of the money which was received being used for the payment of rent and other expenses connected with its operation. That in the month of December of 1961, the declarant and her husband made a trip by air to Havana, Cuba, paying for their own transportation, but all of their expenses of their visit to that city and the greater number of the cities of the island being paid by the Cuban Institute of Friendship with the People and the House of Culture, so-called, 'of the Americas,' the trip having lasted fifteen days without their having any contact or connection during this trip with officials of the Cuban Government. That as the speaker has already stated, she has been a sympathizer of socialism and Marxist doctrine for several years, having studied philosophy and existentialism, and particularly she has sympathized since its inception and sympathizes with the Cuban Revolution. That approximately three months ago she began to occupy the position of Secretary to the Cuban Consul in this city, Mr. EUSEBIO ASCUE, who ceased to function in that capacity some five days ago on Monday, the 18th of this month, having been substituted by Mr. ALFREDO MIRAVAL Y DIAZ, clarifying at this time that from the beginning she began to work in that capacity as a temporary measure as a result of the death in a traffic accident of her friend, MARICARMEN OLAVARRI, who had been occupying that position, until some person should arrive from Cuba who would assume the same, having had under her responsibility the administrative operation and preparing the visas which are issued, as well as handling the applications for such visas which invariably are sent to the Ministry of Foreign Relations, Government of Cuba, for its approval, having obtained this position directly from former Consul ASCUE, with whom she is very friendly, and for whom the speaker even organized a farewell party in her home, which was attended by almost all of the officials and employees of the Embassy and the Consulate, except the Ambassador. That the speaker does not belong to any political party and never has attended manifestations or meetings, nor has she given lectures or speeches, which her husband has done, since he has written several articles for the newspaper 'El Dia' (The Day) (pro-Communist Spanish language newspaper published in Mexico City); that she has never been arrested for any reason, nor even on the occasion of the visit to Mexico of Mr. JOHN F. KENNEDY, which caused her a great deal of personal satisfaction because of the benefits which it would represent to the country. That yesterday while she was working at the Cuban Consulate, where she is employed from 10:00 to 2:00 and from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. daily and where she receives a salary of 1,500 pesos ($120 U.S.) monthly, just before their time of departure at noon, a friend commented to her that she had been listening to the radio and heard a news item to the effect that President KENNEDY had suffered an attack in which they had fired three shots at him, as a result of which she called her husband on the telephone and they discussed this news, and he advised her that he already knew about it and referred to said attack as 'monstrous,' and they agreed that upon meeting at their home they would discuss the matter, which they did during their dinner hour, but in a very brief manner since they did not know all the circumstances of the attack and the name and description of the presumed author of the same, its having been only that night that they read in the extra (edition) the news relating thereto, and subsequently on the radio at her residence she heard the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which caused her to remember that this name refers to a North American who in the last days of September or the first days of the month of October of the present year appeared at the Cuban Consulate and applied for a visa to Cuba in transit to Russia and based his application on his presentation of his passport in which it was recorded that he had been living in the latter country for a period of three years, his work permit from that same country written in the Russian language and letters in the same language, as well as proof of his being married to a woman of Russian nationality and being the apparent Director in the city of New Orleans of the organization called 'Fair Play for Cuba' with the desire that he should be accepted as a 'friend' of the Cuban Revolution, as a result of which the speaker, in compliance with her duties, received all of his data and filled out the appropriate application, and he left to return in the afternoon, this time with his photographs, and the speaker, recognizing that she exceeded her duties, semi-officially called the Russian Consulate by telephone because of her interest in facilitating the handling of the Russian visa for LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but from there they answered her that the operation would require approximately four months, which annoyed the applicant, since as he affirmed he was in a great hurry to obtain the visas which would permit him to travel to Russia, insisting that he was entitled to them because of his background and his partisanship and personal activities in favor of the Cuban movement, the declarant's not being able to specify because she does not remember whether or not he said that he was a member of the Communist Party, but that his wife, of Russian nationality, was at that time in the city of New York from where she would follow him, although his place of origin was the afore-mentioned city of New Orleans; that as soon as OSWALD understood that it was not possible to give him a Cuban visa without his previously obtaining a Russian one, because the former was for transit, he became highly agitated and angry, as a result of which the speaker called Consul ASCUE, who, at that time, was in his private office in company of his ultimate replacement, MIRAVAL, but came out and began to argue in English with OSWALD in a very angry manner and ASCUE concluded by saying to him that, 'As far as he was concerned, he would not give him a visa,' and that 'A person like him, in place of aiding the Cuban Revolution, was doing it harm,' its being noted that in their discussion they had been referring to the Russian socialist revolution and not the Cuban, its being stated by OSWALD that he had two reasons to request the visa with urgency, which were, one, that his permit to be in Mexico was expiring and the other that he had urgent necessity of reaching Russia; that in spite of the argument the speaker handed to OSWALD a piece of paper similar to that which she writes at this time in which she recorded her name, 'SILVIA DURAN,' and the telephone number of the Consulate, which is '11-28-47,' and, at any rate, she initiated the handling of his visa application by sending it to the Cuban Ministry of (Foreign) Affairs, from which a reply was received in the normal manner some fifteen to thirty days later approving the issuance of a visa, but conditioning it on his previously obtaining the Russian (one), although she does not recall whether OSWALD subsequently called her or not on the telephone for the Consulate which she had given him; that all of the conversation which the speaker had with OSWALD, as well as that of Consul ASCUE with him, was in the English language since he did not speak any Spanish, and that upon seeing his photograph which appears in today's newspapers, specifically in the newspaper 'El Dia,' she immediately recognized and identified it as being the same person that she has been referring to as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. That on only one occasion the declarant attended a reception ceremony at the Russian Embassy which was given on the occasion of the visit of the astronauts, GAGARIN and TERESHKOVA, on the personal invitation which the speaker received from the Russian Consul YACKSOV when the latter visited ASCUE and MIRAVAL and delivered to them their respective invitations at the Cuban Consulate. That with respect to her in-laws, LIDIA and RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO, the former on various occasions attended with the declarant the meetings which were being held at the Institute, whereas the latter only did so on one or two occasions in connection with exhibits of paintings and with respect to BETY SERRATO AZUCAR, the wife of RUBEN, she has always remained aloof from these activities, although all of them are of leftist ideology but do not actively participate in any activities; that BARBARA ANN BLITS TRESMOND ESQUIVEL and AGATA ROSENO GARCIA are friends of BETY and the speaker has known them very little and superficially, as a result of which she knows nothing about their activities and ideologies, and in connection with the gentleman who she now knows is named BENTLEY, she had never seen him before and supposes that he is a friend of BARBARA, since she noticed that he was talking to BARBARA when they were dining at the home of the deponent, being present her husband, AGATA and LIDIA, whereas the others were at the home of her brother-in-law, RUBEN. That she has nothing further to declare and after reading the above, she ratifies and signs the margins in evidence thereof. The above document is closed authorized and witnessed.

Signed, Assistant Director of Federal Security,
Captain FERNANDO GUTIERREZ BARRIOS.

(C) Other Inquiries by Mexican Federal Security Police

On November 29, 1963, the [redacted] made available a copy of a report dated November 25, 1963, recording the results of investigation by Agents of the Mexican Federal Security Police (Direccion Federal de Investigaciones - DFS). A translation from Spanish of that report follows hereinunder:

"In connection with the assassination of the President of the United States, JOHN F. KENNEDY, it was reported that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had previously been in Mexico, as a consequence of which appropriate investigation was conducted, the results of which are as follows:

"1. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in Mexico, having entered at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas (State), on September 26 last, as a tourist, proceeding from New Orleans and departing at the same place on last October 3rd.

"2. It was confirmed that he had come to Mexico to apply for a visa at the Cuban Embassy, for transit enroute to Moscow.

"3. Toward this objective, he established contact with SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, a Mexican 'SILVIA DURAN,' whom he interviewed on two occasions, since she is an employee of the Consulate, responsible for making the arrangements necessary for this type of visa and completing the cards with data concerning the applicant, an indispensable requisite for obtaining a Cuban visa.

"4. Through her, he made contact with the Russian Consulate for the same purpose.

"When it was learned that the above-mentioned SILVIA DURAN had been one of the contacts made by LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico, said lady and her husband were arrested in order that they might be interrogated, advising in their statements as follows:

"INTERVIEW OF HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO: Mexican by birth, son of a Chilean father and Mexican mother. He said that his occupation is that of Industrial Designer, holding a teaching position on this subject in the National School of Plastic Arts, a dependency of the UNAM (Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico - National Autonomous University of Mexico), where he receives a salary of 1,400 pesos ($112 U.S.) monthly; 40 years of age, married, without religious preference, domiciled at Constituyentes (street) #143, Apartment #3, in this city; that the first eight years of his life were spent in Los Angeles, California, and subsequently he came to this capital with his parents, RUFINO DURAN and LIDIA NAVARRO DE DURAN, and later they went to Santiago, Chile, to live, remaining there for a period of a year and one-half, later returning with his brother, RUBEN, to Mexico, being followed later by his sister, LIDIA, and his mother; that he entered the National Agricultural School at Chapingo, where he studied for five years for a career as an Agronomist and as he had learned drawing in the San Carlos Academy, he chose to continue studying that art, which served him as a basis for specializing in Industrial Designing, which he now follows, being a teacher in that subject in the School of Fine Arts of the UNAM, spending his free time in private work as a Designer, for which he receives an income of approximately 5,000 pesos ($400 U.S.) monthly; that in 1950 he was married to a French woman, LUCILLE DEJARDIN, with whom he fathered a son named PAUL DURAN DEJARDIN, who at the present time is 10 years of age, and with that marriage having lasted more or less six years, and with the breaking up of that matrimony, on November 5, 1958, he entered into a new marriage contract with his present wife, SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, with whom he fathered a girl named PATRICIA, now 3½ years of age; that when he became acquainted with his present wife, she was working as a Secretary in the Proteo Gallery and later she and other persons, among them Prof. AGUSTIN CUE CANOVAS, the Cultural Attache of the Cuban Embassy, and others, began to organize the Mexican Cuban Institute of Cultural Relations 'Jose Marti,' in which she served as a Coordinator, and for about the last four months, she has been employed as a Secretary in the Consulate General of Cuba in this city, first having worked with the Consul, EUSEBIO AZCUE, and now with MIRABAL, receiving a monthly salary of 1,500 pesos. He acknowledged that his ideology is leftist and in sympathy with the Cuban Revolution, adding that this is the reason why he permits his wife to work and engage in her present activities. He stated that when he discussed with his wife the assassination of President KENNEDY, having heard the name of the presumed perpetrator, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she immediately told him that she believed that he was the same individual who in the latter part of September or early October had been in the Cuban Consulate applying for a Cuban visa in transit to Russia; that she had attended him herself and handled his visa application papers, but when she notified him that he would first need a Russian visa and that his application would have to be sent to the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Relations, which, of course, would require several days, OSWALD became angry and lost his self control, as a result of which SILVIA called the Consul AZCUE, with whom the applicant had a violent argument. He added that he had not seen nor had he personally known LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and in December of 1961 he (DURAN) made a trip to Cuba, accompanied by his wife, paying for their tickets himself.

"It is pointed out that at the home where the DURAN couple was detained at Herodoto #14, Apartment A, the home of the brother-in-law of SILVIA DURAN, named RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO, the persons who were visiting at that residence were arrested and their background data is recorded below:"

(None of the individuals listed below as having been interviewed admitted knowing OSWALD or having any information concerning him. Therefore, the data concerning them is being summarized rather than recorded in full.)

RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO advised that he was born in Los Angeles, California, is married to BETTY SERRATOS, is 38 years of age, a decorator by profession, and has applied for Mexican citizenship. He related that Calle Herodoto #14, Apartment A, is his residence.

BETTY SERRATOS DE DURAN related that she was born in the Republic of Honduras and has resided in Mexico for the past ten years, is 33 years of age, and has never belonged to any political party or entertained leftist ideas. She explained that she resides with her husband, RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO, at Herodoto #14, Apartment A.

LIDIA DURAN NAVARRO VDA. (widow) DE FLORES advised that she is 35 years of age, having been born in Chihuahua, Chihuahua; that she resides at Luz Savinon Street No. 1211, Apartment 2, and is employed in the Tourism Department and the Mexican Sports Federation. She denied having political affiliations or sympathies. She explained that she is the sister of RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO and had been visiting them at the time the investigators arrived at their apartment.

AGATA ROSENA GARCIA related that she was born in the Capital (of Mexico) and resides at Rivera Street No. 63, Colonia Las Aguilas. She denied having any political affiliations or being of leftist ideology and explained that she is a friend of the DURANs and visits them frequently at their home.

BARBARA ANN BLISS stated that she was in Mexico as a tourist and has been living in the country for the past eight years, and resides at Bahia de Magdalena #125; that she is divorced from JUAN ESQUIVEL, a Costa Rican citizen who presently lives in the United States, and has a monthly income of $800 per month from the estate of her father, which is administered by a firm in Washington, D. C. She explained that her father, ALONSO BLISS, formerly owned a sugar plantation on Trinidad, but presently resides at 2585 Bayshore Drive, Coconut Grove, Miami, Florida. She explained that she had become acquainted with BETTY SERRATOS some three months earlier at the apartment of CARMEN PINO, and they had exchanged visits with each other thereafter because of their mutual liking for recorded music. She also stated that she had met SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN at a concert, but had no friendship with her.

CHARLES E. BENTLEY explained that he is 27 years of age and was in Mexico as a tourist, having resided for the previous three months at Palermo Street No. 9, Colonia Hipodromo, in Mexico City; that he had been trying to obtain employment as a salesman for the Sonora Cattle Company; that he had served in the United States Marine Corps from 1954 to 1957 and had no political affiliations or leftist ideas. He explained that he had met BARBARA ANN BLISS and BETTY SERRATOS some two months earlier and was visiting at Herodoto No. 14-7 because of his friendship with them.

The signed statement of SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN and data connected therewith, which is recorded above, was obtained and the translation thereof from Spanish prepared by T-13, a confidential source abroad.

(D) Hotel Accommodations of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico City

On November 26, 1963, T-14, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that, following a check of the registration records of numerous middle and lower class hotels in the downtown area of Mexico City, he had ascertained that on September 27, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had registered at the Hotel del Comercio, located at Calle (Street) Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19 and approximately eight blocks from the commercial heart of the Mexican capital. The records disclosed that OSWALD was registered as the occupant of room No. 18 until October 1, 1963, and was deleted from the hotel guest list on October 2, 1963.

According to source, there were only three employees at the hotel, and some of them were able to recognize OSWALD's photograph as having been a guest at that establishment but could recall virtually no information concerning the circumstances relating thereto.

1. OSWALD's Registration at Hotel

T-1 made available photocopies of the registration records of the Hotel del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico, D. F., which reflect that on September 27, 1963, OSWALD registered at that hotel as "LEE, HARVEY OSWALD, USA, Texas, PHOTO, US citizen" and was assigned room No. 18.

The owner and manager of the hotel, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, explained on March 3, 1964, that upon arrival a guest is required to register in his own handwriting; however, as long as he remains at the hotel thereafter, the name is transferred to the registration list for subsequent days by the manager or his assistant.

2. Examination of Handwriting on Hotel Register by FBI Laboratory

On December 11, 1963, a photocopy of the above-described page of the Hotel del Comercio registration book was submitted to the FBI Laboratory for examination of the "LEE, HARVEY OSWALD" signature appearing thereon.

In a laboratory report dated December 18, 1963, the FBI Laboratory stated that examination of "Qc333, photocopy of page of registry book of Hotel del Comercio, Calle Sahagun 19, Mexico City, with signatures of guests registering on September 27, 1963, Line 18, bearing signature 'Lee Harvey Oswald'" had been made with the following result:

"It was concluded that the LEE HARVEY OSWALD signature on Line 18 of Qc333 was written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose known writing appears as K4 and K5 in this case."

The information recorded hereinunder was furnished by T-13.

3. Identities of Persons at Hotel During Same Period as OSWALD

A review of copies of the pages of the Hotel del Comercio registration book for individuals who registered or remained at the hotel from September 26, 1963, through the night of October 1-2, 1963, revealed the following with respect to their names, city and state of origin, room or rooms occupied, and date or dates of occupancy.

Because of the fact that some of the names were abbreviated and others not decipherable, Hotel del Comercio owner, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, assisted in clarifying those names.

4. Interview of Manager and Other Personnel at Hotel

GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA advised on March 3, 1964, that he is the owner and manager of the Hotel del Comercio, which is located approximately five blocks north of the main east-west thoroughfare of Mexico City, Paseo de la Reforma, and two blocks east of the principal north-south artery, Avenida Insurgentes. He explained that his hotel caters to commercial travelers, most of whom are Mexican citizens; that it has a total of thirty rooms, most of which are equipped with a private bath; that for a single room the minimum rate, without bath, is 13.00 pesos ($1.04 U.S.) and the maximum, with bath, is 20.00 pesos ($1.60 U.S.). He added that the hotel is in the heart of the area of many of the bus terminals in Mexico City and also is only a few blocks from the passenger railroad station.

GARCIA LUNA furnished the following observations concerning the stay of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Hotel del Comercio. He received OSWALD and caused him to sign the hotel registration book, which is utilized in place of registration cards. He believed OSWALD's arrival had occurred between 10:00 and 11:00 a.m. The guest makes the initial entry in the registration book with data which includes his name, place of origin, occupation, and nationality; thereafter, so long as the guest remains at the hotel, his name and identifying data are transferred to the registration book page for the current date, after he has made payment in advance for his room for the ensuing night. Inasmuch as payment is made in advance, no effort is made to obtain an exact home address for the registrant.

The hotel has four floors, and OSWALD was assigned room No. 18 (with bath) on the third floor at a daily rate of 16.00 pesos ($1.28 U.S.) The rooms on the latter floor are numbered from 18 through 23. The hotel registration book reflects that OSWALD paid for his room on October 1, 1963, which, according to GARCIA LUNA, indicates he was entitled to and probably slept at the hotel the night of October 1-2, 1963, and departed therefrom during the day of October 2, 1963. GARCIA LUNA stated he could not recall the circumstances of OSWALD's departure nor the hour thereof, but merely was judging normal procedure on the basis of information in his record.

GARCIA LUNA advised that he speaks a few words of English and received the impression that OSWALD neither spoke nor understood any Spanish. He had not observed OSWALD in the hotel during the day nor had he ever seen him accompanied by any individual or individuals. He recalled that OSWALD had been carrying a medium-size, brown handbag, which he believed had a zipper and was either of Naugahyde or canvas material. He did not remember that OSWALD had ever worn a coat and believed he usually appeared in a short-sleeved shirt of a knit variety.

Inquiry was made of GARCIA LUNA as to other personnel at the hotel who might recall OSWALD on the basis of having any reason to notice or contact him, and he stated that those persons would be his assistant, SEBASTIAN PEREZ, and the maid who cleans the rooms on the upper two floors, MATILDE GARNICA.

GARCIA LUNA stated that he was acquainted with a few of the guests who were at the hotel during the same period as OSWALD but did not have home addresses for any of them. He mentioned that several of the guests of that period are commercial travelers and return to the hotel from time to time.

MATILDE GARNICA, maid at the Hotel del Comercio, advised on March 3, 1964, that she recognized the photographs of OSWALD as being of the young American who had occupied room No. 18 for almost a week during the latter part of last year. She explained that she handles the daily housekeeping duties for the third and fourth floors of the hotel, comprising rooms numbered 18 through 30, and ordinarily arrives at work between 9:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m., leaving at 9:00 p.m., upon completion of her working day.

Mrs. GARNICA related that she clearly recalls OSWALD, as few Americans stay at the hotel, and was somewhat intrigued by his presence there. He had very few personal effects, which he carried in what she described as a "small, brown, zippered handbag," which was either of canvas or imitation leather material. She did not believe she had seen OSWALD in the hotel on more than two occasions, the day of his arrival and the following Saturday as he was still in his room when she checked to determine which rooms were available for cleaning. She remembered that when she saw him in the room on the Saturday morning in question, he said "good morning" to her in English, and a short time later left the hotel.

She never saw him with any other person and had no conversation with him, having received the impression that he neither spoke nor understood Spanish.

SEBASTIAN PEREZ HERNANDEZ, desk clerk and assistant to the owner of the Hotel del Comercio, advised on March 10, 1964, that he had not conversed with OSWALD but remembered him clearly inasmuch as very few Americans have stayed at the hotel. To the best of his recollection, OSWALD left the hotel each morning and did not return until evening, possibly after PEREZ HERNANDEZ had completed his working day and left the hotel. He stated OSWALD was alone whenever he noticed him at the hotel and usually wore a knit, short-sleeved sport shirt and no coat or jacket.

PEREZ HERNANDEZ advised that since OSWALD paid his rent in advance for the night of October 1, 1963, there would have been little reason for contact with him on the presumed date of his departure, October 2, 1963, and he was unable to remember any details in this connection.

On April 18, 1964, PEDRO RODRIGUEZ LEDESMA advised that he resides at Santa Clara, State of México, and for many years has been the night watchman at the Hotel del Comercio, his working hours being from 9:00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m. He explained, however, that he often is able to leave the hotel by 8:00 a.m. or earlier if the owner and manager, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, has arrived to relieve him and handle reception duties. With respect to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's stay at the hotel, he furnished the following information.

He clearly recalls the young American whom he later identified in his mind as OSWALD and remembers that on the date of the latter's departure from the hotel and on the basis of sign language and the word "taxi," which he interpreted to indicate that OSWALD wanted a taxicab, RODRIGUEZ walked around the corner from the Hotel del Comercio to Orozco y Berra and Bernal Diaz Streets where he obtained a taxicab which had just left a passenger at the "Estrella Blanca" (White Star) bus terminal. He stated definitely that he did not know the taxi driver and had not known or discussed with the driver or OSWALD the latter's intended destination. He said OSWALD carried his own luggage downstairs and waited in front of the hotel with the luggage until RODRIGUEZ returned with the taxicab.

He believed OSWALD left the hotel between 6:30 and 7:00 a.m., since it was getting light when he went in search of the taxicab. He could not be more precise concerning the time. He believed that OSWALD gave him a small tip of one or two pesos ($.08 or $.16 U.S.) for his assistance in calling a taxi, RODRIGUEZ commented that while he had little difficulty obtaining a taxi at the early hour, it becomes very difficult to secure taxi transportation between 7:30 and 8:30 a.m. because of the heavy traffic at that time.

RODRIGUEZ related that to the best of his recollection OSWALD always arrived at the hotel late at night, "midnight or thereafter," but he never noticed any indication that OSWALD had been drinking. He never observed OSWALD in the company of any person and did not recall his ever using the only telephone at the hotel, which is located at the reception desk.

5. Other Inquiries in the Area of the Hotel del Comercio, Taxi Stands, and Bus Terminals

On March 4 and again on April 10, 1964, DOLORES RAMIREZ DE BARREIRO advised that she is the owner, manager and sometimes cook at the small restaurant on Calle Bernardino de Sahagun (no number) immediately adjacent to the Hotel del Comercio. She explained that there is no commercial connection between the hotel and her restaurant, but because of its proximity many hotel guests eat some meals at the restaurant.

Upon viewing photographs of OSWALD, Mrs. BARREIRO affirmed that she remembered him as a young American who had eaten several meals at the restaurant in the late afternoon over a period of approximately one week. She said he appeared at the restaurant after the noon rush hour or some time after 2:00 p.m., always alone, and ordered his food by pointing on the menu, apparently with some consideration of costs. He always ate the soup of the day, rice, and either meat or eggs, but always rejected dessert and coffee. She thought this unusual, as the dessert and coffee ordinarily are included in the price of the daily lunch, but he did not appear to understand this and always waved the waitress away if she tried to serve those items. She recalled that he also rejected any efforts to sell him soft drinks, which she described as an important item in her business. She estimated that OSWALD spent from five to six pesos ($.40 to $.48 U.S.) for his meals. She had assumed he was a guest at the hotel but never observed him contact or talk to anyone while at the restaurant.

6. Inquiries in Neighborhood of Hotel del Comercio

T-15, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had interviewed a large number of persons in the area of the Hotel del Comercio, among them car watchers, taxi drivers, restaurant operators, ambulatory salesman, shoeshine boys, newspaper vendors, and others, displaying to them a photograph of OSWALD. According to source, he had been unable to locate anyone who recalled OSWALD.

7. Interviews of Guests at Hotel del Comercio

T-2 and T-13 advised that interviews of the following persons, who were guests at the Hotel del Comercio during the same period as OSWALD, had failed to identify anyone who was able to remember him:

ALFONSO PEREZ PLIEGO
Captain SALVADOR ESQUIVEL SEGURA
URBANO TORRES MENDOZA
MARTIN GUERRERO
JULIO LINAN
MANUEL SERRALDE

Sources advised that GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, owner of the Hotel del Comercio, had been able to furnish some identifying data concerning hotel guests ANTONIO OLIVA, FERNANDO VALENZUELA, ANGELICA PEREYRA, PEDRO QUIJANO, GABRIEL CONTRERAS, RODOLFO RODRIGUEZ, MARTIN SUMAYA, RAFAEL ROCHA, JOSE GAMES, FIDENCIO GARCIA, Captain CARLOS DOMINGUEZ, and MARIO RESENDIZ, and efforts are being made to locate those individuals as well as identify and locate others who were guests at the Hotel del Comercio during the same period as OSWALD.

8. Reputation of Hotel del Comercio

On April 22, 1964, inquiry was made of GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA by T-13 as to his opinion of how OSWALD had selected and appeared at his hotel, and he stated that even though the hotel is three blocks and "around three corners" from the Red Arrow bus terminal, he considers his hotel to have the best general aspect and appearance of any of several in the area; furthermore, it is known by personnel in other hotels that GARCIA LUNA can understand and speak a little English. He also mentioned that his hotel is filled to approximately ninety per cent of capacity at all times because he makes every effort to provide superior accommodations to commercial travelers at competitive prices.

On April 17, 1964, T-16, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past and is in a position to be informed with respect to the activities in Mexico of Cubans and individuals of other nationalities who are sympathetic to the Castro revolutionary regime in Cuba, advised that the Hotel del Comercio is not known to him as being frequented by pro-Castro Cubans.

On April 23, 1964, T-14, who is well acquainted with hotel operations in Mexico City, reported that he knows nothing unfavorable with respect to the character and reputation of GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA or the Hotel del Comercio and considers the latter to be a reputable establishment usually frequented by commercial travelers and individuals of modest means.

IV. OSWALD'S DEPARTURE FROM MEXICO

The information recorded below was made available by T-17, a confidential source abroad.

Licenciado (Attorney) RAFAEL HERNANDEZ OCHOA, Assistant Director of the Department of Immigration, Mexican Ministry of "Gobernacion" (Interior or Government), advised that the files of that department reflect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD departed from Mexico on October 3, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas. He stated that the personnel records of the Mexican Immigration Office at Nuevo Laredo reflect that on October 3, 1963, from 12:00 midnight until 8:00 a.m., Immigration official ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA was in charge of the "Kilometer 26" highway checking station, where tourist cards are picked up from aliens leaving Mexico by highway travel through Nuevo Laredo. The name and date stamp of ARZAMENDI CHAPA on the original tourist card surrendered by OSWALD upon his departure from Mexico on that date were evidence of the fact that his exit from Mexico occurred during those hours.

Lic. HERNANDEZ OCHOA and the Acting Minister of Government, Lic. LUIS ECHEVERRIA, both had advised that considerable investigation had been conducted by several different agencies of the Mexican Government for the purpose of ascertaining subject's method of travel on departure and that, in view of the fact the name "OSWLD" had been located on a passenger list for the 1:00 p.m. trip of the Transportes Frontera bus line from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, on October 2, 1963, it was considered that OSWALD had traveled thereon.

Considerable investigation with respect to the passenger list mentioned above, including a check of the ticket stubs at the Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, headquarters of the company, interviews of bus drivers and passengers, and numerous interviews of employees of the Mexico City terminal of the bus line, failed to confirm that OSWALD, in fact, had been a passenger on the Transportes Frontera bus in question.

(A) Interview of HERBERT ROBERT VOORHEES, Passenger on Transportes del Norte Bus Traveling from San Luis Potosi to Nuevo Laredo on October 2 to 3, 1963

T-11 advised on March 26, 1964, that HERBERT ROBERT VOORHEES, true name HERBERT FRANCIS VOORHEES, who resides at Calle Masones No. 19, Apartment 10, San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, Mexico, furnished the following:

On October 2, 1963, he left San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, at 7:30 a.m. by a "second-class yellow bus" for San Luis Potosi, San Luis Potosi, Mexico, where at about 2:40 p.m. on the same date he departed for Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, via a Transportes del Norte bus.

His bus arrived at Laredo, Texas, at approximately 2:00 a.m. on October 3, 1963, and following his going through United States Customs and United States Immigration at Laredo, Texas, he disembarked from the bus in Laredo, rested at the Southland Hotel, and thereafter proceeded to San Antonio, Texas, via Greyhound bus.

He was certain that the Transportes del Norte bus, while en route to Laredo, Texas, stopped in Mexico at about 1:00 a.m. on October 3, 1963, at the "Mexican Immigration check station about twelve miles from the Mexican-American border," where the lights were turned on and a Mexican Immigration official boarded the bus to check each passenger's identification and travel documents.

At this point, the Mexican Immigration official ushered off the bus a young American, whom he described as about 20 years of age, five feet nine inches tall, of medium build, clean-shaven, bareheaded, coatless, and cleanly attired in shirt, slacks and shoes. The young American, who had carried one small bag, had been sitting at the back of the bus. Upon his return to the bus, after apparently being questioned for a few minutes, he walked again to the back of the bus. As he passed VOORHEES, he mumbled in good English, in a grumbling manner, something like, "My papers were in order before and I don't know why they bother me now -- they took my pass before."

He clearly recalled seeing the American at the United States Customs checking station in Laredo, Texas, at about 1:30 a.m. on October 3, 1963, when a Mexican woman's luggage was being examined and the young American was standing by. The American was trying to dispose of a banana by eating it hurriedly, "gulping it down," and he was told by a Customs officer that he could carry the banana into the United States and did not have to gulp it down so fast.

He recalled talking with a "Mexican-American" man who sat across the aisle from him. This man was traveling with his wife and spoke English and Spanish. He could recall neither his name nor his destination.

He furnished as many other details about the above-described trip as he could recall and claimed he could not definitely state that the young American was identical with OSWALD; however, he considered photographs of OSWALD to be similar in every detail with the young American who was on the bus.

(B) Checks of Records of Other Bus Lines

T-13 provided the following information:

On March 30, 1964, officials of the Autobuses Blancos Flecha Roja, S. A. bus line made available passenger lists for the four scheduled trips of that company from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo of October 2, 1963, and no information identifiable with OSWALD by any of the names he was known to have used was located on those lists. It was determined, however, that if the time schedules of that company are maintained, none of its trips to Nuevo Laredo would arrive at the "Kilometer 26" highway checking station between midnight and 8:00 a.m.

On the basis of several contacts with Mr. RICARDO MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Autobuses Transportes del Norte bus line (hereinafter referred to as Transportes del Norte), information was received from him to the effect that "Secret Service agents, Presidential investigators, Federal Security agents, and others" had reviewed the passenger lists maintained by his company for its service between Mexico City and Laredo, Texas, and that he had assisted in those checks, which failed to disclose any information identifiable with OSWALD.

MEDINA explained that the passenger list actually is a card form on which reservations and ticket sales are recorded and that after the particular trip for which it was prepared has left the terminal, it is cancelled to avoid further confusion, as the reverse side of the form is utilized for a similar record at a later date. He stated that the cancelled lists are not a permanent record and are maintained only for a short period of time following their use. He stated that he had set aside the lists for early October, 1963, in the event there should be further need for them; nevertheless, he was unable to locate them. He pointed out that apparently they had been placed inadvertently in a storeroom where tires, spare parts, boxes of obsolete files and records, and other materials are maintained and that only a thorough review of all material in the storeroom would reveal whether or not the list for October 2, 1963, was still in existence. He related that his company has two direct trips daily to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Laredo, Texas, and that the bus which departs from Mexico City at 8:30 a.m. is scheduled to arrive in Nuevo Laredo at 2:00 a.m. the following morning and would arrive at the "Kilometer 26" checking station at approximately 1:00 a.m.

(C) Transportes del Norte Passenger List for October 2, 1963

On March 30, 1964, Mr. MEDINA advised that he had located the passenger-reservations list for the 8:30 a.m. bus of October 2, 1963, and on the basis of consultation with him and with several reservations and ticket clerks who recognized their handwriting thereon, the following data was obtained therefrom as translated from Spanish:

MEDINA explained that seats No. 12 and No. 15 had been reserved for another bus line or travel agency and that the company would have no record with respect to the identities of the occupants of those seats.

On March 31, 1964, Miss ROSA MARIA OROZCO, auditor of the Auto Viajes Internacionales, S. A, travel agency (International Auto Travels, Inc.), Lafragua No. 4, Mexico, D. F., advised that she had located a record of the sale by that firm of a ticket for travel on seat No. 15 of the 8:30 a.m., October 2, 1963, bus of Transportes del Norte to Laredo to ANASTACIO RUIZ MEZA. She stated that the company had sold this transportation to RUIZ MEZA for travel via the Transportes del Norte bus line to Laredo and from Laredo to Chicago, Illinois, by Greyhound Line.

(D) Record of Location of Transportation Sold to H. O. LEE

T-11 provided the information recorded hereinunder:

On April 1, 1964, MACLOVIO PORTILLO G., Superintendent of the Mexico City terminal of the bus line Transportes Chihuahuenses, S. A. de C. V. (Chihuahuenses Transportation, Incorporated with Variable Capital), Bernal Diaz No. 5, Mexico, D. F., and his clerk, MARIA TERESA CASARES, caused the records of that bus line to be searched for all tickets issued for travel on October 2, 1963, in an effort to locate the names LEE HARVEY OSWALD, O. H. LEE, ALEK JAMES HIDELL, and V. L. LEE, with particular attention to ticket No. 13688.

PORTILLO advised that no information had been located which could be identified with the foregoing, explaining that tickets sold by his company during that period were in the eighty and ninety thousand series, eliminating the possibility that ticket No. 13688 might have been sold at that office.

PORTILLO suggested that the transportation concerning which inquiry was being made might have been sold at the Agencia de Viajes, Transportes Chihuahuenses, S. A. de C. V. (Chihuahuenses Transportation Travel Agency, Inc.), with offices at Paseo de la Reforma No. 52, Room 5. He telephoned to that agency and was advised by a clerk, ALEJANDRINA M. DE BUTCHER, that the reservation order under No. 13688 was available at that office.

On April 1, 1964, Miss TERESA SCHAEFFER BEQUERISSE, manager of the above-mentioned travel agency, located the reservation and purchase order No. 13688, and it was determined to be in blank, never having been utilized. She reviewed the Transportes del Norte passenger list for bus No. 332 for October 2, 1963, considering that the order number might be 12688, and this order No. 12688 was located and also found to be blank. She insisted that her office had not handled the reservation noted on the Transportes del Norte passenger list shown her for October 2, 1963. She was requested to review all reservation and purchase orders issued for October, 1963, by her office.

A review of the carbon copies of these reservation and purchase orders was made by the confidential source abroad in the presence of Miss SCHAEFFER, which revealed that reservation and purchase order No. 14618 was issued to Transportes del Norte in Mexico City for Mr. H. O. LEE for seat No. 12 from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, on Wednesday, October 2, 1963, at 8:30 a.m. This information was printed in Spanish, and the reservation was confirmed by a Mr. SAUCEDO. At the bottom of this printed order the date was indicated to be September 30, 1963, and the cost was listed as 93.75 "moneda nacional" (national money or Mexican pesos comparable to $7.50 U.S.) Also at the bottom of this printed order was the printed notice that the Agencia de Viajes, Transportes Chihuahuenses, is an agent for the Greyhound Bus Line.

Miss SCHAEFFER advised that former employee ROLANDO BARRIOS had signed the reservation and purchase order and apparently made the sale to Mr. H. O. LEE. She stated the original of this form was given to the purchaser in order that he could then obtain his ticket at Transportes del Norte, explaining that an original and two copies of the reservation and purchase order are made and the original is given to the purchaser, one copy is kept at her office, and the third copy is forwarded to the main office of the travel agency, which is Transportes Chihuahuenses, S. A. de C. V., Avenida 16 de Septiembre No. 274, Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico. She made available the carbon copy of the above-mentioned purchase order and stated she would search her files for any other pertinent records.

Subsequently she advised on the same date by telephone that she had located Greyhound International Exchange Order No. 43599 for presentation to the Greyhound agent at Laredo, Texas, and issued to Mr. H. O. LEE. This order was issued against the Western Greyhound Lines, 371 Market Street, San Francisco 5, California, for travel from Laredo, Texas, to Dallas, Texas, via San Antonio, Texas.

T-12 advised that on April 1, 1964, Miss SCHAEFFER made available a copy of the Greyhound International Exchange Order mentioned above, which noted that Mr. H. O. LEE was traveling to the port of exit via Transportes del Norte. The order reflected it was issued on October 1, 1963, for $12.80 U. S. by the Agencia de Viajes, T. Ch. S. A. de C. V., Reforma 52-5, Mexico City. According to Miss SCHAEFFER, the signature of the issuing agent on this order form was that of ROLANDO BARRIOS.

Miss SCHAEFFER's bookkeeper, Miss NORMA ROMAN, made available the agency's cash receipt and disbursement ledger which Miss SCHAEFFER described as a record of cash receipts and disbursements of the business on a daily basis. These records disclosed that on October 1, 1963, an entry was made in the ledger reflecting receipt of 253.75 pesos ($20.30 U.S.) from Mr. H. O. LEE which was paid to cover the cost of a bus trip from Mexico City to Dallas via Laredo. Miss SCHAEFFER explained that the entry reflecting receipt of cash is made in the cash receipt and disbursement ledger on the day following the actual transaction. She added that of the total 253.75 peso amount, 93.75 pesos ($7.50 U.S.) applied to the portion of the trip from Mexico City to Laredo and 160.00 pesos ($12.80 U.S.) applied to the travel from Laredo to Dallas.

The above record reflected that the total amount of 253.75 pesos was paid on Agencia de Viajes T. Ch. reservation and purchase order No. 14618 and that H. O. LEE was also issued Greyhound International Exchange Order No. 43599 to cover the trip from Laredo to Dallas.

The above-mentioned cash ledger reflected that the letter "B" appeared beside the name of H. O. LEE, and Miss SCHAEFFER explained that the letter "B" represents the surname initial of ROLANDO BARRIOS, the former employee of the firm who handled the transaction with H. O. LEE.

The cash ledger also revealed that under the figure of 253.75 pesos, the amount of the cash transaction, were illegible handwritten initials, and Miss SCHAEFFER stated that those are the initials of ELSA MAYNEZ, another former employee of the firm, acknowledging receipt of the 253.75 pesos by MAYNEZ from BARRIOS for entry in the cash ledger book.

Miss SCHAEFFER advised that ROLANDO BARRIOS was involved in a financial problem with her agency for which she discontinued his services. She furnished his home address as Bahia de Santa Barbara No. 20-209, Mexico, D. F., and stated he was last known to be employed at the Mauna Loa Restaurant in Mexico City.

On April 1, 1964, Miss SCHAEFFER made available a copy of a form captioned: "Western Greyhound Lines (Division of the Greyhound Corporation), 371 Market Street, San Francisco, California, International Sales Report." This sales report covers the period from October 1, 1963, to October 31, 1963, and Miss SCHAEFFER advised that recorded on this form is a recapitulation of travel sales during the month of October, 1963, made by the agency as agents for the Western Greyhound Lines in connection with which Greyhound International Exchange Orders were issued to the travelers. There were twelve such sales recorded on the above-mentioned sales report, which reflects that the second entry or sale made involved the issuance of Greyhound International Exchange Order No. 43599 to one passenger, Mr. H. O. LEE, for travel from Laredo, Texas, to Dallas, Texas, total fare for that portion of the trip being recorded as $12.80 U. S.

Miss SCHAEFFER advised that the foregoing must be maintained as a matter of permanent record in her office because of Mexican Government regulations.

On April 2, 1964, T-11 was advised by Miss SCHAEFFER that MARGARITA LABASTIBA, who also worked in the front office while BARRIOS was present, had informed her that she remembered an American who purchased a travel order but could not recall the date nor could she state it was OSWALD. Upon interview, Miss LABASTIBA could only recall that the American was tall, wore disheveled clothing, and had a great deal of hair. She could not be more specific about the date or the description of the American.

Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were exhibited to TERESA SCHAEFFER BEQUERISSE, ALEJANDRINA M. DE BUTCHER, NORMA ROMAN and MARGARITA LABASTIBA at the Agencia de Viajes, Transportes Chihuahuenses, S. A. de C. V. offices and these persons were unable to identify OSWALD.

(E) Interview of ROLANDO BARRIOS RAMIREZ

On April 2, 1964, the following information was furnished to T-13.

ROLANDO BARRIOS RAMIREZ, Bahia de Santa Barbara No. 20, Apartment 209, Mexico, D. F., advised that formerly he was employed at the Chihuahuenses Travel Agency and now is employed as a cashier at the Mauna Loa Restaurant in Mexico City. BARRIOS reviewed the copy of the reservation and purchase order No. 14618 of the travel agency reflecting the sale on September 30, 1963, of seat No. 12 on the 8:30 a.m. trip of Transportes del Norte from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, on October 2, 1963, and definitely identified the handprinting and signature thereon as his own. He also viewed a copy of International Exchange Order No. 43599 dated October 1, 1963, recording the sale to Mr. H. O. LEE of transportation by Greyhound Lines from Laredo, Texas, to Dallas, Texas. He stated that the handprinting and signature on this document were his and that undoubtedly he had handled the transaction represented by the two documents.

BARRIOS viewed photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised that he was unable to affirm positively that he recalled OSWALD in connection with the travel agency. He related that at the time OSWALD's photographs were being published widely in newspapers and magazines he was impressed by the feeling that he had known or met OSWALD at some time, but had been unable to associate the feeling with any particular incident or time.

(F) Interview of Personnel at Transportes del Norte Terminal, Mexico City

On April 3, 1964, the Mexico City Terminal Manager for Transportes del Norte, RICARDO MEDINA BELTRAN, reiterated that he had no recollection whatsoever with respect to OSWALD and explained that he has no contact with passengers except under unusual circumstances since his office is removed from the passenger area of the terminal.

On the same date, bus drivers ROGELIO CUEVAS and RAMON GONZALEZ were contacted upon their arrival at the Mexico City terminal and advised that they reside in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, at Magna Vista No. 232 and at Juan Mendez No. 1407 Altos, respectively. Although they had no independent recollection in connection therewith, they were aware of the fact that the company's records reflect that they were the drivers of bus No. 332 between Mexico City and Monterrey on October 2, 1963. They stated that they usually leave the bus at Monterrey, and it was their understanding that on October 2, 1963, all passengers from bus No. 332 were transferred to another unit which transported them to Nuevo Laredo with a relief driver. They viewed all available photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated they were unable to recall his having been a passenger. They pointed out that they rarely notice the passengers and would not remember one of them unless an incident or special circumstance created a special reason for noticing and recalling them.

On April 2, 1964, ANGEL CURIEL informed that he is a ticket salesman at the Mexico City terminal of Transportes del Norte and that he recognized his handwriting on the October 2, 1963, passenger list for bus No. 332 in connection with the items listed under "destination" and "ticket number." He explained that he undoubtedly exchanged ticket No. 13688 for the travel agency purchase order and recorded the number of the ticket before delivering it to the passenger. CURIEL viewed available photographs of OSWALD and stated he could not recall him in connection with his duties at the bus line.

On the same date, salesman MIGUEL SAUCEDO advised that the handwriting on the passenger list under "name of passenger" of the word "Chihuahuenses" opposite seat No. 12 indicated that he received the telephonic reservation of the space by the travel agency. SAUCEDO did not recall the matter and was unable to identify photographs of OSWALD in connection therewith.

Ticket salesmen CANUTO S. ROJAS and JUAN GASCON advised that they recognized their handwriting on the October 2, 1963, manifest in connection with some of the reservations and ticket sales, but upon viewing photographs of OSWALD could not recall having seen him at the Mexico City terminal of Transportes del Norte.

MEDINA and the four ticket salesmen mentioned above explained that the diversity of serial numbers for tickets sold on the passenger list in question is occasioned by the fact that they each sell from different blocks of tickets for the various destinations involved.

(G) Interviews of Personnel at Transportes del Norte Bus Terminal Restaurant, Monterrey, Nuevo Leon

On April 6, 1964, T-7 interviewed the following personnel of the restaurant located in the Transportes del Norte terminal at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon:

DAVID SANCHEZ GONZALEZ, manager and cashier
MARIA OTILLA TOVAR, waitress
RAFAEL ZAVALA CASTILLO, counterman
MANUEL CUELLAS GARCIA, counterman

All four of these persons advised that they work a 2:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. shift and that all were on duty during that shift on October 2-3, 1963. No one else worked during this shift.

Upon being shown various photographs of OSWALD, none was able to recall having seen him in the restaurant at any time.

According to T-7, the restaurant is located within the Transportes del Norte terminal in Monterrey, there being a ticket counter at one end of the terminal, a waiting room in the center, and the restaurant at the opposite end of the waiting room from the ticket counter.

(H) Inquiry at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon Main Offices of Transportes del Norte

T-18, a confidential source abroad, provided the following information:

On April 2, 1964, RAMON TREVINO QUEZADA, Vice President and General Manager of Transportes del Norte at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, caused a search to be made for and succeeded in locating an envelope containing the tickets surrendered by the passengers to the bus drivers for the Mexico City-Monterrey travel in bus No. 332 on October 2, 1963. Among those tickets was No. 13688 which reflected thereon that it had been used for seat No. 12 on that trip.

TREVINO advised that the company records reflect that following the arrival of bus No. 332 in Monterrey at 9:15 p.m., October 2, 1963, all passengers destined for Nuevo Laredo or beyond were transferred to bus No. 373, which was driven by ALVARO IBARRA and departed from Monterrey at 9:50 p.m. He explained further that because the company has thirteen trips daily between Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo, no effort is made to maintain a record of the passengers who board the bus at Monterrey in connection therewith. Mr. TREVINO explained that IBARRA recently married and resides at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas.

On April 3, 1964, Mr. TREVINO stated he had located the portion of ticket No. 13688 for travel from Monterrey to Laredo and that its presence in the envelope for that trip of October 2-3, 1963, was definite indication that the travel was performed.

(I) Bus Passenger ANASTASIO RUIZ MEZA
Identified Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD

T-13 advised as follows:

On March 30, 1964, RICARDO MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, advised that seat No. 15 of Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 for the trip of October 2, 1963, had been reserved for another bus line or travel agency and that the company would have no record with respect to the identity of the occupant of that seat.

On March 31, 1964, Miss ROSA MARIA OROZCO, auditor of the Auto Viajes Internacionales, S. A. (International Auto Travels, Inc.) travel agency, Lafragua No. 4, Mexico, D. F., located a record of the sale by that firm of a ticket for travel in seat No. 15 of the 8:30 a.m., October 2, 1963, bus of Transportes del Norte to Laredo to ANASTACIO RUIZ MEZA. This transportation was sold to RUIZ MEZA for travel via Transportes del Norte bus line to Laredo and from Laredo to Chicago, Illinois, by Greyhound line.

T-19, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

On April 5, 1964, ANASTASIO RUIZ MEZA, who resides at Sullana No. 710, Mexico, D. F., and who is employed in the Auditor's Office, Customs Section, Mexican Ministry of the Treasury and Public Credit, advised as follows:

He was a passenger on a Transportes del Norte bus which departed Mexico City at 8:30 a.m., October 2, 1963, en route to Laredo, Texas, and occupied seat No. 15 on that bus. Following his arrival in Laredo, he departed on a Greyhound Line bus with his final destination being Chicago, Illinois.

RUIZ MEZA still had the Transportes del Norte ticket stub for the Mexico City-Laredo, Texas, portion of the trip, the number of the ticket being 13619.

As nearly as he could recall, the bus departed without delay at 8:30 a.m., October 2, 1963. He believed there were about fourteen or fifteen other passengers who boarded the bus with him.

He could not remember whether or not any Americans had boarded the bus in Mexico City but stated that seated next to him on the bus was an individual whom he described as being tall, heavy and about 54 years of age. This individual, whose name he did not know, was of Mexican extraction and was traveling to Houston, Texas. This person sat next to RUIZ MEZA on the several buses from Mexico City to San Antonio, Texas, where he departed the bus. Changes of buses had occurred at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and at Laredo, Texas on the trip north. (The Transportes del Norte manifest for the trip of October 2, 1963, bus No. 332, lists space for one EULALIO RODRIGUEZ in seat No. 14, which adjoins seat No. 15, with final destination for RODRIGUEZ listed as Houston.)

Directly across the aisle to his rear, the seating arrangements of the bus being staggered on either side, was a young "Ecuadorian" couple, assumed to be man and wife (seats No. 8 and No. 9). He was not certain that this couple was from Ecuador, but believed they were South Americans. RUIZ identified a photograph of JUAN MATEO DE CUBA, as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-5 No. 3625296, as identical with the above-described "Ecuadorian." RUIZ also viewed a photograph of ADA FRANCISCA BISLIP DE DE CUBA, as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-5 No. 3625295, which depicts Mrs. DE CUBA wearing eyeglasses. RUIZ could not be sure this woman is identical with the woman traveling in the company of the person whom he identified as being JUAN MATEO DE CUBA. He stated that the woman who was seated next to DE CUBA was not wearing eyeglasses.

(The above-described tourist forms describe Mr. and Mrs. DE CUBA as being residents of Aruba, Dutch West Indies. The Transportes del Norte manifest for the above-described trip lists space for J. M. DE CUBA and one other person in seats No. 8 and No. 9.)

After departure from Mexico City at 8:30 a.m. on October 2, 1963, the bus did not stop until its arrival in San Luis Potosi, San Luis Potosi, Mexico, at about 1:00 p.m. the same day. After about a half-hour stop, everyone again boarded the bus for the trip to Monterrey, arriving at the Transportes del Norte terminal there about 9:30 p.m. on October 2, 1963.

RUIZ recalled that upon arrival in the bus terminal in Monterrey, everyone debarked and many of the passengers went to the restaurant located at the Transportes del Norte bus terminal to eat. While RUIZ was eating at one of the tables in the restaurant at the Transportes del Norte bus terminal in Monterrey, a young American was seated alone at a table a few yards away from him to his rear. He advised this was the first time he had noted the presence of this person, whom he described as being about 27 years of age, weighing approximately 130 to 135 pounds, with brown hair, about five feet seven or five feet eight inches in height, and of slender build. He recalled this same individual's boarding the bus in Monterrey a few minutes after him.

RUIZ viewed several photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and positively identified two profile photographs of OSWALD as being of the above-described American youth who was seated to his rear in the restaurant of the Transportes del Norte bus terminal in Monterrey. He advised he had no doubt in his mind with respect to this identification.

One of the photographs identified by RUIZ was a photograph of OSWALD which had appeared in "Life" magazine depicting OSWALD passing out pro-Cuban literature on a street in New Orleans, Louisiana. (This is a profile photograph of OSWALD showing his right arm extended and his torso.)

The other photograph identified by RUIZ was a profile view of OSWALD taken at the New Orleans Police Department on August 9, 1963, under New Orleans Police Department No. 112723.

He had seen front-view photographs of OSWALD in the newspapers following the assassination of President KENNEDY; however, he pointed out that he did not associate the photographs with the above-described American nor did he give any careful or studied thought to their being identical to the American youth.

The American youth, whom he described as being OSWALD, was dressed in a light-colored, perhaps white, open-collared, short-sleeved sport shirt, and was bareheaded. According to RUIZ, this individual was not wearing a coat. He did not recall the color or type of trousers this person was wearing, his shoes, or the luggage he might have been carrying.

After the meal stop in Monterrey, which lasted approximately one-half hour, the passengers boarded a different bus of the Transportes del Norte line, and he observed there also had been a change of bus drivers at that time. He recalled that the individual whom he identified as OSWALD boarded the bus in Monterrey after he did, and after he had taken his seat, No. 15, he noticed the American youth go down the aisle past him. He believed this person had taken a seat in the right rear section of the bus or on the same side of the bus where RUIZ was seated.

He believed the bus arrived at "Kilometer 26," the Immigration and Customs control point located about sixteen miles south of Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, at about 1:00 a.m. on October 3, 1963. Upon reaching "Kilometer 26," the bus stopped and an official, whom RUIZ assumed to be a Mexican Immigration officer, boarded the bus and proceeded to review the travel documents of the passengers on board. He recalled seeing the Immigration official in the aisle on his way from the rear to the front of the bus and hearing him exclaim in English, "Come on with me," apparently directing his remarks to someone in the rear of the bus. He then saw the Mexican Immigration official go to the front of the bus followed by the American identified by him as being OSWALD. He assumed some question had arisen as to the American's travel documents.

The interior lights of the bus were on at the time, and he saw the Immigration official and the American get off the bus and enter the small Immigration office located at the side of the road a few feet from the bus. RUIZ estimated that from the time the American left the bus with the Immigration official until the time he boarded the bus and again went to the rear of the vehicle a period of perhaps three or four minutes may have transpired.

He recalled that after the American again boarded the bus, Mr. DE CUBA left the bus and went to the Immigration office, and he assumed that there was some question with respect to DE CUBA's travel documents. He believed that about one minute later DE CUBA returned and seated himself in the bus. The only two passengers he recalled having left the bus at "Kilometer 26" were the American and Mr. DE CUBA.

He estimated that the entire operation of the Immigration check at "Kilometer 26" lasted from ten to fifteen minutes, and shortly after Mr. DE CUBA boarded the bus, the driver continued the journey to Nuevo Laredo, where the bus arrived at the Transportes del Norte bus terminal about 1:30 a.m., October 3, 1963.

All of the passengers left the bus in Nuevo Laredo, remaining at the bus terminal for a period of from twenty minutes to one-half hour. During the period the passengers were in the Transportes del Norte terminal in Nuevo Laredo, he recalled seeing OSWALD waiting near the bus alone. He did not recall observing the American speaking to anyone.

He recalled that after a short stop in Nuevo Laredo, the passengers boarded the same bus on which they had traveled from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo. He recalled the American whom he identified as OSWALD boarding the bus at Nuevo Laredo for the trip across the International Bridge to Laredo, Texas, as he remembered seeing the American go down the aisle to the rear of the bus after he, RUIZ, was in his seat. From that point on, he does not recall seeing the American again.

The Transportes del Norte bus proceeded across the International Bridge and in several minutes was in Laredo, Texas, on the United States side of the bridge. The bus stopped on the south side of the United States Government building adjacent to the steps which lead into the offices where, according to RUIZ, he was vaccinated.

All passengers left the bus and proceeded up the stairway leading to what he assumed were Immigration offices. He stated that he and another person, whom he described as a short Mexican male of advanced age and who he believed had boarded the bus at Monterrey, were the only persons who remained behind to be vaccinated.

RUIZ estimated that the entire United States Government processing operation at the port of entry was about one-half hour in duration. Everyone already had boarded the bus by the time he had been processed by United States Immigration, and he was the last of the passengers to board the bus for the short trip to the Laredo bus terminal.

Upon reaching the Laredo bus terminal, everyone again left the bus. After about one-half hour, he boarded a two-tiered Greyhound Line bus in the Laredo bus terminal and automatically seated himself in seat No. 15, since he had been in that seat all the way from Mexico City. He estimated that there might have been a total of from fifteen to twenty passengers who boarded the Greyhound bus at Laredo.

RUIZ estimated the departure from Laredo of the Greyhound bus as being about 3:00 a.m., October 3, 1963, and the arrival in San Antonio, Texas, as about 8:00 a.m. that same morning. He observed that everyone got off the bus at San Antonio, and he believed the stop in San Antonio lasted about one-half hour, after which the passengers boarded the same bus and proceeded to Dallas, Texas, arriving at about 1:00 p.m. on the same day.

RUIZ recalled that the stop in Dallas lasted about two hours, and it was approximately 3:00 p.m. when the same bus departed Dallas for the journey to Chicago, Illinois, via Tulsa, Oklahoma.

RUIZ recalled seeing for the last time the American whom he identified as OSWALD when the latter boarded the bus at Nuevo Laredo prior to the trip across the International Bridge to Laredo, Texas. RUIZ believed that the American had boarded the same Greyhound bus at Laredo on the morning of October 3, 1963, and continued the trip to Dallas, Texas, but stated he did not notice him nor did he pay particular attention to the other passengers.

RUIZ did not recall having seen the American speak to anyone at any time, and it appeared to RUIZ that the American was traveling alone. He commented that the American had given him the impression of being a quiet individual of a retiring nature.

RUIZ viewed a photograph of PHILIPPE PITER E. VAN DER VORM, as it appears on Mexican Government tourist form FM-8 No. 624820, which VAN DER VORM utilized upon entry to Mexico in September, 1963. RUIZ did not recall having seen this person as a passenger on either of the Transportes del Norte buses on the trip from Mexico City to Laredo in October, 1963.

(J) Interview of Transportes del Norte Passenger JOSE BARRIGA BERNAL

On April 6, 1964, Captain JOSE BARRIGA BERNAL advised T-13 that he is a retired officer of the Mexican Army and resides in Mexico City at Gabino Barreda 104, Apartment No. 3. He recalled that on October 2, 1963, he and his wife had traveled from Mexico City to Laredo on Transportes del Norte, and after entering the United States, had continued to Dallas, Texas, via Greyhound bus. He viewed available photographs of OSWALD and stated emphatically that he could not recall him as a passenger. He mentioned that the only passenger he could recall was AGAPITO DEL RIO, with whom he conversed while they were passing through United States Customs at Laredo, Texas.

(K) List Obtained of Departure of Non-Mexican Citizens on October 3, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas

T-1, who is familiar with the workings of the Mexican Ministry of Gobernacion (Interior), made available for examination the forms FM-5 and FM-8 for all non-Mexican citizens departing Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, as tourists on October 3, 1963, as well as the copies of forms FM-11 containing the recapitulation of the departures from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on this date.

Investigation in this case disclosed that OSWALD departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963. OSWALD's departure was handled by Mexican Immigration Service employee ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA.

According to T-1, ARZAMENDI CHAPA worked the 12:00 midnight to 8:00 a.m. shift on October 3, 1963.

From the tourist cards (forms FM-5 and FM-8) and the copies of the forms FM-11, the following is a list of the individuals who departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, the list's having been divided into those individuals traveling on forms FM-5 and those traveling on forms FM-8, since the forms FM-11 are so set up.

83. JOHN H. BENNETT. Departed utilizing form FM-17 No. 518151, issued by Mexican Immigration Office, Nuevo Laredo, October 3, 1963. The form FM-17 is not used ordinarily by tourists but rather by Mexicans and foreigners having permanent residence in Mexico. Attached to the form FM-17 was an official statement drawn up by the Mexican Immigration Office in Nuevo Laredo which set forth that BENNETT, a resident of 10250 Haitian Drive, Miami, Florida, had been stopped on October 3, 1963, at a Mexican Immigration check station located 26 kilometers south of Nuevo Laredo. At that time BENNETT claimed that he had lost his tourist documentation and stated he had originally entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo. A check of the Mexican Immigration records at Nuevo Laredo disclosed that BENNETT had entered Mexico at that port of entry on September 8, 1963, on FM-8 No. 625114. From this, it was obvious that BENNETT had overstayed his fifteen-day permission granted by the FM-8 and, accordingly, he was required to deposit 200 pesos to cover any fine that might grow out of his overstay in Mexico, and he was permitted to depart Mexico using the form FM-17. This form described him as 53 years of age, born in Nutley, New Jersey, married, accountant, and proceeding from Guadalajara, Jalisco, to Houston, Texas, by automobile. The same information appeared on the FM-11. Departure was handled by JOSE REBOLLEDO LARA.

98. JOHN O. BRIAN, FM-8 No. 626185, issued by Mexican Immigration Office, Nuevo Laredo, September 30, 1963. (It is to be noted this individual appeared to sign his name as JOHN O'BRIEN.)

99. As has been previously reported, this traveler was OSWALD. He was in possession of Mexican tourist card form FM-8 No. 24085, issued September 17, 1963, by the Mexican Consulate General, New Orleans, Louisiana, under the name of LEE, HARVEY OSWALD. The card was signed LEE H. OSWALD. The card described him as 23 years of age, married and a photographer by profession. It indicated that he presented a birth certificate as proof of citizenship. Entry was at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, with an announced final destination of Mexico City. No means of travel was shown on the tourist card, either at the time of entry or at departure on October 3, 1963. The FM-11 listed his name as HARVEY OSWALD LEE, showed he was proceeding from Mexico City with a final destination of New Orleans, Louisiana, and that he was traveling by auto. Records of the Mexican Immigration Service in Mexico City contain no information to substantiate that he actually was traveling by automobile. As has been previously reported, the departure of OSWALD was handled by an employee of the Mexican Immigration Service named ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA.

(L) Additional List of Persons Who Departed on October 3, 1963, and Entered on September 26, 1963, at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico

T-20, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

In order to ascertain the identities of other persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards, the following inquiry was conducted:

On April 20 and 29, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Immigration Department, Mexico, D. F., made available the original FM-11 forms recording data concerning persons who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, with various types of travel documents. The original FM-11 forms relating thereto were reviewed inasmuch as separate lists are maintained for each type of travel document issued to travelers. HERRERA advised that the following is the complete list of persons of record who entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and who departed Mexico through that city on October 3, 1963, utilizing travel documents other than FM-5 and FM-8 tourist cards. He explained that these persons and those previously recorded as having entered and departed with forms FM-5 and FM-8 do not include all persons who entered and departed at Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, and October 3, 1963, respectively, as there are numerous individuals who cross the United States-Mexico border daily who are not documented by Mexican authorities, including many Mexican nationals traveling from the interior of Mexico to the United States.

T-21, a confidential source abroad, compiled the following from a review of the forms FM-11 described above:

(M) OSWALD's Travel Documents and Mexican Government Records

The following information was furnished by T-13 on March 17, 1964:

The travel document with which LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered Mexico on September 26, 1963, is described as a Mexican Ministry of "Gobernacion" (Interior) FM-8 and is commonly referred to as a tourist card, which consists of two sections, an original and a carbon copy duplicate. At the time of OSWALD's travel to Mexico, the FM-8 was valid for a single entry to the interior of Mexico and residence therein for no longer than fifteen days. The original tourist card utilized by OSWALD records the following data:

FM-8 No.:	24085, valid for 15 days
Full Name:	LEE, HARVEY OSWALD
	Photographer
Sex:	Male
Marital Status:	Married
Document with which nationality was established:	Birth Certificate
Final Destination:	Mexico, D. F.

Date and Place (of issuance): New Orleans, La., USA, September 17, 1963
Signature of Bearer: LEE H. OSWALD

It bears the stamp of the Consulate General of Mexico at New Orleans, Louisiana, indicating issuance by that agency, and the date stamp of Mexican Immigration official HELIO TUEXI MAYDON, reflecting entry into Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, September 26, 1963. The stamp for departure is that of Immigration official ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA and the date shown is October 2, 1963. Under normal procedures, the means of travel of the bearer upon entry to Mexico is recorded with a stamped, typed, or handwritten notation; however, this record does not appear on the FM-8 for OSWALD.

A review of the original tourist cards (FM-5, FM-8, and one FM-17, the latter explained above) in the possession of the Immigration Department of the Mexican Ministry of "Gobernacion" revealed that 79 persons documented with those forms had departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, on October 3, 1963, among them LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On March 23, 1964, Mr. MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Immigration Department described the Immigration form "FM-11" as a "statistical record to be prepared every two weeks on nationals and aliens entering and leaving the country." Mr. HERRERA explained that separate FM-11 forms are submitted semimonthly by all Mexican Immigration stations for entries and departures from Mexico. He explained that separate lists are prepared in connection with the various types of travel documents presented and are submitted in duplicate (an original and one carbon copy) to the Travel Control Files for checking and comparison with the tourist cards or other travel documents on which they are based.

Under current procedures, twenty names are placed on each page of the FM-11 in alphabetical order by date, and prior to final filing these are reviewed by a clerk who may make corrections and report possible discrepancies which might require investigation in order to make certain that the immigration laws of Mexico are not being violated. The items of information which are recorded on the FM-11 in horizontal columns are: chronological number (chronological listing number during fifteen-day period), identification document number, complete name, sex, age, marital status, nationality, occupation, place and country of origin, final destination, date of entry or departure, type of vehicle in which traveling, date of entry, date of departure (latter columns to determine period of residence), and remarks.

A review of the original tourist cards for persons traveling as tourists who departed from Mexico at Nuevo Laredo on October 3, 1963, disclosed that in no instance did any notation appear on the travel documents to indicate the manner of travel of the bearer or the destination in the United States upon departure from Mexico.

It was observed that on the FM-11 forms, the "destination" of the traveler at the time of departure was completed invariably with the same information as appeared on the tourist card as to place of residence, place of issuance thereof, or a notation that the information was not available.

FM-11 Preparation and Utilization by Mexican Immigration

Inspector JOSE MARIO DEL VALLE of the Inspection Department of the Mexican Ministry of "Gobernacion," who conducted investigation at Nuevo Laredo concerning the travel in Mexico of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised on March 12, 1964, that the typist who prepares the FM-11 has no information available to her other than that which appears on the tourist cards. He stated the typist prepares the FM-11 for persons entering the country from the duplicate copies of the tourist cards which are surrendered to the Immigration official at the time of entry of the traveler. The duplicate tourist cards are then transmitted to the headquarters of the Immigration Department in Mexico, D. F., with the FM-11 form for the fifteen-day period.

In the same manner, the FM-11 form for departures is prepared on the basis of data taken from the original of the tourist card, which is surrendered by the traveler to the Immigration official upon departure from the country.

DEL VALLE acknowledged that the Mexican Immigration Department does not have any major interest in "method of travel" or "destination" of the departing traveler, other than to make certain that the individual who enters the country with an automobile is removing the vehicle upon departure. He added that the typist who prepares the departure FM-11 usually records the means of travel as being the same as that appearing on the tourist card in connection with the traveler's entry to the country; however, in some instances she may "guess" at the means of travel on the basis of the usual assignment at the airport, railroad station, or highway checking station of the Immigration official whose cancellation stamp appears on the tourist card.

On March 13, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Department of Immigration, Ministry of "Gobernacion," and his assistant, EDUARDO RIVAS, made the following comments concerning Mexican Immigration records and procedures:

The "means of travel" and "destination" data appearing on the departure FM-11 forms are not information in which the Mexican Immigration Department has any substantive interest and are filled out by the typist only because the same form is used to record both arrival and departure information. This information with respect to "arrivals" is most essential to assist the Immigration Department in maintaining a record and control of aliens who are in Mexico as temporary residents without authorization to be gainfully employed. There is no source of information from which the typist preparing the FM-11 can obtain data for it other than the tourist cards, data provided to her by the Immigration official who may bundle a group of cards together and label them as having been taken up on a departing train or other vehicle, or her own knowledge of the Immigration station where the cancelling official may have been working during a particular period of time.

Inquiry was made of HERRERA with respect to certain horizontal lines which appear on the FM-11, and he explained that such lines are drawn to delineate between different dates on the same page and also to designate an individual concerning whom some research is being done or a report has been submitted to some section or department of the Ministry of "Gobernacion,"

With respect to the fact that on the copies of the FM-11 which were made available for study and review there appeared under the "Remarks" (No. 16) column considerable data concerning the date and place of issuance of the tourist cards, HERRERA advised that this information did not appear on the originals of the FM-11 which were in his possession, and he was certain that this information had been added on the carbon copy in the office of the Assistant Director of the Department of Immigration, Attorney RAFAEL HERNANDEZ OCHOA, as of possible investigative assistance.

On March 23, 1964, Attorney HERNANDEZ OCHOA produced the carbon copies of the FM-11 forms relating to OSWALD's travel in Mexico, and it was observed that column 16 thereof had been completed in original typing with data from the tourist cards as to date and agency where each tourist card had been issued. HERNANDEZ OCHOA explained that he had issued instructions to a typist in his office to complete the foregoing data from the tourist cards as of possible assistance in the investigation with respect to OSWALD.

With regard to the observation that the date of issuance of OSWALD's tourist card was recorded in column 16 as having taken place on "Sept. 16/63," HERNANDEZ OCHOA stated very definitely that this had been a typographical error on the part of the stenographer, who should have copied the information from OSWALD's tourist card to the effect that it had been issued on September 17, 1963.

V. OTHER INQUIRIES CONCERNING OSWALD'S TRAVEL

(A) Transportes Frontera Bus Line

On November 26, 1963, and again on March 6, 1964, T-1 made available the original passenger list or manifest relating to departure No. 2 of bus No. 340 on October 2, 1963, of the Transportes Frontera, S. A. de C. V. bus line, which has its headquarters in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and its Mexico, D. F. terminal at Calle Buenavista No. 7.

T-1 advised that the above-mentioned passenger list or manifest was evidence that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had departed from Mexico, D. F. on the bus connected therewith, which had left Mexico, D. F. at 1:00 p.m, and was scheduled to arrive at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas (across the border from Laredo, Texas), at 5:30 a.m., October 3, 1963.

The information recorded on the passenger list is handwritten; the names are not complete; and portions of it are not legible; however, the following constitutes an effort to reproduce as clearly as possible the information which appears on the list.

At the top of the manifest the name, Transportes Frontera, is handwritten, and in Spanish the following headings are printed:

RESERVATIONS FOR 13 O'CLOCK,

DESTINATION Laredo, DEPARTURE NO. 2,

ON BUS NO. 340, DATE 2, MONTH, October of 1963.

The underlined portions are blanks which had been completed in ink.

Following the list of passengers is the notation: "9 Laredo, 7 Monterrey."

Handprinted at the bottom of the page appears: "DRIVER, DIONISIO REYNA, FCO. SAUCEDO," as well as the numbers "13 - 2."

On the left-hand margin of the manifest are the handwritten figures, "78" and "16." At the top right-hand corner thereof are the numerals "186," "41" and under these "227." On the backside of the document are the numbers "143.30" and "108.80" and thereunder, as though a column of addition, "255.10."

The following information was made available by T-13 on March 9, 1964:

On March 5, 1964, GILBERTO LOZANO GUIZAR advised that he is the manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes Frontera bus company, Calle Buenavista No. 7, which has a franchise for "through service" between Mexico,

D. F., Monterrey, and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, but is not permitted to sell tickets or pick up passengers at intermediate localities.

LOZANO stated a complete study of Transportes Frontera bus company records and procedures had been made which resulted in the conclusion that the person designated as "OSWLD" on the October 2, 1963, passenger manifest did not purchase a ticket and could not have traveled on the trip to which it relates. He pointed out that the passenger reservations, tickets sold, and passengers actually boarding the bus in Mexico, D. F., are recorded on the form which is provided for that purpose and maintained on a clip board on the counter from which ticket sales normally are made by the ticket salesman and dispatcher, FRANCISCO ALVARADO. He admitted that ALVARADO occasionally is assisted during rush hours or a temporary absence from the counter by the baggage handler, LUCIO LOPEZ MEDINA, who may receive and record reservations on the manifest but does not handle the actual receipt of payment for tickets.

FRANCISCO ALVARADO, ticket salesman and dispatcher for Transportes Frontera, advised that he prepared most of the handwriting on the October 2, 1963, manifest on which the name "OSWLD" and destination "Lared" appear opposite seat No. 4. He stated he did not write the "OSWLD" reservation information and it was his opinion the reservation had been made and the information recorded by the baggage handler, LUCIO LOPEZ. With respect to the manifest for October 2, 1963, ALVARADO furnished the following explanation:

He was quite certain that the individual designated on the list as "OSWLD" did not purchase a ticket and did not travel on the trip relating to that manifest. No ticket number was recorded for that person, and a search of the company's records in Monterrey had failed to locate a ticket stub which was not otherwise accounted for in connection with that particular trip.

ALVARADO and GILBERTO LOZANO stated the notations on the back of the manifest referred to advances of funds made by ALVARADO to LOZANO from the cash for repairs, parts, or other requirements. They related that the passenger lists are not kept as a permanent record, and, when the manifest was located in the "trash" at the request of investigators of the Mexican Presidential Staff, the blanks at the top of the form had not been filled in as to time, destination, trip number, bus number, and date, but they had completed those blanks from their personal knowledge in order to make that data clear to the investigators. They also had listed the names of the drivers on the form at that time. They affirmed that the handwritten "Transportes Frontera" at the top of the document had been added by some official of the Mexican Government after the document was borrowed from them. Both LOZANO and ALVARADO stated they had no recollection of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, could not recognize his photograph as being of an individual who had been at the terminal or traveled on that bus line, and had no personal knowledge with respect to his contacts and activities in Mexico. They could offer no explanation as to how Mexican authorities had arrived at the conclusion that OSWALD traveled on the Transportes Frontera bus of October 2, 1963, but pointed out that, after the name was located on the manifest, they had not been given an opportunity of reviewing or checking the data thereon.

LUCIO LOPEZ MEDINA, baggage and freight handler at Transportes Frontera, related that he often assists the ticket salesman by recording reservations and is quite certain he wrote "OSWLD" and "Lared" opposite seat No. 4 on the passenger manifest of October 2, 1963. He stated he also recorded the reservations and ticket sales to "FCO. SAUCEDO," one of the drivers, opposite seats Nos. 1 and 3, "ANGEL GALLEGOS," seat No. 8, and possibly other items on the manifest. He had no personal recollection of OSWALD, could not recognize his photograph as being of anyone who had been at the bus terminal, and did not believe OSWALD had embarked on the bus in question.

T-12 furnished the following information:

On March 31, 1964, GILBERTO LOZANO GUIZAR, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes Frontera bus company, Calle Buenavista No. 7, Mexico, D. F., emphatically advised that the original passenger list or manifest relating to departure No. 2 of bus No. 340 on October 2, 1963, of the Transportes Frontera bus company, is an authentic record of data pertaining to that particular trip.

LOZANO pointed out that a passenger list is compiled at the Mexico City terminal of the company for trips originating in Mexico City and that following the departure of the bus, information relating to the number of passengers destined to particular points, is radioed ahead to one of the main offices located along the point of travel. In case of the above-described trip, the information was reported by radio to their Monterrey office. LOZANO advised that once the information is relayed ahead and the trip is completed, for all practical purposes they have no further need of conserving the passenger lists as a permanent record.

He advised that officers of the Presidential Staff appeared at the bus terminal shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY, seeking to review passenger lists of the bus company for early October, 1963, and it was found at that time that the completed block of forms for most of the month of October, 1963, which included the above-described passenger list, was still in the baggage room at the terminal prior to being discarded. He stated he had torn the October 2, 1963, manifest from the block of forms and furnished it to one of the officers. LOZANO advised that one Lieutenant ARTURO BOSCH, an investigator of the Presidential Staff, had reviewed the above-described manifest.

LOZANO expressed the opinion that ARTURO BOSCH had filled in the blanks in ink at the top of the form as to the time, destination, trip number, bus number, and date, and had crossed out the date "November 1," replacing it with the notation "October 2" which appeared on the manifest. LOZANO stated BOSCH had done so on the basis of information he and FRANCISCO ALVARADO, the ticket salesman, had furnished to BOSCH as an aid to his investigation of the matter.

LOZANO stated the handprinted notation appearing at the bottom of the manifest, "Driver, DIONISIO REYNA, FCO. SAUCEDO," was also filled in by BOSCH.

LOZANO advised that there definitely was only one section of bus No. 340 which departed Mexico City at 1:00 p.m. on October 2, 1963, en route Monterrey, Mexico, and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. He explained that the notation "Departure 2" appearing on the top of the manifest, which he believed BOSCH had filled out, merely indicates the second departure of a Transportes Frontera bus on that particular day, October 2, 1963. The first departure of one of their buses on that day from the Mexico City terminal occurred at 9:00 a.m. with the terminal point being Monterrey, Mexico. He stated the second departure of a Transportes Frontera bus from the Mexico City terminal on October 2, 1963, was the departure at 1:00 p.m. with the terminal point being Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and the passengers on this bus were recorded on the above-mentioned manifest of October 2, 1963. He stated there were three other departures on that day from the Mexico City terminal, the third departure having occurred at 2:30 p.m. with the terminal point being Matamoros, Tamaulipas, Mexico; the fourth departure having occurred at 9:00 p.m. with terminal point at Nuevo Laredo; and the fifth departure at 10:00 p.m. with terminal point being Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico. LOZANO advised the only bus operating on their line which would have arrived at Nuevo Laredo between the hours of 12:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. on October 3, 1963, is bus No. 340, which departed from the Mexico City terminal at 1:00 p.m. on October 2, 1963.

T-13 and T-21 furnished the information which follows:

On March 25, 1964, FRANCISCO ALVARADO, ticket salesman and dispatcher for the Transportes Frontera bus company at Mexico City, advised that the above-described manifest is an authentic document. He stated he had prepared most of the handwriting on the manifest. With regard to the notations appearing at the top of the manifest as to time, destination, trip number, bus number, and date, he expressed the opinion that those notations were filled in by one of the Presidential Staff investigators who reviewed the manifest at the bus terminal shortly after President KENNEDY's assassination. He advised that the handprinted notation appearing at the bottom of the page of the manifest, "Driver, DIONISIO REYNA, FCO. SAUCEDO," also was made by one of the President Staff investigators, and he believed this person was Lieutenant ARTURO BOSCH.

On March 25, 1964, FRANCISCO SAUCEDO, bus driver for the Transportes Frontera bus company, advised in Mexico City that he had been one of the bus drivers who had driven the Transportes Frontera bus No. 340 on October 2, 1963, which departed Mexico City at 1:00 p.m. on that day en route to Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo. He stated seats No. 1 and No. 3 on that bus had been reserved by him under tickets No. 39633 and No. 39634; however, he did not recall for whom he had made the reservations. He said that on occasion he reserves seats in advance for friends or relatives but never does so for anyone with whom he is not acquainted. He could not recall who had utilized those seats on that particular day. He stated he was certain that seats No. 1 and No. 3 were not used by OSWALD or ANGEL PEREZ.

On March 25, 1964, DIONISIO REYNA, who was co-driver with SAUCEDO on Transportes Frontera bus No. 340 of October 2, 1963, advised at Mexico City that he could furnish no information regarding the individuals who had utilized seats No. 1 and No. 3 on the trip in question. REYNA stated he was quite certain that OSWALD did not travel on that particular bus.

(B) Inquiry at Flecha Roja Bus Terminal

On March 7, 1964, JESUS SAUCEDO, comptroller at the terminal of the Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) bus company, Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico City, advised that the full and complete name of the company is Servicios Unidos Autobuses Blancos, Flecha Roja, S. A. de C. V. (The Unified Services of White Autobuses Red Arrow, Incorporated) and that it provides bus service to numerous localities within Mexico, as well as to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Laredo, Texas. He explained that two trips daily are made to Nuevo Laredo and Laredo, where the line makes connection with the Continental Trailways Bus System of the United States, departures from Mexico City being scheduled for 3:15 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. each day and arrival at Nuevo Laredo 19 hours later.

SAUCEDO advised that a passenger list is prepared in duplicate for reservations and ticket sales for a given trip; the original is carried by the driver, and the carbon copy is transmitted to him for final checking and auditing of the operation in connection with each bus.

With the assistance of SAUCEDO, a search was made of the passenger manifests of the company for all trips to Laredo for October 1, 2, and 3, 1963, without locating any information identifiable with the name LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

(C) OSWALD's Time of Arrival in Mexico City

T-12 advised as follows:

On April 16, 1964, JULIO CASTRO, employee of the accounting department in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line, Mexico, D. F., made available the ledger of arrivals at Mexico, D. F., for the Flecha Roja buses. The ledger records separate entries for each day, with the exact time of arrival of each bus in Mexico, D. F., at the terminal.

This ledger disclosed that bus No. 516 of the Flecha Roja bus line, which made the trip from Nuevo Laredo, to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963, arrived at the Flecha Roja bus terminal, Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico, D. F., at 10:00 a.m. on September 27, 1963.

(D) Efforts to Locate Flecha Roja Passenger List

T-12 furnished the following information:

On March 19, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, manager of the Flecha Roja bus terminal, Mexico, D. F., advised that the original passenger manifest of bus No. 516 which had traveled from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., on September 26-27, 1963, had been borrowed by investigators of the Mexican Government soon after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He could not recall the identities of the investigators and did not know whether or not they intended to return the list. SAUCEDO stated the duplicate copy of this passenger list was maintained in the office of the Flecha Roja bus line at Nuevo Laredo and he would attempt to obtain this copy.

On March 24, 1964, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO stated he had determined from the Flecha Roja bus line office in Nuevo Laredo that the duplicate copy of the passenger list for bus No. 516 also had been borrowed by unidentified investigators of the Mexican Government and had not been returned.

SAUCEDO stated he had assisted the Mexican Government investigators in searching for the passenger list relating to the trip of September 26-27, 1963, and was quite certain the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear thereon. He added, however, that the Flecha Roja bus line makes connection at Laredo, Texas, with the Continental Trailways bus line in the United States, and if a passenger who had purchased a through ticket to Mexico, D. F., from a point within the United States were to board the Flecha Roja line at Laredo or Nuevo Laredo, no record of that passenger by name would be made on the passenger list. He explained that the passenger list would include a seat designation and ticket number in the name of "Continental."

T-12 advised that on April 2, 1964, and thereafter, ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO furnished the following additional data:

He recalled that shortly after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY two investigators, whom he described as being with the "Policia Federal Judicial" (Federal Judicial Police), appeared at the Flecha Roja terminal, Mexico, D. F., and requested the original passenger list of bus No. 516 of September 26, 1963, for review. SAUCEDO remembered that the two investigators examined the passenger lists, filed by dates, in a storeroom at the offices of the Flecha Roja bus terminal and found the original copy for the pertinent date and borrowed same. He could not recall the names of the investigators or the exact date they appeared at the office.

SAUCEDO now recalled clearly that these two investigators, whom he could only describe as being "in their thirties," had the duplicate copy of the passenger list which apparently had been at the Flecha Roja bus terminal office in Nuevo Laredo when the trip for September 26, 1963, began. The investigators stated they wanted the original list because the duplicate copy was not completely legible. SAUCEDO stated they had the original and duplicate copy of the passenger manifest for Flecha Roja bus No. 516 for September 26, 1963, when they left.

SAUCEDO stated the investigators did exhibit to him government credentials, agency not recalled, and advised they were interested only in finding the passenger list for the incoming trip of bus No. 516 on September 26, 1963. When SAUCEDO asked them if they were interested in locating a departure trip, they stated they were not, explaining they had just been at the bus terminal of Transportes Frontera in Mexico, D. F., where they had located the passenger list for OSWALD's departure from Mexico.

On April 9, 1964, JULIO CASTRO, an employee of the accounting department in the offices of the Flecha Roja bus line terminal, Mexico, D. F., made available on instructions of ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO the original passenger lists of the Flecha Roja bus line, which were kept in a storeroom across the hall from the accounting office and were maintained in a disorganized manner, bound with heavy string in bundles and stored in bins.

The available bundles for the period September and October, 1963, were reviewed without locating a passenger list for bus No. 516 relating to September 26, 1963.

During this search and review, an untied, loose bundle dated October 5, 1963, was located thrown aside in a cardboard box on the floor of the storage room outside the bin area. This bundle was reviewed and found to include passenger lists for dates September 21, 1963, to October 5, 1963, but no passenger list for bus No. 516 for September 26, 1963, was found.

The information hereinunder was furnished by T-13:

On March 24, 1963, Captain FERNANDO GUTIERREZ BARRIOS, Assistant Director of the Mexican Federal Security Police (DFS), advised that his agency had conducted no investigation in connection with the travel in Mexico of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and did not have in its possession any passenger lists from any bus lines.

On April 14, 1964, the fact the passenger lists of the September 26, 1963, Flecha Roja trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., had never appeared and were alleged to be in the hands of an unidentified investigative agency of the Mexican Government was brought to the attention of the Acting Minister of Government, Attorney LUIS ECHEVERRIA, who issued instructions to the Chief of the Inspection Department of the Immigration Service, Attorney SANTIAGO IBANEZ LLAMAS, to make every effort to locate the passenger list described above.

On May 1, 1964, Inspector JOSE MARIO DEL VALLE advised that he had been instructed to attempt to locate the Flecha Roja passenger list and was making every effort to do so.

(E) Transportes del Norte Passengers Originating in Guadalajara

On April 3, 1964, T-8 advised that the Linea Azul (Blue Line) bus company affords service from Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, to San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, to make connections with Transportes del Norte for possible further travel to Monterrey and Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. According to T-8, a reservations list for the October 2, 1963, 8:00 a.m. departure of the Blue Line bus from Guadalajara with San Luis Potosi as its destination reflects the following information as best the names and other data thereon could be deciphered:

Name of Passenger	Destination	Ticket No.
HILDA QUEZADA	N. Laredo	77898
----- (*)	-----	99
JOSE CRUZ	Monterrey	00751
HILDA QUEZADA	N. Laredo	77900 ½ ()
CECILIO CARDENAZ	Monterrey	00749
JOSE MAZO	San Luis	14128
VICTORIA MAGALLANES	(apparently did not travel)
MAXIMINO ESQUIVEL	Monterrey	00752
PEDRO GLEZ. (GONZALEZ)	Monterrey	00753
AURELIO HDEZ. (HERNANDEZ)	San Luis	1362

(* Lines indicate second passenger or seat reserved in name of preceding passenger)
( ½ indicates half fare paid)

Comprehensive investigation, including a check of the files of the United States Consulate visa records, a check of telephone directories, and numerous interviews of persons listed in the telephone directories with similar names, were conducted at Guadalajara for the above names of persons traveling beyond San Luis Potosi, without identifying anyone who had been a passenger of Transportes del Norte on October 2, 1963.

(F) Transportes del Norte Bus Line Operation, Monterrey

The following information was furnished by T-18.

On April 19, 1964, RAMON TREVINO QUEZADA, vice president and manager of the Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, terminal of Transportes del Norte bus line, advised that tickets are taken up by the driver from passengers at the time they board the bus, and he deposits them in a manila envelope, which is provided for that purpose in connection with each trip of a unit and driver. He stated the driver makes a notation on the outside of the envelope as to the number of passengers traveling over a determined section of the route, and the tickets inside the envelope should coincide or balance with the notation by the driver on the envelope.

With respect to the records of the company for the trip of bus No. 373 on October 2, 1963, from Monterrey to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Laredo, Texas, TREVINO advised that he was unable to explain the fact that the envelope carries the figure of "12" passengers from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, to Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, and Laredo, Texas, and "1" passenger from Nuevo Laredo to Laredo, although a total of "20" ticket sections were in the envelope for that particular trip. He stated, however, that the notation by the driver is a clerical function which he handles during the trip, often at night and under considerable stress and pressure, and he can only conclude that the driver made an error in writing "12" rather than "19" upon completing his collection of tickets and delivering the envelope at the conclusion of his run.

It was mentioned to TREVINO that the baggage manifest for the bus which arrived at Nuevo Laredo in the early morning of October 3, 1963, had listed the number of that bus as No. 396, and he advised that this notation could only be a clerical error by the baggage handler. He displayed a copy of a document referred to as a "traffic report" for Transportes del Norte at its Nuevo Laredo terminal for October 3, 1963, which recorded that bus No. 373 had arrived at that terminal at 1:35 a.m. with A. IBARRA as the driver. The "traffic report" for October 2, 1963, registered the arrival of bus No. 396 at Nuevo Laredo as having taken place at 15:30 (3:30 p.m.) on that date and its departure from Nuevo Laredo for Monterrey was recorded on the report for the following day as having occurred at 2:30 a.m. He pointed out that on the basis of the foregoing records, bus No. 396 would still have been at the Nuevo Laredo terminal at the time of arrival on October 3, 1963, of bus No. 373, and he assumed the baggage handler had become confused between them when he made the erroneous notation on the baggage manifest.

(G) Ticketing Procedures by Transportes del Norte Bus Line

The following information was furnished by T-13.

On April 20, 1964, RAMON MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, advised that this company is affiliated with the Greyhound Lines in the United States and is authorized and in a position to sell transportation to any point in the United States. He stated that until approximately one year ago the sale of bus transportation in the United States in behalf of Greyhound Lines had been effected through a system of exchange or purchase orders; however, in the interest of simplifying the sales and accounting procedures, Transportes del Norte ticket counters are now stocked with Greyhound Lines tickets and make direct sales in behalf of Greyhound, as well as its own facilities. He stated very definitely that the only record as to the identity of any person purchasing Greyhound transportation through a Transportes del Norte ticket counter would be the recording of the seat reservation on a passenger list at the point of origin or purchase of the ticket.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS INQUIRIES AT MEXICO CITY CONCERNING OSWALD

(A) Telephone Numbers in Oswald's Address Book

T-13 advised that the following notations appeared in the personal address book of LEE HARVEY OSWALD (translations of the Spanish language items appear in parentheses):

Mexico City

Consulado de Cuba

T-13 furnished the following information on May 1, 1964:

The directory of the Mexican Telephone Company for the Federal District (Mexican Federal Capital, which includes Mexico City) published in September, 1963, column 2, page 119, records: "CONSULADO de Cuba, Zamora y F. Marquez (names of cross Streets), (telephone) 11-28-47."

Column 1, page 157, of the same directory reflects: "EMBAJADA de la Union de las Republicas Sovieticas Socialistas en Mexico (Embassy of the Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics in Mexico), Czda. Tacubaya (Calzada meaning highway or street) 204, Agregado Militar (Military Attache)...(telephone) 15-69-87, Depto. de Asuntos Consulares (Department of Consular Affairs), C. B. Zetina (street name) 12...(telephone) 15-61-55."

Column 4, page 112, of the above-mentioned directory records the following: "CIA. CUBANA DE AVIACION, S. A., (Cuban Aviation Company, Incorporated) PASEO DE LA REFORMA 56... (telephone) 35-79-00." In addition to the foregoing, which is indicated as being equipped with two direct lines, the following additional telephone numbers are listed: 46-75-04, 46-61-64, 46-61-27, and 35-79-09.

The April 1, 1964, issue of the "Diario Oficial" ("Official Daily"), which states on the cover that it is the "Organ of the Constitutional Government of the United States of Mexico," records as emanating from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs the "List of the Diplomatic Corps Accredited to the Government of the United States of Mexico." On page 15 of the above-described publication under "Union de Republicas Socialistas Sovieticas" (Union of the Soviet Socialist Republics) is recorded the data: "Cancilleria y residencia: (Chancellery and residence) Calzada de Tacubaya 204, Telefonos: (Telephones) 15-60-55 y (and) 15-61-55." The foregoing data is followed by a listing of names and residence addresses of the Soviet diplomatic officials and their wives.

T-16, who is in a position to be well-informed with respect to the day-to-day operations of the Mexico City ticket offices of the "Compania Cubana de Aviacion" (Cuban Aviation Company - commonly referred to as "Cubana Airlines"), furnished the following information on April 18, 1964:

Most of the office employees at the Cubana Airlines ticket office, Paseo de la Reforma 56, Mexico City, are Mexican citizens and are opposed to the present revolutionary regime in Cuba of FIDEL CASTRO. Source advised that he would have an excellent possibility of being informed of any visits or inquiries made at the Cubana Airlines offices by an American, and he is thoroughly convinced that LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not appear at those offices during late September and early October, 1963, within the regular working hours. Source viewed various photographs of OSWALD and also consulted with associates at the Cubana Airlines office and reiterated his conviction that OSWALD had not been at those offices at any time.

This source confirmed that the published and most used telephone number for the Cubana Airlines office is 35-79-00.

(B) Possibility OSWALD Sent or Received Money

T-11 reported that on January 13, 1964, ALFONSO FRIAS, Assistant Chief of the Bank of Mexico Police at Mexico, D. F., Mexico, advised that a check of the records of "Telegrafos Nacionales" failed to disclose any record of money sent or received by OSWALD during the time he was in Mexico through use of communications channels handled by that telegraph system.

On March 6, 1964, FRIAS advised that all banks in Mexico, including all branch banks, were checked officially for LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his aliases of O. H. LEE and ALEK JAMES HIDELL, and no information was developed that OSWALD had received or sent any money through those banks during the time he was in Mexico.

(C) Inquiries at Hotel Cuba

PATRICIA WINSTON and PAMELA MUMFORD, who were passengers on the same bus with OSWALD from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, to Mexico, D. F., September 26-27, 1963, when interviewed on December 17, 1963, related that during the bus trip OSWALD recommended that they stay at the Hotel Cuba in Mexico City. They related that OSWALD claimed he had stayed at that hotel several times before and pointed out that the hotel was inexpensive, mentioning, however, that he was not staying at the Hotel Cuba during his current trip.

Inquiry was conducted to establish whether OSWALD had, in fact, stayed at the Hotel Cuba during a period following his return to the United States from Russia in June, 1962 to November, 1963.

On December 27, 1963, T-4 advised that an exhaustive search of the records of the Hotel Cuba located at Calle Republica de Cuba No. 69, Mexico City, for the period June, 1962, to October, 1963, failed to disclose any registration for OSWALD under his name or known aliases,

T-12 advised as follows:

On March 11, 1964, ANGEL CELORIO, manager, Hotel Cuba, made available records of that hotel, which were rechecked for the period June 9, 1962, to November 22, 1963, and no record could be located for the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his known aliases O. H. LEE and ALEK JAMES HIDELL. The records did contain a registration for one ROBERTO LEE, who registered at the hotel on August 11, 1963, was assigned room No. 27, and checked out of the hotel on August 21, 1963. No further identifying data regarding this LEE was contained in the records. (OSWALD had been reported as being at New Orleans, Louisiana, during that period.)

CELORIO advised he has been at the Hotel Cuba only since November 11, 1963, when he became manager, and prior thereto, JOSE SANCHEZ, who is presently associated with another hotel in Mexico City, served as manager for about a four-month period and Mr. RAFAEL AVALOS, also now employed at another hotel in Mexico City, had served as manager for a number of years.

On March 12, 1964, both RAFAEL AVALOS, manager, Hotel Congreso, Calle de Allende No. 18, Mexico, D. F., and JOSE SANCHEZ, manager, Hotel Catedral, Calle Donceles No. 95, Mexico, D. F., viewed a photograph of OSWALD, and both advised they could not recognize the photograph as being of anyone who stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the time they were managing the hotel. Both were of the opinion that if OSWALD had stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the time they were in charge there, they would have recalled him. Neither could furnish any pertinent information regarding the possibility OSWALD may have stayed at the Hotel Cuba in the past.

AVALOS related he had served as manager at the Hotel Cuba for a number of years until July, 1962, and SANCHEZ stated he had managed the Hotel Cuba from June 1, 1963, to November 11, 1963. SANCHEZ stated that during the period July, 1962, to June 1, 1963, when he became manager, the administration of the hotel had been disorganized and there was no permanent manager. He stated that JESUS HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ and his brother, HIGINIO HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, both of whom he believed were still employed at the Hotel Cuba, would most logically be the persons in the best position to know whether or not OSWALD stayed at the Hotel Cuba during the period July, 1962, to June 1, 1963.

JESUS HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, room clerk, Hotel Cuba, advised on March 13, 1964, that he has been employed as room clerk at that hotel for several years. He stated that during the period from July, 1962, to June 1, 1963, when the hotel had no permanent manager, he and his brother, HIGINIO HERNANDEZ SANCHEZ, performed the administrative functions at the hotel and had most contact with the guests.

HERNANDEZ viewed a photograph of OSWALD and stated he could not recall ever seeing him. He further stated he could not recognize the photograph as being of any person who had been at the Hotel Cuba during the time he has been employed there. He advised that several months ago he and his brother, HIGINIO, had been shown a photograph of OSWALD by a local police official, and at that time both he and his brother were unable to recognize the photograph of OSWALD as being of any person who had stayed at the hotel during the period they had been working there. He added that following the publicity arising from the assassination of President KENNEDY, seeing OSWALD's photograph in the newspapers, and after viewing a photograph of OSWALD exhibited by the police official mentioned above, he and his brother had discussed the matter and had agreed they could not recall OSWALD's ever having stayed at the Hotel Cuba.

(D) Jai Alai in Mexico City

T-12 advised in connection with the possibility that OSWALD might have attended a jai alai game in Mexico, D. F., that the "Mexico City Daily Bulletin," a free English publication circulated at hotels, motels, drug stores, and tourist-type stores in Mexico, D. F., lists daily the following as a sport event of interest:

"Jai alai, the ancient game from Spain, can be seen every day but Monday at Fronton Mexico, Plaza de la Republica, at 7:30 p.m. (men players) and every afternoon except Thursday at 4:30 p.m. at Fronton Metropolitano, Bahia Todos Santos 190 (women players). Parimutuel betting at both."

T-12 provided the following data:

On March 19, 1964, GUADALUPE GAYTAN SANCHEZ, caretaker and resident at the Fronton Mexico, Plaza de la Republica No. 3, Mexico, D. F., for thirty years, was unable to identify the photograph of OSWALD. GAYTAN SANCHEZ stated that ENRIQUE MARTINEZ DE VILLAGRAN has been the doorman at the Fronton Mexico for twenty years and, as such, observes every person who enters to determine that this person is properly dressed and not the type who might cause a disturbance at the jai alai game.

On March 19, 1964, ENRIQUE MARTINEZ DE VILLAGRAN was unable to identify OSWALD's photograph, but stated the photograph appeared similar to an American who had entered the Fronton Mexico five or six months previously on several occasions for a period of a week and a day. He was not certain the American could be identical with OSWALD nor did he have any specific information about the American, his whereabouts, or his background.

On March 20, 1964, IGNACIO VADILLO B., the general cashier for the Fronton Metropolitano, Bahia Todos Santos No. 190, Mexico, D. F., stated jai alai is not played at this Fronton. The game played there is Fron-Tenis, which differs from jai alai in that the players do not use a cesta (a basket fastened to the hand of the player), but a racket similar to a tennis racket is used.

VADILLO B. stated few, if any, Americans frequent the Fronton Metropolitano and those who do so are usually remembered. VADILLO B. was unable to identify the photograph of OSWALD as an American who might have been at the Fronton Metropolitano. He suggested that OSWALD's photograph be displayed to ESQUIEL TAPIA ROMERO, an Inspector for the Treasury Department of the Federal District of Mexico, because TAPIA ROMERO is always on duty at the front door of the Fronton Metropolitano to observe all customers as they enter.

ESQUIEL TAPIA ROMERO viewed the photograph of OSWALD on March 20, 1964, and stated definitely that OSWALD had not been at the Fronton Metropolitano.

(E) OSWALD's Luggage

The following information was furnished by T-13:

On May 4, 1964, JUAN PEREZ GONZALEZ advised that he is the chief of the baggage department at the terminal of the Flecha Roja bus line, Calle Heroes Ferrocarrileros No. 45, Mexico, D. F. PEREZ viewed photographs of an olive-colored, "B-4" bag with yellow chalk or crayon markings on one side which appeared to be "9/26" and possibly an initial, of fragments of stickers and tags thereon, and of a blue, zippered handbag and affirmed that he has no recollection of those pieces of luggage and did not recognize any of the markings, stickers or tags as being in any way connected with the Flecha Roja operations. He stated, however, that he recently entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo with a small, zippered handbag of canvas material, and when he went through Mexican Customs, the Inspector placed a green chalk or crayon marking on the bag to indicate it had been inspected.

PEREZ displayed the various photographs to the baggage handlers on duty at the terminal, and they stated they were unable to recall the luggage in question or make any explanation of the tags, stickers and inscriptions on them.

On May 8, 1964, the manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte bus line, Insurgentes Sur No. 137, viewed the photographs mentioned above and advised that he did not have any recollection with respect to the two pieces of luggage described above nor did he believe that any of the fragments of stickers and tags thereon were connected in any way with the Transportes del Norte baggage handling procedures. He expressed the belief that the yellow chalk markings on the olive-colored bag were typical of the method used by Mexican Customs Inspectors at Nuevo Laredo to mark luggage upon completing examination thereof in lieu of a sticker which they sometimes use.

The manager, RICARDO MEDINA BELTRAN, displayed the photographs to the baggage handlers on duty, and they affirmed that they were unable to recognize either piece of luggage in connection with any passenger but stated unanimously that they recognized the crayon or chalk markings on the olive-colored bag as typical of the inspection procedure of Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo. MEDINA also displayed the photographs to several Transportes del Norte drivers, and they were of the opinion that the yellow inscriptions on the olive-colored bag had been placed there by the Mexican Customs Inspector at Nuevo Laredo.

On May 4, 1964, SEBASTIAN PEREZ HERNANDEZ, assistant desk clerk at the Hotel del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico City, advised that he could not recognize the photographs of either the olive-colored or the blue-colored luggage as having been in the possession of a guest at that hotel.

On May 8, 1964, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, owner of the Hotel del Comercio, affirmed that he was unable to recognize the photographs of the two bags as having any connection with OSWALD or any other guest at the Hotel del Comercio.

MATILDE GARNICA, maid at the Hotel del Comercio, who claimed to remember OSWALD as a guest at the hotel in room No. 18, examined the photographs of the luggage on May 8, 1964, and stated she recognized the small, blue, zippered handbag as the luggage which OSWALD had in his room at the hotel. She pointed out that she had been impressed by the fact that he had very few personal effects, had noticed he did some laundry each day and left the wet articles hanging in the bathroom, and she was quite certain she had not seen the larger, olive-colored bag.

On May 9, 1964, PEDRO RODRIGUEZ LEDESMA, night watchman at the Hotel del Comercio, examined the photographs referred to above and stated he was quite certain OSWALD had been carrying the blue handbag on the morning of his departure from the hotel. He claimed to be unable to definitely affirm that OSWALD had been carrying the olive-colored bag, as he could not remember several of its characteristics, but he expressed the firm conviction that OSWALD had been carrying two pieces of luggage. He related that on the morning of his departure, OSWALD carried his own luggage down the two flights of stairs and waited in the reception area while RODRIGUEZ went in search of a taxi.

When RODRIGUEZ returned with the taxi, he carried the luggage from the reception area to the taxi, but still has the strong impression that he had a bag in each hand. RODRIGUEZ admitted his recollection of the type and color of the luggage is very hazy, and he does not wish to state definitely that he recognizes the photograph of either piece of luggage in connection with OSWALD.

(F) Arrest, Interrogation and Physical Condition of SILVIA DURAN

With respect to the alleged arrest of SILVIA T. DURAN, the Mexico City daily newspaper "Novedades" for November 30, 1963, page 1, published an article, translated from Spanish as follows:

"Gobernacion (Interior) advises concerning case of Mrs. SILVIA T. DURAN

"The Ministry of Gobernacion advised last night that Mrs. SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, who was interviewed concerning the possibility that she might have had dealings with LEE HARVEY OSWALD during his stay in our country as a tourist, was not located at the Cuban Consulate, nor did she request authorization to serve a foreign government, and that in view thereof, the investigation which was made was not in respect to her status as an employee of the Cuban Consulate in Mexico.

"It (the announcement) concluded by saying that the woman in question agreed to go to the office to which she was summoned and she was interrogated without any force whatsoever."

On December 9, 1963, DAVID ALKON appeared voluntarily at the United States Embassy, Mexico City, identified himself as an architect residing at Calle Fernandez Gonzalez Roa No. 47, Ciudad Satelite, State of Mexico, and furnished the following information to T-2:

ALKON is a designer of residential homes and has a business arrangement with one HORACIO DURAN for the interior decoration of houses designed by ALKON. DURAN is the husband of SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN.

ALKON stated he has no social association with DURAN but understands DURAN is procommunist and often holds Marxist discussions in his home. ALKON advised that DURAN had mentioned to him that his wife had been detained and questioned by Mexico City police about her knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. DURAN told ALKON his wife knew OSWALD because the latter had been to the Cuban Embassy in an attempt to secure a visa for travel to Cuba. ALKON gained the impression that the wife was not well-acquainted with OSWALD, but only recalled he had been at the Cuban Embassy after she read of the assassination of President KENNEDY. ALKON advised that it was his impression that the wife's contact with OSWALD related only to the application for a visa and that her contact with him was very slight.

ALKON said that DURAN commented to him that he thought it was a mistake for Cuba to protest to Mexico about his wife's being questioned by Mexican authorities, since the latter had a perfect right to question her about her knowledge of OSWALD. According to press reports, the Cuban Government presented a very strong note of protest to the Mexican Ambassador in Havana with regard to the detention and questioning of SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN by Mexican authorities, and this note was rejected by the Mexican Government because of the unacceptable language utilized therein.

On April 4, 1964, the following information was provided by T-13:

WILLIAM D. SHANAHAN, Editor of the Mexico City daily English-language newspaper, "The News," related that on April 3, 1964, DANIEL NAVA RAMOS, reporter for the Mexico City daily, "Novedades," had attempted to contact SILVIA DURAN and her husband, HORACIO DURAN, at their residence in an effort to obtain human interest material for a newspaper article he was writing with respect to the OSWALD case. NAVA had experienced considerable difficulty in seeing the DURANs and was allowed to enter their apartment with the understanding that he remain no longer than fifteen minutes. He was not permitted to speak directly to SILVIA DURAN and was advised by her husband that she had suffered a nervous breakdown following her interrogation by Mexican authorities and had been prohibited by her physician and DURAN, himself, from discussing the OSWALD matter further.

(G) ELIZABETH CATLETT MORA's Concern About OSWALD's Activities

T-22, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows on December 6, 1963:

ELIZABETH CATLETT MORA, also known as BETTY MORA, was very upset and excited over the involvement of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as the reported assassin of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

MORA had indicated that the Communist Party of Mexico was very interested in obtaining all information available concerning OSWALD's travel to Mexico and particularly data as to how much American authorities knew about this.

MORA had stated also that OSWALD could be linked "to Mexico" only through his activities before his trip to the Soviet Union. She was very interested in obtaining information concerning the date that OSWALD departed for Russia and stated that she considered it "terribly important" to obtain any press references to OSWALD's activities in New Orleans, Louisiana, before he went to Russia. She added that if something regarding OSWALD's activities at that time appeared in the press, it could "blow the lid off and we could all get fried."

MORA stated that she could not understand why the investigation of OSWALD as reported to the present time in the press had not focused on New Orleans, Louisiana, rather than Dallas, Texas.

MORA affirmed that OSWALD was well known in Russia among the Americans who were there at the same time as he and that he was "not that much of a nut," meaning that he could not have undertaken singly to assassinate President KENNEDY.

MORA stated that one MARY LOUISE PATTERSON, also known as MARY LOU PATTERSON, whom she described as presently residing in the Soviet Union and attending the "Friendship School" there, knew OSWALD while he was in Russia. Source advised that MARY LOUISE PATTERSON allegedly is an American from New York, New York, who now is married to a Cuban, name unknown to the source, whom MARY LOUISE PATTERSON met while living at the Friendship House in Moscow. MARY LOUISE PATTERSON is her maiden name and she and her husband reportedly are planning to move from Russia to Cuba.

MARY LOUISE CAMACHO, nee PATTERSON, born March 15, 1943, Chicago, Illinois, is the daughter of WILLIAM L. PATTERSON, Chairman of the New York State Communist Party (CP), and she is presently residing in the Soviet Union with her husband, ROBERTO CAMACHO. Although not known to have been formally a CP member, CAMACHO is apparently accepted as such and is being groomed for Party leadership responsibilities in the future. Her participation in CP sponsored and endorsed Marxist Youth activities, her attendance at and participation in other CP celebrations and activities, her attendance at the Patrice Lumumba University in Moscow, her unauthorized travel to Red China, and other participation in communist-type activities further this conclusion.

Source advised on January 6, 1964, that MORA was ill and would not discuss the OSWALD case with anyone.

On January 13, 1964, source advised that MORA had made a statement that OSWALD "walked in cold" to the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and the first person he talked to was TERESA PROENZA, Cultural Attache of the Cuban Embassy.

MORA further stated that as PROENZA did not speak English she turned OSWALD over to the nearest person, not identified by MORA, but described as being of higher rank and knowing English. MORA said that PROENZA allegedly made the statement that the purpose of OSWALD's visit to the Cuban Embassy was to obtain a visa to go to Russia.

On February 6, 1964, source advised that on January 23, 1964, MORA continued to be ill with an extraordinary amount of eye trouble. Source advised on March 7, 1964, that MORA was still ill and would not discuss the OSWALD matter any further with anyone.

Source described ELIZABETH CATLETT MORA as a naturalized Mexican citizen of American origin who formerly was a member of the Communist Party, USA, who now is a member of the "Partido Comunista Mexicano" (PCM - Communist Party of Mexico) and who on occasion has acted as liaison between the PCM and the American Communist Group in Mexico (ACGM).

> The published statutes of the PCM state: "The Communist Party of Mexico has as its final objectives to construct socialism and to build the communist society in Mexico."
> The ACGM is a loose association of a predominantly social nature of present and/or past members of the Communist Party, USA, and their friends and associates who share a common sympathy for communism and the Soviet Union.

T-22 reported that as a result of the assassination of President KENNEDY and the publication of the facts concerning OSWALD's leftist connections and his prior residence in the Soviet Union, many members of the ACGM were extremely fearful, expecting police harassment of all leftists.

Source identified CHARLES SMALL, true name CHARLES NELSON SMOLIKOFF, who was born in Brooklyn, New York, on March 16, 1911, as being one of the most prominent associates of the ACGM. According to the source, SMALL is a United States citizen who resides in Mexico, D. F., and operates a tourist-type store at Calle Niza No. 47, where he sells silver jewelry and other gift items. Source stated that SMALL resided in Miami, Florida, from 1939 to October, 1954, when he moved to Mexico.

T-22 learned that in mid-December, 1963, SMALL had expressed concern that OSWALD might have visited his store in Mexico, as "many American communists, when in Mexico, D. F., appear at his store." According to source, SMALL stated that when accounts of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's involvement in the assassination of President KENNEDY first appeared in the Mexican press, he consulted his personal records (for information about OSWALD.) Source reported that SMALL did not indicate the results of the check of his records and did not indicate that he recognized OSWALD from newspaper photographs or that he was familiar with his name.

T-22 advised that in the past some, but not all, American communists visiting Mexico, D. F., have appeared at SMALL's place of business, and SMALL has assisted these individuals in connection with their problems while in Mexico, D. F.

According to source, SMALL had mentioned that it was fortunate that during the period OSWALD was in Mexico, according to the Mexican newspaper accounts, he, SMALL, was away from Mexico and in the United States. Source advised that SMALL departed from Mexico on September 15, 1963, for New York, New York, with his son, DENNIS, to visit his parents. T-22 expressed the belief that in mid-December SMALL was building up a defense against any possible questioning by Mexican police. Source explained that SMALL previously expressed fear of possible Mexican police interrogation as early as the latter part of June, 1963, indicating he did not know what difficulty he would encounter during his proposed trip to the United States.

Source further advised that in late December, 1963, SMALL claimed he had been carrying his "red book" at all times since the publicity of the travel of OSWALD in Mexico, because he momentarily expected to be arrested by the Mexican police, and his "red book" would prove he was in the United States at the time of OSWALD's presence in Mexico. According to T-22, SMALL felt he would eliminate any trouble from the Mexican police if he were able to convince them that he was in the United States at the time OSWALD was in Mexico.

T-22 understood that in mentioning his "red book" SMALL had reference to his Mexican Immigration document attesting to his immigrant status in Mexico. Source added that a record is maintained in this booklet or carnet of departures from and arrivals in Mexico of the bearer, and in the past it has been accepted in the ACGM that "for a few hundred pesos" it is possible to have a record made of absence from Mexico without actually effecting any travel.

In early January, 1964, according to source, SMALL continued to worry that he might have known OSWALD at some time and that OSWALD might have visited his store while in Mexico, D. F. Source stated SMALL had no definite information in this regard and was only speculating on the matter. Source was unable to develop any specific information to indicate that SMALL might actually have known OSWALD, that SMALL knew anyone who knew OSWALD, or that OSWALD had visited SMALL's store in Mexico, D. F. Source considered SMALL's concern about the possibility that OSWALD might have visited his store to be part of the general concern of members of the ACGM after reading that OSWALD had been in Mexico.

In connection with the possibility that a silver-colored bracelet considered to be of Japanese origin was given by OSWALD to his wife, MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD, upon his return to Dallas, Texas, from Mexico, about October 3, 1963, T-22 advised on February 18, 1964, that SMALL was not known to handle imported Japanese merchandise in his store in Mexico, D. F., which merchandise would be similar to the type of bracelet given to Mrs. OSWALD and added as follows:

Post cards had never been observed on sale in SMALL's store at any time, and this would seem to obviate OSWALD's having purchased at SMALL's store six colored post cards depicting scenes in Mexico, which reportedly were among OSWALD's possessions. On February 18, 1964, SMALL had not been known to have available for sale or distribution any pamphlets exactly like or similar to the pamphlet reportedly located among OSWALD's possessions with the inscription on the cover page: "Hipodromo de las Americas, S. A., Mexico, D. F."

Source advised that additional inquiries would be made at SMALL's store for any possibility that OSWALD could have purchased or obtained the above-mentioned bracelet, post cards, and/or pamphlet at his store and that a check also would be made for these items at the four known outlets of Japanese merchandise in Mexico, D. F.

On February 19, 1964, source advised that careful review had been made of all the bracelets in SMALL's store, and none of these was of Japanese origin or appeared in any way similar to a photograph of the above-mentioned bracelet.

According to T-22, complete verification had been made of previous observations that no post cards exist and none are sold at SMALL's store in Mexico, D. F.

T-22 advised that the six colored post cards depicting various scenes in Mexico which were in OSWALD's possession were designed and manufactured by one FISCHGRUND, one of the two largest manufacturers of post cards in Mexico and that these post cards are sold in a great number of stores in Mexico.

Source stated that a check of four known outlets of Japanese merchandise in Mexico, D. F., was made and that these outlets do not handle any type of bracelet which would be similar to the one which OSWALD gave his wife.

T-23, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that 244 stores, including jewelry stores, tourist-type gift shops, and stores handling silverware in Mexico, D. F., were contacted during the period March 6 through 13, 1964, without locating any store which carries the type of bracelet which OSWALD gave his wife.

This source concluded that OSWALD could not have purchased the bracelet in Mexico since the import tax on such an article not manufactured in Mexico would be prohibitive for resale at a profit, unless OSWALD bought it from an ambulatory street vendor, in which case the bracelet might have been smuggled into Mexico by a Japanese sailor at the port of Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico. If the latter occurred, OSWALD might have had a problem upon presenting the bracelet to an engraver in Mexico because he would have been handling smuggled merchandise.

T-24, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, contacted 59 stores in Mexico, D. F., during the period March 7 through 14, 1964, which included jewelry stores, stores selling silverware, and stores handling engraving, and was unable to locate any store which carried the type of bracelet OSWALD gave his wife. As a result, source did not believe OSWALD could have purchased the bracelet in Mexico because the import tax on a bracelet not manufactured in Mexico would prohibit resale at a profit. T-24 stated that if OSWALD bought the bracelet in Mexico, he could have purchased it from a street vendor, who could have obtained it from a Japanese seaman in Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico, in which case OSWALD would have had a problem getting the bracelet engraved because it would have been smuggled into Mexico.

T-13 advised that on March 19, 1964, DANIEL GALINDO, assistant manager of the Hipodromo de las Americas, S. A., Mexico, D. F., a thoroughbred race track, stated he was familiar with the pamphlet entitled "Hipodromo de las Americas, S. A., Mexico, D. F." GALINDO related that this pamphlet was published by the race track three or four years ago, explaining in English and in Spanish the "Rules for Betting in 1-2 Selection and Quinielas."

This pamphlet was given wide distribution at the race track and at souvenir shops, hotels, motels, drug stores, and restaurants and for a time was inserted in the programs on racing days for patrons of the track. The race track still has some copies of this pamphlet on hand but has not distributed it during recent years. The same information recorded in the pamphlet is now published in the racing program for a given day whenever space is available for that purpose.

GALINDO stated such a pamphlet could possibly have been picked up from any of the numerous localities in Mexico, D. F., where the pamphlet was previously distributed if copies are still available, but all the localities are now unknown to him.

VII. ALLEGATION BY PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA

(A) Basis for Inquiry

T-2 furnished the information which follows:

On January 23, 1964, ELDRIDGE A. SNIGHT, Regional Security Officer, United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, made available a letter, written in the Spanish language, dated December 2, 1963, which had been directed to President LYNDON B. JOHNSON by PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA, who described himself as a credit investigator for a Mexico City department store.

The letter states that he was at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City on September 30, 1963, or October 1, 1963, to conduct a credit investigation concerning an employee of that Embassy and, upon leaving, he observed a Cuban in the company of a person he judged to be an American also leaving the premises of the Cuban Embassy. According to this letter, these two individuals were engaged in a heated discussion in English involving "CASTRO, Cuba and KENNEDY." GUTIERREZ alleged that the Cuban observed by him at that time was counting American currency, and both persons departed from the area in an automobile. The letter continued that he had later seen photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had concluded that the American seen with the Cuban was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Inquiry on January 27, 1964, at the credit department of the Mexico City department store known as "Palacio de Hierro," Calle Durango No. 230, revealed that GUTIERREZ is known there as a credit investigator.

(B) Interviews of GUTIERREZ VALENCIA

On January 29, 1964, PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA, who resides in Mexico City at Calle Florida No. 9, Colonia Napoles, Mexico, D. F., advised that he currently is employed at the Palacio de Hierro department store as a credit investigator and during the period from 1947 to 1949, he was the Assistant Commandant of the Penitentiary of the Federal District, located on Calle Lecumberri. During the period from 1943 to 1946, he was connected with the management of the restaurant "Le Rendez Vous," in Mexico, D. F.

GUTIERREZ related that when he was Assistant Commandant of the Penitentiary, Dr. ESTHER CHAPA, whom he described as a "well-known communist," was the Parole Board Director at the prison. He said that Dr. CHAPA formally accused him of being anti-communist at that time, which was a correct charge, since he "most certainly was anti-communist." He stated that Dr. CHAPA was finally dismissed from her position by her superiors.

GUTIERREZ explained he had offered the above facts for the purpose of substantiating his avowed anti-communist sentiments during a long period of time.

GUTIERREZ acknowledged that he was the author of the aforementioned letter dated December 2, 1963, directed to President LYNDON B. JOHNSON.

GUTIERREZ stated that on September 30, 1963, or October 1, 1963, he had occasion to go to the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F., in connection with a credit investigation of a female employee of that Embassy, and needing to interview this woman at the Cuban Embassy at about 10:30 a.m., he had parked his car on Calle Francisco Marquez just outside the parking area reserved for the use of Cuban Embassy vehicles.

On February 3, 1964, GUTIERREZ stated that he now estimates that he entered the premises of the Cuban Embassy at about 10:30 or 10:35 a.m. on October 1, 1963, and departed about 10:50 a.m., explaining that he had been able to fix the time rather closely because he had located a credit report on an individual he was investigating that date in Coyoacan (municipality in the Federal District) and estimated he was in Coyoacan at about 11:15 a.m. on October 1, 1963.

On January 29, 1964, GUTIERREZ related that upon entering the Cuban Embassy on October 1, 1963, he was able to locate the woman about whom he was inquiring and she displayed to him a card which identified her as a "Second Counselor" of the Cuban Embassy, but when he asked her to show him her carnet to identify her as an employee of the Cuban Embassy accredited to the Mexican Government, she said that an application had been made to the Mexican Foreign Office but that her status had not, at that time, been recognized or accredited by the Mexican Government. GUTIERREZ explained that this was an obvious falsehood as he had checked at the Mexican Foreign Office previously and had found that no information was on record for this female employee of the Cuban Embassy, and the Mexican Foreign Office had no knowledge of her presence in Mexico.

GUTIERREZ stated that he told the credit applicant that she would require a "fiador" (guarantor) in order to have her credit application approved, and she indicated she could not furnish a "fiador," for which reason the credit application was not approved by the department store and no further action was taken in connection therewith.

On February 3, 1964, GUTIERREZ advised that an exhaustive search of the credit reports made by him in September and October, 1963, revealed that the credit report he made on a female employee of the Cuban Embassy at Mexico City on or about October 1, 1963, had been destroyed because of the fact her credit application had been rejected. He believed she was employed in the Commercial Department of the Cuban Embassy, that being the section he visited when he went there to contact her.

GUTIERREZ further related as follows:

Upon leaving the Cuban Embassy he paused in the courtyard which leads to the outside sidewalk and, while in the process of lighting his cigarette lighter, was bumped by a person who was also leaving the Cuban Embassy and was accompanied by an adult male American. GUTIERREZ subsequently viewed photographs of OSWALD and advised that it is his opinion OSWALD was the aforementioned American. It was his opinion that the person accompanying the American was a Cuban, basing this assumption on an expression used by this person after bumping into GUTIERREZ in the courtyard, as when GUTIERREZ excused himself, the person responded in Spanish, "Esta bien Chico" (that's all right, buddy), a common expression used by Cubans to indicate no harm was done.

He described this Cuban as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Nationality	Cuban
Age	Appeared to be about 33 years of age
Height	Short, about 5 feet 3 inches to 5 feet 5 inches
Build	Very stocky and appeared to be a person of considerable physical strength
Hair	Black and curly
Complexion	Very light for a Cuban
Dress	Wore dark colored business suit, with sport shirt open at collar, and no necktie
Remarks	Wore no hat; spoke English fluently and rapidly; also spoke Spanish with a Cuban accent.

GUTIERREZ described the American who was accompanying this Cuban as follows:

Sex	Male
Race	White
Citizenship	Presumed to be United States citizen
Age	27 to 30 years
Complexion	Very light
Eyes	Unknown
Height	5 feet 9 inches to 5 feet 10 inches
Build	Slender
Weight	GUTIERREZ claimed to be unable to estimate weight but stated American was not at all fat or stocky
Hair	Dark brown
Dress	Wore beige or khaki-colored slacks and shirt of unrecalled type, with short jacket or windbreaker; wore no hat

Remarks: Appeared nervous and had appearance of being aggressive; was heard to speak only English

GUTIERREZ said that when they passed him, the two individuals were engaged in a heated discussion in English, and GUTIERREZ heard the words "CASTRO" and "KENNEDY" mentioned. He claimed he noticed that the Cuban had some American currency in his hand and appeared to be examining or counting this money. He said that after the Cuban and the American exited through the gate to the sidewalk on Calle Francisco Marquez, he observed the Cuban hand the money to the American, and the American took this money with his left hand, folded it and pushed it into his left-hand trouser pocket.

GUTIERREZ related that this exchange interested him, and he followed the two individuals along Calle Francisco Marquez until they turned left at the corner where he observed that they entered an automobile which he described as being a "Dina Renault," light beige in color and a fairly new or current model. The Cuban was on the driver's side. The license plates had white numerals on a black background, the coloring of the 1962-63 Mexican plates, but GUTIERREZ could furnish no information as to whether the plates were for the Federal District of Mexico, whether the plates may have been "diplomatic" plates, or whether they may have been from some state or territory of Mexico. After the American and the Cuban got into the car, they apparently drove away, and he did not see them further.

GUTIERREZ advised he believes that the person he considered to be OSWALD referred to the Cuban as "ERNIE" on at least two occasions during the conversation which he overheard. He expressed the opinion that the use of the name "ERNIE" may indicate that the Cuban's name may be "ERNESTO," which would be the normal Spanish name for a person who might be known as "ERNIE" or ERNEST.

On January 29, 1964, GUTIERREZ examined twenty-two photographs of current and recent employees of the Cuban Embassy at Mexico City and stated that none of the photographs exhibited to him is identical with the Cuban he observed in the company of the American at the Cuban Embassy on October 1, 1963.

CIA

On February 27, 1964, T-25 advised that inquiries at Calle Tolteca No. 53, Colonia Morelos, and at various business establishments in the immediate vicinity of that address, failed to develop any information concerning GAONA ELIAS or the above-described 1959 Renault automobile. Source advised that the structure numbered 53 on Calle Tolteca is actually a cow stable and unsuitable for human habitation. The address is located in an extremely poor, low-class area of Mexico City which is frequented by thieves.

Inquiry was also conducted at Calle Tolteca No. 53, Colonia Industrial, at Calle Tolteca in Colonia Ixtapalapa, and at Calle Tolteca in Colonia San Pedro de los Pinos, without obtaining information which would aid in identifying ARTURO GAONA ELIAS.

T-5 advised that a check of driver's license records at the Federal District Traffic Department revealed no evidence that anyone identifiable with ARTURO GAONA ELIAS had been issued a driver's license in the Federal District of Mexico. Source further advised that Traffic Department records do not show that license number 26-58-61 had been issued as of that date for the current 1964-65 Federal District license plates and that license number 26-58-61 is a 1962-63 Federal District license number.

Source further reported that no record could be located at the Ceremonial Division of the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Affairs that anyone by the name of ARTURO GAONA ELIAS had been reported to that Division as a representative of any foreign nation in Mexico.

The source also advised that no information identifiable with ARTURO GAONA ELIAS could be located in the files of the Identification Division, Metropolitan Police of the Federal District.

T-2 advised on March 2, 1964, that PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA stated that he had never known or heard of ARTURO GAONA ELIAS.

The information which follows was furnished by T-2:

Additional investigation at Mexico City, which included a check of the United States Visa records and the files of the National Automobile Theft Bureau, failed to develop further identifying information concerning ARTURO GAONA ELIAS until on March 4, 1964, ANTONIO SERVIN DE LA MORA, official of the Mexican Social Security Institute, reported that the files of that agency included a record for ARTURO GAONA ELIAS and his wife, IRMA MENDIVIL DE GAONA, as residents in the year 1957 at Calle Zaragosa No. 800, Colonia Plano Oriente, Ciudad Obregon, Sonora.

T-26, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on March 11, 1964, ARTURO GAONA ELIAS had been located in Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, where he now resides at Calle Nuevo Leon 743 Norte. He advised source that he had sold the 1959 Renault automobile, motor No. 744492, to REYNALDO ROMERO FELIX, who lives at Calle Sinaloa No. 234 Sur, Ciudad Obregon.

Source advised that on March 11, 1964, REYNALDO ROMERO FELIX was located in Ciudad Obregon and advised he had sold the above-mentioned Renault automobile in July, 1961, to CLAUDIO OLIVEROS of Mexico City. He described OLIVEROS as having a questionable reputation as an automobile dealer and related that OLIVEROS took the Renault to Mexico, D. F., where he was believed to have turned it over to ERNESTO MITRANI, a Cuban, who was engaged in the automobile business. He advised that ERNESTO MITRANI has a brother by the name of ISAAC MITRANI, who also might be an automobile buyer.

According to ROMERO, this automobile was to have been sold by ERNESTO MITRANI at Mexico, D. F., or to have been sent to an American by the name of GUILLERMO WILLY, who deals in automobiles at Chihuahua, Chihuahua.

(E) Inquiry Concerning ERNESTO MITRANI

On March 13, 1964, MARGARITA MUNGUIA, Visa Section, United Stated Embassy, Mexico, D. F., made available visa file data concerning ERNESTO MITRANI LEVY, reflecting that he was born December 29, 1936, at Havana, Cuba, and that he was the holder of Cuban passport No. 26367, issued December, 1959, with expiration date in 1964.

The visa card contained a photograph of ERNESTO MITRANI, and he was described on this card in January, 1961, as being five feet seven inches in height, weighing 176 pounds, of fair complexion, brown hair and green eyes.

On March 17, 1964, photographs of ERNESTO MITRANI LEVY were exhibited to PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA, who stated that the photographs of MITRANI definitely do not depict the Cuban he saw in the company of an American at the Cuban Embassy about October 1, 1963.

GUTIERREZ advised he believes that the Cuban observed by him at the Cuban Embassy was not an employee of that Embassy, because this person had his late model Renault automobile parked on Calle Tacubaya in an area which is used by the general public for parking. He pointed out that many officials and employees of the Cuban Embassy park their cars on Calle Francisco Marquez in an area reserved for their use.

GUTIERREZ stated he believes that he would have no difficulty whatsoever identifying the Cuban if he ever observed a photograph of this person, because he has the appearance of the Cuban better fixed in his mind than the appearance of the American he considered to have been OSWALD.

T-19 advised on March 18, 1964, that ERNESTO MITRANI LEVY, employee of the "Casa Vogue" (ladies' wear shop), Calle Madero No. 20, Mexico, D. F., advised that about two years ago he was engaged in buying and selling used automobiles in Mexico. He affirmed, however, that he is certain he did not buy a 1959 Renault sedan from CLAUDIO OLIVEROS, explaining that OLIVEROS formerly operated a used car lot in Mexico City but, due to OLIVEROS' bad character and alleged fraudulent activities, he had been forced to close down the business and reportedly had left Mexico, D. F., for his home in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico.

MITRANI also mentioned that he had been employed in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F., until 1959; however, he was unable to furnish any information concerning any possible employee of the Cuban Embassy who might have had a 1959 beige-colored Renault in his possession in October, 1963, or in February, 1964.

MITRANI stated that it is common practice for persons in Mexico to buy an automobile and leave it registered in the name of a prior owner to avoid payment of sales taxes. He said that the 1959 Renault may have changed hands many times since it originally was purchased by ARTURO GAONA ELIAS of Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, in 1959.

Upon recontact on March 24, 1964, MITRANI advised he had checked the incomplete records he still possesses for the period he was in the used car business and had located no record of a purchase of a 1959 Renault from CLAUDIO OLIVEROS or anyone else. MITRANI advised he had spoken with his brother, ISAAC MITRANI, in an effort to determine whether he might have a record of a transaction involving the aforementioned Renault, but his brother likewise could locate no record involving the 1959 Renault automobile.

(F) Further Interviews of GUTIERREZ

T-2 advised as follows:

On February 20, 1964, in an effort to ascertain whether or not he could identify the Cuban and the American he encountered on October 1, 1963, GUTIERREZ examined three photographs of an unidentified, white, male -- several of the photographs depicting different attire -- and he could not effect an identification. In this connection, GUTIERREZ also examined twenty photographs of white, male Americans who had been in Mexico City during September and October, 1963, any one of whom could have been the American seen by him at the Cuban Embassy. GUTIERREZ affirmed that he could not recognize any of them.

On February 20, 1964, GUTIERREZ also was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which had appeared in "Life" magazine and which depicts OSWALD passing out pro-Cuban literature on a street in New Orleans, Louisiana. With respect to a profile photograph of OSWALD showing his right arm extended and his torso from the waist up, GUTIERREZ advised that it does not appear familiar to him and that he cannot say that this photograph in any way resembles the American seen by him at the Cuban Embassy on October 1, 1963. He explained that during his brief encounter with the American and Cuban on October 1, 1963, he at no time observed the profile view of either the American or the Cuban.

GUTIERREZ agreed that a mistaken identification from newspaper photographs of OSWALD which he saw almost two months later would be very possible. He insisted, however, that he does not believe he is mistaken in his identification of OSWALD.

On February 20, 1964, GUTIERREZ examined a photograph of former Cuban Consul General in Mexico, EUSEBIO AZCUE, and stated he has never, to his knowledge, seen AZCUE and the Cuban observed by him with the American on October 1, 1963, definitely was not AZCUE.

On March 2, 1964, GUTIERREZ examined two photographs of MARIA LUISA CALDERON, former employee of the Cuban Embassy, and stated that although these photographs looked familiar to him and could possibly be the female employee of the Commercial Section of the Cuban Embassy whom he had interviewed on or about October 1, 1963, he cannot be certain that these photographs of CALDERON depict that person.

In order to more readily pinpoint the date he had been at the Cuban Embassy and observed the Cuban and the American, on March 2, 1964, GUTIERREZ made available a listing of 260 names of individuals concerning whom he had conducted credit investigations for the Palacio de Hierro department store for the period September 1, 1963, to October 25, 1963, who were approved for credit. He stated this list represents the basis for his pay as a credit investigator because he is paid on an individual case basis for each person investigated. He pointed out that he is paid only for those applicants who are approved for credit and that no records are maintained by the department store of names of persons who are rejected for credit. Among those names mentioned are the names of 30 persons investigated for credit by GUTIERREZ during the period from September 27 to October 3, 1963. GUTIERREZ explained that no specific data appears on this list which would identify the exact date he conducted the individual investigation on each of the 30 persons listed but that he has estimated that the names of the 17th and 18th individuals listed would have been conducted on or about October 1, 1963. He advised that the names of JOSEFINA LORENZANA HERNANDEZ and her "fiador," RICARDO LORENZANA RUBIN, are the 17th and 18th names on this listing.

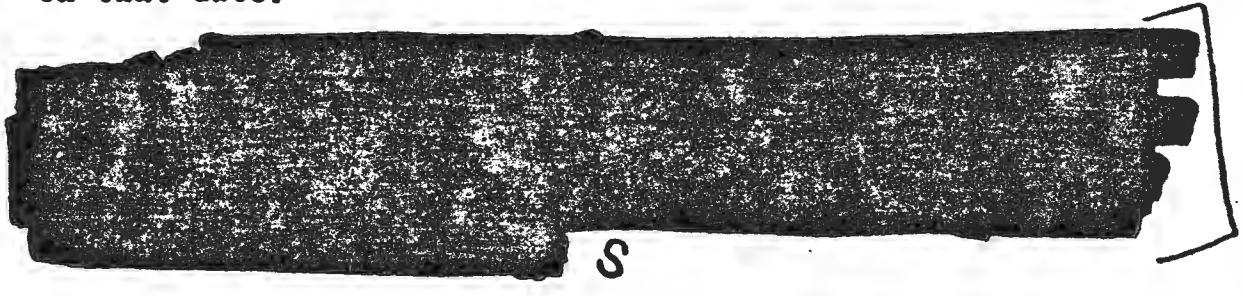
GUTIERREZ pointed out that the names of LORENZANA HERNANDEZ and LORENZANA RUBIN are significant in that these persons were the subjects of his investigation in Coyoacan on October 1, 1963, and the appearance of these names on the pay sheet in a numerical sequence indicating that the investigations were conducted on or about October 1, 1963, further substantiates information to the effect he conducted the credit investigation of these persons on October 1, 1963, as he recalled that he had been at the Cuban Embassy just prior to conducting the investigation on the LORENZANAs.

GUTIERREZ stated he had given much thought to any other possible means of pinpointing the exact date he was at the Cuban Embassy but had not arrived at any additional means of establishing that he was there on October 1, 1963, other than from his personal recollection and the fact he conducted a credit investigation of the afore-mentioned JOSEFINA LORENZANA HERNANDEZ and her father, RICARDO LORENZANA RUBIN, on that date.



In furnishing further details regarding his reported visit to the Cuban Embassy on or about October 1, 1963, GUTIERREZ advised he had departed from the Consular Section of the Cuban Embassy through the rear door leading into the patio or garden section of the premises and departed from the patio area through the main entrance on Calle Francisco Marquez. GUTIERREZ stated it was his impression that the unidentified Cuban and the person identified by him as OSWALD had left the building in the Embassy compound where the Cuban Ambassador has his quarters rather than the Consular building, which is a separate edifice. He said he could not be sure that the Cuban and the American had not left the Consular building, but when he was bumped by the Cuban, it seemed to him that the Cuban and the American were coming more from the direction of the residence than from the Consular building.

On April 25, 1964, front view and profile photographs of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO were exhibited to PEDRO GUTIERREZ VALENCIA, who stated that these photographs of DURAN in no way resemble the unknown Cuban he observed on or about October 1, 1963, in the company of the American exiting the premises of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F.

GUTIERREZ pointed out that he feels that the data he had previously provided had exhausted his means of substantiating his allegation.

(G) Inquiries Concerning Renault

On March 31, 1964, FRANCISCO CHAVEZ ORTEGA, Agent for the Metropolitan Police of the Federal District, advised that he had ascertained from a check of the records of the Mexico City Traffic Department that the 1959 Renault automobile described above continued to be registered in the name of GAONA ELIAS and appeared to have been licensed in the Federal District of Mexico for the years 1964 and 1965 with the same license number that it previously carried for the years 1962 and 1963.

T-2 advised as follows:

On March 7, 1964, Attorney RENE NUCAMENDI, an official of the Mexican Federal Automobile Registration Bureau (MFARB), Mexico, D. F., advised that the MFARB file No. 193630 contains the following information concerning ARTURO GAONA ELIAS and a 1959 Renault automobile registered to him.

A 1959 Renault "Dauphine" four-door sedan, motor No. 744492, serial No. 5401098, was assembled in Mexico by the automobile assembly factory known as "Autos Franceses, S. A." (incorporated), Avenida Cuauhtemoc No. 393, Mexico, D. F.

This vehicle, a model 1090, was sold in 1959 to an automobile agency known as "Distribuidores Sonorenses de Autos Franceses, S. A." (French Automobile Distributors of Sonora, Inc.), located at Avenida Miguel Aleman No. 242, Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, Mexico.

According to the MFARB file, this vehicle was sold by the afore-mentioned automobile distributor in Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, on December 5, 1959, to ARTURO GAONA ELIAS, Calle Tolteca No. 53, Mexico, D. F.

Attorney NUCAMENDI stated that the MFARB file on this vehicle shows no transfer of registration from GAONA to any other individual, but such a transfer without notification to MFARB is not an uncommon occurrence in Mexico.

(H) Information From CLAUDIO OLIVEROS

The information which follows was provided by T-19:

On April 7, 1964, CLAUDIO OLIVEROS was located at a Mexico City automobile parking lot at Parque Espana No. 5, and advised as follows:

OLIVEROS stated emphatically that he did not buy a 1959 Renault automobile from REYNALDO ROMERO, a used car dealer of Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, in 1961. OLIVEROS said that during 1961, he was hospitalized in Mexico, D. F., for an operation, and during that period he made no trips to Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, to buy used cars.

OLIVEROS stated that he could only recall having purchased two Renault automobiles in the Ciudad Obregon area in the past. One of these automobiles was a used Renault which he purchased during 1960 from the Renault car agency in Ciudad Obregon, and the other was a Renault automobile he purchased from an unknown farmer in the Ciudad Obregon area, also during the year 1960.

OLIVEROS claimed that he is well acquainted with REYNALDO ROMERO and that this individual is known locally around Ciudad Obregon by the nickname "El Rey." OLIVEROS advised that REYNALDO ROMERO is mistaken if he stated that he sold a Renault automobile to OLIVEROS in 1961, because he,

OLIVEROS, has never purchased a Renault automobile from REYNALDO ROMERO.

The following data was provided by T-2:

On April 15, 1964, CLAUDIO OLIVEROS, who stated he resides at Avenida Ejercito Nacional No. 1049, Apartment No. 301, Mexico, D. F., related that following his previous interview on April 7, 1964, he had recalled that he purchased a Renault automobile in Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, Mexico, in about July, 1961, and transported this vehicle to Mexico, D. F., where he sold the car to a "Mr. DURAN," who was employed at a furniture manufacturing establishment. OLIVEROS vaguely recalled that the buyer of this vehicle either resided or had his place of business in the "Colonia Del Valle" section of Mexico City. He also recalled this individual had a brother who claimed he was married to an American girl.

T-23 advised that it had been determined from observation that HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO, the husband of SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, operates a 1962 maroon, four-door Volvo automobile, bearing 1964-65 Federal District of Mexico license plates number 30-51-18.

T-2 advised that on April 24, 1964, CLAUDIO OLIVEROS stated he had learned from a former associate in the used car business that an automobile sales receipt still in the possession of the latter clearly shows that OLIVEROS sold a 1959 Renault, motor No. 7444492, to a "Mr. DURAN" at Mexico, D. F., in 1961. OLIVEROS stated that this sales receipt was signed by DURAN, but the signature was somewhat illegible and he was unable to read the full name. It was brought to the attention of OLIVEROS that records of the Mexican Federal Automobile Bureau indicate the motor number of the 1959 Renault under consideration is 744492. OLIVEROS stated that he is certain that the motor number he provided is correct according to the sales receipt which he personally had examined, and he indicated that he is convinced that this is the vehicle which formerly was the property of ARTURO GAONA ELIAS of Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, Mexico, which he, OLIVEROS, had purchased in 1961 in Ciudad Obregon.

On April 25, 1964, OLIVEROS advised that he had recalled that the 1959 Renault automobile had been sold to the afore-mentioned "Mr. DURAN" at a lamp manufacturing and sales establishment known as "Lamparas Duran" (Duran Lamps) located in the Colonia Del Valle area of Mexico, D. F.

(I) Inquiries Concerning DURAN Family

On April 27, 1964, T-25 ascertained that "Lamparas Duran" is located at Calle Amores No. 327-A, Mexico, D. F., and is currently operated by one MARIO CARAZO, who stated he had purchased the business from LIDIA DURAN. Source advised that the business apparently employed only three persons.

On April 29, 1964, T-25 advised that he had ascertained that LIDIA DURAN is a widow and has one or two brothers.

On April 27, 1964, T-5 advised he had established from the records of the Passport Section, Mexican Foreign Ministry, that LIDIA DURAN was born March 18,.1928, at Chihuahua, Chihuahua, Mexico, and that her full name, according to Spanish usage, is LIDIA DURAN NAVARRO. At the time of the issuance of a Mexican Passport in 1959, she was married to one RAUL FLORES GUERRERO. On April 29, 1964, T-5 advised that no record of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO could be found in the passport files of the Mexican Foreign Ministry.

On May 6, 1964, T-4 advised he had established through records of the Mexican Foreign Ministry and of the Federal Judicial Police at Mexico, D. F., that LIDIA DURAN NAVARRO DE FLORES; HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO and RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO are the children of RUFINO DURAN SILVA, father, and LIDIA NAVARRO de DURAN, mother.

T-2 advised that on May 7, 1964, CLAUDIO OLIVEROS examined front view and profile photographs of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO and immediately identified these photographs as those of the individual to whom he had sold a 1959 Renault automobile at Mexico, D. F., in July, 1961. OLIVEROS also examined a photograph of RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO and identified this photograph as that of a brother of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO. After examining these photcgraphs, OLIVEROS recalled he had known the DURAN family about ten years ago when they resided on Calle Panuco in México, D. F., and late in 1962 he had encountered RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO at the International Airport in Mexico, D. F., and was told by DURAN at that time that he was taking a flight to visit some of the European "Iron Curtain" countries, possibly including Russia.

On May 7, 1964, DAVID ALKON, a Mexico City resident with residence at Calle Fernandez Gonzalez Roa No. 47, Ciudad Satelite, State of Mexico, advised that HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO, the husband of SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, currently operates a red, four-door Volvo automobile. ALKON stated that DURAN also owns a 1959 Renault automobile which was from Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, and had been purchased by DURAN at Mexico, D. F., in 1961. ALKON recalled that DURAN experienced difficulty in licensing the vehicle and mentioned that he had to correspond with the previous owner in Ciudad Obregon in order to secure additional data concerning the vehicle. ALKON affirmed that this 1959 Renault is a light grey color and definitely is not beige in color. He said this car is currently stored at a Mexico City repair garage after having been involved in an accident, and DURAN has indicated he was not able financially to pay for the repairs on the vehicle. ALKON stated that to the best of his knowledge, DURAN has maintained possession of this car since he purchased it in 1961.

ALKON stated that he maintains a contractual relation with HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO for the interior decoration of houses designed by ALKON and also is well acquainted with RUBEN DURAN NAVARRO, a brother, as well as with one sister who is known to ALKON as "LIN." Concerning "LIN," ALKON related that she is a widow and until about one year ago operated a lighting fixture firm known as "Lamparas Duran."

ALKON stated that SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN, the wife of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO, was formerly employed in the Consular Section of the Cuban Embassy at Mexico City, and the 1959 Renault which had been the property of HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO since 1961 had undoubtedly been used by the family for transportation to and from the Cuban Embassy on numerous occasions.

ALKON made reference to th e fact that he voluntarily had appeared at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., on December 9, 1963, at which time he reported that his contacts with HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO had left him with the impression that contacts between SILVIA TIRADO DE DURAN and OSWALD related only to the latter's application for a visa and that her contact with him was slight. On May 7, 1964, ALKON advised that his subsequent contacts with HORACIO DURAN NAVARRO have not led him to believe the latter ever had any contact with OSWALD and SILVIA DURAN's contacts with OSWALD related to anything more than OSWALD's application for a visa at the Cuban Embassy.

VIII ALLEGATION BY YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA

(A) Basis for Inquiry

In an undated letter directed to Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY, which was contained in an envelope postmarked December 31, 1963, at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, the following was recorded as translated from the Spanish language:

"I ask you to forgive these few bold lines addressed to so distinguished a person.

"Mr. ROBERT, I am a Mexican by race and nationality. Also, Mr. ROBERT, I am communicating with you because I do not trust anyone in the matter I intend to deal with.

"I am referring to the death of your brother. Perhaps, my information may prove quite helpful even though various officials of the United States may be involved and affected by it. I, your servant, am willing to identify them. I will tell you only later; however, with patience. It concerns the plan which I never thought would be carried out.

"I used to be a friend of LEE OSWALD, and also of ALBERT, as well as three more people. I knew about the plan, but I never thought that it would turn out to be a true plan.

"I lost their friendship because I did not accept to introduce Communist propaganda into my Mexico. To be more specific, I separated from them and never saw them again until I found out about the death of the President, your brother.

"Forgive me for not explaining any more, but it is an extremely delicate subject for you and for me. I ask you to see to it that justice is done now that this is in your possession.

"(Signed) YLARIO ROJAS,
Manuel Acuna 1367,
Guadalajara"

(B) Initial Interviews of YLARIO ROJAS

T-8 advised as follows:

Upon interview on January 10, 1964, at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA, Manuel Acuna 1367, Guadalajara, advised that in June or July, 1962, he was approached by an unidentified Cuban in a park in Mexico City. He claimed this Cuban talked to him about smuggling Cuban propaganda into Mexico and promised to see him later in Guadalajara.

ROJAS related that the Cuban arrived in Guadalajara by automobile about the middle of August, 1962, and the two of them drove by automobile to Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, across the border from El Paso, Texas. On this trip to Ciudad Juarez, he was introduced by this Cuban to an individual, whose name he could not recall but whom he recognized later by photograph as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that after their meeting, the three of them discussed the introduction of pro-CASTRO propaganda into Mexico via Cozumel, an island located off the coast of the Yucatan Peninsula of Mexico.

ROJAS claimed that the following morning they left Ciudad Juarez on a flight of Aeronaves de Mexico Airlines and flew to Guadalajara, after a stop at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon. After their arrival in Guadalajara, the Cuban gave him 400 pesos ($32 U.S.) and told him he would receive further instructions at a later date.

The latter part of December, 1962, the Cuban visited him in Guadalajara, gave him 900 pesos ($72 U.S.), and on the instructions of the Cuban, he proceeded to Cozumel by bus, arriving there shortly after Christmas, 1962. In Cozumel, ROJAS was met by two Cubans, whose names he could not recall, and also by a Cuban woman whose first name was CRISTINA. Although he could not recall the names of the Cubans, he claimed to have them written in a notebook which he left with DANIEL SOLIS, a municipal policeman in Cozumel, and he affirmed SOLIS would not deliver the notebook to anyone but him.

About December 28, 1962, OSWALD arrived in Cozumel, having proceeded there from Jamaica via Compania Mexicana de Aviation (CMA) Airlines. OSWALD, the three Cubans and ROJAS discussed the introduction of Cuban propaganda into Mexico. During the time of these discussions, OSWALD and the three Cubans stayed at the Hotel Playa in Cozumel and ROJAS resided at the home of DANIEL SOLIS. OSWALD remained in Cozumel for two or three days and returned to Jamaica by air, and ROJAS and the three Cubans remained in Cozumel until about February 15, 1963, when OSWALD again appeared in Cozumel from Jamaica and on this occasion stayed three days. The day following OSWALD's arrival, an American by the name of ALBERT arrived from Jamaica.

ROJAS claimed the Cuban woman, CRISTINA, told him that she, the other two Cubans, OSWALD and ALBERT had discussed the elimination of President KENNEDY. According to ROJAS, she stated OSWALD was in favor of killing President KENNEDY, but ALBERT and the Cubans did not agree with OSWALD. ROJAS was told by CRISTINA that OSWALD had stated to the Cubans that he and ALBERT had laid plans to eliminate the President. ALBERT had stayed at the Hotel Isleno in Cozumel and returned to the United States via Jamaica the day after his arrival in Cozumel.

ROJAS claimed to have stayed in Cozumel until early March, 1963, when he returned by bus to Guadalajara.

T-20 advised as follows:

On January 21, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA, Ministry of Gobernacion (Interior) at Mexico City, made available Immigration records of entries and departures to Mexico at the Island of Cozumel, Quintana Roo, Mexico, and at Merida, Yucatan, Mexico, for the period from December 25, 1962, through February, 1963. These records disclosed no information for anyone with the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the aliases of O. H. LEE and ALEK JAMES HIDELL, or any information identifiable with the ALBERT referred to by ROJAS or the unidentified Cubans.

(C) Reinterview of ROJAS

T-27, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

On January 22-23, 1964, YLARIO ROJAS VILLANUEVA advised that he was born in Ciudad Manuel Doblado in the State of Guanajuato, Mexico, but he did not know the year and guessed it was about 1932 or 1933.

He stated he also uses the name ELADIO VILLANUEVA ROJAS and explained that his mother's name was ESTEFANIA ROJAS and that his father, whose surname was VILLANUEVA, was not known by him, for which reason most of the time he prefers to use his mother's maiden name, ROJAS, rather than his true name from his father of VILLANUEVA.

At this time he furnished further background information concerning himself, as follows: He completed the sixth grade at a ranch school and in about 1949 he traveled to the United States border and crossed illegally into the United States where he was employed at El Centro, California, by a man named MacILVANEY (phonetic), who had a drainage and irrigation business. He was arrested by the United States Immigration authorities but this agency allowed him to leave the United States voluntarily. Upon his return from the United States, he went to the ranch where his mother resides and remained there for approximately three years, after which, in about 1957, he went to Tijuana, Mexico, where he was employed for approximately a year by a bottling firm which handled "7-Up." Prior to his departure from Tijuana, he had married his present wife, MARIA YOLANDA CORDOVA DE VILLANUEVA. After about 1958, ROJAS had only odd jobs and stated he has worked part-time during the period 1958 to 1964.

With specific reference to his alleged knowledge of OSWALD and ALBERT and other unidentified Cubans, on this occasion ROJAS advised as follows:

About August 14, 1962, he traveled to Mexico City and while waiting in a park near the bus station of the bus line "Estrellas de Oro" and the hotel where he stayed, he was contacted by an unidentified individual, who he later learned was a Cuban, and at that time this person proposed that ROJAS assist him in smuggling Cuban propaganda into Mexico.

About August 19, 1962, the Cuban and ROJAS departed from Guadalajara by air to the United States border at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, where he was introduced to a person who he later learned was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. At that time OSWALD was accompanied by two other Americans. ROJAS claimed that the Cuban and OSWALD discussed amounts to be paid for smuggling Cuban propaganda into Mexico; thereafter, about August 21, 1962, he and the Cuban departed from Nuevo Laredo to Monterrey by bus, where the Cuban separated from him, going to Mexico City, while he, ROJAS, continued to Guadalajara.

About three or four months latter, the Cuban arrived in Guadalajara, gave him 700 pesos ($56 U.S.) and instructed him to proceed to Cozumel for further contacts in connection with the smuggling of Cuban propaganda into Mexico.

ROJAS departed for Cozumel and claimed that upon arrival in Cozumel by accident he met DANIEL SOLIS, a policeman whose wife is ROJAS' niece, and he resided at SOLIS' home during the entire time he was in Cozumel.

During his stay in Cozumel, he again met OSWALD, the unidentified Cubans, one of whom was a woman by the name of CRISTINA, and also met with the American named ALBERT. During this period OSWALD came to Cozumel by plane on two occasions, and during OSWALD's two trips to Cozumel, the plot to murder President KENNEDY was discussed.

During his stay in Cozumel, he was friendly with a Mexican Air Force sergeant whose name he could not recall and whose assistance he sought to help him follow the activities of the Cubans, OSWALD and ALBERT. This person later was identified as LEOPOLDO TORRES CORTES, Mexican Air Force sergeant, who is based at Cozumel airport.

He claimed to have left at the home of SOLIS a notebook which he alleged contained the names of the unidentified Cubans and the full name of the unidentified American named ALBERT.

He stated that the Cubans and OSWALD stayed at the Hotel Playa in Cozumel and that ALBERT stayed at the Hotel Isleno in Cozumel.

(D) Discrepancies in ROJAS' Story

T-20 advised that on February 24, 1964, a review of the register of the Hotel Playa at Cozumel failed to reveal any record of OSWALD or any information identifiable with the Cubans mentioned by ROJAS for the period March 20, 1963, through July, 1963. It also was determined that the Hotel Isleno in Cozumel was closed from April to August, 1963.

On the same date, a review of the records of CMA airlines at Cozumel was conducted for the period from March 20 through August, 1963, and no record could be located for anyone with the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or his known aliases.

When interviewed on January 22-23, 1964, the discrepancies with regard to the information he had furnished on January 22-23, 1964, with relation to the information he had furnished on January 10, 1964, were pointed out to ROJAS, who merely attributed the discrepancies to his "lack of education."

T-8 advised as follows:

On February 6, 1963, ROJAS produced a slip of paper which he claimed he had obtained from under the inner sole of an old pair of shoes, and he alleged the paper had recorded thereon the names of certain unidentified individuals concerning whom he had furnished information previously, as follows:

The Cuban woman whom ROJAS had formerly identified as CRISTINA is listed on this slip of paper as CRISTINA GADEA.

The unidentified Cuban whom he claimed to have met in Mexico City and with whom he later claimed to have traveled to Nuevo Laredo and to Cozumel is listed as TONI FERREA.

The individual referred to as the American named ALBERT is listed as ADVVIN WALKER, and the name of LEE HARVEI OSVVOL is listed.

A review of the manifest of Aeronaves de Mexico airlines at Guadalajara for August 3, 1962, included a listing for HILARIO ROJAS as having flown from Guadalajara to Monterrey on an Aeronaves de Mexico flight; however, this manifest failed to reflect a listing for one TONI FERREA, whom ROJAS identified as the Cuban who traveled to the border with him.

T-20 advised as follows:

On February 24, 1964, at Cozumel, DANIEL SOLIS advised he knows ROJAS as ELADIO VILLANUEVA RAMIREZ. SOLIS produced ROJAS' notebook, and it was observed that it did not contain the names of the unidentified Cubans as claimed by ROJAS.

SOLIS advised that during the period of time he stayed in Cozumel, ROJAS did not engage in any unusual activities of any kind. He said he never saw ROJAS in the company of any unusual strangers nor in the company of any Americans or Cubans.

LEOPOLDO TORRES CORTES, a Mexican Air Force sergeant, Cozumel airport, was contacted on February 25, 1964. TORRES advised he became acquainted with ROJAS when the two of them arrived in Cozumel together in March, 1963. He related that he associated with ROJAS once or twice a week and that he had never observed ROJAS in the company of a Cuban or an American. TORRES stated that he never was requested by ROJAS to keep watch over or cover the activities of anyone in Cozumel. (ROJAS had previously claimed that TORRES had been of assistance to him in watching over the unidentified Cubans and the Americans.)

(E) ROJAS Involved in JACOB S. FLOYD Matter

On February 21, 1964, MARIA ESPERANZA GARCIA, manager, Sanborns airlines office, Hamilton Hotel, Laredo, Texas, advised Special Agent ROBERT L. CHAPMAN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that she handled ticket purchase order No. A37240 with CMA on July 31, 1962, which reflected that the purchase order was made out to HILARIO ROJAS for an airline ticket from Guadalajara, Mexico, to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, which was utilized by ROJAS on August 4, 1962. GARCIA stated that she had received a telephone call during the latter part of July, 1962, from Attorney JACOB S. FLOYD, Alice, Texas, concerning the purchase of a round-trip ticket from Guadalajara to Nuevo Laredo for YLARIA V. ROGAS.

GARCIA stated that on July 31, 1962, she received a letter dated July 30, 1962, from FLOYD enclosing a check for $60.64 (U. S. currency). This letter stated, "I enclosed herewith a check for $60.64 covering a round trip ticket for YLARIA V. ROGAS, Chilarde 655, Guadalajara, Jalisco. This trip is to begin on August 4, 1962, and is from Guadalajara to Nuevo Laredo and return." The letter requested a refund if the ticket was not used and gave a residence telephone number of Mohawk 4-6323 and office telephone as Mohawk 4-6551, Alice, Texas. The letter was signed "JACOB S. FLOYD" and is on stationery of the law offices of Perkins, Floyd, Davis, and Oden.

GARCIA stated that she had also received a copy of a letter written by JACOB S. FLOYD to ROJAS dated July 30, 1962. This letter advised ROJAS that arrangements had been made for the District Attorney and a good interpreter to meet with ROJAS on Sunday afternoon, August 5, 1962, at the Plaza Hotel, Laredo, and that a round-trip airline ticket was being sent to him through Sanborns as agent for Aeronaves airlines. It was pointed out in the letter that a ten-dollar bill was being enclosed to ROJAS to cover expenses for food and hotel in the event he could not make airlines connections on the trip to Nuevo Laredo and had to stay in Monterrey overnight.

According to the first confidential source abroad, on February 20, 1964, District Attorney SAM H. BURRIS and Assistant District Attorney JOHN C. CAMPOS at Alice, Texas, advised as follows regarding their association with YLARIO ROJAS:

BURRIS and CAMPOS have been investigating the murder of BUDDY FLOYD since 1952. ROJAS initially contacted the FLOYD family in July, 1962, by letter addressed to Jim Wells County, Texas officials, claiming knowledge of a conspiracy by ALFREDO CERVANTES and others to murder FLOYD and suggested a meeting with JACOB FLOYD, SR.

On July 23, 1962, ROJAS wrote FLOYD from Guadalajara offering to meet FLOYD at the Mexican border if his expenses were furnished, as a result of which airline travel tickets were sent to ROJAS.

On August 5, 1962, FLOYD, BURRIS and CAMPOS met ROJAS at the Nuevo Laredo Motel, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. At that time ROJAS stated he owned a bar at Chapala, Mexico, where he knew CERVANTES as a customer. ROJAS stated CERVANTES held a meeting with two Americans, NORMAN NEOCON and LOUIS FEANO, who allegedly had hired CERVANTES to kill JACOB (BUDDY) FLOYD, JR. ROJAS furnished detailed descriptions of these men. Before this conference with FLOYD and his associates began, ROJAS demanded money, but this was refused until information of value was received. At the end of the conference, ROJAS was paid $40.00 by FLOYD, in addition to expenses, and was left at the Nuevo Laredo Motel.

The investigation of this matter was turned over to BURRIS by FLOYD. BURRIS then wrote to ROBERT ADAMS, American Consul, Mexico City, in this regard.

On September 13, 1962, ADAMS reported investigation in this matter failed to verify the story related by ROJAS. He advised that no information was developed concerning NEOCON, FEANO or anyone fitting their descriptions, driving a red Buick as described by ROJAS.

ADAMS further reported that inquiry revealed ROJAS was considered irresponsible and lazy and that he had apparently learned of the CERVANTES case through an associate at Guadalajara.

On August 16, 1962, ROJAS in a letter to BURRIS claimed that United States Customs officers had beaten him up on August 5, 1962, which allegation BURRIS subsequently determined to be false. ROJAS again demanded more money, and constantly did so, which money was not furnished.

BURRIS stated ROJAS did not furnish any information which could be verified. The last letter received from ROJAS was dated November 5, 1963, in which he again pleaded for money, but this letter was not acknowledged.

BURRIS and CAMPOS considered ROJAS to be "a liar" and a person who attempts to exploit others for money.

District Attorney BURRIS advised he has in his files all correspondence and records pertaining to this matter which he would gladly furnish if needed and that he would be willing to testify at any time concerning these matters if such testimony would be needed.

(F) ROJAS' Admission of Fabrication

T-29, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

On March 5, 1964, at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, ROJAS orally admitted that he had never known or met OSWALD anywhere.

On March 5, 1964, GENARO ALFARO LOPEZ and Captain ESTEBAN LOPEZ GARCIA, agents of the Mexican Federal Security Police at Guadalajara, Jalisco, interviewed ROJAS.

They questioned ROJAS concerning his allegations of knowledge of an alleged assassination plot against President KENNEDY and of having met OSWALD, ALBERT and other unidentified Cubans in relation to this matter. At that time ROJAS admitted that he had fabricated the information.

On March 5, 1964, at Guadalajara, ALFARO and LOPEZ obtained a signed statement from ROJAS, who, as has been pointed out, also uses the name ELADIO VILLANUEVA RAMIREZ. His statement as translated from Spanish is as follows:

"At Guadalajara, Jalisco, 1:30 p.m., March 5, 1964, before GENARO ALFARO LOPEZ and Captain ESTEBAN LOPEZ GARCIA, Agents of the Federal Security Police, a statement was taken from ELADIO VILLANUEVA RAMIREZ, who stated his name is ELADIO VILLANUEVA RAMIREZ, born Rancho Guayabo de Santa Rita, Municipality of Ciudad Manuel Doblado, Guanajuato, that he is married, 30 years of age, of Mexican nationality, presently engaged at his home in the making of 'huaraches' (Mexican native footwear). With respect to the letter which he had written to ROBERT F. KENNEDY, Attorney General of the United States of America, VILLANUEVA stated as follows:

"The information in said letter, as well as his oral statements to various United States Government officials at Guadalajara, are false and were fabricated by him personally; that he obtained the various names and details of said information from local newspapers; further, that the foregoing was done in the hope of obtaining a reward, he is willing to testify to this statement, if necessary, and places his signature and fingerprint on this statement to confirm its veracity.

"/s/ Captain ESTEBAN LOPEZ GARCIA"

VILLANUEVA signed to this statement the name ELADIO VILLANUEVA RAMIREZ, on the margin thereof, and also placed an inked fingerprint impression on the same margin.

ALFARO and Captain LOPEZ advised that ROJAS had admitted that the trip he had made to the border in August, 1962, was for the purpose of contacting JACOB S. FLOYD, details of which have been previously recorded herein.

IX. ALLEGATION BY GILBERTO NOLASCO ALVARADO UGARTE

The first confidential source abroad advised that on November 25, 1963, GILBERTO NOLASCO ALVARADO UGARTE, a Nicaraguan citizen born January 31, 1940, in Ciudad Rama, Departamento Zelaya, Nicaragua, made contact with the United States Embassy at Mexico, D. F., and advised the following:

ALVARADO entered Mexico illegally from Guatemala on August 29, 1963, traveled to Mexico, D. F., and subsequently made contact with EDELBERTO TORRES, a Nicaraguan communist residing in Mexico City. From this contact a plan was developed for ALVARADO to travel to Cuba to study guerrilla warfare tactics. He had occasion to visit the Cuban Consulate in Mexico, D. F., several different times for the purpose of obtaining travel documentation for Cuba by furnishing false identification papers as a Mexican citizen.

ALVARADO claimed that the real purpose behind his proposed travel to Cuba was a penetration mission for the Nicaraguan Secret Service. He stated that on September 18, 1963, he went to the Cuban Consulate, and while sitting in the waiting room saw a group of approximately eight persons enter the Consulate and the office of Cuban Consul EUSEBIO AZCUE. A person unknown to him was sitting at AZCUE's desk. A short time later, while ALVARADO was standing near the door to the men's room at the Cuban Consulate, he noticed three men conversing a few feet away from him. One of them was a tall, thin Negro with reddish hair; the second was a man whom ALVARADO had seen previously holding a Canadian passport in the waiting room of the Cuban Consulate; and the third person, according to ALVARADO, was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

ALVARADO stated that a tall Cuban joined the above group momentarily and passed some United States currency to the Negro.

The following conversation between the Negro and OSWALD was overheard by ALVARADO:

Negro (in English): I want to kill the man.

OSWALD: You're not man enough. I can do it.

Negro (in Spanish): I can't go with you. I have a lot to do.

OSWALD: The people are waiting for me back there.

ALVARADO stated that the Negro then gave OSWALD $6,500 in United States currency of large denominations, saying: "This isn't much." Of this sum, $1,500 was for extra expenses. The Negro also gave OSWALD about 200 Mexican pesos.

In a later interview, ALVARADO stated that the United States bank notes were in a small pack about one fourth of an inch thick, bound with a paper band, which the Negro broke before counting out $1,500 extra for expenses and $5,000 as "advance payment."

ALVARADO stated that OSWALD had carried a green passport in his pocket, and he believed he saw OSWALD wearing a pistol in a shoulder holster, but he was not sure of this point. He stated that OSWALD had long shoes and a wrist watch with a yellow-metal band. According to ALVARADO, OSWALD appeared to be completely at home at the Consulate and to know and to be known by Cuban Consulate personnel.

ALVARADO was arrested and interrogated by Mexican authorities on November 28, 1963, and a copy of the interrogation report by the Mexican authorities revealed the following:

At the outset ALVARADO's story generally resembled that recorded above. He repeated to the Mexican authorities the details of the scene in which he saw the Negro, the Canadian and the American conversing together, the delivery of the money to the American by the Negro, and the conversation he overheard.

ALVARADO advised the interviewing Mexican officials that upon seeing the photograph of OSWALD in the newspapers following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he recognized OSWALD as the American he had seen at the Cuban Consulate.

An excerpt from ALVARADO's statement to Mexican authorities, as translated from Spanish, is as follows:

".....spontaneously and after reconsidering he desires to state that the American to whom he referred in the body of his statement and whom he saw the 18th of September of this year in the Cuban Consulate had a certain resemblance, about sixty per cent, to LEE HARVEY OSWALD (assassin of the President of the United States); That after the assassination of President KENNEDY the witness took advantage of this fact in his favor to exploit it, furnishing versions such as those initially set forth, for the purpose of provoking an energetic reaction from the political point of view on the part of the United States of America against the government of FIDEL CASTRO RUZ and that he had no motive other than the profound hatred he feels for communism. That all his life the witness has dedicated himself to combating communism and he regrets at this moment not having accomplished his objective in the sense of causing a reaction on the part of the American Government against FIDEL CASTRO."

Because of the fact that subsequent to making the above-mentioned statement to Mexican authorities, ALVARADO claimed that he had changed his statement because of fear, he was interviewed at considerable length on December 5 and 6, 1963, in Mexico, D. F., by representatives of the United States Government.

T-17 advised as follows:

After reiterating his story, ALVARADO was afforded a polygraph examination on December 6, 1963. During the course of the examination he was asked, "Is this the American you saw in the Cuban Consulate?" At the time he was shown photographs of OSWALD.

Each time he was asked this question, he definitely responded, "Yes," but it was noted that the polygraph indicated a "deception response" on these answers. These responses and those with respect to other questions led to the conclusion that ALVARADO was a fabricator. It was specifically pointed out to him that the polygraph indicated that he was not being truthful in identifying photographs of OSWALD as being of a person he saw in the Cuban Consulate, and he was asked for his explanation thereof.

ALVARADO replied that he had full faith in the polygraph and would not attempt to refute its results. He went on to say that the only explanation he could offer was that he had seen an American in the Cuban Consulate on September 18, 1963, who resembled OSWALD, and that upon seeing the photograph of OSWALD in the newspaper, he built up within himself, either consciously or subconsciously, a complete belief that the person he had seen in the Cuban Consulate was OSWALD.

On December 8, 1963, Mexican authorities deported ALVARADO from Mexico, D. F., to Managua, Nicaragua.

X. MISCELLANEOUS INQUIRIES AND ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO OSWALD

(A) Allegation by SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON Concerning OSWALD and SILVIA DURAN

According to the first confidential source abroad, the White House at Washington, D. C., had received a paper entitled "Possible Psychological Motivations in the Assassination of President KENNEDY" written by JOSE I. LASAGA, 2340 N. E. 7th Avenue, Apartment 4, Miami, Florida.

This speculative paper attempted to establish that the motivation of OSWALD in the assassination of President KENNEDY was FIDEL CASTRO or a CASTRO agent and that OSWALD was so motivated during his trip to Mexico between September 27 and October 2, 1963. The paper included the allegation that OSWALD had an extended interview with the Cuban Ambassador to Mexico, whom he met at a restaurant on the outskirts of Mexico, D. F., from where they departed together in the Cuban Ambassador's automobile for a private conversation.

LASAGA had advised the White House that he received the above report from ANGEL FERNANDEZ VARELA, an employee of the Voice of Cuba in Miami, Florida, who received the information from SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON, who reportedly was in Mexico, D. F., doing some investigative work after the assassination of President KENNEDY.

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON was interviewed at Miami, Florida, and stated that while in Mexico, D. F., from November 20 to 29, 1963, attending the Congress of the International Federation of Professional Newspaper Organizations, he was at the offices of the newspaper "Excelsior" on the night of November 25, 1963. He learned through the Mexican press that the Mexican Government had arrested one SILVIA DURAN, that DURAN allegedly had OSWALD as a guest in her house during his visit to Mexico, and that DURAN had placed OSWALD in contact with officials of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F.

DIAZ VERSON claimed Dr. BORRELL NAVARROS, an exiled Cuban newspaperman employed by "Excelsior," told him that on the day following OSWALD's arrival in Mexico, D. F., OSWALD and DURAN went to a restaurant called the "Caballo Blanco" or possibly the "Caballo Bayo," where they met an official of the Cuban Embassy. DIAZ VERSON claimed he knew nothing about OSWALD and the Cuban official's having left the restaurant together in a car.

T-3 advised that on January 11, 1964, Dr. EDUARDO BORRELL NAVARRO, a former Cuban cabinet minister who on occasions writes feature articles for the Mexico City daily newspaper "Excelsior," and resides at 1303 Homero Street, Apartment 301, Mexico, D. F., furnished the following:

SALVADOR DIAZ VERSON was in Mexico, D. F., as he had claimed and discussed OSWALD with BORRELL and other Cuban exiles. DIAZ VERSON also visited BORRELL at the latter's home.

BORRELL did not corroborate the story credited to him by DIAZ VERSON concerning the visit to a Mexico City restaurant by OSWALD and SILVIA DURAN. BORRELL stated he had never heard this story or anything similar.

BORRELL knew of no meeting between OSWALD and Cuban Embassy officials other than the meetings which allegedly occurred at the time OSWALD visited the Cuban Consulate in Mexico, D. F. BORRELL knew nothing concerning any visit by OSWALD to the home of DURAN.

On January 17, 1964, T-5 advised that he had been unable to locate a "Caballo Blanco" restaurant in Mexico, D. F., but stated that there is a "Caballo Bayo" restaurant located on the outskirts of Mexico, D. F. Source stated that it is a very large, typical, Mexican restaurant which does a thriving business. Source advised that on January 11, 1964, the photographs of former Cuban Consul EUSEBIO AZCUE LOPEZ, who was in charge of the Cuban Consulate at the time of OSWALD's visit, of Cuban Ambassador JOAQUIN HERNANDEZ ARMAS, of SILVIA DURAN, and of OSWALD were shown to the employees of the "Caballo Bayo" restaurant and extensive interviews among the employees of this restaurant were conducted without locating anyone who could recognize any of the photographs of the persons mentioned above as having been at this restaurant.

(B) Information Furnished by ROBERT KAFFKE

T-13, who had occasion to interview ROBERT KAFFKE on February 27, 1964, in Mexico, D. F., advised the following:

KAFFKE identified himself as having been a member of a student group which visited Cuba in 1963 and he explained that he had come to Mexico, D. F., to seek contact with the Cuban Embassy in the hope of arranging another trip to Cuba or to obtain assistance in making arrangements to travel to Communist China as an observer or a teacher. He mentioned that he had made some inquiries with respect to the visit to Mexico, D. F., of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the hope that he could develop an angle which would enable him to write a saleable magazine article.

KAFFKE furnished the following background data concerning his interest in OSWALD's activities in Mexico:

He stated that within the recent past, MARK LANE, an attorney for Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, LEE HARVEY OSWALD's mother, had visited San Francisco, California, on a lecture tour, and KAFFKE had attended the lecture and had spoken to LANE at some length after the lecture.

LANE told KAFFKE that "the FBI is so convinced that OSWALD was responsible for the assassination of President KENNEDY that it has ignored other witnesses and failed to follow up various leads." LANE claimed to have seen an affidavit in the possession of the Dallas Police Department reflecting that the paraffin tests made of OSWALD had disclosed powder burns on his hands but not on his cheek, suggesting from this that he might have fired a hand gun on the day of the assassination but not a rifle.

LANE advised KAFFKE that he had located four women, newspaper reporters who were between the underpass and the point from which the assassination shots allegedly were fired, and these women had expressed the belief that the shots they heard had seemed to originate from the opposite direction from the Texas School Book Depository where OSWALD reportedly was employed. According to LANE, the four reporters had claimed that upon hearing the shots from the direction of the underpass, they turned in time to see a puff of smoke and figures running along the bridge over the underpass.

LANE also told KAFFKE that he had seen (or had in his possession) a second affidavit to the effect that five spent bullets had been located following the assassination rather than the three bullets which had been publicized in the United States press. He referred to those alleged projectiles as follows:

(1) A bullet which appeared on the stretcher which was utilized in removing President KENNEDY from the official limousine.

(2) One bullet which lodged in the thigh of Governor CONNALLY.

(3) One bullet which struck Governor CONNALLY in the chest.

(4) A bullet which was found imbedded in the presidential limousine.

(5) A bullet which was found on the grass adjacent to where the automobile had been at the time of the shooting.

KAFFKE quoted LANE further to the effect that the latter had information that two days prior to the assassination a "huddle" had taken place at JACK RUBY's "Carousel Club" with the participants being RUBY, TIPPIT (the Dallas policeman allegedly killed by OSWALD) and an individual whose name KAFFKE was unable to recall but whom he described as the "man who had published a full-page advertisement in a Dallas newspaper shortly prior to the assassination, charging President KENNEDY with being a communist."

KAFFKE expressed reluctance to discuss the above-described meeting, stating that the information had been obtained by LANE from a very confidential source, the identity of whom he was not aware, and he referred to the information concerning the meeting as being "real dynamite." He commented that if the meeting had taken place, it suggested a conspiracy of the "radical Left" or "radical Right" and added that perhaps TIPPIT had meant to shoot OSWALD. He stated that possibly OSWALD killed TIPPIT contrary to the "conspiracy" and it became necessary for JACK RUBY to kill OSWALD.

KAFFKE denied that his trip to Mexico had been financed in any way by Attorney LANE but stated that he had advised LANE of his intention of traveling to Mexico, to which LANE replied that he would be "interested in anything he might pick up."

(C) Allegation by ROBERT EDMOND GALLANT, Santa Clara Prison Farm, Santa Clara, California, that OSWALD was in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F., on July 12, 1963.

According to the first confidential source abroad, on November 16, 1963, ROBERT EDMOND GALLANT, also known as ROBERT JAMES GALLANT, ROBERT EDWARD GALLANT and General ROBERTO EDMONDO CORTEZ, addressed a letter to United States Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY from Milpitas, California, where GALLANT was incarcerated in a jail farm.

In this letter, GALLANT alleged that he had been supplying the United States Government "with vital information as to the communist movement in Latin American Countrys. Mainly Cuba, Brazil, Argentina and Mexico." He wrote that he held the rank of a general in the "Secret Underground movement in Mexico;" that he was known as "General ROBERTO DE EDMONDO CORTEZ, Director of the Secret Army of Mexico; and that the Mexican Government did not approve of this movement because its top brass is 100% communist, both in the Government Party and the Military."

In the letter, GALLANT advised that he had sent a long letter to President J. F. KENNEDY pertaining to this matter. He then furnished information regarding the alleged shipment of arms and ammunition to Cuba. He stated that he had been risking his life for the last four years to obtain information on the inside of the communist movement and that if he were given his freedom to carry on his work, he would do all in his "power to aid the United States Government in obtaining information from Cuba throughout to Mexico."

GALLANT was interviewed at the Santa Clara County Jail on January 7, 1964, and advised the following:

After stating that he was born on March 19, 1922, and furnishing background information to the effect that he was arrested by Texas authorities at Houston, Texas, for burglary and served for seven years at the Texas State Prison at Huntsville, Texas, he related other experiences of his life until in 1960 he moved to Mexico where he resided until the fall of 1963, at which time he was arrested by Mexican authorities and deported to the United States for having written fraudulent checks.

GALLANT stated further that he had been active in an anti-FIDEL CASTRO underground in Mexico for the past few years under the name of General ROBERTO DE EDMONDO CORTES; that he had under his command a secret army of 3,500 men throughout Mexico, and that this group was an anti-CASTRO force concentrating its activities against Cuban communists in Mexico. He claimed to have a "secret agent" working in the Cuban Embassy in Mexico, D. F., and alleged that OSWALD was in the Cuban Embassy on July 12, 1963, to obtain a visa to Cuba and had stayed in Mexico for about one week at that time.

GALLANT's allegations concerning his underground movement were unknown in Mexico, and the results of a polygraph examination of GALLANT were furnished on January 8, 1964, it's being the opinion of the examiner that GALLANT was suffering from delusions and that his story, as summarized above, was untrue.

(D) Allegation by HECTOR FRANCISCO SERRANO

T-17 advised as follows:

On November 26, 1963, a local newspaper editor at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, was reported to have stated that on Monday, November 25, 1963, he was visited by one HECTOR FRANCISCO SERRANO, a news photographer from Culiacan, Sinaloa, Mexico, who told the newspaper editor that in late September, 1963, he traveled by bus from Culiacan to Mexico City with "LEE OSWALD." SERRANO related that they had attempted to converse though "OSWALD's Spanish was poor," and "OSWALD" gave SERRANO a personal card and pamphlet in English with many pictures of FIDEL CASTRO, both of which later were discarded. SERRANO reportedly told the newspaper editor that upon arrival in Mexico City he noted "OSWALD's" baggage included a rifle in a leather case.

T-23, a confidential source abroad, advised as follows:

On December 2, 1963, HECTOR FRANCISCO SERRANO, Calle Rosales No. 477, Culiacan, Sinaloa, advised that in September, 1963, he had taken a Tres Estrellas de Oro (Three Gold Stars) bus from Culiacan to Mexico City, arriving about September 29, 1963. On the way to Mexico City, a person took a seat next to him near Guadalajara. He described this person as having facial characteristics similar to OSWALD and the same apparent age. He related that this person had talked to him in very poor Spanish on the trip from Guadalajara to Mexico City. He stated that he had seen OSWALD on television.

SERRANO related that he is a newspaper photographer, and when the Soviet Astronaut GAGARIN arrived in Mexico about October 10, 1963, he went to the airport to meet him. Being in the crowd, SERRANO was pushed to the front and personally talked to GAGARIN. SERRANO stated that he was surprised to see the same individual who had been next to him on the bus at the airport reception for GAGARIN.

SERRANO advised that many photographs were taken of the GAGARIN airport reception, and among the photographs which were taken was one which appeared on the front page of the October 12, 1963, issue of "Ovaciones," a Mexico City daily newspaper, in which SERRANO appeared with GAGARIN. SERRANO expressed the belief that in the background of one of the photographs is the person he saw on the bus and again at the airport reception.

T-17 advised that a review of the photographs appearing in the October 12, 1963, issue of "Ovaciones" revealed that OSWALD definitely does not appear in any of the photographs.

SERRANO advised that the above-mentioned bus from Culiacan to Mexico City arrived in Mexico City about September 29, 1963; however, OSWALD apparently entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and is reported to have traveled by bus from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City where he arrived on September 27, 1963, and was registered at a Mexico City hotel from September 27, 1963, until October 1-2, 1963.

(E) Allegation by LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ

T-2 advised as follows:

On December 2, 1963, a person who identified himself as LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ contacted the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., and advised that he had some information of interest concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

FERNANDEZ claimed he resided at the Hotel Yale, Calle Mosqueta No. 200, Mexico, D. F., that he was born on September 28, 1936, at Tegucigalpa, Honduras, and that his only living relative is his mother, AURORA GONZALEZ, who resides at Avenida 28 de Marzo No. 1300, Tegucigalpa, Honduras. He indicated that he is in Mexico illegally, having entered the country at Tapachula, Chiapas, on or about September 19, 1963.

FERNANDEZ claimed to be a member of the Movimiento de Liberacion Nacional (National Liberation Movement) in Mexico, D. F., and in connection therewith was acquainted with one SAUL LOPEZ, whom he described as Press Chief of the National Liberation Movement.

> The Movimiento Liberacion Nacional (National Liberation Movement), which was formally organized at Mexico, D. F., in August, 1961, is an anti-United States, procommunist organization under the partial influence of the Partido Comunista Mexicano (Communist Party of Mexico).
> The published statutes of the Partido Comunista Mexicano (Communist Party of Mexico) state: "The Communist Party of Mexico has as its final objective to construct socialism and to build the communist society in Mexico."

FERNANDEZ related that on or about September 28, 1963, he met an American whom he came to know as JOHN WHITE on the street in front of the Hotel Reforma in Mexico City and again saw this person on September 29, 1963, in front of the same hotel. FERNANDEZ stated he has seen newspaper photographs of OSWALD and was of the opinion JOHN WHITE greatly resembled OSWALD.

On September 29, 1963, he accompanied WHITE and SAUL LOPEZ in LOPEZ' 1959 Ford Galaxie to Cuernavaca, Morelos, where they spent the day swimming and entertaining themselves at the Hotel Casino de la Selva but did not register at that hotel.

FERNANDEZ stated that he last saw JOHN WHITE on September 30, 1963, when WHITE and LOPEZ left Mexico, D. F., traveling to Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, in LOPEZ' automobile.

FERNANDEZ described WHITE as being about 23 to 24 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weighing about 110 pounds. He claimed that WHITE could speak fairly good Spanish and seemed very familiar with the Mexico City area.

FERNANDEZ stated he had nothing further to offer bearing on LEE HARVEY OSWALD but added that he was in need of assistance to go to the United States or elsewhere out of Mexico because he feared that he would be apprehended by the police in Mexico, D. F., and jailed if he were found in Mexico without proper documentation. He advised he was without funds and had no gainful employment. He was badly in need of a shave and had an unkempt appearance.

On December 4, 1963, FERNANDEZ presented an undated passenger ticket stub, No. 46218, of the bus line known as Transportes del Norte, which he claimed had been given to him by WHITE on September 28, 1963, to have his baggage picked up at the Transportes del Norte bus station.

FERNANDEZ at this time again related he was in need of assistance to leave Mexico and enter the United States.

T-7 advised on December 4, 1963, that inquiry at the Transportes del Norte bus line in Monterrey revealed that ticket No. 46218 had been sold on November 30, 1963. (FERNANDEZ claimed to have been furnished the ticket stub with that number on September 28, 1963.)

T-20 advised as follows:

On December 19, 1963, it was learned from Attorney SANTIAGO IBANEZ LLAMAS, an official of the Mexican Immigration Service, Mexico, D. F., that FERNANDEZ had been detained by Mexican Immigration authorities in Mexico, D. F., for investigation concerning his alleged illegal entry into Mexico and to clarify his citizenship status. It was subsequently learned from Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS that on January 15, 1964, FERNANDEZ had been deported from Mexico to Honduras in view of his continued claim of Honduran citizenship.

On March 17, 1964, Attorney IBANEZ LLAMAS advised that investigation by the Mexican Government had revealed that LUIS FERNANDEZ GONZALEZ actually was a Mexican citizen and that he was considered to be insane. IBANEZ also stated that FERNANDEZ' mother had been an inmate of a mental institution in Mexico.

On March 23, 1964, IBANEZ advised that FERNANDEZ had returned to Mexico from Honduras without permission of Mexican Immigration authorities and again had been detained on March 4, 1964, for questioning as a result of information received by Mexican authorities that he had claimed to have information concerning a planned attempt against the life of French President CHARLES DE GAULLE incidental to DE GAULLE's March 16-19, 1964, visit to Mexico.

IBANEZ related that investigation by the Mexican Ministry of Government had established that FERNANDEZ' true name is MANUEL SANTAMARINA MENDEZ. He stated that two Mexico City attorneys, AUGUSTIN SANTAMARINA, JR., Avenida Reforma No. 76, Office No. 3, and FERNANDO ARCE SANTAMARINA, Avenida Reforma No. 76, Office No. 1, Mexico, D. F., personally identified FERNANDEZ as their cousin and informed the Mexican investigators that FERNANDEZ' mother, AURORA MENDEZ DE SANTAMARINA, is mentally afflicted and his father, CARLOS SANTAMARINA, is deceased. The two attorneys described their cousin as mentally unbalanced and as a person who is well known for inventing fantastic falsehoods.

IBANEZ stated that FERNANDEZ or SANTAMARINA had been released from custody on March 20, 1964, after inquiries had clearly established his Mexican citizenship, and Mexican authorities were convinced that most of his statements were unreliable or completely false.

(F) Allegation by ROBERT HIMES

T-7 furnished the following:

On December 13, 1963, ROBERT HIMES, 301 Isaac Garza Sur, Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, furnished the following information:

On or about November 6, 1963, OSWALD allegedly entered Mexico at Ojinaga, Chihuahua, and proceeded south through the Republic of Mexico to the State of Michoacan where he conferred with General LAZARO CARDENAS.

HIMES stated this information was given to his son, DAVID, by General SILICIA, Commandant of the Military Garrison at Ojinaga, Chihuahua. HIMES had no further particulars as to how OSWALD was traveling or any additional information regarding the matter.

HIMES advised that his son, DAVID, was engaged to marry the daughter of General SILICIA, and during his early December visit to Ojinaga, the General had made the above statement.

In connection with the allegation, it is noted that Mr. H. S. AIKEN, bookkeeper, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, on November 25, 1963, made available official payroll records for the Texas School Book Depository, which reflected that OSWALD first worked for this company on October 16, 1963, and worked continuously eight hours per day from October 16, 1963, through November 22, 1963, without missing a day's work. During this period of time he was off duty on Saturdays, Sundays and November 11, 1963, which was a company holiday. It is noted in this connection that November 6, 1963, was a Wednesday.

(G) Allegation by ANDREW CHAMPION that a Friend of FRANCIS H. FIEDLER of New Orleans, Louisiana, was OSWALD

T-7, who had occasion to interview ANDREW CHAMPION of Donna, Texas, at Calle Parras No. 213, Montemorelos, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, advised that on January 2, 1964, CHAMPION made the following statement:

CHAMPION, who was born October 14, 1900, in Santa Maria, Texas, and served in the United States Marines in World Wars I and II, in 1952 or 1953 became acquainted with FRANK H. FIEDLER, also known as FRANCIS H. FIEDLER, at the Buena Vista Hotel in Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico. FIEDLER had stated that he was working on his doctor's thesis at the University of California, Berkeley, California; that he was a teacher; that his studies were in "space work"; and that he was mistreated in the United States because he was Jewish.

In November, 1960, CHAMPION received a letter from FIEDLER dated October 8, 1960, which was addressed from 912 North Rampart Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, and in this letter FIEDLER stated that he was going to visit the Rio Grande; that he was "an American refugee from Cuba"; and that he had given up his position as professor of literature at the University of Hawaii "because of CASTRO."

On November 7, 1962, CHAMPION received another letter from FIEDLER, and on January 1, 1963, two men suddenly appeared at CHAMPION's home in Donna, Texas. One of the men was identified later as JACK J. FRAZIER, 910 North Rampart Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, a neighbor of FIEDLER's. FRAZIER presented a letter to CHAMPION from FIEDLER in which the latter asked CHAMPION to assist the two men in parking their car and in obtaining instructions concerning travel in Mexico.

The second man, whose name CHAMPION never learned, stated that the two of them possibly were going to spend their vacation in Veracruz or Tampico and asked for the names of some inexpensive hotels at these places. The two men took two sea bags, presumably full of clothes, and on the afternoon of January 1, 1963, departed on foot toward the Mexican border, stating they were going to cross into Mexico at Brownsville, Texas.

On January 29 and 30, 1963, FRAZIER returned by himself, stating that he had been in Tampico and that his friend had decided to stay another month. FRAZIER left in his automobile after he had identified himself as the owner of the Ryder Coffee House, Home and Gallery, 910 Rampart Street, New Orleans.

With the publication of OSWALD's picture in the national press on the day of President KENNEDY's assassination, CHAMPION concluded that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was identical with the second man who visited his home on January 1, 1963.

CHAMPION stated that on December 1, 1963, on his return from a trip to Mexico, he learned that he had received a letter from FIEDLER advising that he probably would visit the Rio Grande Valley in the near future, and CHAMPION's wife had dispatched a letter to FIEDLER stating that CHAMPION would not be home for four months. This letter was mailed on November 23, 1963, to 1123 Burgundy Street, New Orleans.

From the "Time" magazine issued after the assassination of President KENNEDY, CHAMPION had clipped an article wherein it was set out that a WESLEY FRAZIER had driven OSWALD to work on the morning of the assassination, and CHAMPION had wondered if there was any association between the two FRAZIERs and the information that OSWALD had resided in New Orleans. CHAMPION stated that with this information he became more convinced that the man who visited his home on January 1, 1963, was OSWALD.

Subsequent to the foregoing, JACK J. FRAZIER, 2106 Chartres Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised in January, 1964, that he had made a trip into Mexico in late December, 1962, accompanied by HOWARD COHEN, 611 Esplanade, New Orleans, Louisiana. He stated that he and COHEN toured the east coast of Mexico, went to Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico, and then returned to New Orleans about February 1, 1963.

FRAZIER advised that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that HOWARD COHEN in no way resembled OSWALD.

(H) Allegation by ALBERTO GODOY That Film in His Possession Might Depict LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY Together

T-2 advised as follows:

On January 13, 1964, SANDERS F. ROSENBLUM of the United States Information Service, United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., advised that a Mexican attorney named ALBERTO GODOY appeared at the United States Embassy and related the following:

At 9:30 a.m. on January 14, 1964, he was planning a private showing at the Cine Versalles, Mexico, D. F., of a film on the Cuban revolution which he had in his possession.

GODOY had seen this film two years previously, and although he was not certain, he thought it possible that the film depicted an individual who possibly was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and another person who possibly was identical with JACK RUBY.

GODOY was not certain that the individuals in the film were identical with OSWALD and RUBY and was anxious that an observation of the film be made on January 14, 1964.

T-2 advised on January 14, 1964, that when contacted on the morning of that date, GODOY advised that the film had been shown on January 13, 1964, and that there was no one available at the Cine Versalles to run the film again.

He stated that reel No. 4 of the film was important because it depicted Cuban Premier FIDEL CASTRO's entry to Havana, Cuba, at the conclusion of the Cuban revolution and includes shots of throngs of people which could be enlarged to possibly identify OSWALD or RUBY as being in the crowd.

He made no allegation of having seen or identified OSWALD or RUBY in these crowds because he had seen the film two years before this. He stated that many communists were present when FIDEL CASTRO entered Havana, and he believed that OSWALD and RUBY could have been members of these crowds in Havana.

On January 14, 1964, he was shown photographs of OSWALD and he was not familiar in any way with the appearance of OSWALD. He also was shown a photograph of RUBY and could furnish no information reflecting that RUBY was shown in the film.

On January 14, 1964, GODOY reappeared at the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., with reel No. 4 of his film and stated that his primary interest was to sell the film to the United States Embassy for a price of $1,000 (United States currency) for the four reels of film.

GODOY furnished no concrete data to substantiate the allegation made by him on January 13, 1964, that OSWALD and RUBY might be depicted in his film.

GODOY, who appeared to be from 65 to 70 years of age, was unshaven and shabbily dressed and furnished his address as 128 Calle Bucareli, Mexico, D. F.

(I) Letter to Attorney General ROBERT F. KENNEDY from ERNESTO FLORES LUNA

According to the first confidential source abroad, a typewritten letter in Spanish, postmarked January 17, 1964, [redacted] of Mexican Immigration Service at Tapachula, advised on February 11, 1964, that he was well-acquainted with COHEN, whom he described as a prosperous local merchant. He stated that because of COHEN's alleged contraband activities, he has tried without success to follow COHEN's activities and establish evidence of violation of Mexican laws. He stated that during the course of his investigation, he learned of no contacts by COHEN with North Americans or other foreigners. He stated he believed it to be ridiculous to believe that COHEN would do anything for political motivation. He was certain that COHEN was not pro-FIDEL CASTRO and that there were no pro-CASTRO groups in Tapachula.

VICTOR COHEN CHARAFF, who is the son of ISAAC COHEN and considered identical with VICTOR COHEN SCHARAFF, a white, male Mexican, born July 19, 1933, at Tuxtepec, Oaxaca, Mexico, 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing 147 pounds, with brown hair and eyes, of fair complexion, by occupation a clothing merchant, bearer of Mexican passport No. 282800, issued September 7, 1959, advised as follows on February 11, 1964, at his store in Tapachula:

He is not interested in politics concerning the United States, Cuba or any other nation; he is not pro-FIDEL CASTRO and has never belonged and never will belong to any pro-CASTRO organization.

He stated that because he is a prosperous businessman and Jewish, he has many enemies in Tapachula.

The name ERNESTO FLORES LUNA had no significance for him.

He claimed he had had no contact with any North Americans or other foreigners during the previous year; that no North Americans or other foreigners have been in his house or rental units; and that none of his forty employees are pro-CASTRO.

He was unfamiliar with OSWALD and unable to identify OSWALD from a group of photographs exhibited to him.

He recalled reading that OSWALD had visited Mexico but knew nothing further concerning this visit.

VICTOR COHEN CHARAFF was cooperative in furnishing samples from his typewriter for determination as to whether this typewriter was used in preparing the letter forwarded to Attorney General KENNEDY.

Result of FBI Laboratory
Examination of Typewriter Samples

T-29 advised that on February 19, 1964, the original and carbon copy samples from the typewriter of VICTOR COHEN were submitted to the FBI Laboratory for comparison with the typewritten letter directed to ROBERT F. KENNEDY by ERNESTO FLORES LUNA.

The FBI Laboratory concluded in a report dated March 3, 1964, that the typewriter used to type the samples submitted from VICTOR COHEN's typewriter was not used to type the envelope and accompanying letter forwarded to "Sr. ROBERT KENNEDY" from ERNESTO FLORES LUNA.

Additional Efforts to Identify ERNESTO FLORES LUNA in Mexico, D. F.

T-4 advised that throughout February, March and April, 1964, the following efforts were made to locate and identify ERNESTO FLORES LUNA in Mexico:

The only reference which could be located in the files of the numerous Mexican Government agencies checked for the name ERNESTO FLORES LUNA was a December 15, 1959, application for Mexican Social Security registration as an employee of the "Constructora Valle de Bravo, S. A." (Brave Valley Construction Co., Inc.), Calle Oaxaca 93, Colonia Roma, Mexico, D. F., Mexico. This individual indicated he was born in 1922 and resided at Sierra Mojada, Lot 51, San Isidro Tecamachalo, State of Mexico, Mexico. His wife was listed as MARGARITA DELGADO PEDRAZA. He was registered with Mexican Social Security No. 153-22-157.

T-4 conducted the following inquiry:

At the "Constructora Valle de Bravo, S. A." it was determined that no record could be located of the employment of ERNESTO FLORES LUNA. The "Constructora Valle de Bravo, S. A."

was formed in 1959 when this concern was engaged in the construction of a housing development known as "San Esteban" in Mexico, D. F., and the firm and its subcontractors employed thousands of temporary workers. It was suggested at the "Constructora Valle de Bravo, S. A." that ERNESTO FLORES LUNA might have been employed by one of the subcontractors as he was unknown to the parent firm.

Neighborhood inquiries in San Isidro Tecamachalco, State of Mexico, which immediately adjoins the Federal District, failed to locate any information relative to ERNESTO FLORES LUNA.

According to T-4, no documentation is necessary to apply for Social Security registration in Mexico, and any identit may be assumed in making such an application. Source pointed out that the fact there has been no other activity or entry with respect to this registration may indicate the registration of ERNESTO FLORES LUNA was fictitious, since efforts to identify LUNA through numerous other sources had been unsuccessful.

(J) Information from JOSE GARCIA LUCHICHI That American Woman in Monterrey, Mexico, Telephoned Dallas Before and After Assassination of President KENNEDY

The first confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On January 3, 1964, JOSE GARCIA LUCHICHI, a former employee of the United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., and a reporter for "The News," an English language daily newspaper published in Mexico, D. F., furnished the following information to the Regional Security Office, United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F.

An unidentified American woman, who had rented a room in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, from GUADALUPE DAVILA REYES at Colombia 345, Vista Hermosa, Monterrey, had telephoned Dallas, Texas, from Monterrey several times prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and again following the assassination.

The unidentified woman allegedly revealed that she was very happy upon learning of President KENNEDY's death and allegedly played "happy tunes on the piano" thereafter.

The woman's conduct reportedly was so offensive to Miss GUADALUPE DAVILA REYES that she was asked to leave and the woman's whereabouts was not known.

T-31, a confidential source abroad, advised on January 15, 1964, at Monterrey, Mexico, that Miss GUADALUPE DAVILA REYES stated that the above allegations were completely unfounded and without any basis whatsoever.

(K) Allegation That STEVE KENNAN Might Have Met OSWALD in Mexico

T-2 advised as follows:

On January 22, 1964, HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON, a graduate student of the Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (National Autonomous University of Mexico), Mexico, D. F., commented on an alleged statement he made the latter part of December, 1963, that a young American, STEVE KENNAN, described by ALCARAZ ARAGON as procommunist and from some city in Pennsylvania, might have had something to do with OSWALD.

ALCARAZ ARAGON advised that when KENNAN was in Mexico in 1962 and 1963, he apparently was unsuccessful in securing a visa from Cuban authorities for travel to Cuba.

ALCARAZ ARAGON stated he could not identify photographs of OSWALD as identical with anyone he ever observed in KENNAN's company in Mexico or as anyone he had ever seen.

ALCARAZ ARAGON claimed to have no knowledge which would place KENNAN in contact with OSWALD.

On April 27, 1964, ALCARAZ ARAGON was reinterviewed and stated very positively that he had never seen OSWALD and had no personal knowledge whatsoever concerning OSWALD's travel to and activities and contacts in Mexico City. He advised that he can be located in Mexico City at Calle Chiapas No. 160.

(L) Information From ARTURO ALCOCER RUIZ

T-10 advised that on November 27, 1963, Attorney ARTURO ALCOCER RUIZ, Calle Masaryk No. 51, Mexico, D. F., furnished the following information:

At approximately 9:00 a.m., November 21, 1963, he and his wife, DOLORES AHEDO DE ALCOCER, upon departing the Gunter Hotel in San Antonio, Texas, for a shopping tour, had observed a very obese woman who was wearing glasses and a green cotton dress, was about 50 years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches in height, with dyed blond hair and weighing about 200 pounds. This woman was standing in front of "Carl's" store near the Gunter Hotel.

Upon returning to the vicinity of the Gunter Hotel about 1:00 p.m., they again saw the same woman still standing at the same location. At that time President JOHN F. KENNEDY was passing down the street in a caravan, and they observed the woman leave the area after the Presidential procession had gone by.

On November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, while still in San Antonio and while watching a television interview of the manager of the guest house where OSWALD stayed in Dallas, Texas, the television camera, during the course of that interview, picked up the same fat woman they had seen in San Antonio the previous day.

On November 24, 1963, ALCOCER and his wife were watching a television program in San Antonio, following the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY, and while RUBY's sister was being interviewed on television, they became certain that RUBY's sister was identical with the fat woman.

ALCOCER expressed the belief that the foregoing information might possibly indicate involvement of JACK RUBY and his sister as conspirators in the assassination of President KENNEDY.

(M) Information That ERNESTO RODRIGUEZ, New Orleans, Louisiana, Possessed Tape Recordings of OSWALD's Spanish

T-17 advised as follows:

On November 27, 1963, a widow named Mrs. MARIA RODRIGUEZ DE LOPEZ made the statement in Mexico, D. F., Mexico, that her son-in-law, a Cuban named ERNESTO RODRIGUEZ, 212 Jefferson Parish, New Orleans, Louisiana, telephone No. Vernon 5-9658, operates a Spanish school in New Orleans and had tape recordings of Spanish conversations by OSWALD. Mrs. RODRIGUEZ DE LOPEZ stated her son is opposed to Cuban Premier FIDEL CASTRO.

According to the first confidential source abroad, ERNESTO RODRIGUEZ, President of the Modern Language Institute, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised that OSWALD contacted him on one occasion during the last week of July or early August, 1963, and inquired concerning a Spanish language course offered at the Institute. OSWALD did not take any courses, and RODRIGUEZ had no taped recordings of OSWALD's voice. He had no knowledge of OSWALD's Spanish-speaking ability.

NOTE: General Walker made a speech at Dartmouth, Mass., on 5-10-64 wherein he stated that the Warren Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy was attempting to suppress an alleged relationship between Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby. The newspaper also reported that General Walker got into a pushing scuffle with a free-lance television photographer who was attempting to photograph Walker during his speech. Our investigation has disclosed no relationship between Oswald and Ruby and we are conducting no investigation concerning the instant incident involving General Walker.

To recommend the attached airtel be sent to all SACs alerting them to the possibility the President's Commission may wind-up its inquiry of the assassination at an early date and to expedite investigation.

Information available to the Bureau would indicate the President's Commission will endeavor to wind-up its inquiry into the assassination of President Kennedy sometime during June, 1964. While the field has been continually reminded to expedite investigation in this matter, it is felt this additional reminder should be sent to insure all pertinent investigation is available at the Bureau at the earliest possible time for dissemination to the Commission.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad has advised that Miss BARRIE MILLMAN, a student at the University of California, Berkeley, California, who claimed to be engaged to marry HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON, a graduate of the Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico (National Autonomous University of Mexico) at Mexico, D. F. (Federal District of Mexico which encompasses Mexico City), had made a statement in January, 1963, that she had visited ALCARAZ ARAGON in Mexico, D. F., in December, 1963, and during that visit ALCARAZ ARAGON told MILLMAN that while at the Friends Service Center in Mexico, D. F., he met an American, name unknown, who wanted to go to Cuba to make a "firsthand report on the situation there"; that later ALCARAZ ARAGON met this American at Sanborn's Restaurant in Mexico, D. F., and on that occasion the unknown American was accompanied by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. The unknown American and OSWALD allegedly told ALCARAZ ARAGON that they were working together to obtain visas for Cuba and planned to travel there together. MILLMAN furnished no additional details and was said to be reluctant to discuss the matter further.

INITIAL INTERVIEW OF HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON

A second confidential source abroad advised that on January 22, 1964, HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON, Calle Anaxagoras No. 232, Apartment 22, Colonia Narvarte, Mexico, D. F., advised as follows relative to the statements he allegedly made during the latter part of December, 1963, to his fiancee, BARRIE MILLMAN, concerning OSWALD:

He had mentioned to BARRIE MILLMAN the possibility that a young American, STEVE KENNAN, whom he described as a procommunist from some city in Pennsylvania, might have had something to do with OSWALD. He did mention to MILLMAN that OSWALD could have been acquainted with KENNAN, since both of them reportedly were adherents of the communist ideology and both had visited Mexico.

ALCARAZ ARAGON stated he had never met anyone he could identify as OSWALD in the company of KENNAN, even though he had seen KENNAN on several occasions at Sanborn's Restaurant. He examined photographs of OSWALD and was unable to identify them as being of any person he had seen with KENNAN. He explained that he had never discussed the possibility of a friendship between KENNAN and OSWALD with anyone other than MILLMAN and that his discussion with her was merely speculative. He stated it was obvious that MILLMAN had discussed his conversation with her with someone in California, leading to the erroneous belief that he had claimed to have met OSWALD in Mexico, D. F.

ALLEGATIONS BY ROBERT KAFFKE -

A third confidential source abroad advised that on February 27, 1964, ROBERT KAFFKE, who identified himself as having been a member of a student group which visited Cuba in 1963, made the statement in Mexico, D. F., that he had made some inquiries with respect to the visit of OSWALD to Mexico with the hope that he could develop a novel approach which would enable him to write a salable magazine article.

The first confidential source abroad advised that subsequently at San Francisco, California, KAFFKE stated on March 20, 1964, that at the "Casa de los Amigos" (Friends Service Center) he had met one "ARNOLD," whom he identified as an employee of the "Mexico City Times," a daily English language newspaper published at Mexico, D. F., and that "ARNOLD" had commented that he had had dinner with OSWALD on the occasion of OSWALD's visit to Mexico, D. F., prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. "ARNOLD," who claimed to be from Berkeley, California, did not state where the dinner engagement took place with OSWALD and did not mention details concerning his conversation with OSWALD.

The first confidential source abroad advised that "ARNOLD" later was identified in April, 1964, as ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER of Detroit, Michigan, who was admitted to the University of California, Berkeley, California, in 1962 and was visiting in Brazil.

INTERVIEW OF HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON ON APRIL 27, 1964

The second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On April 27, 1964, HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON, who stated he was residing at Calle Chiapas No. 160, Mexico, D. F., appeared at the United States Embassy, Paseo de la Reforma No. 305, Mexico, D. F., and, after examining a photograph of ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER, stated KESSLER definitely is not identical with the American known to him as STEVE KENNAN.

ALCARAZ ARAGON advised that the person known to him as STEVE KENNAN had visited Mexico in late 1962 or early 1963 and had departed from Mexico many months prior to OSWALD's reported visit to Mexico in September and early October, 1963.

ALCARAZ ARAGON related that he first became acquainted with ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER in September or October, 1963, at the Friends Service Center located at Calle Ignacio Mariscal No. 132, Mexico, D. F., which is a charitable and religious center operated in Mexico, D. F., by the Quaker organization. He recalled that KESSLER was still in Mexico when he had been interviewed on January 22, 1964, regarding the statement he had made to his fiancee, BARRIE MILLMAN, during the latter part of December, 1963.

He recalled that KESSLER had been employed by the "Mexico City Times" newspaper in late 1963 and early 1964, and he had seen KESSLER at the Friends Service Center at the time news appeared on Mexico, D. F., television programs concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

He could not remember that KESSLER had made any comments at that time which would lead him to believe that KESSLER had any knowledge of or was acquainted with OSWALD. He expressed the personal opinion that KESSLER did not know

OSWALD and had not been in contact with him. He mentioned that KESSLER had commented to him that, in the past, he had been sympathetic to the communist ideology and was trying to rid himself of the stigma because his ideas in this connection had changed. He was certain that KESSLER had never mentioned anything in his presence which would lead him to believe that KESSLER might have known OSWALD.

ALCARAZ ARAGON advised that ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER is the only American he has known who has the first name "ARNOLD," and he did not think that KESSLER was acquainted with STEVE KENNAN because the latter had left Mexico prior to KESSLER's arrival in Mexico. He could not provide any information to further identify STEVE KENNAN and did not know that KENNAN had been in Mexico during the period of OSWALD's visit. He stated he had no knowledge that any of his acquaintances might have been in contact with OSWALD.

He pointed out that "a false alarm" apparently had been initiated by some acquaintance of his fiancee, BARRIE MILLMAN, in Berkeley, California, to the effect that he had stated that possibly STEVE KENNAN might have had something to do with OSWALD in Mexico. ALCARAZ ARAGON reiterated that the report that he had met OSWALD in Mexico was completely without foundation.

INTERVIEW OF ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER IN BRAZIL

The first confidential source abroad advised that on April 30, 1964, ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER, permanent residence 18266 Pinehurst, Detroit 21, Michigan, stated at Sao Paulo, Brazil, that he had never been in contact with OSWALD; that he had not made a statement that he had been in contact with OSWALD, but might have made the remark to someone that a friend of his, HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON, had remarked on one occasion that he had met OSWALD in Mexico, D. F. KESSLER claimed to have no details of the alleged meeting between ALCARAZ ARAGON and OSWALD, but recalled that ALCARAZ ARAGON had alleged that he had been introduced to OSWALD sometime in the Fall of 1963; that OSWALD, the person who introduced them, and ALCARAZ ARAGON had had coffee together at an unidentified place in Mexico, D. F.; and that he had no other information which would serve to verify whether or not ALCARAZ ARAGON and OSWALD had met.

INQUIRY AT THE FRIENDS SERVICE CENTER, MEXICO, D. F., RE: ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER

The second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On May 11, 1964, Mrs. AGNES COGGESHALL, Director of the "Casa de los Amigos" (Friends Service Center), Calle Ignacio Mariscal No. 132, Mexico, D. F., advised that ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER had registered his address at the center as 18266 Pinehurst, Detroit, Michigan, and that the records of the center reflect KESSLER resided therein during the following periods:

October 25, 1963, to November 11, 1963;
November 13, 1963, to November 16, 1963;
November 30, 1963, to December 1, 1963;
February 12, 1964, to February 29, 1964.

Mrs. COGGESHALL stated that during late 1963 KESSLER had been employed by the "Mexico City Times" newspaper for a brief period and in December, 1963, had secured an apartment somewhere in Mexico City because, even though he preferred to reside at the "Casa de los Amigos," he had been informed he could not reside there because permanent residence at the center is not permitted.

Mrs. COGGESHALL is acquainted with ALCARAZ ARAGON and advised that she would not rely on anything he might have to say. She recalled that ARNOLD LOUIS KESSLER had impressed her as an intelligent and reliable individual. She was not well-acquainted with either ALCARAZ ARAGON or KESSLER, but considered that of these two individuals KESSLER was more stable and truthful.

VON PEACOCK, Assistant Director at the "Casa de los Amigos," furnished the following on May 11, 1964:

He was aware that HOMOBONO ALCARAZ ARAGON had been interviewed in Mexico, D. F., in February, 1964, concerning the comment he had made to his fiancee, BARRIE MILLMAN, that he might have met OSWALD in Mexico.

During his periodic visits to the "Casa de los Amigos," ALCARAZ ARAGON had never indicated to PEACOCK that he had met OSWALD in Mexico, and PEACOCK doubted that ALCARAZ ARAGON had any factual knowledge concerning OSWALD.

PEACOCK stated that ALCARAZ ARAGON is a person inclined to engage in "loose talk" and that he was impressed by the fact that he had been sought out and interviewed with regard to OSWALD. He pointed out that, even though ALCARAZ ARAGON had succeeded in obtaining a degree as an attorney in Mexico, he is actually "a weak character of questionable morals." He had knowledge that ALCARAZ ARAGON had boasted in the past of "his connections in high places" and had stated it was through this influence that he had succeeded in his scholastic endeavors.

PEACOCK did not doubt that ALCARAZ ARAGON might have told KESSLER that he had met OSWALD in Mexico because it is the sort of thing which ALCARAZ ARAGON might fabricate as a boastful gesture. PEACOCK stated he did not know whether ALCARAZ ARAGON had or had not met OSWALD in Mexico, but based on his knowledge of ALCARAZ ARAGON's affinity toward "loose talk" he had learned to be skeptical of any statement made by him.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

Information has been received from a confidential source abroad to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD registered at the Hotel Del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, on September 27, 1963, and continued to reside at that hotel until the morning of October 2, 1963.

According to source, continued investigation in Mexico has been conducted in an effort to identify, locate, and interview individuals who were guests at the Hotel Del Comercio during the same period as OSWALD, and, although additional persons have been located, none has been able to provide any information concerning OSWALD's contacts and activities in Mexico City.

At San Luis Potosi, San Luis Potosi, Mexico:

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided the following information on May 7, 1964:

Captain CARLOS DOMINGUEZ, President of the State Organization of Veterans of the Revolution, with offices at Alvaro Obregon No. 500, Room 20, advised that he and other colleagues in that organization had been in Mexico City in early October, 1963, and had stayed at the Hotel Del Comercio. He states that he had been accompanied by PEDRO ZAVALA RODRIGUEZ of Aguascalientes, Aguascalientes, JORGE LOPEZ and ANDRES FUENTES ESPINOSA, all retired Army Captains and the latter two being residents of Saltillo, Coahuila, where they are representatives of the local textile and fiber workers. DOMINGUEZ explained that his colleagues had remained more time at the hotel than he and, upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised that he did not recall seeing that person at the hotel and was unable to furnish any information concerning him.

At Aguascalientes, Aguascalientes, Mexico:

POLO DUENAS HERNANDEZ, Calle Dr. Gonzalez Saracho No. 212, was interviewed and related that he is the director of an orchestra known as "The Polo Duenas Orchestra" and that on September 26, 1963, had been in Mexico City with his musical group, which he housed at the Hotel Del Comercio, although he stayed with a relative.

Upon viewing a photograph of OSWALD, DUENAS stated that he was unable to recall having seen OSWALD at the Hotel Del Comercio during his several visits to that hotel. Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to the following members of the orchestra who had been at the Hotel Del Comercio registered under the name of POLO DUENAS, and none of them was able to recognize the photographs or recall OSWALD in any way:

BENJAMIN MARIN
EDUARDO RENDON MACIAS — Aguascalientes
ANDRES GUTIERREZ
ANTONIO ORTIZ
ANGEL REGALADO PEREZ — Mexico
ELOY VALADEZ
ROSENDO GONZALEZ
GUSTAVO LOPEZ
OCTAVIANO RANGEL

On May 4, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he had contacted HORACIO GARCIA, the manager of the "Estrella Blanca" (White Star) bus line terminal at Aguascalientes and had been advised that no record could be located of a driver for that line named JOSE GAMES or possibly JOSE GOMEZ. GARCIA explained that many of the drivers reside at localities along the route of the bus line, and information concerning them only would be available at the company headquarters in Mexico City. This source checked the Voters Registration Bureau without locating any information identifiable with JOSE GAMES or GOMEZ.

The second source advised on May 4, 1964, that he had located and interviewed ALICIA PLAZA TREJO, Calle J. Jesus Consuelo No. 410, Aguascalientes, who advised that she had been registered at the Hotel Del Comercio for the last few days of the month of September, 1963, and had been accompanied by her parents, JUAN and ENCARNACION PLAZA, and her sister, YOLANDA PLAZA. She explained that the family had been in Mexico City in order to contact the headquarters of the National Railways in connection with the retirement of her father and had spent very little time in the hotel. The four persons mentioned above viewed photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and stated that they could not remember him as a guest at the Hotel Del Comercio.

The first confidential source furnished the following information on May 7, 1964:

Retired Army Captain PEDRO ZAVALA RODRIGUEZ was located at Calle Hornedo No. 448, Aguascalientes, and upon viewing a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD affirmed that he was unable to recall OSWALD as a guest at the Hotel Del Comercio.

At Guanajuato, Guanajuato, Mexico:

Inquiry was made at the Central Post Office, the Municipal Police Department, and the National Voters Registration Bureau at Guanajuato without locating any information identifiable with LEONARDO BEZERRA. One MARIANO BECERRA, Calle Hidalgo No. 36, was interviewed at his residence and advised that he is not acquainted with LEONARDO BEZERRA.

At Leon, Guanajuato, Mexico:

The first confidential source advised that he had checked the records of the Municipal Police Department, the National Voters Registration Bureau, and the Central Post Office at Leon without locating any information identifiable with the name SANTOS PEDROZA.

The second source advised that he had interviewed TRANQUILINO and MARIA HERMILIA PEDRAZA at Leon, Guanajuato, and they had stated that SANTOS PEDROZA is unknown to them.

At Irapuato, Guanajuato, Mexico:

The first source advised as follows on May 7, 1964:

It was ascertained that TEOFILO VELAZQUEZ resides at Calle Vallarta No. 19, Irapuato, and that he is a musician and orchestra leader. His daughter, CARMEN VELAZQUEZ, advised that her father was in Manzanillo, Colima, fulfilling an engagement with his orchestra and would return to Irapuato within approximately ten days. She recalled that her father had been in Mexico City in the latter part of September, 1963, to attend a convention of musicians and that he had stayed at the Hotel Del Comercio.

At San Luis de la Paz, Guanajuato, Mexico:

The first source advised that he had checked the Voters Registration Bureau, the Police files, the office of the Municipal Presidency, and the Federal Treasury Office at San Luis de la Paz without locating anyone who was acquainted with ARMANDO RODRIGUEZ. The source pointed out that San Luis de la Paz is a small town, and he had contacted several families with the surname of RODRIGUEZ without locating anyone who was acquainted with ARMANDO. Source expressed the opinion that the registration for RODRIGUEZ as being from "San Luis, Guanajuato," might be for some other locality in the State of Guanajuate.

At Celaya, Guanajuato, Mexico:

Efforts were made to locate a person named ROSA or ROSAS RAMIREZ through inquiry at the Central Post Office, a check of the telephone company, and the Municipal Police files, without locating any information identifiable with ROSA or ROSAS RAMIREZ.

Source related that extensive inquiry was conducted in the State of Guanajuato in an effort to locate "Guadalupe, Guanajuato," as a municipality, but it was determined that there is no town of that name. It was determined, however, that there are several villages or ranches with the name of Guadalupe, and an effort was made to identify LEOPOLDO DIAZ through the state office of the National Voters Registration Bureau without obtaining any information which might assist in identifying and locating DIAZ.

At Queretaro, Queretaro, Mexico:

Source reported that he had conducted extensive inquiry at Queretaro through inquiry in the telephone directory, the Central Post Office, and the Municipal Police Department without locating any information identifiable with TOMAS GALVAN, SILVINO MARTINEZ and GUILLERMO FLORES. Source advised that he had contacted numerous persons at Queretaro with the surnames MARTINEZ, GALVAN and FLORES without locating anyone who was acquainted with the individuals mentioned.

At Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico:

On April 28, 1964, the second source advised that he had checked the local telephone directory, the files of the power and light company, and the Guadalajara Census Bureau, without locating information which would identify the ALFREDO GARCIA and the FERNANDO MARTINEZ who had been registered at the Hotel Del Comercio in late September, 1963. Source stated that both names are very common in the area and that he had interviewed numerous individuals whose names he had obtained from the above sources without locating anyone who had been a guest at the Hotel Del Comercio during the pertinent period.

This source reported that one ALFREDO GARCIA AVALOS had been identified as a resident at Calle J. C. Orozco No. 90, Ciudad Guzman, Jalisco, but it had been determined that GARCIA was away from home; however, his wife advised source that GARCIA could have been in Mexico City during the latter part of September, 1963. Source was continuing efforts to interview GARCIA AVALOS.

At Durango, Durango, Mexico:

A third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 11, 1964, that he had conducted inquiry at the offices of the Federal Voters Registration Bureau at Durango without locating any information identifiable with the ISABEL SALAZAR, J. ASCENCION HERRERA, and JUAN FRANCISCO ROCHA, who had been guests at the Hotel Del Comercio during the latter part of September, 1963. A record was located for ISABEL ALMANZA DE SALAZAR, 21 years of age, and a resident at Privada de Santa Maria No. 500, who, upon interview, advised that she has never been in Mexico City and she was quite certain that her husband, JOSE SALAZAR, had never been to the Federal Capital. Source advised that, having failed to locate any record of J. ASCENCION HERRERA, he had interviewed the following persons with that surname without locating anyone who could identify him:

RUDOLFO HERRERA, Pino Suarez West No. 402;

ROSARIO HERRERA, Avenida Juarez North No. 302;

ADOLFO HERRERA, Canelas No. 1115;

DANIEL HERRERA, Calle Bravo No. 324;

OSCAR H. HERRERA, Voladores South No. 525;

HILARIO HERRERA, Calle 20 de Noviember East No. 106;

JOSE HERRERA LUGO, Abasolo No. 214.

In an effort to locate ISABEL SALAZAR, the following were interviewed without locating anyone who could identify her:

ANTONIO SALAZAR AVINA, Paloma West No. 135;

CONFIDENTIAL

JOSE EPITACIO SALAZAR, Zarco South No. 310; Durango.

MANUEL SALAZAR, Pereyra West No. 116; Durango

JUAN FRANCISCO SALAZAR, Cinco de Febrero West No. 1112. MEXICO

Source stated that with respect te the name JUAN FRANCISCO ROCHA he had been advised by JOAQUIN QUINONES AMAYA, former Chief of the Secret Service at Durango, that he was acquainted with an individual by that name who also is known as "PANCHO" ROCHA, who travels to Mexico City with some frequency as an "administrative expediter" for the Durango teachers' organizations and that he can be located through a Colonel ENRIQUE CARROLA ANTUNA, an official of the Ministry of Health and Social Welfare in the Federal Capital. MEXICO

At Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico:

The third source advised on May 4, 1964, that he had been informed by ARMANDO GARCIA DAME, official of the Coahuila State Police organization, that one MARIO RESENDIZ had been located at Gomez Palacio, Durango, and had stated that he had not been in Mexico City at the Hotel Del Comercio in late September, 1963, and had no information whatsoever concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD. MEXICO

At Merida, Yucatan, Mexico:

According to the first source abroad, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, owner and manager of the Hotel Del Comercio, had advised that hotel guests PEDRO QUIJANO and ANGELICA PEREYRA, both of whom were registered as being from Torreon, Coahuila, had been married while at the Hotel Del Comercio and had gone to Merida, Yucatan, to establish residence.

The following inquiry was conducted by a second confidential source abroad on May 5, 1964:

A check of the visa files of the U. S. Consulate by U. S. Consul PAUL S. DWYER failed to disclose any information identifiable with PEDRO QUIJANO or ANGELICA PEREYRA QUIJANO.

MEXICO

ERNESTO ABREU GOMEZ, Chief of the Identification Department of the Yucatan State Judicial Police, advised that QUIJANO is a very common name in the State of Yucatan but that a check of the records of the State Judicial Police and the Merida Municipal Police had failed to develop information identifiable with the above QUIJANO. On the basis of information to the effect that QUIJANO might be employed by an airline, ABREU GOMEZ advised that he had checked the files of the Mexican Aviation Company in Merida without locating any information concerning him. ABREU GOMEZ stated that he had contacted and would continue to contact persons in the area with the surnames of QUIJANO and PEREYRA in an effort to identify and locate PEDRO QUIJANO and ANGELICA PEREYRA.

The first confidential source abroad furnished information to the effect that the Hotel Del Comercio owner, GUILLERMO GARCIA LUNA, had advised that hotel guest ANTONIO OLIVA, who was registered at the hotel with his "wife," had claimed to be from Veracruz, Veracruz, Mexico, and to be employed at a restaurant in Mexico City. He related that OLIVA had "broken relations" with the woman who was registered as his wife, actually sending her away from the hotel for a period of time, later to have her return, and he had some doubt as to whether or not she actually was his legal wife. He stated further that OLIVA had departed from the Hotel Del Comercio surreptitiously leaving a substantial hotel bill unpaid, and he had made considerable effort to locate him in Mexico City without success.

A fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 30, 1964, that he had checked the records of several restaurant workers' unions in the Federal District without locating any information identifiable with OLIVA. Source also stated that a check of the files of the Metropolitan Police of the Federal District, the Judicial Police of the Federal District and Territories had disclosed no information which might assist in locating and identifying OLIVA.

NOTE: The Commission has received considerable testimony bearing on the attempted assassination of General Walker and has received the Dallas PD investigation concerning the incident, as well as results of investigation conducted by the FBI and Secret Service concerning such incident. Some of the data furnished the Commission is at variance and Commission requested we conduct additional investigation to resolve the discrepancies. For example, Marina Oswald apparently has furnished a somewhat different account of Oswald's alleged activity in connection with the attempted assassination of General Walker to Secret Service and to FBI. The enclosures consist of photographs which Marina Oswald felt may have some connection to the Walker incident. Mr. Liebeler requested he be furnished such copies of these photographs.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Commission has information that Earlene Roberts, who was the manager of the house on Beckley Street in which Lee H. Oswald lived at the time of the assassination of President Kennedy, may have been in San Antonio, Texas on November 21, 1963 at the time President Kennedy visited that city.

It is requested that Earlene Roberts be reinterviewed to determine where she was during the day of November 21, 1963. If she claims that she was in Dallas or elsewhere on that day, then she should be requested to account for her activities so that a check out can be made to corroborate her statements. If she states that she was in San Antonio on that date, then in addition she should be requested to state why she did go to San Antonio.

When Earlene was interviewed by FBI agents as late as December 23, 1963 (See Clements Jan. 8, 1964 p.400) she resided at 1026 Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas. Her sister is Bertha Cheeks and as late as April 14, 1964 she was living at 5901 Hillcrest, Dallas, Texas.

On May 25, 1964, Mrs. Margaret A. Wolff, residence, 2 Delaware Avenue, Dumont, New Jersey; occupation, housewife, advised that she was a passenger on the Transportes del Norte bus operating between Mexico City and Monterrey on October 2, 1964. She advised that she had completed a nine-day conducted tour of Mexico and was on the first phase of her trip home. Mrs. Wolff advised that when she boarded the bus in Mexico City, she followed a custom that she has of sitting in the first seat behind the driver on his side of the bus. She explained that she enjoys traveling and enjoys looking at the passing countryside. She stated that she was not able to retain this seat because her ticket called for her to sit in the second row of seats on the same side. She was therefore moved to the second row and occupied an aisle seat on the trip.

Mrs. Wolff advised that she was not aware of the presence of the subject nor the presence of any individual of American nationality on this bus. She stated that she could not now recall Oswald's being a passenger nor did she note any luggage that appeared to her to be in any way out of the ordinary.

Mrs. Wolff advised that she is not in the habit of conversing with strangers, but did talk briefly with a woman while seated in the first seat of the bus. She stated that this individual was of Mexican nationality, 28 years of age, and married with no children. She does not recall her name but would recognize her if she saw her again. She identified a second person with whom she had conversation as a male who occupied the inside seat of the second row. She advised he was also of Mexican nationality, spoke broken English, was approximately 55 years of age, and although he did introduce himself, she could not identify him with the name Roberto P. Gonzales. However, she stated that if she saw this individual again, she would recognize him. Mrs. Wolff advised that she was not in a position to further identify any of the other passengers on the bus. It was her recollection that most of them were young and noisy but she did not pay any particular attention to them.

Mrs. Wolff was shown a photograph of the subject and she stated that she had no recollection of his having been on that bus.

Mrs. Wolff was exhibited a photograph of the subject and she stated she was certain that she had no recollection of his having been on that bus.

NOTE: Maggie Daly writes a column in the "Chicago American." In the 5-13-64 issue of the "Chicago American," Daly alleged that there was an attractive woman who lived in Houston, Texas, but who was in Dallas on the morning Kennedy was slain. Daly indicated that her source of this information indicated this attractive woman received a telephone call from her most generous gentleman friend in Mexico City instructing her to "get out of there at once!" Daly's article alleged that the woman took the first jet plane home and confided to intimate friends that she "feels" Oswald was Castro's deputized murderer. SAC, Chicago, has previously contacted Luke Carroll regarding other data which has appeared in Daly's column alleging certain data in regard to the assassination of President Kennedy. Daly's information has been highly speculative and inaccurate and when pinned down as to identity of the source of such information, Carroll has indicated source not available, but that he, himself, questioned the authenticity of the source's information.

Why President Kennedy Was Killed

Since the causes which have wrapped the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas into the thickest of mystery continue to exist, we have decided to bring a contribution and possibly a material help to the clarification of the question: "Who were the masterminds of the assassination?"

In October, 1949, four years after my conversion to the Catholic faith and my complete repudiation of the high-ranking communist position which I had occupied, I had a conversation in the Embassy of the United States with Colonel Frank Mitter, military attache, during which I had occasion to let him know that I knew many things about the communist organization in the United States, many of which were unknown to the FBI.

In the meantime, Colonel Mitter was transferred elsewhere and, when his successor arrived, I told him that since the Department of State had not accepted a certain proposal I had made concerning a loan to be granted under the Marshall Plan for the purpose of combating communism without "bombs, airplanes and guns," I had resolved to disclose everything I knew about the communist organization in the United States in a book to be published at the proper time. The new attache found my idea "interesting."

Now, this time has come and the masterminds of President Kennedy's assassination will appear in a much stronger light because of what we are about to reveal.

We believe it necessary, however, to go back a few years in order to learn how Russia outlined the communist organization in the United States. It happened in 1919. Lenin had formed the Comintern, and this latter decided to send to the United States the best secret agents of its 138 sections and subsections. These agents entered the country by using false names and all kinds of pretexts and soon gathered enough information to create a far-reaching espionage network throughout the territory of the United States.

The reports of the secret agents were later studied in the 20 divisions - grouped into five sections - of the Cominform, which had replaced the dissolved Comintern.

Upon conclusion of the study, the communist organization of the United States was fully outlined. This happened in 1935.

Alfred Wagenknecht was officially recognized as the founder of the Communist Party of the United States of America and his son-in-law, Philip Weissberg, who, under the name of Carl Winter, had been the chief of the local committee of the organization in the State of Michigan, became his principal associate. These plans were drawn up in Russia and translated into practice by a veteran Secret Service Agent. His name was Irving Postak and he was responsible for setting up the committee of the leadership whose members were Francis Xavier Waldron who from this time on began using the name of Eugene Denis, as the first Secretary General of the Party; William Zebulon Foster, President; Jacob Stahel, a Pole, in charge of the agitation section of the National Communist Board of the United States and, later, instructor of "Militants" with the help of a number of brochures which were published at the behest of the Russians and were entitled: "Progress of the Communist International," "Why Communism?" and "Organization Manual."

The internal organization of the Communist Party of the United States of America was left in charge of Negro Henry Winston, while the organization of the workers was given to John Beattie Williamson. The "Daily Worker," the official organ of the Party, remained under the management of Francis Budrus, who, later on, repudiated communism and converted, taking over the Chair of Economics in the Catholic University of New York. The editor in chief of the paper was Israel Regenstreif, a Jew, who used to write his editorials under the by-line of John Gates.

In the meantime, the organization was extending its tentacles into other States. Thus, New York State was given to Robert Thompson. Ohio State was given to a Finn by the name of Arvo Mike Halberg who used the name Gus Hall. Illinois was given to Gilbert Greenberg who shortened his name to Gil Green. Atlanta was given to Negro lawyer Dr. Benjamin Jefferson Davis who was also responsible for representing the Negroes of the United States in the Secretariat of the Party.

In effect, these twelve men were the true founders of the Communist Party of the United States which, from its inception, turned into a perfect espionage network for Russia. For this reason, the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation) had to contend with this skillfully managed organization from the very first few days and soon discovered that the propaganda material was being distributed through clandestine channels. Some of the titles of this propaganda material are: "The Communist Manifesto," by Engel; "State and Revolution," by Lenin; "Fundamentals of Leninism," by Stalin and "The History of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union." The FBI also discovered that J. Peters, a great expert at the service of the communists, had been placed in charge of writing and publishing a "Handbook on the Organization of the Communist Party," whose purpose was to encourage and incite sabotage actions designed to bring about a revolutionary overthrow of capitalism. In other words, the book was seeking to further the "best way to establish a dictatorship of the proletariat and a social soviet republic in the United States of America."

At about the same time, the Education Department of the Party in New York State published the "Guidebook to Discussion, No. 3," a technical study book for each cell of the organization of the Party. The subtitle of this guidebook was "The Party" and its purpose was to teach the "Communist Vanguard" in the tasks it was supposed to discharge.

In this book, there are two very important references. One, which appears at the end of the book, is nothing more than a translation of page 364 of the Soviet catechism which, in Russian, is entitled: "Vsesoyuznaya Kommunisticheskaya Partiya." In Portuguese, this title has been changed to: "A Short History." The second reference is a quotation from the article that Henry Winston published in "Political Affairs" magazine under the title: "Strengthening the Party Among the Workers of the Basic Industries." In order to understand better that which will follow, the preceding clarifications were all important.

The present organization of communism in the United States is of much greater magnitude than is commonly known, as we are about to see. The organization is founded on three different classes of individuals: Militants, Adventurers and Sympathizers. These three classes or categories discharge well-defined tasks. In fact, Russia knows beforehand that the implanting of a communist regime in the United States is an absurd utopia because of the social and economic standard of living which there is much higher than anywhere else in the world.

Thus, the "Militants" act as "decoys." Russia uses them to keep the FBI busy, or rather, to distract it. As is known, the FBI is the Department in charge of combating communism in the United States. The decoys keep the Department from duly concerning itself with the activities of the other two categories or classes of people. That is why Russia made it possible for the FBI to infiltrate a number of its Agents into the "Militant" group. One of these infiltrated Agents is an intelligent girl photographer from Greece. Her name is Angela Colomoris. She has been on the job since 1942. Another infiltrated Agent is a Negro, William Cummings. He joined Balunes Hidalgo and others who became witnesses for the prosecution in the celebrated trial of the eleven principal "Militant" leaders of the Party. This trial lasted approximately nine months and was successful in causing the authorities, the press and public opinion to be somewhat distracted from the activities of the other two categories of people who were busy in the espionage field at the service of Russia. The second category of people employed by Russia are the so-called "Adventurers." This is by far the most important category and the recruitments are made from the most daring "gangsters." The people in this category are entrusted with the most dangerous and dare-devil missions, which range from "scientific" sabotage to the elimination of any individual whose disappearance becomes necessary.

These missions, after being carefully studied, are carried out with such skill that it always proves very difficult and often impossible to come up with the least suspicion or shred of evidence as to the perpetrators of the "scientific sabotage" or the assassination, as the case may be.

For example, let us take the case of new aircraft models flying test flights. The pilots are in constant contact via radio with the control towers. The towers, in turn, are following and recording every individual facet of the testing. It has happened in more than one case that immediately after the pilot reporting: "All is well," a violent explosion has torn the aircraft to shreds, leaving absolutely no clue as to its cause. Of course, this does not affect only the Air Force. The Navy and other branches of the Armed Forces have been affected too. Suffice it to mention the case of the "Thresher."

Night clubs are the recruiting grounds of the most intelligent and dangerous gangsters for the "Adventurer" category of the Communist Party. The Adventurers are remote-controlled by masterminds who operate outside the borders of the United States. They live either in Canada, as was the case of Colonel Zabotine, or in Mexico. Needless to say, the assignments are very well paying.

In this fashion, based upon all that has been discussed heretofore, and within the field of hypotheses, the conclusions which are about to be presented as to a possible reconstruction of the causes which led to the assassination of unfortunate President Kennedy can hardly be disputed. It is our contribution and we offer it to the Commission of the Congress of the United States (sic) appointed by President Johnson to conduct the investigation on President Kennedy's assassination.

1. - It is almost certain that there exist two people who know who killed President Kennedy even though they do not know the causes which determined the slaying.

One of these people already disappeared from the scene of the tragedy because it so suited the mastermind. He was Lee Oswald. He always claimed that he had not been Kennedy's slayer, but there is no question that he prepared everything including the proper lay-out in the book depository where he was working in accordance with instructions that he must have received in Mexico which he visited in September. In order to stop him from disclosing the name of the actual killer, his disappearance was planned in advance. An aspect which should prove very interesting for the clearing up of this important case should take the FBI on an investigation of whether the list of the customary patrons of Jack Ruby's night clubs includes somebody with a name or nickname or similar-sounding name of the person who received, through the mail, the rifle with telescopic sights that was used for the assassination.

Another aspect of some importance should be an accurate check of all fingerprints on the map which was used to prepare the route which the Presidential motorcade would have followed. Perhaps, the fingerprints on this map include those of the true assassin. These fingerprints could be analyzed by the FBI and compared with the numerous sets of fingerprints which the FBI must have of the various and sundry gangsters. This should lead to the identification of the real murderer.

Even though he was not affiliated with the Communist Party, Lee Oswald was a "Sympathizer." Generally speaking, these are the people that the masterminds use in preparing the "environment" for the risky missions that it is the job of the "Adventurers" to carry out.

2. - Jack Ruby knows only too well who killed President Kennedy. In fact, we are convinced that he must have received a substantial amount of money to recruit or "bring in" the gangster who did the killing.

Since he was afraid that Oswald might reveal who had committed this crime, he kept very close to the authorities ever since the investigation started and, dreading that such a thing might happen, killed Oswald under the sympathetic eyes of the Dallas police on whom he had a certain amount of influence.

3. - As for the masterminds and the causes which led to the assassination, the real roots may lie in Russia, or in China, or in Japan.

Russia has been working on a very detailed plan for quite a while now whereby it intends to involve the entire American Continent in a single blaze through the unleashing of civil wars. The actual execution of this plan started in Cuba, with the help of Fidel Castro, bringing civil war to the very door of the United States. After the consolidation of the Castro regime, Cuba has been used as the shipping port of large quantities of arms supplied by Russia and its satellites and destined to the terrorists in Venezuela, Bolivia, Santo Domingo, Haiti, Guatemala, Brazil, etc. These arms are designed to place the United States under the dangerous threat of more and more communist regimes to be established in those countries. In addition, when Russia installed its rockets in Cuba, President Kennedy, who realized that they were aggressive arms against his country, reacted in the manner which is well known now. Russia lost its nerve because it likes war in somebody else's home, but not in its home. The split between the Chinese and the Russians, as well as Fidel Castro's neutrality in this conflict, started at this time.

It is a conflict which China is very skillfully taking advantage of.

In the meantime it has been brought to our knowledge that right now Russia is conducting certain probes for the installation in Brazil of the rocket launching pads and the rockets which used to be in Cuba. It is not known what progress has been made with these probes. On the other hand, it is to be assumed that Brazil and Russia were afraid that when the various American Secret Services would acquaint President Kennedy with this development, the latter would react in a similar manner to the Cuban case. So, Russia found a habitual solution and a most effective one: Kennedy was suppressed through a painstakingly planned crime which took full advantage of the frightening espionage network consisting of the communist organization in the United States. In order not to arouse suspicion and shake off the water from its raincoat, Russia quickly made a report on Lee Oswald available. This report had been prepared beforehand and the Americans naively accepted it on its face value.... This is the first hypothesis.

As for the second hypothesis, China is not unaware that the attempts at a "rapprochement" between Russia and the United States are to be attributed to a common fear of the "Yellow Danger" which China will pose in a future which is drawing closer and closer. Now, during the negotiations that took place between Krushchev and Kennedy for the installation of a direct telephone line between Moscow and Washington, the intelligence service which China runs in Cuba found out that one of the reasons which led to the installation of the above-mentioned telephone line was due to the constantly growing threat of aggression posed by China.

One of the points agreed upon called for Russia to promote a clearing up of its relations with China for the purpose of carrying on a better espionage work in connection with whatever plans China had threatening both countries. By means of the telephone line, Khrushchev would furnish periodical reports to President Kennedy on what was going on. Confronted with this situation, in addition to the disagreeable facts that Kennedy was protecting General Chang Kai-shek and financing his government in Formosa - which continues to be the home base of a large American fleet - China decided to have Kennedy assassinated inasmuch as it considered him as one of its worst enemies especially in connection with the recent conflict with India. To this end, China took advantage of the very communist network which Russia has created immediately outside the borders of the United States. This is the second hypothesis. But there is a third one, which still appears very cloudy but which, in our opinion, should be carefully studied. It is based upon the following:

On September 10, 1952, Senator McCarthy experienced no qualms in making a very serious public accusation. He said: "Communism has secret representatives inside the American Government." Now, this serious statement was never denied. What was Mr. Stevenson doing in Dallas shortly before Kennedy's visit? Perhaps, this is the key to the reason why Jack Ruby, over and above the protection which the authorities always afforded him, stated to his sister who was visiting him in jail: "I have good friends. Do not worry!"

Upon undertaking this modest work, we said that we were at the disposal of the North American authorities to reveal to them one more thing of great importance which still remains to be discussed. However, for this to happen, we impose one condition which is the following: Inasmuch as the United States has powerfully helped India in its invasion of Goa, supplying it with money, arms and its support with Kennedy's blessing, so much so that his wife, Jacqueline, paid a solicitous visit to Nehru after the invasion, congratulating him on the aggression he had committed against Portugal, the United States must also commit itself to forcibly ask India to effect a plebiscite in Goa in accordance with the petition submitted by the National Liberation Movement to the United Nations Organization. This plebiscite should be in accordance with those principles which are commonly referred to as self-determination and which are recognized in the case of certain nations and denied in the case of other nations depending on the interests at stake.

Therefore, we shall reveal our information concerning facts of major importance and of vital significance to the secret service of the National Defense of the United States only after a plebiscite is held in accordance with the request of the National Liberation Movement. There is no doubt that Goa, Damao and Dio will be once again territories of their legitimate fatherland which is Portugal. Without the fulfillment of this condition, the United States will continue to remain in the dark as to the above facts.

If the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy really wishes to know who killed Kennedy according to the letter that it sent from Washington to the author of this book on January 16, 1964, requesting his cooperation toward a full exposure of the plot, we will furnish a clue which will lead to the desired goal. This is the clue: Let it conduct a vigorous and painstaking interrogation of Oswald's wife, who is a Russian national, in order to have her indicate the names of all the people who have sent her gifts of many thousands of dollars. Among them, a number of nameless donors have been very careful not to disclose their identity. One of them is the donor of a certain amount which was paid so that she should declare that her husband was the pertetrator of the crime.

And also Jack Ruby knows who the gangster is who was hired to kill Kennedy. Oswald's mother is right when she says that it was not her son who killed Kennedy....

If the clue which has been provided will be followed, in addition to identifying the assassin, it will be found out that the masterminds of the assassination are Russian, Cuban, Chinese, Japanese and United States communists in accordance with that which has just been disclosed in this book:

"The Yellow Danger."

The End.

Attached is a copy of an article from the "National Guardian" of May 9, 1964 which is captioned "Oswald case: A new angle."

According to the article, Mark Lane claims that the United States Secret Service deliberately planted a false story in the press to cast further guilt on Oswald. By letter dated May 22, 1964 the President's Commission requested the Bureau to interview three individuals named in the article. They are (1) Secret Service Agent Mike (Michael) Howard who was previously assigned to the Fort Worth, Texas, area and is now on the White House Detail of the Secret Service in Washington, D. C.; (2) Pat Howard, Deputy Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, and a brother of Secret Service Agent Mike Howard; and (3) Thayer Waldo, a reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. The President's Commission desires to have these three individuals interviewed regarding conversations which are alleged by the article to have taken place on or about February 9, 1964, in Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, concerning the existence of a Negro witness who saw Oswald shoot at President Kennedy.

Dallas should interview Pat Howard and Thayer Waldo and WFO should interview Secret Service Agent Michael Howard of the White House Detail. These individuals should be advised that we are contacting them regarding Lane's allegations at the specific request of the President's Commission.

Submit airtel enclosing a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission.

NOTE:

By letter 5/13/64 we advised the Commission of the allegations in the "National Guardian" 5/9/64 article which referred to the existence of a Negro witness who saw Oswald shoot at President Kennedy, and indicated that Fort Worth Star-Telegram reporter Thayer Waldo had received this information from Secret Service Agent Mike Howard and his brother, Pat Howard, Deputy Sheriff, Tarrant County, Texas. We have previously checked out for the President's Commission allegations regarding the existence of the Negro witness and found no evidence for this allegation. President's Commission requested by letter 5/22/64 that the two Howards and Waldo be interviewed regarding conversations Lane alleges took place in February, 1964, which would indicate that the Howards are the source for Waldo's article on 2/10/64 in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram that the Negro witness to Oswald's shooting President Kennedy did exist.

SUBJECT:
LEE HARVEY OSWALD
Internal Security - R - Cuba

The report of SA Carl E. Graham of the Washington Field Office, dated 12/2/63, in the case of Lee Harvey Oswald, sets forth the results of a check of the records at the Office of Special Consular Services, Department of State, by SA Kenneth J. Haser, on 11/22/63.

These records show that Oswald visited the American Embassy in Moscow on 7/8/61, for the purpose of indicating his desire to return to the U.S. with his wife. He was questioned extensively by Embassy officials, who concluded that he had not expatriated himself and therefore still remained an American citizen. Of interest is the following, from the report of the American Embassy in Moscow, concerning this interview with Oswald:

"Twenty months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He stated frankly that he had learned a hard lesson, the hard way, and that he had been completely relieved of his illusions about the Soviet Union at the same time he acquired a new understanding and appreciation of the U.S. and the meaning of freedom. Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the Embassy appears to have left him."

On 8/8/61 the State Department authorized the Embassy in Moscow to renew Oswald's passport, for direct return to the U.S. only, after the Passport Office had determined that he had not expatriated himself.

Oswald made a new application for renewal of a passport on 5/24/62, and his passport was renewed the same day. Oswald and his wife and baby left Russia on 6/1/62 and arrived in New York City on 6/13/62.

While there was an interval of almost a year after the 7/8/61 interview of Oswald at the US Embassy in Moscow, referred to above, until his actual return to the US, nevertheless the evaluation of the Embassy officials as to the change in Oswald's outlook and character is of considerable significance and is a matter of record in State Department files. Washington Field Office agents, of course, had periodically reviewed State Department files, and Oswald's visit to the American Embassy on 7/8/61 was reported in letter from WFO dated 9/1/61, but not in the same detail as subsequently set out in SA Graham's report of 12/2/63.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am in the process of compiling an article for Modern Medicine on the psychiatric aspects of presidential assassination for their issue of next November. There is, as you are aware, a good deal of information of a personality nature on the assassins up to Lee Harvey Oswald, but factual data on him is sparse. Specifically I wondered whether there had been time to obtain any psychiatric consultation with him in the two days he lived after the President's murder and if there was, whether this data is public information at this time. If it is not, it would be helpful to me at this juncture to know about two questions:

1) If the Warren Report will contain psychiatric data on Oswald and

2) When this report might be available, i.e., in time for me to meet an early October deadline?

Thank you and most sincerely,

David A. Witts, a former Bureau clerk in 1942, is presently practicing law in Dallas and is a controversial figure there. He has recently been the subject of a memo because of speeches he has made, indicating some knowledge of President Kennedy's assassination and inferring he was a former Special Agent of the Bureau.

Attached are results of our interview with him re his recent speech before "Salesmanship Club" in Dallas. He stated he has no first hand knowledge of assassination and derived his data from public source material.

Mrs. Livingston informed "Life" reporters that Oswald appeared friendly during her association with him and was not hostile or stubborn. Garrett indicated he associated closely with Oswald during grade school and indicated Oswald was a dominant boy but not particularly eager to fight all the time. Ryder became aware of the tags existence. The Commission desired to know how, when and where the story concerning the repair tag first came to the attention of the press as the Commission is attempting to make a determination concerning the veracity of Mr. Dial D. Ryder, employee, and Mr. Charles Woodrow Greener, owner of the Irving Sport Shop. Inquiry was also to include whether all individuals with a surname of Oswald have been contacted to determine if any of these persons had repair work done at the Irving Sport Shop. One individual has yet to be interviewed and Little Rock has been requested to expedite this investigation.

Mrs. Edith Whitworth claimed Oswald and his wife had visited her store allegedly looking for a gun part, subsequently she directed Oswald to the gun shop located east of her store. However, Marina Oswald does not recall ever visiting this store in early November.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD, Airman Second Class, AF 18 637 188, 97th Field Maintenance Squadron, Blytheville, Arkansas, Air Force Base, advised SA DONALD L. ANDERSON on May 21, 1964, of the following information:

He stated that a number of years ago he recalled that he had read newspaper articles concerning the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had gone to Russia and had renounced his United States citizenship. He stated that at the time an aunt of his named ELIZABETH OSWALD, who has since been married and may be named ELIZABETH DOUGLAS, had exclaimed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a second cousin to MICHAEL. He stated that he recalled that this conversation had taken place at McGregor, Texas.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD advised that he had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD either prior to or since this conversation he had with his aunt, ELIZABETH. He further advised that to his recollection he had never met any of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's immediate family nor to his recollection has any member of his immediate family been in contact with the immediate family of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD further advised that because of the fact that neither he nor any other member of his immediate family has been in any type of contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or members of his immediate family, he had absolutely no information which would be pertinent or shed any light in connection with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD advised that U. S. Air Force authorities had previously talked to him about his relationship with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that he had provided them information identical to that provided during this contact. He advised that he currently has a flight line clearance at Blytheville, Arkansas, Air Force Base which he had received during the last three months. He stated that he has been assigned at Blytheville Air Force Base since October 2, 1963.

ReBuairtel to Mexico City dated 5/18/64 which enclosed copies of San Antonio teletype dated 5/15/64 dealing with the reinterview of ROBERTO RAMOS, manager, Red Arrow bus lines, Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico.

The passenger list forms which were reviewed by personnel of this office for trips originating in Nuevo Laredo en route to Mexico City (included in Mexico City letterhead memorandum dated 5/5/64) were all captioned "Venta de Boletos" (Sale of Tickets) and in all probability are identical with the "Venta de Boletos" forms referred to by RAMOS. In this connection the passenger lists or "Venta de Boletos" forms reviewed by personnel of this office do contain names of passengers.

The passenger list form refemed to by officials of the Red Arrow bus line in Mexico City, according to those officials, is synonymous with the "Venta de Boletos" form.

On 5/21/64 information was received from CRISTIANO ANDREANI L., superintendent and co-owner of the Red Arrow bus line at Mexico City, relating to the method of entering data on the passenger list forms or "Venta de Boletos" form for trips originating at Nuevo Laredo en route to Mexico City which would serve to resolve, in part, the discrepancy between comments of RAMOS and bus driver ROBERTO MORALES.

ANDREANI advised as follows:

At Laredo, Texas, where the Continental bus line makes the sale of Red Arrow bus line tickets from Nuevo Laredo to places of destination in Mexico, there is no record made of the name of the bus passengers for the Red Arrow bus line. Only the ticket number sold and the point of destination in Mexico is entered on the passenger list which is compiled at Nuevo Laredo. No Red Arrow office is maintained at Laredo.

At the Red Arrow bus line office in Nuevo Laredo, when a bus ticket is sold for travel from Nuevo Laredo with the final destination being Mexico City, the ticket number, the name of the passenger, and the final destination are recorded on the passenger list or manifest prepared at Nuevo Laredo.

If a bus ticket is sold at the Red Arrow bus line office in Nuevo Laredo for travel only to Monterrey or to points other than the final destination of Mexico City, then only the ticket number and destination are entered on the passenger manifest and the passenger's name is not recorded.

Another instance in which the name of the passenger, purchasing a ticket at Nuevo Laredo for travel to the interior of Mexico, is not recorded is as follows:

The Red Arrow bus line in Nuevo Laredo maintains a ticket seller at the Mexican Customs station at the International Bridge in Nuevo Laredo. In those instances when the ticket sale is made at the Customs station for a trip on a Red Arrow bus from Nuevo Laredo to the interior of Mexico, the only data appearing on the passenger list made up at Nuevo Laredo would be the ticket number and final destination, and the name of the passenger is not recorded.

The information received from ANDREANI is being incorporated into a letterhead memorandum currently in preparation.

On 5/25/64 MANUEL SAUCEDO, owner of Red Arrow bus No. 516, was contacted at the Red Arrow bus terminal in Mexico City. SAUCEDO advised that he does not have the original passenger list, also known as the "Venta de Boletos" form, which covered the trip of bus No. 516 from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City on 9/26-27/64. He stated the original passenger list, which is actually three separate lists prepared at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas; Sabinas Hidalgo, Nuevo Leon; and Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, is turned in by the bus driver at the Red Arrow bus terminal in Mexico City upon completion of the trip and filed in the Red Arrow offices in Mexico City. The owners of the buses do not take possession of these lists.

Extra copies of this communication are designated for the San Antonio Office inasmuch as that office has conducted extensive investigation in the past related to this matter.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The President's Commission, by letter dated April 30, 1964, requested that Mr. ROBERT ADRIAN TAYLOR be reinterviewed concerning the rifle which he had purchased from an individual he thought to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD in March or April 1963.

On May 13, 1964, ROBERT ADRIAN TAYLOR, residing in Apartment 1, at the corner of Jelmak Avenue and Hard Rock Road, Grand Prairie, Texas, advised his mailing address is Route 1, Box 125G, Grand Prairie, Texas. TAYLOR said that since April 15, 1964, he has been employed by the City of Dallas, Dallas, Texas, driving a wrecker for the Police Department Wrecker Service. TAYLOR said he was born June 13, 1916, at Loyalville, Pennsylvania.

TAYLOR said he was previously employed as a mechanic at the Shell Service Station on the southwest corner of Rock Island and Story Streets, Irving, Texas. He said while thusly employed in March or April, 1963, two men drove into the station complaining of engine trouble in their car. He determined that the generator of the automobile needed repairs and total cost would be $11.50 to make these repairs. TAYLOR stated that between the two they did not have $11.50, at which time the passenger riding in the car asked him if he would like to buy a rifle. TAYLOR replied that he might be interested, at which time one of the two men opened the trunk of the car and said, "There it is."

TAYLOR asked what kind of a gun it was, and received the reply that it is an "0 Six." TAYLOR advised he took the weapon out of the trunk, looked at it and offered $12.00. The driver of the vehicle then said, "You're not going to let it go for that. You paid $35.00 for it." The passenger then replied, "No, we need the money."

TAYLOR advised he obtained $12.00 out of the cash drawer and purchased the rifle. He then proceeded to repair the generator and charged them $11.50, which they paid, and departed. TAYLOR stated he does not recall the make and model of the automobile, but believes it was a 1959 Chevrolet. As to the exact date that this transpired, TAYLOR said he could not give a closer approximation of the time he purchased the rifle, other than March or April, 1963. He did state he believes it was on a Saturday in the morning hours.

TAYLOR described the rifle as a Springfield Bolt Action, .30-06 caliber. It contained the marking, "U. S. Rock Island Arsenal, Model 1903," and has Serial Number 66091. TAYLOR said he was of the opinion the rifle had never been fired, as it had a great deal of grease in the barrel. It appeared to him the rifle was a typical surplus rifle that was probably released for sale by the Government during the last five or ten years. TAYLOR said when he purchased it he is sure, in his own mind, the rifle was in exactly the same condition as when it was issued originally by the Government. He said he has seen many similar-type rifles.

TAYLOR advised that, since purchasing this rifle, he has "sporterized" it. He said he removed the top part of the wooden stock, and shortened the forepiece of the bottom of the stock. He said he removed the sling, the front sling holder, the metal bands that held the top part of the wooden stock, and also removed the movable peep sight. In addition, TAYLOR stated he filed down and bent the bolt actuating arm, so it would not interfere with the telescopic sight, which he later had installed. TAYLOR advised he had the gun drilled and tapped (four) for a scope mount at John Furrer's, 1112 Sowers Road, Irving, Texas. TAYLOR further stated that he purchased a Harter's 4X scope direct from the factory at Waukesha, Wisconsin, which he mounted on the rifle. He said that he, at present, does not have the scope on the rifle and has stored it for safekeeping. TAYLOR said he did not shorten the barrel of this rifle.

TAYLOR advised that on November 23, 1963, he was watching television and, upon viewing LEE HARVEY OSWALD, commented to his wife, "Say, that looks like the guy I bought the .30-06 from." He stated, however, he cannot be positively sure the man who sold him the rifle was OSWALD. He stated he feels that it was OSWALD since, upon viewing OSWALD on television, he immediately thought of this rifle and, at that instant, thought OSWALD was the man who sold the weapon to him.

On reflecting back, TAYLOR stated he had never seen either of these two men before. He stated there is a possibility the man he believes to be OSWALD came into the station several weeks to a month later after he had purchased the rifle from him and he was, at that time, a passenger in another automobile, this time driven by a woman. He said he cannot recall what kind of automobile the woman was driving and would hesitate to give a description of it. Further, TAYLOR stated, he is rather doubtful that the individual from whom he purchased the rifle was ever seen by him, either prior or subsequent to the time he purchased the rifle. He said he may have seen him another time, but he is not sure.

Concerning this woman and male passenger whom he thought to be the man from whom he had purchased the rifle, TAYLOR said he is very doubtful that this actually was LEE HARVEY OSWALD because, on reflection, he recalls the person from whom he purchased this rifle had promised to give him two boxes of ammunition for the rifle. He said he is almost sure that, if OSWALD had been this person in the station at that time, he would have remembered him because of the promised ammunition.

TAYLOR related that it is his practice each year to go deer hunting during the deer hunting season. He said the deer hunting season for the State of Texas for the year 1963 ran from November 15, 1963, through December 31, 1963. TAYLOR advised that, during the first week of deer season, he took this rifle with him to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, BENJAMIN and SHIRLEY MOKU, 502 Carroll Drive, Killeen, Texas. He said this address is "just off" Fort Hood, Texas, where his son-in-law, BENJAMIN MOKU, is assigned as an SP5. TAYLOR said that, during the first week of deer season on some day before November 22, 1963, this gun was registered by either himself or BENJAMIN MOKU with the Provost Marshal at Fort Hood, Texas, for use in deer hunting on the Fort Hood military reservation. He said this rifle stayed at the residence of BENJAMIN and SHIRLEY MOKU until the last day of deer season, December 31, 1963, when he, TAYLOR, brought it back home with him.

It should be noted that previous investigation has established that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was employed in Dallas, Texas, at Jaggars-Chiles-Stovall, Inc., in March 1963 and until April 6, 1963, and that he left Dallas for New Orleans, Louisiana, in the latter part of April 1963.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, Northeast
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is in response to your letter of April 30, 1964, requesting a reinterview of Mr. Robert Adrian Taylor concerning the rifle he purchased either in March or April, 1963. Enclosed are two copies of a letterhead memorandum dated May 19, 1964, Dallas, Texas, which sets out this information.

It has been determined in the Laboratory from an examination of Taylor's rifle that it is a U. S. Rifle, caliber .30-06, Model 1903, serial number 66091, manufactured at the Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Illinois. The upper and lower bands have been removed; the front portion of the stock has been cut off; the wooden hand guard originally covering the top of the barrel has been removed; the rear sight has been removed and replaced with telescopic sight mount blocks and the bolt handle has been ground down and bent so that it would not strike the telescopic sight tube when the bolt is operated. All other parts appear to be original, unaltered parts. The rifle has the standard length of 43 1/4". The barrel has not been shortened. The length of the longest portion (barrel and receiver) is 31 7/8". The stock portion is 28 3/4" long which is less than the standard length of 40 1/8" for a "non-sporterized" stock.

NOTE: Letter received from the Commission 4/30/64, requesting reinterview of Taylor who purchased a .30-06 rifle from an individual who he thought was Oswald. The Commission wanted Taylor reinterviewed to determine where the rifle was located on 11/22/63, as well as determining the date on which Taylor obtained the rifle and whether he had seen Oswald on any other occasion. The Commission desired specific information regarding the Taylor rifle's measurements and photographs in an assembled and disassembled condition. They also wanted the same technical information of a similar rifle as well as similar photographs of this rifle. The Laboratory handled the technical data and coordinated this matter with the Assassination Desk in Division VI.

This letter based on memorandum 5/27/64, Mr. Belmont to Mr. Rosen re: "ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY; 11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS; MISC.-INFO CONCERNING."

Dear Mr. Hoover:

During the course of the Commission's hearings, expert testimony has been elicited concerning various items of physical evidence. We would like you to determine, and set forth in one document, where and by whom these items were found following the assassination. In each case, the item should be shown to the person who found it, so that he can identify it by inspection. If he cannot so identify the item, a chain of possession should be traced between him and the first person who can identify it by inspection. However, it is unnecessary to trace the chain of possession forward past the first person who can identify the item by inspection.

As an example, Lieutenant Day of the Dallas Police Department initialled two of the three rifle cartridge cases at 10:00 p.m. on November 22. These cartridge cases should be traced back from 10:00 p.m. to the person by whom they were found, at the time that he found them. The chain of possession need not be traced forward past Lieutenant Day.

The items to be identified are as follows:

(1) the three rifle cartridge cases, C6, C7, C38

(2) the rifle bullet, C1

(3) the two rifle-bullet fragments, C2 and C3

(4) the rifle cartridge, C8

(5) the bullet from the Walker residence, C148

This magazine is a monthly literary magazine with no political overtones. Previous issues have been received.

This issue contains an article entitled "Oswald et le FBI" (Oswald and the FBI) on page 214, which was written by Thomas Buchanan and translated from French into Japanese by Yukio Kudo under the title "Oswald is Not the Real Assassin." This article in the first of a series based on Buchanan's book, "Les Assassins de Kennedy," ("The Assassins of Kennedy") Copy Right: By L'Express, 1964.

Following the Buchanan article is another article entitled "Oswald the Impossible Assassin" written by Joachim Joesten and translated from English into Japanese by Fumio Matsuo under the title, "I Killed No One," Copy Right: By Opera Mundi, 1964. The Japanese translation of this article is also included in the May, 1964, issue of Bungei-Shunju, but contains no mention of or references to the Bureau. It takes the position that Oswald could not have killed President Kennedy. An editorial remark points out that Buchanan includes Oswald as one of the assassins, whereas Joesten holds that Oswald could not have been envolved.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 19, 1964, that Mark Lane, during an appearance in New York City on May 18, 1964, indicated that he was going to Europe on May 22, 1964. According to the source, Lane furnished no additional information regarding this trip abroad.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The "New York Times" newspaper dated April 2, 1964, page 37, contained an article stating that Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer.

On June 10, 1963, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH
THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

SUBJECT: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

Mr. Malley and I went over to see Mr. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, shortly after 11 a.m. today. I took with me a copy of the transcript of the Director's testimony before the Commission, with the corrections we had made as to typographical errors, et cetera. I told Mr. Rankin we would be glad to go over the transcript with him, as it was apparent that the reporter who took down the testimony had made some mistakes and had even left out some of the thought in the testimony; that this was understandable as the Director spoke at a rapid rate. We mentioned that Mr. Redlich of the staff had called Mr. Malley this morning to state that he thought there were some corrections that needed to be made in the testimony, inasmuch as he had been present when the Director testified and the transcript was not entirely accurate.

Mr. Rankin suggested that I leave the transcript with him so that he could go over it personally, and he said that he would be in touch with me by Monday, 5/25/64, in the event there was a need to discuss any changes. I told him that, of course, there had been no changes in the substance of the Director's testimony. Rankin said that the transcripts of testimony will be published and, consequently, he wanted to be sure that the testimony properly reflected the Director's thoughts. He asked if the Director had gone over it, and I told him that he had and that the testimony, as we had corrected it, properly represented the Director's testimony. He reiterated that he thought it was important, as the testimony would be made public, that it should properly represent the Director's thoughts.

Mr. Rankin requested that we advise the Director that he, Rankin, felt that the Director had done an excellent job in testifying before the Commission. Rankin further said, "As you know, the Commissioners like the Director."

105-82555

With reference to that portion of the testimony dealing with the Director's suggestions on the security of the President, and the memorandum of 12/2/63 which we sent a copy of to the Commission, Mr. Rankin remarked that the Commission had not previously advised us of the fact that a request had been made of Secret Service for a copy of the memorandum we had given to Secret Service, and the request had been denied, on the instructions of Mr. Jenkins of the White House. I told Mr. Rankin that, in view of this, it would be necessary for us to advise Mr. Jenkins that we had subsequently furnished a copy of this memorandum to the Commission. He agreed, and suggested that we advise Mr. Jenkins that the Commission had requested the Director's views on the security of the President at the time the Director testified, and had requested that a copy of this memorandum be made available to the Commission; that in view of the fact that the FBI was, of course, under instructions to cooperate fully with the President's Commission, the Director furnished a copy to the Commission. Mr. Rankin said that if there are any repercussions from the White House, such repercussions will then be directed at the Commission, rather than at the FBI.

JC JUN 9 1964

Mr. Malley inquired of Mr. Rankin as to whether the Commission would furnish us a copy of the testimony of the two Dallas police officers relative to their alleged conversation with Special Agent Hosty on 11/22/63, while Hosty and Lieutenant Revill were on their way to the office of Captain Fritz. Mr. Rankin stated that the Commission has been rigid in its rule that the testimony of witnesses will be made available only to the witnesses themselves, and it is up to the witnesses whether they make the transcripts available to anyone else. He did remark that he, Rankin, felt that the statements of Revill and Detective Brian were a put-up job, particularly as Brian did not back up Revill's statement. He said, further, that Brian told the Commission that Revill had asked him to put some statements in Brian's memorandum which Brian felt he could not do. Rankin said there was a division of feeling on the part of the commissioners as to whether the police officers were telling a true story. Rankin said that Brian further admitted that he had dictated another memorandum which had been destroyed, presumably because it had been filled with handwritten corrections.

In the discussion on getting copies of the transcripts of testimony of witnesses, Mr. Rankin said that Secret Service had requested a copy of my (Belmont's) testimony, and the Commission had refused to furnish it, in line with its policy. I inquired why they wanted it and Rankin said Secret Service is floundering somewhat with the problem of what to do with the information we have sent over to them, and is seeking to establish criteria on what information they want. Therefore, they would like to see what criteria we are using in disseminating this information. Rankin said he told Secret Service that they should ask the Bureau if they want this information. I told Mr. Rankin we had not received any request from Secret Service.

Mr. Tolson

Mr. Rankin again mentioned his feeling that some persons in Secret Service are attempting to unload on the Bureau, on the basis that if the Bureau had given them information on Oswald they would have acted upon it. I asked Rankin whether this was Mr. Rowley's position, and he said it was not.

During the Director's testimony, Allen Dulles brought up the subject of a book, "The Red Roses of Dallas," by Gun. We asked Rankin whether he had this book, and Rankin furnished us a copy. The author is Nerin E. Gun. It is 215 pages long, was printed in France, and is in the French language. We have sent it to the Domestic Intelligence Division, with the suggestion that they check with Central Intelligence Agency and see if there is an English edition, so that we will not have to wrestle with the French language.

With reference to the proposed trip to Dallas, which was scheduled for last weekend, and rescheduled for this weekend, Mr. Rankin advised this morning that he is considering holding a conference of FBI and Secret Service representatives, and his own staff, to decide whether such a trip is necessary, and to try and curtail the amount of work to be done in Dallas if such a trip is made.

I must say that, from talking with Mr. Rankin today, as well as on previous occasions, his approach on this whole matter is objective and fair, and he has been very friendly. During the discussion he advised that some of the Commission members had indicated that the present duties of Secret Service should be turned over to the FBI, at least in the field of protecting the President. He said that he had pointed out that the Director traditionally has taken the position that the FBI should be kept a small organization and its duties and responsibilities should be limited, as he (the Director) felt it is highly undesirable to center too much power in any one agency, or to develop what might be termed a national police force. I told Mr. Rankin he was correct in this, and over the years the Director had sought to avoid the concept of a national police force or the centralization of power. Mr. Rankin said this has not come to the point that it is an issue, but it might be that members of the Commission would again raise this point during the conclusion and recommendation phase of their report; in this case Mr. Rankin would see to it that the Director was consulted by the Commission. I suggested to Mr. Rankin that the simplest way to handle this, if it does become an issue, is for the Commission to send a letter to the Director, and I was sure he would express his views forthrightly and succinctly.

Mr. Tolson

ACTION:

I will advise you as soon as Mr. Rankin informs me of the results of his review of the testimony.

We will attempt to get an English version of the book, "The Red Roses of Dallas," and review it, and furnish our comments to the Commission.

If you agree, Mr. DeLoach will advise Mr. Jenkins that a copy of our memorandum of 12/2/63 was furnished to the President's Commission, and the circumstances surrounding this.

Re: Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

Reference is made to Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) memorandum dated May 20, 1964, concerning the subject's contemplated travel to Europe on May 22, 1964.

By means of a pretext interview conducted by a Special Agent (SA) of the FBI on May 21, 1964, it was determined that the subject was leaving the United States for a six weeks trip to Europe on May 22, 1964, via air. It was determined he expects to make appearances relating to the "Lee Harvey Oswald matter" on May 25, 1964, at Copenhagen, Denmark, and on May 27, 1964, at Paris, France. It was ascertained Lane also expects to visit Arhus, Denmark, after his appearance in Copenhagen. He expects to visit Brussels, London, Milan, Florence and Rome, in the order listed, after his appearance in Paris. It could not be determined on which airlines the subject was leaving and whether or not Copenhagen would be his first stop in Europe.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Efforts to date to identify the male depicted in photographs referred to above have been negative. It has been observed that male in question bears close resemblance to facial characteristics and general physique of an individual presently wrestling in Washington area at Capitol Arena under name Boris Malenko. Malenko reportedly came to Washington area from Tampa where he was wrestling during past winter. WFO endeavor to obtain photographs of Malenko and identify him. Endeavor to discreetly ascertain if he was in Mexico City in late September, early October, 1963. Make no reference during conduct of inquiry to the pictures of unidentified male in possession of Bureau.

In view of controversy over the picture it would be well if we could identify the individual depicted therein. Clerk John Frey, when viewing the photograph in question, observed that man depicted therein had a close resemblance to aforementioned wrestler. This has been verified by John C. aware of the tags existence. The Commission desired to know how, when and where the story concerning the repair tag first came to the attention of the press as the Commission is attempting to make a determination concerning the veracity of Mr. Dial D. Ryder, employee, and Mr. Charles Woodrow Greener, owner of the Irving Sport Shop. Inquiry was also to include whether all individuals with a surname of Oswald have been contacted to determine if any of these persons had repair work done at the Irving Sport Shop. Little Rock completed their interviews with two additional individuals by the name of Oswald, one of whom was determined to be a second cousin of Lee Harvey Oswald. This information is also incorporated in a report which is being handled by Division 5 and will be furnished to the President's Commission.

Mrs. Edith Whitworth claimed Oswald and his wife had visited her store allegedly looking for a gun part, subsequently she directed Oswald to the gun shop located east of her store. However, Marina Oswald does not recall ever visiting this store in early November. It is noted Michael David Oswald was not in Dallas during time alleged gun repair was made.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

At 12:00 o'clock noon, May 12, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD telephonically contacted the Fort Worth Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished the following information:

At about 11:45 A.M., May 12, 1964, she received a telephone call from Mr. CHARLIE KUNKEL, U. S. Secret Service, Fort Worth, Texas. In this conversation, Mr. KUNKEL stated he had a letter that he obtained from the FBI. The letter was dated December 6, 1963, postmarked Jamaica, New York. Mr. KUNKEL advised Mrs. OSWALD he would like to come out to her residence and ask her some questions about the letter.

Mrs. OSWALD does not remember this letter and cannot imagine why he would want to talk to her in regard to this letter.

During the course of the conversation Mrs. OSWALD asked how to spell the name KUNKEL. When she was advised it is spelled K-u-n-k-e-l, she said she thought it was spelled C-o-n-n-e-l-l. She said she remembered him and at this point she became hysterical and went into a tirade. She said she remembered him at the Inn of the Six Flags on the day of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She continued that KUNKEL and another Secret Service Agent, whose name she cannot remember, were with MARINA OSWALD and the two babies. Mrs. OSWALD stated that KUNKEL made the statement that there was no doubt in his mind that LEE HARVEY OSWALD assassinated the President because his rifle was found on him. Mrs. OSWALD related that she told him, "Well, just because it's his rifle does not indicate that he assassinated the President. He is innocent until proved guilty."

COPIES DESTROYED
A 4 MAR 5 1973

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mrs. OSWALD referred to MARINA OSWALD throughout the conversation as the Russian wife and two babies.

Mrs. OSWALD said she told the other Secret Service Agent, "Why, the nerve of that guy, who does he think he is?" The Secret Service Agent, according to Mrs. OSWALD, stated, "Well, Mrs. OSWALD, you will have to forgive him because he helped guard Mrs. KENNEDY for 20 years." Mrs. OSWALD said she told the Secret Service Agent, "I will not forgive him because there's no sense in anyone making a statement like that about my son."

Mrs. OSWALD said she was "deathly afraid" of Mr. KUNKEL and is afraid that he will harm her. Mrs. OSWALD said she will not let him in her house because she is afraid of him and does not want to have any dealings with him.

Mrs. OSWALD was advised that Mr. KUNKEL would have no reason to harm her, that he probably is just coming out to her house to inquire about the letter.

At no time during the conversation did Mrs. OSWALD request any assistance from the Federal Bureau of Investigation or to see an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

At approximately 12:40 P.M., May 12, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD again telephonically contacted the Fort Worth Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and advised that she will not talk with Mr. CHARLIE KUNKEL, U. S. Secret Service Agent, Fort Worth, Texas, as she is afraid of him. She stated she does not know whether to give this information to the "Warren Commission" or not.

At approximately 2:21 P.M., May 12, 1964, a summary of the foregoing information received from Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD was furnished to Special Agent ROGER WARNER, U. S. Secret Service, Dallas, Texas, and shortly thereafter the same information was made available to Special Agent CHARLIE KUNKEL, U. S. Secret Service, Fort Worth, Texas.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date May 15, 1964

Memo Branigan to Sullivan 5/14/64 reported Marguerite Oswald, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, on 5/1/64 furnished wild allegations to Dallas Office alleging store officials in Dallas and Houston conspired to assassinate President Kennedy. It appeared Mrs. Oswald mentally ill. On 5/12/64 Mrs. Oswald telephoned Dallas Office and criticized U. S. Secret Service Agent Charlie Kunkel. She also stated Mr. Kunkel desired to question her regarding a letter she received dated 12/3/63, postmarked Jamaica, New York. Letterhead memo 5/12/64 attached.

Also attached is a copy of the letter dated 12/6/63 sent to Mrs. Oswald from an anonymous source which makes threats against Mrs. Oswald. It appears this is the letter that Secret Service Agent Kunkel desires to discuss with Mrs. Oswald. Results of our contacts with Mrs. Oswald have been disseminated to Secret Service and are being incorporated in a report now being prepared by Dallas Office for dissemination to the President's Commission.

Lt. JAMES RANDOLPH OSWALD, AF 70450A, 340th Bomb Squadron, Blytheville, Arkansas, Air Force Base, advised SA DONALD L. ANDERSON, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and BERTRAM RASKIN, of the Office of Special Investigations (OSI), on May 21, 1964, that he is not related to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Lt. OSWALD advised that he was assigned in the Dallas - Fort Worth area during November of 1963 but that he had not taken a rifle to the Irving Sport Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, to have a telescopic sight mounted. Lt. OSWALD further advised that he did not at that time nor does he presently own a firearm of any type.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD, Airman Second Class, Air Force No. 18 637 188, 97th Field Maintenance Squadron, Blytheville, Arkansas, Air Force Base, advised SA DONALD L. ANDERSON on May 21, 1964, of the following information:

He stated that a number of years ago, he recalled that he had read newspaper articles concerning the fact that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had gone to Russia and had renounced his United States citizenship. He stated that at the time an aunt of his named ELIZABETH OSWALD, who has since been married and may be named ELIZABETH DOUGLAS, had exclaimed that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a second cousin to MICHAEL. He stated that he recalled that this conversation had taken place at McGregor, Texas.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD advised that he had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD either prior to or since this conversation he had with his aunt, ELIZABETH. He further advised that to his recollection he had never met any of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's immediate family, nor to his recollection has any member of his immediate family been in contact with the immediate family of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD further advised that because of the fact that neither he nor any other member of his immediate family has been in any type of contact with LEE HARVEY OSWALD or members of his immediate family, he had absolutely no information which would be pertinent or shed any light in connection with the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

MICHAEL DAVID OSWALD advised that United States Air Force (USAF) authorities had previously talked to him about his relationship with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and that he had provided them information identical to that provided during this contact. He advised that he currently has a flight line clearance at Blytheville, Arkansas, Air Force Base, which he had received during the last three months. He stated that he has been assigned at Blytheville Air Force Base since October 2, 1963.

SAC Gordon Shanklin called from Dallas 5-22-64 to advise of a story which appeared in the home edition of the "Dallas Times" on 5-21-64.

According to Shanklin, David A. Witts spoke before the Salesmanship Club in Dallas yesterday. According to the newspaper account, Witts told the Club that when Oswald defected to the Soviet Union he took a military code and electronic secrets with him and as a result the Marines had to change their code and electronic equipment on the Pacific Coast. Witts, in his speech, also stated that Oswald had attended an assassin's school outside Minsk in the Soviet Union.

BY COURIER SERVICE

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

The "Dallas Times-Herald" for May 21, 1964, contained an article entitled "Defend Dallas, Lawyer Urges." According to the article, a copy of which is enclosed, Dallas attorney David Witts charged that in all communications media a massive effort has been made to cover up the fact that the assassin of President John F. Kennedy was a communist.

For your information, we interviewed Mr. Witts May 22, 1964, concerning the statements attributed to him in the enclosed article. Mr. Witts informed us that the remarks attributed to him in the "Dallas Times-Herald" newspaper were made in a speech he gave before the Dallas Salesmanship Club, Dallas, Texas. He advised that he has no private sources of confidential information regarding the Lee Harvey Oswald case and that his knowledge of Oswald stems from public source information. He added that his remarks at the Dallas Salesmanship Club meeting were based upon an article in the December 16, 1963, issue of the "U.S. News & World Report" entitled "Strange World of Lee Oswald: More Light on the Assassination" and an article entitled "Background For Assassination" which appeared in the March 16, 1964, issue of the "Washington Report," which is published by the American Security Council.

SUBJECT: AMERICANS RESIDING IN THE USSR

ReBulet to WFO 4/9/64, with enclosed copy of newspaper column, "Hunt For US Defectors," written by ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT, appearing in the "Northern Virginia Sun" on 3/26/64, under their column heading "Allen-Scott Report."

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are six copies each of separate LHM on SHIRLEY DUBINSKY, BETTY JANE MYERS, and MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET; single copies of the LHM concerning DUBINSKY are being sent to Miami and to New York Office for information purposes, single copies of the LHM concerning MYERS are being sent to Las Vegas and to San Francisco for information; and a copy of the LHM concerning MURRET is being furnished New Orleans for information. Photographs of DUBINSKY, MYERS and MURRET are enclosed for Bureau and interested offices.

ReBulet instructed WFO to interview newspaper columnist ROBERT S. ALLEN for information in further attempt to identify BETTY JANE MYERS, SHIRLEY DUBINSKY and MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRETT, who were named in the news column. In addition, the Bureau advised that should ALLEN be unable to identity the three women, then WFO should interview PAUL SCOTT.

ENCLOSURE

Prior to proceeding with the interviews of ALLEN and SCOTT, WFO reviewed records at the Passport Office, Department of State. In the period of 4/21-24/64, SA CARL E. GRAHAM reviewed files of the Passport Office on SHIRLEY DUBINSKY, BETTY JANE MYERS and MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET who appear to be identical with the persons mentioned in the newspaper column. It is to be noted that files at the Passport Office were found not to contain any other files on persons having these same names which were believed by reviewing agent to refer to instant investigation. The three files reviewed were located in the immediate possession of ROBERT D. JOHNSON, Chief Counsel, Passport Office, where it was learned his office was in the process of preparing "stop notices" on these three women, so that in the event they reapplied for passport facilities, notification would be brought to the attention of JOHNSON. It was also noted these three passport files had been charged out to the office of ABBA P. SCHWARTZ, Administrator, Bureau of Security and Consular Affairs (SCA), Department of State, in December, 1963. On 4/22/64, Mr. WALTER E. JESSOP, Special Assistant (Liaison), Office of Deputy Assistant Secretary for Security (SY), Department of State, advised SA GRAHAM that SY had no information relating to DUBINSKY, MYERS or MURRET; that SCA data concerning DUBINSKY was apparently the same information as was contained in her passport file.

The LHM concerning SHIRLEY DUBINSKY is classified "Confidential" inasmuch as it contains the substance of two memoranda; one from the U.S. Mission in Berlin to the State Department, dated 10/11/61, classified "Confidential"; the other, a "Confidential" memorandum from American Embassy, Moscow, dated 2/5/63 concerning her whereabouts and welfare. Copies of these documents from SCA, State, were filed in her passport file.

ReBulet 4/9/64 pointed out that Bureau relations with ROBERT S. ALLEN have been cordial in the past; the Bureau also called attention to an investigation initiated by the Bureau in February, 1962, in "Unsub; alleged Communists in CIA, PAUL SCOTT, 'Northern Virginia Sun' - Complainant, Security of Government Employees," (WFO file 140-17736). A review of this file disclosed PAUL SCOTT was interviewed 2/19, 28 and 3/9/62, concerning his allegations of suspected communists in CIA. In substance, these interviews produced no factual information from SCOTT; in fact, there appeared to be some question of his reliability or stability.

With regard to instant case of the alleged defectors, SA GRAHAM interviewed ROBERT S. ALLEN in his office at the National Press Building on 4/23/64. ALLEN informed that PAUL SCOTT had prepared the newspaper column dealing with defectors; whereupon he telephoned SCOTT who then was at the Senate Press Room at the Capitol Building. SCOTT was advised by SA GRAHAM that an interview was desired relative to his column about the defectors.

At that point, SCOTT said he could not discuss the matter on the telephone as his office telephones were "tapped." At that time, appointment was made to interview SCOTT at his office on 4/27/64. On Monday, 4/27/64, SCOTT telephoned SA GRAHAM at WFO shortly after 8:00 a.m. and advanced the appointment until 4/28/64 at 9:00 a.m.

On interview 4/28/64, SCOTT said his information concerning the defectors which he wrote in the newspaper column of 3/26/64 came from two sources whose identities he could not disclose, but he mentioned that he had one source "high up in the Department of Defense." SCOTT said he was not able at this time to furnish any additional identifying information concerning BETTY JANE MYERS, SHIRLEY DUBINSKY or MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRETT although he now was in possession of additional data which he had not been able to verify. He said that with regard to MURRETT, his information indicated some "tie-up" with the LEE HARVEY OSWALD case, but he was not at liberty to discuss it further because the information was not confirmed. He said he believed that MURRETT was "linked" in some manner with the communist "apparatus" of Professor HAROLD ISAACS of Massachusetts Institute of Technology; he described ISAACS of a "mastermind" of the communist movement which planned to take over the Government. In this regard, SCOTT said that ADAM YARMOLINSKY, Special Assistant to the Secretary of Defense, was the communist who would control the Defense Department after Defense Secretary ROBERT S. MC NAMARA was moved to head the Department of State, while DEAN RUSK assumed ADLAI STEVENSON's job at United Nations. SCOTT named WALT WHITMAN ROSTOW and HARLAN CLEVELAND, Chairman of Policy Planning Council, and Assistant Secretary for International Organization Affairs, respectively, at Department of State, as others who were "tied in" with ISAACS.

SCOTT stated that he has close liaison with Speaker of the House of Representatives, JOHN MC CORMICK, and with an unnamed person on the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, and planned to report to each that he had been interviewed by SA GRAHAM. SCOTT went on to relate that after the initial telephone call with him on 4/23/64, by SA GRAHAM, he made inquiry concerning the Agent in order to learn whether he was being contacted by a reliable person. SCOTT then went into a rambling dissertation of his efforts to combat communism in CIA and at NSA, and as a result, said "they have our telephones tapped," and for that reason he could never discuss anything on the telephone. SCOTT said he had tried to warn CIA and DIA (Defense Intelligence Agency) about communist infiltration, but they all laughed at him.

SCOTT rambled from one topic to another in almost senseless abandon; stated that with regard to DEAN RUSK, Secretary of State, there was a "tie-in" between RUSK and the two British defectors, GUY M. BURGESS and DONALD MACLEAN. When questioned what this connection was, SCOTT said RUSK went to school at Oxford with either BURGESS or MACLEAN. When pressed for details, SCOTT was unable to furnish any facts in this vein or with regard to other similar sweeping statements.

SCOTT stated that about two weeks ago, ROBERT S. KENNEDY, Attorney General, had made a speech before a meeting of Canadian Newspapermen, he believed this occurred in Toronto or Montreal. SCOTT said all you had to do was read the speech carefully and you could tell it was written by a communist.

In his comments concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY, SCOTT said he had a source who came from Cuba, whom he declined to identify, and this source had told him JACK RUBY, executioner of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, had visited Cuba either in December, 1961 or 1962. SCOTT did not attempt to assess the significance of this, and when asked, he stated he had been trying to confirm this information but had been unsuccessful.

SCOTT touched on the BOBBY BAKER "scandal" hearings; stated a special Grand Jury was going to meet in Baltimore on 5/18/64 to indict BOBBY BAKER, and BAKER had told friends that if he was indicted, he would bring "everyone else down with him." SCOTT said President LYNDON JOHNSON would be "exposed" and as a result would not be able to obtain the nomination of the Democratic Party for the forthcoming presidential election. SCOTT went on with regard to President JOHNSON; that in June, 1964, JOHNSON would be so busy making speeches that he would not be able to stop the communist "take over" which would start about mid-June, 1964.

SCOTT asserted he had a very high regard for the Director and this Bureau, but said that even the Director could only "do so much" when it came to combating the communist influence in government in high places at the policy-making level. SCOTT promised that if and when he came into possession of more identifying data concerning the three women defectors in instant inquiry, he would communicate with SA GRAHAM and furnish complete details.

From the comments made by SCOTT, it appeared highly likely that he knew little or nothing concerning BETTY JANE MYERS, SHIRLEY DUBINSKY and MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET. He did not know whether these women mentioned in his column were still abroad or had returned to the United States; he "hedged" on knowing whether any one of them had been employed by the United States Governmen. or any agency thereof. It appeared that he had merely used their names to add authenticity to his column, simply because he had run across their names from some unidentified source, in his seeking to link the assassination of the late President KENNEDY to an international communist conspiracy.

WFO again advises that caution should be exercised in any dealings with PAUL SCOTT as it is felt there are grounds to question his stability and reliability.

With regard to the enclosed LHM, the information set out in them was obtained by SA GRAHAM on 4/21-24/64 at the Passport Office.

MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET

News reporters Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott are authors of a syndicated newspaper column known as the "Allen-Scott Report." In their column March 26, 1964, in the "Northern Virginia Sun," they reported under the subtitle, "Hunt On For US Defectors." This column related the administration of President Johnson is launching one of the most intensive world-wide "man-hunts" in the past ten years ---- seeking to pinpoint the whereabouts of United States citizens who have defected to Russia or satellite countries since the end of World War II. The news column listed by name some of the "most wanted" defectors, and among those names was Marilyn Dorothea Murrett.

On interview April 23, 1964, Robert S. Allen advised a representative of this agency that the newspaper column referred to had been prepared by his associate, Paul Scott, and Allen referred all inquiry concerning it to Scott.

On interview April 28, 1964, Paul Scott advised a representative of this Bureau that his information concerning defectors had been obtained by him from two principal sources whom he declined to identify. He related that he did have some additional identifying information in his possession concerning Murrett; however, he could not furnish it until such time as he was able to "confirm" it through other means not disclosed.

With regard to Marilyn Dorothea Murrett, Scott stated he had some information to indicate a "tie-up" between her and the case of Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated the late President Kennedy, but Scott said his information was not confirmed; also he said he believed that Murrett was "linked" in some manner with the communist "apparatus" of Professor Harold Isaacs of Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Scott said he was unable at this time to furnish any additional information in this vein; he stated he was working on the matter of obtaining additional substantive data.

Inquiry at the Passport Office, Department of State, disclosed a passport file on one Marilyn Dorothea Murret, and information noted therein would appear to be pertinent to this investigation. The passport data is set forth as follows:

Marilyn Dorothea Murret, born July 14, 1928, New Orleans, Louisiana, living at 3730 Lindell Boulevard, Saint Louis, Missouri, first was issued United States Passport Number 436517 on July 13, 1954, for proposed travel via air from New York City, July 24, 1954, to England, France, Germany and Holland, on a three-week vacation. At this time she listed her occupation as Reservations Agent, Braniff Airways. On her passport application July 7, 1954, in United States District Court, St. Louis, she showed her parents as Charles Ferdinand Murret, born March 7, 1950, at New Orleans; and Lillian Sophie Claverie, born May 17, 1900, in New Orleans; both presently (1954) living at 757 French Street, New Orleans. This application was accompanied by a certified copy of her birth certificate issued by the City of New Orleans Health Department. Witness on the application was Peter W. Wujcik, 320 Ballman Drive, Ferguson, Missouri.

On April 28, 1958, New Orleans Series Passport Number 769007 was issued to Marilyn Dorothea Murret, 757 French Street, New Orleans. On this application executed April 22, 1958, at the New Orleans Passport Agency, she showed her father, Charles Ferdinand Murret as having been born March 17, 1901, and mother, Lillian Claverie Murret as having been born May 13, 1901, both presently living in New Orleans. On this application she listed occupation as teacher, and showed she planned departure from New York City June 5, 1958, via Sabena Airlines for purposes of vacation and to attend a summer session at the University of Madrid. She indicated she would visit Belgium, France and Spain for three months. In response to questions as to past or present membership in the Communist Party, she answered such questions in the negative.

On March 14, 1960, at the Office of the American Consul, Tokyo, Japan, Marilyn Dorothea Murret executed an application for renewal of Passport Number 769007. At this time she showed her local address as Kobinoto Hotel, and indicated the purpose of her foreign travel was that of tourist. On the same date, her passport was renewed until April 27, 1962.

On April 17, 1962, before the American Vice Consul, Karachi, Pakistan, Marilyn Dorothea Murret executed application for a new passport and on that date was issued Passport Number Z-120389, valid to April 16, 1965. She showed she was then residing in the Young Women's Christian Association; that her legal address was 757 French Street, New Orleans, Louisiana. She also indicated she planned to return to the United States within seven months. Concerning her absences from the United States, she showed she had been in India for nine months dating from February, 1961; in Japan for six and one-half months dating from September, 1959; and in Karachi, Pakistan, since April 21, 1962.

MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET

Passport application described Marilyn Dorothea Murret as a white female, five feet seven inches tall, with dark brown hair and brown eyes. Occupation was given as teacher. In event of death or accident, she requested notification to her mother, Mrs. Charles Murret, at 757 French Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

This relates to a traveling bag believed to have been the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD which has been designated Commission Exhibit C 254. This is described as a cloth bag, green in color, known as a "Bee 4" bag.

On May 5, 1964, EDUARDO CERVERA, Bus Driver, Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus Line, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, the same driver that drove the connecting bus from Continental Trailways, Laredo, Texas, to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, viewed the photograph of the "Bee 4" bag marked Commission Exhibit C 254, and advised that the yellow markings on the side of the bag were made by Mexican Customs at the time the bag was examined on September 26, 1963, and that this yellow marking of "9/26" only shows that the bag was checked through Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963.

CERVERA stated that it was not possible to check baggage at Red Arrow or at the Mexican Customs since they do not have lockers or storage space. CERVERA stated that even in Monterrey, Mexico, Red Arrow has no lockers or storage space for luggage.

On May 5, 1964, EMILIO CASTILLO, Mexican Customs Inspector, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, viewed the photograph of the "Bee 4" bag, Commission Exhibit C 254, and advised that the yellow markings made on the side of the "Bee 4" bag were made by a Customs Inspector at the time the bag was checked into Mexico.

[illegible]

CASTILLO stated that the Customs Inspector who checked the bag would have written "9/26" to show that the bag was passed through Mexican Customs on that date and was okayed for entry into Mexico.

On May 5, 1964, MIGUEL MORENO IBARRA, Chief of Mexican Customs Inspectors, International Bridge, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, viewed the photograph of the "Beau 4" bag marked Commission Exhibit C 254, and stated that the yellow markings on the side of the bag were made by a Mexican Customs Inspector at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and denotes that this particular bag passed through Mexican Customs on "9/26."

IBARRA explained that the yellow crayon marking system was one of two methods of marking luggage used by the Mexican Customs Inspectors. The other method is to seal the bag with tape or with a Customs sticker.

When the Mexican Customs official is busy with a lot of people passing through Customs, he will usually use the yellow crayon marking system. If the Customs official has more time he will use a sticker or colored tape and will initial the tape or sticker.

IBARRA explained that on September 26, 1963, there were six persons on duty in addition to the chief, and any of these persons could have checked the bag and written "9/26."

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISC. - INFO CONCERNING

PURPOSE

That attached letter with enclosures concerning Robert Adrian Taylor, who allegedly purchased a U. S. Rifle, caliber .30-06, from Lee Harvey Oswald, be forwarded to the President's Commission.

BACKGROUND

Robert Adrian Taylor was originally interviewed on 12-13-64, regarding the rifle he purchased from one of two men during March or April, 1963. These men appeared at the Shell service station in Irving, Texas, where Taylor was employed, for automobile repair. The men had insufficient funds for the car repair and sold Taylor the rifle for $12 and he subsequently charged these men $11.50 for the repair bill. At this time Taylor stated he did not have the rifle in his possession as he had loaned it to his "son" for deer hunting. He described the rifle as a "Springfield bolt action .30-06, Model 1906, Serial No. 66091." On 11-23-63, Taylor observed a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald on TV and he believed Oswald was the individual from whom he purchased the rifle. However, he stated "naturally, he could not be positively sure that the man who sold him the rifle was Oswald. He feels that it was Oswald as that upon viewing Oswald on television, he immediately thought of this rifle, and at that instant thought that Oswald was the man who sold the weapon to him."

By letter dated 4-30-64, the Commission requested additional information concerning this rifle. It was desired Taylor be reinterviewed at which time various specifications of his rifle in its present condition, including photographs were to be obtained. The Commission also wanted the same information concerning a similar rifle in its original condition. Upon reinterview on 5-13-64, Taylor reiterated similar information as set out above and stated "he cannot be positively sure the man who sold him the rifle was Oswald." He further stated he could not recall the exact date he purchased the rifle other than it was during March or

April of 1964. He said he had never seen either of the two men before he purchased the rifle and there was a possibility the man he believed to be Oswald had returned to the service station approximately a month later after he purchased the rifle from him. However, he again commented he was very doubtful that actually Lee Harvey Oswald came to his station, as the individual from whom he purchased the rifle had promised him ammunition and he was sure he would have remembered this individual because of this promise. Taylor said the weapon was in possession of his "son-in-law" Benjamin Moku on November 22, 1963, as the rifle had been registered at the Provost Marshal's office, Fort Hood, Texas, for use in deer hunting on the military reservation. He obtained the rifle on December 31, 1963. Previous investigation has established Oswald as employed in Dallas in March, 1963, until April 6, 1963, and he left Dallas for New Orleans in the latter part of April, 1963. Lee Harvey Oswald's brother Robert, has also indicated the only rifle known to have been in possession of Oswald was a small .22 caliber rifle they had when they were boys and he had bought the gun for Lee for $10. During an interview with Marina Oswald she also indicated she has never known of any other rifle ever being in possession of her husband.

The Laboratory has determined from an examination of Taylor's rifle that it is a U. S. Rifle, caliber .30-06, Model 1903, Serial No. 66091, manufactured at Rock Island Arsenal, Rock Island, Illinois. The upper and lower bands have been removed, the front portion of the stock has been cut off, the wooden hand guard originally covering the top of the barrel has been removed, the rear sight has been removed and replaced with telescopic sight mount blocks and the bolt handle has been ground down and bent so that it would not strike the telescopic sight tube when operating the bolt. All other parts appear to be original, unaltered parts. The rifle has the standard length of 43 1/4". The barrel has not been shortened. The length of the longest portion (barrel and receiver) is 31 7/8". The stock portion is 28 3/4" long which is less than the standard length of 40 1/8" for a "non-sporterized" stock. Two photographs of Taylors's rifle assembled and two photographs disassembled are being furnished the Commission, as well as similar photographs of a U. S. Rifle caliber .30-06, Model 1903 (Rock Island), from our Reference Firearms Collection.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BELMONT
MR. ROSEN
MR. SULLIVAN
MR. DE LOACH

On May 13, 1964, at the invitation of Chief Justice Earl Warren I had luncheon with the Chief Justice in his private dining room. We discussed generally the problems affecting law enforcement and also those which have arisen in connection with the work of the Presidential Commission on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy headed by the Chief Justice and before which I was to appear the following day. The luncheon was entirely pleasant.

The following day I appeared before the Presidential Commission headed by the Chief Justice. Present at this meeting were the Chief Justice, Senator John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Mr. Allen Dulles, Representative Gerald R. Ford of Michigan, Representative Hale Boggs of Louisiana, and the General Counsel of the Commission, J. Lee Rankin.

I began my testimony at 9:00 AM and finished at 11:30 AM. It, of course, has been recorded and copies of it have been sent to the Bureau for review and such corrections as may be necessary. It was obvious that the stenotype operator was getting very little of what I was saying and of the questions which were being propounded to me.

I am attaching hereto a written note which was handed to me by Mr. Malley just before the hearings started. It refers to the statement which had been made in the press that the Dallas Police Department had been requested by the Department of Justice or by the FBI not to arrest Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack Ruby. This message had been phoned to the Bureau by Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach. I advised the Commission of the contents of the attached note.

The President's Commission

Dear Mr. Rankin:

On May 25, 1964, Mr. Wesley James Liebeler of your staff requested that this Bureau obtain a copy of a recording tape made by Radio Station WDSU, New Orleans, Louisiana, on August 21, 1963, and a copy of a recording tape made by William K. Stuckey on August 17, 1963.

Mr. Liebeler requested that in obtaining the tapes the Bureau maintain the appropriate chain of evidence to establish their authenticity.

On May 27, 1964, arrangements were made through John Corporon, News Director of Radio Station WDSU, to obtain a copy of a tape of the radio program "Conversation Carte Blanche," which was broadcast over WDSU on August 21, 1963. Upon receipt, the tape will be forwarded to you.

It will be noted that William K. Stuckey was previously contacted by representatives of this Bureau on March 4, 1964, relative to obtaining the original recording tape of his interview with Lee Harvey Oswald on August 17, 1963. At that time Mr. Stuckey advised he was negotiating for the sale of his recording and preferred to maintain custody of the original tape until the sale was final. Stuckey expressed a preference not to have a copy made of the original tape until the sale was completed.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

On May 27, 1964, Mr. Stuckey advised that he was contacted in April, 1964, by Mr. Albert Jenner of your staff who was in New Orleans at that time. Mr. Jenner inquired relative to obtaining a tape of Stuckey's interview with Oswald. According to Mr. Stuckey, he told Mr. Jenner that he was reluctant to make the tape available because of its possible commercial value to him. He told Mr. Jenner that he would come to Washington, D. C., to play the tape before the President's Commission if this was desired.

Mr. Stuckey, on May 27, 1964, advised representatives of this Bureau that he is still negotiating for the sale of his tape and that if he could be given a guarantee by the President's Commission that the information contained on the tape would not be released and placed in commercial channels to be played publicly, he would make a copy of the tape available. Mr. Stuckey advised that he believed that the monetary value to him would be lost if the information on the tape was released publicly.

In view of Mr. Stuckey's request, no further contact is contemplated with him in the absence of specific advice from you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On December 13, 1963 agents of your Bureau interviewed Mr. Robert Adrian Taylor concerning the possibility that he may have purchased a rifle from Lee Harvey Oswald sometime in March or April of 1963. The result of that interview is recorded on pages 71 through 73 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, dated December 23, 1963 at Dallas, Texas. Our staff members were unable to obtain Mr. Taylor's deposition while they were in Dallas because Mr. Taylor was ill at that time.

We note that Mr. Taylor described the weapon which he allegedly purchased from Oswald as a Springfield bolt action 30.06 caliber rifle on which appeared the markings of the United States Rock Island Arsenal, model 1906, and the serial number 66091. We understand that Mr. Taylor has reconditioned or "sporterized" that weapon since he allegedly obtained it from Oswald.

Would you please advise as to the overall length, in its original condition, of a rifle of the type described by Mr. Taylor. We would also like to know the length of the longest component of such a rifle in its disassembled condition. We would also appreciate having a picture of such a rifle if it is readily available.

We note that the rifle which Taylor alledgedly obtained from Oswald was not available for inspection by your agents when they interviewed Taylor. Would you please re-interview Mr. Taylor to determine the total length of the weapon in its present condition as well as the length of the longest component when the rifle is in a disassembled condition. We would also appreciate it if you could supply pictures of Mr. Taylor's rifle; assembled and disassembled.

Please question Mr. Taylor again concerning the date on which he obtained the rifle. We note that Taylor said that he thought he had seen Oswald on one occasion after he had purchased the rifle. Mr. Taylor should be asked whether or not he has ever seen the individual from whom he obtained the rifle at any other time, either before or after November 22, 1963. We would appreciate advice as to where the rifle was located on November 22, 1963.

Your continued cooperation with this Commission is appreciated.

In connection with such investigation, WALKER was out of the city during the week of 5/18/64, and was not interviewed in connection with the investigation.

Furthermore, WALKER is a very controversial figure, and any contact with him would undoubtedly cause him to immediately alert the press media concerning the nature of the inquiries.

Furthermore, it is pointed out that WALKER maintains armed guards in the vicinity of his residence from time to time.

It is believed that the Commission's request has been adequately covered and, thus, Major General EDWIN A. WALKER will not be contacted.

Marina Oswald has indicated Oswald admitted to her attempted assassination of General Walker on evening of April 10, 1963. Marina told us on 2/24/64 that approximately two weeks after Walker incident Oswald indicated he was going to attack Nixon but that she locked him in a bathroom to prevent him following through with such attempt. Our investigation indicated Nixon was not in Dallas during period mentioned by Marina. A comprehensive review of Dallas newspapers during pertinent period revealed President Johnson was in Dallas April 23, 1963 making a speech. Johnson, at that time Vice President of the United States. We are recontacting Marina to determine if there is any possibility Mr. Johnson rather than Mr. Nixon was the intended victim of Oswald. By separate communication we are furnishing Commission data reporting Mr. Johnson was in Dallas April 23, 1963, 13 days after the attempted shooting of General Walker.

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.
May 28, 1964

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 27, 1964, Special Agent James M. (Mike) Howard, United States Secret Service, was interviewed in the presence of Inspector Thomas J. Kelley, Secret Service, by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation with regard to an article which appeared in the May 9, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian", a weekly newspaper published in New York City. The article under discussion bore the caption, "Oswald Case: A New Angle", and information set out therein was attributed to Attorney Mark Lane.

Special Agent Howard explained that on Sunday morning, February 9, 1964, he, along with his brother, Pat C. Howard, Deputy Sheriff of the Tarrant County, Texas, Sheriff's Office, was assigned to transport Mrs. Marguerite Oswald from her residence at 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, to Love Field, Dallas, Texas, where Mrs. Oswald was to take a plane to Washington, D. C., for purposes of her appearance before the President's Commission. Special Agent Howard further stated that at the insistence of Mrs. Oswald, he and his brother also were accompanied by Theyer Waldo, who, Mrs. Oswald explained, was making the trip with her from Fort Worth to Dallas at the suggestion of her attorney, Mark Lane. Howard related that after Mrs. Oswald was placed aboard the plane, he and his brother, along with Special Agent in Charge Forrest V. Sorrels of the Dallas office of Secret Service, went into the airport restaurant or coffee shop, also accompanied by Waldo. The news column in the "National Guardian" alleged certain conversation between Deputy Sheriff Pat Howard and Waldo and Special Agent Mike Howard stated he had no knowledge whatsoever of any such conversation between Waldo and Deputy Howard.

44 MAR 5 1973

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

Agent Howard related at the airport Waldo asked if Agent Howard would give him a ride back to Fort Worth from Love Field and Agent Howard acquiesced inasmuch as he was driving his personally-owned vehicle. En route to Fort Worth, Agent Howard drove the car with his brother, Pat Howard, riding in the front seat and Waldo was riding in the rear seat alone. During the ride Agent Howard, in discussion with his brother, related to his brother Pat a story which Agent Howard had been told on January 1, 1964, while on a special detail accompanied by two detectives of the Dallas Police Department. On that occasion Detective Jack Bryan had told Agent Howard about an incident involving a Negro man who was questioned by the Dallas police in connection with his being in the Texas Book Depository Building on the day of the assassination of President Kennedy and that the Negro man had left the building hurriedly after the shooting. When later questioned by Dallas police why he had left the building in a hurry, the Negro man stated that because he had a police record, he feared he would be suspected of having been involved in the shooting.

Special Agent Howard stated while relating this incident to his brother Pat, he did not know Waldo, in the back seat of the car, could have overheard the conversation; however, Waldo leaned forward over the rear of the front seat and asked Agent Howard if this person, the Negro man who was the topic of conversation, would be called to testify before the Warren Commission. Agent Howard stated that in jest he replied to Waldo, "Why yes, I'm sure he will be". In response to a question by Waldo as to where this man was, Deputy Pat Howard replied jokingly, "They probably have him hidden out someplace."

Agent Howard stated neither he nor his brother, Pat Howard, realized Waldo was a newspaper reporter and later that night, after having returned to Fort Worth, he learned television and radio coverage had been given to a story attributed to Waldo that a witness who was to testify before the Warren Commission was being hidden by police officers. Special Agent Howard stated the Fort Worth newspaper "Star-Telegram" carried a story by Waldo in the same vein and he immediately called Waldo telephonically to make inquiry where Waldo had gotten such a story. In reply Waldo told Agent Howard he (Waldo) had talked to his attorney and that Waldo did not have to divulge the source of his information and said Agent Howard had nothing to worry about. Agent Howard stated his brother, Pat Howard, also contacted Waldo telephonically and received a similar assurance.

Agent Howard stated that during the ride from Dallas back to Fort Worth with Waldo in the car, Agent Howard did not make any statements such as were attributed to him concerning, "Wait until that old black boy gets in front of the Warren Commission . . ." Agent Howard stated he did not make any statement to the effect that the Negro janitor was a witness to the shooting of the President. Agent Howard stated these alleged quotes attributed to him were entirely a fabrication.

With regard to the article in the "National Guardian", Agent Howard prepared a memorandum dated May 27, 1964, and a copy of this memorandum furnished by Inspector Thomas J. Kelley is attached hereto. Inspector Kelley furnished the copy on May 28, 1964.

SA Howard - White House Detail

Article entitled "Oswald case: A new angle," appearing in the May 9, 1964, edition of NATIONAL GUARDIAN, a New York newsweekly.

At the request of the Warren Commission, I was interviewed on May 27, 1964, by FBI Agent Carl E. Graham in the presence of Inspector Kelley of this Service, in connection with quotations appearing in subject article (copy attached) allegedly made by me on February 9, 1964, relative to the assassination of President Kennedy.

To the best of my knowledge, the following is a factual account of my activities on February 9, 1964.

On February 9, 1964, after delivering Mrs. Marguerite Oswald to Dallas Love Field from Fort Worth (see my M/R dated 2/10/64, SS Control No. 1161, Warren Commission), SAIC Sorrels, Dallas office; my brother Pat Howard, deputy sheriff of Tarrant County; and the reporting agent were having coffee in the airport coffee shop. We were joined by Mr. Thayer Waldo, a reporter for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, who asked if he might "hitch a ride" with me to Fort Worth. Due to the fact that I was off duty and returning to Fort Worth in my private automobile, I agreed to let Mr. Waldo ride with me. While driving between Dallas and Fort Worth, Deputy Howard and I were riding in the front seat and Mr. Waldo was in the back seat. Both front windows were completely open and the wind was blowing strongly, possibly muffling the conversation going on in the front seat, which may account for Mr. Waldo's misunderstanding of the conversation.

Deputy Howard and I were discussing an incident which Det. Jack Bryan of the Dallas P.D. had told me on January 1, 1964, concerning a Negro male suspect who was questioned by the Dallas P.D. in connection with his being in the Texas Book Depository on the day of the assassination, and having left hurriedly sometime afterwards. When questioned as to why he left the Texas Book Depository in a hurry, the suspect stated that, since he had a police record, he would probably be suspected of involvement in the shooting. However, Det. Bryan stated that the suspect apparently had absolutely nothing to do with Oswald nor the shooting.

After relaying this story to Deputy Howard, Mr. Waldo sat up in the back seat (apparently having heard part of the conversation) and asked if this man would be testifying before the Warren Commission. Not taking Mr. Waldo seriously, and not realizing he was a newspaper reporter, the reporting agent laughed and jokingly stated "Why yes, I'm sure he will be." Mr. Waldo then asked where this man was, to which Deputy Howard stated (in a joking manner) "They probably have him hidden-out someplace."

Upon arrival at Fort Worth, Mr. Waldo asked to be dropped off at the Star-Telegram office.

On this same day at approximately 10 p.m., a television broadcast was heard by the reporting agent, to the effect that a witness was being hidden by police officers who was to testify before the Warren Commission. Mr. Waldo's name was mentioned in this broadcast. A few minutes after the broadcast, the reporting agent received a telephone call from Inspector Kelley in Washington, D.C., asking if I had heard the broadcast and instructing me to find out whatever I could about it.

I immediately telephoned the Star-Telegram office and talked with Mr. Waldo, asking him where he had gotten his information as to the "hidden witness" mentioned in the TV broadcast, to which he answered "You don't have anything to worry about, I won't mention your name." Not immediately understanding that he was referring to the story Det. Bryan had told me, I said "That's fine, but who is this witness who is going to testify before the Warren Commission?" Again Mr. Waldo told me not to worry; that he had spoken with his lawyer who told him that it was all right to print the story. When I realized that he was referring to the story that Det. Bryan had told me, I told him that there had been a misunderstanding and that I was joking with him.

When the article appeared in the Fort-Worth Star-Telegram of February 10, 1964, I tried to get in touch with Mr. Waldo again, but he was not available.

The above incidents were made the subject of an O/M to SAIC Sorrels, dated February 11, 1964. I did not try to get in touch with Mr. Waldo again on the advice of SAIC Sorrels.

In connection with the quotations allegedly made by me and Deputy Howard, to my knowledge, at no time did Deputy Howard tell Mr. Waldo that he would give him information in regard to an unidentified witness to the assassination of President Kennedy; at no time did I refer to "that old black boy" going before the Warren Commission; at no time did I refer to anyone having seen Oswald or anyone else fire a shot from a window of the Texas Book Depository; at no time did I refer to a janitor in the Texas Book Depository; at no time did I tell Mr. Waldo that I had seen the Negro man in question in the custody of the Dallas police; and at no time did I state that a rifle had been found on the roof of the Texas Book Depository which had been dropped by a Dallas police officer.

On May 28, 1964, MARTIN SAMUEL ABELOW, who is employed by Lockheed Aircraft, Sunnyvale, California, and who resides 2727 Midtown Court, Palo Alto, California, furnished the information set forth below to Special Agents DOUGLAS G. ALLEN and JOHN P. McHUGH.

ABELOW advised that approximately one year ago he was working in Houston, Texas, and took a vacation trip to New Orleans, Louisiana. While in New Orleans he visited the United States aircraft carrier which was docked there at the time, and, while waiting to board this carrier, he observed a young man distributing leaflets to the waiting crowd, which leaflets were of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. ABELOW stated he has no idea who this young man was and added he had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to the best of his recollection and knowledge.

He noted he did travel to Mexico City around the first of July, 1963, for a vacation trip and stated he is unable to recall meeting anyone in Mexico City who would remotely fit the description of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

This source added that Bringuier is a delegate to the Student Revolutionary Directorate.

This source advised that Bringuier did not outline the theme of the proposed book. However, based on comments made by Bringuier, it was this source's conclusion that this book would be about Lee Harvey Oswald and an attempt by Bringuier to establish a relationship between Oswald and Fidel Castro of Cuba.

This source added that there will apparently be no actual facts on which to support this alleged relationship. This source stated that Bringuier will probably relate certain incidents to create a doubt that Oswald acted alone in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

This source stated that the Student Revolutionary Directorate is an anti-Castro organization headquartered at Miami, Florida.

ReBuairtel, 5/21/64, and CGairtel, 5/26/64.

Late yesterday afternoon I contacted Managing Editor LUKE CARROLL in his office at "Chicago's American." He advised me that he had contacted columnist MAGGIE DALY and requested her to furnish him the source of her information in her article appearing 5/13/64, and also requested that she furnish him the name of the woman alleged by DALY's source to have stated that she "feels" that LEE OSWALD was CASTRO's deputized murderer.

Mr. CARROLL advised me that MAGGIE DALY refused to furnish either the source of her information or the identity of the woman mentioned in instant article. He stated that she finally agreed that she would advise him as to the identity of the source and the woman provided he gave her his word that he would not reveal their identity to anyone else. CARROLL stated he refused to accept the information under those circumstances and therefore she refused to furnish him the desired information.

Mr. CARROLL was obviously embarrassed about this and advised me that in the future no further items such as this would be permitted in her column unless she first advised him of the source of her information.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, NOVEMBER 22,
1963, DALLAS, TEXAS

The following item appeared in "Chicago's American", a daily newspaper, Chicago, Illinois, in the column identified as "Daly Diary":

> "Does the Warren committee know this? That a lovely looker, who dwells in Houston, Tex., was in Dallas the morning JFK was slain—and that her most generous gentleman friend in Mexico City phoned her from there and breathlessly instructed: 'Get out of there at once!' She took the first jet home. To her intimate friends (and one of ours) she allegedly stated that she 'feels' Lee Oswald was Castro's deputized murderer because Kennedy publicly pledged to Cuban exiles in Canaveral and Washington: 'I promise you all that one day soon you will return to a free Cuba!' Our source assures us that the lady is a nice person—not a name-dropper."

The "Daly Diary" is reportedly written by Columnist Maggie Daly of "Chicago's American".

On May 25, 1964, Mr. Luke Carroll, Managing Editor, "Chicago's American", Chicago, Illinois, advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he would attempt to obtain from Maggie Daly the source for the information in the above article and also the name of the woman mentioned in the article.

On May 27, 1964, Mr. Luke Carroll, Managing Editor, "Chicago's American", Chicago, Illinois, advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Maggie Daly emphatically refused to divulge the identity of the source of her information in the above-mentioned article and also refused to identify the woman mentioned therein. Mr. Carroll stated that he does not possess this information and in view of Maggie Daly's declination it is impossible for him to obtain the information desired.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 5/30/64

"Chicago's American" carried a column by Maggie Daly alleging Lee Oswald was Castro's deputized murderer. Through Mr. Luke Carroll, managing editor, we endeavored to determine source for the story. Maggie Daly refused to furnish source and would tell Carroll only if he did not reveal identity to anyone else. President's Commission will be advised.

MICHAEL ANTHONY DE PADRO, Jr., 1515 S.E. 10th Street, advised that he is presently in business with his father, MICHAEL ANTHONY DE PADRO, Sr.. They operate two yachting centers in Fort Lauderdale at Bahia Mar Yacht Basin, and in Dania, Florida at 801 N.E. 3rd Street. He said that he was formerly in the United States Marine Corps, where he had serial number 070 349. During most of his career in the Marine Corps he served as a radar officer at El Toro, California. He was released from active duty as a First Lieutenant in about March, 1959, and has since been retired because of a disability.

Mr. DE PADRO stated that he has no recollection of any person by the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, who served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the time he was in that organization. He said that to the best of his knowledge , he had never heard that name prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He said that while in the Marine Corps, he at no time had any enlisted men under his command. He said that his duties as an officer were limited to standing watch at El Toro, California as a radar officer. He said that during these watches, there were enlisted men who were on duty and who would come under his supervision, but that this was limited to the shift when he was on duty, and he had no other connection with these men. He does not recall that anyone by the name of OSWALD was on duty with him at any time.

Mr. DE PADRO went on to state that he is certain that during the time he was in the Marine Corps, he at no time made any report concerning OSWALD or anyone else about anything. He is positive that he had never made any statement or report pertaining to his being "upset concerning literature" which OSWALD or anyone else subscribed to or read. He had no recollection of seeing or hearing anything about this or any similar matter either while he was in the Marine Corps or at any other time.

Date 5/26/64

Mr. DE PADRO was recontacted on May 20, 1964, at which time it was explained to him that three enlisted men who were stationed at the Marine Corps station at El Toro, California, with him, have mentioned he had been upset by the literature which OSWALD had been receiving and he, DE PADRO, had questioned OSWALD concerning the literature.

Mr. DE PADRO affirmed he did recall the Marine Corps enlisted men named BUDDY ALLEN SIMCO, NELSON DELGADO and ERWIN DONALD LEWIS.

Mr. DE PADRO was informed that BUDDY ALLEN SIMCO, upon interview on November 25, 1963, said he vaguely recalled OSWALD subscribed to some Russian literature which he received through the Squadron S-3 Operations Office at the Marine Corps station and that Lieutenant DE PADRO, being upset by the literature which OSWALD was receiving, asked him why he subscribed to the literature and OSWALD replied that it was to practice Russian.

Mr. DE PADRO stated following his interview in this matter on November 28, 1963, he had made considerable effort to recall OSWALD or any incidents involving OSWALD which might have occurred while he, DE PADRO, was stationed at El Toro during the period December, 1956 to March, 1959.

He said he definitely had no recollection of an incident wherein he corrected anyone for possession of Russian literature. He pointed out he was a radar officer and unlike a Marine Corps officer in the infantry, he did not have close contact with the enlisted men who worked in the same facility. He said he now recalled that there was an enlisted man named OSWALD, who worked in the Combat Air Control Squadron Center at El Toro. He explained that the enlisted men assigned at this center engaged in radar scanning and plotting of aircraft positions on a large transparent map of that area of California. He further explained that the map actually formed a wall between the scanning room and the room in which DE PADRO was occupied as radar control officer. He said he seemed to recall an individual whom he believed was OSWALD, who used to work with the radar scopes in the scanning room. He recalled this individual as being very thin, possibly 5'10" tall, with blond crew cut hair and fair complexion. It was his recollection this individual was left handed and that he was talented in drawing, and had drawn a squadron emblem which DE PADRO and another officer had designed for the squadron.

Mr. DE PADRO stated he could recall nothing further which might relate to his knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

DATE: 6-1-64

FROM : L. J. Gauthier

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Pursuant to a request of Mr. Arlen Specter, Commission Staff Attorney, a conference was held in his office on 5-28-64 at which time Mr. Norman Redlich and Specter discussed the order and method of presenting to the Commission technical testimony relating to the Assassination Site. Present from the FBI were Messrs. Malley, Shaneyfelt, Frazier, and Gauthier and from the Secret Service Inspector Thomas Kelly. Mr. Specter outlined the following order of testimony which he will develop for the record through hypothetical questions asked jointly of the following scheduled witnesses:

1. Inspector Thomas Kelly, Secret Service, will testify to:

   (a) Details of cars used in motorcade on 11-22-63;
   (b) Physical measurements of President and Governor;
   (c) Plans of 6th floor of Texas School Book Depository made by Dallas Police on 11-22-64 in presence of Secret Service;
   (d) Background of the Zapruder film, how obtained and disposition.

2. SA L. E. Shaneyfelt, FBI Laboratory, will testify to:

   (a) Background of the Zapruder, Nix and Muchmore films;
   (b) Camera examination (Zapruder, Nix and Muchmore);
   (c) Origin of the 35 mm color slides of each frame from the Zapruder film, describing the frame numbering system used;

4. Inspector Lee J. Gauthier, Administrative Division, will testify to:

(a) Type of visual aids made available to the Commission, namely, scale models of Assassination Site and Police Department garage where Oswald was killed, charts of whereabouts of Oswald after assassination, aerial photos of Assassination Site and surrounding areas.

5. Commission Staff members will not be in a position to testify; however, they have theories concerning the shooting sequence. Mr. Spector indicated that hypothetical questions will be advanced by him to support all of the testimony given the Commission by Governor and Mrs. Connally, doctors, ballistic experts, Secret Service and FBI. This includes confidential information given to the Commission under oath all of which is not necessarily known to those who are scheduled to testify on 6-4-64.

Memo, Gauthier to Callahan
Re: Assassination of President Kennedy

At the time of the conference in Mr. Specter's office, the date of Friday, 6-5-64 was tentatively set for hearing testimony. On 5-29-64 Mr. Specter called me at home stating that Chief Justice Warren had advised Mr. Rankin that this testimony should be moved up to 10:00 A. M. Thursday, 6-4-64 in order for him to be present.

SAC Shanklin was able to have the Surveyor's work completed two days earlier and at 10:00 P. M. 5-31-64 I obtained a tracing of the survey plat map from Captain Houton, AAL, at Friendship Airport inbound from Dallas.

The work of putting together the FBI's part of this assignment is being closely developed by all responsible Divisions. Mr. Specter wishes to be in a position to review this material before 6-4-64 if possible. He will be given the opportunity to discuss this matter with us as soon as the FBI's work has been completed.

On Saturday at 11 a.m., in accordance with Bureau approval, I talked to Isaac Don Levine, well-known anticommunist writer. He called at this office while en route to the State Department. Levine, who was born in Russia, has not been close to the Bureau in recent years. On the other hand, we have had no real problem with him. We know he has been in Dallas in the recent past talking to Marina Oswald and otherwise conducting inquiries for the purpose of writing a book.

On calling in to arrange an interview with me, he said his purpose was to give us information which he believed the FBI should have and did not have. Despite this, he began to ask me questions as to whether the FBI was in possession of such and such a piece of information, et cetera. At the offset I stopped Levine and explained to him very carefully and politely that I had no comment whatsoever to make to him about any aspect of the Oswald case; that if he did have any information to give to the Bureau I would be glad to receive it. He said he understood the reason for this and then commenced to talk.

Mr. Levine said he regards Marina Oswald as being a very intelligent, astute, cunning person who is still holding out and not telling all that she knows. He said he regards her as being educated because she writes very clear, impressive and grammatically correct Russian.

Mr. Levine said he had called on Mr. Allen Dulles, former head of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) to discuss this matter but he was unimpressed by Dulles, who appeared during the interview to be sleepy and not really interested in what Levine was saying. Further, he said he got the impression that Mr. Dulles is not the type of man who would act decisively.

Levine explained that, as a result of talking to Marina Oswald and making additional inquiries, he believes that Lee Harvey Oswald was active when in Minsk, Russia, with a group of Cubans there. Levine stated that outside of Minsk there is a little village called Prakhovka which is used as a training station by the Soviets for foreigners from different parts of the world who are returned to their native countries to carry out missions for the Soviets. Mr. Levine said he believed that Lee Harvey Oswald was trained as a propagandist by the Soviets in behalf of Castro's Cuba and returned to the United States under their instructions to conduct propaganda for the Cubans. He said he did not believe that Lee Harvey Oswald was trained in or returned to the United States by the Soviets for espionage purposes for they wouldn't trust him to carry out anything so responsible and so sensitive. He did believe that they were of the opinion he could be used safely for propaganda activities such as those in which he engaged in the name of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. Also, Mr. Levine said he believed that Marina Oswald was allowed to come into this country by the Soviets as a "sleeper." He expressed the opinion that he didn't believe she was a "sleeper" in the espionage sense but rather one whom the Soviets could safely go to after she was here three, four or five years to determine whether or not she could be of any value to them. He said he is of the opinion that Oswald was in contact with the Cuban Embassy in Moscow.

I asked Mr. Levine for the evidence to support these views, and he said he did not have any evidence but they represented deductions he had made from his study of the case.

He went on to say that letters had been sent to the "Militant" (organ of the Socialist Workers Party, a Trotskyite group) from Dallas, Texas, as follows: a letter dated October 14, 1963, signed R. L.; a letter dated March 11, 1963, signed L. H.; a letter dated April 22, 1963, signed Thelma Luccio; and a letter dated April 5, 1963, from Houston, signed E. L.

Levine believes that Lee Harvey Oswald went through six stages in his social thinking. These are: (1) a general socialist; (2) a socialist infatuated with Russia; (3) a full-fledged Marxist-Leninist communist; (4) deviation toward Trotskyism; (5) a Castro communist; (6) at the time of his death, a supporter of the Chinese (a Maoist).

Levine showed me a copy of a document entitled "The 33 Fresh Clues to the Mind of Kennedy's Assassin," dated April 14, 1964. He wanted to know whether we had covered all of these. Again, I told Mr. Levine I was not discussing the matter with him. He offered to let me make a copy of this, which I did, and he said he would be very glad to discuss these matters with the Bureau. I asked him for the evidence he had relating to these clues. He said he had an appointment at the Department of State within an hour and could not go into it, but that he did have considerable information relating to the 33 clues and would be glad to submit this data to the Bureau on being interviewed.

We are aware of and have run out the great majority of the items to which he refers. However, we cannot afford to ignore what additional information Levine claims he has, which I doubt is anything of real value. It is believed desirable to have Supervisor Robert E. Lenihan, who is very knowledgeable in this case, along with a WFO Agent visit Mr. Levine at his home in Waldorf, Maryland, which is nearby, and get from him whatever additional material he has concerning the 33 items.

RECOMMENDATION:

That arrangements be made to have Mr. Lenihan and a WFO Agent handle this matter as indicated above.

Re memorandum Sullivan to Belmont dated 5/11/64 (attached) which sets forth results of Mr. Sullivan's conversation with Isaac Don Levine, well-known anticommunist writer, on 5/9/64. During this conversation Mr. Levine furnished Mr. Sullivan a copy of a document entitled "The 33 Fresh Clues to the Mind of Kennedy's Assassin" dated 4/14/64. Mr. Sullivan pointed out that undoubtedly the FBI has run out the great majority of the items to which Levine refers but indicated we cannot afford to ignore any additional information Levine claims he has. Mr. Sullivan recommended Levine be interviewed by Supervisor Robert E. Lenihan of the Domestic Intelligence Division and a Washington Field Office Agent concerning the 33 items in question.

On 5/12/64 Mr. Levine was interviewed at his residence in Waldorf, Maryland, by Special Agents (SA) Robert E. Lenihan and James F. Morrissey. Mr. Levine's wife was present during most of the interview at Mr. Levine's request inasmuch as she was able to refresh his mind concerning a number of points involved.

In connection with the document entitled "The 33 Fresh Clues to the Mind of Kennedy's Assassin," Mr. Levine stated that such document was not prepared by him as a lead document for the FBI since he felt certain in his own mind that most, if not all, of the items mentioned had undoubtedly been covered by the FBI's investigation in this matter. He stated that he prepared the document to send to "Life" magazine and possibly other magazines to interest the editors of such publications in an article he was writing on the assassination. He felt such document would whet the appetites of magazine editors and the public and would result in Levine's obtaining a contract for an article. Levine stated that "Life" magazine and others have indicated a reluctance at this time to publish an article on the assassination because of the probability that the Warren Commission will publish results of its investigation in the near future. However, Levine is continuing his inquiries and investigation with the intention of writing a historical-type document, particularly as it involves Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina Oswald.

During the interview with Mr. Levine on 5/12/64 the interviewing Agents went over very carefully with Mr. Levine and his wife the 33 items which he referred to as 33 fresh clues. There was only one item which came up which has not been thoroughly run out. This involved Item #21, wherein Levine refers to the Oswalds' contacts with Cubans in Minsk, Russia, and the report of Oswald's relations with the Cuban Embassy in Moscow. Levine indicated he received information from a reliable and responsible source who formerly was a professor in Cuba to the effect that Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina Oswald had associated with Cuban nationals in Minsk and that Oswald had personal contact with two Cuban diplomats in Moscow, Russia, during Oswald's residence in Russia. Levine did not have the name of his source available at the time of the interview but on the morning of 5/13/64 Mr. Levine telephoned Supervisor Lenihan and identified his Cuban source as Herminio Portell-Vila, 5431 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C.

We have previously received information from Marina Oswald that she and Lee Harvey Oswald had an acquaintance in Minsk by the name of Alfred who was a Cuban residing in Minsk. According to Marina, Alfred whose last name she did not know was a Cuban citizen and a resident of Cuba who for some time had been studying in Russia. He studied at the University of Minsk for about six months and later studied at the University of Moscow. Marina indicated that she believes Alfred is presently attending the University of Moscow. Marina indicated that Lee Harvey Oswald had met Alfred at a social affair in Minsk.

We have previously interviewed Herminio Portell-Vila, a former professor of history at the University of Havana, Cuba, in connection with other matters of interest to this Bureau. Dr. Portell-Vila is currently employed as a writer for the Spanish-language weekly magazine "Bohemia Libre" published in New York City and has written articles for this magazine regarding the assassination. Dr. Portell-Vila's articles in question contain numerous distortions and speculation, including the fact that Oswald had accomplices to assist him in the assassination. We contacted Portell-Vila on 2/17/64 concerning these articles at which time he stated he obtained the data for such articles from public source material, such as American newspapers and magazines, foreign language newspapers and publications. He stated he had no direct or specific knowledge bearing on his allegations.

In view of the fact that Levine claims he learned from Dr. Portell-Vila that Oswald had contacts with two Cuban diplomats in Moscow, we have instructed Washington Field to immediately reinterview Dr. Portell-Vila and pin him down to specifics concerning such allegation.

OBSERVATIONS:

Mr. Levine and his wife were most cooperative during the interview of them on 5/12/64. The interviewing Agents got the impression, however, that the Levines were interested in obtaining data that might substantiate some of their speculations concerning the assassination and Lee Harvey Oswald. At the very outset of the interview, however, SA Lenihan carefully explained to Mr. and Mrs. Levine that the Bureau Agents were there to receive any information they might offer which they felt would have a bearing upon the assassination of President Kennedy and that appropriate investigation would be conducted on the basis of any information they furnished which necessitated further inquiry. SA Lenihan also made it very clear to Mr. and Mrs. Levine that the Bureau Agents would make no comment whatsoever concerning data they furnished. Both Mr. and Mrs. Levine indicated they understood the Bureau's position in this matter but desired to furnish any data they might possess which they felt might be of assistance to the Bureau. Thereafter, at no time during the interview did either Mr. or Mrs. Levine attempt in any manner to elicit information from the Bureau Agents.

ACTION:

For information. Immediately upon receipt of results of WFO's contact with Dr. Herminio Portell-Vila such data will be immediately furnished to the President's Commission and any additional investigation called for as a result of our interview of Dr. Portell-Vila will be immediately conducted.

Those passengers who have been located and interviewed are indicated below. (Further details regarding this passenger manifest are contained in a memorandum dated April 7, 1964.)

[redacted]

Upon interview on April 6, 1964, PHILIPPE PITER E. VAN DER VORM recalled that on the bus was a German woman whom he described as about 50 years of age who has been a school teacher in the United States for the past fifteen or twenty years and who had been in Yucatan, Mexico, on vacation. It is believed that the person referred to by VAN DER VORM may be MARGARET A. WOLFF.

In addition to the above passengers it has been determined that ten additional passengers boarded bus No. 332 at San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, in the early afternoon of October 2, 1963, eight of these passengers having arrived in San Luis Potosi on a feeder bus of the "Linea Azul" (Blue Line), which had departed from Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, at 8:00 AM, October 2, 1963, to make connection with bus No. 332 in San Luis Potosi. 26	PEDRO GLEZ. (probably GONZALEZ)	Monterrey
24	Illegible (probably JOSE CRUZ) (Seat No. 24 was listed for this person; however, since that seat was also designated for another person, it is believed that perhaps this seat was intended to be No. 29.)	Monterrey
28	MAXIMINO ESQUIVEL	Monterrey
27	Unidentified	Monterrey

The two passengers who boarded Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 at San Luis Potosi are unidentified; however, it appears that one of the passengers was HERBERT ROBERT VOORHEES, who was located and interviewed on March 26, 1964, at San Miguel de Allende, Guanajuato, Mexico. (Detailed information regarding the interview of VOORHEES is contained in a memorandum dated March 31, 1964.)

Two other passengers, who were not listed by name and remain unidentified, boarded the bus at Monterrey (passengers on bus No. 332, who were continuing the trip north, changed to Transportes del Norte bus No. 373 at Monterrey for the trip to the United States-Mexico border) with their destination being Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, Mexico. Another unidentified passenger, who was not listed by name, boarded the bus at Nuevo Laredo for the trip to Laredo, Texas.

PAULA RUSIONI
MARGARET A. WOLFF
Miss COSIO
EULALIO RODRIGUEZ

The first confidential source abroad advised as follows:

It was determined on April 15, 1964, through a check at the Central Office, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Washington, D. C., that the master index of that agency contained a reference to one HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ. These records disclosed that HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ was born September 4, 1944, at Mexico, D. F., Mexico (D. F. refers to "Distrito Federal" - Federal District or the Mexican Federal Capital), and admitted to the United States at Laredo, Texas, on May 24, 1963, on a Class B-2 visa valid to June 15, 1963. She was the bearer of Mexican Passport No. 31067, and the visa was issued at Mexico City on May 15, 1963. Her permanent address was given as J. M. Correa No. 196, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and her address in the United States was recorded as "San Antonio and Houston, Texas." The departure record reflects she departed from the United States at Laredo on May 30, 1963.

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on April 30, 1964, that he had located HILDA QUEZADA QUIROZ at Calle Jose Maria Correa No. 196, Colonia Vista Alegre, Mexico, D. F., and QUEZADA stated she did travel on a Transportes del Norte bus from San Luis Potosi, State of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, to Nuevo Laredo in May, 1963. QUEZADA affirmed that she did not travel in October, 1963.

A fourth confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On March 23, 1964, MACLOVIO HERRERA, Chief of the Travel Control Files of the Mexican Immigration Department, Mexico, D. F., advised that in a circular instruction dated March 20, 1962, the Chief of the Immigration Department described the Immigration form FM-11 as a "statistical record to be prepared every two weeks on nationals and aliens entering and leaving the country." HERRERA explained that separate FM-11 forms are submitted semimonthly by all Mexican Immigration stations for entries and departures from Mexico, and separate lists are prepared in connection with the various types of travel documents presented and submitted in duplicate (original and one carbon copy) to the Travel Control Files for checking and comparison with the tourist cards or other travel documents on which they are based. HERRERA advised, however, that numerous Mexican nationals traverse the Mexico-United States border on a daily basis without any records being made of their travel.

~~The second confidential source abroad advised that~~ On May 20, 1964, the following additional review was made of Visa records, United States Embassy, Mexico, D. F., for the names of bus passengers as indicated below:

paragraph, should be changed to "show." Word "at" ninth line, same paragraph should be changed to "the." San Antonio submit amended page 58.

Last sentence in synopsis, rerep, does not properly synopsize portion of details from page 74 through end to which it apparently relates. Submit amended page 1 synopsizing comments of Bradford and note negative results of effort to locate safe-deposit box for Oswald in Laredo.

San Antonio score errors for foregoing nonsubstantive delinquencies.

Following errors of substance noted in rerep:

Page 18 through 20 set forth 12/13/63 FD-302 concerning baggage guide list which was previously reported and which, in first paragraph page 18 and in list itself at spaces designated seats 2, 8, 12, 13, 16 and 18, contain incorrect information. pages 17 through 20 of rerep are being rewritten at Bureau and inserts will be furnished to San Antonio and Dallas.

The interview of Dewey Bradford appearing on pages 74 and 75 contains numerous errors and cannot be disseminated in form submitted. Note in this regard that on page 74 Bradford claimed date he saw man believed to be Oswald in Morgan's Gun Shop was Friday, 11/1/63, day before Texas-SMU game played in Dallas, 11/2/63. Page 75 records Bradford as stating incident occurred on day of Texas-SMU game. This point is particularly pertinent as Oswald is known to have been employed at Texas School Book Depository in Dallas, on 11/1/63. San Antonio tel 4/7/64 concerning Bradford's revelations indicates that he could not recall the caliber of ammunition sought by man thought to be Oswald. This was not established in interview in report which stresses that man thought to be Oswald was seeking particular caliber and repeated the caliber to Morgan. SAtel 4/7/64 recorded name of Bradford's brother-in-law as H. B. Whitson and address of Morgan Gun Shop as 1401 Jacksonboro. Page 74 rerep shows name Bradford's brother-in law to be H. V. Whitson and address of gun shop as 1401 Jacksboro Highway. Word "stepped" fourth line, third paragraph, page 74, is misspelled. Word "and" third line, fourth paragraph, page 74, should be deleted and first sentence that paragraph should be extended to show that Bradford could not recall caliber of ammunition sought. San Antonio rewrite pages 74 and 75 and submit amended inserts to Bureau and Dallas. In cover communication comment on correct initial of Whitson, correct address of gun shop and correct date of incident in question. Also advise as to date Bradford first indicated desire to furnish his observations to your office and, if this did not occur until 4/7/64, advise if he was questioned as to why he delayed for so long a period of time in making his observations known.

Regarding substantive errors, submit explanations of personnel who prepared the original FD-302s dated 12/13/63 (pages 18, 19 and 20 of rerep) and dated 4/15/64 (pages 74 and 75 of rerep); of Special Agent John M. Kenny for including incorrect FD-302sin rerep and of supervisory official who approved rerep. Also submit recommendations for administrative action.

Dallas note that last sentence page 75 rerep records that Whitson, owner of used car lot in Fort Worth, told Bradford he knew the individual thought to be Oswald as that person, on occasions, hung out at his used car lot. This information was not contained in San Antonio 4/7/64 tel. Insure this point is covered during interview of Whitson. In event Whitson makes positive identification of Oswald as the customer at the gun shop, ascertain when he realized Oswald was the customer and why he did not make this known to Bureau. Advise when results of interview of Whitson and Morgan are to be submitted to Bureau.

NOTE:

While there are several errors of minor nature in rerep as indicated herein, there are two errors of substance. A baggage manifest on a bus on which Oswald traveled was previously described and reported in an FD-302 in San Antonio's 12/17/63 report. This was in error in that it was reported the list showed 18 passengers boarding the bus at Nuevo Laredo, 12 en route to Mexico City, 6 en route to Monterrey. It also incorrectly indicated that lines drawn at six seats on the manifest represented individuals traveling with people listed in the previous seats. This was incorrect, as we now find the bus is normally filled to capacity (41 people) and the 18 entries on the list related to luggage checked on bus and not passengers, as did the lines at the six points on the manifest. Rerep contains detailed explanation of the manifest obtained from employees of the bus company.

NOTE CONTINUED:

Accordingly, the incorrect FD-302 should not have been reinserted in this report and Bureau has rewritten the defective pages properly setting forth the manifest. The FD-302, pages 74 and 75, re interview of Bradford, records that Bradford observed Oswald attempting to purchase ammunition in a Fort Worth gun shop on 11/1/63, a Friday. In another place it records the incident as occurring on 11/2/63, a Saturday. In addition, the FD-302 has other errors therein which make it unsuitable for dissemination.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In his deposition of April 30, 1964, Mr. James C. Cadigan testified that the signature "A. Hidell" appearing on a Fair Play for Cuba Committee card found in Oswald's wallet did not appear to be in the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald.

There is some possibility that the signature is in the handwriting of Marina Oswald. Known samples of Marina's Latin handwriting include Commission Exhibits 110, 404A, 408A, 409A, and 420.

Could you please determine who wrote the signature.

Enclosed is one copy of the column "Capital Bulletin" which appeared on pages 4 and 5 of the "National Review Bulletin," June 9, 1964, issue, Volume 16, Number 23. You will note that part of the column deals with the Oswald case and that the author of the column speaks of "a former Russian national, who is both a former Communist and a practicing scholar," who believes Oswald was probably a Soviet agent.

This individual should be identified so he may be interviewed as to whether he has any real evidence to support his belief.

The masthead of the "National Review Bulletin" sets forth that the offices of the publication are at 150 East 35th Street, New York, New York. New York should contact the appropriate official of this publication and through him the author of the above-mentioned column and determine the identity of the individual who was mentioned in the column as believing that Oswald was probably a Soviet agent. Set out a lead to the appropriate office to have this individual interviewed to determine whether he has real evidence to support his belief.

Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of May 20, 1964, requesting this Bureau to conduct additional investigation regarding Marina Oswald's statement that shortly after April 10, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald expressed an interest in attacking Mr. Richard Nixon.

Enclosed for the Commission are two copies of a memorandum dated May 26, 1964, at New Orleans, Louisiana, which sets forth results of our review of newspapers in New Orleans, pertinent to your request. Also enclosed are two copies of a memorandum dated June 1, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which sets forth results of our review of Dallas newspapers for the period March 16, through May 16, 1963. You will note that such memorandum reports that Mr. Lyndon B. Johnson, then Vice President of the United States, visited Dallas on April 23, 1963, for purpose of delivering the major address at the second Annual NASA Manned Space Flight Conference.

Inasmuch as our inquiries have established that Mr. Johnson visited Dallas on April 23, 1963, 13 days after the attempted assassination of General Edwin Walker, we are recontacting Marina Oswald to ascertain if she was possibly confused when she indicated on February 24, 1964, that approximately two weeks after the General Walker incident of April 10, 1963, Oswald contemplated attacking Richard Nixon. We will question Marina Oswald in detail to determine if there is any possibility Oswald meant to attack Mr. Johnson rather than Mr. Nixon. Results of our interview with Marina Oswald in this matter will be immediately forwarded to the Commission upon receipt.

NOTE:

Marina Oswald has indicated Lee Harvey Oswald admitted to her attempted assassination of General Walker on evening on April 10, 1963. Marina told us on 2/24/69 that approximately two weeks after Walker incident Oswald indicated he was going to attack Nixon but she locked him in a bathroom to prevent him following through with such attempt. Our investigation indicated Nixon was not in Dallas during period mentioned by Marina. Review of Dallas newspapers revealed President Johnson was in Dallas April 23, 1963, making a speech. Johnson, at that time Vice President of the United States. Inasmuch as Mr. Nixon is a former Vice President we are recontacting Marina to determine if there is any possibility Mr. Johnson rather than Mr. Nixon was the intended victim of Oswald.

ADMINISTRATIVE

On 5/25/64 ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, manager of the Flecha Roja bus terminal, Mexico, D. F., made available the original passenger list of which copies are being forwarded as enclosures to this communication. The original is being returned to SAUCEDO in accordance with his request.

As noted, the passenger list for the Flecha Roja bus trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., is actually composed of three separate lists, one compiled at Nuevo Laredo, one at Sabinas Hidalgo, and one at Monterrey.

It is noted that names are recorded for all passengers who have destinations listed as Mexico (referring to Mexico, D. F.) with the exception of those who have space designated for the following seat numbers on the Nuevo Laredo passenger list:

Seat No. 7 - a half-fare ticket, indicating this seat was designated for a minor child.

Seat No. 12 - ditto marks indicate this person was possibly traveling with TERESA ESQUEIRO.

Concerning seats numbered 24, 27, and 28, CRISTIANI ANDREANI L. advised on 5/25/64 that it was his opinion the tickets purchased for those seats were sold by the Flecha Roja ticket seller at the Mexican Customs station in Nuevo Laredo.

It appears that, in referring to the absence of names on Flecha Roja passenger lists or "Venta de Boletos" forms made up at Nuevo Laredo, ROBERTO RAMOS is correctly referring to the method of recording the ticket sales made at the Continental bus line office in Laredo for trips to the interior of Mexico and to the method of recording such sales made at the Customs station in Nuevo Laredo.

Concerning the interview of Captain MANUEL LECUONA RAMOS, it is to be noted that he gave every evidence of desiring to cooperate. At the same time he obviously was uneasy about the questions concerning the Flecha Roja passenger list. He tended to pass off lightly the matter of the list even though it was pointed out to him that it is considered very important from the standpoint of identifying other passengers who traveled with OSWALD from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F.

From the information obtained and set forth in the enclosed LHM that passengers who purchase tickets for Mexico City at the Continental office in Laredo, Texas, or at the Mexican Customs station at the International Bridge do not have their names listed on the passenger or "Sale of Tickets" list but only their ticket numbers, it is believed the following may have occurred:

Lt. ARTURO BOSCH, in the company of one or more other investigators from LECUONA's office, did pick up the three-part passenger list for the trip of Flecha Roja bus No. 516 which departed Nuevo Laredo on 9/26/63 for Mexico City with intermediate stops at Sabinas Hidalgo and Monterrey. Since in all probability OSWALD's ticket to Mexico City was purchased through Continental, either in Laredo or at some other point, only a ticket number for him and not his name would have appeared on the passenger list. When the list was examined in LECUONA's office and OSWALD's name was not found thereon, it was considered to be of no importance and was discarded at that time.

If this did occur, as theorized, it is believed that neither Capt. LECUONA nor Lt. BOSCH will ever admit having had the list since to do so would be an admission of sloppy investigation on their part.

Possibly bearing on this is the fact that on 5/21/64 Capt. LECUONA not only stated he would question Lt. BOSCH but would instruct the latter to call at the Legat Office to discuss the matter. BOSCH has not appeared to date and efforts to locate him at LECUONA's office have been unsuccessful. These efforts are continuing.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad has advised that the baggage manifest for bus No. 516 of the "Servicios Unidos Autobuses Blancos Flecha Roja, S. A. de C. V." (The Unified Services of White Autobuses Red Arrow, Incorporated), commonly referred to as the Flecha Roja bus line, which departed from Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, and arrived at Mexico, D. F. (D. F. refers to "Distrito Federal" - Federal District or the Mexican Federal Capital), the following day, included as a passenger thereon the name of "LEE HARVEY OSWALD."

According to the source, several persons who traveled on that bus as passengers definitely identified photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as being a young American who was a passenger thereon.

INFORMATION REGARDING METHOD OF ENTERING DATA ON FLECHA ROJA PASSENGER LIST FORMS FOR NUEVO LAREDO-MEXICO, D. F., TRIPS

A second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On May 25, 1964, both ALEJANDRO SAUCEDO, manager, and CRISTIANI ANDREANI L., superintendent and co-owner, Flecha Roja bus terminal, Mexico, D. F., advised that the passenger list or manifest form used by the Flecha Roja bus line is synonymous with the "Venta de Boletos" (Sale of Tickets) form used by the Flecha Roja bus line.

[redacted]

[redacted]

A third confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On May 21, 1964, CRISTIANI ANDREANI L. furnished the following information with regard to the matter of entering data on the passenger list form for Flecha Roja bus trips originating at Nuevo Laredo with Mexico, D. F., as the final destination point:

The complete passenger list for Flecha Roja bus trips originating at Nuevo Laredo with final destination being Mexico, D. F., actually is made up of three separate lists as follows:

(1) Passenger list prepared for those boarding at Nuevo Laredo.

(2) Passenger list prepared for those boarding at Sabinas Hidalgo, State of Nuevo Leon.

(3) Passenger list prepared for those boarding at Monterrey, State of Nuevo Leon.

At Laredo, Texas, where the Continental bus line makes the sale of Flecha Roja bus line tickets for trips from Nuevo Laredo to places of destination in Mexico, there is no record made of the name of the bus passengers for the Flecha Roja bus line. No passenger manifest is compiled at Laredo; however, the ticket number sold by the Continental bus line at Laredo and the point of destination in Mexico are entered on the Flecha Roja passenger list which is compiled at Nuevo Laredo. Usually tickets sold by the Continental bus line will have a letter prefix before the ticket number. No Flecha Roja office is maintained at Laredo.

When a bus ticket is sold at the Flecha Roja bus line office in Nuevo Laredo for travel from Nuevo Laredo with the final destination being Mexico City, the ticket number, the name of the passenger, and the final destination are entered and recorded on the passenger list or manifest which is prepared at Nuevo Laredo. In instances involving a man and wife traveling together, normally only the name of either the husband or wife will appear. Similarly in the case of a child and his parents or guardian traveling together, the name of one parent or guardian will appear; however, the ticket number is recorded for each traveler.

If a bus ticket is sold at the Flecha Roja bus line office in Nuevo Laredo for travel only to Monterrey or to points other than the final destination of Mexico, D. F., then only the ticket number and the destination are entered on the passenger manifest and the passenger's name is not recorded.

On May 25, 1964, CRISTIANI ANDREANI L. advised the second confidential source abroad that another instance in which the name of the passenger who purchases a ticket at Nuevo Laredo for travel to the interior of Mexico is not recorded is as follows:

The Flecha Roja bus line in Nuevo Laredo maintains a ticket seller at the Mexican Customs station at the International Bridge in Nuevo Laredo. In those instances when the ticket sale is made at the Customs station for a trip on a Flecha Roja bus from Nuevo Laredo to the interior of Mexico, including Mexico, D. F., the name of the passenger is not recorded on the passenger list or manifest. In this case the only data appearing on the passenger list made up at Nuevo Laredo would be the ticket number and the final destination.

On May 21, 1964, CRISTIANI ANDREANI L. explained to the third confidential source abroad that the practice of recording names of passengers who travel on bus lines in Mexico has a historical significance. Years ago in Mexico when the roads were in poor condition and the bus drivers were not as adept as they are at the present time there were numerous bus accidents throughout the country. In many instances these accidents were very serious in that buses turned over and caught fire, causing death to many passengers. On many occasions due to the seriousness of the accidents no identification could be made of the passenger victims. Also many fraudulent claims were made by relatives of persons who were not on the bus at the time of the accident. This resulted in the practice of the bus lines recording the passengers' names.

ANDREANI stated the system of recording the names of the passengers is not absolute. He cited as an example the fact that on the Flecha Roja bus trip from Nuevo Laredo to Mexico, D. F., only the names of the passengers with the final destination of Mexico, D. F., are recorded at Nuevo Laredo and then only if the ticket is purchased at the Flecha Roja bus line office in Nuevo Laredo.

EFFORTS MADE AT MEXICO, D. F., TO OBTAIN PASSENGER LISTS OF FLECHA ROJA BUS NO. 516 WHICH TRAVELED FROM NUEVO LAREDO TO MEXICO, D. F., SEPTEMBER 26-27, 1963

On May 21, 1964, Captain MANUEL LECUONA RAMOS, Chief of the Special Intelligence Section of the Mexican Presidential Staff, advised a fourth confidential source abroad as follows:

Immediately following the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, and as a result of instructions received from his superiors, investigators assigned to his group conducted investigation concerning OSWALD's activities in Mexico. Among these investigators was Lieutenant ARTURO BOSCH. They located the record of OSWALD's stay at the Hotel del Comercio in Mexico City and a passenger manifest of the "Transportes Frontera" bus line which contained the name "OSWLD."

Captain LECUONA said that neither Lieutenant BOSCH nor any of his other investigators had ever mentioned having obtained a passenger list of the Flecha Roja bus line. He stated definitely that he would have been informed had a passenger list of this company been found with the name of OSWALD appearing thereon. According to Captain LECUONA, he would immediately interview Lieutenant BOSCH and, should the latter have any information concerning the Flecha Roja passenger list, this information would be supplied at once.

Mr. THOMAS EHRLICH, Special Assistant to the Legal Advisor, USDS, advised SA KENNETH J. HASER on 5/26/64 that he has all the State files on the OSWALD case but his office is most extensively involved with these files at this time and did not see how they could be presently made available for FBI review. He explained that State has already given the Warren Commission a copy of the State Dept. files in the past but the Commission has just asked for another copy, with each document to be tabbed and listed. The deadline on this new copy is Thursday, 5/28/64.

In addition, State has 5 witnesses who must appear before the Commission next week and the testimony of each has to be reviewed in relation to the respective file. He stated State has received 5 letters of inquiry from the Commission about various specific points which have to be answered. He also stated that he has to brief his superiors concerning all these developments and needs files for this purpose.

Brief recourse to the passport file of the subject on 5/26/64 revealed that the passport renewal application executed by the subject on 7/10/61 was sworn to by the subject personally before RICHARD E. SNYDER, Consul, American Embassy, Moscow.

Despatch #29 from the American Embassy, Moscow dated 7/11/61 lists the reporting officer as R. E. SNYDER and appears to be initialed by him. He is described thereon as the Reporter. This despatch was signed for the Ambassador by BORIS H. KLOSSON, Counselor for Political Affairs at the Embassy.

Despatch #29 appears to be identical to the communication of July 11, 1961 described on pages 6 to 8 of the report of SA CARL E. GRAHAM, WFO, dated 12/2/63. This contains info concerning OSWALD's appearance and interview at the Embassy in Moscow on July 8, 1961 relative to his desire to return to the U.S. with his wife. SNYDER appears to be the official who interviewed him. In this respect, attention is also directed in the same report of SA GRAHAM to pages 24 to 26 which contain the interview results of Mr. JOHN VICTOR MC VICKAR, Foreign Service Officer, concerning OSWALD. MC VICKAR advised he was one of two consuls in the American Embassy in Moscow, Russia from 6/59 to 9/61. He said he shared an office with RICHARD E. SNYDER, that OSWALD came into the Embassy about 10/59 and talked with SNYDER.

Miss JOYCE BERNLTT, Personnel Locator Section, Office of Personnel, USDS advised SA HASER on 5/26/64 that RICHARD E. SNYDER is currently assigned as Special Assistant, First Secretary, U.S. Embassy, Tokyo, Japan, having been transferred there on 6/9/63.

Any lead to interview SNYDER concerning OSWALD is left to the discretion of the Bureau. It was ascertained by SA HASER that State was presently in the process of compiling the names of all State personnel in contact with OSWALD with interview purposes suggested.

It was also briefly noted that on a passport amendment application dated 5/24/62 and filed in Moscow, subject requested amendment of passport 1733242 issued 9/10/59 to include daughter, JUNE LEE HARVEY (sic), born at Minsk, 2/15/62. OSWALD gave his U.S. residence as 7313 Davanport St., Ft. Worth, Texas and address as USSR, Minsk, 4, Kalinina, Apt. 24. He stated he intended to return to the U.S. permanently to reside within a few days. It was noted Soviet birth certificate of child was seen by passport authorities. The signature of JOSEPH B. NORBURY, U.S. Embassy, appeared on this document.

UACB, WFO will maintain contact with EHRLICH to review these State files when available.

SUBJECT: "WHO KILLED KENNEDY?"
BOOK BY THOMAS G. BUCHANAN

SYNOPSIS:

Captioned book has been obtained and reviewed in accordance with the Director's instructions. Buchanan, born 1919, Baltimore, Maryland, active in communist causes in this country 1948-56 and has admitted past Communist Party (CP) membership to Bureau Agents. He is carried on Reserve Index. Buchanan's articles in French newspaper "L'Express," earlier this year cast doubt on Lee Harvey Oswald's guilt; claimed Oswald was FBI informant and/or Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) agent; and set forth theory about conspiracy to kill President Kennedy. Commission has been furnished copies of articles and translations thereof. Preface of book claims the text was filed with Commission in March, 1964; states he discussed his views with a Commission representative after an interview with Deputy Attorney General Katzenbach, that interview having been arranged by Senator Edward Kennedy. Buchanan's thesis is that Oswald was merely a minor member of conspiracy to kill President Kennedy because he was negotiating with communists and this displeased wealthy and influential Texas oilmen. Buchanan alleges a Texas millionaire "Mr. X," authored assassination plot. Buchanan thesis on method of assassination and conspirators involved admittedly based on speculation. According to Buchanan assassin 1 fired a shot from railway overpass in front of President's motorcade; assassin 2 fired three shots from Texas School Book Depository (TSBD); Oswald, as accomplice 3, aided assassin 2; accomplice 4 let Oswald leave building; accomplice 5 ordered Oswald's arrest prior to time he was discovered missing from TSBD; accomplice 6 followed Oswald and signaled accomplice 7 (Dallas police officer J. D. Tippit) who was to kill Oswald although it was Oswald who killed Tippit. Jack Ruby, according to Buchanan, was used by conspiracy to silence Oswald. Buchanan sets forth so-called "official" version and doubts single assassin Oswald fired all shots. Refutation of his doubts set forth. Buchanan alleges the assassination plot was not a communist plot since communists would not have benefited from President Kennedy's death. Buchanan claims that Oswald was associated with FBI and probably CIA. He also claims that municipal and Federal police investigators are conspiring to hide evidence in the assassination and to persuade important witnesses to change or to withhold their testimony because the "truth" would tend to discredit the Government of the U.S. Buchanan devotes 40 of 192 pages to historical discussion on the assassinations of President Lincoln - 1865; President Garfield - 1881; and President McKinley - 1901. Buchanan's book does not present any facts which would cause us to change our conclusion that Oswald acted alone as the assassin of President Kennedy. Set forth as an enclosure to the attached letter to the President's Commission is a listing of some claims made by Buchanan on the assassination matter in his book as well as our refutations of those claims. The attached letter also encloses for the Commission a copy of the French version of book entitled "The Assassins of Kennedy," which has been reviewed at the Bureau and found to make the same claims in a somewhat abridged form.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter be sent to the President's Commission.

DETAILS:

Re memorandum Mr. Rosen to Mr. Belmont 5-14-64 captioned "Book Entitled 'Who Killed Kennedy?'" which indicated the President's Commission has asked the Bureau to review the book for our comments. The Director noted: "I want it thoroughly reviewed. H."

The book has been obtained and reviewed in accordance with the Director's instructions. As requested during the testimony of the Director and Assistant to the Director Belmont, the Commission is being advised by attached letter of allegations of Buchanan in the book which can be refuted by facts as well as our conclusion that Buchanan presents no facts on the assassination which contradict our findings in the assassination matter.

AUTHOR:

The author of the book is Thomas Gittings Buchanan, Jr., who was born 3-14-16, Baltimore, Maryland. He attended Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, for one year 1936-37 and The George Washington University, Washington, D. C., for one year 1939-40. Buchanan was inducted into the U.S. Army in 1942 and released from active duty in 1946 with the rank of captain. Our investigation of Buchanan disclosed extensive Communist Party history. He joined the CP in 1943 while working for the "Washington Evening Star" as a reporter and was discharged in 1948 by that paper after admission of CP membership to an official of the paper. He was extremely active in communist causes from 1948 to 1956 and on interview by Bureau Agents in 1952 and 1953 admitted CP membership. During an interview in 1957 he claimed to have left the CP in 1956. He was on the Security Index from 1949 to 1961. He is now carried on the Reserve Index in view of his connection with the field of journalism. According to the jacket on his book, Buchanan now lives in Paris and is involved with a firm planning the maintenance of the City of Paris accounting records by means of electronic computers.

Buchanan was the author of several articles in the French newspaper "L'Express" in February, March, and April, 1964, which cast doubt on Oswald's guilt in the assassination, claimed Oswald was an FBI informant and/or CIA agent, and set forth his theory about a conspiracy of wealthy men in Texas to kill President Kennedy because he was negotiating with Premier Khrushchev and reducing "cold war" tensions. Copies of the articles and translations thereof have been furnished the President's Commission.

PREFACE OF BOOK:

According to the Preface, the "entire text of the report you are about to read" was filed in Washington in March, 1964, with the President's Commission at the request of a "staff member of that commission." Curiously enough, Buchanan states that he is dedicating the book to the "group of men who are conducting the investigation of the President's Commission," who have an "immensely difficult assignment" which cannot be carried out unless each citizen with knowledge comes forward to disclose it. He also states that extracts of the report first appeared in "L'Express" in Paris. Buchanan claims that he discussed his views on the assassination with a Commission representative after an interview with Deputy Attorney General Nicholas DeB. Katzenbach, that interview having been arranged by Senator Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts. We were aware of and have previously reported on Buchanan's contacts with Katzenbach and the Commission.

THESIS OF BOOK:

Buchanan's thesis is that Lee Harvey Oswald was merely a minor member of a conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy. The plot was organized because President Kennedy's progress in negotiating with the communists, such as the 1963 Moscow agreement to ban nuclear weapons testing, displeased wealthy and influential Texas oilmen. Buchanan claimed that such wealthy men did not want to see an end to the "cold war" because disarmament would injure their investments in the oil and defense-type industries.

Another reason they had for wanting to eliminate President Kennedy was for fear he would reduce the 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance which benefited them so greatly.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: "WHO KILLED KENNEDY?"

Buchanan states that the wealthy oilmen felt that while President Kennedy's successor, President Johnson, might hold nearly the same views on civil rights and foreign policy matters as President Kennedy, President Johnson had been chosen by them to succeed the late Speaker Sam Rayburn to defend their interests in Washington. Buchanan states that it would be fantastic if President Johnson was in any way involved in the plot to kill President Kennedy. He further states that no such implication is intended.

Buchanan alleges that a Texas millionaire identified only as "Mr. X" was the author of the plot to kill President Kennedy. "Mr. X" supposedly had three enemies: 1. The Italian oil magnate Enrico Mattei whose extensive business holdings and undercutting of American oil prices upset "Mr. X"; 2. President Kennedy; and 3. Soviet Premier Khrushchev. All of these men, according to Buchanan, stood between "Mr. X" and world domination. Buchanan implies that "Mr. X" could have been behind the airplane crash in October, 1962, in which Mattei was killed in Italy. He states that "Mr. X," by having President Kennedy assassinated, would not only get "rid of" him, but would also discredit Khrushchev by having everything point to the fact that Oswald was a communist who had been trained in Russia. To prevent Oswald from revealing anything about the authors and plans of the conspiracy, he was, according to Buchanan, to be killed before capture. Since this was not done, then it was necessary for the conspirators to arrange for him to be killed before being brought to trial.

BUCHANAN VERSION:

Buchanan sets forth his version of the way the assassination was carried out by seven individuals working for "Mr. X." In introducing his version, Buchanan admits that he is dealing with the realm of speculation and that all the elements of his hypothesis, some of which may be incorrect in detail, are based on probabilities. This approach by Buchanan shows the weakness already attributed to him by responsible reviewers of his writings about the assassination of President Kennedy. Buchanan, as well as others who oppose Oswald's guilt as the sole assassin, admittedly are basing their case on: 1. reports in the press which during the early days after the assassination were confused and contradictory; 2. false and vicious rumors and hoaxes which have been fostered by irresponsible public officials as well as by individuals; 3. motives which could be monetary; and 4. views which represent their economic, political, and social thinking. It would be surprising, indeed, if Buchanan with his communist background did not disclain Oswald as a real communist and claim that he was instead a double agent working or to be working in the future against communist causes. In addition, commentators such as Buchanan are hurrying into print before the report of the President's Commission is published to capitalize on interest in the matter. Facts already known to us on the assassination, if published, would refute many of the claims being made now concerning the assassination.

SEVEN CONSPIRATORS:

According to Buchanan, there were 2 assassins. Assassin 1 fired one shot from the railway overpass in front of the President's motorcade and fled, leaving his murder weapon on that bridge. Assassin 2, who had been hidden in the TSBD between closing time the night before and opening on the morning of the assassination, fired 3 shots with a weapon brought to him by Oswald or some other person working in the building. His 3 shots had three purposes: to accomplish the assassination of the President if Assassin 1 could not carry out his mission; to act as a diversion to permit the escape of Assassin 1; and to show some shots came from the building where Oswald had been working so that he could be caught as the scapegoat in the plot. Assassin 2 probably escaped the TSBD dressed as a policeman.

Oswald, according to Buchanan, was Accomplice 3. He purchased the rifle for the plot, guided Assassin 2 into the TSBD and the stockroom, brought him the rifle, and immediately after the assassination, was found on the second floor of the TSBD. Thereafter, Oswald was permitted to leave the building in violation of police orders.

Accomplice 4 gave the order to let Oswald leave the building. He is reportedly a police officer.

Accomplice 5 is a police official who gave the order to arrest Oswald prior to the time he was discovered missing from the TSBD. He had fore knowledge of Oswald's part in the plot.

Accomplice 6 was probably a detective not dressed in official uniform. He followed Oswald after leaving the TSBD and when Oswald left his boarding house Accomplice 6 gave the signal to Accomplice 7 who was waiting in a police car around the corner.

Accomplice 7 is identified by Buchanan as Dallas Police Officer J. D. Tippit who, best evidence shows, was killed by Oswald. According to Buchanan, Accomplice 7 was to kill Oswald so that the latter's knowledge of the conspiracy would be silenced. Accomplice 7 was given the assignment to "make amends for a career in which he had not ever managed to secure the favour of the officers above him." However, Accomplice 7 "bungled" his last assignment. Later, Oswald was captured alive in the Texas Theatre.

According to Buchanan, Jack Ruby, a gangster with whom the Dallas Police were on "intimate terms," must have been involved i.. "some way with the man he slew" (Oswald). Buchanan claims that men like Ruby do not kill out of patriotic fervor or to avenge the widow of a "martyred leader," but to prevent someone from confessing and from implicating associates in a crime.

We have developed no facts or documents to substantiate Buchanan's speculative theory of conspiracy and seven conspirators.

SUCHANAN DOUBTS "OFFICIAL" VERSION:

Buchanan states that the "official" theses which he sets forth on the assassination will be those on which the police of Dallas and the FBI appear to be in general agreement. He also states that his analysis of them is not based on mere press speculations but on the official sources. What he fails to mention is that his analysis actually speculates on what has been reported to have been said by the police of Dallas and the FBI.

Buchanan states that the first "official" thesis is that the shots fired at the presidential car came from one direction, a lone assassin in the 6th floor window of the TSBD. He says he doubts this because the doctors at Parkland Memorial Hospital in Dallas first reported the wound in President Kennedy's throat as an entrance wound indicating the bullet came from in front of the motorcade, but were later talked into changing their report on the wound after the autopsy at Bethesda Naval Hospital reported the wound in the throat was an exit-type wound. Doctors at Parkland Hospital have stated that their main purpose was to sustain life and not to closely examine the sources of wounds and the paths of projectiles inside the President's body.

Buchanan states some witnesses reacted as if the shots had come from in front of the motorcade. In our inquiries there were several who said this, but numerous others have said they believe the shots came from behind the President.

Buchanan also, in his effort to show the shots came from in front of the President, states that an assassin could have been on the railway overpass in front of the motorcade since the overpass was unguarded on that day. Buchanan either is lying deliberately or does not know the facts: there was a police guard on the railway overpass and he, along with several civilian witnesses also on that bridge, denied seeing anything to indicate an assassin fired a weapon from the bridge.

Buchanan states that no mention was made of a wound in President Kennedy's back by doctors at Parkland Hospital although the autopsy at Bethesda Naval Hospital claims that there was such a wound.

He states it hard to believe that doctors at Parkland failed to discover the wound in spite of the statement by those doctors that the reason they did not notice it was because President Kennedy was lying on his back during their life-saving efforts. He implies that the wound was invented to prove all the shots came from behind.

Buchanan claims that the second "official" thesis is that the marksman who fired all the shots was Oswald. He claims that an investigator for the President's Commission informed him that if more than three shots are conclusively established, it may be assumed that there were two assassins. This is so because the investigator stated that no man could have fired four shots in the 5 to 6 seconds. He claims that a news story shortly after the assassination claimed a small round bullet hole in the windshield of the President's car. What Buchanan fails to state is that the newsman later said the glass splintering could have been caused by a ricochet from inside the car. Laboratory examination of the windshield showed that it was cracked by a projectile from behind.

Buchanan claims that Oswald's Marine Corps record for marksmanship shows that he was one of the worst shots in the Marines or in any other military service and could not have been the successful assassin based on his past record. This seems hard to accept since Oswald was rated in the "sharpshooter" class which even Buchanan admits is the intermediate class between the top class, "expert," and the bottom class, "marksman."

Buchanan states that the third "official" thesis is that police have proved by scientific evidence that Oswald fired the murder weapon. He states that the FBI has denied that palm prints were found on the rifle used in the assassination. No such statement has been made by a representative of this Bureau. The truth is that a latent print lifted from the rifle barrel was identified by the Identification Division as the right palm print of Oswald.

Buchanan claims that the paraffin test made on Oswald's hands and cheek by the Dallas PD after arrest revealed that he had powder residues on his hands but none on his cheek. This means, Buchanan claims, that Oswald may have fired the pistol said to have been used in the killing of Police Officer Tippit, but that the absence of powder on his cheek shows he did not fire the assassination rifle since there would have been gunpowder residues on his right cheek. Buchanan does not tell all about the paraffin test. It is regarded as unreliable and inconclusive. Evidence by Bureau experts has been given to the Commission already to that effect.

Buchanan states that the fourth "official" thesis is that Oswald remained upstairs in the school book building while fellow-workers went to the street to see the President, and that after they had left, he went into the stockroom and remained alone there. He claims there are no witnesses to confirm this. In fact, he says, a photographer filmed the 6th floor window at 12:30. The photograph shows two silhouettes in the stockroom as well as a large clock on the roof of the building which shows the time as 12:30. The Bureau is not aware of such a photograph although we do have a photograph of the 6th floor reportedly taken about the assassination time. It does not show what can be identified as human forms in windows on the 6th floor of the building.

Buchanan claims that the fifth "official" thesis is that after the assassination Oswald hid the rifle, descended to the second floor lunchroom, took out a bottle from the automatic drink dispenser and began to drink it before the TSBD superintendent, Roy S. Truly, and a policeman reached the second floor in checking out the building. Buchanan alleges that Oswald must have been the "fastest runner since the great Olympic title holder, Jesse Owens," to have done all the above before Truly and the policeman arrived on the second floor. Truly has advised that he saw Oswald on the second floor of the building in about two or three minutes after the assassination. A survey was made by Bureau Agents to determine the times taken using various routes and rates of speed to arrive at the first floor from the assassination window on the 6th floor. The longest normal time period was just over three and a half minutes.

NOT A COMMUNIST PLOT ACCORDING TO BUCHANAN:

Buchanan alleges that the assassination of President Kennedy was not a communist plot in spite of Oswald's past defection to the Soviet Union and his pro-Castro activities in the months prior to the assassination. He claims that the Soviet communists could not have gained in their efforts to aid world peace by having President Kennedy killed. Such a move would have hurt peace efforts by the Soviets. He claims that Castro Cuba would not have gained either since a campaign was underway both by Kennedy and Castro to relieve the tensions between Cuba and the U.S. As for the Chinese Communists, Buchanan claims they too would have gained nothing from the assassination since President Kennedy had reportedly said that he did not think the islands of Quemoy and Matsu off the China coast in the hands of Chiang Kai-shek should be defended by American naval forces if attacked by the Chinese Communists. Buchanan also states that "domestic" communists in the U.S. could not have benefited from President Kennedy's assassination since the drive against American communists under the Truman and Eisenhower Administrations had not been intensified under the Kennedy leadership.

Buchanan alleges falsely that the Director has stated that "there was no basis to believe that U.S. Communists had been involved in Oswald's plot in any way." Stories appearing in the press leaked from our report to the Commission in December, 1963, stated that evidence pointed to Oswald as a lone killer of Kennedy. Our report did not single out any group as not being involved.

OSWALD LINKED TO GOVERNMENT AGENCY:

Buchanan alleges that Oswald was associated with the FBI and probably the CIA. He bases his claims on the fact that the press reported that the name, telephone number, and license number of SA James P. Hosty were in Oswald's notebook and that Oswald received a passport within 24-hours in New Orleans in June, 1963, despite his prior defection to the Soviet Union and his participation in pro-Castro activities. He also looks on the statement of Chief Justice Warren about the necessity to withhold some matters in the inquiry from the public as evidence of an association of Oswald with a Government agency.

BUCHANAN OPINION OF LAW ENFORCEMENT:

According to Buchanan, "every citizen of the United States knows privately" that if you "know" someone at Police Headquarters you can "fix" a parking ticket and that if you know somebody high enough it is "quite literally possible to get away with murder." This negative attitude is undoubtedly responsible for a claim he makes on the final page of his book--page 192--to the effect that municipal and Federal police investigators are engaged in a conspiracy to hide key evidence in the assassination and to persuade important witnesses to change or to withhold their testimony because the "truth" in the assassination case (as alleged by Buchanan) would tend to discredit the Government of the United States.

In a discussion of the extent of organized crime in the United States, Buchanan states that business executives, labor leaders, and politicians have been guilty of employing "gangsters" to accomplish their objectives. He also refers to the Director as stating in 1939 that files on all major criminals sought by the FBI show that these criminals were on "intimate and cordial terms with professional politicians." The statement by the Director closest to the meaning of Buchanan's reference was found in the Director's speech to the International Association of Chiefs of Police in San Francisco on 10-10-39:

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: "WHO KILLED KENNEDY?"

> "Since we are frankly considering the problems and difficulties of law enforcement, let us examine another evil wrecker of popular public respect. I refer to the matter of corruption. There have been instances wherein vicious criminals, even professional murders, have been allowed to go free by persons who blemished the name of law enforcement by calling themselves peace officers. It is true that law enforcement has been stifled by crooked politicians."

Curiously enough, after building up the idea of corruption among politicians in this country in the past, Buchanan later claims that today there is "less corruption of the politicans on the highest levels than there used to be" when the Director made the remarks above.

HISTORICAL MATERIAL IN BOOK:

Buchanan devotes 40 out of 192 pages of his book to a discussion of the assassinations of President Lincoln in 1865, President Garfield in 1881, and President McKinley in 1901 and the implication of the assassins in various conspiracies. He uses this approach to claim that the 3 assassinations were the result of conspiracies or beneficial to opponents of the 3 assassinated Presidents and thus history shows that the pattern of conspiracy in the past was, therefore, present in the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963.

INCONSISTENCY OF BUCHANAN BOOK AND ARTICLES:

In Buchanan's article in "L'Express" of 4-9-64, Buchanan set forth his version of the conspiracy to kill President Kennedy and stated that leading the wealthy oilman behind the conspiracy was a "Mr. X." Buchanan, it is noted, openly mentioned in the article that Mr. H. L. Hunt was one of the wealthy men in Dallas, and while he did not specify that Mr. H. L. Hunt was the "Mr. X" behind the conspiracy, Buchanan certainly made that inference. In his book "Who Killed Kennedy?" Buchanan omits any mention of Mr. Hunt by name and has changed the author of the conspiracy from "Mr. X" to "Mr. X." What Buchanan had in mind in making the change is not known. However, it is possible to offer conjecture that he wanted to avoid possible libel suits in connection with the book.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: "WHO KILLED KENNEDY?"

CONCLUSION:

As a result of a thorough review and analysis of Buchanan's book "Who Killed Kennedy?," it has been determined that Buchanan presents no facts which cause us to change our conclusion that Oswald, acting alone, was the assassin of President Kennedy. Set forth as an enclosure to the attached letter to the President's Commission is a listing of some claims made by Buchanan on the assassination matter in his book as well as our refutations of those claims.

FRENCH VERSION OF BOOK:

The French version of "Who Killed Kennedy?" has been reviewed after receipt from the Legal Attache, Paris. It is entitled "The Assassins of Kennedy" and is a somewhat abridged version of the English text. It covers the same claims and items that Buchanan sets forth in the English version although the wording is reduced in certain portions. The French version also includes several photographs of the assassination area in Dallas which are attributed to the French newspaper "L'Express" in which Buchanan's articles appeared earlier. A copy of the French version is also being furnished to the President's Commission by attached letter.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 2 copies of Report No. 5, of The Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, State of Louisiana, "Activities of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. in Louisiana."

On May 18, 1964, Colonel F. B. ALEXANDER, JR., Director, Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities, State of Louisiana, Old Capitol Building, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, made available to SA ELMER LITCHFIELD five copies of the enclosed report. Three copies are being maintained in the New Orleans file and two are forwarded herewith to the Bureau.

It is noted that minutes of hearing of the committee held on November 27, 1963, pages 11 through 25, deal with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee and LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

It is noted that on page 28 there is a copy of a letter supposedly from CONRAD J. LYNN to ANNE and CARL BRADEN wherein LYNN mentions a visit to the Director's office for the purpose of a sit-in.

THE MINUTES OF THE HEARING OF THE COMMITTEE, HELD IN THE COMMITTEE'S OFFICE, OLD STATE CAPITOL BUILDING, BATON ROUGE, LA. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1963, COMMENCING AT 10:00 A.M.; CHAIRMAN JAMES H. PFISTER PRESIDING.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Gentlemen, let's all stand and with reverence and devotion invoke God's blessing and guidance upon the Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities and its work for the people of this State.

Bless us, O Lord, and these, the members of the Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities for the State of Louisiana. Fill our minds and hearts with the great gifts of wisdon and understanding, counsel and fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of God. Help us in our deliberations during the course of this all-important Hearing, so that all our thoughts, all our words and all our deeds may redound to the greater good of this Committee, and for the benefit and the welfare of the good people of this State, to whom we are herewith pledged and dedicated to serve. All to Thy glory, O God, now and forevermore, Amen.

I now ask our Staff Director, Col. Alexander, if he will kindly call the Roll.

BY COL. ALEXANDER:

Representative James H. Pfister, Chairman, here; Senator Samuel Broussard, Vice-Chairman, here; Representative Willie P. Arceneaux, here; Representative Dudley A. Bernard, (absent); Snator Cecil R. Blair, (absent); Senator William T. Carpenter, here; Senator Jackson B. D[redacted] (absent); Representative Mike John Jr., here; Senator Harold Montgomery, here; Representative Welborn Jack, (absent); Counsel Rogers, present.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Gentlemen, we have six members out of the ten members of this Committee present, and I now declare this a quorum.

Gentlemen, this Hearing is called for the continuing purpose of analyzing the interlocking connections of various parts of the Communist conspiracy operating in Louisiana. It is our purpose to learn more about functions and leadership of the various Communist influenced organizations so that we might more ably prepare legislation to protect the citizens of this State from subversive activities.

After the horrible assassination of the President, we directed our Committee staff to make a preliminary inquiry into the connections of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee here in Louisiana. Today's testimony is part of the evidence our staff research has uncovered, and so at this time, I would like to ask our Committee Counsel, Mr. Jack N. Rogers, if he will give us a report on the findings of his research.

TESTIMONY OF JACK N. ROGERS

THE WITNESS WAS DULY SWORN TO TELL THE TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH, SO HELP HIM GOD.

BY MR. ROGERS:

Mr. Chairman, first we have to go into a little bit of the background to gain some picture of exactly the type of organization we are dealing with in the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. For years there has been in this Country a number of Communist splinter organizations which have broken with the orthodox Communist Party. The Trotskyite Communists who have been feuding with the Stalinist Communists since the 1920's, compose the largest of the splinter organizations. In the past, their relations with the formal Communist Party have been marked by extreme bitterness.

Khrushchev's speech attacking and denouncing Stalin at the 20th Congress of the Soviet Communist Party in 1956 has done much to heal the breach between these two dissident groups. Following this 20th Congress, and immediately before the dissolution of the Cominform which took place about 2 months later, the world communist movement, through a Cominform publication, called upon the orthodox Communists of the world for united action between themselves and other Communist groups. Since that time the U. S. Communist Party, following Moscow's orders, has made a deliberate effort to heal the breach between itself and the Socialist Workers Party in the United States, and this party is the main Trotskyite Communist group in this country.

Now, the Fair Play for Cuba Committee is very closely intertwined at the top level of leadership with these Trotskyite Communists. One of the men interviewed by the House Committee On Un-American Activities concerning this Socialist Workers Party, and also concerning the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, was a man named Dr. A. J. Lewis. He was the Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles Fair Play For Cuba Committee. This is the group, the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, to which Lee Harvey Oswald belonged. Lee Harvey Oswald, of course, is the man who has apparently assassinated our President. Oswald was arrested and booked in New Orleans on the 9th day of August, 1963, for what was formally charged as "disturbing the peace by picketing", and handing out literature for the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. A disturbance followed this and he was arrested in the process.

The Fair Play For Cuba Committee has been discussed further in later reports of the House Committee On Un-American Activities. An unusual feature of this front operation has been the fact that it has been dominated from its inception by members of the Socialist Workers Party, this ultra-revolutionary Communist organization which has competed for many years with the orthodox Communist Party.

Members of the Socialist Workers Party consider themselves genuine Communists, but they are usually called Trotskyites because they adhere to the principles of Marx, Engels and Lenin as interpreted by the Russian Revolutionary leader, Leon Trotsky. Although they have difference with the Soviet Communist leadership, and its public party in the United States ,over tactical and idealogical matters, Trotskyites agree with the U.S. Communists that the Soviet Union must be defended against "agressors", such as the United States, and that the Communist system must be extended throughout the entire world. Collaboration between the two forces has been furthered by the present Soviet dictator's instructions that Communists throughout the world should establish "united front" relationships, with other individuals and groups when expedient, regardless of differing views. Khrushchev encouraged such relationships on the basis that they serve to advance certain mutual objectives, although the Soviet dictator made it clear that all participants in the united front operations are expected to give support to the Soviet Union's "peace" policies, as opposed to what he terms the "aggressive policies of the United States."

Exhibit A. Identification photos of Lee Harvey Oswald

The House Committee On Un-American Activities investigations revealed that key leadership posts in the Angeles chapter of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee were held by individuals who were also active members of the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party. Lesser functionary positions in the organization were allotted to members of the orthodox Communist Party of the United States. The reasons for this was that the orthodox Communist Party was unsuccessful in attempting to take over the whole structure of the Trotskyite group, they only infiltrated it partially, they didn't get complete control over it.

Now, in regard to the tie-in between this organization and the Southern Conference Educational Fund, we have had testimony at our last Hearing concerning the very close involvement in leadership of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, of a man named Carl Braden. Braden is a positively-identified Communist, there is no question about his being a Communist Party member. Fairly recently, in May of 1961, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee made an inquiry into the Fair Paly For Cuba Committee. In the course of that inquiry, the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee determined that the same Carl Braden, and he is positively identified in the record as "Carl Braden, the Field Secretary of the Southern Conference Educational Fund", was one of the main speakers at the Fair Play For Cuba Committee dinner or banquet in New York on April 28, of 1961.

In addition to this, the Senate Sub-Committee developed the fact that the Fair Play For Cuba Committee had paid Carl Braden's expenses to come to the banquet from wherever he happened to be at the time.

In addition to this, and even more important, Carl Braden is one of the national officers of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. His name appears . . their letterhead as a "National Sponsor" of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. His function in the Southern Conference Educational Fund at this time goes under the name of

Dear Friend,

If you have noticed a bad odor drifting in from the east, it is only the approach of the House Un-American Activities Committee inquisitors who will open a new series of "hearings" on Tues., April 24, 9:00 a.m. at the Federal Building. The Fair Play for Cuba Committee has been selected as one of the victims for this round, along with a number of civil liberties, student and labor organizations and some individuals. Approximately 48 subpenas have been served and this figure may rise to 60. At this date, a number of Fair Play members have been subpenaed including: Steve Roberts, West Coast director; Dr. A.J. Lewis, former Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles chapter.

All organizations directly concerned are, of course, making preparations to defend themselves. However, very encouraging news is that the intended victims will not be obliged to fend for themselves. First, the Southern California chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union has adopted the fight as its own and has offered to provide legal counsel for all subpenaed individuals.

Second, a student protest movement, initiated by an ad hoc committee, is meeting with an astonishing response. What was intended as a small planning meeting snowballed into a rally of more than 300 students representing colleges and schools from the entire Southern California area. In a spirit of great enthusiasm they decided to [illegible] a massive picket line Tues., 9 a.m. at the Federal Building [illegible] with the opening of the [illegible] trial has been resolved that participants of all [illegible] will converge on the Federal Building from Santa Monica and San Diego.

Numerous other organizations are also planning to picket and all signs indicate that a broad movement is gathering which could culminate in the most significant demonstration of public protest against reaction which this city has seen in many years.

Our organization, the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, will of course throw our full weight into the contest both to defend our own rights which are directly under attack, and as part of the general united fight-back against the HUAC and similar thought control institutions.

The executive committee of the FPCC, meeting in emergency session, decided on the following measures:

1- Issue a [illegible] press release presenting our public response to this invasion of our rights.

2- Conduct [illegible] local campaign of public education commensurate with our resources.

Exhibit 1. Fair Play For Cuba Committee letterhead showing Carl Braden as a national officer

"Field Organizer," and his activities in the Southern Conference Educational Fund apparently are his primary functions for the Communist conspiracy. His actual function in the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, we have as yet been unable to determine, but he is definitely one of the national officers and is listed as such on their letterhead. I have a copy of that letterhead here in my hand, and I would like to offer it into the record, Mr. Chairman, showing the name of Mr. Carl Braden under "National Sponsors" on the left side of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee letterhead.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Let it be entered into the record.

BY MR. ROGERS:

This is a clear, interlocking tie-in between the Fair Play For Cuba Committee and the Southern Conference Educational Fund.

In addition to Carl Braden, there have been other manifestations of the support given by the Southern Conference Educational Fund to the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. Two men, namely, Robert F. Williams, and William Worthy, both colored men, have been supported publicly by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, and both are definitely connected with Castro's operation in the United States, which is primarily carried out, insofar as propaganda is concerned, by the Fair Play For Cuba Committee.

The name of Robert F. Williams appears in connection with the Fair Play For Cuba Committee in the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee Hearing, part 6, dated February 8, 1963, into "Castro's Network In The United States." Williams' name appears on page 339 of that report in a reprint of an article supporting the Fair Play For Cuba Committee, written in 1961 by a man named Lyle Stuart. Williams is described as follows in this article: "They also included Robert F. Williams, who, at the moment of this writing is fleeing with his family from a posse of legal killers in Monroe, North Carolina." As a matter of fact, Robert F. Williams is under indictment for kidnapping in North Carolina right now. A copy of a letter from Robert F. Williams to Mr. Carl Braden has been published in our first report on the Southern Conference Educational Fund on page 71 thereof. This letter was sent to Carl Braden from Cuba where Robert Williams was hiding out at the time, broadcasting propaganda for Castro.

A further connection between Robert Williams and the Southern Conference Educational Fund appears in the "Southern Patriot," the subversive publication of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., for January, 1960, on page 3, where the name of Robert F. Williams appears as the author of an article. The title of this article is simply this: "Is Violence Necessary To Combat Injustice?" There are two points of view expressed here, one the negative on this proposition by Martin Luther King, and the other the positive, advocating violence, by Robert F. Williams. This is printed in detail, his analysis of his point of view advocating violence, along with his picture underneath his name in the paper which I have mentioned. I offer this into evidence, Mr. Chairman.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Let it be entered into the record.

BY MR. ROGERS:

A further tie-in between the Southern Conference Educational Fund and Robert F. Williams occurred in the February, 1963, issue of the Southern Patriot on page 2, in a book review written by Anne Braden. Now, Anne Braden is also a positively identified Communist Party member; she is the wife of Carl Braden and was identified by the same Federal Bureau of Investigation informant that identified Carl Braden. As you will remember from our last Hearing, this informant's name was Alberta Ahearn, and she swore, both in Court, and later before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee that Carl and Anne Braden had recruited her into the Communist Party, and that she knew them as Communist Party members.

This book review is a review of a book written by Robert Williams entitled, "Negroes With Guns." It is a lengthy book review, and it is a favorable review towards the book. It takes up a full half of a page of this particular issue of the Southern Patriot, and it is signed at the bottom with the name of "Anne Braden." I offer this into evidence, Mr. Chairman.

BY MR. PFISTER:

If the Committee is in agreement that this should be entered into the record, let it now be entered into the record.

BY MR. ROGERS:

Another individual whose name has appeared in connection with both of these organizations is a man by the name of William Worthy. William Worthy's name was brought up in connection with the Fair Play For Cuba Committee in part 4 of the Hearings of the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee thereon, dated June 12 and 13, 1961, on page 348, during the questioning of a witness named, "Tekla." He testified that he attend d 2 meetings of the Fair Play For Cuba Committee in the Cleveland area, at one of which meetings William Worthy was a featured speaker.

William Worthy has been written up in the Southern Patriot, in the issue of October, 1962, wherein the Southern Conference Educational Fund, through its subversive publication, praised Worthy and the work that he was doing, and commented favorably on his visit to Cuba which was carried out in violation of the State Department Passport Regulations, and for which he was subsequently arrested. The Southern Conference Educational Fund actually requests formally at the bottom of this article that "people who read this newspaper, add your voice to the protest against William Worthy's conviction, write President Kennedy at the White House and urge him to act in the case, circulate one of the several petitions that are now being compiled across the country." It goes on to tell where the petitions are available, and one of the addresses from which they are available is 822 Perdido Street, New Orleans 12, Louisiana, which is the address of the Southern Conference Educational Fund. I would like to offer this into the record, Mr. Chairman.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Hearing no objections from the members of the Committee, let it be entered into the record.

BY MR. ROGERS:

In addition to this Mr. Chairman, there was another witness who appeared in the Fair Play For Cuba Committee Hearing before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee who has been closely connected with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in the past. This man's name is Conrad Joseph Lynn, and he appeared before the Committee in May of 1963 when the Committee was investigating violations of the State Department Regulations and certain pro-Castro propaganda activities in the United States.

Mr. Lynn was interrogated at length concerning his connections with the Cuban situation; he testified that he knew Robert Williams in Cuba, met him in Cuba when he went there in viola-

A CALL FOR

A FREEDOM NOW PARTY

AN ALL-BLACK PARTY FOR 1964

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Notes and Comment

ONE mild, sunny afternoon last week, we boarded a No. 4 bus at Fifth Avenue and Forty-fourth Street, rode to Lenox Avenue and 110th, and began a long, slow walk through Harlem.

We turned the corner uptown on Eighth Avenue and noticed a drugstore, much like any other, except that the products featured more prominently than cosmetics were powders for cockroaches and a salve for curing rat bites....

At Harlem Square, on the corner of Seventh Avenue, a meeting was in progress....

William Worthy was speaking when we arrived. He suggested the formation, by Negroes, of a Freedom Now Party, to propose Negro candidates for public offices. "Think about it," he said. "Talk about it. Kick the idea around. We may not win many offices, but with one out of ten Americans a Negro.... ...we can make our voice heard in the land."

There was applause when Mr. Worthy sat down, and he rose again to say a few more words. "Do you know what would happen if Fidel Castro were President of the United States instead of John F. Kennedy?" Mr. Worthy said. "Bull Connor would be given a fair trial and then shot. Ninety-five per cent of the police would have to flee to South Africa for political asylum. J. Edgar Hoover would be thrown into an integrated cell. If that didn't cure him, he would be left there for life."

The crowd laughed and applauded....

Just then we spotted a friend in the crowd, a young Negro woman who has lived in Harlem all her life....

"There's going to be trouble," our friend said.... "On a hot summer night, it wouldn't take much to set off a riot—not isolated violence but a kind of revolution. Five years ago, it was still a problem for social workers—jobs, education, housing in which children wouldn't wake up to find rats in their beds. Now something will have to be done on an enormous scale or there's going to be murder."

THE TALK OF THE COUNTRY

A CALL FOR

A FREEDOM NOW PARTY FOR 1964

WITH AN ALL-BLACK SLATE AND A PLATFORM FOR LIBERATION

WHY A FREEDOM NOW PARTY?

1. To at last TAKE our freedom, with our own nationwide political party. Only once in all U.S. history has Congress passed, and the Government enforced, MEANINGFUL equal rights laws. That was during Reconstruction when 25 Negro congressmen and 5 Negro senators sat in Washington. FREEDOM NOW!

2. To create the basic economic changes needed to guarantee well-paid jobs for all. It's not enough to call for "equal opportunity" when jobs, decent housing and schools are scarce even for whites. FREEDOM NOW!

3. To end racism, exploitation and colonialism — in Africa, Asia, Latin America — and in the United States, north and south. FREEDOM NOW!

What sense does it make to go on supporting the party of Eugene "Bull" Connor? "Bull" Connor is STILL Kennedy's Democratic National Committeeman for Alabama.

Why should southern Negroes register to vote — at the risk of death — when the only "choice" on the ballot is a James O. Eastland or a George C. Wallace?

When have the Republicans or Democrats ever used long-existing federal laws to protect us from daily, coast-to-coast police brutality?

OUR AFRICAN BROTHERS HAVE SHOWN US HOW TO WIN FREEDOM. THEIR PRINCIPAL TECHNIQUE: ALL-BLACK POLITICAL ACTION. THIS IS SELF-RELIANCE, NOT "RACISM".

The time is with us. A Freedom Now Party will for the first time unite us. We will be the permanent party of change and challenge. We will take the issues to the streets.

• ALL blacks who wish to be free will be equal, and equal, welcomed, as members — employed and unemployed, clergymen, students, professional men and women, agricultural laborers, tenant farmers, trade union members.

To obtain world-wide moral support, copies of this brochure are being sent to all African, Asian and Latin American delegates at the United Nations and to leaders of anti-colonial liberation movements everywhere.

This call for a Freedom Now Party is being distributed for the first time today, August 28, 1963, in Washington, D.C., and in black communities throughout the United States.

tion of the State Department Passport Regulations. He testified that he and Williams cooperated, as he put it, in "reconstructing the underground railroad." In other words, arranging some method of getting in or out of the United States illegally without going through the usual passport and customs regulations that are imposed upon all citizens of this country legally. Mr. Lynn further testified at substantial length about his visit to Cuba in February of 1962. Subsequent to this he lectured to various organizations, in particular, an organization called the "West Side Committee For Friendly Relations With Cuba." on the same program with an identified Communist named Corliss Lamont. Evidently this was in New York.

The connection between Mr. Lynn and the Southern Conference Eduactional Fund is simply this: Anne and Carl Braden, Editor and Field Organizer respectively of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, have been carrying on correspondence with this same Conrad Joseph Lynn. In addition to this, Corliss Lamont, with whom Lynn appeared on September 28, 1962, is a financial contributor to the Southern Conference Educational Fund. Corliss Lamont has been positively identified as a Communist. Also, Lee Harvey Oswald once stated that the Fair Play For Cuba literature he handed out in New Orleans came to him from Corliss Lamont!

I will offer into the record at a later date, a copy of some of the correspondence between the Bradens and Conrad Lynn.

Mr. Chairman, for this time, this concludes the evidence which we have been able to compile concerning the connections between the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., of New Orleans, and the Fair Play For Cuba Committee. I would like to suggest that the most significant item of this is the joint leadership in both organizations on a national level by an identified Communist, namely, Carl Braden. If the Committee has any questions, I will try to answer them.

BY MR. PFISTER:

Thank you,very much, Mr. Rogers, for your efforts and research, and for apprising the Committee of your findings today. Does any member of the Committee have any questions? (None.) Does anyone want to make any statement? (None.)

Gentlemen, what we have heard today is further evidence of the interlocking connection between most of the Communist Front Organizations in the United States. For many years, the House Committee on Un-American Activities of the Congress; J. Edgar Hoover of the F. B. I.; the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee; the Attorneys General of the United States; and various State Committees, including our own, have been telling the public that these Communist conspirators and crack-pots in the various Communist fronts were dangerous to the sec rity of our Country. Many people have not believed this, but perhaps the horrible events of last Friday will wake them up to the fact. In times of crisis people must turn to basic principles for guidance. Our Committee urges a rededication of all citizens to the principles of justice, freedom, loyalty, and responsibility upon which this Nation was founded.

Gentlemen, if there be no further business to come before this Hearing, I would like to have a motion that we adjourn. Representative Willie Arceneaux moves that we adjourn at this time; Representative Mike John seconds the Motion, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Motion carried) The meeting is adjourned.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963
MISCELLANEOUS-INFORMATION CONCERNING

On 5-25-64, Mr. Wesley James Liebeler of the President's Commission called and in the absence of Mr. Malley, who is in Dallas, Texas, the call was taken by Supervisor H. A. Schutz, Jr. Mr. Liebeler indicated that he was interested in two areas of investigation and made reference to the report of SA Belanger at Tampa dated 12-10-63, page four, wherein a tape recording of a T.V. interview with an individual by the name of Penaz had been reviewed and reported. According to information in the report a cartoon had appeared in the newspaper "Revolucion" depicting damage done in Cuba by hurricane Flora. A caricature of the United States was depicted laughing at the damage. Another cartoon showed a coffin containing President Kennedy with Castro standing above laughing. Mr. Liebeler requested that investigation be conducted to actually determine whether such a cartoon did appear in this paper and if so forward a copy to the commission.

Mr. Liebeler made reference to the report of SA Gemberling at Dallas dated 4-15-64, on pages 527 and 540. The information contained therein related to two transcripts of a debate participated in by Oswald in August, 1963. One was transcribed by radio station WDSU, New Orleans, and the second by an individual named Bill Stuckey. Mr. Liebeler indicated that the commission desired that we obtain copies of these tapes for inclusion in the permanent files of the commission and for comparison with the transcripts. He requested that in obtaining these tapes the Bureau maintain appropriate chain of evidence as to their authenticity.

We have covered Lane's public appearances at request of President's Commission. In his appearances being reported by instant letter, he presented claims previously made by him in numerous past appearances around the country. These claims have been speculative and/or unfounded. They include: the absence of residue on Oswald's cheek in a paraffin test shows Oswald could not have fired a rifle on 11/22/63; witnesses described someone not of Oswald's description as the killer of Dallas patrolman Tippit; Oswald is not represented by counsel at the Commission's hearings; the Commission is "political" in nature and its findings will be biased; and President Kennedy was shot from in front.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of May 20, 1964, concerning the materials which the Commission had requested of the Russian Government on March 26, 1964, and with which you transmitted documents numbered 1A, 2A, 3A(1), 3A(2), 4A, 5A(1&2), 5A(3), 1B, 2B, 3B and 4B. All of these exhibits are designated as FBI Exhibit D216. Translations of the foregoing documents were also received.

Your letter of May 20, 1964, requested a handwriting comparison of the documents submitted with the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife, Marina.

It was concluded that Marina Oswald, whose known handwriting specimens are designated as FBI Exhibits D12 and D13, wrote Commission Items 2B and 3B.

It was concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald, whose known handwriting specimens are designated as FBI Exhibits D5 and D6 and Commission Exhibits 56, 56 and 66, prepared the following handwriting on the Commission Items as indicated below:

1A - The English text on page two and the two Oswald signatures on page two

2A - The two Oswald signatures

4A - Only the signature of Oswald

6B - The Russian handwriting

5A(1&2) - The English handwriting and Oswald signatures

No conclusion could be reached whether Lee Harvey Oswald prepared the signature on Item 5A(3) due to the distortion in the signature. However, some handwriting characteristics were observed common to the signature on 5A(3) and the available known writings of Lee Harvey Oswald.

The submitted evidence has been photographed and is returned herewith.

On 1/21/54 it was determined that ISAACS was then residing at 92 Varick Road, Waban (Newton), Mass., and on February 4, 1954, the Office of Origin was changed from New York to Boston. No investigation has been conducted of ISAACS by the Boston Division since 1954 and Boston files contain no pertinent information concerning him since that time.

A review of ISAACS file does not reflect any association with MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET and Boston indices contain no reference to MURRET.

For the information of New York and WFO, MURRET is a cousin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She was interviewed November 29, 1963, and advised that she took a trip around the world beginning in July 1959 and ending in January 1963. Unconfirmed information has been received indicating a "tie-up" between MURRET and the case of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and also that MURRET was "linked" in some manner with the communist "apparatus" of Professor HAROLD ISAACS of MIT.

As New York previously interviewed HAROLD ROBERT ISAACS, it is requested that New York review its file 105-1247 for any information as to an association between ISAACS and MURRET and for any additional pertinent information on the background of ISAACS.

It is noted that MIT records show ISAACS' work takes him away from MIT which would possibly account for some association between MURRET and ISAACS.

The WFO is requested to check passport records for travel of HAROLD ROBERT ISAACS from 1954 to date, which may be of possible interest if such travel coincides with that of MURRET.

New York and WFO handle promptly and advise Bureau and Dallas of any pertinent information.

MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET

Reference is made to memorandum dated May 7, 1964, at Washington, D. C.

The 1964 Staff Directory for Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Massachusetts, lists Harold R. Isaacs as Research Associate at the Center for International Studies at MIT.

The current Greater Boston Directory lists Harold R. Isaacs as residing at 75 Varick Road, Newton, Massachusetts.

On May 21, 1964, Mrs. Claire Edwardson, Secretary, President's Office, MIT, advised the records reflect the following regarding Harold R. Isaacs: Born September 13, 1910, New York City. Before coming to MIT, he specialized in Far Eastern affairs, was a "Newsweek" correspondent in the Far East, and a special writer for the "Christian Science Monitor" on Far Eastern affairs. He commenced employment at MIT August 20, 1953, as a Research Associate in the Center for International Studies and is so employed at the present time. During this period of time, he has also been employed as a lecturer in the Economics Department at MIT. Mrs. Edwardson stated that the Center for International Studies is endowed to a great extent by the United States Government. She said that much of Isaac's work takes him away from MIT and consists of international travel and concentration on study in India.

On April 4, 1950, Harold R. Isaacs, who resided in China from 1931 to 1936, furnished the following information concerning his activities in China:

At the age of twenty-one he obtained a job in the Merchant Marine on a ship going to China, and left this ship at a Chinese port in 1931. He remaind in China for the next five years, the first two or three years being in Shanghai, where he edited a weekly newspaper in English called, "The China Forum."

COPIES DESTROYED

21 FEB 27 1973

Re: MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET

Isaacs stated that his observations had convinced him, as it had most observers, "of any human feeling" in China, that the Chinese people were being exploited by foreign business interests, as well as by their own government, and that the only hope for the betterment of their condition lay in the fulfillment of the program of the Chinese Communists.

Isaacs said that he was, therefore, openly sympathetic toward the communists, espoused the communist doctrines in his paper, and developed numerous contacts among Chinese Communists who operated an underground and also distributed his paper.

Isaacs stated that while his sympathies were completely with the Chinese Communists at this time, he never joined the Communist Party in China.

He recalled that Agnes Smedley, correspondent for the "Frankfurter Zeitung," was an ardent supporter of the Chinese Communists, but he was unable to say that she was a Party member or whether there was any organized cell of the Communist Party existing for Americans or other foreigners.

He stated that the sentiments of Smedley and of himself were those generally prevailing among journalists and other "disinterested persons" in China.

Isaacs stated, however, that he gradually came to learn that the Chinese Communists were deceitful and were playing politics, and he became increasingly estranged from them, eventually denouncing them as corrupt politicians.

He recalled that after his denunciation of the Chinese Communists, he was subjected to a barrage of vilification, and was publicly denounced by Agnes Smedley as a paid agent of the Japanese Government.

He further stated that while in China, he had been an inexperienced, youthful idealist, and he felt there were doubtless many things going on behind the scenes in the group of foreigners in Shanghai who were sympathetic to communism, of which he was unaware.

Re: MARILYN DOROTHEA MURRET

On January 18, 1951, Harold R. Isaacs furnished the following information:

When he first arrived in China, early in 1931, Isaacs became extremely friendly with one Cecil Frank Glass, who was then a British citizen residing in China as a journalist. According to Isaacs, Glass had had the distinction of being expelled from the Communist Party for Trotskyite deviations, before Trotsky, himself, was expelled. He stated that Glass had been a member of the Communist Party until about 1926 or 1927, but had been expelled because he had criticized the Comintern for giving up the idea of world revolution. When Leon Trotsky was expelled from Russia a short time later because of this same criticism of the Russian Communist Party, Glass quite naturally became a fervent adherent.

According to Isaacs, Glass maintained friendly social relations with a pro-Soviet group of Caucasians in Shanghai despite his known Trotskyite opinions and it was chiefly through Glass that Isaacs became acquainted with a number of Glass' friends.

According to Isaacs, he was converted to the principles of the Fourth International (Trotskyism) by Glass in 1932 or 1933, and because of his attacks on what he believed to be the "cynical motives" of the Chinese Party, he became estranged from the circle of friends he had made in Shanghai; however, he still maintained friendly relations with some of the Chinese Communist leaders.

Isaacs stated that he was a regularly active member of the Socialist Workers Party and in that capacity has contributed articles to their press.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Isaacs stated that he had written an article in the April 4, 1936, issue of "The Militant," self-described as a Socialist Workers Party newspaper, under the pseudonym of Lo Sen.

Re: MARILYN DOROTHEA HURRET

Isaacs stated that his Chinese name had been Yi Lo Sen and that he had had this name printed on his calling cards in Chinese characters when he was in China.

Isaacs stated that he broke with the Trotskyite movement in 1940 and since that time, Frank Glass has refused to speak to him.

On February 7, 1952, Harold R. Isaacs furnished the following information:

He stated he had received an advance copy of a book entitled "The Shanghai Conspiracy" by Major General C. A. Willoughby, published by E. P. Dutton and Company, New York. He stated that one of the end papers of this book carried a chart purporting to diagram the travels of Comintern agents, Communist Party members, sympathizers and the like and had noticed that there was listed under this chart the names of the persons to whom it referred. Carried on this list was his own name and his wife's maiden name, Viola Robinson.

Isaacs stated that so far as the text mentioned his activities, it was correct although repetitious, and stated that he had never denied that for a short period after his arrival in China he had been a wholehearted supporter of the program of the Chinese Communists. He stated, however, that his disillusionment with the Chinese Communists and his criticisms of them which were available in his published works had not been taken into account by the author of the book. He also felt that the listing of his name in the end paper of the book in a broad category, from which it was impossible to tell whether the person was listed as an espionage agent, a Comintern agent, or merely a sympathizer of the Chinese Communists, was extremely unfair and possibly libelous.

Isaacs stated that he was particularly bitter over the inclusion of his wife's name in this list. He stated that he had had an attorney request the publishers as to the basis for such statements and the publishers had replied that they had letters written either by him or his wife which were the basis for such listing.

Re: MARILYN DOROTHEA HURRET

Isaacs stated that his wife's political sympathies have paralleled his own. He stated that she had never been a member of the Communist Party nor had he in any country in the world although she shared his early sympathy for the program of the Chinese Communists.

Isaacs stated that he had consulted Mr. Morris L. Ernst, a prominent attorney in New York, to explore the possibilities of suing the author and publishers of "The Shanghai Conspiracy," because of the statements contained in the book, and at the present time, discussions are going on between the publishers and his attorney.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Westfield State College, Westfield, Massachusetts May 1, 1964

On May 6, 1964, a source advised that Attorney Mark Lane appeared at Westfield State College, Westfield, Massachusetts, on May 1, 1964, where he spoke to about 400 students concerning the Lee Harvey Oswald case.

This source advised that the following biographical sketch of Lane was prepared by a faculty committee and distributed at the door to those who attended:

"Mr. Mark Lane, 37-year old New York attorney, is Chairman of the recently formed Citizens' Committee of Inquiry, which is conducting an independent investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy.

"He has been affiliated with the American Labor Party of New York State.

"He was a supporter of Henry A. Wallace in the 1948 Presidential Campaign, as an assistant to Congressman Marcantonio of New York City.

"He was elected an Assemblyman to represent the Yorkville District of Manhattan in the New York State Assembly in 1961.

"In December, 1963, Mr. Lane prepared and published a defense brief for Lee Harvey Oswald. Mr. Lane was retained by Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald to act as counsel for her son before the Warren Commission. On March 4, 1964, Mr. Lane appeared before the Commission and presented his findings up to that date. He is continuing his investigation of the assassination, but through the independent Citizens' Committee, rather than in an attorney-client capacity.

XEROX

"Since beginning his investigations, he has become convinced that Lee HarveyOswald is innocent of the crimes charged against him, and he has announced that he will remain with the case."

The source advised that Mr. Lane took particular exception to statements in the biographical sketch that (1) he has been affiliated with the American Labor Party of New York State and (2) he was a supporter of Henry A. Wallace in the 1948 Presidential Campaign, as an assistant to Congressman Marcantonio of New York City. The source advised that Lane denied that either of these statements was true.

The source stated it was his understanding that the biographical sketch of Lane came from an anonymous letter addressed to an unidentified member of the faculty at Westfield State College.

This source advised that during his speech Lane commented on the following aspects of the Lee Harvey Oswald case:

Lane pointed out discrepancies in pictures of Oswald holding the gun allegedly used in the assassination of President Kennedy, which appeared in various publications, and claimed that some of these pictures were forged and doctored and therefore not authentic.

Lane commented that it was first said that the murder weapon was a 7.65 mm. German Mauser, which story was later changed when the FBI announced that in March, 1963, Oswald had purchased a 6.5 mm. Italian rifle.

Lane commented on the background of District Attorney Henry Wade and was critical of Wade's handling of the press following the death of President Kennedy. Lane also criticized Chief Jesse Curry of Dallas for his statement following the death of Oswald to the effect that since Oswald was dead, the case was closed, and that there would be no further investigation. Lane stated that the Justice Department then ordered Wade to re-open the case and prove Oswald's guilt.

Lane, in referring to the paraffin test of Oswald, stated he has obtained a copy of the laboratory report from District Attorney Wade's office, showing that "Oswald may have fired a revolver but did not fire a rifle," thereby disproving Mr. Wade's statement that Oswald was the assassin.

Mr. Lane commented that Helen Louise Markham, the only witness to the Tippit shooting, had furnished Dallas Police a description of the Tippit killer, which was not the same description that Dallas Police had used for Oswald. Lane later interviewed Markham, who claimed that the Dallas Police had not used the description she gave them. Lane pointed out this incident as further proof that Dallas Police were trying to change the evidence to fit Oswald who they believed was the killer of President Kennedy, as well as Officer Tippit.

Lane also stated that several witnesses in this case had mysteriously disappeared and described some of the circumstances.

Mr. Lane also commented on various theories as to how and where President Kennedy was shot and stated there were a number of witnesses who claimed the shots came from the area of a concrete wall and overpass ahead of the President's motorcade, and not from the rear as claimed by the investigators.

Mr. Lane also pointed out discrepancies in the medical testimony, stating that at first doctors at Parkland Hospital had said the first wound was an entrance wound in the President's throat. He said they later changed their story to say this was an exit wound, after being questioned by the Secret Service Agents, who had obtained an autopsy report from Bethesda Hospital.

Mr. Lane was critical of the FBI and Secret Service for not having Oswald under surveillance on November 22, 1963, when these agencies had considerable background information on him and as extraordinary precautions had been taken for the President's visit. Lane stated the FBI and other agencies wanted the public to believe that Oswald walked into the Bank Depository Building with a rifle in spite of all the security precautions taken that day.

The source advised that following Lane's speech there was a short question and answer period.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The April 2, 1964 issue of the "New York Times," page 37, column 5, contained an article captioned "Mother of Oswald Ends Tie With Lane." The article indicated Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said she had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer, and that he should stop any "organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens Committee of Inquiry."

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held May 28, 1963, at 74 5th Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice-Chairman of the organization.

A characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the appendix hereto.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter received by the Chief Justice from Mr. John B. Drury, a trial attorney employed by the Civil Aeronautics Board. As you will note Mr. Drury informs the Commission that a cab driver in New York City by the name of Sam Altman may have information of interest to this Commission. The records of the Commission indicate that Mr. Altman has not been previously interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and we would appreciate the Bureau conducting such an interview.

Thank you for your assistance.

The Honorable Earl Warren
Chief Justice of the United States
Washington 25, D. C.

Sir:

By way of introduction, may I say that I have been in government service for over twenty-three years, and am now employed as a Trial Attorney by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

I realize that your time is extremely limited and valuable, by reason of your high office, however, I feel that I would be remiss in my duty as a citizen, if I failed to report the following matter to you.

Sam Altman is a cab driver in New York City, who lives at 364 Madison Street, New York 2, New York. His hacking license is #23494, and he drives cab #10826.

On May 11, 1964, while I was in New York on business, he told two associates and me, that he was in a serious difficulty because he had related an experience to several people, that his story had reached a newspaper reporter, and the reporter was trying to induce him to tell the story for publication. He recited the following account to us, and asked our advice:

About two or three months prior to the assassination of the late President Kennedy, he picked up a male passenger at Eastern Air Lines, and drove him to his destination, which was the Hotel Gotham. The passenger had a large footlocker, upon which his name was stencilled. During the drive, the passenger told Altman that he was a former Marine, and that he intended to kill President Kennedy. Altman noted the name on the footlocker, and wrote it on his trip-ticket for the day, which he turned in to the company from which he rents the cab. Although not positive, Altman believes that the name was Oswald, and as he recalls this passenger, he looked like the photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Shortly after leaving the Hotel Gotham, Altman says that he called a law enforcement agency and furnished the above story. The person receiving the call seemed skeptical, and asked Altman if his passenger appeared to be a "nut." He then suggested that Altman report this matter to another law enforcement agency. Altman told him that he had done his duty by reporting it, that he was not going to call anyone else, and the other party could report it himself to the proper agency.

I advised Altman not to discuss this incident with the reporter, or with anyone else, but to report it to you, immediately. Altman said that he couldn't write such a letter to you, and he asked me if I would do it for him. I promised him that I would do so.

In no way do I vouch for Mr. Altman, or for the authenticity of his account. However, it would appear that his story can be quite easily verified, so I am compelled to report it to you.

Very truly yours,

John B. Drury

Enclosed is a copy of a letter from the President's Commission dated June 4, 1964 which is self-explanatory. Also enclosed is the attachment to the Commission's letter of June 4, 1964.

The New York Office should immediately check indices regarding Sam Altman and thereafter interview Altman for all data in his possession bearing upon Lee Harvey Oswald or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Following the interview of Altman, the New York Office should institute appropriate investigation and set out appropriate leads to completely resolve the allegations of Altman.

Results of such investigation should be set out in report form by the New York Office suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission. This matter must be given your immediate attention inasmuch as it appears the Commission is currently in process of writing its report on the assassination.

Reference Miami airtel to Bureau and Dallas with enclosed LHM dated May 8, 1964, and Miami teletype to Bureau May 20, 1964 in which the content of enclosed LHM was synopsized.

As pointed out in referenced Miami teletype, Miami considers MARTINO to be unreliable. It is further believed that MARTINO would probably welcome a subpoena before the President's Commission, as it would add to his stature and furnish him additional notoriety on which to capitalize in his lecture engagements, which he gives on Communism in Cuba. It is felt, however, that he would be equally evasive with the President's Commission as he was with the Miami Office, and there is no evidence to indicate he could furnish the Commission with anything but untraceable hearsay and speculation.

Reference is made to the memorandum dated May 8, 1964, at Miami, Florida, wherein it is reflected that JOHN V. MARTINO of Miami Beach, Florida, declined to identify his source of information concerning alleged activities of OSWALD in Miami and Mexico. MARTINO, when contacted on May 6, 1964, stated he would continue efforts to locate his source and that if he was unsuccessful, he would probably furnish the name of the source to the FBI in the matter of a week or so.

On May 11, 1964, Mr. MARTINO, who resides at 2326 Alton Road, Miami Beach, Florida, advised he "guessed" that his source was no longer in Miami, but probably had left the United States. He said he had reason to believe this because three months previously, when he spoke with the source, the latter had talked about going to Central America to engage in anti-FIDEL CASTRO activity.

Mr. MARTINO said his source was named OSCAR ORTIZ, whom he described as 40 to 42 years of age; about 6' tall; 180 to 190 pounds; dark curly hair, parted in the middle; accustomed to wear long sideburns; in good physical condition; a good dresser; unmarried; fluent in both English and Spanish. MARTINO related he became acquainted with ORTIZ in the Principe Prison in Cuba. MARTINO reiterated he had been imprisoned in Cuba from July, 1959 to October, 1962. He stated ORTIZ escaped from prison sometime in 1960, together with 18 other Cuban prisoners who made their way to freedom through tunnels within the Principe Prison and through a manhole outside the prison. He related that he did not see or hear from ORTIZ again until shortly after he, MARTINO, was released from Cuba in October, 1962, when ORTIZ unexpectedly, unaccompanied, walked into MARTINO's house in Miami Beach.

According to Mr. MARTINO, ORTIZ was accustomed to regularly contacting him thereafter, and MARTINO had no means of getting in touch with ORTIZ. Furthermore, MARTINO knew none of the associates of ORTIZ. MARTINO stated ORTIZ was a member of an anti-CASTRO organization, but MARTINO could not disclose the identity of this organization, which has elements in Cuba, because the disclosure would imperil ORTIZ.

Mr. MARTINO further claimed ORTIZ had an oriental rug business in Cuba, that he had never accepted refugee relief, that he was known at Washington, D.C., and that he could even be a "double agent."

MARTINO contended that when he wrote a letter to California in an effort to contact ORTIZ in mid-April, 1964, he did not direct the letter to ORTIZ, but to someone else in California, whose identity also he declined to reveal.

On May 12, 1963, Mr. CHARLES CHALLANDES, Investigator, U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Miami, Florida, advised records of his office contain no information identifiable with the OSCAR ORTIZ described by JOHN V. MARTINO.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 12, 1964, Mr. PAUL JOHNSEN, Investigator, INS, Miami, advised he had conducted considerable investigation of one JUAN CATASUS CHICOY, a Cuban refugee, based on an allegation received from JOHN V. MARTINO that CATASUS was a Cuban intelligence agent. Mr. JOHNSEN stated that investigation failed to develop any corroboration of the allegation and Mr. MARTINO had declined to reveal the identity of his source of information concerning CATASUS.

Mr. JOHNSEN related that after several efforts to elicit from MARTINO the identity of his source, MARTINO furnished the name of one ORLANDO DELGADO, concerning whom he claimed to have no specific data of a descriptive nature. Mr. JOHNSEN stated his subsequent efforts to identify such an ORLANDO DELGADO resulted negatively. He stated it was his opinion that MARTINO had no substantiation for the allegation made against CATASUS and his method of "backing out" was to attribute the information to an individual who, for all practical purposes, is nonexistent.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, Massachusetts On April 28, 1964

A source advised on May 4, 1964 that Attorney Mark Lane, former counsel to Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, addressed about 1500 students and faculty members at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, Massachusetts, on April 28, 1964.

Lane spoke for over four hours on what he alleged were mistakes and lies concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY by the "supposed" assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. He attempted to discredit evidence which would suggest Oswald was responsible for the assassination and to imply a large conspiracy was at work to frame him for the shooting. He questioned the sincerity of the Warren Commission, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Secret Service. He criticized the national press with specific emphasis on "Life" magazine for its conclusions and "doctored" photographs.

The source advised that Lane spent much time in relating his own encounters with various government agencies in an apparent effort to win sympathy for himself from his audience. Lane's stated purpose was to stimulate debate on the matter and to emphasize the constitutional distinction between proven guilt and accusation, no matter how strong the evidence presented.

He specifically noted discrepancies in that the Dallas Police Department originally identified the weapon in the Texas Book Depository as a German make, while the Federal Bureau of Investigation later reported it to be an Italian Carbine. He claimed the absence of residue on Oswald's face in a paraffin test proves he could not have fired a rifle. He said witnesses to the shooting of Officer Tippit describe someone completely different from Oswald and presented a tape recording of a woman witness in the area of the Texas Book Depository who claimed to have heard four to six shots fired.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

RE: Appearance of Attorney Mark Lane at Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts on 4/30/64

Personnel at the Office of the Dean of Students, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts, on April 23, 1964, advised that Mark Lane would appear at a public meeting in Schwartz Auditorium, Brandeis University, on April 30, 1964, at 8:30 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Students Political, Education and Action Committee, an approved undergraduate organization.

On April 30, 1964, sources advised that Mark Lane appeared as above and that the topic of his discussion was "The Innocence of Lee Harvey Oswald."

Lane commenced his talk by saying that he had been making public appearances on this topic throughout Europe and the United States and added further that in Europe much more information had been made available to the public than in the United States concerning the assassination of President Kennedy. He said in Europe there are doubts as to Oswald's guilt and that people there feel Oswald was either a part of a conspiracy or that he is innocent.

Following his opening remarks, Lane cited discrepancies in photographs which appeared in national magazines and newspapers of Oswald holding a rifle. In this connection, he pointed out that "Life" magazine of February 21, 1964, carried photographs of Oswald holding a rifle and wearing a pistol on his hip. Lane claimed that this photograph was taken in the Spring of 1963, yet Federal Bureau of Investigation inquiries have determined that Oswald did not purchase the rifle until September, 1963. Lane also pointed out that supposedly similar photographs appeared in the "Detroit Free Press" and the "New York Times" but noted that some of these showed major indentations on the stock of the rifle, whereas other photos did not. He pointed out that the identical photograph which appeared in "Life" magazine appeared in the "New York Times" but that the telescopic sight was missing from the "New York Times" picture. Lane determined that the "New York Times" picture was obtained from the Associated Press. When Lane attempted to learn the source of this particular picture, the Associated Press advised him they could not disclose the source.

As further evidence of incorrect press coverage, Lane stated that an Associated Press article had quoted Dick Goodwin, Oswald's superior officer in the Marine Corps as describing Oswald as a crack shot, but one whom they were glad to see leave the Marines as he was a "hot head." According to Lane, Goodwin retracted this story stating he had had someone else in mind, but this retraction never appeared in the press. Lane also stated he had Oswald's Marine Corps record, which showed Oswald was not a "crack shot."

With reference to the weapon used in the assassination, Lane said it was announced on November 22, 1963, that the gun was a 7.65 mm. German Mauser, but that on November 23, 1963, the Federal Bureau of Investigation announced that it was a 6.5 mm. Italian Carbine which had been purchased by Oswald in March, 1963, under the name of A. Hidell. On this basis, District Attorney Henry Wade of Dallas changed the original story concerning the gun and now claims the murder weapon was the Italian Carbine.

Mr. Lane commented on the fact that Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry on November 24, 1963, made a statement "Oswald is dead. The case is closed and there will be no further investigation." Lane used this as an example of the attitude adopted by investigative agencies that Oswald was the undisputed assassin of President Kennedy.

In connection with a paraffin test conducted on Oswald as a result of which District Attorney Wade announced that Oswald was the assassin, Mr. Lane stated that such a test is inexact and inconclusive. According to Lane, while the paraffin showed particles of nitrate on Oswald's hands, no nitrate particles were found on his face. The conclusion is that Oswald may have fired a revolver, but did not fire a rifle.

Mr. Lane commented that he had no faith in the Warren Commission based on a statement made by Chief Justice Earl Warren to the effect that the public may never get the facts in this case for reasons of national security. Lane complained that Oswald has had no representation before the Warren Commission and that he is entitled to such representation.

With respect to procedure on the Warren Commission, Lane commented that Chief Justice Warren is too busy to attend the hearings and that "the second in command," Mr. Allen Dulles, is running the hearings. He also commented that the Commission itself is political in nature and therefore cannot make an unbiased finding. Lane claims that in any court of the land, each and every member of the Commission would be excluded from serving on a jury on the basis of his association with the government. Lane stated that Congressman Ford of Michigan, a member of the Commission and also a former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, is the spokesman for the Federal Bureau of Investigation in the Congress of the United States. He said the Warren Commission will not get all the facts because the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Secret Service will not want to disclose all the results of the investigation.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Lane pointed out that in his opinion, Oswald had been denied his proper rights including the right to counsel before the Warren Commission.

Mr. Lane referred to his own testimony before the Warren Commission where, upon his own request, he was allowed to testify in open session. Later at his request, he was furnished a transcript of his testimony except for the first four pages which were missing. Later, these four pages were furnished him bearing a "top secret" classification, even though he had testified publicly and the first four pages actually dealt only with his request to testify in open session. Mr. Lane ridiculed this procedure on the part of the Commission.

Lane referred to an article by Bob Considine in the "New York Journal American" of February 23, 1964, relative to an individual named Warren Reynolds, owner of a used car lot in Dallas who reportedly heard three shots fired and then saw a man run by his car lot immediately following the shooting of Patrolman Tippit of the Dallas Police force. According to the article, the witness Reynolds was subsequently shot through the head by a rifle but survived. The Dallas Police Department then arrested a man for the Reynolds shooting who furnished the Dallas Police Department the alibi that he was in the company of Betty MacDonald at the time of the Reynolds shooting. Betty MacDonald turned out to be a former dancer in Jack Ruby's night club. As a result of the alibi, the man arrested for the Reynolds shooting was released and has disappeared. Betty MacDonald was subsequently arrested for disorderly conduct and later hung herself in a jail cell in Dallas. The above story according to Lane never again appeared in the United States press. Mr. Lane cited this story by Considine as an instance where persons having pertinent information have mysteriously disappeared from Dallas.

Also in connection with the shooting of Patrolman Tippit, Lane pointed out that immediately after the shooting the Dallas Police Department issued an alert describing the killer of Tippit as a white male, 5'9" to 5'10" tall, slender, blond receding hair, which description fits Oswald. However, Lane stated he later went to Dallas and interviewed the only eyewitness to the

FOUND ITEM

Tippit shooting, a Mrs. Helen L. Markham who at first would not talk to him saying she had been cautioned not to discuss the matter by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service and the Dallas Police Department. Lane said she finally agreed to talk to him when he convinced her he was to use her story in his testimony before the Warren Commission. In her statement to him, she described Tippit's killer as a short stocky white male, with bushy hair, which description did not fit Oswald. Attorney Lane claims that Mrs. Markham has now mysteriously disappeared.

With respect to the theory that President Kennedy was shot from the rear by Oswald and from the Texas Book Depository, Mr. Lane stated the evidence does not bear out this theory. He stated that the original route of the President's caravan was down Main Street to the railroad overpass and into the Trade Mart; however, for unknown reasons, the route was changed so that the caravan would pass directly in front of the Texas Book Depository building. He claimed that this was an official change, that it was not publicized and that Oswald could not have known of this change.

Lane stated that doctors at the Parkland Hospital first reported President Kennedy was shot in the throat; that Doctor Perry had performed a tracheotomy placing a tube through the entrance wound in the President's throat; that the wound ranged inward and downward toward his lungs. In line with the doctor's original diagnosis, the first theory of the assassination was that President Kennedy was shot from the Texas Book Depository building as the car in which he was riding was approaching the building. This theory, however, had to be discontinued when it was determined that the car in fact, had passed the Texas Book Depository building before the first shot was fired and further this building would have been to the rear of President Kennedy.

According to a second theory, it was developed that at the time of the first shot, the President had turned around in his seat facing the Texas Book Depository building. In this regard, he stated that "Life" magazine published an article stating that the President had turned completely around at the time the first shot was fired thus supporting the theory that the first shot hit him in the throat. However, Lane pointed out that "Life" magazine subsequently showed pictures of the President taken by an amateur photographer at the time of the shooting showing that the President was not turned around but was facing forward with his back to the Texas Book Depository building.

Mr. Lane stated that this theory persisted for a whole month when the medical evidence was suddenly changed. He stated that the Secret Service agents then went to the Parkland Hospital with an autopsy report made at Bethesda Hospital and that for the first time they questioned Parkland Hospital doctors. The story then came out that all the doctors at Parkland Hospital were mistaken, that the wound in the throat was now termed an exit wound instead of an entrance wound and that the first shot had struck President Kennedy in the back of the head. According to Attorney Lane, these doctors were never able to see the autopsy report and were in effect forced to change their original story.

With respect to the government's final theory that President Kennedy was shot from the rear, Lane stated that a total of nine witnesses had reported that the shots originated from the railroad overpass or from behind a concrete wall near the railroad overpass both of which were in front of the President. Lane stated he attempted to interview these witnesses but that only one of them, Miss Irene Hill, a Dallas schoolteacher, would talk to him. Miss Hill told Lane she heard four to six shots fired and that they had come from an area near the railroad overpass. She stated she had previously been interviewed by the Secret Service agents who had tried to convince her that only three shots had been fired and that if she felt she had heard more than three shots, perhaps it was firecrackers or echoes. She told Lane she had advised the Secret Service that she was certain she heard four to six shots fired to which they replied, " There were three bullets and three wounds and we are saying three shots." Lane played a record which he claimed was his interview with Irene Hill substantiating her above statement.

Lane questioned why the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Secret Service with their knowledge of Oswald's background had not considered it desirable to follow Oswald on the day of the assassination particularly in view of the fact that the Presidential caravan was to pass the area of the Texas Book Depository, where Oswald was known to be employed. He noted that everyone who had ever spoken out in favor of integration in Dallas was followed on that day by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service and the Dallas police. He pointed out that the government wanted the public to believe that Oswald was able to walk into his place of employment carrying a rifle in spite of all the security precautions which had been set up for the President's visit. He stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation in answer to the question as to why Oswald had not been surveilled stated that the Federal Bureau of Investigation's area of jurisdiction concerned only spies and saboteurs.

Mr. Lane stated that on the previous day, he was "accosted" by two Federal Bureau of Investigation agents near his home in New York. They asked him if he had unauthorized information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation files. He stated he did not and he asked the agents if it was that easy to get information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation files. They repeated their question and Lane told them he was an attorney in New York City, that he had an office there and that he did not appreciate being contacted on the sidewalk. He then told them that if they wished to question him they could direct a letter to his office. Again they repeated their question, but Lane terminated this by leaving and taking a taxi.

Lane's talk was followed by a question-and-answer period which in substance was as follows:

Q. Has Governor Connally had anything to say?

A. He testified, but his testimony was not made public.

Q. What was the motive for the assassination?

A. No known motive, Oswald appeared to like President Kennedy.

Q. Who did it?

A. Not my job to find that out.

Q. What can be done to obtain the true information?

A. A Citizens Committee of Inquiry has been formed and student committees are being formed at colleges throughout the country for the purpose of raising funds to send investigators to Dallas.

Q. What was the caliber of the bullet?

A. We don't know; this was not made public.

Q. Was there more than one assassin?

A. I believe so.

At that point, Attorney Lane stated that he was writing a book and that the only publisher who would publish his story was "World Press."

Q. Why did you get involved in this investigation?

A. I have been interested in rights of people for many years; there are many contradictions in this case; further, the pre-trial publicity in this case deprived Oswald of a fair trial if he had lived. Lane stated he had tried to get his theories published in the "Nation" but this publication did not want to be involved. Finally, the "National Guardian" published his theories of the assassination. He said that he had published an article concerning the assassination in the "Law Review" which had come to the attention of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald and that as a result of the article, she had hired Lane to represent her. Lane stated that he did not intend to leave this case until the American people get the information they are entitled to.

Q. Have you approached the Kennedy family for any help in your investigation?

A. I expect to see Robert Kennedy in two weeks.

In conjunction with the talk by Mr. Lane, copies of "The National Guardian" were available at the door. This was described as "a guardian special." It mentions that it is a special eight-page tabloid-size pamphlet published by the "National Guardian" newspaper weekly as a public service. It is based largely on a five-page brief on the Oswald case published in the December 19, 1963 issue of "The Guardian," written by Attorney Mark Lane. The pamphlet gives Lane's version of the Oswald case. A characterization of the "National Guardian" is contained in the appendix hereto.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane" This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The April 2, 1964, issue of the "New York Times," page 37, column 5, contained an article captioned "Mother of Oswald Ends Tie with Lane." The article indicated Mrs. Marguerite Oswald said she had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer, and that he should stop any "Organized campaign" on behalf of her son through his "Citizens Committee of Inquiry."

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held May 28, 1963, at 74 5th Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice Chairman of the organization.

A characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the appendix hereto.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

A second source advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

A third source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HUAC" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

Various sources have advised during March, 1962, that Communist Party (CP) members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 6, 1963, the first source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

MARK LANE

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane." This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The "New York Times" newspaper dated April 2, 1964, page 37, contained an article stating that Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer.

On June 10, 1963, a source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice Chairman of the organization.

Characterizations of the NYCAHUAC and the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) appear in the appendix hereto.

The May 16, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian" contained an article captioned "Benefit for Lane Group Slated in New York, May 18th" This article reflected that the cast of "The Third Ear" scheduled to open at the Premise Theatre in New York on May 21, 1964, would give a preview performance on May 18, 1964, for the benefit of the Citizen's Committee of Inquiry (CCI). The article reflected Lane would speak "On the latest information he has uncovered in the Kennedy-Oswald case." According to the article, the theatre is located at 154 Bleeker Street, New York, New York.

A characterization of the "National Guardian" appears in the appendix hereto.

A second source advised on May 19, 1964, that he attended the above-described function held at the Premise Theatre. According to the source, a sign at the theatre indicated a capacity of 183 persons; however, the theatre was overflowing. Source stated donations from $1.00 and up were collected and that Lane spoke from approximately 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

According to this source, the following is the substance of Lane's speech:

The President's assassination is not a matter for inquiry behind closed doors. I have no faith in the Warren Commission giving all the facts because Justice Warren himself has stated that you may never know all the facts in your lifetime for national security reasons. How can that be? The only way we can be secure is if our country is well informed; otherwise, our security is threatened.

The Warren Commission is composed of Dixiecrats, and former FBI and CIA members; Senator Russell of Georgia, Boggs of Louisiana, are two racists; representing the CIA is Allen Dulles, and the spokesman for the FBI is McCloy. The only one with integrity is Senator Cooper from Kentucky. This is not a real cross section of American people.

Oswald's right to have a defense had he lived was tampered with. We have a Commission with no attorney to defend Oswald. After several letters denying me the right to defend Oswald because he was dead - they forgot that the dead and absent were tried in the courts of Nurenberg. As a last resort to prevent embarrassment, they appointed the President of a Bar Association to conduct the defense of Oswald. It is the first time in history that counsel has been appointed forgetting about the counsel retained by the family.

The Warren Commission appointed six panels to conduct the inquiry but forgot panel number seven. Who really assassinated the President of the United States? Everyone is presumed innocent as a cornerstone of our judicial system but this seems to have no meaning in the United States.

Our news media helped convict Lee Oswald moments after he was arrested, long before the trial. The Dallas Police Department, the FBI and the Secret Service are responsible for this. Lee Oswald was a totally prejudiced defendant. Even District Attorney Wade said, moments after Lee Oswald was shot, that the case was closed.

Everywhere I have spoken, in Europe or in the United States, everyone believes that Oswald was innocent or part of a plot.

Oddly enough no roadblocks in Dallas went into effect. A Paris reporter left Dallas by plane without being asked any questions. Only Mexico closed its border on its own initiative.

Of all the briefs and releases I submitted, the "National Guardian" has been the only one to present anything. Yet, I have been able to have material printed in Japan, Africa, Europe, etc., but here in the United States no one printed anything relating to Oswald's defense.

Wade, who knows of what he speaks, claims to have sent 23 men to the electric chair on much less than he had on Oswald. Wade released his whole case to the press before the trial, before Oswald was killed.

MARK LANE

The various statements made by District Attorney Wade were absolutely false or in contradiction to what sources had said to begin with. When I was in Dallas everything that should be checked, could not be verified (reference to information furnished by Wade).

Contradictions have been the so-called entry of the bullet into President Kennedy's throat which suddenly is supposed to have entered from the head. At first all the doubt was taken out by Dr. McClelland in Dallas who said there were plenty of bullet wounds. I know an entrance wound when I see one and that was an entry wound on the Adam's apple.

The FBI had first said Oswald had been in the second floor window from which he fired at the President striking him in the throat but then contradictions arose when the Secret Service re-enacted the crime, embarrassing the FBI, and "Life" magazine came to the rescue with doctored photographs. (According to the source, at this point Lane displayed a series of photographs, magazines and articles which he purported were in contradiction of one another.)

Later on President Kennedy's body was flown to Bethesda, Maryland, for an autopsy which resulted in two Secret Service agents returning to Dallas with said autopsy report obviously to brainwash the three doctors who originally worked on President Kennedy. From then on President Kennedy's entry wound at the Adam's apple became an exit wound. Dr. Perry, incidentally, stated that there is much more about this case that I know which I am not allowed to discuss.

What happened to the photographs taken by the FBI from the schoolteacher before and during the shooting? She still has a receipt for them. I am interested in seeing the front of the building President Kennedy was facing when the shots were fired. (At this point Lane played a taped interview of a female who claimed to have heard six shots.)

Paraffin tests proved Oswald did not fire a rifle on November 22. (Source stated that at this point Lane became very technical in an explanation of how paraffin tests are made.)

MARK LANE

How about Reynolds, the witness to Officer Tippit's death? He was shot with a rifle in the head. He still lives but no longer speaks. The man that shot him, a hood, produced an alibi, one of Ruby's strippers who claims she was with him. This same woman was later found hung in the Dallas jail, an alleged suicide.

Most people think the motive was Marxism; however, others knew the United States and USSR relations were at its best during the Kennedy administration. Still others know about Dallas and its Presidential wanted posters with captions "Dead or Alive for Treason" or questions like, why trade between the Monroe Doctrine and Moscow spirit.

The FBI knew Oswald worked on the Presidential route, yet they hide behind the excuse of not being permitted to work in the field of political nonconformists.

Salinger and Stevenson as well as Johnson knew it was not safe for Kennedy in Dallas. How come the Secret Service and the FBI didn't know? They were too busy interviewing anyone who was "pro-school integration."

According to the second source, a collection of names and monies was carried out after Lane's speech. A question-and-answer period ensued for about one-half hour. After the question-and-answer period, a "psychodrama" was presented by the theatre group.

A third source advised on May 19, 1964, that he also attended the above appearance of Mark Lane. This source commented substantially the same as the second source.

In addition, the third source commented that Lane stated that one morning in the pouring rain as he was leaving home, he was stopped by FBI Agents who accused him of stealing a Government file. Lane stated he asked the Agents if Government files were easy to steal and then informed them that he had an office and if they wished to contact him they could do so there. According to this source, Lane indicated he was leaving for Europe on Friday, May 22, 1963.

WILLIAM MANCHESTER
AUTHOR OF KENNEDY BOOK TO BE PUBLISHED IN 1969
APPOINTMENT WITH DIRECTOR, 10:10 A.M., 6-4-64

By appointment, I introduced William Manchester, who has been commissioned by Mrs. John F. Kennedy to write a book concerning the four days surrounding the assassination and funeral of the late President, to the Director at 10 a.m., today in the Director's Office.

Mr. Manchester first thanked the Director for seeing him. He explained that he had already seen approximately 90 people, principally in Washington; however, had not yet gone to Dallas, Texas, inasmuch as Chief Justice Warren felt that he should not conduct interviews in Dallas until after the Warren Commission report had been issued.

In instituting a series of questions to the Director, Mr. Manchester first inquired as to what the Director was doing on November 22, 23, 24 and 25, 1963. He added that he would first like to start with November 22, 1963, at the precise moment the Director first received the news that the President had been shot. The Director replied that he had just returned from lunch. This was approximately 1:... when news item was brought in to him reflecting the President had been shot. The Director immediately called the Attorney General who was at his home dining with the U. S. Attorney from New York, Mr. Morgenthau. The Director advised the Attorney General that news announcement had been made that the President had been wounded. The Director stated he next talked to the SAC of our Office in Dallas, Texas. He was informed that the President had been wounded and had been taken to the Parkland Memorial Hospital. The SAC also advised that Governor Connally had been shot and was now in the emergency room with Kennedy at the same hospital. Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Connally, who were sitting in the same car, had not been hit. The SAC told the Director that it appeared that the shots had come from an upper story window of the Texas Book Depository Building.

DeLoach to Mohr 6-4-64
Re: William Manchester, Author of Kennedy Book
To Be Published in 1966
Appointment with Director, 10:10 a.m., 6-4-64

The Dallas Office additionally advised the Director shortly after 2:00 p.m. that day that the President had died. The Director immediately called the Attorney General once again and told him of the death of his brother. At this time the Director inquired as to whether the Attorney General planned to go to Dallas. The Director stated that he had advised the Attorney General that if such plans were in the making he would facilitate his departure and arrival. The Director told Manchester that shortly thereafter the Dallas Office called once again to indicate that the President's body would be immediately flown back to Washington and that the Vice President had already been sworn in as President. The Director later called the Attorney General once again and told him that the FBI was moving into the investigation. The Director advised Manchester that the FBI took this action despite the fact that there was no law making it a Federal violation to assassinate the President.

At this point the Director gave Manchester a brief history of the assassination of SAC Shanahan in Chicago, Illinois, in the middle 1920's. There was no Federal law against assaulting or murdering an FBI Agent at that time. The Director told Manchester he initiated action to make it a Federal crime to assault or kill an FBI Agent so that proper action could be taken in Federal court rather than a local court in such matters.

The Director told Manchester that if the FBI had taken custody of Lee Harvey Oswald, Jr., Oswald would never have been killed by Jack Ruby. The Director stated that the murder of Oswald by Ruby naturally gave rise to considerable speculation and rumor. All of this could have been avoided had the Dallas police taken proper action to protect Oswald.

The Director told Manchester that the FBI immediately entered the case, despite non-jurisdiction, and that we interviewed Oswald as soon as he was made available. The Director stated that on the evening of November 22, 1963, at approximately 7:25 p.m. President Johnson called him at his home and requested that the FBI take complete charge of the case involving the assassination. The Director stated he advised the President that the FBI had already entered the case and that we would, of course, go all out in this matter. The Director also told the President that he was concerned about the great amount of publicity coming out of Dallas.

The Director then told Manchester that the Dallas police had given out considerable information received as a result of FBI findings, particularly from our laboratory. He added that on the 4th or 5th day following the assassination he instructed our SAC in Dallas to contact Chief of Police Curry and order him to make no further statements to the press with respect to the evidence or investigation surrounding the assassination. The Director told Manchester that this Chief of Police could have told him to go to hell; however, he had recognized the obvious necessity and logic of such instructions and had complied. The Director explained to Manchester at some length the necessity to keep physical evidence confined prior to the prosecution of an individual.

The Director told Manchester that on Saturday evening, November 23, 1963, our Dallas Office had received an anonymous telephone call indicating that plans had been made to murder Oswald when he was removed from the Dallas City Jail. The FBI informed the Dallas Chief of Police immediately. The Director told Manchester that original plans for removal of Oswald had been made for 10:00 p.m. that Saturday night. The Chief of Police, however, changed these plans by acceding to the pressure of the press that Oswald be removed at a convenient time so that communications media could cover the event. Our Dallas Office again called the Dallas Police Department on Sunday morning, November 24, 1963, and reminded that Department of the same anonymous telephone call. At that time the Chief of Police assured our Dallas Office that all precautions were being taken to protect Oswald.

The Director informed Manchester that following the President's call at 7:25 p.m., November 22, 1963, he gave specific instructions that the FBI do everything possible to thoroughly investigate this case. The Director stated that additional personnel were immediately sent to Dallas. He told Manchester this was necessary inasmuch as our Dallas Office and FBI Headquarters, as well as other offices, received hundreds and hundreds of phone calls, telegrams and letters setting forth leads in this case.

Manchester inquired as to whether the Director placed any significance to the anonymous phone call concerning the plan to murder Oswald. The Director replied that we had no way of knowing at the time whether any importance should be attached or not; however, we did have the responsibility to immediately notify the Dallas police, which we did.

The Director characterized Jack Ruby as somewhat of a "police buff." As a result of his friendship with a number of police officers he had easy accessibility to the Dallas Police Department. The Director stated that he did not know whether Ruby's reported insanity was of the sincere or faked type inasmuch as we were not psychiatrists. He stated that Ruby had given the excuse that he had killed Oswald because of his obvious affection for the late President and the fact that he wanted to prevent any further sorrow to Mrs. Kennedy inasmuch as she would necessarily have to return to Dallas and testify against Oswald.

Manchester inquired as to the exact location of the Director at the time Oswald was killed on Sunday, November 24, 1963. The Director replied that he was at home. He stated that the Dallas Office contacted him immediately following this event. Manchester inquired as to the Director's immediate reaction. The Director replied that his first thought was how such an event could take place, particularly under a system of organized justice. The Director added that he had ordered an immediate check on Jack Ruby and particularly to ascertain if there had been a relationship between Ruby and Oswald.

Manchester inquired as to whether the Director was watching television at the time of Oswald's murder. The Director replied in the negative. He stated he was working on official papers at the time. The Director added that he usually saved Sundays to read lengthy documents and memoranda as well as to prepare himself for interviews, hearings, etc.

Manchester inquired as to what the Director was doing on Friday morning, November 22, 1963, prior to the assassination. The Director replied that he was conducting business as usual, that he had had a number of interviews that particular morning.

Manchester inquired as to the physical location of the wire service ticker machine. He was told that it is located across the hall and that pertinent wire service items are brought in to the Director immediately.

The Director told Manchester that his first conversation on November 22, 1963, with our Dallas Office occurred at approximately 1:48 p.m. The Director was advised at that time that the President was not believed to be dead yet but that he had suffered a mortal wound. The Director mentioned that on the occasion of his second call to the Attorney General, the Attorney General had indicated that he had also been in touch with a number of the Presidential Staff and had been informed of a number of details concerning the shooting and the fact that the President had died.

Manchester inquired as to the Director's opinion of the Attorney General's reaction upon being informed that the President had been shot. The Director replied that the Attorney General had been silent for a few moments and had then requested that the Director keep him informed of any further facts received concerning this matter. The Director told Manchester that the Attorney General is usually very quiet in manner until he has all the necessary facts of a given situation. The Director stated that the Attorney General was not the explosive type unless he became angry.

Manchester told the Director that the President's call to the Director at 7:25 p.m., November 22, 1963, appeared to be one of the first calls that the President made upon returning to Washington that evening. The Director replied that he would surmise that this was correct. The Director added that our investigation proceeded forthwith; however, it was not until Monday or Tuesday of the following week that the President decided to name a Presidential Commission to look into the assassination. The Director told Manchester that an FBI report had been sent to the Warren Commission within ten days after the President had set up this body. The Director stated that he personally had appeared before the Warren Commission and that he considered their questioning of him to be quite thorough. He stated that thoroughness was necessary on the part of the Commission inasmuch as this would serve to assist in quelling gossip and speculation in the future. The Director quickly added, however, that rumors will continue concerning this case, especially in Europe where there is widespread gossip concerning a supposed conspiracy, for many years.

The Director told Manchester that the statement that some of the information may be withheld by the Warren Commission naturally gave rise to further rumor. Manchester replied that he could understand the Chief Justice's statement in this regard inasmuch as not just any individual should be allowed to look at the classified material sent to the Commission by some agencies. The Director replied that the issue at point is such that excessive precautions of security is unwise. The Director explained that he had never been a great believer in wasteful precautions or going overboard regarding excessive security. He stated that an item is either classified or else it isn't classified. The Director gave examples of leaks in Government that have given several Presidents extreme cause and worry. He stated that the FBI is usually called upon to investigate these leaks, however, newspapermen naturally do not desire to reveal their sources. The Director stated that if newspapermen did reveal such sources that quite naturally the sources would dry up.

Manchester inquired of the Director as to whether the assassination case became one of major concern following the President's call at 7:25 p.m., November 22, 1963. The Director stated that as he had previously indicated, the FBI had already entered this case. He added, however, that after the President's call we went all out in doing such things as working around the clock, sending a Washington-based FBI official to Dallas and adding approximately 30 Agents to the Dallas personnel complement. The Director stated that we still have at least 50 men who are tied up in running down leads on this particular case throughout the FBI's service. He stated that this case will never be closed from an investigative point of view inasmuch as we will continually receive leads, many from mental cases, which necessarily have to be checked out.

Re: William Manchester, Author of Kennedy Book

Appointment with Director, 10:10 a.m., 6-4-64

Manchester asked if the matter of a President being assassinated not [illegible] a Federal crime had ever been discussed [illegible]ly by the Congress, or anyone else, [illegible]ding to the Director's knowledge. The D[illegible]tor replied that there had been no [illegible]ussion to any extent. He stated the matter had just never been considered.

Manchester inquired as to whether the FBI had prior material on Oswald [illegible]ore the assassination. The Director replied that we did have some information [illegible]garding Oswald, however, it was quite flimsy in nature. The Director then explained at some length the background of Oswald. He told Manchester of the press releases that Oswald made in Moscow. He told Manchester of Oswald's employment in a factory in [illegible]insk, Russia, and of the fact that Oswald had later returned to Moscow. The Director stated that he certainly did not understand why the Department of State had failed to have Oswald sign an affidavit forfeitting his American citizenship at the time Oswald returned to Moscow and visited the U. S. Embassy. Manchester spoke up and stated that the State Department claimed they had wanted to find out if Oswald had committed an [illegible]editable crime in the Soviet Union, therefore, no signed affidavit was taken from him. The Director again deplored the failure to have such an affidavit executed.

The Director continued that we had interviewed Oswald within two or three days following his arrival in the United States. He explained that we, of course, desired to find out if Oswald had been recruited as an intelligence agent by the Soviet Union. The Director told Manchester that this did not appear to be true. He added that Oswald had classified himself as a Marxist rather than a communist. The Director added that Oswald had later been interviewed in New Orleans after getting into a street squabble with anti-Castroites over leaflets being handed out by Oswald. The Director told Manchester that Oswald could best be termed a "loner." He explained Oswald's communications with the Communist Party in the United States but added that Oswald had never joined the Party. The Director told of the incidents surrounding Oswald's attempt to kill General Walker in Dallas. He added that Oswald's wife, Marina, had advised us of this incident following the assassination. The Director summarized this part of the interview by indicating there appeared to be nothing in Oswald's background which would reflect that he was a man of violence and most certainly nothing which indicated that Oswald had any intentions of assassinating the President.

Manchester asked if the Director did not find it odd that Mrs. Oswald had failed to tell anyone about the attempted assassination of General Walker until after the murder of President Kennedy. The Director replied that he did not find this odd in view of the cold relationship between Oswald and his wife, the language barrier on the part of Mrs. Oswald and the fact that Mrs. Oswald did not have the natural instincts of an American woman but to the contrary had a different attitude altogether. He stated he placed no significance in Mrs. Oswald's failure to advise of this incident prior to the assassination.

Re: William Manchester, Author of Kennedy Book
To Be Published in 1969
Appointment with Director, 10:10 a.m., 6-4-64

The Director told Manchester that it was extremely difficult to speculate on the motivations of Oswald to kill the President. The Director stated it was entirely possible Oswald may have wanted to kill Governor John Connally. He explained that Oswald had written communications to Governor Connally protesting his particular type of discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps. The Director added that President Kennedy was an intellectual liberal type. He stated that President Kennedy had been desirous of keeping peace with honor. He stated that President Kennedy desired peaceful co-existence --American style. The Director added that the President, although he had been firm in his dealings with Khrushchev, had a fairly good relationship with Khrushchev and the Soviet Union. The Director summed up by stating that Oswald could not have desired to kill the President because the President had dealt harshly, or spoken harshly, against the Communist Party and Chairman Khrushchev.

Manchester speculated that perhaps the communists, including Oswald, did not like the relationship between the late President and Khrushchev; therefore, the communists desired to do away with President Kennedy so that this obstacle to their desired philosophy could be removed. The Director replied that this was entirely possible; however, he wanted Manchester to clearly understand that Khrushchev was not a person to be trusted and that Chairman Khrushchev had a very cold and evil mind. The Director, at this point, gave examples of Khrushchev's understanding of the English language despite the fact that he had Troyanovsky, an excellent interpreter, with him at all times while on his visits to the United States. The Director told Manchester that he had always felt it better to kick individuals like Khrushchev on the shins once in a while rather than to boot-lick them. The Director explained that Khrushchev was basically an oriental and that individuals opposing orientals usually lost face in the oriental's opinion when fear or trepidation was shown.

Manchester inquired as to whether the Director's duties and responsibilities allowed him to participate personally in the funeral ceremonies. The Director replied in the negative. He stated he had been at his desk constantly. He advised that he had issued instructions that FBI personnel participate officially in the ceremonies by assisting Secret Service as much as possible. The Director spoke of the many visiting foreign dignitaries and of the dangers involved in the march from the White House to St. Matthew's Cathedral. He told Manchester that over 40 Special Agents had been assigned to assist Secret Service, particularly at St. Matthew's Cathedral. He further told Manchester that the authority to protect the President was clearly a function of the Secret Service; however, since the assassination we have assisted when called upon. The Director briefly advised Manchester at this point of the immediate widespread ramifications of this case following the actual shooting. He told Manchester that leads had spread to Mexico as well as throughout the entire United States. Therefore, it has been necessary for him personally to remain at his desk so as to supervise this matter.

At this point I reminded Manchester of his previous statement to me that he had to be at the White House at 11:15 a.m. Manchester thanked the Director twice upon his departure and stated that he was very appreciative of the Director's cooperation and considerable time taken from a busy schedule to be of assistance.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

One of my neighbors claims that it is a well-known fact among some people that Lee Oswald's father-in-law is or was a high ranking member of the Soviet Secret Service, but that this information is being suppressed.

I have never heard of this or read of it, and as a citizen, I am quite disturbed by statements of this type being made, and would like to obtain some information from you that would either refute or confirm this statement.

It is my feeling that this type of rumor is very dangerous, and I would like to settle the issue. The only information I have been able to obtain to date is that Marina Oswald was born in 1941 and two years later her father died. Her mother has since re-married.

Would very much appreciate any information you can give me.

Sir:

Your recent editorial regarding the automatic reappointment of J. Edgar Hoover aroused me to express my reasons for not believing in his infallibility and that of his corps; and to question LIFE, as a representative of the press, as to why the FBI and, for that matter, the Secret Service, escaped the scrutiny and vilification of the press for completely "dropping the ball" re the ugly demise of our beloved John F. Kennedy. In the final analysis, these agencies were mostly responsible for the ex-presidents death because of leadership at the top that approaches senility and the resultant incompetence in some parts of their rank and file. I offer the following personal reasons for arriving at this conclusion, to wit:

While employed as an Engineering Writer for the General Dynamics Corporation in Fort Worth, Texas, I was informed by a colleague that "an ex-marine who spent a couple of years in Russia is right here in Texas and no one seems to know or care about it." I never forgot the name of the "ex-marine" because I associated it with a manufacturer by the same name for whom I had worked in New York years past. I informed my wife of my finding and told her that I was suspicious of the information. Against my wife's insistance that I had too vivid an imagination, I called the FBI and informed them of my conversation with the aforementioned colleague. My call was treated lightly and I felt guilty endangering the character of my associate. (Oddly enough, this same associate maliciously placed a magazine cut-out of Fidel Castro's head in mosaic with a picture of JFK at his white house desk; the latter also from LIFE and which I kept on my desk.)

On November 22, 1963 I called the FBI and submitted the name of my associate as co-worker as possibly knowing, or having something to do with, the assassination.

ENCLOSURE

ENCLOSURE

Having imbibed excessively to drown my grief of the presidents death, I irrationally responsible to the speculations of tabloid writers that the extreme right wing were extremely involved in the shooting and [illegible] attempted to splinter the plate-glass window of the American Opinion Library (John Birch Society) with a .357 six-shooter. These events occurred in Phoenix, Arizona.

While serving 120 days in the Phoenix city jail for "malicious mischief and driving while intoxicated," a Mr. Wilkins of the U.S. Secret Service visited me on my reports to the FBI. I reported my business to this elderly gentleman and he informed me the Secret Service "had no knowledge whatsoever of Oswald's existence." The agent didn't seem overly friendly and had drawn seven circles in a black note book that more resembled peaches than circles. (In retrospection, I reported to the FBI and SS that I "was going" to make a phone call to the FBI in the summer of '63, but that my wife had "talked me out of it." My virtue of the temptation of incarceration, however, I recalled that I did, in fact, make the call.) Also I requested an interview by the FBI in the early part of this year, which was granted, because I thought my civil rights were being denied in that I was being held without bail for an additional crime that was never committed. (I subsequently plead guilty to the latter on the erroneous advice of my court-appointed attorney, who was clandestinely cooperating with the district attorney to "see that he got six months.")

In the case of this citizen, I do not excuse on the part of the FBI for not keeping a close surveillance on Oswald, especially since [illegible] informed them of his existence; or the heads of the FBI and Secret Service for such shoddy lines of communication. Unless Mr. Walters was protecting me on, one would think those agencies would coordinate their information of such crucial assignments [illegible] regarding our president.

I am one-hundred percent behind Hoover; I think J. Edgar should be forced to retire so we can soon see more vigorous leadership. Finally, an international right wing conspiracy [illegible] has indeed reared its head [illegible]. The press erred [illegible] overcome with the fact's murder; why [illegible] the duty of these "protectors" overlook so blatant guilt [illegible]?

Gordon Williams of 431½ South Commonwealth, Avenue, Los Angeles, telephone number 385-9536, who is employed at Channel and Chafin, 3000 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, as an interior decorator, furnished the following information concerning Louis Curtis:

On February 19, 1964 Curtis was in the Wilshire Club which is located at 6347 or 3551 South Vermont Avenue. He was drinking with a Negro man by the name of Louis Curtis, whom he described as age 31, 5'10½" tall, 170 pounds, black hair, brown eyes, medium build. APPROX. B. 1933

During their conversation Curtis allegedly told Williams that he was in complete sympathy with the killing of President John F. ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT

11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISC. - INFO CONCERNING

ReButel 5-27-64, concerning J. W. Altgens various communications on Billy Nolan Lovelady and William F. Beckman.

Enclosed for your information is a copy of the above referenced article in the "New York Herald Tribune."

For your information the President's Commission by letter 2-24-64, advised that Harris appeared at the Commission and furnished several blown up copies of the Associated Press photograph wherein it appeared that an individual in the doorway of the Texas School Book Depository Building resembled Oswald. Your office conducted investigation in this matter which established the individual to be Lovelady. The Commission was furnished the results of your inquiry by Bureau letter 3-9-64.

NOTE:

Dallas, by airtel 4-7-64, and other communications, advised Lovelady had complained of being pestered by one W. L. Beckman who insisted on taking a photograph of him. Lovelady was informed this was civil matter and if he continued to be annoyed to call police. We did limited, discreet background on Beckman but failed to establish any connection between him and the assassination investigation. "Tribune" article is based on information supplied by Harris and states that Altgens took photograph in question and that Harris hired Beckman to photograph Lovelady. The article reports although Harris had been requested to not publicize this incident he, Harris, felt the Commission had slighted him in not furnishing him the details in its possession about this situation so he assisted in the preparation of the "Tribune" article.

We have endeavored to interview every individual known to have any information concerning the assassination, however, Altgens' identity has never been revealed and it is pointed out he never voluntarily came forward to furnish any information. Dallas is currently under instruction to interview Altgens based on an article in a Chicago paper that although Altgens was on the scene and has minute information concerning the assassination he was never interviewed and when results are obtained it will be furnished to the Commission.

The enclosed article is being furnished inasmuch as the Commission has indicated prior interest in Mr. Harris.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS, TEXAS

In the May 24, 1964, issue of the "New York Herald Tribune", Magazine Section, there appeared an article by DOM BONAFEDE captioned "The Picture With a Life Of Its Own." This article refers to the controversial Associated Press photograph of the Presidential motorcade wherein an individual resembling LEE HARVEY OSWALD appears in the doorway of the Texas School Book Depository. Previous investigation has identified this individual as BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY. This article reflects that J. W. ALTGENS, a veteran Associated Press photographer in Dallas, Texas, recalled shooting the picture. The article further commented that ALTGENS had never been questioned by the FBI.

On May 25, 1964, the Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised that there appeared in the "Chicago American", page 7 of the Monday, May 25, 1964, issue, in the column entitled "Daly Diary", the following:

> "Isn't it odd that J. W. ALTGENS, a veteran Associated Press photographer in Dallas, who took a picture of the KENNEDY assassination -- one of the witnesses close enough to see the President shot and able to describe second-by-second what happened -- has been questioned neither by the FBI nor the Warren Commission?"

The Chicago Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation advised that the author of the "Daly Diary" column is MAGGIE DALY.

Re: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
NOVEMBER 22, 1963, DALLAS, TEXAS

On June 2, 1964, JAMES W. ALTGENS, 6441 Pemberton Drive, telephone number EMerson 8-7766, Dallas, Texas, advised he is employed as a wirephoto operator - photographer by Associated Press, Room 353, Dallas News Building, Dallas, Texas. ALTGENS said he sometimes acts in the capacity of the News Photo Editor. He said he has been employed by the Associated Press for 26 years. ALTGENS advised he was born April 28, 1919, at Dallas, Texas.

ALTGENS advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned by Associated Press to take up a position along the motorcade route for the purpose of obtaining pictures of the President and the Presidential motorcade. ALTGENS related he left his office at 11:15 A.M. and proceeded to the triple overpass above Elm and Main Streets where he intended to take his pictures. He said he arrived there about 11:25 A.M. and was advised by uniformed police officers that, even though he had his press credentials, he would not be permitted to take photographs from the triple overpass. ALTGENS stated he then went to the intersection of Main and Houston Streets, arriving there at approximately 11:40 A.M. He said he remained at this location until the motorcade arrived.

Just before the Presidential limousine passed, ALTGENS stated he stationed himself in the intersection on the southwest side and took a picture of President and Mrs. KENNEDY as their limousine turned onto Houston Street. ALTGENS advised he then ran diagonally (northwest) downhill over the grassy area that separates Main and Elm Streets, stopping on the south side of Elm Street, across the street from the stairs leading down from the colonnade located on the north side of Elm Street, to get in front of the motorcade again. ALTGENS stated it was from this position that he took the photograph of the Presidential car and motorcade scene. He said this picture also depicts an individual standing in the doorway of the entrance of the Texas School Book Depository building who resembles LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ALTGENS related he was standing about thirty feet from the President when he took this photograph. He recalled that at about the instant he snapped the picture, he heard a burst of noise which he thought was firecrackers. He advised he does not know how many of these reports he heard since they had no significance to him at the time, and he was unaware of what was happening.

After taking the above photograph, ALTGENS stated he then turned the film in his camera, adjusted the focus to 15 feet and was raising his camera to eye level when he heard another report which he recognized as a gunshot. He said the bullet struck President KENNEDY on the right side of his head and the impact knocked the President forward. ALTGENS stated pieces of flesh, blood and bones appeared to fly from the right side of the President's head and pass in front of Mrs. KENNEDY to the left of the Presidential limousine. ALTGENS stated Mrs. KENNEDY grabbed the President and ALTGENS heard her exclaim, "Oh, no!" as the President slumped over into her lap. ALTGENS said he also observed blood on the left side of the President's head and face. ALTGENS stated he was staring in utter disbelief at what he had just witnessed and was so aghast that he froze and did not snap the picture. ALTGENS advised he was about fifteen feet from the President at this time, was sure the shot came from somewhere behind the President, and is positive this was the last shot fired. He said the President's car was proceeding at about ten miles per hour at the time.

ALTGENS advised he did not know Governor CONNALLY had also been shot since his attention was focused on the President. He said he learned from the wire services that Governor CONNALLY had been shot.

ALTGENS stated the driver of the Presidential limousine apparently realized what had happened and speeded up toward the Stemmons Expressway. At this point, ALTGENS advised he took a photograph which depicted a Secret Service man standing on the back of the Presidential limousine, left side, assisting Mrs.

KENNEDY back to her seat. ALTGENS stated the whole area seemed to be utter confusion. Police came from everywhere as the President's car disappeared from sight.

ALTGENS advised that as the President's car disappeared he observed some Secret Service Agents and police officers with drawn guns on the north side of Elm Street running in the direction of the top of the triple overpass. He said he thought they were chasing someone who had fled from somewhere behind the President. ALTGENS related he also ran in this direction. After proceeding across Elm Street and up toward the triple overpass, ALTGENS stated he met the police officers returning. At this juncture, ALTGENS advised he then ran to a nearby telephone and informed his office that the President had been shot and that he had witnessed it. He then sprinted to his office in the Dallas News Building with the pictures he had taken. ALTGENS stated the pictures showing the President slumping in his seat with Mrs. KENNEDY bending over him moved on the Associated Press Wirephoto Network at 12:57 P.M., which was seventeen minutes after the first news bulletin was sent out by Associated Press.

ALTGENS advised the above three pictures he took were all turned in to Associated Press, and received wide publication and circulation, both in the United States and abroad. ALTGENS said he used a 35 mm Nikkorex camera with a 105 mm lens (telephoto lens). He said the camera was loaded with Eastman Kodak Tri-X film.

Regarding the article which appeared in the Magazine Section of the May 24, 1964, issue of the "New York Herald Tribune" by DOM BONAFEDE captioned "The Picture With a Life Of Its Own", ALTGENS related the following:

On May 11, 1964, while he was at his residence, he received a telephone call from an individual who identified himself as DOM BONAFEDE. He said he was staying at the Adolphus Hotel in Room 1210 and was in Dallas doing a story on the Associated Press photograph taken by ALTGENS, wherein it appeared that an individual in the doorway of the Texas School

Book Depository building resembled LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ALTGENS said BONAFEDE informed him that he had been to Washington and to the President's Commission and had seen a "blown up" shot of this picture. ALTGENS stated BONAFEDE asked him a number of questions about the picture, about his position at the time he took this photograph, and what he had witnessed of the assassination of President KENNEDY. ALTGENS said he answered these questions for BONAFEDE. He said BONAFEDE also asked him a number of questions about how the people of Dallas felt about the assassination of President KENNEDY in Dallas, and what effect the assassination would have on the City of Dallas.

ALTGENS stated that on May 14, 1964, BONAFEDE again telephoned him at his residence and went over some of the questions he had previously asked in addition to asking him other questions.

ALTGENS stated he did not know and he did not have any contact with BONAFEDE prior to May 11, 1964, and none subsequent to May 14, 1964. He stated that BONAFEDE had told him that if he were going to quote him, ALTGENS, directly, he would call and clear any quotations with ALTGENS. ALTGENS said he never received any call from BONAFEDE in which he cleared any quotation.

ALTGENS advised that on May 21, 1964, at about 11:30 P.M., he received a telephone call at his residence from an individual who identified himself as JOHN GOLD of the "London Evening News." He said he presumes GOLD was telephoning from New York City. He said GOLD informed him that BONAFEDE had written an article and that it was going to appear in the Magazine Section of the "New York Herald Tribune" on May 24, 1964. ALTGENS stated he knew the article written by BONAFEDE would be published, but said this was the first information he had received as to when the article was to be published.

ALTGENS stated he is not acquainted with and, to his knowledge, has never had any contact with JONES HARRIS, ARNOLD

KRAKOWER, or BILL BECKMAN, all mentioned in the above article written by BONAFEDE.

Concerning the article which appeared in the "Chicago American," page 7, Monday, May 25, 1964, in the column entitled "Daly Diary," authored by MAGGIE DALY, ALTGENS stated he is not acquainted with MAGGIE DALY. He further stated that she has never contacted him and he has never furnished her any information. He said he assumes she obtained the information for her column from the article which appeared in the "New York Herald Tribune" on May 24, 1964, written by DOM BONAFEDE.

ALTGENS stated he does not know and, to his knowledge, has never had any contact with either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY.

NOTE:

This matter pertains to the article in the "New York Herald Tribune" which was based on information furnished by Mr. Jones Harris to the President's Commission relating to the photograph of Billy Nolan Lovelady. Altgens took the photograph and the article revealed Harris had been requested not to publicize this information. However, Harris had felt the Commission had slighted him in not furnishing him the details in the Commission's possession about the situation. Therefore, he assisted in the preparation of the "Tribune" article.

We have endeavored to interview every individual possessing information concerning the assassination. However, Altgens' identity was never revealed and he never voluntarily came forward to furnish any information. The information regarding the fact Altgens had never been interviewed either by the Bureau or the President's Commission, not only appeared in the "Tribune" article, but appeared in the "Chicago American" in a column captioned "Daly Diary" written by Maggie Daly. The Commission had prior interest in Jones Harris and with the submission of the results of the interview with Altgens completes this matter.

changing the meaning of Lane's comments. Lane claims that the comments on the records were made in his testimony before the President's Commission on March 4, 1964. The comments made in the records and in the text are a repetition of his previous claims about the innocence of Oswald and are based on speculation, omission of or lack of complete facts and early and confused press reports of the assassination. His comments also include his request to the Commission to be permitted to act as counsel for Oswald and to thus have the right to examine material in the Commission's possession and to cross-examine witnesses and present evidence. Commission also being furnished letterhead memorandum from Legat, London, re "Who Killed Kennedy Commission" established in England for Lane's support which is apparently spearheaded by the controversial British philosopher Bertrand Russell. Records being furnished the Commission have been produced under the recording label "Broadside Records" on which Bufiles negative. Records state they were produced with the cooperation of Folkways Records, New York City. Bufiles indicate Folkways Records were investigated by this Bureau 1955 - 1956 because of reported contact with the Czechoslovakian UN Delegation in 1955. Investigation closed 1956 when no evidence of subversive activities by Folkways Records, and its contact with the Czechoslovakian UN Delegation was of a legitimate business nature. It is noted that Folkways Records were reportedly manufacturing long-playing records for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee in 1962 consisting of Cuban revolutionary songs, although investigation indicated Folkways did not have any business connection concerning these records with the Cuban Government.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In accordance with your letter dated May 12, 1964, and pursuant to the informal request of Mr. Melvin Eisenberg of your staff on May 15, 1964, examinations were conducted on the C6, C7 and C33 cartridge cases and the C3 cartridge to determine if they had been loaded into and extracted from the C14 rifle more than once.

As a result of these examinations, numerous marks were found on these items of the type produced by the magazine follower, chamber, extractor or ejector of a weapon.

Marks were found on the C6 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least three times. One set of marks was identified as having been made by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. It is pointed out that the extractor and ejector marks on C6 as well as on C7, C8 and C33 did not possess sufficient characteristics for identifying the weapon which produced them. There are also three sets of marks on the base of this cartridge case which were not found on C7, C8, C33 or any of the numerous tests obtained from the C14 rifle. It was not possible to determine what produced these marks.

Marks were found on the C7 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least two times. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by contact with the lip of C14 follower. It was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks were identified were produced by one or two loading operations of the C14 rifle.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Two sets of marks were found on the C3 cartridge (found in the C14 rifle) which were identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. Another set of follower marks was found on C8. The fragmentary nature of this set of marks could possibly account for the fact that these marks were not identified with the C14 rifle.

Marks were found on the C33 cartridge case indicating that it had been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least twice. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of C14; however, it was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks which were identified were produced by one or two loading operations in the C14 rifle.

The results of the above examinations do not preclude the possibility that these items could have been loaded into and extracted from a weapon one or more times when insufficient force was used to produce marks. It is pointed out that if two or more cartridges are loaded into the clip of C14, only the bottom cartridge will be marked by the magazine follower.

TRANSLATION FROM PORTUGUESE

The communication consists of a large manila envelope, a newspaper magazine and a four-page handwritten letter.

The envelope is addressed to Governor John Connally, Dallas, Texas. It is marked: "Confidential," and bears the postmark of Belo Horizonte, Brazil, March 23, 1964. The return address reads:

Jose Hanier Ferreira
Av. Amazonas 307 - 19 andar, sala 1906
Belo Horizonte, Minas Gerais, Brazil

The newspaper magazine is called "Panfleto (Documento)" ("Pamphlet (Document)") and is a supplement to a publication which is called "The Guardian" (in English). It is dated March 9, 1964 and the pages are numbered 15 through 26. It bears the following headlines: "Lawyer Destroys FBI Evidence - Why Lee Oswald Did Not Kill Kennedy." A short introduction is provided in which Lawyer Mark Lane is presented. The rest of the publication is devoted to "Mark Lane's Defense."

This defense was carefully read by the sender of the communication to Governor Connally as is shown by the many markings, underlinings, etc. As a matter of fact, he added his comments in a few places.

The short introduction to "Mark Lane's Defense" ends with an urging to the readers "to study this document;" "to show it to as many people as possible," and "to send us your comments - any information or analysis... which can be of help to the Warren Commission... ". The writer added this comment:

> "I ask Lawyer Mark Lane and Chief Justice Earl Warren for permission to present my analysis in my capacity as an observing scientist for the purpose of dispelling the accursed veil which is tarnishing the great country of North America. The crime is a political crime and was premeditated. Belo Horizonte, March 27, 1964. Jose Hanier Ferreira."

On page 20, under a photograph captioned: "Policeman Carries Rifle Believed To Have Been Used To Kill President Kennedy," the sender wrote:

ENCLOSURE

ENCLOSURE

TRANSLATOR'S NOTE: FROM THIS POINT ON, THE WRITER'S LANGUAGE IS FAULTY AND HIS THOUGHTS ARE FREQUENTLY INCOMPLETE AND INCOHERENT.

"This, also and above all, covers up well for a member of the plot."

Under and around a photograph of Jack Ruby, the sender wrote:

"The biggest secret of the world rests with this man, Ruby. Only by a dismissal (?) of the trial and of Ruby will truth be discovered."

The four-page letter reads:

"In response to and to the attention of Lawyer Mark Lane and Justice Earl Warren, member of the Commission investigating the stupid death of President Kennedy, of fond memory. The lives of the members of your investigating commission are in serious jeopardy and I am positive in reporting this because the guilt or involvement in this plot is as strong as a hurricane. The fact of the matter is that Lee Oswald did not kill Kennedy, but his rifle was used...

"Lee Oswald was the bearer of a secret and it is regrettable that he was not surrounded by security measures until he told everything of interest to the U. S. A. and to the world. For this reason, the police had to silence him forever by tossing dirt and a shovelful of lime on the matter of Kennedy's death. Lee Oswald had no inkling that his life was in danger, not even when he was still at large. He was keeping the secrets that he had received from the members of the plot. It was a plot deserving trustworthiness and respect because it involved the cream of the Dallas society, including the famous FBI.

"Oswald did not know that he had been chosen as the scapegoat. The fact is that he had all damaging characteristics as a rebellious man of bad communist conduct who had used forged documents, in addition, of course, to the frame-up arranged by the police.

"The famous FBI was shaken by the terror of having favored Oswald when he was free. It feared that a line-up would be necessary on account of the various reports against him which followed the firing of the shots. No such line-up took place. After he killed the policeman, he knew that he would be executed and might have spilled everything about the plot. Also, Oswald was held in Dallas as a "persona non grata." Therefore, the plot was organized against him and Kennedy, both having to die on the same day. If Oswald had not been a person so well cast for the role of scapegoat, our friend Kennedy would still be alive. Very few people in Dallas knew that the plot would involve the death of the President. Even the members of the Police Force knew nothing, acting under superior orders, like orders transmitted to members of the guard detail or troops at rest. The policemen who escorted Oswald knew nothing about it; only that they were to try to deliver him to Ruby.

"As we have seen, various plans were premeditated, including killing Oswald right at the time of his arrest, calling it self-defense. As we have seen, he had no luck and, under a shovelful of lime, he cannot be questioned (?) as to his secret and the shot fired by Oswald was fatal.

"The patrolman's death and the imprisonment of Oswald alive were a fishbone stuck in the throat of the criminals who, as long as Oswald lived, had everything to lose because of this phrase: 'You wanted to kill the President and he was already dead.' All of this was an attempt to bring about his being set up for the shooting (?). Thus far, we have already seen various such premeditated attempts.

"The FBI was forced to lay hands on the second triumph (?) of premeditation: Ruby; a man who was judged a man easy to pass off as a maniac and an epileptic - the plot is so well organized, it even includes psychiatrists - Ruby would kill Oswald and pass for mentally deranged; would not be sentenced to death and even if he wanted to talk, he would not rate credence by the authorities who wanted to know the truth.

"When he was given a negative expert's report, another fishbone got stuck in the throat of President Kennedy's slayers; a fishbone even bigger than Ruby's life with his appeal to continue staying alive for a longer time.

"Only those who do not know the secrets of Kennedy's death do not want Ruby's execution. The criminals will be able to set him up for assassination the fastest possible, unless they manage to get him to a safe place before (?) he tells everything. That is why I am sending this outline - it is to avoid a lot of delay.

"Ruby was another scapegoat chosen to approach Oswald at the police station for the purpose of putting a hole through him with certain advantages as described by the press. For this reason, the FBI took the precaution of sounding out Oswald's mother by showing her Oswald's (sic) picture before he killed him since Ruby was acting together with her son.

"The police, knowing that Oswald had a wife, wanted him to take the shots; he refused, but was left with the secret, which then led to the double murder, against Kennedy and against him. Then, they ordered him to furnish the rifle, intimating that he would die one way or another and the shovelful of lime would be cast.

"The Governor and his wife are the only authorities in Dallas who knew nothing and still know nothing, also with respect to who is plotting (?) for Ruby's death penalty. They are innocent because the situation of the culprits drives them to kill as fast as they can to wrap things in silence.

"Those responsible for Kennedy's death are already sorry because all their plans for a perfect crime are failing and, moreover, they did not think that Kennedy's death would have so many repercussions abroad; even suicides by fans of his and the clamors of the chieftains of the communist conspiracy (?) who were certain that Kennedy would not take the country to war because he knew that modern war is useless.

"In short, he who killed Kennedy was the same who aimed the gun at Oswald claiming that the jail would not have him; the policeman who was carrying a rifle knew everything and was carrying the rifle to attract the human mass against Oswald in order to set him up because the radio was asking for it.

"The Chief of Police [illegible] because of his precaution to keep more than ten yards away from the Presidential limousine and because of his broadcasts on approaching the building but not to catch the police (?). The masterminds also strongly suspected that they would yet permit the Chief of Police and certain trustworthy members of the FBI to testify on behalf of the prosecution.

"So many calamities afflicted the criminals in their cover-up efforts that even Mark Lane's defense presents many gaps and confusion because a crime against the Chief Executive of the country, the most highly thought-of man in the world, in the full light of day, in the center of a big city - there still are people who claim that the shots came from the front of the limousine and that they did not take those witnesses because of a conspiracy - and, for example those where Oswald killed the patrolman? (sic)

"As an observing scientist, I do not find that the investigating commission is placing (?) its hand on the main culprit.

I remain,

Sincerely yours,

NOTE:

The Commission by letter 5-12-64, in addition to the above indicated investigation stated this was requested to "refute unfounded allegations" (presumably linking Tippit with Oswald and Ruby) which have developed since the assassination. Our inquiries have failed to develop any information linking Tippit with either of these individuals.

Malley was orally requested on 6-4-64 to furnish seven additional copies of material previously furnished the Commission with our letter dated 6-2-64, so that each member of the Commission could personally have a copy of this material for review and evaluation.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The President's Commission, by letter dated May 19, 1964, advised that Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, the housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, during the period that OSWALD resided there in October-November 1963, had stated that at about 1:00 P.M. on November 22, 1963, a Dallas Police car drove slowly by the front of the premises at 1026 North Beckley Street and honked the horn several times. Mrs. ROBERTS stated that the occupants of the car were not known to her, even though she did have some acquaintances on the Dallas Police force who called upon her at the above premises. She had previously stated that the Dallas Police car was number 207.

Mrs. ROBERTS, when interviewed on November 29, 1963, advised that she recalled the number of the police car as being 207 because she had worked for two policemen who drove squad car number 170, and she looked at the car to see if the two officers she knew were the ones occupying car 207. Results of this interview are reflected on page 356 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

CHARLES E. BATCHELOR, Assistant Chief of Police, Dallas Police Department, advised on May 27, 1964, that his department is divided primarily into three divisions; Uniformed Traffic Division, Uniformed Squad Patrol Division, and Investigative Division composed of plain-clothes detective personnel. He advised that, of this group, only the Traffic Division and Squad Patrol Division are uniformed and have occasion to operate numbered and marked police patrol cars.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BATCHELOR advised that on Friday, November 22, 1963, the entire Traffic Division was assigned the traffic control of the intended route of the Presidential motorcade from the Love Field area to the Trade Mart on Stemmons Expressway, and that a portion of the squad patrol was assigned to assist the Traffic Division in the protection of the President. He advised the remainder of the squad patrol was assigned regular patrol duties throughout the city, as is their usual assignment. He advised the only squad cars in service that day and not specifically assigned to the Presidential motorcade were the uniformed officers of the squad patrol.

BATCHELOR advised that on November 22, 1963, Platoon Number 2, under the command of Captain CHARLES E. TALBERT, was on duty on the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift, and that units of this platoon were the only marked units which would have occasion to be in the Oak Cliff area of Dallas. BATCHELOR explained that the city area within the Dallas City Limits is divisioned into seventy-six distinct districts to allow for population expansion; however, as many as two to three districts are frequently patrolled by one squad car.

BATCHELOR advised that the address 1026 North Beckley in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas falls within District Number 91 and that the Daily Detail Sheet for Platoon Number 2 on November 22, 1963, revealed the following cars and officers had been assigned on the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift in District Number 91 and all adjacent surrounding districts:

Officer W. D. MENTZEL, assigned Districts 91 and 92, Car Number 84;
H. M. ASHCRAFT, assigned Districts 93 and 94, Car Number 24;
O. H. LUDWIG, assigned Districts 108 and 109, Car Number 242;
Officer DAVID L. PATE, assigned Districts 24 and 25, Car Number 32.

BATCHELOR advised further that each group of squad cars is under the supervision of a Sergeant, who coordinates assignments of his units throughout the city. BATCHELOR advised that these officers might be more cognizant of the location of their cars at any particular time and that each of these officers frequently makes a log on the activities of his squad. BATCHELOR advised that Sergeant H. F. DAVIS was in charge of the "90" series cars during the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift, November 22, 1963, and that Sergeant W. G. JENNINGS was in charge of the "100" series cars during that period.

BATCHELOR advised that Squad Car Number 170 was not in operation in the City of Dallas during November 1963. He advised his records indicated Car Number 170 was a 1961 Ford four-door sedan, which was sold by his department in April 1963, and that the number "170" was not reassigned until February 1964, at which time the number was given to one of the new Ford squad cars purchased during that month. BATCHELOR advised his records further indicated that Patrolman J. M. VALENTINE was the sole occupant of Car Number 207 on November 22, 1963.

In an effort to determine whether or not any officers of his department were acquainted with any of the occupants of 1026 North Beckley, Oak Cliff, which would explain squad car officers blowing a horn at or near that address, Assistant Chief BATCHELOR checked all complaint calls for the year 1963 of complaints answered by officers of his department. BATCHELOR advised his records indicated that on February 14, 1963, Officer R. W. HIGH answered a "Drunk" complaint at 1026 North Beckley from 2:03 P.M. to 2:16 P.M. On July 28, 1963, Officer Q. M. NORMAN answered a call of "Disturbing the Peace" from 1:26 A.M. to 1:58 A.M. On September 23, 1963, Officer BOB E. CONNOR answered a call emanating from 1026 North Beckley with regard to "Auto Theft" from 5:47 P.M. to 6:15 P.M. Officer's report on this call indicated the call was in relation to a suspicious Renault automobile parked at the rear of the Gulf Service Station across the street from 1026 North Beckley.

BATCHELOR advised his records indicated that Officer R. W. HIGH had the day off on November 22, 1963, and that officers CONNOR and NORMAN were assigned to Platoon Number 3 and assigned to work the 3:00 P.M. to 11:00 P.M. shift on November 22, 1963, and, therefore, would not have been in the vicinity of 1026 North Beckley.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 27, 1964, Captain CHARLES E. TALBERT, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that he is the Platoon Commander for Platoon Number 2 and that his records reflect that on November 22, 1963, his platoon was on the day schedule from 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. TALBERT advised that, following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY at approximately 12:30 P.M. on that day, he took personal charge of all assignments of his platoon and all officers were told to report to him at the Texas School Book Depository, where he was making the individual assignments.

Captain TALBERT advised that, from a review of the Daily Detail Sheets reflecting district and car assignments of each officer on duty that day and comparing same with transcript from the dispatcher's records on that afternoon following the assassination of the President, he has been able to ascertain, with a reasonable degree of certainty, the area and assignments of each officer under his command. He advised that units from his platoon were the only marked and numbered squad cars in operation that afternoon, with the exception of three or four units, which had been specifically assigned to assist the Traffic Division in the protection of the President.

Captain TALBERT advised the following officers were on special assignment to the Traffic Division to aid in the protection of the President:

NAME	CAR
C. EDINGTON	75
F. S. WILLIAMS	119
A. R. BROCK	215
M. L. WISE	59

Captain TALBERT advised that the following officers were on special assignment at specified locations during this shift, and were required to remain at those posts throughout the day on November 22, 1963:

Captain TALBERT advised that Lieutenant W. R. FULGHUM was attending a traffic school at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, on November 22, 1963, and not available for assignment.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 27, 1964, HUGH F. DAVIS, Sergeant, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was the supervising sergeant assigned to Districts 80 and 90, of Platoon 2, which was working the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift that month.

Sergeant DAVIS advised he recalled at the time of the assassination call he was driving Unit Number 179, an unmarked car, and was dispatched thereafter to the Texas School Book Depository at Elm and Houston Streets, where he remained until 3:45 P.M. that afternoon.

Sergeant DAVIS advised that the course of his travels took him nowhere near 1026 North Beckley in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

On May 27, 1964, Sergeant WILLIAM G. JENNINGS, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to Car 168 to supervise the downtown area of Dallas on patrol, and that at the time of the assassination he had just left his residence at 3147 Casino Drive, in Oak Cliff, after having eaten lunch.

Sergeant JENNINGS advised that en route to town he drove down Hampton Road to Fort Worth Avenue and into town and was not, at any time, near 1026 North Beckley in Oak Cliff. He advised he was dispatched to the Texas School Book Depository where he was assigned to "shake down" passenger freight trains to the rear of the Depository. He advised he stayed there until approximately 4:00 P.M. that afternoon.

On May 28, 1964, Patrolman JIMMY M. VALENTINE, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to District 104 and was driving police car number 207. VALENTINE said he was patrolling the downtown area of Dallas and, shortly after noon, received a call on the radio to go to H. L. Green Department Store and pick up a fourteen-year-old shoplifter. VALENTINE said he did this and returned with the youth to the Juvenile Bureau of the Dallas Police Department. He said it was about 12:45 P.M. when he received word of the assassination. VALENTINE stated he left the Juvenile Bureau immediately and went to the Texas School Book Depository building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas. He said he parked his car at the curb, entered the Texas School Book Depository building, and was assigned to the fifth floor. He said he left the building when all of the officers were dismissed, which was around 4:00 or 4:30 P.M.

VALENTINE stated his car was not driven during the time he was in the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963. He further stated that it definitely was not in use at 1:00 P.M., and, further, that he did not drive to the Oak Cliff area on November 22, 1963, in which area is located 1026 North Beckley Street. VALENTINE also advised he was not acquainted with EARLENE ROBERTS or with anyone else at 1026 North Beckley Street.

On June 1, 1964, WILLIAM DUANE MENTZEL, Officer, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to patrol alone Districts 91 and 92 in Car 84.

Officer MENTZEL stated at approximately 12:30 P.M. he stopped for lunch at Luby's Cafeteria, 430 West Jefferson, Oak Cliff. He advised he tried on several occasions to call the station by telephone, but did not get through to the operator until about 1:00 P.M., at which time he was told the President had just been shot. He stated he left the remainder of his lunch and went into service by car radio, and was immediately dispatched to the 800 block of West Davis on an accident call, Code 7, where he remained about ten minutes handling that call. He advised he then traveled west on Davis to Tyler when he heard the call involving a shooting of a police officer in the 400 block of East 10th Street. He stated he was dispatched to the intersection of Beckley and Jefferson to look for a reported individual running away from that intersection, but was unable to locate the suspect. He stated that he, in company with other officers, entered the library at that intersection, and then was dispatched to the Texas Theatre, where the suspect was reportedly hiding.

Officer MENTZEL advised he did not go north on Beckley to Zangs Boulevard at any time on that day, and could not recall being within six or eight blocks of that location.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Officer MENTZEL advised he knows no one residing at 1026 North Beckley and would have no reason to stop at that address or to blow his automobile horn in passing.

On May 27, 1964, HOLLEY M. ASHCRAFT, Officer, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to Districts 93 and 94, Car 24, on the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift, and recalls that at the time the assassination call came over the radio he was located at the intersection of Fort Worth and Sylvan Avenues. He advised he was dispatched to Inwood Road and Stemmons Expressway to cut traffic. He advised that at about 1:00 P.M. he was dispatched to the Texas School Book Depository Building, and at about 1:45 P.M. was sent to the 300 block on East Jefferson to interview witnesses regarding the shooting of Officer J. D. TIPPIT.

ASHCRAFT advised that, en route to the East Jefferson address, he did not have occasion to pass 1026 North Beckley in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, and recalled that he was operating alone in Car 24 on that day.

On June 1, 1964, OWEN HERBERT LUDWIG, Officer, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned to Districts 108 and 109, which was his regular beat at that time, and drove Car 242. He stated he was, on that day, assigned to Platoon Number 2, which was working the 7:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. shift November 22, 1963, and he was further assigned on special assignment to guard ~~duty~~ at the front door of the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, because of the President's expected arrival in Dallas.

Officer LUDWIG stated that he patrolled his regular beat in Districts 108 and 109 until approximately 10:45 A.M., when he took up his special assignment duties at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel and continued in that capacity until about 6:00 P.M. the same evening. He advised he did not leave the hotel at any time, with the exception of one trip to Parkland Memorial Hospital, at approximately 1:00 P.M. that afternoon, to transport several plain-clothes agents whom he took to be either military or Secret Service men. He advised the entire trip took about twenty minutes and, upon returning to the hotel, remained there until 6:00 P.M.

Officer LUDWIG advised he does not know any of the residents of 1026 North Beckley in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, and did not pass that area at any time on the day of November 22, 1963.

On May 27, 1964, DAVID L. PATE, Officer, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that on November 22, 1963, he was assigned alone in Car 32 to patrol Districts 24 and 25. He advised at the time of the assassination he was on Denton Drive in North Dallas and was dispatched to the intersection of Stemmons Expressway and Inwood Road, where he was instructed to cut off all traffic and keep the intersection open for emergency vehicles. He advised he stayed at that location about ten to fifteen minutes, when he was dispatched to the Texas School Book Depository, where he remained until approximately 4:00 P.M.

Officer PATE advised he definitely did not pass the intersection of Beckley and Zangs Boulevard in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas at any time that day; did not drive by 1026 North Beckley Street; and, did not know EARLENE ROBERTS or anyone else at that address.

Discreet inquiry conducted at Capitol Arena by SA JOSHUA D. ENSOR on 5/28/64 established that BORIS MALENKO was to wrestle at Capitol Arena that evening; and that no photographs of MALENKO were available.

Through SA BERNARD E. BUSCHER contact was established with [redacted] who is associated with activities at the Arena and who stated he would make an effort to obtain a photograph from MALENKO. This source was re-contacted on 6/4/64, at which time he advised that he had been unsuccessful in obtaining photographs of MALENKO. He stated, however, that he knows that MALENKO wrestles in the State of New York and that, consequently, he must be appropriately licensed by the New York Athletic Commission. The source continued that photographs of wrestlers appear either on license applications or licenses and should be obtainable through the New York Athletic Commission.

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

RE: DR. HERMINIO PORTELL-VILA

It will be recalled that Dr. Herminio Portell-Vila, 4740 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D. C., advised on May 13, 1964 that he had received a coded message from an unknown source within Cuba which in his interpretation indicated to him that the files pertaining to Lee Harvey Oswald's relations in Moscow, Russia, with two Cuban Ambassadors there, were turned over to the Castro brothers on November 24, 1963, just two days after the assassination. The message was dated November 24, 1963, and he received same before the twelfth of December, 1963.

Around the time of its receipt, he gave the original of this part to Mrs. Mariada Arensberg of the Cuban Freedom Committee, 1737 H Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. He believed she passed it on to an unknown government agency, adding that he believed she had contacts in the State Department.

As will be recalled, Portell-Vila did not have a copy of this part of the message and reconstructed it partially from memory.

In an attempt to locate the original, Mrs. Mariada Arensberg, Executive Secretary of the Cuban Freedom Committee, 1737 H Street, N.W., was contacted. She advised on May 25, 1964 that she recalled a small scrap of paper given to her some time ago by Portell-Vila; that the contents of the paper were in Spanish; that apparently it was in a code known to Portell-Vila; that he told her that the message suggested that Oswald allegedly had contacts with Cuban Ambassadors in Moscow. She said she did not know the contents of the message and did not have a copy of it. She said she did not know Portell-Vila's source, nor did she have any information bearing on the source's reliability.

She said she gave the message in question to someone she knew and could not divulge the identity or association of this person. She then telephonically attempted to ascertain if this person still had the original message or what disposition had been made of it. She said she was unable to locate the person at that time, and upon inquiry by the person answering the phone she gave the latter the identity of the interviewing agent. She then advised that her contact would call the interviewing agent concerning this message.

On May 27, 1964, Mrs. Arensberg was telephonically advised that no information had been received from the person to whom she had given the document. Subsequently, on the same date, she said that she had phoned her contact, and was given the impression that the matter had been taken care of, that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been advised concerning the document in question.

She said that she was only able to say that she gave the document in question to a representative of a government agency.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated May 26, 1964, wherein at the bottom of page two you were advised that further inquiry was being conducted regarding a message received by Herminio Portell-Vila.

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum dated May 27, 1964, at Washington, D. C., containing further information about this message which Portell-Vila gave to Mrs. Mariada Arensberg. She, in turn, gave it to a representative of a government agency.

For your information, a representative of the Central Intelligence Agency has advised that the note or message was received by a Central Intelligence Agency officer from Mrs. Arensberg. The reference to "Osvaldo" which appeared in the message was interpreted by the Central Intelligence Agency as pertaining to Osvaldo Dorticos, President of Cuba, rather than to Lee Harvey Oswald. It was concluded by the Central Intelligence Agency that the message contained no information of significance and it was destroyed.

No further inquiries are being made concerning this matter.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: Portell-Vila said that he received the message from an unknown source of his within Cuba. In substance, it was, as understood by Portell-Vila, that file of relationship of Oswald with Cuban Ambassadors, Moscow, had been furnished to the Castro brothers. Portell-Vila read the message as referring to Lee Harvey Oswald, whereas, as indicated in the letter above, CIA understood it referred to Osvaldo Dorticos. The info from CIA was furnished to Liaison Agent Sam Papich by [redacted] CIA. Portell-Vila, Mrs. Arensberg and CIA have all furnished info about this matter and no further investigation is being conducted in the absence of a special inquiry from the Commission.

The enclosed memorandum in the first sentence of paragraph 2 refers to the "original of this part" of the message. The previous memorandum dated 5-15-64 and already sent to the Commission, indicated that only a part of the message referred to "Osvaldo" and it was this part which Portell-Vila gave to Arensberg and she gave it to CIA.

Special Agent in Charge

SA 105-2909

Referenced LHM under "Departures of October 3, 1963, of Non-Mexican Nationals Traveling on Forms FM-17" indicated that ARCADIO ESCAMILLA MARTINEZ, FM-17 No. 521647, described as a Mexican national, male, 39 years of age, occupation given as "employee"; proceeding from Monterrey to Mission, Texas, by auto.

The records of the San Antonio Office indicated that one TOMASA GARZA ESCAMILLA of Mission, Texas, was issued a Mexican Immigration Tourist Permit at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, in September of 1963. This individual's residence was shown to be a Mission, Texas.

On 3/19/64 TOMASA GARZA ESCAMILLA who resides with her husband, ARCADIO ESCAMILLA, in a house located on an alley between Fourth and Fifth Streets West of Conway Avenue, advised that on about 9/23/63 she and her husband travelled to Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, where she underwent medical treatment. They entered Mexico at Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, in a 1950 Ford pickup truck which belongs to her husband. She is a citizen of the United States but her husband is a citizen of Mexico who is residing in the United States as a resident alien. It was necessary for her to obtain a Mexican Tourist Permit but her husband did not need such a permit as he is still a Mexican citizen.

They went to Monterrey and also visited in Sabinas Hidalgo, Mexico. They were in Mexico for approximately four days before returning to their home in Mission. They returned to the United States through Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and Laredo, Texas.

Mrs. ESCAMILLA stated she did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD at any time in Mexico or elsewhere. She advised she had seen many pictures of OSWALD on television and the newspapers and would most certainly have recalled seeing him before had she done so.

On 3/19/64 ARCADIO ESCAMILLA also advised that he did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD in Mexico or elsewhere. He stated he too saw OSWALD's picture on television and in newspapers and would have recognized him had he ever seen him before.

At the time of the above interview, ESCAMILLA was not questioned as to the name of his mother which is occasionally used by Mexican people as the wrong surname nor was he questioned concerning any prior or subsequent trips into Mexico since the information contained in referenced Bureau letter and LHM was not then available.

On 5/29/64 Mr. PABLO CARDENAS, 313 West Fifth Street, Mission, Texas, advised he owns the house in which ARCADIO ESCAMILLA and his wife TOMASA GARZA ESCAMILLA reside. He stated the ESCAMILLAs have gone North to work for the summer and that he has no idea where they might be located. He pointed out, however, that ARCADIO ESCAMILLA habitually borrows money from the Great Western Finance Company at McAllen, Texas, and his address could possibly be obtained through that firm.

Mr. CARDENAS stated he did not know ESCAMILLA's full name.

On 5/29/64 [redacted] Great Western Finance Company, McAllen, Texas, advised that ARCADIO ESCAMILLA has an account with that firm and that he received a payment on ESCAMILLA's loan on 5/28/64. At that time ESCAMILLA gave his address as Route 1, care of J. MC CANN, Moorehead, Minnesota.

[redacted] stated his files indicate that ARCADIO ESCAMILLA's mother is ANASTACIA MARTINEZ, thus, according to Mexican custom, ESCAMILLA's full name would be ARCADIO ESCAMILLA MARTINEZ.

LEAD

MINNEAPOLIS

AT MOOREHEAD, MINNESOTA

Will locate ARCADIO ESCAMILLA, aka., Arcadio Escamilla Martinez, in care of J. MC CANN, Route 1, and interview him to determine if he is identical with the A. MARTINEZ manifested in seat 3 of a Transportes del Norte bus, ticket number 12619, on 10/2-3/63 traveling from Mexico City to Monterrey and thence to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

If determined that he is identical with the passenger on Transportes del Norte bus, again question him as to whether or not he recalls having seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD, although he had previously indicated that he had never seen OSWALD.

Memorandum

TO: Mr. Conrad

DATE: 6/2/64

FROM: R. H. Jevons

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63
DALLAS, TEXAS

On 5/12/64, Mr. J. Lee Rankin, General Counsel of the President's Commission, requested by letter that the cartridge cases C6, C7 and C38 recovered from the Texas School Book Depository be examined for loading, chambering, extraction and/or ejection marks. On 5/15/64, Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, staff member, orally requested that the aforementioned cartridge cases as well as the C8 cartridge found in the assassination weapon (C14) be examined to determine if they had been loaded into and extracted from the C14 rifle more than once. Mr. Eisenberg advised that this type of examination was actually meant in Rankin's letter of 5/12/64. As a result of the examinations conducted on these items in the Laboratory the following results were obtained and are set forth below:

Marks were found on the C6 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least three times. One set of marks was identified as having been made by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. It is pointed out that the extractor and ejector marks on C6 as well as on C7, C8 and C38 did not possess sufficient characteristics for identifying the weapon which produced them. There are also three sets of marks on the base of this cartridge case which were not found on C7, C8, C38 or any of the numerous tests obtained from the C14 rifle. It was not possible to determine what produced these marks.

Marks were found on the C7 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least twice. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by contact with the bolt of C14; however, it was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks which were identified were produced by one or two loading operations in the C14 rifle.

Memorandum to Mr. Conrad
Re: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY, 11/22/63
DALLAS, TEXAS
62-109060

Two sets of marks were found on the C8 cartridge (found in the C14 rifle) which were identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. Another set of follower marks was found on C8. The fragmentary nature of this set of marks could possibly account for the fact that these marks were not identified with the C14 rifle.

Marks were found on the C38 cartridge case indicating that it had been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least twice. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of C14; however, it was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks which were identified were produced by one or two loading operations in the C14 rifle.

The results of the above examinations do not preclude the possibility that these items could have been loaded into and extracted from a weapon one or more times when insufficient force was used to produce marks. It is pointed out that if two or more cartridges are loaded into the clip of C14, only the bottom cartridge will be marked by the magazine follower.

Dallas is being furnished the results of these examinations.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter to Mr. J. Lee Rankin be furnished to the Commission.

Records of INS, reviewed 4/8/64 and 4/13/64 by SA JEROME E. VEIGLE, contained the following information regarding ISAAC LEWIN:

The Office of Consulate General of the Republic of Poland, 149 East 67th Street, New York, N.Y., issued a "certificate," dated 12/1/42, stating that "On the basis of evidence on hand, the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland does hereby certify that ... IZAAK LEWIN, son of ARON LEWIN and DOBA, nee FRIEDMAN, was born January 14, 1906, in Wieliczka, Providence of Krakov, Poland.

"This certificate is being issued at the request of Doctor IZAAK LEWIN, a Rabbi, a Polish citizen residing at 307 West 106th Street, New York City, for immigration purposes, in lieu of an official copy of the original birth certificate, which, due to the present war situation, cannot be secured from Poland in an official way by this Consulate General."

IZAAK LEWIN arrived in the U.S. at Rouses Point, N.Y., on 2/25/43. He had been issued a Polish passport #42/II/27/41, by the Polish Embassy in Tokyo, Japan, on 2/19/41, valid until 2/19/44.

It is noted that this record contained a Department of State form entitled "Request for Confirmation of Naturalization," dated 2/28/61. This form reflects that HENRY J. CLAY, Esquire, Attorney, 55 Liberty Street, New York, N.Y., was the person making the request for ISAAC LEWIN, born 1/14/06 in Poland, and residing 258 Riverside Drive, New York, N.Y. The form reflected that the official title of the person or agency desiring this information was the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

The records of the Passport Office, USDS, reviewed by IC MAYNARD C. HOOVER, Jr., on 4/21/64, contained the following information regarding ISAAC LEWIN:

He was issued Passport #B123820 on 1/9/61. This passport restricted travel in Albania and those portions of China, Korea, and Viet-Nam under communist control. His date of birth was listed as 1/14/06 in Poland. He was to depart the U.S. from Idlewild, N.Y., on 1/13/61 via air for a two week stay in Israel to attend a congress.

This record indicates that he was last married 3/6/35 to PEPPY LEWIN, born in Poland 12/17/11. This marriage was not terminated.

LEWIN indicated that he traveled to Israel, South American, and Europe at different times during the years 1951-1958. From 1960-1963 he had traveled to Israel and some countries in Europe.

VEIGLE, contained correspondence from Dr. ISAAC LEWIN on stationery of the "Agudas Israel World Organization, the Union of Universally Organized Orthodox Jewry (World--Agudas of Orthodox Jews, Inc.) 2521 Broadway, New York, N.Y."

A State Department Memorandum of conversation, dated 4/23/63, between LEWIN and JOHN C. GUTHRIE, Director of the Soviet Desk, regarding treatment of Jews in the Soviet Union, reflects that Dr. LEWIN, Professor of Yeshiva University, called at his request. "He told the familiar stories of an attempt to improve the road of Jews in the Soviet Union, explaining unsuccessful contacts with members of the Soviet United Nations Mission, and the Soviet Embassy here. He explained that he had written to and sent some matzoths to a person purporting to be president of a Moscow Jewish religious congregation. He asked my advice as to whether he should pursue the correspondence with Mr. LIEB and while questioning the bona fides of Mr. LIEB, he told him he saw no harm in at least acknowledging receipt of the books."

Attached to the Memorandum was a copy of a letter addressed to "Dr. Is. Lewin, 258 Riverside Drive, New York, New York, USA." This letter was copied and is quoted as follows:

"March 14, 1963

"Dear Dr. ISAAC LEWIN,

"Received two packages from you. It was indeed a great surprise and pleasure to receive a real Jewish gift.

"It proves that you have a kind Jewish heart.

"Please accept our deep gratitude in my name and in the name of our holy congregation.

"Though, I must tell you that it was not necessary for you to put in so much effort and labor and spend so much money. Perhaps you were not correctly informed. All members of our congregation--all the religious Jews who wanted to have matzot--have it already in Moscow as well as in other towns.

"I write you in English as to my regret I do not know in what language to write you--in Yiddish or Hebrew.

"Once again--very grateful to you.

"I would like you very much to write me directly on my home address, then the letters will reach me quicker.

"Accept our congratulations with the coming great holiday Pesach, and I send you the best wishes and blessings in my name and in the name of our most honorable Rabbi."

SUBJECT: MARK LANE
SM - C

Re Paris letter 5-21-64.

According to an article appearing in the 5-29-64 issue of the New York Herald Tribune at Paris, France, subject in a press conference alleged on 5-28-64 that a man who witnessed the assassination of President KENNEDY was shot to death, but that the Dallas police made no mention of the murder. According to LANE, the murderer of the witness obtained an alibi from a striptease dancer employed by JACK RUBY. The dancer in question had committed suicide in her prison cell upon her arrest, according to the subject.

In a similar article appearing in the 5-29-64 issue of Le Figaro, a Paris daily newspaper, it was indicated that subject had been invited to speak by the French Association of Democratic Jurists and by the League for the Rights of Man. According to this article, LANE hinted that investigation should have been conducted in extreme rightist circles instead of dealing exclusively with leftist groups.

The article stated that several dozen progressive jurists, as well as correspondents from Communist and Communist-sympathizing newspapers, sympathetically applauded the lecturer. The article commented somewhat caustically that subject did not have to convince them since their minds were already made up, and quoted LANE as saying that he was pleased to note that he was listened to more attentively in Europe than in the United States.

French sources of this office have previously been alerted to our interest in the subject, and we will report promptly to the Bureau any information we may obtain from them relative to subject's recent visit.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On June 1, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, telephonically contacted the Fort Worth, Texas, Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, at which time she asked for a Special Agent by name, and stated she would like to have that Agent come by her residence on that date or the following day if he were in her neighborhood, as she wanted to show him a newspaper.

On June 1, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

Mrs. OSWALD had four newspaper advertisements from Neiman-Marcus Store cut out of different newspapers and she exhibited these to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as she believed they had something to do with the assassination.

The first newspaper advertisement was from the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" dated May 15, 1964. This advertisement was advertising an alarmobile. This was a small box whereby a person could set a string from the house to a swimming pool or any other place, and if any children hit the string the alarmobile would immediately set off a buzzer alarm. The alarmobile was advertised to sell for $9.95. The heading of this advertisement was "CASE FOR UNSEEN SLEUTH." This advertisement appeared on May 15, 1964, and Mrs. OSWALD said this was the date that the lawsuit involving MARINA OSWALD appeared in the Dallas newspapers. She believed that this advertisement and MARINA's lawsuit had some connection.

The next advertisement was in the "Dallas Morning News" on January 15, 1964, and was headlined, "CARR TELLS OF WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE THAT SET UP INQUIRY." This article took up nearly the entire page. In the lower right-hand corner was an advertisement of Neiman-Marcus advertising some boots. The advertisement had a picture of one boot. She believed that this advertisement had some connection with the article written by Mr. CARR, who is the Attorney General of Texas.

The next advertisement that she had cut out of the paper was from the "Dallas Morning News" for Thursday, April 30, 1964. This advertisement was titled "THE CONNECTING LINK" and had a picture of a pearl necklace and was advertising the pearl necklaces for $10.00, plus tax. Right under the words "CONNECTING LINK" was "SET UP FOR MOTHER". Mrs. OSWALD had also cut out another advertisement from the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" dated May 29, 1964, similar to the one above in that this advertisement was also advertising pearl necklaces. The heading over the picture of the pearl necklace was "THE CONNECTING LINK". It did not say anything about "SET UP FOR MOTHER". She believed that these two advertisements, being so much alike, had something to do with the assassination.

Mrs. OSWALD said that on Wednesday, May 20, 1964, at 12:40 P.M., Mr. FORREST V. SORRELS, Agent in Charge of the Secret Service in Dallas, came to her home, accompanied by some woman. Mr. SORRELS asked to come in and talk to Mrs. OSWALD. She told him that she was alone and that she never conducted interviews or saw anyone when she was alone in the house, and she refused to let him come in. SORRELS told her that the reason he was calling was that the President's Commission had lost their copies of Exhibit 202. He asked her if she had this exhibit or her copy and she said that she did, and that she kept all of her papers in a safe deposit box in the bank. He asked if they could obtain a copy of this 202 exhibit to complete the files of the President's Commission. SORRELS tried to ask her about some tape recording, but she cut him off and said she did not want to talk about the tape recording.

Mrs. OSWALD had been thinking of the matter of the President's Commission losing this 202 exhibit. She said that the President's Commission made three copies of all exhibits and she did not see how they could lose all three copies of this particular exhibit. She believed that Mr. SORRELS wanted this for some other person or else just wanted to get in the house and talk to her about something else. Mrs. OSWALD said that she would gladly furnish a copy directly to the Commission or would cooperate with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in giving the Commission a copy of Exhibit 202. She said that she would not furnish anything to the Secret Service.

She further related that she intends at some time in the future to locate and talk to Mr. JOHN FAIN, a former Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who is now in Houston, Texas, and is in the real estate business. She recalls that her son, LEE OSWALD, told her on one occasion that he had furnished information to Mr. FAIN during an interview in Fort Worth while Mr. FAIN was with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

On June 2, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE C. OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, telephonically contacted the Fort Worth, Texas, Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, at which time she advised that she had obtained some concrete information for the Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who had contacted her on June 1, 1964, and that "it happened at 2:00 A.M. this morning."

On June 2, 1964, Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, furnished the following oral information:

At exactly 11:45 P.M. on the night of June 1, 1964, Mrs. OSWALD advised that she received a long distance "crank call" from a person who identified himself as JOE STAFFORD, a representative of "Time" Magazine, New York City. This person stated he was calling from New York City.

Mrs. OSWALD advised that she made a tape recording of the conversation and insisted upon playing same for the Special Agents.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The voice on the tape recording appeared to be that of a male person, was incoherent at times, mumbled and was "thick tongued." The voice sounded much like a person under the influence of liquor.

At the beginning of the conversation, this person said that he had a thousand-dollar check for Mrs. OSWALD and asked her how she was getting along, and said that he wanted to do a "follow-up" story. The person then asked Mrs. OSWALD, "Aren't you proud of being born a Judas and being alive?" This person then said, "Why don't you kill yourself?" The person continued, saying, "He did it -- just the same as day is day and night is night, that is proof. What proof do you have that he is even your child? Isn't that proof enough? You know that he did it."

The person then stated that he had read a statement in "Life" and "Time" Magazines, "In which you said you are a big, important person. 'I am a very important person.' So was Judas important to history, so, Mrs. JUDAS, you are important to history."

The person then said that actually he did not work for "Time" Magazine.

Mrs. OSWALD advised that this call was to her telephone number PE 7-7677, and apparently was placed to her personally because the operator asked for Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD.

Mrs. OSWALD said, further, that there were no threats to her during the conversation, but that she wanted to identify and prosecute the person making the call for "disturbing my sleep in the middle of the night," and for general harassment towards her. Mrs. OSWALD said, further, that she would like to sue "Time" and "Life" Magazines and the person calling. She stated that she feels she should be able to sue "someone" because "everyone else sues for such small, trivial things and this matter is big -- it's history." Mrs. OSWALD stated that she knows that the President's Commission is vitally interested in "Time" and "Life" Magazines for what they have printed concerning this case in the past.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Commission now has evidence that on Friday or Saturday of September 27 or 28, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald had his photograph taken for use on an application for a visa at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. We believe that he must have gone to a photographic studio, under the circumstances an inexpensive one, some place in the vicinity of the Cuban Embassy. We would appreciate the Bureau's trying to locate this studio and, if possible, obtaining the negatives of the photographs taken of him or copies thereof.

Sincerely,

On 6/6/64, Plane Number 704 was said to have flown from Amarilla, Texas, to San Antonio, as Flight #167. Plane #704 then became Flight $110 originating at San Antonio, stopping at Austin, Texas,; Dallas, Texas; Washington, D.C. and ending at Newark, N.J. Reservation lists of passengers would have to be located at each of these cities as there is no through manifest. Previous routing of Plane #704 would have to be determined from "Ship Router" of Braniff in Dallas.

Newark is setting forth no lead to check reservations at these points inasmuch as indices checks of Dallas and other offices have already identified DON JANSON, S. MARTIN and/or Dallas reporter quoted in the letter. Newark conducting no further investigation.

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA, CUBA

Character:

Synopsis: Reverend and Mrs. CARL RAY JACKSON, 21 Edgemoor Drive, Newport News, Virginia, contacted at Reverend JACKSON's request. Both had been missionaries until recently with Trans-World Radio Mission in Tangier, Morocco. Reverend JACKSON stated that in early December, 1963, PAUL GILL, an Englishman who operated a radio repair shop on Rue Goya, Tangier, remarked to Reverend JACKSON that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in Tangier making films for Cuba. When Reverend JACKSON pressed GILL for further details, GILL refused to elaborate. Mrs. JACKSON advised that several days after assassination, Dr. GEORGE WALTER FRASER ANDERSON, 40 Marshan, Tangier, told her following: Mrs. ELLEN BUCKINGHAM, Old Mountain Road, Tangier, had told him she had known OSWALD in Tangier and referred to OSWALD as a "Tangier beatnik" and "dear Lee." Mrs. BUCKINGHAM also told Dr. ANDERSON that a married couple, described as a Russian woman and a Hindu man, with a daughter named TAMARA, had also been friendly with OSWALD in Tangier. Dr. ANDERSON did not specify when OSWALD was known to these people. Mrs. JACKSON claimed that Dr. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, North African Mission, English Hospital, Tangier, knows identity of this married couple. SHIRLEY RAE JACKSON, aged 15, daughter of the JACKSONs, on interview stated that when she first saw photograph of OSWALD appearing in American newspaper following assassination, she told her parents she had met OSWALD somewhere in Tangier; however, she was unable to recall where she saw him but was of opinion she possibly had spoken to OSWALD.

DETAILS:

On June 3, 1964, Reverend CARL RAY JACKSON, 21 Edgemoor Drive, Newport News, Virginia, telephonically contacted the Norfolk Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He stated that he and his wife had been missionaries in Tangier, Morocco, for a number of years and had recently returned to the United States. He advised that he and his wife had obtained information from various sources in Tangier to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in Tangier at one time. He stated that one source had indicated that OSWALD had been in Tangier making films for the Cuban Government. Reverend JACKSON requested that he be contacted in person by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Reverend CARL RAY JACKSON, 21 Edgemoor Drive, Newport News, Virginia, was contacted. He furnished the following information:

He stated that from August, 1955, until May, 1964, he and his wife ANN were missionaries with Trans-World Radio Mission, assigned to Tangier, Morocco. They served continuously on this assignment except during the period August, 1959, to September, 1960, when they and their children returned to the United States on furlough. Headquarters of the Mission is located at 354 Main Street, Chatham, New Jersey. He stated that his assignment was that of a Recording Technician and his wife assisted him.

From September, 1960, to 1962, he and his family resided at 42 Mohammed Tazi, Marshan, Tangier. From 1962 until the time of their departure in 1964, they resided on Old Mountain Road, Box BP-92, Tangier.

Both he and his wife are graduates of Tennessee Temple College, Chattanooga, Tennessee. He received a B.A. degree in Bible. He is an ordained minister in the Baptist Church. He was born July 20, 1928, in Evansville, Indiana. He and his wife have six children, ranging in age from 6 to 15. His permanent address is 710 South Beech Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, in care of his mother-in-law, Mrs. BERTHA ROBINSON.

He and his family arrived in Newport News, Virginia, on May 13, 1964. His residence in Newport News is only of a temporary nature, as he is seeking employment elsewhere.

Reverend JACKSON stated that following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, information had come to his attention from several sources indicating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in Tangier. He stated that although he had read much in the press about the life of OSWALD, he did not recall seeing anything about OSWALD's being in Tangier. He felt that possibly American investigating authorities may have known that OSWALD had been in Tangier but had not made the information public knowledge.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

After returning to the United States, he and his wife felt that, notwithstanding their assumption, they had better notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Reverend JACKSON recalled that an American newspaper received by them in Tangier a few days after the assassination contained a picture of OSWALD. Their 15-year-old daughter, SHIRLEY RAE JACKSON, observed the picture and commented that she had met OSWALD somewhere in Tangier, but she did not know exactly where or when.

Reverend JACKSON stated that in regard to his daughter's observation, he could not definitely state where she may have seen OSWALD but was of the opinion that if she had seen or met him, it would have been in the vicinity of the post office, which he described as a "beatnik" hangout, or in the vicinity of the Lycee Regnault, a French high school which his daughter attended.

A few days after the assassination, his wife told him their family doctor in Tangier, Dr. GEORGE WALTER FRASER ANDERSON, told her that a neighbor of the JACKSONs, Mrs. ELLEN BUCKINGHAM, had remarked to Dr. ANDERSON that she had known OSWALD in Tangier; further, that a man and wife who lived with Mrs. BUCKINGHAM had been friendly with OSWALD in Tangier. The married couple was described as a Russian woman and a Hindu man, names not recalled by Reverend JACKSON, who had a daughter named TAMARA. Dr. ANDERSON claimed that Mrs. BUCKINGHAM had referred to OSWALD as "dear Lee" and as a "Tangier beatnik."

Reverend JACKSON stated that Mrs. ELLEN BUCKINGHAM is the wife of WINTHROP BUCKINGHAM, who is the son of a wealthy man from Chicago, Illinois. Mrs. BUCKINGHAM lives on Old Mountain Road in Tangier and was a neighbor of the JACKSONs. She is in her early 50's and was known to have associated with the "beatnik" element in Tangier. Reverend JACKSON pointed out that in recent years, Tangier has become a haven for American "beatniks," who live in rather poor environmental surroundings.

Reverend JACKSON stated that he and his wife at no time discussed with Mrs. BUCKINGHAM or the other couple referred to by Dr. ANDERSON their alleged acquaintanceship with OSWALD.

Reverend JACKSON further stated that PAUL GILL, an Englishman, aged about 35, operated a radio repair shop on the Rue Goya, Tangier. He described GILL as an electronics expert and a smuggler. It was fairly common knowledge that GILL had had a boat confiscated in Portugal because of his smuggling activities.

In early December, 1963, Reverend JACKSON had contacted GILL to have certain repairs done on radio equipment. He asked GILL if GILL knew that OSWALD had been in Tangier. GILL replied that he had heard that OSWALD "has been out here in the countryside making films for Cuba." When Reverend JACKSON pressed him for further details, GILL changed the subject and refused to elaborate on his comments. GILL did not specify when OSWALD supposedly had been in Tangier.

Reverend JACKSON stated that he assumed from GILL's remark that possibly OSWALD was making some type of a propaganda film for Cuba. He emphasized, however, that this was only speculation on his part, and he had nothing to substantiate it.

D[illegible] 6/4/64

Mrs. ANN JACKSON, 21 Edgemoor Drive, Newport News, Virginia, furnished the following information:

She is married to Reverend CARL RAY JACKSON and she and her husband were missionaries in Tangier from August, 1955, until recently with the Trans-World Radio Mission. She stated that she and her husband were continuously assigned in Tangier except during the period August, 1959, to September, 1960, when they were in the United States on furlough.

She, her husband, and their six children arrived in Newport News on May 13, 1964. Their permanent address is 710 South Beech Street, Chattanooga, Tennessee, in care of her mother, Mrs. BERTHA ROBINSON.

She was born May 26, 1929, in Henderson, Kentucky, and was graduated from Tennessee Temple College, Chattanooga, with a B.A. degree in Music.

She recalled that a few days following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, they received an American newspaper in Tangier. Their 15-year-old daughter, SHIRLEY RAE JACKSON, viewed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspaper and SHIRLEY exclaimed that she had met OSWALD somewhere in Tangier, although she did not know where, when, or under what circumstances.

She stated that a few days after the assassination, Dr. GEORGE WALTER ANDERSON, the JACKSONs' family doctor, 40 Marshan, Tangier, told her that a neighbor of the JACKSONs, Mrs. ELLEN BUCKINGHAM, had told him that she was shocked to hear that OSWALD had assassinated President KENNEDY. Dr. ANDERSON related that Mrs. BUCKINGHAM referred to OSWALD as "dear Lee" and as a "Tangier beatnik." Mrs. BUCKINGHAM had told the doctor that she had known OSWALD in Tangier. Dr. ANDERSON also stated that Mrs. BUCKINGHAM advised that a married couple who lived with Mrs. BUCKINGHAM had been friendly with OSWALD in Tangier.

Mrs. JACKSON stated she could not recall the names of this married couple but described them as a

She further stated that Dr. WILLIAM CAMPBELL, of the North African Mission, English Hospital, Tangier, knows the identity of the above couple.

Mrs. JACKSON further stated that at no time did she or her husband talk with Mrs. BUCKINGHAM or the married couple concerning their alleged acquaintanceship with OSWALD.

Miss SHIRLEY RAE JACKSON, 21 Edgemoor Drive, Newport News, Virginia, was interviewed in the presence of her parents, Reverend and Mrs. CARL RAY JACKSON.

She stated that she is aged 15 and had formerly lived with her parents in Tangier, Morocco.

She stated that a few days following the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, she viewed an American newspaper in Tangier. The newspaper contained a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She carefully examined the photograph and then told her parents that she was certain she had met OSWALD somewhere in Tangier. She further stated that she had possibly spoken to OSWALD. She advised, however, that she was unable to recall exactly where she had seen OSWALD in Tangier and feels certain that she would not be able to recall any further details at a future date.

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend that the attached letter be sent to the Dallas Office. The Dallas Office is instructed to determine if Marina Oswald can identify the signature "A. J. Hidell" on a Fair Play for Cuba Committee card found in Oswald's wallet.

BACKGROUND

By letter dated 5/26/64, The President's Commission requested that the Hidell signature on the Fair Play for Cuba Committee card found in Oswald's wallet be compared with the handwriting of Marina Oswald. The Commission referred to FBI Exhibit D-24 but this was not sufficiently comparable for an adequate examination. On 5/27/64 Mr. Eisenberg at the Commission telephonically advised that certain Commission Exhibits, possibly containing Marina Oswald's handwriting, which were referred to in the Commission's 5/26/64 letter were not immediately available, were not necessarily comparable with the A. J. Hidell signature and he was perfectly agreeable to interview of Marina Oswald, if necessary to resolve this matter.

Since it is unlikely that the additional known writings of Marina Oswald would be sufficiently comparable with the Hidell signature for a positive identification, it is believed that the Dallas Office should interview Marina Oswald concerning this Hidell signature.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In his deposition of April 30, 1964, Mr. James C. Cadigan testified that the signature "A. Hidell" appearing on a Fair Play for Cuba Committee card found in Oswald's wallet did not appear to be in the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald.

There is some possibility that the signature is in the handwriting of Marina Oswald. Known samples of Marina's Russian handwriting include Commission Exhibits 110, 404A, 404B, 409A, and 410.

Could you please determine who wrote the signature.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of May 20, 1964, requesting this Bureau to conduct additional investigation regarding Marina Oswald's statement that shortly after April 10, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald expressed an interest in attacking Mr. Richard Nixon.

Our letter of June 4, 1964, and the enclosures thereto, reported that Mr. Lyndon B. Johnson, then Vice President of the United States, visited Dallas, Texas, on April 23, 1963, for the purpose of delivering the major address at the second Annual National Aeronautics and Space Administration Manned Space Flight Conference. We indicated that we were recontacting Marina Oswald to ascertain if she was possibly confused when she indicated on February 24, 1964, that approximately two weeks after the General Walker incident of April 10, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald contemplated attacking Mr. Nixon. We also indicated we would question Marina Oswald in detail to determine if there is any possibility Oswald meant to attack Mr. Johnson rather than Mr. Nixon.

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum dated June 9, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, which sets out results of our contact with Marina Oswald in this matter.

REC 41

This concludes our investigation in this particular inquiry.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

Marina Oswald informed us Lee Harvey Oswald admitted to her an attempted assassination of General Walker on the evening of April 10, 1963. Marina also told us on 2/24/64 that approximately two weeks after the Walker incident Oswald indicated he was going to attack Nixon, but she locked him in the bathroom to prevent him following through with such an attempt. Our investigation disclosed Nixon was not in Dallas during the period mentioned by Marina, but Mr. Johnson was in Dallas during the pertinent period. We recontacted Marina to determine if she was confused between Nixon and Johnson and she stated she is positive Oswald said "Nixon." Marina also told us she was very familiar with the name "Nixon" because of Nixon's visit to Russia when he was Vice President of the U. S. She added she had not gained any familiarity with the name of Mr. Johnson until after the assassination of President Kennedy.

Attached is a copy of the transcript of my testimony before the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. I have marked in red pencil the changes, primarily typos and misspellings, which we will call to the attention of Mr. Stern in accordance with his request.

On Page 6163 and 6164 the Commission suggested we change our Manual of Instructions to replace the word "and" to "or" in two places. The change is being made and will be sent out to the field early next week.

On Page 6193 Mr. Dulles mentioned the book "Who Killed Kennedy" by Thomas G. Buchanan. He said the Commission would make a copy available to us and he would like our comments. The Commission has not yet given the book to us and we will follow up on this on Monday, May 11.

Starting on Page 6202 Chairman Warren referred to an article in the "National Enquirer" by John Henshaw. This article was sent to us by the Commission for comment. We interviewed Chief Curry of the Dallas Police Department and he branded portions of the story as false and we have sent a letter to the Commission to that effect. We are analyzing the remainder of the article and will furnish our comments to the Commission.

Starting on Page 6143 there is a discussion of the Bureau file on Oswald up to the date of the assassination. The Commission decided that the Commission staff members would determine how many of the documents in this file the Commission already has and then would decide which, if any, of the remaining serials are necessary for the Commission. Mr. Stern of the Commission staff has advised he is working on this and will consult with us Monday, May 11.

For information.

SUBJECT: BOOK ENTITLED "WHO KILLED KENNEDY"

Memorandum dated May 9, 1964, from Mr. Belmont to Mr. Tolson referred to the book "Who Killed Kennedy" by Thomas G. Buchanan. The Commission indicated a copy of the book would be made available to the Bureau for the Bureau's comments.

Today, while at the President's Commission, Mr. Samuel Stern advised Malley that the only copy the Commission had of this book had been taken by the Commission Chairman, Chief Justice Earl Warren, and no other copies were available.

Malley was advised by Director of CIA John McCone and Dick Helms of CIA that CIA was attempting to get a number of copies of this book and would try and have them in the mail from Europe tonight. Mr. Helms stated upon receipt a copy of the book would be immediately made available to the Bureau.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to the request of the Commission for this Bureau to review the book "Who Killed Kennedy?," by Thomas G. Buchanan.

Attached are two copies of a memorandum dated June 3, 1964, at Washington, D. C., containing certain claims made by Buchanan on the assassination of President Kennedy that are not substantiated by the results of our inquiry. For your information, Buchanan presents no factual material which would contradict the results of our inquiry in the assassination matter or which would substantiate Buchanan's speculation that a conspiracy was involved in the assassination of President Kennedy.

Also, enclosed is a copy of the French version of Buchanan's book entitled "The Assassins of Kennedy." Copies of the English and French versions indicate that they contain the same allegations although the wordage varies in length. It is noted that the French version contains several photographs attributed to the French newspaper "L'Express," which carried the Buchanan articles previously furnished to you.

Background information concerning Buchanan from the files of this Bureau was furnished you by my letter dated March 17, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

"WHO KILLED KENNEDY?"
By Thomas G. Buchanan

CLAIMS AND RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION

1. CLAIM: The railway overpass toward which the President's motorcade was heading when the assassination shots were fired was left unguarded on November 22, 1963, "contrary to the most elementary security provisions." Page 81.

INVESTIGATION: Our inquiry shows that the railway overpass was guarded by a patrolman of the Dallas Police Department on November 22, 1963, at the time the President's motorcade approached that point. In addition, there were several individuals who were on the overpass at the time the President was killed. None of the above individuals has furnished any evidence that an assassin fired at the President from the overpass.

2. CLAIM: The doctors who attended President Kennedy at Parkland Memorial Hospital, Dallas, reportedly told reporters that the first shot struck the President in the throat from the front and that the second shot struck the right side of his head, apparently coming from behind the President's car. According to Buchanan, several weeks after the assassination doctors at Parkland Memorial Hospital, following a visit by Secret Service Agents showing them a document described as the autopsy report at Bethesda Naval Hospital, retracted their original statement concerning the nature of the throat wound. These doctors also stated that a new wound discovered at the autopsy had not been noticed in Dallas inasmuch as President Kennedy was lying on his back during efforts made to sustain his life and a back wound consequently would have been hidden from them. Pages 82-86.

INVESTIGATION: Doctors at Parkland Memorial Hospital did not retract previous statements made by them but did state that their efforts had been directed at keeping the President alive and not at performing an autopsy. The autopsy report prepared at the Bethesda Naval Hospital concludes that the throat wound was an exit-type wound and that all the bullets striking President Kennedy were fired from a point behind him.

3. CLAIM: Oswald was one of the worst shots in the Marines or for that matter in any other military service. Page 81.

INVESTIGATION: Buchanan himself has stated that Oswald was in the "sharpshooter" class in his shooting in the Marine Corps. In addition, Buchanan has admitted that the "sharpshooter" class is an intermediate class between "expert" on the top and "marksman" on the bottom.

4. CLAIM: The FBI denied reports that Oswald had been seen repeatedly driving a car into a Dallas rifle range for target practice. Page 91.

INVESTIGATION: The FBI has made no such public denial. However, our investigation has shown that Oswald was lacking in ability to drive a car.

5. CLAIM: The FBI in an off-the-record briefing denied that palmprints were found on the rifle associated with the assassination of President Kennedy. Page 93.

INVESTIGATION: The FBI made no such denial. As a matter of fact, the FBI Identification Division identified a latent impression taken by the Dallas Police Department from the barrel of the rifle as the right palmprint of Oswald. It is noted that Mark Lane, in the "National Guardian" of December 19, 1963, alleged that the FBI in off-the-record briefings had announced that "no palm prints were found on the rifle."

6. CLAIM: The paraffin test made of Oswald's hands and right cheek following his arrest by the Dallas Police Department showed a residue of gunpowder on his hands but none on his cheek. Therefore, according to Buchanan, the test proves that Oswald could not have fired a rifle inasmuch as the rifle would have deposited residue of gunpowder on his right cheek. Pages 93-96.

INVESTIGATION: The paraffin test has been found by the FBI Laboratory to be extremely unreliable and inconclusive as to whether or not a person has fired a weapon.

IRT

7. CLAIM: A photographer filmed the sixth-floor window of the Texas School Book Depository building at 12:30 the day of the assassination. This photograph shows two silhouettes in the stockroom and a clock on top of the building indicating the time as 12:30. Pages 96-97.

INVESTIGATION: Such a photograph is not known to the FBI. However, the FBI has a copy of a photographic print made from a movie film reportedly taken at the assassination scene. In the print an object appears in the window from which the assassination shots were fired. This photograph has been examined by the FBI Laboratory and the U.S. Navy Photographic Interpretation Center, Suitland, Maryland, and the conclusion was reached that the image seen in the window does not depict the form of a person or persons and is probably a stack of boxes later determined to have been in the room. No clock on top of the building appears in this photograph.

8. CLAIM: No employee who had access to the lunchroom at the Texas School Book Depository would have eaten his lunch on the sixth floor - "especially not Oswald, since it risked additional incrimination." However, an "outsider," hiding for a period of time prior to the assassination in the room on the sixth floor, would have required food. Pages 96-98.

INVESTIGATION: An employee of the Texas School Book Depository has advised that he ate lunch near the third double window on the southeast corner of the building on the sixth floor, sometime between 11:30 a.m. and 12 noon on November 22, 1963. The employee has stated that he left the remnants of his lunch, including bones of fried chicken, near the window after he had finished eating. He has also stated that he left the sixth floor a few minutes after noon to join two fellow employees who were eating their lunch on the fifth floor of the building. He has stated that he did not see Oswald or anyone else at the windows on the south side of the building during the time he was on the sixth floor for lunch.

9. CLAIM: Oswald would have had to have been "the fastest runner since the great Olympic title holder, Jesse Owens," to have fired the assassination shots, hidden the rifle on the sixth floor, descended to the second floor lunchroom, and obtained a soft drink from a dispensing machine before the building superintendent, Roy S. Truly, and a Dallas policeman confronted Oswald at the second floor lunchroom. Pages 98-100.

kao

INVESTIGATION: A survey was conducted by FBI Agents to determine the time taken by various routes and speeds to follow Oswald's actions immediately after the assassination shots. It is noted that the survey was conducted at a fast walk except in areas where an individual would have walked at a normal pace so as not to arouse suspicion. The survey showed that, walking from the window on the sixth floor via stairways, it would have taken Oswald about one minute and forty-five seconds to reach the front door of the Texas School Book Depository. The longest period of time to make the same journey, allowing 30 seconds in the lunchroom and involving the use of a passenger elevator for part of the descent to the second floor, was found to be three minutes and forty-nine seconds. It is noted that Truly has advised that he and the police officer arrived at the lunchroom on the second floor of the building in about two or three minutes after the assassination took place.

10. CLAIM: The assassin who fired at President Kennedy from the railway overpass fled the scene and left the murder weapon on that bridge behind him. Page 107.

INVESTIGATION: Our investigation has failed to develop any indication that a second rifle used in the assassination was found near the railway overpass and that a second assassin was involved in the killing of President Kennedy.

11. CLAIM: The name of the rifle used in the assassination appeared on the rifle. Page 108.

INVESTIGATION: Examination of the rifle used in the assassination does not reveal the name of the manufacturer of the weapon. However, it is noted that there is an inscription thereon that the rifle was made in Italy.

12. CLAIM: The Post Office Box in Dallas to which Oswald had the rifle mailed was kept under both his name and that of "A. Hidell." Page 111.

INVESTIGATION: Our investigation has revealed that Oswald did not indicate on his application that others, including an "A. Hidell," would receive mail through the box in question, which was Post Office Box 2915 in Dallas. This box was obtained by Oswald on October 9, 1962, and relinquished by him on May 14, 1963.

HMK

13. CLAIM: A detailed and "remarkably correct description" of Oswald was sent out over the police radio in Dallas at 12:36 p.m., November 22, 1963. Pages 114-116.

INVESTIGATION: The radio logs of the Dallas Police Department and the Dallas County Sheriff's Office show that no description of Oswald or any suspect in the assassination was broadcast at 12:36 p.m., November 22, 1963. Beginning at 12:43 p.m. and 12:49 p.m., respectively, and continuing until Oswald was taken into custody, the Dallas Police Department and the Dallas County Sheriff's Office broadcast descriptions of an unnamed suspect described as a slender white male, 30 years old, five feet ten inches tall, 155 or 165 pounds, who was possibly carrying a rifle. This suspect was reportedly seen running from the Texas School Book Depository after the assassination. A description of Oswald taken from background information and the autopsy report on him indicates he was 24 years old, five feet nine inches tall, weighed an estimated 150 pounds and had brown hair and blue-gray eyes. Although the descriptions broadcast approximated Oswald's height and weight, those descriptions were not accurate as to his age and lacked specific details regarding the colors of his hair and eyes. No broadcasts were made before Oswald's arrest that named Oswald as a suspect or gave a description of him. It is also noted that inquiry has shown that Oswald did not become a suspect until he was reported missing from the book building at approximately 12:50 p.m.

14. CLAIM: Police knew Oswald's boardinghouse address, 1026 North Beckley Street. The sources of his address were the records of the Texas School Book Depository, the "Red Squad" of the Dallas Police Department, and the FBI, which had been given that address by Mrs. Ruth Paine, with whom Oswald's wife was living at the time. Page 119.

INVESTIGATION: The records of the Texas School Book Depository did not show his address as 1026 North Beckley Street, but did contain Mrs. Paine's residence in Irving, Texas, as his address. The Dallas Police Department has denied that it had any record of Oswald prior to the time of the assassination. Also, Mrs. Paine had not advised the FBI of Oswald's boardinghouse address prior to the assassination.

15. CLAIM: Dallas Police Officer J. D. Tippit was not in favor with his superiors in the Dallas Police Department and had gone ten years without a promotion. Page 120.

INVESTIGATION: A copy of the Dallas Police Department file on Police Officer J. D. Tippit furnished by that Department has been reviewed by this Bureau. While the file shows that disciplinary action was taken against Tippit on several occasions, it contains no information that he was "out of favor." The file, however, shows that Tippit had received several commendations for his performance of duty both from civilian sources and from the Dallas Police Department. Superiors and associates have advised that he was an average officer who was well liked and was not overly ambitious. Several associates have stated that Tippit had taken promotional examinations but they had no information as to the results. A review of the file fails to disclose any reference to promotional examinations offered or taken by Tippit. While he was not promoted to a grade higher than patrolman, Tippit did receive so-called "service" raises in salary on a periodic basis.

16. CLAIM: Police Officer Tippit, Jack Ruby and Oswald all lived within a few blocks of each other. Page 121.

INVESTIGATION: A survey by the Dallas Office of this Bureau has indicated that by the most direct routes available, Tippit's residence was seven miles from Ruby's residence and from Oswald's boardinghouse and that the distance between Ruby's residence and Oswald's boardinghouse was one and three-tenths miles.

17. CLAIM: Jack Ruby and Dallas Police Officer Tippit were described by Ruby's sister, Mrs. Eva Grant, to reporters as "like two brothers." Page 121.

INVESTIGATION: Mrs. Grant has stated that at no time before or after the assassination has she made such a statement to any reporter or group of reporters. She has also advised that she would not make such a statement under any circumstances, since it would be completely untrue and without foundation.

18. CLAIM: There are standing orders for police in Dallas as in other cities that radio cars of the type Tippit was driving must have two policemen in them. Page 121.

INVESTIGATION: It is true that Tippit was alone in his police car; however, it has been determined from officials of the Dallas Police Department that their policy requires about 80 percent of the patrolmen working the day shift, 7 a.m. to 3 p.m., as Tippit was on the day of the assassination, to work alone and that Tippit was one of the patrolmen assigned to work alone on that day.

HRT

19. CLAIM: Tippit was violating another order not to drive out of the sector of the city to which he had been assigned. Tippit was meant to be in downtown Dallas at the time he intercepted Oswald, shortly after Oswald had left his boardinghouse at 1026 North Beckley Street. Page 122.

INVESTIGATION: A review of Tippit's file in the Dallas Police Department and the radio log of that Department does not show that Tippit should have been in downtown Dallas at the time he confronted Oswald. The radio log shows that at 12:54 p.m. he advised the police radio dispatcher he was in the Oak Cliff area and that he was told to remain available for any emergency coming in. The Dallas Police file on Tippit shows that Tippit was moved from his regular area to cover an area closer to the assassination scene.

20. CLAIM: There are witnesses - "anonymous, it seems" - who saw Oswald run into a vacant lot, eject the spent shells from his revolver after shooting, and reload that revolver. Page 126.

INVESTIGATION: Our inquiry has developed witnesses and these witnesses, not anonymous as claimed by Buchanan, have advised that they saw Oswald apparently trying to unload his revolver near the location where Tippit was shot.

21. CLAIM: Oswald was arrested in the Texas Theater at 1:36 p.m. on November 22, 1963. Page 126.

INVESTIGATION: The radio log of the Dallas Police Department shows that Oswald was reported in the Texas Theater at 1:45 p.m., by a squad car. The same radio log shows that shortly after 1:51 p.m., the radio dispatcher received a report of the arrest of Oswald. The radio log of the Dallas County Sheriff's Office shows that at 1:53 p.m., the report was given that Oswald had been taken into custody.

22. CLAIM: The Dallas Police officers who arrested Oswald "beat him up" after they had disarmed him. Page 126.

INVESTIGATION: A Special Agent of this Bureau on the scene at the time of the arrest of Oswald has advised that Oswald was not mistreated and that no force was used to subdue him other than that necessary to overcome his armed resistance.

HRT

23. CLAIM: Oswald was first questioned "exclusively about the Tippit murder." Police, as long as they were able to maintain the prisoner in isolation, permitted him to think that he was just a suspect in that murder. Page 127.

INVESTIGATION: Special Agents of this Bureau were present during the early hours of questioning of Oswald at Dallas Police Headquarters, at which time Oswald vigorously denied having shot President Kennedy and Tippit.

24. CLAIM: Oswald insisted on his right to see a lawyer, making this demand before reporters, yet for two days of "persistent questioning" this right was "relentlessly denied him." Page 127.

INVESTIGATION: Oswald was advised following his arrest of his right to counsel by both a Dallas police officer and by FBI Agents present during the early interrogation of Oswald. Oswald, when arraigned at about 7 p.m., November 22, 1963, was advised by Justice of the Peace David Johnston of his right to an attorney's services. Late that night representatives of the Dallas Civil Liberties Union went to the Dallas Police Department and later departed satisfied that Oswald had been advised of this right. There is no indication Oswald made any attempt to contact an attorney on November 22, 1963. Again on November 23, 1963, Oswald was advised by a Dallas police official of his right to have an attorney. At that time Oswald indicated he wished to call attorney John J. Abt of New York City. He was taken from his cell on three separate occasions on that date to place collect calls via public telephones in the Dallas Police Headquarters, but on each occasion he was unable to make contact with Abt in New York City. Abt is an attorney who has represented the Communist Party, USA, in its litigation on several occasions with the Government of the U. S.

25. CLAIM: The Texas School Book Depository is owned and operated by the city government of Dallas and, therefore, Oswald was a municipal employee. Pages 131, 143, 151 and 155.

INVESTIGATION: The Texas School Book Depository is not a government agency of any municipality, county, state or Federal jurisdiction. It is a private concern which receives and distributes books to its various customers, including educational institutions. Therefore, Oswald, in his employment at the Texas School Book Depository, was not a municipal employee.

HRT

26. CLAIM: Among the papers found on Oswald by the Dallas Police Department was the name of Joseph Hosty of the Dallas Office of the FBI. In addition, information on papers found on Oswald recorded Hosty's home telephone number, office telephone number and car license number. This information appeared in the "Houston Post" and the source was reported to be Assistant District Attorney William Alexander. Page 149.

INVESTIGATION: The Hosty referred to by Buchanan is undoubtedly Special Agent James P. Hosty, Jr., of our Dallas Office. Oswald's address directory, which was found by the Dallas Police Department in Oswald's boardinghouse room, did not contain Special Agent Hosty's home telephone number. The directory did contain, however, his correct name, the telephone number and street address of the Dallas FBI Office, and the entry "MU 8605" or "MV 8605." Special Agent Hosty gave his name and the Dallas Office telephone number and street address to Mrs. Ruth Paine in contacting her on November 1, 1963, regarding Oswald's residence. Mrs. Paine has stated that she gave that data to Oswald. Marina Oswald has stated that she recorded Special Agent Hosty's license number on an occasion when he was at the Paine residence and gave it to Oswald. The 1962 license number of the automobile assigned to Special Agent Hosty on November 1, 1963, was MU 8605.

27. CLAIM: The "Philadelphia Inquirer" of December 8, 1963, contained an article stating that Hosty had seen Oswald shortly after he had left New Orleans in September, 1963. Page 149.

INVESTIGATION: Special Agent Hosty has furnished an affidavit stating that at no time prior to the assassination of President Kennedy had he ever seen or talked to Oswald. In addition, Hosty stated that he had never made any attempt to develop him as an informant or source of information.

28. CLAIM: Oswald was a double agent. Page 149.

INVESTIGATION: The Director of the FBI, John Edgar Hoover, has furnished the Commission with an affidavit categorically denying that Oswald was ever an informant of the FBI, was ever assigned a symbol number in that capacity, and was ever paid any amount of money by the FBI in any regard. It is noted that the Central Intelligence Agency has denied that Oswald was ever associated with it in any capacity.

29. CLAIM: The Walter-McCarran Act specifically calls for anyone who has attempted to renounce his U.S. citizenship to file an affidavit stating why he believes he should receive a U.S. passport. Page 151.

kao

INVESTIGATION: The Internal Security Act of 1950 (Walter-McCarran Act) contains no reference to an affidavit required by a U.S. citizen who has attempted to expatriate himself.

30. CLAIM: It appears that the FBI knew Oswald possessed the alleged assassination rifle prior to the assassination of President Kennedy because it would seem unlikely that within one day the FBI could trace the rifle as coming from a mail order house in Chicago. Page 153.

INVESTIGATION: The FBI had no knowledge that Oswald possessed the assassination rifle prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. The tracing of the rifle purchased by Oswald under an assumed name from the mail order house in Chicago was completed by the FBI on November 23, 1963, regardless of Buchanan's claim.

31. CLAIM: Oswald's rifle was not taken away from him even though on April 10, 1963, there was good reason to suspect he had already used it to attempt to kill General Edwin A. Walker. Page 153.

INVESTIGATION: The FBI did not investigate the attempted assassination of General Walker on April 10, 1963, and had no reason to regard Oswald as a suspect in that attempted murder until December 3, 1963, when Marina Oswald furnished information that Oswald had, on the night in question, attempted to kill General Walker. The Dallas Police Department has also indicated that it had no record of Oswald prior to the assassination and had never developed or considered Oswald as a suspect in the attempted shooting of General Walker.

32. CLAIM: It can be inferred from the fact that General Walker's name and telephone number were in Oswald's notebook that Oswald and General Walker were known to each other. Page 154.

INVESTIGATION: Our investigation has developed no indication that Oswald and General Walker were known to each other. General Walker has been publicly quoted as saying he did not know anything about Oswald until Oswald was arrested for the assassination of the President.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
NOVEMBER 22, 1963 DALLAS, TEXAS
MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING

PURPOSE

To advise you our Phoenix Office obtained a copy of a letter written by Thomas Lloyd Thomson presently incarcerated in Phoenix, to the editor of "Life" magazine. This letter in part agrees with recent scurrilous editorial in "Life" criticizing the Director and accuses the FBI and Secret Service of being responsible for President Kennedy's death. Thomson also restates an allegation concerning the assassination which has been previously found to be false.

DETAILS

Phoenix by airtel 6-1-64, transmitted a copy of a letter dated 5-27-64, to the editor of "Life" magazine written by Thomas Lloyd Thomson an inmate of the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office, Phoenix, Arizona, which was furnished by an employee of the sheriff's office.

Thomson's letter states he agrees with the scurrilous editorial recently printed in "Life" and feels the FBI and Secret Service are responsible for President Kennedy's death. He alleges while employed in Fort Worth, Texas, he was told of an ex-Marine who had spent a couple of years in Russia and that he advised the FBI of this information. Thomson claims his complaint was treated lightly although he was later interviewed by the Secret Service based on his complaint to the FBI. He also criticized the Secret Service Agent who interviewed him.

Thomson blames the FBI for not surveilling Oswald since he "personally" informed the FBI of Oswald's existence. This is a misrepresentation of the true facts as he never mentioned Oswald's name to us until 3-25-64, as explained later in this memorandum. He concluded by telling the editor of "Life" he thinks "J. Edgar Hoover should be forced to retire...."

Phoenix by teletype 11-23-63, advised Thomson on 11-22-63 [illegible] overheard, about six months previously, James Thomas and Floyd Thomson (phonetic) state they would like to kill President Kennedy. No mention of Oswald was made at this time. This information was furnished to Secret Service on 11-23-63, (62-109060-869).

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
RE: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Investigation of Thomson's previous allegation appears in the 1200 page Dallas report of SA Robert P. Gemberling which is being reviewed before dissemination to the President's Commission and Secret Service.

This investigation discloses Thomson was interviewed by our Phoenix Office on 3-25-64, at the Maricopa County Jail where he had been incarcerated since his local arrest on 11-22-63 for; drunk and disorderly; hit and run; driving while intoxicated; failure to yield; malicious mischief; suspended license and assault with a deadly weapon. Thomson stated he was sorry he had used Rasmussen's name on 11-22-63, as Rasmussen never indicated he would like to kill President Kennedy. For the first time he advised us Thomas may have indicated knowledge of Oswald, however, he was not sure in view of the passage of time and might actually have heard Oswald's name on radio or television. He stated he did not furnish this information initially because he was intoxicated and the only reason he was reporting it now was that he had written to a Phoenix newspaper reporter that his friend knew Oswald and wanted to be able to tell the reporter he gave this information to the FBI.

Thomson's arrest record indicates after an automobile accident he threatened the other driver with a revolver and later fired two shots into the library of the John Birch Society. After arrest he was reported to be very despondent, wild and stated he would kill every John Birch member and every "goddamned Phoenix cop." He is suspected of being mentally unstable.

OBSERVATIONS

Thomson appears to be a mental case. His only purpose in writing to "Life" at this time appears to be another of his efforts to seek publicity, and obscure his current difficulties relying on the fact this "rag" has a warped editorial policy and prints biased, unfounded information.

ACTION

This current information on Thomson will be appropriately reported by Dallas and disseminated to the President's Commission and Secret Service.

Before dissemination can be made of your letterhead memorandum the following clarification is necessary:

On page 5, paragraph 2, it is indicated Lt. W. R. Fulghum was given a "Special Assignment School." It is not known if this refers to the Texas School Book Depository Building or some other educational institution. Advise and if amended page necessary, submit same.

On page 9, it is indicated Sergeant H. F. Davis was assigned to districts 80 and 90. However, no car assignment is shown. Based on other information in your letterhead memorandum, it would appear he was in car 179 as shown on page 11. Advise and if amended page necessary submit same.

On page 10, it is indicated W. D. Mentzel was assigned to district 91 and car 84. However, on page 2 it is indicated Mentzel was assigned to districts 91 and 92. This is inconsistent and should be changed. If necessary, amended pages should be submitted.

On page 11, paragraph 1, it would appear that Sergeant Hugh F. Davis was participating in a general assignment. However, on page 3, line 4, it is indicated Davis was in charge of the "90" series. Inasmuch as your write up of Sergeant W. G. Jennings on page 11 discloses his supervisory capacity, this matter should be appropriately clarified with regard to Davis. If Davis was, in fact, acting in a supervisory capacity similar comment should be incorporated in his interview as set out on page 11.

In the interview of Patrolman Jimmy M. Valentine on pages 11 and 12 as well as in the interview of Officer David L. Pate shown on page 14, it is not shown they were questioned concerning whether they knew any of the residents at 1026 North Beckley. It would appear this particular question has significance to the Commission's request and, therefore, if not already done, should be asked of these officers and appropriate pages submitted, amending LHM.

Some other minor corrections are being made to your letterhead memorandum before dissemination. You will be advised of these changes separately.

The above necessary action should be promptly taken and amended pages promptly furnished to the Bureau so this matter can be disseminated to the Commission.

NOTE:

Commission by letter 5-19-64 advised Roberts, the housekeeper at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, where Oswald resided at the time of the assassination, had reported that at about 1:00 p.m., on 11-22-63, Dallas Police car Number 207 drove slowly by the front of her premises and honked the horn several times. The Dallas Police Department indicated that car 207 was not in the vicinity at this time. The Commission requests appropriate investigation to determine if any Dallas police cars were in the vicinity of the premises between the hours of 12:00 noon and 2:00 p.m., on 11-22-63.

When this matter is completed, the Commission will be immediately notified.

It is suggested the following paragraphs be added to the letterhead memorandum submitted by Dallas in this connection under date of 6/6/64:

QUOTE:

Marina Oswald, 629 Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas, advised on June 8, 1964, to the best of her recollection the words used by Oswald on this occasion were "Nixon is coming and I'm going to take a look." She is positive Oswald said "Nixon." She said she was very familiar with the word "Nixon" and was not familiar at all with the word "Johnson." She pointed out Richard Nixon was well known in Russia and had been even prior to 1960. She said she can recall being familiar with the name Richard Nixon as far back as the famous "kitchen debate" between Nixon and Khrushchev. She said also she can recall seeing news pictures of Nixon with President Eisenhower. She said she can recall seeing Nixon's picture in newsreels in movie theatres in Leningrad and Minsk, Russia. She was well aware of the importance of Richard Nixon prior to the time she met Lee Harvey Oswald.

She pointed out she had not gained any familiarity with the name of President Johnson until after the assassination of President Kennedy.

Reverend and Mrs. Carl Ray Jackson have just returned from Tangier where they worked as missionaries of a radiotist mission. They and their 15-year-old daughter have advised that several people in Tangier mentioned that Lee Harvey Oswald had been there. They furnished the names and addresses of several people in Tangier who gave them this information. The 15-year-old daughter advised that upon seeing a photograph of Oswald in an American newspaper, several days after the assassination, she recognized Oswald as a person she had met in Tangier and told her parents of this. However, she was unable to recall the details of her seeing Oswald. This is the first allegation we have received that Oswald was seen in Tangier, Morocco. It is believed CIA should check out this allegation. The people named by Reverend and Mrs. Jackson as having indicated Oswald had been in Tangier all live there.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

Synopsis:

RICHARD ALLEN CYR, Needham, Mass., was Marine Corps associate of LEE HARVEY OSWALD at Atsugi, Japan during 1957-1958. CYR recalled minor incident in Marine Corps barracks at Atsugi, Japan when OSWALD accidentally shot himself in the arm and was hospitalized. He was not friendly with OSWALD and knew nothing of his character, associates or habits.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

RICHARD ALLEN CYR, born October 25, 1938, 10 Riverside Street, Needham, Massachusetts, employed as a patrolman by the Needham, Massachusetts Police Department, furnished the following information:

He enlisted in the U.S. Marines November 28, 1955 and was honorably discharged from active duty November 27, 1958. He was then placed in an inactive reserve status, finally receiving an Honorable Discharge November 27, 1961. He was assigned Serial #1580856.

He was assigned at the Atsugi Naval Air Base, Atsugi, Japan from approximately November 7, 1956 to about February, 1958 when he was returned to the United States.

In about November, 1957, he first learned that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been assigned to his squadron at Atsugi. This was a Marine Air Control Squadron known as Macs 1, consisting of about 117 men.

CYR's duties were radar and radio operator and OSWALD was assigned to maintenance of electronic equipment as near as he could recall. They were not on the same crew and had no contact on the job.

CYR does not recall how he first came to know OSWALD was in the Squadron and knew him only as another Marine. OSWALD moved into the same barracks as CYR, when he arrived at Atsugi and occupied quarters in a cubicle located about 30-40 feet from CYR on the first floor of the barracks. There were about 25 or 30 Marines located in the area of the barracks between CYR and OSWALD and CYR had no direct association with OSWALD.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

CYR recalled an incident which occurred about two months after OSWALD's arrival when, one evening after dark, CYR heard a noise in the barracks, which sounded like a "rifle going off". CYR and other Marines in the barracks walked in the direction of the noise and found that it had come from OSWALD's area. When he, CYR, arrived, several other Marines, unknown to CYR, were already there and OSWALD was sitting on his locker. CYR recalled that OSWALD said something like, "It seems as though I have shot myself." CYR recalled seeing a small amount of blood on the floor near OSWALD and a little blood on one of OSWALD's arms. The injury did not appear serious to CYR and someone had already called a hospital corpsman and OSWALD was taken to sick bay.

CYR did not recall seeing any gun at the time of the incident, but said he understood that someone who had gone to the scene had supposedly picked up a gun from OSWALD's area. This was said to be a .22 caliber, nickel-plated Derringer revolver. There was some talk around the barracks that OSWALD had been loading this gun when it had fallen to the floor and accidentally discharged. CYR stated he did not know whether this gun belonged to OSWALD or how it came into his possession.

CYR stated that this incident was of such a minor nature that nobody thought much about it and that he does not recall any further conversation concerning it.

CYR stated that following this incident, OSWALD never returned to the barracks, but that he did see OSWALD again aboard the LST "CAYUGA COUNTY" when the squadron was on maneuvers en route to the island of Ie Shima, probably about two months after the shooting incident. CYR had no association with OSWALD on the ship and in February, 1958, he, CYR, was transferred back to the United States and never saw OSWALD again.

CYR stated he cannot recall ever having had any conversation with OSWALD and, therefore, knew nothing of his character, his associates or his habits. He did not know any of OSWALD's friends or what he did during off duty hours. He considered that OSWALD was rather quiet around the barracks and possibly had no close friends. He said that except for the shooting incident in the barracks, OSWALD was never the subject of any conversation among other Marines, to his knowledge.

CYR stated that following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he saw pictures of OSWALD in the newspapers and on television and read of OSWALD's service in the United States Marines. He recognized the pictures of OSWALD as the same individual he had known at Atsugi Naval Air Base.

CYR had no other information concerning OSWALD or the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Specimens received 5/18/64

Q579 C320 U. S. Rifle, caliber .30-06, Model 1903 (Rock Island Arsenal), Serial No. 66091, obtained from Robert Adrian Taylor

Results of examination:

The correct description of the rifle obtained from Robert Adrian Taylor is as listed above. This rifle has been designated as C320 for record purposes. Examination of C320 showed that the upper and lower bands have been removed, the front portion of the stock has been cut off, the wooden handguard originally covering the top of the barrel has been removed, the rear sight has been removed and replaced with telescopic sight mount blocks and the bolt handle has been ground down and bent so that it would not strike the telescopic sight tube when the bolt is operated. All other parts appear to be original, unaltered parts. The rifle has the standard length of 43 1/4". The barrel has not been shortened. The length of the longest portion (barrel and receiver) is 31 7/8". The stock portion is 28 3/4" long which is less that the standard length of 40 1/8" for a "non-sporterized" stock.

C320 is being returned to Dallas under separate cover by Railway Express.

This deals with interview of bus driver, Alvaro Ibarra, of the Del Norte Lines per 5-20-64 FD 302 of two pages, two copies of which are enclosed herewith.

If the unchallenged remarks of Ibarra re date stamps on back of tickets are correct, they would tend to establish that the travel of H. O. Lee on Bus 373 10-3-63 to Laredo was incorrect. This the Bureau does not believe to be so.

Ascertain from Del Norte Lines whether or not the remarks of Ibarra are correct. Note that ticket of H. O. Lee was stamped September 30, 1963, and bore name on stamp of "J. Gascon." Your letterhead of 4-7-64 on page 11 shows that Juan Gascon is ticket agent of Del Norte Lines.

Spell out significance of date stamp on back of tickets issued by Del Norte Lines. Is stamp indicative of date issued or purchased or as stated by Ibarra, date of the travel?

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

NOTE:

There is a problem re the ticket that was issued to H. O. Lee (Oswald) for travel from Mexico City to Laredo 10/2-3/63 via the Mexican Del Norte Line Bus. The trip envelope shows that 13 passengers were aboard bus in question; however, there were 20 tickets within the envelope. The bus driver says that if the date stamps on backs of tickets differ from the date stamps on face of the envelope, the company headquarters erred in intermingling extra tickets which wound up within the envelope. He maintains that if the date stamps on the backs of the tickets coincide with the date stamps on the face of the envelope, the error was his.

In all probability, the date stamps on the tickets indicate the date the ticket was purchased or issued rather than the date of the travel. It is necessary that we establish this for if the driver is right, his statement would tend to show that H. O. Lee was not a passenger on the bus in question.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We note that one of the photographs purporting to depict the house of Major General Edwin A. Walker, which photograph has been marked as Commission Exhibit 5 and as FBI inventory number 369, has been mutilated in such a way as to obliterate the license number of an automobile which appears in the photograph. Would you please advise concerning the circumstances under which and from whom your Bureau obtained the above photograph and as to whether or not the picture was so mutilated at the time it came into your possession or into the possession of any other person or organization from whom you may have obtained it.

We would also appreciate having the automobile in question identified. Since the photograph purports to depict General Walker's house, the General could probably identify the automobile, as well as the house itself.

We also note that the photograph appears to have traces of ink or some similar substance on its face. Would you please advise whether or not such substance was on the photograph when you received it and, if not, how it came to be on the photograph.

The photograph in question depicts several trees and shrubs, which do not appear to have any leaves on them. We note that pictures taken in the vicinity of General Walker's house by the Dallas Police Department on April 10, 1963 show some of the same shrubs which appear to be well covered with leaves. Could you advise as to the approximate date on which Commission Exhibit 5 was taken by examination of the condition of the trees and shrubs shown in that picture.

For your possible assistance we enclose the two photographs mentioned as having been taken by the Dallas Police Department, which have been marked, respectively, "A" and "B". Would you please return them after they have served your purposes.

Could you advise, on the basis of the shadows appearing in Commission Exhibit 5 as to the approximate time of day at which it was taken.

On the basis of the interview set forth at page 439 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated March 10, 1964 at Dallas, Texas, we assume that, to the knowledge of your Bureau, there is no negative of Commission Exhibit 5 in existence.

We return Commission Exhibit 5 for your use in connection with the investigation we are requesting.

Your continued cooperation is most appreciated.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY
REQUEST OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

There are attached two copies of a letter from The Commission dated May 13, 1964, requesting additional investigation regarding the photograph of the house of Major General Edwin A. Walker, which has been marked as Commission Exhibit 5 and as FBI inventory number 369. It is requested that you furnish the information requested in the attached letter. The FBI Laboratory will handle the first paragraph on page two regarding the ink or similar substance on the face of the photograph since this is a result of the fingerprint examination and the photograph you made of the exhibit in Dallas before it was submitted does not contain the stains. The FBI Laboratory will also handle paragraph four on page two regarding the time of day the photograph was taken. Regarding the last paragraph on page two the Laboratory has found no original negative for this photograph among the items submitted by your office.

A copy of the photograph, Item 369, is attached along with copies of the photographs taken by the Dallas Police Department which are described in paragraph three on page two of the Commission letter.

Every effort should be made to expedite this investigation since it is possible The President's Commission may wind up the investigation at an early date. You must insure the Commission's specific requests are appropriately complied with in each instance and the results of the investigation should be incorporated in a suitable letterhead memorandum for immediate dissemination to the Commission without need for revision and/or correction.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated May 13, 1964, requesting additional information regarding a photograph purporting to depict the house of General Edwin Walker, which has been marked as Commission Exhibit 5. There are attached four copies of a memorandum dated May 22, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, covering the investigation requested in your letter.

Regarding the traces of ink, or some similar substance, on the face of Exhibit 5, it has been determined that this was not on the photograph when received by this Bureau and that the stains are the result of the fingerprint examination conducted on this exhibit. It is not possible to determine the approximate time of day when this photograph was taken. Based on shadows appearing in the photograph, because there are no definite shadows and it has been established that the photograph was made under cloudy or cloudy-bright conditions under which no specific shadows result.

The photographs which you submitted that were taken by the Dallas Police Department, marked "A" and "B," and Commission Exhibit 5 are returned herewith. This Bureau has not received, during this investigation, a negative of the photograph represented by Commission Exhibit 5.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: By letter dated May 13, 1964, the Commission requested additional information regarding a photograph of Walker's house (Commission Exhibit 5). This photograph bears blue stains on the face and the license plate is torn from the car. They requested whether or not the picture was in this condition when received. Investigation shows that the license was torn from the photograph when received, but the blue stains were from fingerprint examination. They also requested that the approximate date and time of day the photograph was made be determined, if possible. Dallas has furnished letterhead memoranda regarding their investigation and these are being furnished to the Commission. Based on construction in the background of one photograph, the date of the picture has been established as approximately March 9 and 10, 1963. The Commission requested whether or not the negative was available. No negative is known to exist.

NOTE: It is noted that the Commission letter suggests the possibility of identifying the automobile in one of the photographs through interview with General Walker. Dallas airtel 5/25/64 states that Walker is a very controversial figure and any contact with him would undoubtedly cause him to alert the press media concerning the nature of the inquiries. Dallas recommends that Walker not be interviewed since their investigation has resulted in information that the automobile most likely is the car of one Charles F. Kilhr who is a frequent visitor to the Walker residence.

On June 4, 1964 the Manchester, England "Guardian," newspaper published in England, contained an article which is quoted hereinafter as follows:

"WHO KILLED KENNEDY?

"A 'Who Killed Kennedy Committee' is to be formed in this country to support and publicise the activities of New York attorney Mark Lane. Lane is devoting himself to lecturing in the United States and Europe on his doubts regarding the official version of the Dallas tragedy. In spite of fears for his safety, Lane recently spoke to a large meeting in Dallas itself. Invitations to join the committee are being sent out by Bertrand Russell who will meet him for the first time next week during Lane's four day visit to London. The letters of invitation say that the evidence presented by Lane to the Warren Commission is 'so startling and so impressive' that it needs to be put before the British public until the questions he raises have been satisfactorily answered. Lane, who is persuaded of Oswald's probable innocense refuses to speculate about the identity of the true killers.

"Sir Compton Mackenzie and Mr. J.B. Priestley are among those who have agreed to join the committee, which will complement a similar American committee. Its full composition will be announced during Lane's visit, which is expected to open with a press and television conference at London airport on Tuesday."

Synopsis:

ED BUCK, lawyer, Santa Fe, N.M., formerly attended Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas. In April or May, 1963, while eating at Luby's Cafeteria near the campus, an unknown male made pro-Castro statements to BUCK. The unknown male claimed to have met a former Marine named OSWALD who had a Russian wife. The unknown male said OSWALD was taking a job in a book depository in Dallas where he was working. The unknown male also worked at the Bell Helicopter Plant near Dallas. Description set forth.

DETAILS:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is a loan to your agency; it and/or its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ED BUCK, [redacted] esident of 115 A West Sa[redacted]Fe Avenue, and an emplcyee of the legal department of the State Land Office, Santa Fe, New Mexico, furnished the following information.

He related that while he was a student at the Law School of Southern Methodist University (SMU) in Dallas, Texas, he was in the habit of eating breakfast on Sunday mornings at Luby's Cafeteria, which is located directly across from the University campus.

On several occasions while he was eating at this cafeteria on Sunday mornings, he noticed a tall slender man in the cafeteria and on one occasion in either April or May of 1963, this man was standing next to him, BUCK, in the line at the steam table. This man, whose name is unknown to BUCK, struck up a conversation regarding Cuba, the general tenor of which was that this man did not feel that the United States was being fair in its treatment of FIDEL CASTRO and expressed a favorable attitude toward the CASTRO regime in Cuba. This unknown man then asked BUCK if the latter had met a man who had recently moved to Dallas after marrying a Russian woman in Russia. He noted that this man was a former Marine and that his name was OSWALD. This man stated that he had met OSWALD through another person in Ft. Worth and mentioned that OSWALD was taking a job in a book depository in Dallas where the unknown man had been working.

This same man commented that he was a designer at the Bell Helicopter Plant located between Dallas and Ft. Worth, Texas, and in addition he was employed in a book depository where the school books are kept. He stated that he liked to come to the cafeteria near SMU because of the conversations he got into with the students from the University.

BUCK described this man with whom he conversed in Luby's Cafeteria as follows:

Enclosed for Los Angeles and San Francisco are two copies of referenced airtel.

Two extra copies of this airtel are being furnished the Bureau for transmittal to Legat, Mexico City, inasmuch as investigation may be required in Mexico to locate EULALIO RODRIGUEZ if he is not located in California. No leads are being suggested for Legat, Mexico City, at this time.

For the information of Los Angeles and San Francisco, by airtel dated 4/28/64, Legat, Mexico, reported that OSWALD is believed to have traveled under the name H. O. LEE from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, via buses of the Transportes Del Norte Bus Company. He reportedly left Mexico City at 8:30 AM on 10/2/63 on board bus number 332 which required a change at Monterrey to Transportes Del Norte Bus No. 373.

79 JUN 23 1964

He arrived at Laredo, Texas, at approximately 2 AM on the morning of 10/3/63. He was assigned seat number 12, a window seat located four rows from the front on the driver's side. It is believed he departed Laredo at 3 AM on 10/3/63 on a Greyhound bus en route to Dallas, Texas, via San Antonio.

One of the passengers who boarded bus number 332 at Mexico City and traveled to Laredo was ANASTASIO RUIZ MEZA, a resident of Mexico City, who was seated in seat number 15 on bus number 332. MEZA also departed Laredo at 3 AM on 10/3/63 for the trip north. He identified a profile photograph of OSWALD as being that of an American youth whom he first recalled as having boarded the bus number 373 at Monterrey.

It is noted information in referenced San Antonio airtel indicates MEZA has identified an individual believed to be EULALIO RODRIGUEZ as a person who sat next to him on the bus from Mexico City to Laredo on 10/2 - 3/63. This individual was destined for Houston, Texas.

The following investigation was conducted at Houston, Texas, by SA EDWIN DALRYMPLE:

Indices of the Houston Office contained no references identifiable with EULALIO RODRIGUEZ. The Houston, Texas, City Directory and Telephone Directory contained no listing identifiable with RODRIGUEZ.

On 6/3/64, [redacted] Credit Bureau of Greater Houston, advised her agency received a credit inquiry on 12/3/63 from the Ford Motor Company at Houston concerning one EULALIO RODRIGUEZ, wife MARIA, described as 62 years of age in 1963. This individual was then residing at 4515 Sharman, Houston, Texas, and had previously resided at Los Angeles, California. His occupation was described as truck driver for R. A. SCHRIEWER, South Houston, Texas. Mrs. FUTRELL stated her agency had made no inquiry concerning RODRIGUEZ and this file contained no additional information.

On 6/3/64, JOHN E. COPPERSMITH, Records Clerk, INS, Houston, Texas, checked the indices of his office and reported the only record under the name EULALIO RODRIGUEZ which he could locate was in INS file A8 549 109. This file pertains to EULALIO RODRIGUEZ-Chavez, born 12/14/01, Tres Marias, Morelos, Mexico. RODRIGUEZ applied for an immigrant visa on 9/15/53 at the U. S. Embassy, Mexico City, D.F. He entered the U. S. on 10/3/53 at San Ysidro, California, destined to ERNEST and FRANCES RODRIGUEZ, 53[illegible] Hearst Avenue, San Francisco, California. In this visa application, RODRIGUEZ was described as 5'8", 196 pounds, gray hair, brown eyes, Mexican nationality, wife identified as MARIA RIOS de RODRIGUEZ.

This INS file contained a change of address card submitted by RODRIGUEZ on 12/13/63, from 231 North Rowan Avenue, Los Angeles, California, to 4517 Sharman, Houston, Texas. On 1/7/64, RODRIGUEZ also filed the annual Address Report Card with INS at Houston, Texas, reporting he was then residing at 4517 Sharman, Houston, Texas.

On 6/5/64, a check of INS records at Houston, Texas, revealed that INS file A8 549 151 pertains to Maria del Pilar RODRIGUEZ-Rios who was born 5/6/48 in Mexico and first entered the U.S. on 10/3/53 at San Ysidro, California. This file was transferred on 1/24/64 from INS, Houston, Texas, to INS, Los Angeles, California. It would appear this individual is the daughter of EULALIO RODRIGUEZ, subject of the current inquiry.

[JOHN E. COPPERSMITH, INS, Houston, mentioned above, on 6/5/64 located Address Report Cards filed on 1/7/64 by MARIA del PILAR RODRIGUEZ-RIOS, mentioned above, who gave her occupation as student and address as 4517 Sharman, Houston, Texas, and also by Maria del Pilar RODRIGUEZ, subject of INS File A8 549 141. The latter individual indicated she was born 10/5/05 in Mexico and as of 1/7/64 had resided for 45 days at 4517 Sharman, Houston, Texas. It is apparent the latter individual is the wife of EULALIO RODRIGUEZ.

On 6/4/64, [redacted] U. S. Post Office Inspector's Office, Main Post Office, Houston, Texas, (conceal identity), advised he made inquiries concerning EULALIO RODRIGUEZ, formerly of 4517 Sharman, Houston, and was informed by the mail carrier covering this residence that RODRIGUEZ left Houston on 2/3/64 but declined to furnish a forwarding address.

On 6/3/64, ALEXANDER CONTRERAS, 116 Frawley, Houston, Texas, advised he lives at that address with his mother, Mrs. MARY L. CONTRERAS, who speaks almost no English. CONTRERAS is a part-time truck driver and he and his mother also work for the Circulation Department of the Houston Chronicle. CONTRERAS pointed out his mother owns the residence at 4517 Sharman which is next door to the Frawley Street address and his mother also owns several other small houses immediately adjacent thereto.

CONTRERAS related that EULALIO RODRIGUEZ is a cousin of Mrs. MARY L. CONTRERAS. Mrs. CONTRERAS frequently visits Mexico City in the summer where she has various relatives. EULALIO RODRIGUEZ contacted Mrs. CONTRERAS in Mexico City and convinced her he was her cousin. In approximately October, 1963, EULALIO RODRIGUEZ traveled from Mexico City to Houston, Texas, alone by bus in order to establish a new residence at Houston. Mrs. CONTRERAS permitted RODRIGUEZ to reside in the small house at 4517 Sharman. Thereafter, RODRIGUEZ returned to Mexico City, after which his wife and daughter also came to Houston. RODRIGUEZ sold his home and other belongings in Mexico when he went down to get his family. CONTRERAS stated he knew RODRIGUEZ' wife as MARY RODRIGUEZ but professed he could not recall the name of the RODRIGUEZ daughter, who was approximately 14 years of age and attended John Marshall Junior High School in Houston. CONTRERAS located a letter which his mother had received from RODRIGUEZ postmarked 11/4/63 at Mexico City, indicating RODRIGUEZ was in Mexico on that date, after his initial trip to Houston.

CONTRERAS related RODRIGUEZ purchased a dump truck in Houston and attempted to operate a trucking business but was unsuccessful. RODRIGUEZ later gave this truck up and purchased a 1958 Chevrolet pickup, believed to be white. Shortly after purchasing this pickup, RODRIGUEZ left Houston in approximately January, 1964, and moved to California. CONTRERAS stated RODRIGUEZ had failed to pay his mother for renting the house and had likewise borrowed money from CONTRERAS and several other relatives, which he never paid back. CONTRERAS stated for this reason RODRIGUEZ told no one where he was going in California and Mrs. CONTRERAS has never received any correspondence from him since he left Houston. CONTRERAS described RODRIGUEZ as 5'11" to 6' in height, heavy build and wearing a mustache.

HO 105-1291

On 6/4/64, JOE GARCIA, Manager, Montalbano Lumber Company No. 2, 2111 Jensen Drive, advised he is a son-in-law of Mrs. MARY L. CONTRERAS, and he and his wife accompanied Mrs. CONTRERAS to Mexico City in the summer of 1963. While at Mexico City, they were visited by EULALIO RODRIGUEZ who learned of their presence in Mexico from other relatives. RODRIGUEZ and Mrs. CONTRERAS discovered they were distant cousins. RODRIGUEZ expressed his desire to come to the United States and get in the trucking business.

RODRIGUEZ came to Houston from Mexico City several months after GARCIA had visited in Mexico City. RUEBEN GARCIA, son of JOE GARCIA, drove a dump truck for RODRIGUEZ for several weeks but this business was not successful. In approximately January, 1964, RODRIGUEZ purchased a second-hand pickup, loaded his belongings and left the next day, reportedly for California. GARCIA stated he has heard nothing more from RODRIGUEZ and knows nothing about his whereabouts. GARCIA professed not to remember the name of RODRIGUEZ' wife or daughter and stated he actually talked to RODRIGUEZ only twice while he was in Houston. GARCIA stated he believes RODRIGUEZ was residing in Houston when President KENNEDY was assassinated and he recalls that LEE HARVEY OSWALD's photograph was published repeatedly in the Houston newspapers, but he never heard RODRIGUEZ mention OSWALD or give any indication that he might have seen OSWALD in the past. GARCIA recalled that RODRIGUEZ referred to the assassination as a very terrible thing.

On 6/4/64, RUEBEN GARCIA, Montalbano Lumber Company No. 3, 6120 North Shepherd, stated he had worked for RODRIGUEZ for about one month but could not talk to RODRIGUEZ much because RODRIGUEZ spoke almost no English. GARCIA recalled RODRIGUEZ came to Houston alone by bus from Mexico in approximately October, 1963, and thereafter returned to Mexico City, sold his home and returned to Houston and purchased a truck. RUEBEN GARCIA drove this dump truck for RODRIGUEZ for several weeks and recalled President KENNEDY was assassinated a short time before he discontinued his relationship with RODRIGUEZ. GARCIA stated RODRIGUEZ commented that the assassination was a terrible thing but he gave no indication he had ever seen or heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. RODRIGUEZ commented to GARCIA that he had once worked in a factory in California and that his wife was a seamstress.

In early February, 1964, RODRIGUEZ purchased a pickup truck and stated he was moving to California. RUEBEN GARCIA stated he never saw this truck and has heard nothing from RODRIGUEZ since he left Houston. GARCIA stated RODRIGUEZ daughter attended John Marshall Junior High School but he could not recall her name.

On 6/4/64, Mrs. MARCELINE JOHNS and Mrs. JANE HUGHES, Record Clerks, John Marshall Junior High School, 1119 Noble Street, advised they had thoroughly checked available records of students who attended that school during the 1963 - 1964 school year and they could locate no record of a student by the name of RODRIGUEZ who gave a residence on Sharman Street. Mrs. HUGHES stated she checked the correspondence and other records pertaining to transfers of students and could locate no record of any transfer of a student from this school to a California school during 1964.

On 6/5/64, R. A. SCHRIEWER, hauling contractor, 9726 Easthaven Boulevard, South Houston, Texas, advised that ALEXANDER CONTRERAS had worked for him as a truck driver in the past but he was not acquainted with EULALIO RODRIGUEZ and could furnish no information concerning him.

On 6/8/64, HAROLD LIPPERT, Ford Motor Credit Company, 2903 Richmond Avenue, Houston, Texas, advised that EULALIO RODRIGUEZ had not financed an automobile through his company and he could locate no record of a credit application having been received from RODRIGUEZ. LIPPERT stated he would make further efforts to locate such a record and would advise the Houston Office of the FBI if he should be successful.

From the information set forth above it appears that EULALIO RODRIGUEZ, INS File A8 549 109, is the individual who rode the bus from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, on 10/2 - 3/63 and possibly observed OSWALD on this bus. For the information of Los Angeles and San Francisco, the relatives of RODRIGUEZ at Houston, Texas, appeared to be somewhat evasive and it is believed they did not furnish all information available to them concerning RODRIGUEZ, although they did not appear to have information pertinent to instant investigation. It would appear that after coming to Houston in October and/or November, 1963, RODRIGUEZ became dissatisfied with employment opportunities and possibly made a trip to California in early December, 1963, which might account for his presence in California on 12/13/63 when he indicated a change of address from Los Angeles to Houston. It would appear that RODRIGUEZ is probably residing in the Los Angeles area at present, although it is noted when he first entered the United States in 1953 he was planning to reside in San Francisco.

The following leads are set forth for location and interview of EULALIO RODRIGUEZ in accordance with the lead set out in referenced San Antonio airtel:

LEADS

LOS ANGELES:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

1. Will make inquiry at 231 North Rowan Avenue, where RODRIGUEZ was apparently staying in early December, 1963.

2. Will check records of INS, Los Angeles, under INS files A8 549 151 and A8 549 141, apparently pertaining to RODRIGUEZ' daughter and wife respectively in an effort to determine the present whereabouts of RODRIGUEZ.

SAN FRANCISCO:

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA:

1. Will make inquiry at 634 Hearst Avenue in an effort to locate ERNEST or FRANCES RODRIGUEZ, possibly relatives of EULALIO RODRIGUEZ, for information concerning his whereabouts.

2. Will check records of INS, San Francisco, to determine if RODRIGUEZ is known to be residing in the San Francisco area at present.

In the event Los Angeles is successful in locating RODRIGUEZ in that area, San Francisco should be promptly advised.

It is further requested that one copy of results of interview of RODRIGUEZ be furnished the Houston Office for information.

Enclosed for the Bureau is one copy of a tape which was made from the original tape of the radio program "Conversation Carte Blanche" which program was broadcast over WDSU Radio, New Orleans, La., on 8/21/63, in which OSWALD was a participant. Also enclosed for the Bureau are 10 copies and for Dallas 3 copies of a letterhead memorandum relative to obtaining the enclosed tape.

The Bureau will find that the enclosed tape and the box containing this tape are wrapped in aluminum foil. This is done because of the suggestion of the engineer at WDSU Radio, New Orleans, who suggested that the tape be wrapped in aluminum foil in order to avoid any possible erasure of its contents in the event the tape would come in contact with any magnetized material.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

By letter dated May 29, 1964, the President's Commission forwarded to the Bureau translation of data furnished to State Department by the Soviets concerning the hospitalization of Lee Harvey Oswald while he was in Russia.

A review of the Soviet documents disclosed Oswald was hospitalized in Minsk, Russia, from March 30, 1961 to April 11, 1961, due to an ear infection.

The documents also disclosed that Oswald was hospitalized at Botkin Hospital, Moscow, USSR, October 21, 1959 to October 23, 1959. The Soviet records concerning such hospitalization indicate Oswald attempted to commit suicide on October 21, 1959, by slashing his left arm. The Soviets reported that on October 21, 1959, Oswald was found unconscious in the bathroom of the Hotel "Berlin" and his left arm, injured by a sharp instrument, was lying in hot water.

Oswald was administered immediate first aid and recovered from his self-inflicted wound.

The Soviet record reflects that Oswald was examined by the Psychiatric department of the hospital at which time it was determined his mind was clear, his perception correct and that he suffered no hallucinations or delirium. The Soviet psychiatric report also reflected that no psychotic symptoms were noted in Oswald and it was concluded he was not dangerous to other people.

In connection with the Soviet hospital record as described above, it is noted such record substantiates data in Oswald's diary wherein he indicated he attempted suicide in Moscow in October, 1959. The Soviet hospital record also conforms with data furnished this Bureau by the Soviet defector Yuri Ivanovich Nosenko, concerning Oswald's suicide attempt.

For your further information Inspector Thomas J. Kelley, United States Secret Service, has advised that the report of Special Agent James M. NOTE:

Thayer Waldo accompanied the two Howard brothers and Mrs. Marguerite Oswald from Mrs. Oswald's home to the airport in Dallas on 2/9/64. Waldo's presence was at the specific request of Mark Lane and Mrs. Oswald. The two Howard brothers gave him a ride back from the airport after Mrs. Oswald boarded the airplane. On the way back there was some conversation about a Negro who allegedly witnessed Oswald shooting at President Kennedy. According to the Howard brothers, whose interviews are reported in the enclosures, they never indicated that this Negro male had actually been a witness to anyone shooting at the President and the conversation was in a joking and jesting manner. They pointed out that Waldo, who was in the back seat, apparently misunderstood the entire conversation. The next day Waldo wrote a story in the newspaper about a witness being held by authorities who actually saw Oswald shooting. In May, 1964, the "National Guardian" published an article wherein it was reported that Mark Lane claimed that the Secret Service had deliberately planted a false story in the press to pass further guilt on Oswald. This article named the Howard brothers and Waldo and the story spoken of was apparently written by Waldo. The interesting thing about this situation is that the story which Lane claimed was planted by the Secret Service was the same story written by Waldo, who was Lane's man. The unfortunate thing about the situation was that the two Howard brothers were not more guarded in their conversation in the presence of Waldo. By separate letter we are disseminating our memorandum of 6/5/64 to Secret Service for its information as to Waldo's version of the conversation with the Howard brothers.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On June 5, 1964, Marina Oswald, 629 Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas, was interviewed to determine if she was possibly confused when she stated on February 24, 1964, that approximately two weeks after the attempted assassination of Major General Edwin A. Walker at Dallas, Texas, on April 10, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald had indicated that he was going out because "Nixon is coming and I'm going to take a look," it being noted that previous investigation had established that the then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson was in Dallas, Texas, on April 23, 1963.

Marina Oswald was asked if it was possible that she had become confused as to the name used by Oswald on the above referred to occasion. Specifically, she was asked if she recalled if Oswald had said, "Nixon is coming and I'm going to take a look," as previously reported by her. She stated these were the words of Oswald as best she could remember. She stated she is positive Oswald said "Nixon" was coming. She stated she was familiar with the name "Nixon" because of the publicity received by him in connection with his nomination as the Republican candidate for President.

Marina Oswald was asked if there was a possibility she had confused the name "Nixon" with the name "Johnson." She reiterated she is positive Oswald used the name "Nixon." She stated she was not familiar with the name "Johnson" at that time.

On June 8, 1964, Marina Oswald advised that to the best of her recollection the words used by Oswald on this occasion were "Nixon is coming and I'm going to take a look." She is positive Oswald said "Nixon." She said she was very familiar with the word "Nixon" and was not familiar at all with the word "Johnson." She pointed out Richard Nixon was well known in Russia and had been even prior to 1960. She said she can recall being familiar with the name Richard Nixon as far back as the famous "kitchen debate" between Nixon and Khrushchev. She said also she

In connection with the Dallas airtel of 6-6-64 wherein they report the interview of Marina Oswald, SAC Shanklin was contacted today.

It was pointed out to Shanklin that Marina Oswald's statement that she knew Nixon in view of the publicity received by him in connection with his nomination as the Republican candidate for President left something unanswered, particularly because Marina was at the time living in Minsk, USSR, and this was some two years prior to entry into the U.S. Nixon was defeated in his candidacy in 1960 prior to Marina's marriage to Lee Harvey Oswald.

In view of these facts and in order to preclude having Marina Oswald questioned by the President's Commission, SAC Shanklin was instructed to have her reinterviewed and for the Agents to ask questions to probe the extent of her knowledge of Richard Nixon, particularly since the Commission had raised the question that she might have been confused in her identification of him with then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. SAC Shanklin was instructed to have the interview conducted immediately and the results promptly submitted to the Bureau.

Reference is made to pages 37 through 42 of the report of SA John M. Kenny dated 6/1/64 at San Antonio.

While the incident described in referenced pages was probably a college student prank as indicated by the college librarian, in a case of this magnitude involving the investigation of the assassination of an American President, the facts should have been afforded prompt and proper investigative attention. This was not done.

On 4/7/64 you were telephonically advised that a book had been found bearing certain notations which might have a relationship to the Oswald case. You were advised the book would be available to the FBI if needed. Three weeks later, on 4/28/64, you recontacted the telephone caller and personally interviewed him. By that time he had returned the book to its owner, the library, apparently under the assumption that you did not need it and did not intend to recontact him. (It does not appear from the report that you even asked the telephone caller to hold the book for you.) Upon contacting the librarian you found that the portions of the book pertinent to the Oswald investigation had already been destroyed by him. You are instructed to submit explanations from all responsible personnel as to the cause of this delay which resulted in the destruction of those very portions of the book which made it of interest to the Bureau. Regardless of what the original telephone caller was advised about holding the book for you, you should not have delayed in getting it from him.

A review of referenced pages fails to reveal that you conducted a thorough investigation even after you learned that the pertinent portions of the book were destroyed. Nowhere do you state that the book was examined by you. Were the pertinent portions, in fact, removed? Were any other entries made in the book besides those mentioned? What evidence made the librarian conclude that the book had never been checked out of the library?

Also, in tracing when the book originally came from the bindery to the library to be put on its shelves for use, although you imply that certain records were reviewed regarding Bindery Number 2524, you do not set this forth in detail. What do the records of Wallace and Smyers show?

Fix responsibility for derelictions as indicated above and submit explanations. Immediately conduct additional investigation as noted and report promptly.

NOTE:

A book was found in a San Antonio street on 4/7/64 in which, in several places, there were allegedly handwritten comments regarding President Kennedy and Lee Harvey Oswald. On what is described as "date-due slip" in back of book, was notation "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" and on the "book pocket card" was the name Lee Harvey Oswald. It took San Antonio 21 days to reply to the president of the book binding company after he telephoned and reported finding the book. When he was recontacted, it was determined the book had been returned to the college library and the parts of interest to us had been destroyed. Whether or not the comments in the book were written by a college student as concluded by the college librarian, we will never know now.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In her testimony before this Commission Marina Oswald identified certain photographs as the property of her husband, Lee Harvey Oswald. She stated that Oswald had told her that such photographs depicted the home of General Edwin Walker. Those photographs have been admitted in evidence as Commission Exhibits 2 (p-2), 3 (p-1), 4 (p-5) and 5 and identified by your Bureau by the numbers, respectively, 7 (p-2), 14 (p-1), 6 (p-5) and 369.

Would you please have such photographs taken and delivered to us. The pictures should be identified and the procedures which were followed in their taking should be described in an affidavit of the person who actually takes the pictures.

We understand that Special Agent Shaneyfelt will be traveling to Dallas in connection with the proposed reenaction of the assassination which is to be carried on jointly by agents of your Bureau and members of our staff. During my testimony before the President's Commission I was asked concerning the Bureau file on Lee Harvey Oswald up to the time of the assassination of President Kennedy. I had the file with me and told the Commission it was available to the Commission. Commissioner McCloy expressed the opinion that someone from the Commission should look through the file. Mr. Rankin was also anxious to let the record show that the FBI had not held back any information from the Commission.

Subsequent to my testimony, at the suggestion of Mr. Stern of the Commission staff we tabbed each of the 69 items contained in the Oswald file prior to the assassination. This went through serial 49, and included serial 78 which was in the second section of the Oswald file.

At Mr. Rankin's request, Inspector Malley delivered the file to Rankin's office in a sealed envelope on the morning of 6/3/64, in order that Mr. McCloy might go through the file. On 6/8/64 Mr. Rankin advised Mr. Malley that Mr. McCloy had gone through the file and there were no questions or problems. The file was returned to Mr. Malley from Mr. Rankin's office on 6/8/64, and has been returned to the custody of the Records Division.

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover

Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This is in response to your letter of April 2, 1964, in which you advert to various letters and notes exchanged between Marina Oswald and Ruth Paine, the originals of which Mrs. Paine declined to surrender to your agents when they contacted her on March 6, 1964, although Mrs. Paine acknowledged to them that the documents were in her possession.

You request in your letter, assuming the documents in question came into the possession of the President's Commission, that copies thereof be supplied to you. Mrs. Paine appeared before the Commission and testified. She produced all of the correspondence to which she adverted when interviewed by your agents on March 6, 1964.

You list the documents in four categories. I respond in like manner:

"1. Four letters written to her by Marina Oswald when the latter resided in New Orleans, Louisiana, in the Spring and Summer of 1963"

We believe the letters to which you advert (copies of which are enclosed) are: (a) Commission Exhibit No. 408 (and envelope being Commission Exhibit No. 408A) dated May 25, 1963; (b) Commission Exhibit No. 409, being letter of June 1, 1963, from Ruth Paine to Marina which Marina returned to Mrs. Paine with various notations in Marina's hand calling attention to grammatical and other errors in Ruth Paine's letter; (c) Commission Exhibit No. 409B being letter of June 5, 1963, from Marina to Ruth Paine, and Commission Exhibit No. 409A in which Exhibits 409 and 409B were enclosed; (d) letter from Marina to Ruth Paine written in July of 1963, and marked Commission Exhibit No. 415; and (e) letter (Commission Exhibit No. 421) and envelope (Commission Exhibit No. 420) from Marina to Ruth Paine dated and postmarked August 11, 1963.

"2. Two short notes written to her by Marina Oswald while Marina and Lee Harvey Oswald resided at 214 West Neely Street, Dallas, Texas, in the Spring of 1963"

These two exhibits were produced by Mrs. Paine and were received in evidence. They are: (a) March 4, 1963, note from Marina to Ruth Paine (Commission Exhibit No. 404) transmitted in envelope (Commission Exhibit No. 404A) postmarked at Dallas, Texas, March 8, 1963, with the return address of 214 Neely, Dallas, Texas; and (b) note from Marina to Ruth Paine (Commission Exhibit No. 407) transmitted to Mrs. Paine shortly before April 2, 1963, in which Marina accepts Mrs. Paine's dinner invitation that had been extended to Marina and Lee Harvey Oswald. Mrs. Paine did not have the envelope in which the note was dispatched. Copies of these exhibits are enclosed.

"3. A short note written to Marina Oswald by Mrs. Paine but never delivered"

Mrs. Paine produced before the Commission a five-page long-hand letter dated April 7, 1963, addressed to Marina and signed by Mrs. Paine, which Mrs. Paine testified had never been sent. The document was received in evidence as Comission Exhibit No. 422, a copy of which is enclosed. Mrs. Paine states that this is the only note or letter to Marina that she can recall that was not eventually sent by Mrs. Paine to Marina.

Mrs. Paine's translations of the foregoing exhibits appear in the transcript of her testimony before the Commission as follows:

Exhibit No. and Description	Page in Transcript
No. 404 - Note of March 4, 1963	3541

Exhibit No. and Description	Page in Transcript
No. 407 - Long-hand note in March of 1963	3545
No. 408 - Letter of May 25, 1963	3546-48
No. 409 - Letter of June 1, 1963	3549-51
No. 409B - Letter of June 5, 1963	3552-53
No. 415 - Letter of July of 1963	3560-62
No. 421 - Letter of August of 1963	3566-68
No. 422 - Mrs. Paine's undelivered letter of April 7, 1963	3569-70

Unmentioned in your letter but produced by Mrs. Paine on the taking of her deposition in Irving, Texas, on March 23, 1964, is a Christmas card from Marina containing a long-hand note of hers to Mrs. Paine. The Christmas card was received in an envelope postmarked December 21, 1963. The Christmas card was received in evidence as Commission Exhibit No. 278 and the envelope as Commission Exhibit No. 278A. Copies of each of these documents are enclosed herewith. A translation of the notation on the Christmas card appears at page 122 of that deposition.

In the last paragraph of your letter you state, "For your information, this Bureau has received an allegation that Mrs. Paine had given Levine five letters which had been written by Lee Harvey Oswald and which have never been made available to United States Government authorities . . . ". The member of my staff who examined Ruth Paine before the Commission and who deposed her in Irving, Texas, on March 23, 1963, has made direct inquiry of Mrs. Paine on this subject. She asserts that she never delivered any such letters to Mr. Levine for the reason that she never had any such letters.

I trust that the foregoing, together with the enclosures, fully responds to your letter of April 2, 1964. Thank you for your continued interest in the work of this Commission.

Sincerely yours,

J. Lee Rankin

RODRIGUEZ recalls he was passenger on Transportes del Norte bus from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, October 2 and 3, 1963. RODRIGUEZ postively identified a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as a passenger on this bus who sat somewhere behind him from Mexico City to Laredo and then on an American Greyhound bus from Laredo, Texas, to San Antonio, Texas.

RODRIGUEZ specifically recalls OSWALD stayed awake late reading a magazine, book, or newspaper with his over head light shining, which disturbed RODRIGUEZ' sleep. He recalls OSWALD's eating a banana and carrying fruit with him on the bus in a bag. He recalled that OSWALD did not alight from the bus during several rest stops and that OSWALD was one of two men requested to get off the bus for further questioning by examining Immigration officers at the Mexican Immigration check station located a few miles from the border. RODRIGUEZ had no personal contact or conversations with OSWALD nor with any other passengers except a young married woman of Mexican descent who sat next to him and traveled from Mexico City to Houston, Texas, where she indicated she resided. Her name is unknown. Report follows.

Re: Charles William Deaton

Charles William Deaton has been the subject of several Federal Bureau of Investigation cases wherein he has represented himself as an official of the International Insurance Company of Nassau Limited (IICN), Nassau, Bahamas. In this capacity, he has offered large loans to businessmen for which he requires prepaid commission fees. After receiving some of the prepaid commissions he then drops from negotiations and the deals collapse. Investigation reveals that IICN has never been in a financial position to loan large sums of money.

In April, 1964, Deaton, through an intermediary, approached Harold A. Dragoo, President, Golden Mortgage Investment, Incorporated, and Robert Pribble, Realtor, both of Colorado Springs, representing himself to be the executive secretary-treasurer of the IICN who was willing to provide a $900,000.00 commitment for financing a land development enterprise that Dragoo and Pribble were interested in in the Colorado Springs, Colorado, area. Deaton requested six per cent commission for efforts in providing the $900,000.00 loan, three per cent in advance. Dragoo and Pribble sent $7,968.39 by Western Union money order from Colorado Springs to Deaton in New York as part payment of three per cent commission at Deaton's request. Dragoo was to meet Deaton at New York on May 13, 1964, to pay balance of $18,000.00 due. New York Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, acting in undercover capacity, met Deaton, negotiated with him, and arrested him for violation of Interstate Transportation of Stolen Property and Fraud By Wire Statutes. Deaton was indicted on May 15, 1964, by a Grand Jury in the Southern Judicial District of New York, and is currently being held in $20,000.00 bond.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of any kind. It is the property of the FBI, and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Re: Charles William Deaton

Incidental to the arrest of Deaton, a small black bag was taken which contained, among other business papers, the following items:

A copy of a contract dated February 11, 1964, transferring exclusive right to exploit the Marina N. Oswald story throughout the world, through the media of motion picture and television, from James H. Martin, Manager for Marina N. Oswald to Texitalia Films, Incorporated, signed by Charles R. Lasater, President, C. W. Deaton, Howdy Howard and George S. Bell, Jr. This contract stipulates a consideration of $75,000 for this transfer but provides for a more detailed contract within 20 working days. Attached to the aforementioned contract of agreement is a Photostat dated December 6, 1963, addressed to Mr. James H. Martin, Dallas, Texas, signed by Mrs. Marina N. Oswald, giving Martin Mrs. Oswald's authorization to handle her personal and business affairs.

A letter of agreement dated February 12, 1964, signed Charles R. Lasater, C. W. Deaton, George S. Bell, Jr. and Howdy Howard. This letter concerns an agreement between the above-mentioned individuals to attempt to obtain the world-wide rights to movies and television and other public use of the "Marina Oswald Story." The letter was typed on the stationery of Howard and Bell, Realtors, 205 Stemmons Tower, East Dallas, Texas.

A copy of a letter of agreement, undated, signed by Charles R. Lasater, C. W. Deaton, Howdy Howard and George S. Bell, Jr. on February 12, 1964. The letter is an agreement between the above-mentioned parties to assign and convey for a consideration of $1500, five per cent of the proceeds which may be derived from the Marina Oswald motion picture and television exploitation, to Jack D. Vanderburgh.

Deaton has described himself as a financier. He indicated he is 38 years of age; was born at Olney, Texas; is married to Gayle Deaton, nee Baker; and resides at 10740 St. Lazare, Dallas, Texas.

Re: Charles William Deaton

Deaton has been arrested several times in the State of Texas for swindle by worthless checks, but has never been convicted.

Thayer Waldo, newspaper reporter, accompanied the two Howard brothers and Mrs. Marguerite Oswald from Mrs. Oswald's home to the airport in Dallas on 2/9/64. Waldo's presence was at the specific request of Mark Lane and Mrs. Oswald. The two Howard brothers gave him a ride back from the airport after Mrs. Oswald boarded the airplane. On the way back, there was some conversation about a Negro who allegedly witnessed Oswald shooting at President Kennedy. According to the Howard brothers they never indicated that this Negro male had actually been a witness to anyone shooting at the President and the conversation was in a joking and jesting manner. They pointed out that Waldo, who was in the back seat, apparently must have misunderstood the entire conversation. The next day Waldo wrote a story in his newspaper about a witness being held by authorities who actually saw Oswald shooting. In May, 1964, the "National Guardian" published an article wherein it was reported that Mark Lane claimed that the Secret Service had deliberately planted false story in the press to pass further guilt on Oswald. This article named the Howard brothers and Waldo and the story spoken of was apparently the one written by Waldo. The enclosed memorandum of 6/5/64 includes Waldo's version of this incident and also the results of the interview with Pat Clyde Howard who is now a police officer in Hurst, Texas. The other enclosed memorandum includes results of the interview with Special Agent Howard, U. S. Secret Service.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of June 2, 1964, wherein you advised that the Commission now has evidence that on Friday or Saturday of September 27 or 28, 1963, Lee Harvey Oswald had his photograph taken for use on an application for a visa at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City. You indicated you believed that Oswald must have gone to a photographic studio, under the circumstances an inexpensive one, some place in the vicinity of the Cuban Embassy. You requested that this Bureau attempt to locate this studio and, if possible, obtain the negatives of the photograph taken of Oswald or copies thereof.

For your information, we have contacted all photographic studios within an eight-block radius of the Cuban and Soviet Embassies, the Hotel del Comercio where Oswald stayed while in Mexico City, as well as three photographic studios near Chihuahuenses Transportation Travel Agency, Incorporated, where Oswald purchased his bus ticket to return to the United States, and we were unable to locate the photographic studio where Oswald reportedly had his photograph taken while in Mexico City.

Please advise if you desire us to extend our inquiries to locate such photographic studio to include all of Metropolitan Mexico City. We are holding further investigation in this matter in abeyance pending receipt of advice from the Commission.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. Rose

DATE: February 24, 1964

FROM : R. I. Shroder

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA.
IS - R - CUBA

At 12:58 a.m., Frederick Tilney, Center Island, Oyster Bay, New York, telephonically contacted midnight Supervisor William E. Assmus to state that the FBI should have Marina Oswald arrested for first degree murder.

Tilney stated that based on his calculations, Marina Oswald must have had prior knowledge of her husband's intentions to assassinate the President and was, therefore, as guilty as her husband. Tilney also stated that Marina Oswald was older than she alleges and he considered her to be a dangerous individual. Tilney could offer no specifics regarding this matter and reiterated his remark that it was based on his "calculations."

A check of Bureau indices discloses Tilney may be identical with Frederick Tilney, Jr., (Bureau file 62-100356), who was connected with the Governmental Statistical Corporation in New York City. In 1954, Frederick Tilney, Jr., was interviewed by Agents of the New York Office in connection with an allegation received from Louis F. Budenz that he had received an implied threat from one Frederick Tilney in connection with Budenz possibly writing a book concerning the Communist Party. It was determined that Frederick Tilney, Jr., was apparently not identical with the individual named by Budenz.

ACTION:

It is suggested this memorandum be routed to the Domestic Intelligence Division for whatever action they deem appropriate.

At 12:58 a.m. 2-24-64 Frederick Tilney, Center Island, Oyster Bay, New York, telephonically contacted Bureau stating FBI should have Marina Oswald arrested for first degree murder.

Tilney stated that based on his calculations Marina Oswald must have had prior knowledge of subject's intentions to assassinate the late President Kennedy and was, therefore, as guilty as subject. Tilney also stated that Marina Oswald is older than she claims and he considered her to be a dangerous individual. Tilney could offer no further specifics regarding this matter other than it was based on his "calculations."

Bufiles disclose Tilney possibly identical with Frederick Tilney, Jr., (New York file 62-11335; Bufile 62-109656) who was connected with Governmental Statistical Corporation, 138 Pearl Street, New York City. In 1954 Frederick Tilney, Jr., was interviewed by New York Office in connection with allegation from Louis F. Budenz concerning an implied threat from one Frederick Tilney in connection with book being contemplated by Budenz concerning the Communist Party. It was determined that Frederick Tilney, Jr., was apparently not identical with the individual named by Budenz. During interviews Tilney, Jr., stated that his name has in the past been confused with another Frederick Tilney who was connected with the American Russian Institute and was residing in New York City, stating he was the son of Dr. Frederick Tilney, prominent doctor in New York City. Bufiles also contain references to a Frederick Tilney who has been affiliated with the American Russian Institute, which information is also available in New York files.

Re Bureau airtel to Dallas, 4/29/64, enclosing two copies of a letter from the President's Commission dated 4/28/64, and instructing Dallas to institute immediate investigation in connection with the testimony of DIAL DUWAYNE RYDER before the President's Commission with respect to the repair tag indicating certain work had been performed on a rifle at the Irving Sports Shop, Irving, Texas, for a man by the name of OSWALD.

Enclosed herewith are 10 copies of a letterhead memorandum reflecting results of the requested investigation.

All of the investigation set forth in the enclosed letterhead memorandum was conducted by SA's A. RAYMOND SWITZER and EUGENE F. PETRAKIS, except the following-listed interviews, which were conducted by SA ENOCH E. MORGAN:

Mr. CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, May 4, 1964

It appears that all logical investigation has been conducted in connection with this repair ticket. For the Bureau's information, however, it is the opinion of SA EMORY E. HORTON, who has interviewed DIAL D. RYDER on several occasions, that RYDER fabricated the repair tag and that RYDER is of such nature that if he were given a Polygraph examination, it is believed by SA HORTON he would admit having fabricated such repair ticket.

Therefore, the Bureau is requested to give consideration to authorizing an interview with DIAL D. RYDER by Polygraph.

The complete results of all interviews in connection with the investigation reflected in the enclosed letterhead memorandum will be set forth in the next report submitted in the above-captioned case.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated April 28, 1964, the President's Commission requested additional investigation to resolve certain information previously furnished by Mr. DIAL D. RYDER, employee, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, with respect to a repair tag that purports to reflect work done on a firearm, which repair tag bore the name "OSWALD".

At 6:30 P.M. on November 24, 1963, an anonymous male caller telephonically advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Dallas, Texas, that at about 5:30 P.M. he learned from an unidentified male boy at Wyatt's Supermarket, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, Irving, Texas, that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. He said he could furnish no further details concerning this matter and does not know if it is true or how the boy found out this information.

The above anonymous male caller sounded as if he were a normal, stable individual, but said he did not desire to identify himself.

On November 25, 1963, a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation proceeded to Irving, Texas, and found the Irving Sports Shop was closed. Neighborhood inquiry revealed that the owner of the Irving Sports Shop was a WOODROW GREENER, who was reportedly then visiting at an unknown address in East Texas. In GREENER's absence, an employee, DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard, Irving,

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Texas, was contacted at his home, at which time he stated that he had, on November 23, 1963, found a repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD". RYDER and the Agent then proceeded to the Irving Sports Shop, where the pertinent repair tag was examined by the Agent and the interview continued, which interview is reflected on page 395 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

On May 13, 1964, RAY JOHN, Television News Department, Channel 8, WFAA-TV, corner Young and Houston Streets, Dallas, Texas, advised that he recalls that on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he arrived at his office at approximately 1:00 P.M. to coordinate the recent news events.

JOHN advised that he received a telephone call sometime between 3:00 and 3:30 P.M. of that day from an anonymous male caller, who stated that he believed "OSWALD" had had a rifle sighted at a gun shop located in the 200 block on Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas. JOHN advised he interpreted the name "OSWALD" to mean LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated he recalled asking the anonymous caller where he obtained this information and that the caller declined to elaborate. The caller did not support his statement by any other corroborating information, and for that reason JOHN did not place too much credence in the story.

JOHN advised, however, he decided to offer this information to law enforcement for whatever it might be worth, and he, accordingly, called the office of J. WILL FRITZ, Captain, Homicide and Robbery Division, Dallas Police Department, at about 3:45 P.M. and furnished this information to Detective FAY TURNER of that Division.

JOHN advised he could recall the anonymous caller had a very husky, deep bass voice and was definitely a male.

JOHN stated he has never had occasion, to his recollection, to talk to either Mr. GREENER or Mr. RYDER of the Irving Sports Shop, either in person or by telephone, and in any case feels he would be unable to recognize the voice of the anonymous caller if he heard it again.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

JOHN advised the caller was on the line only a matter of seconds and that no other conversation took place, to the best of his recollection.

On May 4, 1964, Mr. CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, 2015 Rosebud, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, which GREENER stated he owns.

Mr. GREENER stated he cannot recall stating to anyone that he could fix the date that the Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" was prepared between November 4 and 8, 1963, and does not recall stating it appears the gun for that tag was brought in between those dates. He said he only recalls stating he was out of Texas during the period November 1 through 13, 1963, and he is confident that if the gun represented by that tag were brought in, it was brought in while he, GREENER, was out of the store as he has no recollection whatsoever regarding the transaction.

Mr. GREENER was asked if there is any question in his mind that a gun represented by the repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" was brought into the store. Mr. GREENER said he had answered the previous question as he did as he was recently interviewed by a representative of the President's Commission and that person pressed him, GREENER, on the point of whether the pertinent repair tag represented an actual gun and repair job. Mr. GREENER said it is his opinion that the repair tag represents a bona fide transaction, pointing out that DIAL RYDER has been employed by him, GREENER, for the past six years, and during that period he has found RYDER to be a good, steady, reliable employee and he has never known of RYDER doing anything wrong; therefore, he has every confidence in RYDER. He said he, GREENER, goes away and leaves the entire business in RYDER's care and "I never worry a minute about the business."

Mr. GREENER stated that the number on the pertinent repair tag means absolutely nothing and is of no use whatsoever in attempting to fix the date that the repair tag was prepared. He stated the repair tags come in boxes of approximately five hundred, and when they open a box they dump them out on the workbench and make no effort whatsoever to use them in sequence. He stated that when work is brought in, the person accepting the work will reach over, pick up a repair tag, and fill it out and they may take a tag from any part of the batch of tags lying on the workbench.

GREENER stated that the fact that the claim check portion was still attached means nothing because in nine out of ten cases the claim check stub is not detached from the repair ticket and given to the customer. He pointed out that he has found that to require a claim check is not practical as most customers will not bring the claim check with them when they pick up their equipment; therefore, he does not make any effort to require claim checks.

Mr. GREENER stated that he did cause a review to be made of his cash register tapes for the ten-day period in early November 1963 when he was away from the store, and found several entries for even $6.00 amounts. He pointed out that due to the number of $6.00 entries found, he realized that would be of no help in determining when the work called for on the pertinent repair tag would have been picked up; therefore, he made no record of the $6.00 entries located.

Mr. GREENER stated that they, the GREENERS, have checked every way possible to pin down the date that the above referred to repair tag was prepared and/or the item picked up by the customer, and "there is no earthly way the date can be more closely established."

On May 4, 1964, DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard, telephone number BL 3-4876, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. Mr. RYDER said he first noticed repair tag number 18374, which bears the name of "OSWALD" as the owner of the gun to be repaired, on Saturday, November 23, 1963. He stated that on that occasion he, RYDER, was cleaning off his workbench, it being cluttered with various tools, shop towels, and repair tags, and it was during this cleaning up that he noticed the tag bearing the name "OSWALD". He pointed out that the tag attracted his attention as the name "OSWALD" had been mentioned frequently in the news on November 22 and 23, 1963.

Mr. RYDER stated that prior to finding the repair tag, he had no recollection of doing any work for a person named OSWALD, even though he had heard the news of the arrest of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had seen his picture on television on numerous occasions on November 22 and 23, 1963.

Mr. RYDER said he usually prepares repair tags in pen as he carries a ballpoint pen in his shirt pocket, but does recall that on one occasion on an unrecalled date during the first two weeks of November 1963 he had used a pencil during the greater part of a day. He recalled that on the date he had used a pencil he made a trip to Cullum and Boren Company, Dallas, Texas, and picked up some items of unrecalled nature. He said he has not made any review of his records to try to identify the day that he used a pencil and visited Cullum and Boren Company in downtown Dallas as it would be very difficult to determine that date from his records. Further, if the date were determined he questions that it would be of any real significance as far as establishing the date that he prepared repair tag number 18374, because he does not use a pen exclusively, pointing out that frequently a customer will bring a gun or other work into the store and he, RYDER, will pick up a repair tag and pencil from his workbench and prepare the tag. He stated that on other occasions he will sign items in pencil if a pencil is handy or if someone hands him a pencil when giving him an invoice or other item to be signed.

Mr. RYDER stated that there is no other sports shop located within several blocks of that area and the Irving Sports Shop is the only place that has a gunsmith located within a few blocks distance of the furniture store formerly operated by Mrs. EDITH WEITWORTH on East Irving Boulevard.

On May 4, 1964, Mr. J. R. CLEMENTS, Office Manager, Cullum and Boren Company (C-B), 1509 Elm, telephone number RI 2-6115, Dallas, Texas, made available for review each invoice that reflects a sale to Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, during the period November 1 through 14, 1963. The review of the invoices reflects the following pertinent information:

1) C-B Invoice Number 27263 signed by DIAL RYDER in pencil on November 6, 1963, acknowledging receipt of the material identified on the invoice. The order was picked up at the C-B Gun Shop and consisted of gun and reel parts with a total price of $3.10.

2) C-B Invoice Number 27264 signed by DIAL RYDER in pen on November 7, 1963, thereby acknowledging receipt of the items listed on the invoice. The total amount of the invoice is $138.40 and was picked up by RYDER at the main store.

3) C-B Invoice Number 27392 is signed by DIAL RYDER in pen, thereby acknowledging receipt of the material called for in the invoice on November 8, 1963. The material called for on the invoice consisted of parts and was picked up by RYDER at the C-B Gun Shop.

4) C-B Invoice Number 27897 was picked up by RYDER at the C-B Gun Shop on November 12, 1963, at which time RYDER signed the invoice in pencil, acknowledging receipt of the items listed therein. The parts called for in the invoice are gun parts with a total cost of $10.67.

5) C-B Invoice Number 27898 was signed by DIAL RYDER in pen, having been picked up by RYDER at the C-B warehouse on November 12, 1963. The items called for in the invoice consist of sporting equipment. The total amount was $115.34.

6) C-B Invoice Number 28030 was signed by DIAL RYDER in pencil with the items called for in the invoice having been picked up by RYDER at the C-B Gun Shop on November 13, 1963. The invoice lists gun parts with a total cost of $19.17.

On May 5, 1964, DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard, telephone number BL 3-4876, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas.

Mr. RYDER stated he has no recollection of what items he picked up at Cullum and Boren Company in downtown Dallas on the occasion of his visit when he recalls using a pencil in early November 1963.

The pertinent data on the Cullum and Boren invoices signed by RYDER during the period November 1 through 14, 1963, were reviewed with RYDER, including the nature of the writing instrument used by him to sign the invoices. After considering this information, Mr. RYDER said it would not help as he still cannot recall what he picked up on the occasion he had in mind when he used a pencil during the entire date as related to Officer F. M. TURNER of the Dallas Police Department.

On May 4, 1964, JOYCE (Mrs. BOB G.) HOLLAWAY, 1241 Marlynn, Irving, Texas, telephone number BL 4-7191, was interviewed at the home of Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH, 315 South Jefferson, Irving, Texas. Mrs. HOLLAWAY said EDITH WHITWORTH is her, HOLLAWAY's, mother.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said she and her husband have two sons, they being JEFFRY LYNN HOLLAWAY, who was born October 10, 1963, and BRYAN DOUGLAS HOLLAWAY, who was born October 25, 1961. Mrs. HOLLAWAY said her children are Mrs. WHITWORTH's only grandchildren.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY recalled that soon after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY on November 22, 1963, Mrs. WHITWORTH told her that when she, WHITWORTH, first saw the picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD on television she thought he looked familiar. Later, when Mrs. WHITWORTH saw pictures and/or heard the descriptions of OSWALD's wife and children, Mrs. WHITWORTH then thought she recognized the OSWALDS as a family that had been in WHITWORTH's furniture store in the recent past and whom Mrs. WHITWORTH referred to a sports shop. She said her mother mentioned the family that came into the furniture store had two small daughters, as Mrs. WHITWORTH said she told that family that they and her, WHITWORTH's, daughter should get together as the HOLLAWAYS had two small sons.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said she understands there was another woman in the furniture store at the time the above-referred to family came into the store, but she, HOLLAWAY, does not know the identity of that person.

Mrs. HOLLAWAY said her mother undoubtedly referred the family to the Irving Sports Shop as that was the only sports shop in that area of Irving, Texas.

On May 5, 1964, Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH, 315 South Jefferson, telephone number BL 3-2538, Irving, Texas, stated she formerly operated the Furniture Mart, a furniture store, at 149 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, having closed the business during the latter part of January 1964.

Mrs. WHITWORTH said she is confident in her own mind that the man, woman, and two small children who visited the Furniture Mart on November 6, 7 or 8, 1963, as she has previously related, were LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MARINA OSWALD, and their two small children.

Mrs. WHITWORTH stated that on the occasion of the visit LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered the store and asked for an unrecalled part for a gun. Mrs. WHITWORTH said she told him the gun shop had moved and directed him to a gun shop that had a gunsmith that was located nearby. She stated she does not specifically recall which gun shop she referred OSWALD to, but in all probability referred him to the Irving Sports Shop, which was only one block east of the Furniture Mart. She stated she might have referred him to Ed's Pawn Shop, 616 East Irving Boulevard, which is operated by ED FULBRIGHT. She explained that WARREN GRAVES previously operated a gun shop in the space occupied by the Furniture Mart, but GRAVES sold out to FULBRIGHT in early 1963 but continued to work for FULBRIGHT at Ed's Pawn Shop; therefore, she might have referred OSWALD to that shop in view of her acquaintanceship with GRAVES.

Mrs. WHITWORTH recalled that after she gave OSWALD directions to the gun shop he noticed that she had furniture and stated he would be needing some furniture within two or three weeks and started looking around. She said she started showing him used furniture and talking to him, trying to determine what he was really interested in, and during this period they were joined by a woman who was carrying a baby and accompanied by a two-year old girl. She said she later saw pictures of the woman on television and in the newspapers, and now knows her to be MARINA OSWALD, wife of the late LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She started talking about the children and LEE HARVEY OSWALD told her that the baby was two weeks old at that time, which brought to mind her grandsons, as one was born October 10, 1963, and the other was born October 28, 1961, which made his birthday near that of the OSWALD baby. She further pointed out that her older grandson was near the age of OSWALD's older daughter.

Mrs. WHITWORTH stated she knows that the couple who visited the Furniture Mart on the above occasion were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD. She said LEE HARVEY OSWALD was wearing a white shirt and a dark sweater, while MARINA was wearing a car coat, believed to be blue. She said she has no recollection how the two-year old daughter was dressed and only recalls the baby was wrapped in a blanket of unknown color and description.

On May 5, 1964, EDWARD FULBRIGHT, owner, Ed's Pawn Shop, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at his place of business, 616 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. Mr. FULBRIGHT stated he bought out W. A. GRAVES in January 1963, at which time GRAVES was operating a small gunshop in the space occupied by the Furniture Mart on East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. FULBRIGHT stated that GRAVES continued to work for him, FULBRIGHT, for a period of four weeks after he bought the business, with GRAVES being terminated on February 16, 1963. He stated during this period of time, GRAVES worked at Ed's Pawn Shop, 616 East Irving Boulevard, as a gunsmith and he, FULBRIGHT, has not had a gunsmith or performed any repair work on guns since GRAVES was terminated.

Mr. FULBRIGHT stated he has observed numerous photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD during recent months, and he has no recollection whatsoever of ever meeting or seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and specifically has no recollection of OSWALD ever visiting Ed's Pawn Shop or making inquiry regarding any type of gun repair.

On May 5, 1964, Mrs. GERTRUDE (J. T.) HUNTER was interviewed at her residence, 141 South Hastings, Irving, Texas, at which time she furnished the following information:

Mrs. HUNTER stated she visited in the Furniture Mart, a furniture store previously located on East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, frequently during the latter months of 1963. She explained the Furniture Mart was operated by Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH and she, HUNTER, would go to the furniture store on Wednesday and/or Thursday afternoon of each week to make plans with Mrs. WHITWORTH for attending the Irving High School football games that were held on Friday evenings. She said she always arrived at the Furniture Mart between 1:00 and 2:00 P.M. and would leave between 4:00 and 4:15 P.M.

Mrs. HUNTER recalled that on one of her visits, which she feels sure was November 6, 7, 13 or 14, 1963, she was at the Furniture Mart visiting with Mrs. WHITWORTH when a young man who Mrs. HUNTER later learned was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, came into the store and asked if the gunsmith was in, explaining that he, OSWALD, wanted something fixed on his gun, but Mrs. HUNTER does not recall the nature of the work he wanted performed. Mrs. HUNTER said she does not recall that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had a gun in his hands at the time he was in the store. She recalled Mrs. WHITWORTH referred OSWALD to an unrecalled gunshop which had a gunsmith, and she only recalls the place to which OSWALD was referred is located east of the Furniture Mart in Irving, Texas.

She recalls the place to which OSWALD was referred is to the east as OSWALD started to turn east onto Irving Boulevard when he left, noting that Irving Boulevard is a one-way street west. She said that she, HUNTER, told OSWALD it would be necessary for him to proceed west on Irving Boulevard to the traffic light, turn left one block, and then back east to the gun shop to which he had been referred.

Mrs. HUNTER recalled that during the conversation with OSWALD, who was accompanied by his wife and two small girls, Mrs. EDITH WHITWORTH had jokingly referred to trading a little boy for one of the OSWALDS' little girls so each family would have a boy and a girl. She stated that in referring to the little boys, Mrs. WHITWORTH was making reference to her grandsons.

Mrs. HUNTER stated that on the occasion of the visit to the Furniture Mart, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, his wife and two children were the only persons in the car driven by OSWALD, and she recalls the car as being a 1957 or 1958 Ford, two-tone blue and cream. She said she is confident that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was driving the car as there was no one else in the car with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MARINA OSWALD and their small daughters.

Mrs. HUNTER said she is confident the car was a blue and cream 1957 or 1958 Ford as she has friends in Houston, Texas, who own a blue and white 1958 Ford, and her brother-in-law has a 1957 Ford; therefore, when the OSWALDS parked in front of the furniture store, she observed the car and immediately thought of her friends in Houston, Texas.

Mrs. HUNTER said she is definite that the man and woman with small children who visited the Furniture Mart on the above-referred to occasion were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD with their children. She said when she, HUNTER, first saw pictures of the OSWALDS on television and in the newspapers, she was sure she had seen them, but could not immediately place the occasion that she had seen those persons. She said that a few days later she again visited the Furniture Mart, and at that time she recalled the couple who had visited the store and realized they were LEE HARVEY OSWALD and MARINA OSWALD. She said she then mentioned this to EDITH WHITWORTH and Mrs. WHITWORTH told her that she, WHITWORTH, had previously realized the couple who visited the store were the OSWALDS, but had not mentioned this fact to Mrs. HUNTER.

Mrs. HUNTER stated that on the occasion of visiting the Furniture Mart, MARINA OSWALD was not neatly dressed, wearing a jacket of unrecalled description, but believed to be either orchid or purple in color. She stated she recalls LEE HARVEY OSWALD was neatly dressed, wearing unrecalled casual clothing and a jacket of unrecalled description.

As reported on page 218 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, Mr. H. S. AIKEN, Bookkeeper, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, made available the official payroll records for the Texas School Book Depository, which records specifically covered employment of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

These records reflected that OSWALD first worked for this company on October 16, 1963, and worked continuously at eight hours per day from October 16, 1963, through November 22, 1963, without missing any day's work. During this period of time he was off only on Saturdays and Sundays, and November 11, 1963, which was a company holiday.

As reported on page 328 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Manager, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, advised that the men working at the warehouse of Texas School Book Depository have regular working hours of 8:00 A.M. to 4:45 P.M., five days per week, with a lunch period from 12:00 noon to 12:45 P.M. He stated, however, that they do not have to punch time clocks, and there was no one who kept a strict accounting of the time they took for lunch. Mr. TRULY advised that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was one of these employees, and these are the hours he was assigned to work.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 8, 1964, LEON HUMBERSON, Manager, Wyatt's Food Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, Irving, Texas, was asked if any information had come to his attention to the effect that one of the sack boys at that store had any information to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. HUMBERSON said he had not received any such information and very seriously doubted that any employee would have information like that without it coming to his attention.

HUMBERSON said he would contact all of his employees at Wyatt's Food Store and question them to determine if any of them had any information to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop. He also said he would determine from them if they had any information at all which would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

On May 12, 1964, LEON HUMBERSON, Manager, Wyatt's Food Store, Plymouth Park Shopping Center, Irving, Texas, stated he questioned all of the employees at that store to learn if any had any information that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, on Thursday, November 21, 1963, had his rifle sighted at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas. He stated that all advised him they had no information relating to this incident and none which would assist in the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY.

HUMBERSON further advised he is positive in his own mind, because of the notoriety the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY had reached at that time, that if any employee had any information relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD it would have been a common topic of discussion among all the employees at that store.

HUMBERSON stated the Wyatt's Food Store at the Plymouth Park Shopping Center is the only Wyatt's Food Store located in Irving, Texas.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 8, 1964, records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Fort Worth, Texas, which office covers the Fort Worth Suburban area, as well as the Metropolitan area, reflect the only unpublished telephone number in the name of OSWALD was that of Lieutenant JAMES R. OSWALD, 97th Bomb Wing, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, for PE 7-3453, connected June 1963. This number was changed to PE 7-4368 on February 18, 1964, and was disconnected March 31, 1964.

On May 6, 1964, the records of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, Texas, reflect the only unpublished telephone number presently on record in the Dallas Metropolitan and Suburban area in the name of OSWALD is that of MARINA OSWALD, 629 West Belt Line Road, Richardson, Texas, telephone number ADams 9-5642, connected February 29, 1964. Records of this office further indicate no unpublished numbers in the name of OSWALD during October-November 1963.

On May 7, 1964, Miss NAOMI GABRIEL, Administrative Assistant to Sales Manager, R. L. Polk and Company, 7169 Envoy Court, Dallas, Texas, publishers of Polk's City Directories for the Dallas - Fort Worth area, furnished the following information relative to preparation of the City Directories by her firm:

Miss GABRIEL explained that the Dallas division of R. L. Polk and Company covers a six-state area of the southwestern portion of the United States and that the company employs in this area approximately two hundred travel enumerators who are continuously compiling resident information of principal communities throughout this six-state area. Groups of travel enumerators are dispersed to these areas where scheduled compilations are made and the company enumerators then hire local individuals in their respective communities to conduct a door-to-door canvass to obtain the desired information. Each resident is asked to supply the following information: head of household; wife (or spouse); number of residents 18 years of age or older; occupation of all occupants at each address; whether householder owns home or rents; whether residence has a telephone.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The house-to-house canvasser is furnished a list of specific addresses and is asked to obtain information regarding occupants at all addresses, including apartment dwellers and occupants of rooming houses who have taken up residence in excess of one month. The canvasser is required to make three personal contacts in an effort to obtain the desired information, and if canvasser is unable to contact the resident on third attempt, a self-addressed card is left at the residence with the request it be filled out and forwarded to R. L. Polk and Company, Dallas. If the card is not returned within seven days, the canvasser will resort to second-hand information, that is, neighborhood contacts, in an effort to obtain the information.

Miss GABRIEL advised the canvass is so comprehensive the company estimates less than one-half of one per cent of all residents of a community are not listed and this is usually at their request. In many of these instances a householder may desire not to be listed in the directory, but in such cases the available information regarding the householder is listed anyway, unless he furnishes a personal, signed letter to R. L. Polk and Company confirming this request. A check of those records by Miss GABRIEL revealed no such letter having been received from an OSWALD.

Miss GABRIEL stated, further, that upon completion of the compilation, the results of the canvass are reviewed by checkers at the Dallas office for correct spelling and other entries and are then sent to the R. L. Polk and Company printer in Hutchinson, Kansas, for final assembling and binding.

Miss GABRIEL advised her records reflect that the 1963 Irving, Texas, Directory canvass was started December 3, 1962, and was completed January 5, 1963, and the completed directory was delivered to R. L. Polk and Company customers in April 1963. The canvass for the 1963 Dallas Directory was started September 22, 1962, and completed January 12, 1963. The completed directory was delivered to Polk customers June 21, 1963.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The canvass for the 1964 Dallas Directory was initiated December 1963 and completed March 19, 1964, and is presently being printed at the R. L. Polk and Company plant, 1 South Lorraine Street, Hutchinson, Kansas. This directory is expected to be delivered to directory customers around June 1, 1964. It is contemplated this directory should be ready for distribution in August 1964.

The Fort Worth Metropolitan Directory was delivered to directory customers in November 1963 and the Fort Worth Suburban Directory was delivered October 6, 1963. The canvass for the 1964 Fort Worth Metropolitan and Suburban Directories has not yet been initiated.

Miss GABRIEL advised the results of the canvass for the 1964 Dallas Directory which is now being printed are not available at the R. L. Polk and Company Dallas office, and a proof copy of the composite directory is not expected to be received by their office until the end of May, 1964.

On May 8, 1964, a review of the Greater Fort Worth Alphabetical Telephone Directory of March, 1963, by a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation revealed the following individuals having listed telephones with the surname OSWALD. It is noted this directory covers outer suburban areas, as well as Metropolitan Fort Worth:

On May 8, 1964, a review of the March, 1964, Fort Worth Alphabetical Directory by a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation revealed the following individuals having listed telephones under the surname OSWALD:

J. G. OSWALD, JR., 1824 6th Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas;
M. C. OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas (known to be MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD).

The above-listed persons, with the surname of OSWALD, with the exception listed in the next paragraph, have been interviewed and each specifically denied having any repair work performed at the Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, during the Fall of 1963.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Regarding the above, it is noted that MARGUERITE OSWALD, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was not contacted regarding work performed at the Irving Sports Shop during the Fall of 1963. Further, it was determined that Lieutenant JAMES R. OSWALD, formerly with the 97th Bomb Wing, Carswell Air Force Base, Fort Worth, Texas, is presently residing at Post Office Box 1203, Blytheville, Arkansas, and efforts are presently being made to contact him.

On May 15, 1964, Detective FAY M. TURNER, Homicide and Robbery Division, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised he recalls that on the afternoon of Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he was on duty in the offices of Captain J. WILL FRITZ and he received a telephone call from one RAY JOHN, whom he knows to be a member of the news staff for Channel 8, WFAA-TV, Dallas, Texas. To the best of his recollection, this call was received in his office at approximately 3:45 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

He advised JOHN told him that he, JOHN, had just received a call at the Channel 8 offices from an anonymous caller to the effect that "OSWALD" had taken a rifle to a gun-shop located in the 200 block on Irving Boulevard on November 21, 1963, to have the rifle "sighted-in". TURNER stated he checked the city directories in his office and determined that the Irving Sports Shop was located at 221 East Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas, and this appeared to be the only shop of its type within several blocks of that address. TURNER stated he contacted the Irving Sports Shop and talked to a Mr. GREENER, manager of that establishment, regarding this information as received from the anonymous caller and that GREENER told him he and his employee, RYDER, had discussed the matter of the assassination in connection with repair work they may have done in their shop but that neither could remember having done any work for LEE HARVEY OSWALD and in particular could not recall having performed any work on a Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, which rifle was believed at that time to be the assassination weapon.

TURNER advised he has no information whatsoever indicating the identity of this anonymous caller other than that furnished to him by Mr. RAY JOHN of Channel 8 news and, in fact, was not aware of whether the caller was a male or female prior to this interview. TURNER advised, further, that he has discussed the matter of this anonymous call in connection with the Irving Sports Shop with other members of his department and none were able to furnish any substantial information leading to the identity of this individual.

Pages 446, 447 and 448 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated March 10, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, reflect an interview with MARINA OSWALD on February 18, 1964, and it is noted that in paragraph one of page 447, she said to her knowledge OSWALD had only one rifle and that rifle is the one he maintained in the PAINE garage during her residence with Mrs. PAINE, and the same rifle she identified in her testimony before the President's Commission investigating the assassination. She said he had received this rifle by mail. At the time he received the rifle, they were residing on Neely Street. She said she now can remember this definitely and is sure in her own mind that she did not see OSWALD with a rifle in January 1963.

Pages 192, 193 and 194 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated January 22, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, reflect an interview with ROBERT LEE OSWALD, brother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Paragraph two, page 193, reflects that ROBERT said the only firearm he knew LEE to own was an inexpensive little .22 caliber rifle when he was a boy. He sold this rifle to ROBERT and never appeared to have any particular liking for or attraction to firearms. Even after he returned from the Marine Corps, during the time he was in Fort Worth, he did not talk about guns, shooting or anything that would in any way indicate an inclination on his part to do serious physical harm to anyone.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On May 18, 1964, Mr. DIAL D. RYDER, 2028 Harvard, telephone number BL 3-4876, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at his place of employment, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas.

Mr. RYDER stated that he definitely had not talked to any representative of any newspaper or other news service prior to being contacted by a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on November 25, 1963. He stated he found the Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" as customer on November 23, 1963, but had not told anyone, other than his wife, about finding the tag prior to being interviewed by a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on November 25, 1963.

Mr. RYDER stated that he has no recollection of talking to any reporter or representative of the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper at any time and definitely did not talk to any representative of any newspaper or news service prior to the article appearing in the "Dallas Times Herald" on November 28, 1963. He stated that at approximately 7:30 A.M., November 29, 1963, his telephone rang, and, when he answered it, the person on the phone identified himself as being with a newspaper, believed to be the "Dallas Times Herald", and asked Mr. RYDER if LEE HARVEY OSWALD had any work performed at the Irving Sports Shop. RYDER stated that he told the individual that he "had no comment", at which time he hung up the phone and immediately removed the receiver from the hook, thereby making it impossible for other calls to be made to his, RYDER's, residence. RYDER explained that when he received this telephone call, he was asleep; therefore, he was somewhat drowsy at the time he answered the phone, resulting in his not recalling the name of the person calling him on that occasion.

Mr. RYDER stated that he was contacted on November 26, 1963, by representatives of CBS-TV, at which time pictures were made that later appeared on television. In addition, he was contacted on the same date, November 28, 1963, by a reporter, name unrecalled, who represented some newspaper located in Washington, D. C. He stated these were the first occasions of his being contacted by representatives of news services.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mr. RYDER stated that he was very disturbed and is still quite irritated over the article that appeared in the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper on November 28, 1963, in which he, RYDER, is quoted as furnishing information contained in the article. He stated that he did not furnish the information appearing in that article, has no idea who may have furnished this information, and concluded by stating that if he can learn the identity of the reporter who prepared the article, "the reporter will have me to fight".

Mr. RYDER specifically denied making any telephone calls in which he did not identify himself to anyone advising that OSWALD had any repair work performed or gun sighted-in at the Irving Sports Shop.

On May 18, 1964, Mr. CHARLES WOODROW GREENER, 2015 Rosebud, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at his place of business, Irving Sports Shop, 221 East Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas.

Mr. GREENER stated that he first saw and learned of the existence of an Irving Sports Shop repair tag bearing the name "OSWALD" on a date that he is confident was November 28, 1963. He explained that he recalls this occurred on a date when the store was closed that was a few days after the President was assassinated; therefore, he is sure that it was Thanksgiving day, November 28, 1963. He said he was contacted by representatives, names unknown, of a television station and he accompanied them to the Irving Sports Shop where pictures were made, which pictures later appeared on a television program.

Mr. GREENER said he was also contacted by a reporter of the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper, who said he, the reporter, had talked to DIAL RYDER by phone regarding the work performed for someone named OSWALD before RYDER had been interviewed by a Special Agent of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Mr. GREENER stated that he does not know the name of the reporter and has no knowledge as to how this reporter might be identified other than the fact he assumes this reporter is the individual who wrote the article that appeared in the "Dallas Times Herald" of November 28, 1963.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Mr. GREENER stated that he has absolutely no idea who might have made the initial calls regarding the possibility that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had work performed by the Irving Sports Shop. He stated that he does know that a Mrs. WHITWORTH, who previously operated the Furniture Mart on East Irving Boulevard, about one block west of the Irving Sports Shop, has stated that OSWALD, his wife and children were in the Furniture Mart in early November 1963 looking for a gunsmith, therefore, suggesting the possibility that Mrs. WHITWORTH may have made the initiating telephone call.

Mr. GREENER specifically denied making any telephone calls in which he did not identify himself to anyone advising that OSWALD had any repair work performed or gun sighted-in at the Irving Sports Shop.

On May 18, 1964, KENNETH SMART, City Editor, 4th Floor, "Dallas Times Herald", Herald Square, Dallas, Texas, was exhibited a clipping taken from the "Dallas Times Herald" edition of November 28, 1963, captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING". SMART advised, upon perusal of this article, that on Thursday, November 28, 1963, he was at home as a result of a virus infection and, therefore, did not read the rewrite on this article which was routed over the City Editor's desk. SMART advised the reporting and rewrite of this article could have been handled by the following reporters:

GEORGE CARTER, police reporter, attached to the Dallas Police Department and Dallas County Sheriff's Office every day except Thursday and Sunday;
DARWIN PAYNE, alternate police reporter who handles Police Department and Sheriff's Office on Thursday and in the absence of CARTER;
BEN STEVENS, rewrite desk, who may have handled the rewrite of this article. STEVENS presently is on vacation;
JAMES LEHRER, city reporter;
HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., county reporter, who handles all outlying areas on a roving reporter basis, including Irving, Texas.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The above-noted article was exhibited to GEORGE CARTER, DARWIN PAYNE and JAMES LEHRER, and all advised they did not write this article and could not recall anything else concerning it. JAMES LEHRER, however, stated he recalled this matter had been handled by HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., and that SCHMIDT had written the article upon receipt of information which he believed was based upon an anonymous tip.

On May 18, 1964, HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., county reporter, "Dallas Times Herald", Herald Square, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed regarding an article appearing in the November 28, 1963, edition of the "Dallas Times Herald", captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING".

SCHMIDT advised he recalled writing this article on the morning of November 28, 1963, in his offices on the fourth floor of the Times Herald Building. He stated that on the morning of November 28, 1963, he arrived at work at 7:00 A.M., as is his usual custom; and, as he entered the city news room, he was advised by other reporters already on duty, to the effect that information had been received by them that the Dallas Police Department was in possession of information that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had had a telescopic sight mounted on his rifle at a suburban gunshop. He stated he was told that a gunsmith by the name of "RYDER" had mounted a scope on a rifle for an individual by the name of "OSWALD" and that this matter was currently being investigated by the Dallas Police Department. SCHMIDT stated the gunshop allegedly was located in the suburban community of Garland, Texas, and this matter was brought to his attention inasmuch as he was assigned to handle the outlying suburban areas.

SCHMIDT advised he checked city directories for Garland and surrounding areas and was unable to locate a gunshop employing an individual by the name of RYDER. He stated he then checked city directories for the name RYDER and determined that DIAL D. RYDER of Irving, Texas, was employed by the Irving Sports Shop, located on Irving Boulevard in that city. He stated he attempted to contact the Irving Sports Shop by telephone but, after receiving no answer, then called DIAL D. RYDER at his residence. SCHMIDT estimated the time of his call to be between 7:30 and 8:00 A.M. on the morning of November 28, 1963.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

SCHMIDT advised the telephone was answered by an individual claiming to be DIAL D. RYDER of 2028 Harvard Street, Irving, Texas, and that, after identifying himself fully as a reporter for the "Dallas Times Herald" newspaper in Dallas, Texas, he then asked RYDER if he had attached a telescopic sight to a rifle for a man named OSWALD. SCHMIDT advised that it was obvious from the opening conversation that he had awakened RYDER and RYDER made mention of the fact that he was quite sleepy and had not slept well the night before. RYDER, however, was very helpful and cooperative in answer to SCHMIDT's questions, and appeared to be very happy to furnish answers to any questions submitted by SCHMIDT.

SCHMIDT stated RYDER advised him he was employed at the Irving Sports Shop, located on Irving Boulevard in Irving, Texas, and that part of his duties consisted of performing repair work on rifles and other weapons for customers of that sports shop; and, in the course of his business, he recalled having attached a telescopic sight and bore sighted a foreign-made rifle for a customer named OSWALD about a month prior to that time. RYDER told him he could not recall the make of the rifle, although he believed it to be foreign made, but would be unable to further identify it.

RYDER explained to him that he had located an undated ticket made out to one OSWALD reflecting the notations, drilling and tapping $4.50, and bore sighting $1.50, total charges $6.00. RYDER explained this ticket could only reflect that he had drilled and tapped screw holes for mounting a telescopic sight and that, according to the charges reflected on the ticket, the work done on the rifle would consist of drilling three holes for which he charges $1.50 each, and the other $1.50 would reflect charges for bore sighting.

SCHMIDT advised RYDER went on to explain to him in detail the significance of the term "bore sighting", which SCHMIDT interpreted to mean the alignment of the telescopic sight to the rifle bore for accurate shooting.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

SCHMIDT advised he recalled RYDER volunteering that insofar as he could remember, the customer OSWALD bought no ammunition for this rifle from him.

SCHMIDT advised he recalls specifically questioning RYDER as to the further description of this OSWALD for whom RYDER allegedly performed this work, but that RYDER explained to him that he had performed work of this type on a great many rifles during that time of year as the hunting season was approaching, and he had no recollection whatsoever of the individual named OSWALD for whom he performed this work. SCHMIDT advised that at the conclusion of the interview, RYDER appeared very cordial and he recalled RYDER inviting him to recontact RYDER at any time in the future in the event he desired further information in this regard.

SCHMIDT stated that, based upon the information received from RYDER, he immediately sat down and wrote the article captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING", and, that after submitting it to the rewrite department for approval, it was dispatched by messenger to the press rooms immediately thereafter so that it could be included in the next edition of the "Dallas Times Herald". SCHMIDT explained that he believes this article came out in the 11:00 A.M. edition, although he could not be positive as there are five editions a day of the "Dallas Times Herald". SCHMIDT advised the article appeared in the lower left-hand corner of the front page, but did not carry his by-line. He stated, however, the article was well received and he recalled answering several inquiries that day from other members of the press and television media.

SCHMIDT advised that while at his residence the evening of November 28, 1963, he observed a taped television interview on the 10:00 o'clock news of CBS Television, in which RYDER denied furnishing any of the information to a "Dallas Times Herald" reporter as set forth in the article, and, although RYDER indicated the possibility existed the Irving Sports Shop could have performed work for LEE HARVEY OSWALD without the knowledge of RYDER, RYDER did not mention the work ticket or any of the items listed thereon as he had to SCHMIDT early that morning and, in effect, denied having furnished the contents of the article as written by SCHMIDT.

SCHMIDT advised he was naturally upset over the denial by RYDER, and the following morning, November 29, 1963, at approximately 9:00 to 10:00 A.M., he telephoned the Irving Sports Shop again and spoke to a Mr. GREENER, the owner of the shop. He advised GREENER that the information set forth in his article of the preceding day was exactly as related to him by RYDER and that he had no other source of information. He asked GREENER if RYDER had discussed this matter with him and inquired as to the reasons why RYDER had denied furnishing him, SCHMIDT, this information. SCHMIDT stated GREENER advised him that he, GREENER, was completely unaware of any of the information set forth in the article of November 28, 1963, until he was contacted by CBS Television reporters on the afternoon of November 28, 1963, and, after being interviewed by the television reporters, he confronted RYDER with the facts set forth in the newspaper article, but that RYDER denied furnishing any of these facts to any reporter at any time.

SCHMIDT stated GREENER told him that RYDER did admit receiving a telephone call in the early morning hours of November 28, 1963, but that he denied furnishing any information to the caller.

SCHMIDT stated that as a result of the conversation with GREENER and the denials of RYDER, he did not pursue the matter any further and wrote nothing else about the Irving Sports Shop.

SCHMIDT advised the only time he has ever spoken to RYDER was on the morning of November 28, 1963, and the only occasion he has had to converse with Mr. GREENER was on the morning of November 29, 1963, as related above. SCHMIDT denied having any other source of information for the article of November 28, 1963, and reiterated the fact that all the information set forth in this article was furnished to him solely by DIAL D. RYDER in the course of their telephonic conversation between 7:30 and 8:00 A.M. on the morning of November 28, 1963.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

It is pointed out that DIAL D. RYDER and HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR., the reporter for the "Dallas Times Herald", were interviewed simultaneously by different Special Agents of the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on May 18, 1964, at which time they were not aware of the information being furnished by each other. It should be noted that HUNTER SCHMIDT, JR. states he called RYDER between 7:30 A.M. and 8:00 A.M., November 28, 1963, at which time RYDER reportedly furnished the information contained in the "Dallas Times Herald" article of that date, captioned "OSWALD GUN SIGHT MOUNTED IN IRVING", while RYDER admits receiving a call at approximately the same time on November 28, 1963, but denies having furnished any information whatsoever.

The President's Commission has requested the interview of Allen Folde, former Marine Corps associate of Lee Harvey Oswald.

The 2-21-64 issue of "Life" magazine on page 72, at the bottom of column 4, contains a reference to an Allen Folde. It appears he was interviewed by the writer of the article, Donald Jackson.

St. Louis has reviewed records at Military Personnel Records Center and determined that the only Folde on file is Robert Allen Folde, 161-57-75. He now resides in Chicago at 4443 North Mobile Avenue. He was born 6-1-38 and enlisted in the Marine Corps on 7-17-56. He received his boot training at San Diego, California, from July to October, 1956. He was then transferred to Camp Pendleton, California, where he served until discharged in July, 1958. On interview he said he did not know Lee Harvey Oswald. He also advised he has never been interviewed by anyone from "Life" magazine or by any press representative concerning Oswald or his Marine Corps service.

NOTE:

Inasmuch as St. Louis has advised, after two checks at Military Personnel Records Center, that the only Allen Felde on record was the man who was interviewed by Chicago, and inasmuch as this man indicated on interview that he did not furnish any information to "Life" magazine, it is believed the best way to locate the man referred to in "Life" is to contact the writer of the article.

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

A confidential source abroad advised as follows:

A letter contained in an airmail envelope, bearing the postmark of El Salvador dated March 23, 1964, was directed to Mr. ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY, Attorney General, White House, Washington (D. C.), United States of America, with the return address of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ, House No. 1604, Barrio San Miguelito, San Salvador, Central America.

Following is a translation, from the Spanish, of this letter:

"To Mr. Robert Francis Kennedy
Attorney General of the United States of America
White House
Washington (D. C.)
United States of America

"Dear Sir:

"I hereby extend respectful greetings and wish you personal happiness.

"Allow me to set forth the following:

"Seven people masterminded the assassination of President Kennedy on November 22, 1963, in Dallas.

[redacted]

[redacted]

"In addition, two men were assigned to protection duties should the attempt be unsuccessful.

"Of course, the actual perpetrators of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy were two. One was Lee Harvey Oswald and the other Jack Ruby.

"Jack Ruby was to take over in case Lee Harvey Oswald should miss the target or be reported to the police before accomplishing his assignment.

"In this case, Jack Ruby would have fired on the President with a revolver.

"Of course, they were paid by the seven men who are the true killers of President John F. Kennedy, assassinated in a most barbaric fashion.

"By their cowardly and revolting assassination of President John F. Kennedy, they caused the prestige of the United States to suffer another scandalous blow.

"The defenders of Jack Ruby are paid by the seven men who masterminded the assassination of President Kennedy.

"Melvin Belli, who is a bought man, is also involved in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

"Dear Mr. Robert Francis Kennedy, if you accept to have a public exposure of the seven men who are responsible for the horrible and cowardly assassination of your brother, John F. Kennedy, you can send your reply to this House, No. 1604, Barrio San Miguelito, San Salvador, Central America.

"This is San Salvador Mail House No. 1604.

"These seven men who masterminded President Kennedy's assassination are plotting another crime because they know that they have managed to remain undiscovered. Also this crime is being planned against the Kennedy family.

"The killers of President Kennedy are Americans. In addition to these seven, there are others who are involved to a lesser extent.

"In my second message to you, I will give you details 'of the parts from where the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was planned.'

"Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby were paid to kill the President. They were paid by the seven men whom I mentioned before.

"I am looking forward to your reply to be sent to the above address.

"I remain

Sincerely yours,

Joaquin Rivas Gamez

EFFORTS TO LOCATE JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ
AT SAN SALVADOR, EL SALVADOR

A second confidential source abroad advised as follows:

On May 11, 1964, Major GUSTAVO ATILIO HERNANDEZ, Chief of Investigations, National Police, stated he had never heard of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 11, 1964, ALFREDO ZAPATA, Chief of Criminal Investigations, National Police, after a review of the records of the Criminal Division of the National Police, advised he could locate no information identifiable with JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 12, 1964, Dr. PEDRO ANTONIO ANGEL, Head of the Technical Section, National Police, checked his records and located a fingerprint card on an individual by the name of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. This individual was identified as a Salvadoran, born in 1924 at Apastepeque, San Vicente, El Salvador. His father was listed as JOSE RIVAS and his mother as JUANA GAMEZ. He was shown in these records to be 5'8-3/4" in height, but there was no additional physical description. This man was arrested on August 21, 1952, at which time his address was shown as Colonia Militar 10, San Salvador. He was arrested on suspicion of the homicide of ALBERTO GOMEZ GONGORA on a complaint of the latter's daughter, MERCEDES GOMEZ DE RAMIREZ. The only additional information on the card said that the accusation was not proved.

On May 12, 1964, ALFREDO ZAPATA advised that inquiry in the section of San Salvador known as Colonia Militar disclosed a number of houses bearing No. 10. ZAPATA said that the address Colonia Militar 10 is not complete inasmuch as it lacks the name of the street. He advised that inquiry had been made at every house bearing the No. 10 in the section of the city known as Colonia Militar without locating anyone who could furnish any information on JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 12, 1964, ALFREDO ZAPATA advised that investigation disclosed there is a small branch post office at North Second Avenue 1604 in the section of the city of San Salvador known as Barrio San Miguelito. On May 13, 1964, ZAPATA advised he had ascertained that this branch post office has only two employees, who indicated they receive mail but do not distribute mail from that address. Both employees, according to ZAPATA, advised they had never heard of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. ZAPATA stated he questioned both employees as to what action they would take if a letter arrived at the branch post office addressed to him, and both replied that they would forward it to the central post office in downtown San Salvador.

ZAPATA stated that during the course of the day on May 12, 1964, various people who entered the branch post office in Barrio San Miguelito were questioned as to whether they knew JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ but no one admitted knowing this individual.

On May 12, 1964, ZAPATA advised that inquiry at the central post office in downtown San Salvador failed to disclose any address for JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ and there was no indication that he received mail there.

ZAPATA advised that a number of houses on other streets within the Barrio San Miguelito section of San Salvador bear the number 1604. Residents of these houses were contacted but could furnish no information as to the whereabouts of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ and stated they had never heard of this individual.

On May 12, 1964, a third confidential source abroad advised that a review of the records of the Department of Information, Ministry of Defense, San Salvador, failed to reveal any identifiable information on JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. A record dated in November, 1961, was located on a JOAQUIN RIVAS with address shown as North Second Avenue between East 9th and 11th Streets, San Salvador. RIVAS' occupation was shown as motorist which, according to the source, would probably mean the man was a truck driver. There was a notation that this man had spoken against the Government of El Salvador. He was reported to have said, "Que se tiene que derramar mucha sangre para recuperar la situacion" (Much blood has to be spilled in order to recuperate the situation).

On May 14, 1964, ZAPATA advised that inquiries were conducted on North Second Avenue between East 9th and 11th Streets, which is in the section of the city known as Barrio San Miguelito but about nine blocks from the branch post office in Barrio San Miguelito. A woman by the name of LUCIA DE ANDRADE was located at North Second Avenue No. 613, and she informed that a JOAQUIN RIVAS had been employed as a truck driver for her until about four months ago when she sold the truck. According to Mrs. ANDRADE, JOAQUIN RIVAS was thereafter out of work, and she believed he had left El Salvador for Honduras. She could furnish no information as to where he resided.

On May 15, 1964, ZAPATA stated that on the night of May 14, 1964, the husband of LUCIA DE ANDRADE claimed that JOAQUIN RIVAS had been employed as a truck driver until he had an accident and was arrested, and subsequently left El Salvador for Costa Rica.

On May 12, 1964, WILLIAM A. MITCHELL, Consul, American Embassy, San Salvador, checked visa records without locating any identifiable information on JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 13, 1964, Mrs. THOMAS C. JAMES, Secretary, Political Section, American Embassy, San Salvador, checked the name of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ through the General Embassy Indices without locating any identifiable information.

On May 14, 1964, ZAPATA related that on the previous day one of the detectives under his command caused a check to be made of the identification cards required of all Salvadoran citizens, which cards are located in the Municipal Building of San Salvador. This check failed to indicate that any identification card had been issued in the name of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. Information was located on a JOAQUIN RIVAS PENA and a JOAQUIN RIVAS FIVAS but there was nothing to indicate either of these individuals might be identical with RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 14, 1964, ABEL HERNANDEZ, Head of the Investigative Section, Immigration Department, San Salvador, advised that a review of Immigration Department records failed to disclose that a passport had ever been issued in the name of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

On May 14, 1964, Major SALVADOR PALACIOS, Chief of the Traffic Department, San Salvador, advised that a two-day search by employees of his department had failed to locate any identifiable information on JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. He said these records included a list of all automobiles, trucks, and other vehicles, as well as drivers' licenses, for the entire country. A review of the latter records, which are broken down into private automobile licenses, motorcycle licenses, light truck licenses, and heavy truck licenses, failed to reflect the name JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ. According to law, a driver's license in any of the four categories must be renewed every year. The four categories were checked back through 1957 without locating any information in the name of JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ.

ZAPATA advised that he would continue the investigation to locate JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ and in this regard would make efforts to locate the JOAQUIN RIVAS GAMEZ who reportedly was born in 1924 at Apastepeque, San Vicente, El Salvador, to ascertain whether he was the person who directed the letter to the Attorney General of the United States.

Enclosed for Dallas are two copies each of referenced Legat letter and letterhead memorandum. Enclosed for Legat, Mexico are two copies of the original letter from Gamez in the Spanish language as requested.

Logical and reasonable efforts have been made by Legat Mexico sources to locate Gamez and it is not felt any additional investigation is required in this particular matter. Since Alfredo Zapata, Chief of Criminal Investigation, National Police, San Salvador, El Salvador, has indicated he is continuing his efforts to locate Gamez, any information subsequently received from him should be accepted and he can be furnished a copy of the original letter written by Gamez in Spanish for his information. He should be advised that it is not necessary to continue his efforts. The results of any additional information furnished by Zapata should be placed by Legat, Mexico in appropriate inserts for inclusion in a report by Dallas for dissemination to the President's Commission. This particular procedure is stressed in this matter as a letterhead memorandum is not desired. Twenty-five copies of the insert should be prepared for transmittal to Dallas by the Bureau.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, AKA...

Dallas should incorporate the information in Legat Mexico's letterhead memorandum in appropriate inserts for inclusion in the next report in the above-captioned matter. It will be necessary for you to retype this material particularly page 1 wherein it is indicated that a confidential source abroad furnished the letter from Gamez which is not correct. As you are aware, this material was furnished to the Bureau by the Department in a communication dated 4-3-64, a copy of which was furnished your office and the letter was translated from the Spanish language by Bureau translators. This information should be appropriately incorporated in your write up.

The last paragraph on page 6 as well as page 7 should be deleted inasmuch as no further investigation of this matter is required.

NOTE:

The Department by letter 4-3-64, furnished the Bureau a letter in the Spanish language from Gamez bearing the postmark 3-23-64, at El Salvador. This letter was translated by the Bureau and Gamez states "seven people masterminded the assassination of President Kennedy..." In view of the allegation, investigation by Legat Mexico was requested. Legat submitted a seven page letterhead memorandum reflecting extensive investigation to identify and locate Gamez with negative results. It is very doubtful Gamez has any information of value to the assassination and in view of the fact that reasonable, logical efforts have failed to locate him, it is not felt that any additional time should be spent in trying to locate him. Legat in its transmittal letter indicated a foreign official was continuing his efforts to locate Gamez and that this official requested a copy of Gamez's original letter. This is being furnished to Legat for this individual's information as a gesture of cooperation even though he is being advised no further action in this matter is necessary. This material will be incorporated by Dallas in a forthcoming report which will be furnished to the Commission.

ARNOLDO TIJERINA, Assistant Chief of Mexican Immigration, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised that concerning the tourist permit of LEE HARVEY OSWALD issued in New Orleans, Louisiana, on September 17, 1963, and used to enter Mexico on September 26, 1963, that it definitely did not expire at midnight, October 2, 1963.

TIJERINA stated that the tourist, in this case OSWALD, had 90 days from the time the tourist permit was issued to use it, which would have been 90 days from September 17, 1963. OSWALD then had 15 days from the time he entered Mexico on September 26, 1963, in which to visit in Mexico, and his tourist permit would not have expired until October 11, 1963.

TIJERINA advised that Mexican Immigration Inspector ALBERTO ARZAMENDI CHAPA is sixty-seven years of age, five feet eight inches tall, weighs two hundred and twenty pounds, and always wears a uniform. APPROX. 1991

TIJERINA further advised that had OSWALD's tourist permit been challenged as having expired, he would have been referred to the Mexican Immigration Headquarters in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and, had the card actually been expired, either himself, TIJERINA, or the Chief of Mexican Immigration, GILBERTO CAZARES GARZA, would have discussed the matter with OSWALD. If the card had been expired for more than two or three days, OSWALD would have been fined. TIJERINA stated that there is no record indicating that any action had been taken against OSWALD during the time he passed through Mexican Immigration on October 3, 1963.

The following interviews with HARRY SMITH, Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, Texas, were conducted in an effort to locate one PAULA ~~A~~ RUSIONI who reportedly traveled on Transportes del Norte buses from Mexico City, Mexico, to Laredo, Texas, on October 2-3, 1963.

Date May 20, 1964

HARRY SMITH, Manager, Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, Texas, re-examined records at the Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, and advised that Transportes del Norte (TDN) Bus Company Ticket Number 39532 was sold at Laredo, Texas, on September 10, 1963, and was a round-trip ticket to Mexico; however, SMITH was not certain if this ticket was to Mexico City or some other destination in Mexico. SMITH stated that Ticket Number 39532 was one of seven tickets numbered from 39526 through 39532, inclusive, sold on September 10, 1963, by Greyhound Bus Company at Laredo, Texas, all of which were round-trip tickets. Three of these tickets were sold for a total amount of $18.00, and four of these tickets were sold for a total amount of $59.40.

SMITH rechecked Greyhound Bus Company records which consist only of Form S-37 T, "Daily Record of Station Sales by Agents at: Laredo, Texas," and located the record for sale of TDN Ticket Number 9511. SMITH pointed out that this record reflects that TDN Ticket Number 9511 was sold at Laredo, Texas, on December 7, 1963, and is a one-way ticket to Mexico City.

SMITH stated that TDN Ticket Number 9511 should be located in TDN Headquarters in Monterrey, Mexico.

Date May 27, 1964

HARRY SMITH, Manager, Greyhound Bus Lines, Laredo, Texas, furnished the only records in his possession concerning Transportes del Norte (TDN) tickets numbered 39532 and 9511. These records are Form Number S-37 T, "Daily Record of Station Sales by Agents at: Laredo, Texas." Form Number S-37 T dated September 10, 1963, reflects that Ticket Numbers 39526 up to 39533 were sold on September 10, 1963, and, according to SMITH, were all round-trip tickets to Mexico, but he did not know whether or not these tickets were round-trip tickets to Mexico City. SMITH explained that under the system utilized by Greyhound in recording sales on Form S-37 T that Ticket Number 39526 would have been the first round-trip ticket sold on September 10, 1963, and that Ticket Number 39532 would have been the last round-trip ticket sold on September 10, 1963, making a total of seven tickets sold on that date.

The total amount of the seven tickets sold was $77.40. SMITH pointed out that his records reflect that of these seven tickets, three of the round-trip tickets were sold for a total of $18.00, and four were sold for a total of $59.40.

SMITH stated that no additional information is recorded on Form S-37 T concerning these tickets and that he knows they are round-trip tickets since they are recorded in Column 15, which is RT-1, indicating round trip. SMITH stated that his records do not reflect the destination of the purchaser of the ticket.

SMITH furnished Form S-37 T dated December 7, 1963, reflecting that TDN Ticket Numbers 9501 up to 9525, a total of 24 tickets, were sold on December 7, 1963, for a total amount of $240.00. SMITH explained that two of the above tickets were for $20.00, 15 sold for $150.00, and 7 sold for $70.00. This makes a total of 24 tickets sold for a total amount of $240.00. These 24 tickets were the total of one-way tickets to Mexico City sold by Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, for TDN on December 7, 1963.

SMITH was questioned concerning the Form S-37 T dated December 7, 1963, reflecting TDN ticket number 9511 to be a one-way ticket to Mexico City sold on December 7, 1963. SMITH advised that there was a possibility that another ticket bearing the same number, 9511, could have been sold by TDN in Mexico City but a sale of such a ticket would be very remote and "one in a million."

SMITH further advised that Greyhound Bus Company, Laredo, Texas, sells TDN tickets and, at the end of each month, the money from the sale of TDN tickets by Greyhound Bus Company is turned over to TDN and a commission is charged by Greyhound on the sale of the TDN tickets.

It is noted that HARRY SMITH stated on April 20, 1964, that Ticket Number 39532 was a Greyhound ticket number. On May 22, 1964, SMITH advised that he was mistaken in this regard; that Ticket Number 39532 is definitely a TDN ticket number.

ALVARO IBARRA, bus driver, Transportes del Norte, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, viewed the original trip envelope of Bus 373 dated October 7, 1963, which has been designated Exhibit Number D-202.

IBARRA stated he filled out Exhibit D-202 beginning with "12 Monterrey 12" down to the stamp at the bottom of the Exhibit dated October 14, 1963, and that he signed Exhibit D-202 on the back side with his name, ALVARO IBARRA.

IBARRA stated that the information appearing on Exhibit D-202 above "12 Monterrey 12" was placed there by JOSE FRANCISCO PRADO, Monterrey, Mexico, and that the "JOSE FCO PRADO" appearing at the top of the Exhibit on the left side is the signature of PRADO.

IBARRA explained that the "12 Monterrey 12" on Exhibit D-202 means that he had 12 passengers from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. Six of the same 12 passengers were continuing on to Laredo, Texas, and one person, either one of the remaining six, or an entirely different person, had a ticket from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, to Laredo, Texas, making a total of seven passengers who actually crossed on Bus 373 to Laredo, Texas, according to IBARRA's interpretation of his writing on Exhibit D-202.

IBARRA stated that he is paid by Transportes del Norte at Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, for each round trip and that he accumulates a number of trip envelopes before he turns them in for payment, and sometimes holds these trip envelopes for as long as fifteen days before he turns them in for payment.

Concerning Exhibit D-202, IBARRA stated that he turned the trip envelope in for payment at Monterrey on October 14, 1963. The stamp at the bottom of Exhibit D-202, "Transportes del Norte PAGADO (paid) October 14, 1963, Monterrey, N. L.," shows that he, IBARRA, was paid on that date for the October 7, 1963, trip from Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, to Laredo, Texas.

IBARRA stated that the only explanation he could offer for the discrepancy between number of cancelled tickets in the trip envelope and the 13 individuals accounted for on the face of the envelope is that tickets from some other trip were intermingled with tickets of Bus 373 on October 2-3, 1963. IBARRA explained that if the date stamps on the backs of the tickets that were in Exhibit D-202 correspond with the date stamps on the front of the trip envelope, then he, IBARRA, made an error in recording the number of tickets inside the trip envelope. If the stamps on the backs of the tickets do not correspond with the stamps on the front of the trip envelope, the office in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, intermingled tickets from another trip with the ones in Exhibit D-202.

IBARRA pointed out the two stamps on the front of Exhibit D-202 are as follows: "Autobuses Transportes del Norte, October 2 2, Monterrey, N.L.," and "Transportes del Norte, October 3, 1963, N. Laredo C Tamps." and stated that one or the other of these stamps should appear on the back of each ticket that was in Exhibit D-202.

EDUARDO CERVERA, Bus Driver, Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus Line, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, the same driver that drove the connecting bus from Continental Trailways, Laredo, Texas, to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963, viewed the photograph of the "Bee 4" bag marked Commission Exhibit C 254, and advised that the yellow markings on the side of the bag were made by Mexican Customs at the time the bag was examined on September 26, 1963, and that this yellow marking of "9/26" only shows that the bag was checked through Mexican Customs at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, on September 26, 1963.

CERVERA stated that it was not possible to check baggage at Red Arrow or at the Mexican Customs since they do not have lockers or storage space. CERVERA stated that even in Monterrey, Mexico, Red Arrow has no lockers or storage space for luggage.

MIGUEL MORENO IBARRA, Chief of Mexican Customs Inspectors, International Bridge, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, viewed the photograph of the "Bee 4" bag marked Commission Exhibit C 254, and stated that the yellow markings on the side of the bag were made by a Mexican Customs Inspector at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, and denotes that this particular bag passed through Customs on September 26, 1963.

IBARRA explained that the yellow crayon marking system was one of two methods of marking luggage used by the Mexican Customs Inspectors. The other method is to seal the bag with tape or with a Customs sticker.

When the Mexican Customs official is busy with a lot of people passing through Customs, he will usually use the yellow crayon marking system. If the Customs official has more time he will use a sticker or colored tape and will initial the tape or sticker.

IBARRA explained that on September 26, 1963, there were six persons on duty in addition to the chief, and any of these persons could have checked the bag and made the yellow markings thereon.

ROBERTO RAMOS, Manager, Flecha Roja (Red Arrow) Bus Lines, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, was reinterviewed to determine if Red Arrow makes a passenger list of Red Arrow passengers traveling to the interior of Mexico.

RAMOS advised that Red Arrow at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, does not make a passenger list and that the only place where any names of passengers of Red Arrow boarding at Nuevo Laredo would appear would be on the "Guia de Equipajes" (baggage guide).

RAMOS stated that ticket numbers of tickets sold at Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, are recorded on a form called "Venta de Boletos" (sale of tickets) but no names are placed on this form in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico.

RAMOS further stated that Red Arrow Bus Lines sells tickets at three different locations, the Red Arrow office in Nuevo Laredo, at Mexican Customs, and at Continental Trailways Bus System, Laredo, Texas. RAMOS stated that tickets sold at the Red Arrow Office are listed by ticket number only on the "Venta de Boletos" form prepared for each bus departing from Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. A yellow copy of this form is kept in the Red Arrow Office for thirty days and the original, or white copy, is taken by the bus driver from the Red Arrow Terminal to the Mexican Customs at the time the driver takes his bus to Mexican Customs to pick up the passengers waiting at Mexican Customs. The passengers waiting either buy their tickets from the Red Arrow representative who accompanies the bus driver to Mexican Customs, or they have already purchased their tickets from the Continental Trailways Bus System. The ticket numbers of these passengers are then added to the original of the "Venta de Boletos" but again no names are recorded.

RAMOS advised that under this system the yellow copy of the "Venta de Boletos", which is kept for thirty days at the Red Arrow Office in Nuevo Laredo, would only contain the ticket numbers of the tickets sold at the Red Arrow Office and would not contain the ticket numbers of the tickets sold at Mexican Customs or Continental Trailways Office. The original, or white copy, however, would contain the ticket numbers of all persons traveling on that particular bus.

RAMOS advised that the yellow copy of the "Venta de Boletos" for Bus Number 516 on September 26, 1963, that is kept for thirty days in the Red Arrow Office, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, has been destroyed, and the only record Red Arrow, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, has concerning Bus Number 516, for September 26, 1963, is the "Guia de Equipajes" (baggage guide list).

RAMOS stated that all Red Arrow buses are owned by private individuals and that Bus Number 516 is owned by MANUEL SAUCEDO, Mexico City, who can be contacted at the Red Arrow Bus Terminal in Mexico City during the afternoons, or through his, SAUCEDO's, employer, the Corona Beer Company. RAMOS stated that SAUCEDO may possibly have the original of the "Venta de Boletos" for Bus Number 516 departing Nuevo Laredo on September 26, 1963, which would show the ticket numbers of tickets sold for that bus, but which would not show the names of persons purchasing the tickets.

The following investigation at Austin, Georgetown, and San Marcos, Texas, was conducted by SA ROBERT W. B. J. PINCKARD, Manager, Greyhound Bus Lines, 118 East 10th Street, advised that Greyhound Bus Number 1265 from San Antonio, Texas, arrives at 9:15 a.m. daily in Austin, Texas, and three other buses arrive at the same time. As a result, a large number of bus passengers are usually in and around the bus station at that time.

He pointed out that there is no possible way, at this time, to identify any passengers arriving at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, Austin, Texas, on Bus Number 1265 on October 3, 1963, from official Greyhound Bus Line records.

PINCKARD observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised the photograph is not familiar to him, and he could not identify OSWALD as a passenger on a bus either arriving or departing from Austin, Texas, on October 3, 1963, or any other date.

PINCKARD advised there was no daily commuter via bus from the Greyhound Bus Terminal, Austin, Texas, to Georgetown, Texas, or other points north of Austin, Texas.

PINCKARD pointed out one lady departing from Greyhound Bus Number 1265, arriving Austin, Texas, at 9:15 a.m. on April 28, 1964, whom he recognized by sight as a daily commuter on this bus from San Marcos, Texas, to Austin, Texas. This woman was physically pointed out to Special Agent ROBERT W. CARNES by PINCKARD, and Special Agent CARNES determined this woman was MARY McSWAIN of San Marcos, Texas.

MARY McSWAIN, 138 West Hillcrest Drive, San Marcos, Texas, was interviewed at the Greyhound Bus Terminal, Austin, Texas. She advised she commutes between San Marcos, Texas, and Austin, Texas, daily, exclusive of Sunday, via Greyhound Bus. She departs San Marcos, Texas, at 8:18 a.m. each morning, and on October 3, 1963, she was on the bus as usual.

She observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and advised she cannot recall having ever seen this person, and specifically she could not recall him as a passenger on a Greyhound Bus with her.

She pointed out that normally when she boards the bus in San Marcos, Texas, she takes the first available seat; usually this is in the first row. She reads while on the bus and upon arrival in Austin, Texas, takes a taxi from the bus station to The University of Texas, where she is a student.

McSWAIN recalled that in October, 1963, one HARRIET JOHNSON, who resides on East San Antonio Street, San Marcos, Texas, was commuting daily, exclusive of Sunday, between San Marcos, Texas, and Austin, Texas, and probably was on the bus leaving San Marcos, Texas, at 8:18 a.m. on October 3, 1963. She stated that she usually caught the bus around 10:00 a.m.

Mrs. BLACK advised that on November 12, 1963, she started working in Austin, Texas, and, after that time, did ride the Greyhound Bus which left New Braunfels, Texas, at approximately 7:45 a.m. each day. Mrs. BLACK was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, New Orleans Police Department Number 112723, which photograph was taken August 9, 1963, but stated that she did not recognize the photograph of OSWALD as being identical with anyone who ever rode the bus with her.

Mrs. C. E. VAUGHN, Manager, Greyhound Bus Terminal, advised that a review of her records reflected she had made no refunds on tickets and had issued no exchange tickets or exchange orders on October 3, 1963. She stated that Bus Number 1265 remains in Hillsboro, Texas only about five minutes, and usually travelers do not leave the bus and come into the station and that unless some special reason exists, she does not leave the station and go on the bus.

She viewed a photograph of OSWALD and informed that she had no recollection of seeing him on the above-numbered bus or any other bus at Hillsboro, Texas.

Mrs. VAUGHN advised that the only daily commuter known to her to ride a bus in and out of Hillsboro, Texas, on a daily basis is a lady whose name she does not know, but who is employed as a sales clerk at the Ben Franklin Store at Hillsboro, Texas, and who lives at Milford, Texas. She stated she did not know if this person rode Bus Number 1265 on October 3, 1963, but stated that she did recall that Thursday appeared to be a half work day for this lady and that she did ride that particular bus on some occasions.

Mrs. GORHAM made a review of the employment records maintained by her employer, and she advised that these records indicated that she was off for a half day on October 3, 1963. She stated that she normally will depart for Milford, Texas, on the bus leaving Hillsboro, Texas, at 12:51 p.m. on her half day off. She stated, however, that she recalled that in October of 1963 she made several trips to Dallas with her sister to do some shopping on her half day off and that on at least one occasion she stayed in Hillsboro until about 5:00 p.m. on her half day off. She stated that for these reasons she could not be certain that she rode on the bus departing from Hillsboro, Texas, at about 12:51 p.m. on October 3, 1963.

On April 7, 1964, CHARLES W. CARROLL, President of the Universal Book Binding Company, 815 Avenue B, San Antonio, telephonically advised the San Antonio FBI Office that one of his employees, STEVE SMYERS, had found a book entitled Soviet Communism on a curb on 9th Street in San Antonio. He stated that the book had the quotation, "In memory of JOHN F. KENNEDY, November 22, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD," written in it in red ink. A swastika with a circle around it was located on the same page. On the date-due card in the book was written, "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," and on the back of the book was written the name, "LEE H. OSWALD."

He said he also recalls a small swastika with a circle drawn around it on the same page. Mr. WALLACE continued that on the date-due slip in back of the book was the quotation, "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," and on the book pocket card, the name "LEE H. OSWALD." Mr. WALLACE reported that he assumed one of the students wrote the quotes in the book and that they had no meaning or importance so he removed the page, card, and due-date slip from the book and destroyed them.

Mr. WALLACE informed that the book was a new one in the library and had never been checked out, so he could give no date as to approximate date book was removed from the library. On the afternoon of June 2, 1964, Mr. Malley and I discussed the Director's testimony before the President's Commission with Mr. Rankin. You will recall we went over the transcript and clarified some typographical errors, etc., and thereafter left a copy with Mr. Rankin.

Mr. Rankin had only three points which he felt required further attention:

1. Page 6514. In connection with the Director's testimony on persons connected with front organizations, the Director stated that merely because a man belongs to a subversive organization does not mean he is black-listed and is a menace to his country for life. If he belongs to 20 of them, it shows he is either very gullible, or dumb or he is a menace. "That has been my attitude in regard to Government service where you find a Government employee who belonged to one or two, maybe in his early days. I think then there is a grave doubt as to whether he is a security risk."

Mr. Rankin felt this could be clarified to make the point the Director intended. He suggested possibly this be revised to read: "That has been my attitude in regard to Government service where you find a Government employee who belonged to one or two, maybe in his early days; I don't believe this makes him a security risk." Mr. Rankin made it clear, however, that he was not trying to put words in the Director's mouth; that this testimony would be made public and consequently it should state just what the Director means it to state.

To avoid questions from the public, I suggest the following wording would be preferable: "That has been my attitude in regard to Government service where you find a Government employee who belonged to one or two, maybe in his early days. I don't believe this necessarily makes him a security risk. Rather, this would be dependent on the degree of his activity in the front group and his purpose and intent in associating himself with it."

MEMO TO: MR. TOLSON
RE: PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION

2. Page 6544. Mr. Rankin noted that at the beginning of the testimony (Page 6493) the Chief Justice outlines the areas in which the Director will be asked to testify. One of them is the failure to include the name and information concerning Special Agent Hosty in the initial report of the Oswald address book. However, Mr. Rankin never got around to asking the Director about this during the testimony. Mr. Rankin thought we should include the Director's comment on page 6544, where the Director is discussing the fact that Hosty's name, office telephone number and license number were in Oswald's memorandum book.

We suggest that the following be inserted as a paragraph after the second line on page 6545: "Incidentally, those items in Oswald's notebook requiring investigative attention were first set out in an investigative report of our Dallas Office dated December 23, 1963. This report was not prepared for this Commission but rather for investigative purposes and, therefore, the information concerning Hosty's name, telephone number and license number was not included in the report. This information was reported in another investigative report of our Dallas Office dated February 11, 1964, in order that there would be a complete reporting of all items in Oswald's memorandum book. Both of these investigative reports were furnished to this Commission."

3. Page 6568 to 6571. Mr. Rankin agreed with the changes we had made in the testimony concerning wording in our appropriation bill relative to a provision for the protection of the President. However, Mr. Rankin noted that on page 6570 we had eliminated one brief question by Representative Ford and the Director's answer as not being pertinent. He agreed with this. He did say he would go over this with Representative Ford to make sure Mr. Ford also agreed, although he had no doubt that Mr. Ford would be in agreement.

Mr. Rankin again stressed that the testimony of witnesses before the Commission will be made public and both the Director's and Belmont's testimony will be regarded as policy statements of the Bureau. He said that he had no questions as to the policy enunciated in the testimony and as a matter of fact he felt that the testimony would do the Bureau a great deal of good in the eyes of the public because it presented the Bureau's sensitivity to the rights of the individual and to the necessity of operating strictly within the law, which was an area of Bureau policy that had not previously been publicized. He reiterated that this testimony presented the Bureau in a light that would be new to many persons.

I told Mr. Rankin that the Bureau followed the policy that our actions spoke louder than our words.

Mr. Rankin said that he thought the Director was opposed to the FBI taking over the functions of Secret Service. I told him that this was correct, that the FBI had enough to do without taking over such responsibilities. Rankin said that some of the members of the Commission were of the opinion that Secret Service should be transferred over to the FBI and, as a matter of fact, he had noticed publicity to the effect that once the elections were over in November, the White House intends to transfer the functions of Secret Service to the FBI. I reiterated that I was sure that the Director would be opposed to such a move and I asked Rankin whether he had any solid basis beyond newspaper publicity that the White House intended such a move. He said he did not have but that he knew the respect with which the President regarded the Director and he thought it was probably the basis for the newspaper comments, although he had no facts on which to base his opinion.

ACTION:

If you agree, we will make the above changes in the testimony and furnish them to Mr. Rankin informally.

2. It is suggested that Mr. DeLoach be alert to insure that the views of the Bureau on any possible transfer of Secret Service functions to the FBI are known in proper quarters.

By letter 6/3/64 the Commission requested that an Agent contact Mr. Burt W. Griffin of the Commission staff so that arrangements could be made to make time computations and obtain blow-ups of a few frames from movie films in the possession of the Commission. These frames show the shooting of Oswald and a clock in the Dallas Police Department Jail Office shortly after the shooting. The Commission is interested in this time study to pinpoint as accurately as possible the time of the shooting of Oswald by Ruby.

On the afternoon of 6/5/64 SA Shaneyfelt contacted Mr. Griffin at the Commission office and obtained from him the following films and tapes:

Exhibit 84A	Silent film of Oswald shooting from KRLD-TV
Exhibit 24-A	Sound film of Oswald shooting from Mr. Burt Shinn, WFAA-TV
Exhibit HE	Sound film of Oswald shooting taken by John Tankersley, WBAP-TV
Exhibit 43A	Sound film of Oswald shooting from Operations Desk, KRLD-TV
Exhibit GC	16 mm film of Oswald shooting from John Tankersley, WBAP-TV
Exhibit AA	Sound tape of press statement by Chief J. E. Curry from KRLD-TV
Exhibit 88-A	Sound tape of Oswald shooting from WFAA Radio
Exhibit 38A	Tape of interview of Eva Grant from Radio Station KLIF
Exhibit 43-B	Still photographs from silent film of Oswald shooting from KRLD-TV (Mr. Robert Hankal)
Exhibit 84-B	Still photographs of silent film of Oswald shooting from KRLD-TV (Mr. George Phenix).

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that SA Shaneyfelt examine the films as requested by the Commission and, thereafter, furnish the results to the Commission by letter.

No Está Detenido Por el FBI el Supuesto Agente de Fidel Castro

Funcionario del Servicio Secreto Hace Declaraciones a DIARIO LAS AMERICAS. — Habla uno de los Dirigentes del Demócrata-Cristiano. — Detalles de la Denuncia

DIEGO VALERO

Una información de
BENJAMIN DE LA VEGA

El FBI anunció a DIARIO LAS AMERICAS en la mañana del martes que el supuesto espia castrista Fernando Fernández Bárcena, "no estaba detenido por el Buró Federal de Investigaciones".

Esta declaración de la importante agencia investigativa de los Estados Unidos ofrece un nuevo ángulo a la denuncia que diera a la publicidad ayer el dirigente del Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano, Laureano Batista Falla, quien según dijo había entregado al FBI al descubierto agente comunista.

"HACIENDO INVESTIGACIONES"

A otras preguntas el funcionario del Buró Federal de Investigaciones que recibió al reportero expreso que "se estaban haciendo las investigaciones pertinentes" sobre los hechos denunciados por el Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano.

Interrogado sobre las afirmaciones que al periodista le hiciera ayer el señor Laureano Batista Falla, expresando que el FBI le había informado que "no era delito que agentes castristas espiaran a los grupos de exilados cubanos porque solo es delito espiar contra este país y no contra exilados que violan las leyes de neutralidad norteamericanas", el funcionario del FBI con una breve sonrisa, dijo casi sin mover un músculo facial:

"No tenemos nada que comentar sobre eso. Esas son afirmaciones estrictamente personales del Sr. Batista Falla. Agregó con énfasis el funcionario: "Nosotros investigamos a todo el que lesione la seguridad de los Estados Unidos. To-do el que actúe como agente extranjero es acuciosamente investigado por el Buró Federal de Investigaciones. Los agentes castristas están incluídos plenamente en estas investigaciones. Pero para arrestar a algún acusado de estos delitos tenemos que tener las pruebas necesarias al respecto."

Por su parte, el Sr. Laureano Batista Falla interrogado sobre la liberación del supuesto espía castrista, expresó:

"Dimos suficientes pruebas al FBI para su detención. Pero entre otras cosas se lo entregamos a dicha oficina gubernamental por temor a que los exilados cubanos atentaran contra la vida de Fernando Fernández Bárcena."

Hasta el momento se desconoce el paradero del confeso agente castrista, que en ningún momento fue presentado a la prensa como debió haberse hecho por el Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano.

HABLA DIEGO VALERO

Diego Valero, acusado por Fernando Fernández Bárcena, como jefe de la red de espionaje de Castro en Nassau, ha manifestado que no se explica a que se puede deber esta acusación. Valero que trabaja en una compañía inglesa de Nassau tan pronto se enteró de las declaraciones en que se le mencionaba como agente de Castro voló a Miami, para aclarar su situación con los cuerpos de investigación de Estados Unidos.

Diego Valero expresó: "Conocí a Fernández Bárcena hace algunos años, pero no me explico a que se puede deber su acusación contra mi persona. Cuando llegó a Miami estuvo en mi casa y lo ayudé en todo cuanto pude." El sábado último cuando estuve en Miami, me visitó en el hotel y aunque me dijo que estaba desencantado de la lucha contra Castro, no tuve ningún indicio de que fuera a tomar esta determinación, ni tampoco, por supuesto, que estuviera al servicio de Castro.

Realmente, agrega Valero, "aunque sostenía correspondencia con él como con otros amigos, nunca conocí estas actividades suyas que ahora dice en la entrevista que he escuchado haber realizado. Le repito que no me explico esta acusación y si no fuera por el tiempo que me hace perder al venir aquí a Miami para aclararlo todo, la cosa sería para reírme desde ahora hasta el fin de la semana. Creo que la Justicia y la Verdad siempre resplandecen y por eso he pedido a los cuerpos federales de Estados Unidos y me he puesto a disposición de ellos a ese objeto que realicen todas las investigaciones que consideren pertinentes".

LA DENUNCIA

Por ADOLFO G. MERINO

MIAMI, sept. 3 (UPI) —La Oficina Federal de Investigaciones interrogaba hoy a un "confeso espía" comunista cubano, que afirma que las actividades subversivas y de espionaje en toda América son dirigidas por los embajadores cubanos en las Naciones Unidas y en Brasil.

Fernado Fernández, joven periodista exiliado, hizo una completa "confesión" de sus presuntas actividades de espionaje en una grabación que entregó al Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano, que dirige Laureano Batista (no está emparentado con el ex-dictador Fulgencio Batista).

En la declaración grabada, Fernández dice que las llamadas fuerzas de Liberación Nacional que actúan en Venezuela, "reciben armas desde México y Cuba, que hacen el transbordo en alta mar".

Añade que la red de la subversión y espionaje se extiende desde los Estados Unidos, hasta las islas Bahamas y el distante Cono Sur sudamericano, y que los dirigentes de la red son "el embajador Carlos Lechuga, anteriormente en México y ahora jefe de la delegación cubana en las Naciones Unidas, y el reciente designado embajador en Brasil, Raúl Roa Kouri, hijo del ministro de Relaciones Exteriores de Cuba". Señala que el estratégico "Cono Sur" tiene como dirigente también a un periodista "José Rodríguez Méndez, agregado cultural en la embajada de Cuba en Brasil" y que en las Bahamas "reside el jefe inmediato superior de la red en Miami, nombrado Diego Valero".

Una tarea específica encomendada a Fernández, según declara, es la de investigar las actividades de los cubanos exilados en Centroamérica. Su objetivo primordial era seguir las actividades de Manuel Artime, uno de los jefes de la malograda invasión de Bahía de Cochinos, y a quien se relaciona con el llamado "Plan Centroamericano".

El Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano en el exilio presentó una carta, que dice fue enviada por Fernández, antes de su detención, al entonces embajador cubano en México, Lechuga en que decía:

"Estoy circunstancialmente infiltrado en un grupo comando que se prepara llevar a cabo una gran operación contra Cuba. Tengo informes detallados sobre el plan militar. El ataque es inminente y parte de Centroamérica..."

Fernández dijo que firmaba su correspondencia confidencial con el seudónimo de Henry Prieto y advirtió que "es vital que, desde ahora, hasta el día 8 de agosto, se mantengan alerta."

Dijo que llegó a los Estados Unidos el 11 de enero de 1961, pero que comenzó a trabajar concretamente en la Red de Espionaje y Subversión desde hace un año, más o menos. El reclutamiento se hizo en Kansas City, Missouri.

En México, añadió, los lugartenientes de Lechuga eran un venezolano, "nombrado Hendel Cruzal, que se ocupa del abastecimiento de la terrorista agrupación comunista llamada Frente de Liberación Nacional." El otro es Osvaldo Anaya, un mexicano."

Señaló que "desde México se envían armas y dinero para los terroristas venezolanos. Las armas se transportan en embarcaciones pesqueras cubanas hasta un punto en alta mar, donde se hace contactos con otras venezolanas y de otras nacionalidades para introducirlas clandestinamente en ese país."

Dijo que la consigna de Fidel Castro para los terroristas venezolanos es "una metralleta debajo de cada chaqueta. El agente directo de Castro en Venezuela, es un cubano de apellido Canales."

Manifestó que las embajadas cubanas en "México y Brasil, tienen a su cargo, entre otras la expedición de pasaportes y documentos de identificación falsos. Desde esos centros se distribuye el dinero. La Red penetra profundamente en el cono sur, donde el periodista José Rodríguez Méndez, agregado cultural en la Embajada en Brasil, dirige todas las actividades de subversión y espionaje."

La oficina en Miami de la FBI rehusó informar sobre el interrogatorio de Fernández.

Aboga Fernando Fernández por la Coexistencia con el Régimen Comunista de Fidel Castro

El experiodista cubano Fernando Fernández, acusado como espía por el movimiento de exiliados cubanos Demócrata Cristiano, repudió la confesión, tomada en cinta magnética, de sus actividades a favor del régimen comunista de Castro, y alegó que se la habían extraído bajo amenazas y tortura, según declaró a "The Miami Herald".

Fernández aseguró a las autoridades de Miami, que los miembros del Movimiento Demócrata Cristiano lo habían torturado apretándole una cuerda alrededor del cuello y colocándole una pistola en la cabeza para obligarlo a confesar que era un agente castrista.

Los miembros del Movimiento, insisten, sin embargo, que la confesión aludida fue voluntaria por lo que fue llevado al FBI hace cuatro días, y presentado junto con la cinta magnética que registra la confesión aludida. Laureano Batista, líder de la organización anticastrista que obtuvo la confesión, declaró que la misma era voluntaria y que no había existido coerción alguna.

Fernández apareció voluntariamente ante los funcionarios de la Sección de Inteligencia de la Policía de Miami, y les aseguró que había sido golpeado y "torturado" a punta de pistola durante doce horas. Pidió que se plantearan acusaciones de secuestro, asalto y maltrato, contra sus supuestos torturadores.

El propio Fernández se clasifica, en lo que se refiere a la política, al decir que "no es antiamericano, ni es anticastrista" y que está en favor de la "coexistencia pacífica con Cuba", a pesar de que llegó a Miami como refugiado en 1961.

Dijo, además, que quería retornar a Cuba para aguantar y sufrir allí con sus padres, su hermana y su tía.

Afirmó que la confesión en cuestión era falsa y que se le había amenazado de muerte si no la ofrecía en esos términos, por lo que las autoridades, después de escuchar sus acusaciones decidieron elevarlas a la oficina del Fiscal, por si debía iniciarse actuación judicial.

Arthur E. Hutton, auxiliar del Fiscal, dijo el miércoles que había informado a los oficiales de la Inteligencia, que escucharía a Fernández, y luego investigaría para conocer si existió alguna violación de la ley.

Los miembros del Demócrata Cristiano, dicen que Fernández los acompañó a las oficinas del FBI por su propia voluntad. Fernández quedó en libertad el martes.

Los agentes del FBI y los funcionarios de la Inteligencia de Miami, no afirmaron nunca que la confesión fuera verdadera, u obtenida bajo presión, pero sí que se tratará de investigar si el Movimiento tomó la ley en sus propias manos para lograr una confesión.

Batista, afirmó en cuanto a este asunto, que no pensaban continuar con la controversia, pues cumplieron con su deber de entregar a Fernández a las autoridades para que la ley siga su curso.

DENUNCIA

En una información que publica el Miami News sobre el caso del supuesto espía castrista, se dice que Fernando Fernández, manifestó a la policía de Miami, que sólo había confesado haber realizado trabajo de espionaje para Castro después de 12 horas de ser atormentado por los líderes exiliados del Movimiento Demócrata Crisitano, con una pistola calibre 45 apuntando a su cabeza.

De acuerdo con su vaga exposición, Fernando José Fernández Barcena de 34 años, trató de obstaculizar los planes de los grupos de acción entre los exiliados, para evitar una "masacre".

"Los exiliados no llegarán a ninguna parte en su lucha contra Castro porque no tienen condiciones" resumió Fernández.

Fernández dijo a la policía que durante su alegada ordalía de 12 horas, estuvo sujeto a tortura "física y mental" y finalmente inventó una historia "falsa y exagerada" que fue su "confesión".

Diario Las Americas
Miami, Florida.
Sept. 6, 1963.

Ahora, dijo, "estoy desmoralizado, y no sé que hacer. Yo quiero volver a Cuba porque yo creo que Fidel permanecerá en el Poder y yo quiero sufrir junto con mi gente".

En la confesión registrada en cinta magnética, que fue entregada al FBI, Fernández decía que se había infiltrado en la CIA tanto como entre los grupos de exiliados y que estaba al borde de ser enviado a Cuba como agente de esa agencia americana.

En su explicación de ayer admitió haber escrito una carta al Embajador Carlos Lechuga, en México, alertándolo de los propuestos planes de ataque de los exiliados.

Dijo además que se había sentido "lleno de ansiedad" cuando levantó sospechas al infiltrarse en el grupo.

HARBERDING was out of city 6/10/64 and could not be located for interview.

Chief of Police Hearle Justus of Cahokia advises HARBERDING has resided there 10 or 15 years and claimed to have done undercover work for Narcotics or some other Federal Bureau; that he likes to "play policeman" and recently reported that someone followed his car and "cut him off" on the highway; that a few months ago he gave Chief Justus his version of the Kennedy assassination, stating it was planned and OSWALD was hired to do the job. He said insofar as he knows HARBERDING has no criminal record but is unstable and has had many jobs; that he believes HARBERDING is now working for some furniture company out of Chicago but may have quit that job. formerly operated notorious houses of prostitution in St. Louis and is now a wealthy man. He was traveling in the Far East in early part of 1964, visiting Hong Kong, Tokyo and Honolulu, but has probably returned to St. Louis. Many rumors were circulated in 1953 to effect that the missing ransom money disappeared while HALL was at Coral Court; however, investigation indicated HALL had all the ransom money when he moved into the Town House and that SHOULDERS and COSTELLO divided the ransom money in COSTELLO's rathskeller after HALL was arrested during the night of 10/6/53.

On 6/4/64, the SAC received a telephone call from a man who refused to give his name but stated he was an undercover agent for the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). This individual stated that he had knowledge of $400,000 which was allegedly illegally in the possession of some unnamed racketeer. He further stated that he knew an attorney by the name of RUSSO who is now with the U. S. Department of Justice, but who previously had worked as an attorney for IRS. He stated that Mr. RUSSO had been contacted in regard to this $400,000 item and had told him to get in touch with the FBI. He was invited to the office but stated he was under surveillance by unnamed individuals and as a result, he would not come to the Federal Building for interview. I stated that I would have him contacted immediately by Agents in this office if he would state his location. At that point, he advised that before he would do anything about arranging a meeting place for interview purposes, he wanted to talk to Mr. RUSSO again, and with that he hung up the phone. He has not contacted this office since that date.

Investigation continuing to locate and interview HARBERDING.

Re: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT

Specimens received 11/23/63

Q6 C6 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case from Texas School Book Depository
Q7 C7 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case from Texas School Book Depository
Q8 C8 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge from Texas School Book Depository

Evidence received 11/27/63

Q48 C38 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge case from Texas School Book Depository

Results of examination:

An examination was made of the cartridge cases, C6, C7 and C38 and the cartridge, C8, for loading, chambering, extraction and/or ejection marks for the purpose of determining if these specimens had been loaded into and extracted from Oswald's rifle, C14, more than once.

Marks were found on the C6 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into and extracted from a weapon at least three times. One set of marks was identified as having been made by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. It is pointed out that the extractor and ejector marks on C6 as well as on C7, C8 and C38 did not possess sufficient characteristics for identifying the weapon which produced them. There are also three sets of marks on the base of this cartridge case which were not found on C7, C8, C38 or any of the numerous tests obtained from the C14 rifle. It was not possible to determine what produced these marks.

RAF:tc (14)

Marks were found on the C7 cartridge case indicating that it has been loaded into andextracted from a weapon at least twice. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by contact with the bolt of C14; however, it was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks which were identified were produced by one or two loading operations in the C14 rifle.

Two sets of marks were found on the C8 cartridge (found in the C14 rifle) which were identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle. Another set of follower marks was found on C8. The fragmentary nature of this set of marks could possibly account for the fact that these marks were not identified with the C14 rifle.

Marks were found on the C38 cartridge case indicating that it had been loaded into andextracted from a weapon at least twice. One set of marks was identified as having been produced by the magazine follower of the C14 rifle and one set of marks was identified as having been produced by the chamber of C14; however, it was not possible to determine whether the two sets of marks which were identified were produced by one or two loading operations in the C14 rifle.

The results of the above examinations do not preclude the possibility that these items could have been loaded into and extracted from a weapon one or more times when insufficient force was used to produce marks. It is pointed out that if two or more cartridges are loaded into the clip of C14, only the bottom cartridge will be marked by the magazine follower.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Special Agents (SA) John Lester Quigley, James Patrick Hosty, Jr., and former SA John W. Fain testified before the President's Commission on 5/5/64 in connection with their knowledge and handling of the Lee Harvey Oswald investigation.

On 5/8/64 the President's Commission furnished the Bureau with a transcript of testimony covering Agents Quigley and Hosty and Mr. Fain. The testimony was reviewed at Seat of Government and certain minor errors were detected in the testimony, such as misspelled words, erronous punctuation and the like. These errors were brought to the attention of the President's Commission by Inspector J. R. Malley on 5/14/64. SAs Quigley and Hosty and former SA Fain have personally not examined the transcripts of their testimony before the President's Commission. Each had left Washington, D. C., and returned to their home residence prior to the date the transcripts were furnished to the Bureau. In view of the Commission's desire to have individuals who testified before the Commission review their transcript to insure their accuracy, it appears it is desirable that copies of the transcripts of SAs Quigley and Hosty and Mr. Fain be forwarded to them in order that they can review them. This will insure that the Commission will have an accurate record of exactly what each of these men had testified to and will give each of these men an opportunity to review the testimony that will be made a permanent part of the Commission's records relating to each.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is an airtel to the Dallas, New Orleans and Houston Offices forwarding a copy of the transcript of SA Hosty, SA Quigley and Mr. Fain, respectively, for their perusal and comments. We are instructing that any changes deemed necessary be furnished the Bureau immediately in order that consideration can be given to discussing such changes with the President's Commission.

Enclosed for the Houston Office is a copy of the transcript of former SA John W. Fain before the President's Commission on 5/5/64.

The Dallas, New Orleans and Houston Offices should immediately arrange for SAs James P. Hosty, John Lester Quigley and former SA John W. Fain, respectively, to review the copy of the transcript pertaining to him and determine if it is completely accurate and correctly presents the testimony that was made before the President's Commission. You will note that the enclosure contains corrections which have been noted by the Bureau and have been already brought to the attention of the President's Commission. These corrections are largely misspellings, incorrect grammar structure and the like.

Following perusal of the enclosure by SAs Hosty and Quigley and Mr. Fain, each office should immediately forward a communication to the Bureau listing any other changes that should be brought to the attention of the President's Commission in this matter.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

"Life" Magazine of February 21, 1964, sets forth an article entitled "The Evolution of an Assassin." In this article, on page 69 of the "Life" Magazine, there are reflected the results of an interview with Mrs. CLYDE LIVINGSTON, a former teacher of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at the Ridglea West Elementary School. On the same page of this article there is also reflected an interview with RICHARD GARRETT, described as a former classmate of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in elementary school.

On June 4, 1964, Mrs. CLYDE I. LIVINGSTON, 7304 Pensacola, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

During the period of 1949 through 1951, she was a teacher at the Ridglea West Elementary School in Fort Worth, Texas. She was the home room teacher for the fourth grade during the school year of 1949-1950. During this time, LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a student in the fourth grade and was in her home room. She also taught music to the fifth grade during the term of 1950-1951, and believes she did teach music to LEE HARVEY OSWALD while he was in the fifth grade, but she does not recall anything concerning OSWALD while he was in the fifth grade.

At the beginning of the school term in September 1949, LEE HARVEY OSWALD entered this school with a group of all new students as this was the first year this elementary school was in operation. He was a quiet and rather shy type of student, did not know any of the other students, and it took him a long time to get acquainted with the other students. She also recalled that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was a very poor student in the beginning of the fourth grade as he could not read and his spelling was very poor. Mrs. LIVINGSTON spent a great deal of her spare time in helping LEE HARVEY OSWALD with his spelling. He did not mind the extra work and his attitude was good in learning to spell. He became a fairly good student while in the fourth grade and never gave her any trouble. At times he was very quiet and was not an aggressive type in making friends with the other students in the school.

At Christmas of 1949, LEE HARVEY OSWALD gave Mrs. LIVINGSTON a puppy as a Christmas present. After that, he would drop by the home of Mrs. LIVINGSTON to see this puppy, and talk with Mrs. LIVINGSTON and her family. He usually stayed for only a short period of time. She recalled that LEE HARVEY OSWALD appeared to be a lonely type of boy, and that his mother was employed while he was in the fourth grade of this school. He remarked one day that he had to fix his own lunch, and she asked him if there were anyone at home to help him prepare his lunch or his meals. He told her there was no one at home and he could open a can of soup as well as anyone else. She stated to the best of her knowledge she never saw Mrs. OSWALD at this school and did not meet any other members of the family, although she knew LEE did have two brothers. She stated LEE HARVEY OSWALD never gave her any serious trouble while he was a student in her room.

On June 5, 1964, RICHARD WARREN GARRETT, 4928 Penrose, Fort Worth, Texas, furnished the following information:

GARRETT attended Ridglea West Elementary School during the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. He recalled being in a room at this school with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but he does not recall whether it was in the fourth or fifth grade. He stated they were about ten or eleven years of age. During this school year, he played with LEE HARVEY OSWALD a great deal at the school and sometimes they would walk home from school and play together. He only knew OSWALD during the fall and spring semesters of this one school year. LEE HARVEY OSWALD was easy to get along with at that time, and he considered him a perfectly normal boy. He recalls on one occasion they did have a disagreement on some matter and he believed they had a short fight, but he does not remember what this was all about. He was in the home of OSWALD on one occasion, but does not recall ever meeting Mrs. OSWALD or the brothers of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated that LEE OSWALD acted like the other students in school at that time and he did not recall anything particularly different about him when compared with the other boys in the school.

GARRETT did not see LEE OSWALD during junior high school and the next time he saw LEE OSWALD was at Arlington Heights High School in Fort Worth. He talked to him for a few minutes between classes as they were both surprised to see each other at this high school. He recalled that LEE OSWALD seemed to be a little more hesitant, a little more quiet, and did not talk too much during this conversation. GARRETT never saw him anymore in high school and did not run around with him, and was unable to furnish any further information on LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

On June 1, 1964, Mr. Wesley J. Liebeler, a member of your staff, requested that Mrs. Clyde I. NOTE:

Mrs. Livingston, former teacher of Oswald in the fourth grade, indicated he was a shy but friendly child and that she noted nothing which would indicate he was abnormal in any respect. Mr. Garrett indicated he was a classmate of Oswald's during the elementary years and always found Oswald to be a friendly boy of normal behavior.

[redacted] advised on 6/11/64, that he had no personal knowledge of such an incident but had been told by ROLAND EVANS, an itinerant laborer from Kerrville, Texas, that the WHITES had seen RUBY and the OSWALDS in a cafe at Kerrville about three weeks prior to the assassination. He understood Mrs. WHITE worked at the cafe. [redacted] understood that EVANS had no firsthand knowledge concerning the appearance of RUBY and the OSWALDS at Kerrville.

ROLAND EVANS, Kerrville, Texas, advised on 6/11/64, that Mr. and Mrs. STANLEY WHITE told him that they had seen two men and a woman at a Kerrville cafe whom they believed were RUBY and the OSWALDS and that one of the men operated a Dallas, Texas, casino and the woman did not speak English.

Mr. and Mrs. STANLEY WHITE, Kerrville, advised on 6/11/64, that they believed they saw RUBY and the OSWALDS and another unidentified woman, description unknown, at the Boulevard Lounge, Kerrville, Texas. They viewed photographs of several individuals, including OSWALD and RUBY, and selected photograph of OSWALD and RUBY as resembling the men they saw at the cafe. They both said they personally felt that the men they saw were OSWALD and RUBY. Neither observed RUBY closely at the cafe.

Mrs. WHITE stated the woman she believed to be Mrs. OSWALD was in her early 20's and had long stringy hair and was wearing an overcoat. She believed Mrs. OSWALD was pregnant because of her attire in an overcoat. She said she thought the woman was pregnant but she was not sure. She added that when she attempted to talk to Mrs. OSWALD she was ignored and when she spoke again, Mr. OSWALD said that his wife did not speak English. There was no indication of what language she did speak. Mrs. WHITE added that OSWALD put two small pamphlets in Mr. WHITE's pocket, which she later found were tract-type literature on Russia and Cuba. She did not read more than several sentences from each before she destroyed them. She stated she has never worked in a cafe or operated one. She stated the lounge was crowded but she could not recall the names of any other customers or employees present at the time. She could not recall the exact date of the incident and could only opine that it was in the fall of 1962. She added that she and her husband played shuffleboard with OSWALD after RUBY declined an invitation to play. Mrs. WHITE stated she never saw any of the members of the OSWALD group before or after. She added she recalled reading a statement in the Kerrville Times after the assassination to the effect it had been rumored RUBY and OSWALD had been in Kerrville. She also recalled OSWALD was wearing a blue sweater and a white shirt.

Mr. STANLEY WHITE, cemetery caretaker, Kerrville, Texas, advised on 6/11/64, that he believed he had seen RUBY and the OSWALDs and another unknown woman at the Boulevard Lounge, Kerrville, at an unknown time, which he could only recall as months prior to the assassination.

He recalled RUBY as a heavy-set man, 45-50 years old. He recalled OSWALD as about 5'7", 140 pounds, 30-35 years. He could not describe Mrs. OSWALD or the other woman.

WHITE stated he approached RUBY while looking for a partner to play shuffleboard. RUBY declined and suggested OSWALD would play. OSWALD accepted the invitation but said he did not know how to play. During the game, OSWALD mentioned that they were from Dallas on vacation and wondered where they could stay. WHITE told him there were numerous motels in the area but did not recommend a specific establishment. He did not know if they stayed overnight.

He added that OSWALD stated that they were from Dallas and that the other man, RUBY, ran a night club, perhaps in Dallas, name not mentioned. WHITE stated OSWALD offered him two pieces of literature which WHITE did not accept but which OSWALD put in WHITE's pocket and which WHITE never read.

WHITE recalled the Boulevard Lounge was crowded but he could not recall the identities of any other customers or employees who were present. He did not recall OSWALD distributing literature to anyone else. He did not recall who the owner of the cafe was at that time and added that it changed ownership frequently since then.

The WHITEs did not learn the names of the members of the OSWALD party at the time they played shuffleboard. Mr. WHITE stated he did not tie in the incident to OSWALD and RUBY until after he saw news pictures of OSWALD and RUBY following OSWALD's death and that he mentioned the similarity to his wife. Mrs. WHITE stated she did not see the similarity until sometime after her husband mentioned it to her and had discussed it with her.

The WHITEs were hesitant during the interview and the information they gave had to be elicited from them step by step. They were extremely vague concerning details and times. Although they seemed sincere, they appeared to be naive.

SA 105-2909

FERMAN C. RICE, owner, Boulevard Lounge, Kerrville, Texas, on 6/11/64, stated he has owned the lounge about two years. He has never had a shuffleborad game but did have an electric bowling game for several months after he bought the lounge. He stated he was familiar with the events concerning the assassination and he had seen picture of OSWALD and RUBY. He stated he had never seen anyone in his establishment whom he believed were OSWALD or RUBY or resembled them. He further stated he has never heard any rumors or reports that RUBY and OSWALD were ever in Kerrville, Texas, or his establishment.

PURPOSE:

To recommend that no further action be taken on a Commission request which has been completed with regard to the photographing of certain rental records belonging to Mrs. Bertha Cheek of Dallas, Texas.

BACKGROUND:

The Commission, by letter 4/20/64, requested photographic copies of Cheek's records on a property she owned on Gaston Street in Dallas for 1958 through 1961 as well as copies of all records for all of her properties (7) for 1963.

Mrs. Cheek, a wealthy woman, knew Jack Ruby in view of their mutual interest in night clubs. Cheek's sister, Earlene Roberts, was landlady at Lee Harvey Oswald's Beckley Street residence at the time of the assassination. Roberts did not take an active part in the management and has denied knowing Oswald or Ruby. This matter has been thoroughly investigated and no connection established between Oswald and Ruby.

We interviewed an employee of Cheek who advised she owned a property at 5212 Gaston, Dallas, where two Cubans were reported to have been residing in 1958 and 1959 (when Oswald was in USMC). Efforts to identify these Cubans have been unsuccessful. The above facts have been furnished previously to the Commission.

Malley discussed this matter with Burt Griffin of the Commission on 4/28/64, and it was agreed he or a member of the staff would review the film at the Bureau at the first opportunity and that any frames they desired enlarged would be appropriately handled and furnished to the Commission.

Inasmuch as no member of the Commission staff re-contacted the Bureau to review the film the Bureau, by letter 5/7/64 to the Commission advised of the availability of this film for review whenever desired.

On 5/15/64, a member of the Commission staff reviewed the film in the Bureau's photographic unit. Since that time no request has been received from the Commission to have photographic enlargements made.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

At the request of Mr. Melvin Eisenberg, Mr. Sebastian Latona prepared a series of photographs showing the finger and palm prints appearing on the rifle, Commission Exhibit No. 130; the paper bag, Commission Exhibit No. 142; and the cartons, Commission Exhibit Nos. 641, 648, 653, and 654. These photographs were numbered, but otherwise unlabeled. In several photographs there appear both the prints of Lee Harvey Oswald and the prints of one or more unidentified persons.

Could you please inform us which of the prints appearing in these particular photographs are those of Lee Harvey Oswald, and which are unidentified.

Lee Harvey Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

This is in reply to your letter of June 8, 1964, and confirms the telephone conversation between Mr. Sebastian F. Latona of the FBI Identification Division and Mr. Melvin Eisenberg of your staff on June 12, 1964.

Only one of the six photographs prepared by Mr. Latona showing latent prints identified as those of Lee Harvey Oswald contains more than one latent print. This photograph is the Commission's Exhibit Number 644. A copy of this photograph shows the number "25" and is one of those furnished for the use of the New York City expert. Three latent fingerprints appear in this photograph. Two of these impressions are not those of Lee Harvey Oswald. The third latent fingerprint, which appears in the center of the three, is identical with the right index fingerprint of Lee Harvey Oswald.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Note - Discrepancies of Exhibit #s clarified by phone call Latona to Eisenberg 6-12-64; Commission's inquiry was to determine which photographs contain latent prints other than those of Oswald. Also, where more than one appears which specifically were identified as Oswald's. 644 in outgoing is correct Exhibit #. Some of the Exhibit #'s in incoming letter are incorrect.

On June 5, 1964, ORESTES PENA, owner, Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, was contacted at his place of business by SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS and SA STEPHEN N. CALLENDER and advised that interviewing agents were willing to interview him in the presence of his attorney.

PENA then stated he wanted a letter directed to him setting forth the date, time and place of the proposed interview so that he could furnish this letter to his attorney. It was suggested to PENA that he set the date of interview to avoid the possibility of repeated contacts of him at his place of business to agree upon a date, time and place. However, he was insistent that interviewing agents, in the letter to him, state the date, time and place of interview. He had no suggestion to make as to the date, time and place. Inquiry was made of PENA as to the identity of his attorney whereupon he advised he had four attorneys and he declined to furnish the names of any of them. At this point the interview was terminated.

In response to the request of ORESTES PENA on June 5, 1964 a letter was directed to him at the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, New Orleans, Louisiana on June 9, 1964 requesting that he appear at the New Orleans Office on June 9, 1964 at 10:00 A.M. for interview.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis: ORESTES PENA, New Orleans, La., contacted on 6/3/64 for purpose of interview and declined to be interviewed without his attorney being present. On 6/4/64 CARLOS BRINGUIER, New Orleans, La., advised that first person he talked to connected with the Habana Bar, New Orleans, after assassination of President KENNEDY was ORESTES PENA, the owner. PENA told him that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar with a Latin-appearing person prior to assassination. PENA told BRINGUIER that OSWALD ordered lemonade and argued about the price and afterwards became sick to stomach. BRINGUIER stated he was not sure but believed it was PENA who told him that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar on approximately the same date that BRINGUIER had trouble with OSWALD on the street in New Orleans. BRINGUIER states it was his recollection that it was either PENA or EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ who had told him that the man who was with OSWALD in the bar had admitted being a Mexican. BRINGUIER states that after conversation with PENA, RODRIGUEZ furnished him the same information regarding OSWALD's visit to the Habana Bar. BRINGUIER advised he later talked with RUPERTO PENA about OSWALD having been in the bar. BRINGUIER related that he was told by RUPERTO that the man who accompanied OSWALD to the bar was identical with one of two men whom RUPERTO had seen passing in an automobile in front of the bar and about whom PENA had previously talked to BRINGUIER. BRINGUIER stated that sometime between 8/15 and 8/30/63 RUPERTO had requested him to call the FBI. BRINGUIER states that at that time RUPERTO either said he had seen "Two Latins" or possibly "Two Mexicans" pass in a car in front of the Habana Bar and according to RUPERTO the FBI had asked RUPERTO to call the FBI if he ever saw these two persons again. BRINGUIER stated he had understood RUPERTO to say the FBI had been in the Habana Bar looking for these two people. However, it was possible he may have misunderstood RUPERTO in this regard. BRINGUIER stated in response to RUPERTO's request he did call the FBI and related what RUPERTO had told him. BRINGUIER states it was possible that the emotional excitement created by the assassination may have caused RUPERTO PENA to feel he had some knowledge of persons possibly involved and that unthinkingly RUPERTO had declared after the assassination that the man that was with OSWALD in the bar was identical with one of the two men regarding whom BRINGUIER had called the FBI at the request of RUPERTO PENA. BRINGUIER advised that he wanted to clarify at this time information he had given in his deposition to an Investigator of the Warren Commission. He said he meant to say in his deposition that the individual who served OSWALD the lemonade in the bar was EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ and not RUPERTO PENA. BRINGUIER also furnished copy of a letter he wrote to the Student Revolutionary Directorate, Miami, Florida on 11/27/63 which letter is set forth. On 6/9/64 OREST PENA, also known as ORESTES PENA, advised that sometime prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was in his bar when the bartender told him a customer wanted some lemonade. PENA states he did not personally observe the person who ordered the lemonade and therefore could not state if this person was identical to LEE HARVEY OSWALD. PENA states he never told anyone including CARLOS BRINGUIER that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar and he had no information that the FBI was ever looking for a Mexican who had patronized his bar. ORESTES PENA, owner, Habana Bar, 117 Decatur, was contacted at his place of business and he was advised that at the request of the Warren Commission, he was being contacted to seek information he may have that may have a relationship to the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. Mr. PENA declined to answer any questions regarding any matter outside of the presence of his attorney. He explained that there were too many Government Agents calling on him from time to time in connection with various official investigations, which he did not further identify. At this point the interview was terminated.

In accordance with arrangements made on June 3, 1964, CARLOS BRINGUIER appeared at the New Orleans Office and furnished the following information in response to inquiry:

CARLOS BRINGUIER advised that he presently resides at 501 Adele Street, Apartment F, in New Orleans, La. BRINGUIER related that the first person connected with the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, with whom he talked after the assassination of President KENNEDY was ORESTES PENA, the owner of the Habana Bar. According to BRINGUIER, his conversation with PENA took place on the day after the assassination of President KENNEDY or on some day prior to November 27, 1963. ORESTES PENA related to BRINGUIER that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. BRINGUIER states that ORESTES PENA did not furnish either the exact date or the approximate date when OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar. PENA related to BRINGUIER that OSWALD was with another person who "looked" Latin. PENA mentioned to BRINGUIER that OSWALD had ordered a lemonade from EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, the bartender at the Habana Bar, and that OSWALD argued about the price of the lemonade with EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ. It was BRINGUIER's recollection that ORESTES PENA had stated that OSWALD said the owner of the bar had been a "Cuban capitalistic." BRINGUIER said that PENA also mentioned that after OSWALD ordered the lemonade, he became sick and began vomiting, then went outside on the sidewalk, where he continued to vomit. W.N.Orleans, La.

BRINGUIER stated that he was not sure but believed it was ORESTES PENA who told him that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar approximately on the same date when BRINGUIER had trouble with OSWALD on the street in New Orleans. BRINGUIER specifically stated that the date on which he had an altercation with OSWALD on Canal Street was August 9, 1963.

According to BRINGUIER, his recollection is that it was either ORESTES PENA or EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ who had told him that the man who was with OSWALD in the Habana Bar had admitted to being a Mexican.

According to BRINGUIER, he, BRINGUIER, had occasion, shortly after his conversation with ORESTES, to talk to EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ and EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ furnished him the same information regarding OSWALD's alleged visit to the Habana Bar as did ORESTES PENA.

Either on the same date or on the day following his conversation with EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, RUPERTO PENA, brother of ORESTES PENA, came into CARLOS BRINGUIER's store located at 107 Decatur Street in New Orleans. BRINGUIER states the conversation eventually had to do with the assassination of President KENNEDY and the question of LEE HARVEY OSWALD having previously been in the Habana Bar. BRINGUIER related that RUPERTO said that the man who accompanied OSWALD to the Habana Bar in the past, or possibly he could have said that the Mexican who was with OSWALD in the Habana Bar, was identical with one of the two men whom RUPERTO PENA had seen pass in an automobile in front of the Habana Bar and about both of whom RUPERTO PENA had previously talked to BRINGUIER. According to BRINGUIER, these two men were the persons who had been in the Habana Bar previously and whom PENA said were either pro-communist or pro-CASTRO.

BRINGUIER stated that as an explanation for this last statement attributed to RUPERTO PENA, he should mention that sometime between August 15 and August 30, 1963, RUPERTO PENA came to his store and asked him to call the FBI. BRINGUIER recalls that at that time RUPERTO either said he had seen "two Latins," or possibly had said "two Mexicans," pass in a car in front of the Habana Bar. It was BRINGUIER's statement that RUPERTO had explained that the FBI had asked RUPERTO to call the FBI if he saw those two persons again. BRINGUIER said he had understood RUPERTO PENA to say that the FBI had been in the Habana Bar previously looking for these two people. However, BRINGUIER admitted it is possible he may have misunderstood RUPERTO PENA in that regard.

In response to RUPERTO PENA's request, BRINGUIER said he called the FBI by telephone and spoke to someone at the FBI office.

BRINGUIER said that the party who answered the telephone was informed that the caller was calling on behalf of the owner of the Habana Bar on Decatur Street. BRINGUIER also explained in this telephone call that the person who had asked him to call did not speak English but that this person had said the FBI should be contacted if the two men in question were seen again. BRINGUIER said he related to the party who answered the telephone at the FBI that RUPERTO PENA had just told him he had seen the same two men pass in a car in front of the Habana Bar. BRINGUIER recalls he explained that he had no idea what the matter was all about, but did relate that RUPERTO PENA had said these two men were either pro-CASTRO or pro-communist.

By way of explanation, CARLOS BRINGUIER remarked it was entirely possible that the emotional excitement created by President KENNEDY's assassination may have caused RUPERTO PENA to feel he had some knowledge of the persons possibly involved and may have declared unthinkingly that the man who was with OSWALD in the Habana Bar was identical with one of the two men concerning whom BRINGUIER called the FBI at RUPERTO PENA's request between August 15 and 30, 1963. BRINGUIER admitted he did not know why RUPERTO PENA had made such a statement but persists that RUPERTO PENA did make such a statement to him after the assassination of President KENNEDY and prior to November 27, 1963.

BRINGUIER said he knows it was sometime between August 15 and 30, 1963, when RUPERTO PENA asked him to call the FBI about the two men he had seen in front of the bar because RUPERTO told him after the assassination of President KENNEDY that it was between those dates that he had asked BRINGUIER to call the FBI. RUPERTO allegedly told BRINGUIER after the assassination that he knew the dates were correct because RUPERTO recalled he was in charge of the Habana Bar while his brother, ORESTES PENA, was on vacation and that this incident occurred during such period. BRINGUIER said that ORESTES PENA allegedly was out of the United States and was believed to have been in Brazil during the period August 15 through August 30, 1963.

BRINGUIER advised that in his deposition to an investigator of the Warren Commission, he gave the name of the brother of the owner of the Habana Bar as RUPERTO PENA. He stated that that statement was correct. However, he did want to clarify that RUPERTO PENA was not the one who had said he saw OSWALD in the Habana Bar. BRINGUIER said he meant to say that the person who saw OSWALD in the Habana Bar and the person who served OSWALD lemonade was EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, the bartender in the Habana Bar.

BRINGUIER said he also wished to clarify another point. He explained that after the assassination of President KENNEDY, he did not call the FBI office to advise them that OSWALD allegedly had been in the Habana Bar prior to the assassination but did furnish this information to the U. S. Secret Service office in New Orleans.

CARLOS BRINGUIER furnished a copy of a letter written in the Spanish language, a translation of which is set forth below. He mentioned that this is the letter he referred to on April 8, 1964 at New Orleans, Louisiana, in a deposition to Mr. WESLEY LIEBLER of the President's Commission on the Assassinatiop of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. In his deposition, he mentioned that he had reported to the Secret Service in New Orleans that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, sometime prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. While giving his deposition, he referred to the below-quoted letter as a reminder of the fact that he had given such information to Secret Service regarding a man who had worked at Pap's Supermarket.

The following is a translation of a copy of BRINGUIER's letter by SA WARREN C. deBRUEYS of the New Orleans Office:

"New Orleans, November 27, 1963

"Mr. Jose Antonio Lanuza

"Dear Jose Antonio:

"I am enclosing a page of the Times Picayune newspaper in which there is a picture of the 'Guidebook for Marines.' I am also attaching a photostat of part of a printed matter that I delivered on the night of August 21 instant to the Times Picayune, New Orleans States-Item, UPI, WDSU-Radio, WWL-TV, who unfortunately did not publish same at that time and I tell you, unfortunately, because you will observe that this Delegate requested at that time that American citizens write their Congressmen in order that a complete investigation be opened on Lee H. Oswald, a confessed Marxist; perhaps if that had been published, John F. Kennedy would still be alive today.

"Up to the present time I have not been able to obtain a photostat of the pamphlet bearing the name 'A. J. Hidell' but I will continue trying to acquire one.

"Here are some loose things I have heard mentioned: The police here were looking for a certain 'Clay Bertrand' who is a pervert. They say Ruby also is a pervert. One of these individuals that was distributing handbills with Oswald has a face that appears to me to indicate that he is also a pervert. (If we follow that logic we would also have to think that Raul is the one that is behind all this 'joke'.) I advised Secret Service that one of those who was distributing handbills with Oswald was working in Pap's Supermarket located on Mirabeau Avenue and who, last year, had attended Delgado Trade School. He mentioned that his name might possibly be Charles and that he regularly got out of the bus at Paris Avenue and Filmore Street. I am given to understand that this was correct but I have learned nothing more. I have given them other information, for example, that Oswald was, on one occasion after his difficulty with me, in the Habana Bar, which is just two doors from my store. Oswald asked for a lemonade and when they collected for it he said that surely the owner had to be a Cuban capitalist. On that occasion Oswald was accompanied by a Mexican. After that the Mexican returned with another Mexican to the Habana Bar. The FBI was making inquiries for them and left word that if they saw them again, to call there. A few days later the brother of the owner of the Habana Bar appeared and asked me to call the FBI because he had seen the two Mexicans in an automobile and he had noted the license number but not the state. I called the FBI on that occasion and gave them the information by telephone. This occurred between August 15 and August 30, 1963 approximately. A certain person surmises (but this is just a presumption) that the tourist delegate of the Mexican Government here should know something, pointing out that this individual is a Mexican and the one who had been in the Habana Bar was a Mexican; also the delegate travels to Mexico and from there to Havana (the motive is not known) and added to all this the delegate is a pervert. Speculating on these things one learns that the delegate is a friend of a Cuban (also a pervert) who is called Luis E. Jimenez. This Jimenez is also a friend of another Cuban known as Leonardo Silva. This Silva was chief of something in the Zapata Swamp under the orders of Che (Translator's note - Che is undoubtedly Che Guevara of the Cuban Regime) until after the Bay of Pigs (Invasion). He speaks some Russian and some weeks ago told me he had been thinking about taking a trip to Mexico. As you will note, the majority of these things are suppositions and speculations.

"Well, Jose Antonio give my regards to all and receive an embrace from your friend,

"Carlos Bringuier
New Orleans"

Mr. BRINGUIER related that he made available contents of the above-translated letter with the provision that sections of the letter referring to individuals that he has suspected as being "perverts" would not be divulged to any public sources and that that section be limited for the use of the Warren Commission and the FBI only. He explained further that he did not want any of his speculative statements to be revealed publicly but had no objection to the contents of the first two paragraphs and the part regarding the person referred to as CHARLES being revealed to public sources.

Mr. BRINGUIER was able to describe the Mexican tourist delegate in New Orleans as a white male, in his late 30's, approximately 5'9" tall, 164 pounds, with light-colored hair, who dresses neatly. BRINGUIER explained he has talked to the Mexican tourist delegate in New Orleans on various occasions during the last four months or so and states that on one occasion, the Mexican tourist delegate mentioned that he had been to Cuba. He does not know whether the Mexican tourist delegate told him this a month or four months ago nor does he know when the Mexican tourist delegate was in Cuba, that is to say, whether it was recently or quite some time ago.

BRINGUIER did recall that in one of his conversations with the Mexican tourist delegate, the latter did say that he could go to Mexico inasmuch as Mexico and Cuba maintain friendly relations, one with the other. BRINGUIER also recalls the Mexican tourist delegate mentioned on one occasion that he could get people out of Cuba. BRINGUIER then recalled there was a rumor that LEONARDO SILVA, referred to in the above-translated letter, was allegedly planning to go with the Mexican tourist delegate to Mexico some time ago so that the Mexican tourist delegate could go to Cuba to get LEONARDO SILVA's sister out of Cuba. BRINGUIER does not know if there was any truth to the rumor but states he does know that LEONARDO SILVA and the Mexican tourist delegate are back in New Orleans from an alleged trip to Mexico and LEONARDO SILVA's sister is still in Cuba.

BRINGUIER remarked that ORLANDO PIEDRA, who was formerly head of the Federal Police in Cuba under the Regime of FULGENCIO BATISTA, has told BRINGUIER that he feels quite certain that the Mexican tourist delegate is "OK". BRINGUIER states this meant that in ORLANDO PIEDRA's opinion, the Mexican tourist delegate is not pro-CASTRO.

ORESTES PENA, owner, Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, was contacted at his place of business and advised that interviewing agents were willing to interview him in the presence of his attorney.

PENA then stated he wanted a letter directed to him setting forth the date, time and place of the proposed interview so that he could furnish this letter to his attorney. It was suggested to PENA that he set the date of interview to avoid the possibility of repeated contacts of him at his place of business to agree upon a date, time and place. However, he was insistent that interviewing agents, in the letter to him, state the date, time and place of interview. He had no suggestion to make as to the date, time and place. Inquiry was made of PENA as to the identity of his attorney, whereupon he advised he had four attorneys and he declined to furnish the names of any of them. At this point the interview was terminated.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. OREST PENA, owner of the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, New Orleans, appeared at the New Orleans Office with his attorney, JOHN D. TAMBERELLA, whose address is 219 Carondelet, Suite 408, New Orleans, La. Mr. OREST PENA, through his attorney, stated he would be happy to respond to questions put to him.

Mr. PENA advised that sometime prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, perhaps five or six months prior thereto, or possibly as few as two or three months prior thereto, when he was at his bar, his bartender, EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, came to where he was seated and spoke to him. As best PENA could recall, EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ told him that a customer wanted a lemonade, which PENA claims they do not normally serve at the Habana Bar. PENA claims he told EVARISTO to fix the lemonade with water, lemon, ice and sugar and to charge the customer 25¢.

In response to inquiry, PENA said he did not personally observe the person who ordered the lemonade or the person or persons who had accompanied the individual who had ordered the lemonade. He did believe that the person who ordered the lemonade and the person or person accompanying him were either at the bar or at a table near the bar. Hence, he could not at this time or at any time say whether or not the person who ordered the lemonade or the person or persons accompanying the latter were identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. OREST PENA then explained he does not recall exactly where he was in the bar at the time EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ came to him to inquire about the lemonade. He does recall, however, that after EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ had prepared and delivered the lemonade that he heard either the party who had ordered it or the person or persons with that party complain that the price was too much. He does not now recall whether the complaint was in regard to the lemonade or possibly a tequila that was allegedly ordered by the same customers. He did state, however, that he thinks EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ came to him and told him these persons were complaining about the price.

OREST PENA then stated that he has no other personal knowledge about this incident and he reiterated that he would not be able to recall the person who ordered the lemonade or the person or persons who accompanied the latter if he were ever to see them again.

OREST PENA specifically stated he never told anyone, including CARLOS BRINGUIER, that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar with a Mexican prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He also said he never heard his brother, RUPERTO PENA, say that OSWALD had been in the bar with a Mexican. He also stated he had no information that the FBI was ever looking for a Mexican who had patronized his bar. He stated the only thing he did recall regarding a Mexican was that on one occasion two Latins who were in his bar, had asked him why his bongo drums were chained to a post in the bar. PENA claimed he told them that if he did not chain them someone would steal them. PENA claims that these two men made comments to the effect they were surprised that in a democratic country such as this it was necessary to chain the bongos. PENA said he then inquired where they came from and they allegedly said they were from Mexico. PENA said he then became angry and told them that a person could not even leave his car and get a drink in Mexico without someone stealing the four wheels from the car. PENA claims the Mexicans got angry and left. He stated, however, that this incident had no connection with the individuals who were in his bar, ordered lemonade and had later complained about the price they were charged.

PENA does not recall specifically when it was that these two persons who claimed they were from Mexico were in his bar. He said it could have been sometime last year (1963). He said that several days after these two persons were in the bar, his brother, RUPERTO PENA, had come to him and said that the same two men who had given OREST PENA some trouble had come back to the bar on another occasion. PENA explained, however, that here again there was no connection between these two persons and the person or persons who had ordered a lemonade, as previously described. He also said that his bartender, EVARISTO RODRIGUEZ, was not in the bar when these two persons who were from Mexico were there. Also he never mentioned to anyone that the FBI was interested or inquiring about either one or both of these two persons nor had he made any such statement to anyone.

OREST PENA then remarked he wished to state that his brother, RUPERTO PENA, was not present in the Habana Bar when the party ordered the lemonade as previously set forth.

OREST PENA was then shown a photograph depicting LEE HARVEY OSWALD distributing handbills in front of the International Trade Mart in New Orleans which photograph reflects other persons standing in the same area. OREST PENA studied this photograph and advised that the only person whom he recognized in the photograph was LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He then stated the only reason he was able to recognize OSWALD was because he had seen OSWALD's picture in the news media so often after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

Inquiry was made of OREST PENA concerning the dates that he was out of the country in 1963 and he advised that while he did not recall the dates he did recall that he was in Puerto Rico and the Dominican Republic on vacation in 1963 and that he would check his passport for the exact dates. Cuba

In response to inquiry PENA furnished the following background and descriptive data of himself:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date June 18, 1964

1 Mr. JOHN D. TAMBERELLA, 219 Carondelet, Suite 408, (telephone number JAckson 2-4148), Attorney for OREST PENA, Owner of the Habana Bar, 117 Decatur Street, New Orleans, Louisiana, was contacted by telephone at his office at approximately 1:08 PM, June 18, 1964.

Mr. TAMBERELLA advised that he had contacted Mr. OREST PENA, his client, and had advised Mr. PENA of the desires of FBI Agents to reinterview him concerning apparent conflict between information furnished by PENA June 9, 1964 and that which he had furnished to Agents on December 5, 1963. Mr. TAMBERELLA advised that Mr. PENA told him that he did not care to engage in any additional interviews with the Agents of any Government agencies, and that the only way he would be willing to be interviewed would be in response to a subpoena from the Warren Commission. Mr. TAMBERELLA explained that Mr. PENA said he was tired of being interviewed by numerous Government agencies.

It was pointed out to Mr. TAMBERELLA that there were only two points that needed to be clarified by Mr. PENA. It was explained to him that OREST PENA had told FBI Agents DONALD C. STEINMEYER and ROBERT E. LOGAN on December 5, 1963 that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and another man, either Mexican or Cuban, came into his bar sometime during the summer of 1963. Mr. TAMBERELLA also was reminded that on June 9, 1964, in the presence of Mr. TAMBERELLA, Mr. PENA had said specifically that he never told anyone, including CARLOS BRINGUIER, that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar with a Mexican prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mr. TAMBERELLA stated that he did not feel that this latter statement was contradictory to the former in that it was TAMBERELLA's appreciation that PENA meant that he had not told any "lay people" (that is other than a law enforcement officer such as the FBI) that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar with a Mexican prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mr. TAMBERELLA stated that it was his appreciation that Mr. PENA had explained all details regarding the alleged visit to the Habana Bar of OSWALD when PENA was interviewed on June 9, 1964.

Mr. TAMBERELLA was asked if he would be willing, nevertheless, to recontact PENA and ascertain if he were willing to clarify the apparent discrepancy between his statement made on December 5, 1963 to FBI Agents, namely: ".:. that LEE HARVEY OSWALD and another man, either Mexican or Cuban, came into his bar sometime during the summer of 1963." and the statement made by him on June 9, 1964 to FBI Agents in the presence of Attorney TAMBERELLA, namely, "... he never told anyone, including CARLOS BRINGUIER, that OSWALD had been in the Habana Bar with a Mexican prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY."

Mr. TAMBERELLA stated that he would endeavor to contact PENA on June 18, 1964 or June 19, 1964, and determine if PENA is willing to at least clarify the above apparent discrepancy.

It was suggested to Mr. TAMBERELLA that perhaps FBI Agents could put this question to Mr. PENA directly. Mr. TAMBERELLA stated that Mr. PENA said he did not want to speak to FBI Agents and that he, TAMBERELLA, would object to attempts being made by FBI Agents to contact PENA directly.

Mr. TAMBERELLA was requested to ask Mr. PENA again to make available his passport for perusal by FBI Agents in order that the dates of his foreign travel may be determined as those dates, particularly travel in August, 1963, are pertinent to the investigation concerning the time when the party believed to be OSWALD was allegedly in the Habana Bar. Mr. TAMBERELLA stated that there would be no point in his recontacting PENA regarding this, as PENA was very firm in his statement that when he, PENA, was traveling abroad, his passport was reviewed by Immigration and Naturalization Service both at the time of his departure and at the time of his return to the United States from abroad, at which times his passport was found to be in order. He stated that PENA was unwilling to make his passport available for review by FBI Agents whatever the reason may be.

Mr. TAMBERELLA then stated that he would contact Mr. PENA on June 18 or June 19 as stated previously, and that he would advise SA WARREN C. DE BRUEYS of the results of his request made to Mr. PENA at the latest by June 19, 1964.

Included in this pad of forms under No. 11889 is a carbon copy of the passenger list or manifest for Flecha Roja bus No. 516, which departed Monterrey at 7:30 PM, 9/26/63, which records the names of passengers who were scheduled to board that bus at Monterrey.

Flecha Roja bus No. 516, which departed Nuevo Laredo at 2:00 PM, 9/26/63, with stops scheduled en route to Mexico City at Sabinas Hidalgo, Nuevo Leon and Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, arriving in Mexico City about 10:00 AM, 9/27/63. Co-drivers of this bus were determined to be ROBERTO MORALES and ERNESTO HERNANDEZ. HERNANDEZ worked as a co-driver on this trip, replacing ALFREDO GARCIA CERVANTES, who normally travels as MORALES' co-driver.

Investigation has revealed that the complete passenger list or manifest for the above-mentioned bus trip actually is made up of three lists as follows:

(1) Passenger and reservations manifest listing persons scheduled to board the bus at Nuevo Laredo.

(2) List of persons scheduled to board the bus at Sabinas Hidalgo.

(3) List of persons scheduled to board the bus at Monterrey.

Inquiry has disclosed that the originals of each of the above-described passenger manifests were carried by the bus driver to the Mexico City terminal of the Flecha Roja line in accordance with the established procedure of the company and the duplicate or carbon copies of the manifests remained in the files of the issuing office.

Efforts to obtain the original passenger manifests in question have been unsuccessful, to date, as the manifests apparently were taken from the Flecha Roja bus terminal in Mexico City by investigators of the Mexican government shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY. Efforts are continuing to locate those lists.

In this connection, on 5/6/64, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, obtained from TESIFONTE LAZCANO, Manager of the Flecha Roja bus line, Colon 314 Pte., Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, the pad of forms which is the enclosure to this communication. Included in this pad of forms, which was furnished by [redacted] to SA JOSEPH S. LEO, is a carbon copy of the passenger list for bus No. 516, which departed Monterrey at 7:30 PM on 9/26/63 bound for Mexico City. The carbon copy of this list bears No. 11889 in the enclosure. This list covers only passengers scheduled to board at Monterrey. [redacted] advised that LAZCANO requested the pad be returned to him after it has been reviewed and analyzed.

The pertinent information recorded on the above-mentioned carbon copy of the passenger list for bus No. 516 is handwritten, the names are not complete, and portions of it are not legible. The following constitutes an effort to reproduce as closely as possible the information on this list:

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

Information has been received from a confidential source abroad to the effect that LEE HARVEY OSWALD registered at the Hotel Del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, on September 27, 1963, and continued to reside at that hotel until the morning of October 2, 1963.

According to source, continued investigation in Mexico has been conducted in an effort to identify, locate, and interview individuals who were guests at the Hotel Del Comercio during the same period as OSWALD, and, although additional persons have been located, none has been able to provide any information concerning OSWALD's contacts and activities in Mexico City.

A second confidential source abroad furnished the following information on May 28, 1964:

FIDENCIO GARCIA VALDEZ, an employee of the Mexican National Railway, with residence at Calle Tres Guerras No. 29-A, Irapuato, Guanajuato, Mexico, advised on May 28, 1964, that he is a member of the crew of trains No. 7 and No. 8, which run between Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and Torreon, Coahuila, Mexico, and that he had occupied room No. 13 at the Hotel Del Comercio, Calle Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, on September 28, 1963. GARCIA, after examining various photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised that he did not observe OSWALD at the Hotel Del Comercio or in that vicinity on the occasion of the visit of GARCIA to Mexico, D. JUAN FRANCISCO ROCHA CARRASCO, whose home address is Santiago Papasquiaro No. 87, Colonia Hipodromo, Durango, Durango, Mexico, was interviewed at the Hotel Del Comercio, Mexico, D. He stated that he can be contacted in Durango through his brother-in-law, who is the head of the Secret Service in Durango and resides at Gabino Barreda No. 45 Poniente, Durango, Durango, Mexico.

ROCHA stated that he travels to Mexico, D. F., Mexico, in connection with his business every eight to fifteen days and always stays at the Hotel Del Comercio. As a result, he could not specifically recall that he was a guest at the Hotel Del Comercio on September 27, 1963, but stated that if the hotel register contains his name on that date, it was undoubtedly correct.

traveled on a Transportes del Norte bus between Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and Laredo, Texas, on October 2-3, 1963, and that no member of her family had performed such travel.

The confidential source referred to above furnished the following information on June 1, 1964:

Mrs. SOLEDAD GONZALEZ DE PALACIOS, Calle 65 Oriente No. 300, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, advised on June 1, 1964, that ROBERTO PALACIOS GONZALEZ is her son and, for the past two years, he has been touring Europe as a circus performer. Mrs. PALACIOS stated that her son, who is traveling with a daughter of Mrs. PALACIOS, departed Mexico in late 1962 and was not in Mexico during 1963. Mrs. PALACIOS stated that her son could not be identical with the ROBERTO P. GONZALEZ who was listed as a passenger on Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 between Mexico, D. F., Mexico, and Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico, on October 2, 1963.

The confidential source mentioned above furnished the following information on June 2, 1964:

JOSEFA COSSIO COSSIO resides at Calle Carmen No. 78, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, but as of June 2, 1964 was on an extended visit to Europe. She travels frequently to various countries outside of Mexico but always travels by airline and has never been known to travel anywhere outside of Mexico by bus.

It was ascertained through inquiries at Calle Alvaro Obregon No. 230-10, Mexico, D. F., Mexico, that Mrs. CELIA RODRIGUEZ COSSIO and her daughter, CELIA PATRICIA COSSIO, had not lived at that address for more than five years. The confidential source reported that he had been unable to determine whether CELIA PATRICIA COSSIO had traveled on Transportes del Norte bus No. 332 which departed Mexico, D. F., Mexico, at 8:30 a.m. on October 2, 1963.

NOTE: The President's Commission requested reinterview of Orestes Pena, a New Orleans tavern owner, regarding the allegation received by it in testimony of Carlos Bringuier that Oswald and an unidentified Mexican were at Pena's bar in Summer of 1963. Pena's contradictory statements to us must be challenged and, hence, he must be talked to again. New Orleans experienced difficulty in getting him to consent to interview and this is pertinent information to the Commission and should be in the details of the report in the event the Commission wants to take Pena's testimony. In view of allegation Pena was going to Moscow in 5-64, this should be explored when he is reinterviewed. Also the dates of his travels abroad during the Summer of 1963 should be verified from his passport, if possible, as a check whether he could have been with Rodriguez on 8-9-63 as Rodriguez says. Rodriguez, the bartender in Pena's bar, as of now, is the only one who says he saw Oswald there. Bringuier has told the Commission he telephoned the New Orleans Office in 8-63; yet there is no record of this at the office. This should be in the details of the report and go to the Commission also. Passport records on Pena should be checked by WFO in view of his alleged travel to Moscow. Also, Pena made application for Passport in New Orleans on 6-24-63 which is the same day Oswald made passport application in New Orleans.

With regard to Dallas letter 6-5-64, which stated that Marina Oswald had admitted signing the Fair Play for Cuba membership card of subject using the name "A. J. Hidell," ASAC Clark, Dallas, was telephonically requested to advise further details concerning this signature. Clark was asked as to what explanation Mrs. Oswald gave concerning it, when was it done, what explanation subject gave her as he asked her to sign it and what she knew about it.

ASAC Clark called back and advised that an FD-302 containing the complete results of the interview with Mrs. Oswald had been prepared and was being submitted to the Bureau. He advised this FD-302 read as follows:

"June 3, 1964, Richardson, Texas, Marina Oswald was interviewed at her home, 629 Belt Line Road. She was exhibited a photographic copy of a card bearing the name "Fair Play for Cuba Committee," New Orleans Chapter, in the name of "L. H. Oswald," signed by what appears to be "A. J. Hidell." This card is designated as Item B-1 (8).

"Marina Oswald said the signature "A. J. Hidell" is in her handwriting. She explained Oswald had requested that she sign this card and she did. She asked him what the card was for and he told her that it was none of her business.

"Marina Oswald said her Latin handwriting was very poor now and had been extremely poor at the time she had written the signature.

"Marina Oswald furnished handwriting specimens in which she had written in Latin handwriting the signature "A. J. Hidell."

Mrs. Oswald stated that she signed this membership card during the time they were residing in New Orleans.

On June 9, 1964, the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Intelligence, Headquarters, Sixth Army, Presidio of San Francisco, furnished the San Francisco Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation with the results of interviews of Captain Ben Weakley Stutts and Captain Carlton William Voltz.

These officers, according to the data furnished, were captured by North Korean forces on May 16, 1963, and were returned to U. S. Army control May 16, 1964. Captain Voltz was interviewed on June 4, 1964, and Captain Stutts was interviewed on June 5, 1964, both of these interviews taking place at Letterman General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco. They were questioned relative to the circumstances surrounding their receipt of information regarding the death of President Kennedy while being detained in the North Korean People's Republic. They furnished the information set forth below concerning this matter.

Captain Voltz related that he was first told of President Kennedy's assassination by his political indoctrinator, whom he referred to as "Pig Face." This took place in the Pyongyang area of North Korea on November 26, 1963, a date Captain Voltz made a note to remember as initially he did not believe the news.

The news of the President's assassination was related to Captain Voltz by "Pig Face" through a North Korean interpreter, one Major Chi, who advised that President Kennedy had been killed by a loyal Communist Party member in the United States while riding in a motor vehicle in Dallas, Texas.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Captain Voltz was also initially informed that they thought the Vice President had been shot, but later they told him that this was not the case.

Neither "Pig Face" nor Major Chi ever mentioned Lee Harvey Oswald by name, nor was the assassin's alleged Communist Party membership or background ever later discussed by them or anyone else during the time that he, Captain Voltz, was held in North Korea.

Captain Stutts advised that he initially learned of President Kennedy's assassination when he was preparing a statement at the direction of his captors entitled "How Bad the U. S. Government War Preparations Were and How I Followed Them."

In the preparation of this statement on December 7, 1963, reference had been made to the Kennedy administration and what this administration was doing in Viet-Nam and Taiwan.

Captain Stutts stated that he was told by the interpreter that Kennedy had been murdered. The interpreter, who was talking to him about the statement, noted that the statement should be redone since Kennedy was dead and the wording of the statement should read "U. S. Government" rather than "Kennedy administration."

Captain Stutts asked his captors how they felt about the death of President Kennedy, indicating that he, personally, was quite emotional over it, and they advised that they had no feelings at all concerning it and it did not bother them one way or the other.

Captain Stutts recalled asking one of his captors who had assassinated President Kennedy and received the reply, "I don't know, my comrade told me about it."

Captain Stutts further advised that the only other time he heard the matter of the President's assassination discussed while a prisoner in North Korea was shortly prior to his release in May, 1964, when an interpreter told him that the person who had murdered President Kennedy had in turn been killed. The interpreter added that the man who killed the assassin had tried to kill himself by bashing his head on a wall. Other than this, no further comments were made regarding the assassination, according to Captain Stutts.

Also enclosed are the following described photographs, which are mentioned in the contents of the LHM and which, it is believed, will assist in understanding the places described in the LHM:

One copy each of seven photographs taken 4/10/63, in or near the residence of Major General EDWIN A. WALKER, by Dallas Police Officer B. G. BROWN, which were made available by Lt. J. C. DAY, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, to SA ROBERT M. BARRETT, on 6/3/64. These photographs are identified as DL 51(1) through (7). Only one copy each of such photographs was available and, in the event the Bureau considers it feasible to transmit copies of same to the President's Commission with the enclosed LHM, appropriate copies should be made at the Bureau, and one copy of each returned to Dallas for its files.

No. 5, of Item No. 1, had been furnished to Mr. WESLEY J. LIEBELER, of the President's Commission.

It is pointed out the two automobiles and the two individuals described in the interviews with WALTER KIRK COLEMAN have not been identified. It appears only logical these two individuals are (1) either accomplices of the individual shooting at General WALKER; (2) are witnesses to the shooting who are reluctant to divulge their identity, or (3) they are associates of General WALKER. If further investigation is desired to identify these individuals and these automobiles, it would appear necessary to interview General WALKER who, it is pointed out, is a most controversial figure, who will, undoubtedly, immediately alert the press or call a press conference and publicize the inquiry.

Investigation was conducted by SA'S ROBERT M. BARRETT and IVAN D. LEE.

Information on pages 31 and 32 of the aforementioned memorandum of June 10, 1964, which contains results of our interview with Marina Oswald on June 4, 1964, regarding the General Walker incident was orally furnished to Mr. Wesley J. Liebeler of your staff on June 11, 1964.

This concludes our inquiries in this particular matter.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: J. Edgar Hoover

The President's Commission is taking testimony from an aide of General Walker at 10 a.m., June 16, 1964, and requested results of our investigation be furnished to Commission for its use. The data has been assembled and was dispatched to the President's Commission at 9 a.m., 6/16/64. Extensive inquiries in the residence of General Walker were conducted by us and we obtained the Dallas Police Department photographs of the Walker incident; however, our investigation did not establish whether Oswald did or did not make the attempt on General Walker's life. Our interview with Marina Oswald on 6/4/64 regarding any additional data she might possess on the incident was furnished Mr. Liebeler of the Commission by SA Robert E. Lenihan orally on the morning of 6/11/64 in order that Mr. Liebeler would have such data for his use in connection with Marina Oswald's appearance before the Commission that date.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

BASIS FOR INQUIRY

The President's Commission has advised that it has evidence that on Friday or Saturday, September 27 or 28, 1963, LEE HARVEY OSWALD had his photograph taken for use on a visa application at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City.

RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION CONDUCTED AT PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDIOS IN VICINITY OF HOTEL DEL COMERCIO, MEXICO CITY, CUBAN AND SOVIET EMBASSIES, MEXICO CITY, AND TRAVEL AGENCY, MEXICO CITY, AT WHICH OSWALD IS BELIEVED TO HAVE PURCHASED A BUS TICKET AS H. O. LEE

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on June 6, 1964:

A street-to-street canvass in the vicinity of the Hotel Del Comercio, Bernardino de Sahagun No. 19, Mexico City, failed to disclose the existence of any photographic studios in the area. The source pointed out that the area surrounding the Hotel Del Comercio is one in which many bus terminals and small business establishments are located and does not appear to be an area which would be conducive to the operation of a photographic studio.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on June 8, 1964:

The personnel at the photographic studios located in the vicinities of the Cuban and Soviet Embassies in Mexico City were interviewed concerning the possibility that a photograph of OSWALD had been taken. The source also reviewed the negatives retained by these studios for photographs taken on September 27 and 28, 1963, but no negative was located which appeared to be the negative of a photograph of OSWALD. The studios contacted are listed below:

The photographic studio of Mrs. MARIA LUISA MALDONADO DE GUTIERREZ, located at Salamanca No. 21, Mexico City, and the branch office of this photographic studio located at the corner of Pachuca and Juan Escutia Streets, Mexico City.

The photographic studio, "Aviles," owned by Mr. JACINTO AVILES, located at Tamaulipas No. 202, Local 16, Mexico City.

The photographic studio at Tamaulipas No. 224-B, Mexico City, owned by Mrs. CELIA C. DE GOODMAN.

The photographic studio, "Alori," owned by Mrs. ANA MURILLO, located at Campeche No. 249, Mexico City.

The photographic studio, "Fatima," located at Campeche No. 382, Mexico City, owned by Mr. KHAN RASAK BEK KHADJIEFF.

The photographic studio, "Rosales," Calzada de Tacubaya No. 165-3, Mexico City, owned by Mrs. YOLANDA MENDOZA DE ROSALES.

The photographic studio, "Cameras," located at Benjamin Franklin No. 22, Mexico City, owned by Mr. OSMAR CAMERAS.

A confidential source abroad furnished the following information on June 8, 1964:

The personnel were interviewed and the negatives of photographs taken on September 27 and 28, 1963, were reviewed on June 8, 1964, at the following photographic studios which are located seven or eight blocks from the Hotel Del Comercio, mentioned above, and are also in the immediate vicinity of the Agencia de Viajes, Transportes Chihuahuenses, S. A. de C. V. (Chihuahuenses Transportation Travel Agency, Inc.), with offices at Paseo de la Reforma No. 52, Room 5, where LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as H. O. LEE, is believed to have purchased a bus ticket for his return trip from Mexico City to the United States:

"Arte Fotografica," Lafragua No. 4, Mexico City.

"Danubio Studio," Avenida Reforma No. 12, Mexico City.

The photographic studio located at Calle Antonio Caso No. 31, Mexico City.

It is noted that investigation disclosed that the negatives are retained by these photographic studios by date only and the names of the persons photographed are not recorded.

On May 15, 1964, Mr. and Mrs. GRANVILLE C. YEAGER, Route 1, Coalton, W. Va., advised SA LINNEY L. CONNOLLY, Jr., that their daughter-in-law, Mrs. EUGENE H. (NINA) YEAGER, 139 Washington Avenue, Clarksburg, W. Va., is employed at Merrill's, Inc., a printing and engraving business in Clarksburg, W. Va. Also employed at that firm is one DANA COGAR, who lives in Clarksburg but who is from Webster Springs, W. Va. The YEAGERs advised that COGAR allegedly told NINA YEAGER that he was in Dallas, Texas, shortly before President KENNEDY's assassination and that he had "taken target practice there." COGAR also told her that OSWALD was actually in West Virginia at the time he was reported to have been. The YEAGERs did not know what he meant by that statement. NINA YEAGER has allegedly seen a rifle with what was described as a telescopic sight in COGAR's possession. NINA has also seen a sofa in COGAR's residence in Clarksburg which has a concealed compartment in which COGAR has a number of magazines about Russia and pictures of KHRUSHCHEV. Mr. and Mrs. YEAGER stated that they are not acquainted with COGAR and have never seen him but NINA has described him as a "blow hard."

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 6/1/64

Mrs. NINA YEAGER, 139 Washington Avenue, Clarksburg, W. Va., advised that DANA COGAR has worked for Merrill's, Inc., Clarksburg, as a printer since December 31, 1963, and she has known him since that time. She described COGAR as a "definite mental case" who makes such statements that he was born "one week after JOHN the Baptist; that he can predict the time, within a few minutes, that any given individual will die and that all adults have at the most, 15 years to live and at that time, they will die and the young children will be carried over into the new world."

She stated COGAR is the type of person who alleges he has been everywhere and done everything. She said that he has stated he is not a Christian and has offered a magazine, "The Plain Truth," whose editor was listed as HERBERT W. ARMSTRONG and which magazine is published at Pasadena, California, as more or less his bible. Mrs. YEAGER advised that she has seen a copy in COGAR's apartment of the magazine called "Unity" and stated it was in this magazine that she noted the life story of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and in this story, COGAR told her, it was written that OSWALD had spent some time in the State of West Virginia and COGAR told her he knew for a fact that OSWALD was in West Virginia at the time the article stated.

Mrs. YEAGER stated that COGAR exaggerates and she did not believe that he was in Dallas shortly before the assassination of President KENNEDY. She said that COGAR told her that after President KENNEDY's assassination, his sister, who is employed by the FBI, was flown to Dallas to "work on the case." She said that in view of such statements, she would not believe anything COGAR said happened unless she saw it happen.

Mrs. YEAGER described COGAR as a white male, age 25-28, 5'10", 125 pounds, very slender build, medium brown hair worn long, address Fifth and Clark Streets, Clarksburg, W. Va.

1 Date 6/19/64

Mrs. NINA YEAGER, 139 Washington Avenue, Clarksburg, W. Va., further advised that the magazine, "Unity," which she had seen in the apartment of DANA COGAR had also contained the life stories of NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV and President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She said that these magazines were the only literature that she had noticed in COGAR's apartment and that he kept these magazines in a sofa which made into a double bed. She explained that she had never noticed any secret compartment in the sofa but rather COGAR kept the magazines under the pillows of the sofa. Mrs. YEAGER explained that COGAR kept a number of the above-named magazines in his apartment and while she had never seen any pictures of Russia or of NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV on the walls of COGAR's apartment she noted that the magazines, "The Plain Truth" and "Unity," did contain a number of pictures taken in Russia and also a picture or two of NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV.

Mrs. YEAGER said that COGAR formerly resided in an apartment behind and directly adjacent to the residence of herself and her husband and on occasions she has visited the apartment of COGAR. She said that at times when she visited COGAR, he had mentioned the fact that he had been interested in hunting when he was a young man and he also boasted concerning his proficiency with rifles. She recalled having seen COGAR work on a rifle which she believed had been equipped with a telescopic sight. She said that COGAR did a lot of wood carving and on one occasion that she visited his apartment COGAR was working on the stock of a rifle which had a sight resembling a tube along the barrel. Mrs. YEAGER said that on one occasion after President KENNEDY's assassination she overheard COGAR make the statement, while talking to a number of people, that he had been in Dallas, Texas shortly before the assassination of President KENNEDY. At this time, COGAR also mentioned the fact that while he was in Dallas he had engaged in target practice with his rifle. He said, "Anybody can take target practice in Dallas, Texas." She explained it was her opinion that in making the above statement COGAR was trying to impress the individuals in his company that he had actually been in Dallas; that it was the type of place where the authorities paid no attention to individuals engaging in target practice, as it was a common sight to see persons engaging in target practice in the area.

On 6/15/64 at Clarksburg, W. Va. File # Pittsburgh 105-5070

by SA CHARLES F. WATSON/cmj Date dictated 6/17/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. YEAGER stated that COGAR's exaggerations might be a sign of insecurity on his part; that he is probably harmless but tries to convince people that he is worldly wise. Mrs. YEAGER said that she knows very little about COGAR's background but did know that he came from Webster Springs, W. Va., and that he spent his early childhood there. She said that her only association with COGAR has been at work and on a very few visits to the COGAR apartment.

Synopsis: EULALIO RODRIGUEZ-CHAVEZ, a Mexican citizen, located and interviewed at Los Angeles. RODRIGUEZ positively identified a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as passenger on Transportes del Norte bus which traveled from Mexico City, Mexico, to Laredo, Texas, 10/2/63 and then by Greyhound bus from Laredo, Texas, during early morning hours of 10/3/63. DETAILS:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

EULALIO RODRIGUEZ CHAVEZ, a Mexican citizen, 62 years of age, presently unemployed and residing at 3418½ East Michigan Avenue, Los Angeles, California, advised the following in the Spanish language:

He recalled having made three trips to the United States by bus from Mexico City, Mexico, during the year of 1963. He refreshed his recollection from some personal letters and some documents, and determined that on October 2, 1963, he departed aboard a Transportes del Norte bus at Mexico City about 8:00 a.m. en route to Houston, Texas, via Monterrey, State of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, and Laredo and San Antonio, Texas. He had made reservations at the Transportes del Norte bus station located on Calle (street) Insurgentes in Mexico City about two days previous to his departure and remembered that he then received his bus ticket and was assigned a seat number. He could not recall the exact number of the latter. He departed from Mexico City en route to Houston, Texas, to engage in a dump truck business.

Previously, he had traveled to Dallas, Texas, because of the death of a friend, and subsequent to the above trip to Houston, Texas, he again traveled to Houston with his wife and daughter from Mexico City in the latter part of November, 1963.

He recalled that on the bus trip from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, on October 2, 1963, he was assigned either seat number five or eight aboard the bus and he was certain that he sat about three rows back of the bus driver in an aisle seat. He was very certain about the latter because he does not like to ride in a bus sitting by a window. He kept the same seat on the bus during the trip from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas. He recalled that when he boarded the bus at Mexico City on the morning of October 2, 1963, he was late in arriving and had difficulty obtaining assistance in getting his large suitcase placed in the trunk carrier of the bus. He remembered that when he boarded the bus, most of the other passengers already were seated.

He remembered clearly that he sat next to a young woman who sat on his left next to the window and he could not recall whether a man or a woman sat next to him across the aisle. He spoke to the young woman, who was seated in the bus when he boarded, and he described her as being of Mexican descent, about eighteen or nineteen years of age, thin build, good looking, and spoke Spanish fluently. The young woman advised him that she had been vacationing in Mexico City, that she was married and was returning to her residence in Houston, Texas. He did not learn the young woman's name but she was supposed to have been met at the Greyhound bus station in Houston, Texas, by her husband.

After being processed by United States Immigration, Public Health, and Customs at Laredo, Texas, he boarded a Greyhound bus and proceeded to San Antonio, Texas, where he boarded another bus for Houston, Texas.

He recalled that the bus stopped at Monterrey and all passengers alighted, but he did not recall if it was the same or a different bus which they boarded when they departed from Monterrey. He remembered that there were several rest stops while en route to Laredo, Texas, from Mexico City, which allowed the passengers to drink a soda or eat a sandwich but these stops were short.

The bus was full and he did not have any conversation with anyone else except the young woman who sat next to him. He could not recall specifically if any additional passengers boarded the bus at Monterrey but he was certain that he kept his same seat all the way from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas. He remembered that the arrival at Monterrey was at about 9:00 or 10:00 p.m. and that it was then dark.

A few miles before reaching the border at Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, the bus stopped and the lights in the bus were turned on to allow a Mexican Immigration official to examine the travel documents of all the passengers aboard the bus. He remembered that at this Mexican Immigration check station there were two men taken from the bus for questioning, apparently about their travel documents. He saw these two men who left the bus and considered that they were not Mexicans because there was some sort of problem with regard to their travel documents. He remembered that one of these men had sat across the aisle from him either to the rear or just ahead, and that the other man was sitting to the rear of him on his side of the bus.

He could recall that only one Mexican Immigration official boarded the bus, but when the men were taken off the bus they were taken to talk with another Mexican Immigration official whom he assumed was higher in rank with the Mexican Immigration Service and whom he stated probably was "a Sergeant".

The two men were allowed to return to the bus and the stop at this check station delayed the bus about fifteen to twenty minutes. He believed that this stop was made at about 1:00 or 1:30 a.m. on the morning of October 3, 1963.

He described one of the men who was taken off the bus and who sat someplace across the aisle as "a foreigner to Mexico", about fifty some odd years old, black hair, graying, heavy set, and fair complexion. He could not recall the type of clothing this man wore.

He described the second man who sat behind him as "a foreigner to Mexico", a young man, shorter than the above described man, fair complexion, wore a jacket "coffee-colored tan" which was a gabardine type, and he tried to speak some Spanish to the Mexican Immigration official when approached at the check station for his travel documents but he was unable to communicate his Spanish properly. This man did not get off at the rest stops with the other passengers and once he was observed eating a banana which he had taken from a paper bag he carried. This individual was observed once talking with a middle aged woman, a passenger whose description he could not recall, and their conversation and the language used could not be recalled as well as exactly when this took place aboard the bus.

He recalled that after departure from the Mexican Immigration check station, the bus proceeded to Nuevo Laredo where again a Mexican Immigration official boarded the bus to hurriedly check the travel documents of the passengers. Then the bus traveled on the bridge across the Rio Grande River to Laredo, Texas, where all passengers alighted from the bus and were processed first by the United States Immigration Service, then by the United States Department of Public Health for a small pox vaccination, and then their luggage was examined by United States Customs. Following this, RODRIGUEZ CHAVEZ boarded a Greyhound bus at about 2:00 or 2:30 a.m. on October 3, 1963, for San Antonio, Texas. Here he boarded another Greyhound bus for Houston, Texas, where he arrived at about 6:00 or 7:00 a.m. on the same day.

At this point he could not recall anything specific about any of the other passengers with regard to their identities, their descriptions and their purpose for travel because he did not engage in conversation with any of them except the young woman who sat next to him and who traveled to Houston, Texas.

A photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD taken on August 9, 1963, at New Orleans, Louisiana, which consists of a side and front view and a full length front view of him standing, was exhibited for identification and RODRIGUEZ CHAVEZ immediately recognized OSWALD as the second man described above, who sat to his rear, who tried to speak to the Mexican Immigration official in Spanish, and who was taken off the bus at the Mexican Immigration check station before arrival at the Mexican-United States border. He was positive about this because he explained that this photograph was that of the man who kept an overhead reading light on, in the bus, after about 10:00 p.m. on October 2, 1963, which disturbed RODRIGUEZ CHAVEZ from sleeping on the bus. He remembered that the man in the photograph shown him was reading either a book, a magazine, or a newspaper and this bothered him because the man was so inconsiderate to leave the light on when he, as well as others, were trying to sleep. He remembered that the man was reading because RODRIGUEZ CHAVEZ turned to look at him.

He could not be certain as to the exact seat the man in the photograph sat but he was certain that the man sat to his rear and to his left.

He was asked if he knew the man in the photograph shown him and he stated that he did not. He was told that the photograph was that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and he stated that OSWALD was a "desgraciado" (disgraceful person). He then expressed a deep emotional feeling for President JOHN F. KENNEDY, losing his composure and crying at length. After composing himself, he advised the following additional information:

He remembered that OSWALD not only did not turn off the reading light when others were trying to sleep, but he was "a loner" because he did not get off the bus with the other passengers at various rest stops en route and always appeared to be "alone", not associating with other passengers.

He recalled having seen OSWALD last when the passengers alighted from the Greyhound bus at San Antonio, Texas, and he did not recall that OSWALD boarded the Greyhound bus with him en route from San Antonio, Texas, to Houston, Texas.

He did see the young woman who sat next to him on the bus, at the Greyhound bus station in Houston, Texas, when her husband failed to appear and she stated that she was taking a taxi to her residence in Houston.

He could not recall having seen OSWALD at the bus station in Mexico City or having been aware of his presence on the bus at the time it departed from Mexico City. The bus was crowded and during the first hour or two of the trip, he got accustomed to his seat and conversed with the unknown young woman sitting next to him. He said he was not aware of OSWALD until possibly the second rest stop when he observed that OSWALD did not get off the bus with the others but remained in his seat.

He was asked to furnish any other specific knowledge he might have regarding OSWALD. He said that he did not recall observing any activities of OSWALD at the time the bus stopped at Monterrey, Mexico. He definitely recalled that OSWALD was on the bus when it crossed the border into the United States and stopped for processing. He said, however, that he was most concerned with his own papers and the United States Customs check of his belongings, and he was not alert to the activities of the other passengers. He did not remember observing OSWALD being processed by the United States authorities. He did recall seeing OSWALD board the same Greyhound bus with him at Laredo, Texas, when the bus proceeded to San Antonio, Texas. He could not recall where OSWALD sat on this bus. He stated that during the entire trip he had no personal contact or conversation with OSWALD.

He was asked specifically whether he could recall any information regarding other passengers on the busses. He stated that except for the young woman who sat next to him, who was returning to her residence in Houston, Texas, he remembered only one other who was a student. The citizenship and origin of this student were unknown to him, but he did remember that this young man had a "long string of tickets" and he was traveling from Mexico City to San Antonio, Texas, en route to Chicago, Illinois, and then some other "far away place." He did not sit next to or across from any male passenger whom he could recall, and he could not remember where the student sat on the busses. He could not recall a description of the student.

He was asked specifically if he had realized, prior to this interview, that OSWALD, who allegedly assassinated President JOHN F. KENNEDY, was identical with the passenger whom he had seen on the bus during the trip. He stated that he had not. He advised that he cannot read or speak English; that he does not own a television set; and had not seen OSWALD on television or in magazines. He said that he saw OSWALD's photograph once in a newspaper. He admitted that he had not recognized the photograph in the newspaper of OSWALD as that of the passenger on the bus. He said that apparently it was not a good likeness. On the other hand, when shown the photograph of OSWALD reflecting three poses, he immediately recognized the photograph as identical with the passenger on the bus because he stated the photograph was "so lifelike".

He could not think of any other information regarding the activities of OSWALD while a passenger on the busses between Mexico City and San Antonio, Texas. He stated that he had never met OSWALD previously and had no contacts with or knowledge of OSWALD after the trip on October 2 - 3, 1963.

The President's Commission by letter to the Director dated June 8, 1964, requested an interview with Mr. David Hoy, Radio Station WIKY, Evansville, Indiana.

The letter further requested to ascertain the circumstances surrounding a call made by Mr. Hoy to Martin Anderson, Associated Press, Indianapolis, Indiana. There are set forth as follows the results of interviews with Mr. Martin Anderson and Mr. Dale Burgess and the results of checks of telephone records at Evansville, Indiana, relating to David Edwin Hoy.

MARTIN ANDERSON, Associated Press, Indianapolis, Indiana, advised that he had never talked to DAVID HOY on November 24, 1963. He stated that he knew that HOY was a newscaster with WIKY in Evansville, Indiana.

Mr. ANDERSON believed that in all probability DALE BURGESS took the original call from HOY and that in all probability, the call was collect as this is standard procedure among those in the news media to do so.

ANDERSON stated that whatever information HOY had made available to BURGESS was released by the Associated Press in Indianapolis and in all probability had been used in an Associated Press release originating from Dallas, Texas.

1 Date June 13, 1964

DALE BURGESS, Associated Press, Indianapolis, Indiana, advised that he recalled receiving a telephone call from DAVID HOY, Radio Station WIKY, Evansville, Indiana, on November 24, 1963. He recalled that he was working from noon until 8:00 p.m. that Sunday and that the call came to his attention shortly after 12:00 noon on this date. He stated the call was probably collect, as 99 per cent of the calls received by Associated Press are collect. BURGESS recalled that HOY indicated that he had some information from an individual by the name of DEMAR who had called him concerning OSWALD's arrest. He believed the gist of the matter was that DEMAR believed that OSWALD participated in a memory act which had been conducted by DEMAR at the Carousel. BURGESS recalls that HOY indicated that the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas was owned by JACK RUBY.

BURGESS stated that he released the information on the Associated Press Wire and that he believes it was subsequently used in an Associated Press story which was released from Dallas shortly thereafter.

Mr. BURGESS advised he had no further information in his possession concerning this matter.

President's Commission by letter dated June 8, 1964, refers to testimony of William Crowe, also known as Bill De Mar, former entertainer at Ruby's Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, before the Commission. The Commission requested an interview with David Hoy, formerly with Radio Station WIKY, Evansville, Indiana, to determine whether or not in Hoy's conversation with De Mar on November 24, 1963, De Mar mentioned seeing Oswald and if so what he did thereafter.

On June 12, 1964, David Edwin Hoy was located and interviewed at Hotel Braemore, Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 6/[illegible]/63

DAVID EDWIN NOT, age 33, married, stated that his wife, SHIRLEY, and his three children reside at 1420 Adams Avenue, Evansville, Indiana. This is his permanent address and he is presently employed in the entertainment field doing a "mind reading act" at Paul's Mall, 730 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts. He arrived in Boston, June 1, and will leave on June 10 for New York City. He said he never knew JACK L. RUBY or LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and the only time he was in Texas was September or October of 1963 in connection with the Texas Association of Magicians. He was at Fort Worth, Texas and Dallas.

NOT stated that he can recall making a prediction at that time that the city of Dallas would soon make some news. He said he was vaguely referring to a controversy regarding an airport then going on between Dallas and Fort Worth. He stated that he knows WILLIAM CROUN also known as BILLY BELL, who is presently in the entertainment field doing a "ventriloquist act." He has known BELL since they attended high school at Evansville, Indiana and has been in touch with him off and on through the years. BELL, to his knowledge, has been married and divorced, but his parents are still living in Evansville, Indiana.

NOT is a graduate of Bob Jones University, Greenville, North Carolina, and studied for the Baptist Ministry. In 1961, he was news director for WIKY which is an AM and FM radio station in Evansville, Indiana. He was also engaged as a "stringer" for the Associated Press which means he would call any story that came to his attention that had more than local news value.

On 6/[illegible]/63 at Boston, Massachusetts File # BS 62-[illegible]

by [illegible] Date dictated 6/[illegible]/63

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

HOY stated that on Sunday, November 24, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he was constantly on the air and spent most of the day at his home, and recalls seeing on television OSWALD having been shot by an unidentified man who was subsequently identified as JACK RUBY of the Carousel Club. He stated that his telephone number at his home is GReenleaf (GR 6-7760) and that his business telephone for the radio station that employed him is HA 4-8824.

It is his recollection that BILLY DEMAR who was then playing at the Carousel Club at Dallas, Texas shortly thereafter, called him on the telephone as he knew he would be interested in the news story because he could describe what RUBY was like. He stated he recalls getting a brief description of RUBY from DEMAR in which DEMAR was very generous toward RUBY and thought he was a nice sort of person with an odd patriotic sense of values. He stated that he immediately telephoned his report that he received from DEMAR to the Associated Press in Indianapolis. He stated that he then recalled seeing DEMAR on television in which DEMAR alleged that he believed OSWALD was in the Carousel Club about eight days before. HOY stated he was shocked to hear this and his immediate reaction was that he could not understand why DEMAR had not told him this when he had a short time previously described RUBY. He stated he cannot understand DEMAR knowing that HOY was working for a radio station and being greatly interested in this type of news and still not telling him about it.

HOY stated that he thinks that BILLY DEMAR is the type of person who can be described as a "hard luck guy" and is perhaps extremely naive. He stated he then called the Associated Press who requested that he follow through with DEMAR and that if the story of OSWALD being at the Carousel Club was true, it would be a great development.

HOY stated he kept close to the telephone throughout November 24, 1963, and made a great many calls from his home and received many calls at his home during the afternoon and evening of November, 24, 1963. He said he could not recall exactly who called him and who he called, but does know that he reached BILLY DEMAR about 1:00 p.m. and asked him if he really meant what he said about having seen OSWALD. His best recollection is that DEMAR replied, "DAVE, I think I saw him, I do not forget faces."

HOY stated he told DEMAR that he should go into hiding because he was in a dangerous position if, in fact, there was a compact between OSWALD and RUBY and other members of the underworld. He told DEMAR that he should immediately contact the Dallas Police Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Secret Service and give them full details and request their protection. He stated subsequently during the afternoon of November 24, 1963, he had other conversations with DEMAR. On more than one occasion he tried to reach DEMAR on the telephone, but was unsuccessful. He stated that sometimes he believes that this OSWALD's alleged appearance at the Carousel Club was the figment of DEMAR's imagination, and subsequently as a result has questioned DEMAR very closely regarding it. DEMAR, however, still believes he saw OSWALD. He stated that he understands that on June 9, DEMAR appeared before the Warren Committee and his version of the incident is that OSWALD held up or mentioned a strange object. HOY states he seriously questioned what DEMAR actually saw.

HOY stated that the Secret Service contacted him on the telephone on November 25, 1963, and he recalls telling them that DEMAR was in hiding in Dallas and that he did not know his actual whereabouts, but if DEMAR contacted him, he would advise the Secret Service where to reach him.

He believes that on the following day when he did hear from DEMAR, he called the local office of the Secret Service and furnished them with DEMAR's address. HOY stated that he himself is extremely interested in Extra Sensory Perception, but does not profess to have any ability at it and tells everyone, "I am a fake". He said apparently people do not believe him, and his act that he is performing now has met with good success. He stated that he has been in the entertainment field since January and intends to give show business a try.

HOY stated he has a background in magic, and has some ability as a Magician. He stated that he recalls that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, his boss insisted that he make a telephone call into Dallas and attempt to get a "Beaper" which he described as a telephone type of recording regarding anything of news value out of Dallas. He recalls that in this regard he made two telephone calls about 2:30p.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the afternoon of November 23, 1963 to KBOX, Dallas, Texas, and that he was unsuccessful in obtaining a "Beaper."

HOY believes that he called Dallas, Texas, on November 24 at about 11:45a.m. It was after DEMAR had first called him and prior to DEMAR's statement on television regarding OSWALD. He stated the subject matter of OSWALD had not come up at this time. He merely got more background on RUBY and DEMAR's observations of what it was like in Dallas on this sad occasion, He stated he cannot remember how many telephone calls he had with him after this or how long this call was, but doubts he talked at 11:55 a.m. for sixty minutes with BILL DEMAR. He stated that throughout the day he was calling New York City and Indianapolis. He stated that about 1:50 p.m. he was in a telephone conversation with DEMAR and that this he believes was after DEMAR's appearance on television at which time DEMAR mentioned OSWALD.

He believes that after 7:00 p.m., on November 24, 1963, he was talking with DEMAR as he was worried about his safety and during this time he obtained more information about RUBY and Dallas which he subsequently used in his news contacts. He stated that he recalls also that after 8:00 p.m. he talked to a Sergeant at the Dallas Police Station and suggested that possibly BILLY DEMAR needed police protection, but he does not know the Sergeant's name with whom he talked. He believes the officer was not interested in what he had to say. He stated that he was talking with MARTIN ANDERSON of the Associated Press of Indianapolis, Indiana on November 24, 1963, and talked to him on more than one occasion and furnished to him all of the information he was able to obtain from his source at Dallas, Texas, which was BILLY DEMAR.

HOY stated his mind always goes back to the first time that DEMAR talked to him on the telephone and he is unable to understand why DEMAR did not at that time tell him about OSWALD. He stated he questioned DEMAR about it very carefully and DEMAR stated, "I did not think it was very important."

HOY stated that he considers DEMAR a reliable person who would not invent a story merely for publicity. He also recalls a Dallas newspaper calling him November 24, and 25 and asking him questions about BILLY DEMAR, his real name, his background and where he was. He stated that he is quite certain that BILLY DEMAR took his advise and got in touch with the Secret Service who suggested to him he change his hotel location, but that DEMAR did not immediately abide by their suggestion.

This memorandum recommends interview with Donald H. Janson, news correspondent, "New York Times," who may have pertinent information in captioned matter.

Recently representative of Braniff Airways, Newark, New Jersey, made available letter he had found while cleaning seat pocket of Braniff plane. Letter was dated 5-22-64 and is from one S. Martin to one Don Janson, neither of whom is further identified.

Letter indicates Martin had interviewed unidentified Texas reporter who, after prefacing his remarks with request FBI not be advised, reportedly made following comments:

In February, 1963, he and some prominent Texas men discussed possibility of doing away with Cheddi Jagan, Prime Minister of British Guiana, or Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba, or both. Castro was to be done away with during visit to Mexico. Venture, which was to be privately handled, failed to materialize but allegedly the Government, specifically CIA, which encouraged such things, knew about it. Reporter later heard that, when Lee Harvey Oswald was in Mexico, Oswald heard of these plans and this was why he killed President Kennedy.

CIA on 6-17-64 advised that the alleged plot to do away with Jagan and Castro were not CIA operations.

Don Janson may be identical with Donald H. Janson, "New York Times" news correspondent. Janson was interviewed in March, 1964, in connection with article he had prepared concerning Oswald. At that time

Re: Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

Reference is made to Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) memorandum dated May 22, 1964, concerning subject's planned travel to Europe on that date.

The June 13, 1964 issue of the "National Guardian", page 4, column 4, contained an article entitled "Oswald: Is the Commission in Doubt?" This article noted that subject was then on a lecture tour of Europe building support for his organization, Committee of Inquiry, which, according to this article, is concerned with the investigation of the murder of President John F. Kennedy. The article stated that in Paris Lane announced that "the Association of French Jurists will convene an international conference of lawyers after the US elections in November to hear evidence and arrive at its own conclusions about the 'murder of the century'".

On June 18, 1964, Mr. Daniel Strayer, Chief, Records and Information Section, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 20 West Broadway, New York City, furnished information which reflected that Mark Lane of 164 West 79th Street, New York City, passport number E067352, departed the United States on May 22, 1964, as a passenger on Scandinavian Airlines System, Flight #912, en route from New York to Copenhagen, Denmark.

On June 17, 1964, by means of a suitable pretext by a Special Agent of the FBI, it was determined subject was continuing his lecture tour in Europe and while his plans to return to the United States were somewhat indefinite, he was expected to return to New York during the first week in July, 1964.

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the appendix attached hereto.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Enclosed herewith are 9 copies for the Bureau and 2 copies each for Dallas, Miami, New York, and Oklahoma City of a letterhead memorandum dated and captioned as above.

The original letter referred to in letterhead memorandum was furnished during the evening of 6/6/64 by Mr. EARL MANCHESTER, Service Department, Braniff Airways, Newark Airport, Newark, N.J. He advised that this letter had been found in a seat pocket of a Braniff plane that same evening during the process of cleaning. It was possible that it had been placed there days before and on other than the plane's previous flight. The original of the letter, which was without envelope or other data to identify sender or receiver, is being maintained in the 1-A section of Newark file.

A clipping from the 11/6/63 issue of "The New York Times" was enclosed and briefly referred to in the letter as speaking for itself. This clipping was captioned "City Presbytery Nominates Negro" and refers to Rev. ELDER G. HAWKINS, Pastor of St. Augustine Church, Prospect Ave. and 165th St., New York City, being unanimously nominated by the Presbytery of New York City as its candidate for Moderator of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. A statement in the article was circled in ink and underlined indicating that if Rev. HAWKINS "wins the election in Oklahoma City on May 21", he would be the first Negro to head the church body. This part is not referred to in letterhead memorandum as it appears to have no direct relation to the information reported therein.

Newark indices contain no information identical to S. MARTIN or DON JANSON. While the H. L. HUNT referred to is known as a backer of conservative activities in the Southwest, Newark does not possess sufficient information with which to characterize him in letterhead memorandum.

The Bureau and other offices are requested to check their indices for information which might identify S. MARTIN or DON JANSON, as well as the unknown Texas reporter who appears to be from Dallas whose comments are reported in letterhead memorandum.

Dallas, Oklahoma City, Miami and New York advise Bureau of possible pertinent information developed from their own search of indices.

Newark will attempt to develop further information regarding identity of the Braniff plane and location of passenger manifests reflecting names of passengers on the pertinent plane since 5/22/64.

ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES IN THE UNITED STATES
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

On June 6, 1964, Mr. Earl Manchester, Service Department, Braniff Airways, Newark Airport, Newark, New Jersey, made available a letter which he had found that evening while cleaning the seat pockets of a Braniff plane.

The typewritten letter was dated May 22, 1964, and directed to one "Don Janson" from "S. Martin". It showed no address for sender or receiver and was without envelope. It was pointed out by Mr. Manchester that the letter could have been left in the plane on any of many previous flights.

The letter from S. Martin to Don Janson refers to in quotes comments of a "Texas reporter", who was described as "a proud and eager friend of that police force of the year in Dallas". It noted that "Vicki" took notes on the interview and that he, Martin, had five hours of recorded conversation with the reporter, whose comments were reported as follows:

> "For God's sake, don't tell the FBI, but back about February (1963) when I was working for H. L. Hunt, some very prominent Texas men, R. D. Matthews and I discussed the possibility of doing away with Cheddi Jagan or Castro or both. Not by the U.S. government, you understand, but on a private basis. Hunt said we could have all the cash we needed, the others were in it, too, on a cash basis. We were going to get Castro sometime when he (Castro) went to Mexico. Understand now, we dropped it. R.D. didn't go for it. I didn't go for it. Meanwhile, we understood there was a group in Florida with the same idea. Also, the government knew all about it."
> (Our question:) Which branch of the government knew all about it?

"The CIA. Not Kennedy. We were going to have men go down to Mexico and pose as oil agents. When Castro came in, we'd get him. The CIA encourages these things. I heard later that when Oswald was in Mexico he heard of our plans and that's why he killed Kennedy. But Kennedy didn't even know what was going on half the time."

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. BELMONT
MR. ROSEN
MR. DE LOACH

Lee Oswald

Judge Edward A. Tamm called and advised that Ernest Cuneo had just left his office. Judge Tamm stated that Mr. Cuneo said he is going to try to see Assistant Director DeLoach today; that he has signed a contract with the Curtis Publishing Company to do 35,000 words, apparently in the book-of-the-week type of thing, on what Judge Tamm thought when Mr. Cuneo first started talking was the Warren Report about the assassination of the President. Judge Tamm stated that Mr. Cuneo is rather hard to understand and asked if I knew whether there is a Senate Committee making a similar investigation. I told the Judge there was not. Judge Tamm continued that Mr. Cuneo mentioned Senators Long and Russell and a couple of others were taking a very vigorous stand and it looked as though there was going to be a repudiation of Warren. Judge Tamm stated that Mr. Cuneo apparently has talked to Allen Dulles, who says the report is going to be a complete exoneration of the FBI for any responsibility because of the Secret Service's claim that the FBI should have notified them about Lee Harvey Oswald being there and of his background, et cetera. Judge Tamm stated he could not ask questions because he was not too sure of what Mr. Cuneo was talking about, but he thought he would tell me that Mr. Cuneo was going to ask to see Mr. DeLoach and he, Judge Tamm, was sure that Mr. DeLoach with his background could explore it with Cuneo. Judge Tamm stated Mr. Cuneo has interviewed a number of people, including as he had mentioned, Dulles, and he has substantial knowledge of what is going to be in the report which is to be released immediately after the Republican Convention.

I told Judge Tamm the Commission was aiming to get the report out on June 30th, that the Chief Justice had told me recently they were planning to have it released on June 30th, but I did not believe they would get it out because in talking with J. Lee Rankin I gathered there was still a great deal of spade work to be done plus the fact that all of the members of the Commission have not been in attendance at all times. Judge Tamm asked if Senator Russell was a member of the Commission, and I told him he was but he has been in attendance very seldom has also been at loggerheads with Justice Warren and even threatened to resign several times, but at the insistance of the President, remained on so there would be a public break in the midst of the report. Judge Tamm stated maybe explains Cuneo's statement about a repudiation of Justice Warren.

JCH:edm (2)

June 22, 1964

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Rosen, DeLoach

I stated in the first instance Russell did not want to go on the Commission and the original fight was over Warren Olney, as Justice Warren had wanted him made General Counsel of the Commission, but Senator Russell opposed vigorously, Dulles opposed it, and Congressman Ford opposed it and they all threatened to resign if Olney were appointed. I stated consequently they all started out with chips on their shoulders because Olney is a protege of Warren's. I stated that I thought indirectly they blame me for the attack on Olney although I did not raise a finger to it and it was done without my knowledge, but knowing Olney's hostility I have no doubt that Justice Warren was told of the opposition and both probably think I had my finger in it.

I told Judge Tamm I appeared before the Commission about three weeks ago and out of the clear sky the day before I appeared, Justice Warren invited me to have luncheon with him in his private dining room, and I was a little puzzled, but he could not have been nicer in his solicitude and interest. I stated he talked about the fact I was going so testify the next day and wanted me to offer any suggestions and try to think of anything that ought to be done to tighten up the security of the President. I stated the next day I did appear and that I was there about three hours; that Justice Warren was there but Senator Russell was not nor was John McCoy. I stated in addition to the Chief Justice, there were present Senator Cooper, Congressman Ford, Allen Dulles, J. Lee Rankin, of course, and one or two others, who were probably staff members. I stated the questioning was very cordial and friendly and the atmosphere was really too warm in a pleasant way, but I answered all the questions satisfactorily, I thought, and in any event Mr. Rankin told me the next day that my testimony had great effect on the Commission and he thought it did me a great deal of good. I told Judge Tamm that I got into the field of the extent one can go in the security of the President without violating the civil rights of the people, and I took the position that absolute security could not be furnished the President without violating the constitutional and civil rights of the citizens of the country, that there are a lot of crackpots and members of subversive organizations. I stated I cited a case that had happened a week or so before my appearance in that we had furnished the Secret Service with the names of suspects in Chicago where the President was going to appear and the Secret Service got the Chicago Police to hold these people in house arrest for the time the President was in Chicago, and there had been quite a commotion about it. Judge Tamm commented that this was illegal. I stated I had nothing to do with what the Secret Service does with the information after we furnish it to them, but we have to keep in mind that there has to be a balance between the security of the President, who is very difficult to secure, and the civil rights and constitutional rights of the citizens. I stated that I would say in New York City there possibly are not less than 5,000 persons who would be on the suspect list and might be put under house arrest when the President visits that city and that would be a police state and I did not think it was the right procedure, but we are furnishing Secret Service with everything we have. I testified that in regard to Oswald, when they questioned whether he was on any suspect list, I stated he was not as he never gave any indication of being a person who might commit violence and we did not know and no one else knew that he had already tried to kill General Walker and this was not told us till after the President was killed and it was Oswald's wife who told us. I stated that Oswald had been playing around with communism, had defected to Russia, but there was no evidence of violence in his makeup, but we are now sending all names of this type of person to Secret Service. I said that will result in many persons being arrested or put under house arrest and I have great concern of the violation of the constitutional and civil rights of American citizens. Judge Tamm asked if my testimony was recorded and I stated it was.

Judge Tamm stated he did want to talk to me and let me know about Ernest Cuneo and that he was going to ask to see Mr. DeLoach. I told him I was glad he called and I would pass the word on to Mr. DeLoach. I called Mr. DeLoach and advised him.

Very truly yours,

Synopsis: Cuban newspaper REVOLUCION reviewed for period 10/1/63 to 12/31/63 without locating cartoon of FIDEL CASTRO and President KENNEDY, which Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ, Cuban exile attorney, had stated depicted the death of President KENNEDY about a week before the assassination. Dr. PENABAZ contacted on 6/5/64, and advised he had not actually seen such a cartoon, but had been told about it by Dr. JORGE GARCIA MONTES. On 6/7/64, Dr. GARCIA MONTES, former Prime Minister of Cuba, stated he had not seen any such cartoon as described by Dr. PENABAZ, but on the other hand had given Dr. PENABAZ a photograph of a crowd in Havana, Cuba, carrying a mock coffin of President KENNEDY. This photo appeared in the 1/7/62 issue of Cuban magazine BOHEMIA, and was taken during the celebration of the third anniversary of CASTRO's regime. Dr. GARCIA MONTES furnished a copy of a speech made by him on 4/25/64 in which he described influence of FIDEL CASTRO on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. An employee of U.S. Information Agency, Miami, and a confidential source close to Cuban situation, state they have no recollection of any cartoon such as that mentioned by Dr. PENABAZ.

DETAILS: Reference is made to the report of Special Agent LIONEL E. BELANGER, dated December 10, 1963 at Tampa, Florida. Page 4 of that report relates to a taped television interview of Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ. In that interview, made on December 5, 1963 by Station WESH-TV, Orlando, Florida, Mr. PENABAZ described a cartoon which he alleged appeared in the Cuban newspaper REVOLUCION about a week before the assassination of President KENNEDY. The cartoon was said to depict "Uncle Sam" laughing at the damage which Hurricane Flora had wrought in Cuba, and in a second drawing, depicted the coffin of President KENNEDY with FIDEL CASTRO laughing. The cartoon was said to be captioned "He who laughs last, laughs best."

On June 2, 1964 a confidential source, who is a former Cuban police official, stated he did not recall having seen any cartoon such as that described by Dr. PENABAZ. The source stated he obtains and reviews for intelligence information the Cuban newspaper REVOLUCION and other Cuban publications. The source made available his collection of REVOLUCION, covering the period October 1, 1963 to December 15, 1963. All issues were available except those for November 23 and November 28.

The edition of October 5, 1963, reported Hurricane Flora had arrived in Eastern Cuba on October 4, 1963.

Review of REVOLUCION for this period (except issues for November 23 and 28, 1963) reflected no cartoon as described by Dr. PENABAZ.

On June 5, 1964 review of all issues of REVOLUCION for the period October 1, 1963 to December 31, 1963, was made from the microfilm maintained at the office of the U.S. Information Agency (USIA), Miami, Florida. No cartoon such as that described by Dr. PENABAZ, was located. Mr. GEORGE VOLSKY, writer and researcher for USIA, stated he did not recall any cartoon such as that described by Dr. PENABAZ having appeared in any Cuban publication.

On June 5, 1964 Dr. FERNANDO PENABAZ, 15 Madeira, Coral Gables, Florida, Cuban exile attorney and writer, stated he had not actually seen the cartoon to which he referred in the taped television interview, but had been told about it by Dr. JORGE GARCIA MONTES, former Prime Minister of Cuba during the regime of FULGENCIO BATISTA. Mr. PENABAZ said he believed he had been told about the cartoon by still another person, but was unable to recall the identity of such person. He believed the cartoon appeared in REVOLUCION prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

On June 7, 1964, Dr. JORGE GARCIA MONTES, 520 Gerona Avenue, Coral Gables, Florida, advised that he first became a Congressman in Cuba in 1922. He had also served as legal counsel for several United States owned companies in Cuba, while continuing in Cuban politics. He said he served as Prime Minister in Cuba from February, 1955 to April, 1957, at which time he resigned and was appointed Minister of Education.

Dr. GARCIA stated he had no knowledge of a cartoon such as that described by FERNANDO PENABAZ. He believed PENABAZ had possibly confused the existence of such a cartoon with a photograph which he, Dr. GARCIA, had given Dr. PENABAZ about 6 or 7 months ago. He said this photograph had appeared in the January 7, 1962 issue of the Cuban magazine BOHEMIA. The photograph depicted a huge crowd which had assembled in Havana on January 2, 1962 for a display of Cuban military might and a speech by FIDEL CASTRO on the occasion of the celebration of the third anniversary of CASTRO's regime. Dr. GARCIA displayed a copy of the BOHEMIA magazine in question.

He pointed out on page 69 thereof, a photograph depicting part of the large crowd gathered for the celebration. This part of the crowd was holding up a mock coffin on which was printed, in English, the words:

"Mr. KENNEDY lies here, Cuban revolution killed him."

A caption under the picture in the magazine, as translated from Spanish, reads:

"The popular repudiation of the aggressive policy of imperialism assumes a most picturesque form: KENNEDY (in the casket) lies here liquidated by the Cuban revolution."

Dr. GARCIA furnished a copy of the photograph in the magazine. He said he had made copies of this photograph available to the Cuban exile group, Unidad Revolucionaria (Revolutionary Unity), for its anti-CASTRO propaganda.

Dr. GARCIA also furnished a typewritten copy of a speech he said he made before the Louisiana Press Association at Shreveport, Louisiana, on April 25, 1964, in which he set forth his observations on the influence of the FIDEL CASTRO regime on LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He pointed out that pages 11 to 16 of his speech copy (numbered in the upper right corners), deal with his views upon the assassination. The speech is as follows:

SPEECH DELIVERED
BEFORE THE LOUISIANA PRESS ASSOCIATION
APRIL 25, 1964

Members of the Louisiana Press Association:

I consider this opportunity to speak before your Convention a great honor. Ironically, after living five years in Florida, it is this Association that has given me the chance to speak about the tragedy of my country.

Honors are always appreciated, but more so in the circumstances in which I find myself: a political exile and a man without a country.

I have been a friend of the United States all my life. One reason is that I was born in this country. During the second war for independence, my family had to leave Cuba and I was born in the city of New York in 1897. But the main reason why I am a friend of the United States is that I learned it from my father, who was always grateful for the help and support that you gave Cuba to gain its independence from Spain.

Now, my friends, I am asking you, the members of the press that mould public opinion, to help us again recover our independence. The situation now is much worse than it was in 1898. Then we were fighting Spain which, after all, is the country of our ancestors and our culture is Spanish. The excesses and the crimes of the cruel Captain General Weyler were nothing compared to what Cuba is suffering today. Thousands of people have been shot, practically without trial, 50,000 political prisoners suffer from hunger and all sorts of indignities in Cuban jails, and a foreign country, alien to all that is Cuban, rules my country through its Communist satrap, Fidel Castro, to whom Russia has given all the weapons necessary to keep the Cuban people in slavery, and a state police organization that Cubans cannot, by themselves, destroy.

You will forgive me, I am sure, for saying these words. I could not speak before the press of the State of Louisiana, so close to our struggles for independence, without asking for your help to free my country from the yoke of Communism. But although that is what is really in my heart, I have not come to tell you what Castro and Communism have done to Cuba and the Cubans. I am aware that I am addressing a segment of the American press, and that I should talk about what you are naturally interested in: the damages to the United States inflicted by Castro and Communism.

Whatever Castro has done, has been done by a Communistic government, and is therefore the result of having a Communistic regime in Cuba. So, it seems to me, and I hope to you too, that a few words about the nature of Communism and its aims are in order.

Many years ago Lenin said: "We will first take Eastern Europe; afterwards the masses of Asia. Then we will surround the United States, which will remain the last bastion of Capitalism. We will not have to attack; the United States will fall into our hands like an overripe fruit." 44 years have elapsed since Lenin said this. During these years Soviet Russia took Eastern Europe, thanks to the Yalta and Potsdam agreements; Asia turned to Communism due to the Chinese revolution, aided and abetted by the United States and by the Korea and Geneva armistices. Now the Communists are trying to surround the United States in its own continent. The tactic to be followed to achieve this objective was formulated by Major Sergei Yuvarov in an article in Red Start that was reprinted by the Cuban magazine Bohemia in March 17, 1957 issue.

In said article, Major Yuvarov mentioned three strategic zones: The Colombia-Panama zone which commands the Panama Canal; the zone of the Central American isthmus from which the canal can be easily attacked, and the third, that he called the Antillion belt. He pointed out the possibility of using Cuba as a base of operations, mind you, in the year 1957. Precisely the year in which Castro started his revolution in Cuba.

Could it be possible to fight the Communistic strategy of world dominion with the tactic of pacific co-existence? The [illegible] Soviet declaration of May 23, 1963, says: (Quote)

"The atmosphere of pacific coexistence contributes to the increase of the influence of the Communist parties and to widen the fighting front for Socialism." And it goes on to say: (Quote) "The practice of pacific coexistence does not mean at all the end or the weakening of the political or ideological struggle against Imperialism."

In 1931 Dimitri Manuilsky, the leader of the Communist International, said: (Quote) "The war between Communism and Capitalism is inevitable. Naturally, today we are not strong enough to attack. Our policy is to put bourgeois America to sleep, launching the most spectacular peace movement ever seen."

In the book, Basis of Marxist Philosophy, written by Konstantinov, published by the Academy of Science of Russia, which is a textbook in all Communist universities, including, of course, the University of Havana, he says: "The contradictions between Socialism and Capitalism are antogonic contradictions, impossible to reconcile and could only end with the elimination of one of them." This, my friends, is the enemy you are facing only 90 miles from the shores of Florida, in the island of Cuba, that cuts all the maritime communications between the United States and the south, and particularly those of the Gulf of Mexico and the State of Louisiana.

The first damage inflicted by Castro's regime on the United States is economic. It is, of course, the least important because yours is a very rich country, but it is big enough to hurt.

We begin with properties of United States citizens in Cuba valued at Eight Hundred Million Dollars confiscated by Castro. Then losses of property of the United States Government valued at Twenty-Five Million Dollars.

This requires an explanation. The Nickaro plant, located in Oriente Province, was the property of the United States Government and was confiscated by Castro's regime. And let me add that Cuba holds the biggest nickel reserves in the world which are now lost to the United States Government and are being used by Soviet Russia. I do not have to tell you the strategic value of nickel today.

The third items is the loss in Cuban trade. Although you may have heard that Cuba was an underdeveloped country, the balance favored the United States at the rate of $125-Million a year for the ten years prior to 1959.

The next item is increase of the price of sugar paid by the citizens of the United States. The price of that commodity has gone way up due to the failure of the sugar crop in Cuba; it comes to around $600-Million in two years.

Add now the cost of the military mobilization of October 1962. I cannot quote any figure, but it must have run into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

Then add the cost of the Bay of Pigs invasion. The figure generally mentioned by those in the know is $40-Million.

Add to this the cost of help given to Cuban refugees in the United States: $75-Million a year; and the ransom paid for the prisoners of the Bay of Pigs: $53-Million; and, finally, $200-Million of merchandise sold to Cuba during the first year of Castro's regime that has not been paid for.

You have probably heard that Cuba's cost to Russia is One Million Dollars a day. Those who say so do not remember that Russia bought Cuban sugar last year at 4.6 and 6 cents a pound and that the price was over 9¢ a pound for 1963 and is still over 7¢ a pound.

But even so, figure the losses suffered by the United States and they average over $900-Million a year... almost three times as much as Cuba is supposed to cost to Russia.

And if you wish, you may add the $10-Billion for the Alliance for Progress program. You may remember that it was Castro who, in Buenos Aires in 1959, asked for ten billions from the United States to help Latin America. Then we all laughed at Castro's boutade, until President Kennedy came out with precisely ten billions for the Alianza program. By the way, so much money down the drain as long as Castro's regime remains in Cuba.

But what we have been considering so far is only money, and I must remind you of what Iago said to Othello: "'Twas mine,

'twas his, and has been a slave to thousands."

But something more important has been lost to the United States due to the presence of Castro's regime in Cuba: prestige.

The attacks on the prestige of the United States by Fidel Castro began during his revolution in the Sierra Maestra. We must remember his constant tirades against Yankee imperialism and the kidnapping of American citizens, and worse, the kidnapping of U.S. sailors from the Guantanamo Base. Never before had anybody in America dared do such a thing.

When he reached Havana, after victory, Castro's first act was to expell the U.S. Military Mission which he called useless and incapable.

Then came the so-called agrarian reform that practically confiscated all the sugar mills including, of course, those owned by American citizens. Later, all American assets in Cuba were confiscated, including, as we have already seen, properties of the United States Government. This was followed by a cataract of insults to the United States and its Government. He called United States Senators "Drunkards," President Eisenhower, "an idiot," the United States, "the featherless and lousy eagle," and insolently dared face this country in his statement of August 24, 1960, in which he said: (Quote) "We are in the trenches against imperialism, rapacious and exploiter; against the bloody and voracious imperialism that has lost a few claws in Cuba."

The most violent speech ever delivered against the United States in the United Nations was Castro's speech of September 1960.

His aim was, of course, to destroy the prestige of this country in Latin America where he knew that nobody can understand how a powerful nation may keep quiet under such provocation, and where courage is admired.

His purpose was clearly reflected in the newspaper "Revolucion," the official organ of Castro's regime, in an editorial of January 2, 1960.

Now, for more than a century, the United States has been at work to keep European countries out of the American continent. It started with the Monroe Doctrine and was followed by the Pan-American conferences of Chapultapec, Mexico, in 1945; Rio de Janeiro in 1947; Bogotá in 1948 where the charter of the OAS was approved. The Communists staged the bloody "Bogotazo" with the object of making the conference fail, but to no avail. Incidentally, Castro was one of the Communist agitators there.

Finally, in 1954, facing the threat of Communism in Guatemala, the OAS approved the Declaration of Caracas. It states: (Quote) "The dominion or control of the political institutions of any American state by the international Communist movement represents a menace to the sovereignty and independence of the American states that places in jeopardy the peace of America." Thus was Communism outlawed in America, and the sanctions had already been provided in Rio and Bogotá. And do not forget that armed intervention was one of them.

Then Russia landed troops in Cuba, and nothing happened, and the Monroe Doctrine was dead. When Castro landed troops in Panama, Nicaragua, Haiti, and Santo Domingo, and nothing happened, the Declaration of Caracas and the Treaties of Rio and Bogotá were also dead, and so was the Pan American system, to all practical purposes.

As a result, the leadership of the United States in the American continent slipped from its hands. Communism advanced and threatened to take over in Guatemala, Peru, Brazil, and Santo Domingo. Ironically, it was only due to military coups, so bitterly opposed by the State Department, that those countries were saved and Communism stopped.

When the rest of the world saw what was happening in America, at the very doorstep of the United States; when they saw that this country launched the Bay of Pigs invasion only to abandon the gallant fighters at the last minute, then two things happened simultaneously: friends of the United States - and France was an example - asked themselves: "If the United States does not get rid of Castro, 90 miles from its shores, for fear of war, will it come to our rescue if we are attacked?"

On the other hand, United States enemies and the so-called neutralist nations, decided that the United States was an easy target for blackmail. Then there followed Laos, the Berlin Wall, confiscation of American properties in Argentina and Brazil, kidnapping of American citizens in Boliva, looting of the American Embassy in Cambodia, rioting against the United States in Panama, Zanzibar, Cyprus, and practically everywhere.

The lesson is crystal-clear: A great and powerful nation, a very rich nation, is never loved no matter what it does or what it gives away. Leaders must be respected. Turning the other cheek makes matters only worse.

I think you will agree with me that never has the prestige of the United States been so low. This process was started with Castro's revolution in Cuba, and this situation will not improve as long as he is in power.

This is the way Castro explained the situation in his own peculiar way of expression: "The imperialists have shaken their fingers, their hands, their feet, their heads, their bodies, and notwithstanding all their efforts, a revolutionary government does not fall down. It was not like old times when Uncle Sam shook a finger and a government would fall down."

And that was, my friends, exactly what everybody believed in Cuba before Castro, so great was then the prestige of the United States.

The third damage inflicted by Castro's regime on the United States was the danger of nuclear war in October 1962; at least, the United States Government thought there was such a danger and mobilized accordingly.

When Khruschev, emboldened by the weakness of the United States Government brought the missiles to Cuba, the Kennedy administration, with a gun pointed at the heart of America, finally reacted. It could have used the opportunity to remove the Russian troops from Cuba, but at least the missiles and the big bombers were removed, or so we are told, because the on-sight inspection was never allowed by Castro.

So, when you hear, as I have often heard, that Castro is a problem for the Cubans and that we must solve it, remember that the United States Government has said emphatically that there was an imminent danger of nuclear war in October 1962, and that was only possible because the Castro regime ruled Cuba. With a friendly government in Cuba, such as our government was, that would have been impossible.

And we come to the last damage inflicted on the United States by the Castro regime, and the most dramatic: the assassination of the President of the United States.

I want to emphasize that I do not mean to say that Castro actually ordered Oswald to murder President Kennedy. What I do say is that a man who was a devoted Fidelista and imbued with his ideas was impelled to do it.

Even the hypothesis that Castro plotted the murder of President Kennedy is not absurd or impossible. For one thing, Castro is a murderer. He started in life at the University of Havana murdering Fernández Caral, a university policeman. He shot Leonel Gomez, a student, who escaped with his life miraculously, and he was one of the conspirators in the murder of a student leader, Manolo Castro.

Then, Castro was the one that could have profited by the crime. Certainly not Soviet Russia. Relations between this country and Russia never have been better since the Second World War. But Castro was alarmed at the rapprochement of the two countries and fearful that Russia might sacrifice him to better said relations.

On September 28, the Reuters Agency, reporting on Castro's speech of that day, said: (Quote) "Dr. Castro is believed to suspect that the Soviet Union may be prepared to settle Cuba's fate directly with the United States."

On September 12, Pravda published an article warning Castro: (Quote) "The establishment of normal relations between the United States and Cuba would be in the interest of both states, and would promote peace and international security."

Castro answered in his speech of September 28th. I quote: "While tensions are relaxing in other parts of the world, while tensions decrease in other parts of the world, Yankee imperialists try to tighten the Cuban blockade."

And then he stresses the contrast between the policy of relaxation of Russia and his own: (Quote) "Cuba has its own line which corresponds to the concrete conditions in which the Cuban revolution comes forth, and to the specific conditions of the spot in the world where it comes forth, the vicinity to Yankee imperialism and the brotherhood with a continent exploited by imperialism."

This is a declaration of independence with respect to the Russian policy of peaceful coexistence.

And, finally, he adds: (Quote) "This is the time of the peoples... when the peoples all over the continent shake the yoke of the empires and dig the graves of the exploiters... we are veterans in this struggle and know how to handle them."

On September 7th, at the Embassy of Brazil in Havana, he said: (Quote) "The leaders of the United States should think that if they are aiding in terrorist plans to eliminate the Cuban leaders, they themselves cannot be safe."

In September, Oswald traveled to Mexico for the ostensible purpose of getting a transit visa from Cuba. He stayed a week in that city and had a very long conference with the Cuban ambassador.

And, of course, the advantage of the elimination of President Kennedy could have been to interrupt the rapprochement between Washington and Moscow.

But again I repeat: I do not say that Castro induced Oswald to murder President Kennedy. What I do say is that the peculiar brand of Castro's Communist ideology was responsible for the murder of the President of the United States.

Oswald was a confessed Communist. Even in handcuffs, he raises his fists in the Communist way. (Show the picture).

He was a devoted sympathizer of Castro. In April of 1963 he distributed Castro propaganda in New Orleans. In July he rented an office for the distribution of that propaganda; he tried to infiltrate the Cuban Revolutionary Directorate, an anti-Castro organization, by offering his services in New Orleans as a military instructor. The 9th of August he was distributing Castro propaganda in that city; a scuffle arose and he was fined $10.00. In the same city, the 17th, on the occasion of a radio interview with K. Stucky, he made statements in favor of the Castro regime. On the 21st, he took part in a 4-man panel at WDSV as a sympathizer of Castro.

So there is no doubt that Oswald was a devoted Fidelista and that he was serving Castro in every way he could.

What was Oswald hearing from Castro before November, 1963?

(Quote) "The behavior of President Kennedy was that of a pirate. In fact, never had a president of the United States degraded so much the dignity of the office." (January 3, 1963).

"The rulers of the United States have shown their souls of gangsters and pirates." (January 15, 1963).

On July 26, 1963, he says, "The imperialists are hypocrites and President Kennedy is a ruffian."

On June 4, 1963, he says, "What is needed is the cessation of the policy of subversion, of sabotage, of violation of the air space.

In October, 1963, he calls the policy of the United States towards Cuba "cynical and hypocritical."

On January 7, 1962, the Cuban magazine Bohemia printed this photograph. (Show photograph). For those who cannot read it from where they are sitting, the legend on the casket reads: "Here lies President Kennedy. The Cuban revolution killed him."

Oswald, as a fervid Castroite, must have known of Castro's speech of September 28 in which his fear of being sacrificed to a Russian-American rapprochement was clearly expressed. Oswald must have reached the conclusion that the President of the United States was the worst enemy of the Cuban revolution and the main danger to its survival and triumph. The next step was to murder the President.

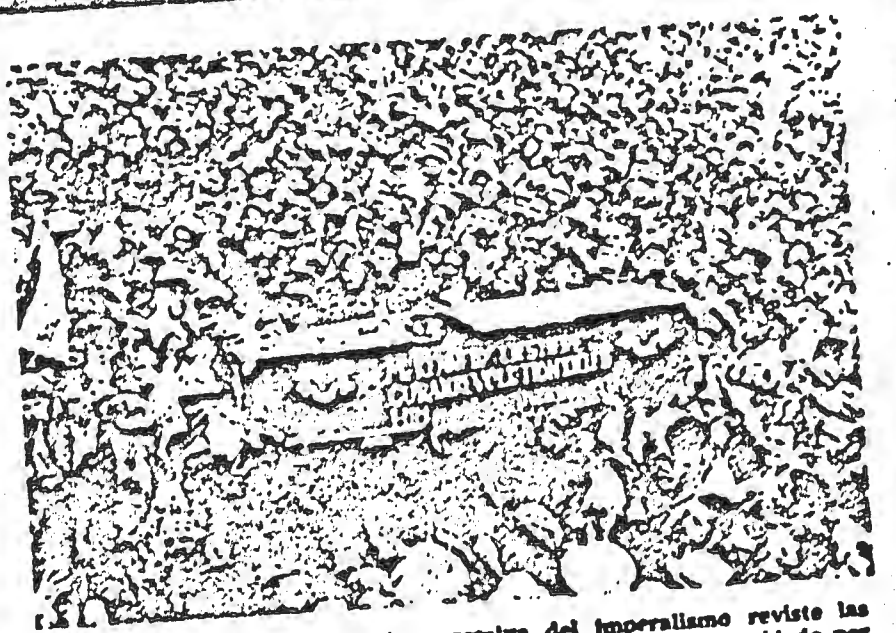
You may think that all this is only my personal opinion. But there is a fact we cannot get away from: President Kennedy was murdered by a devoted Fidelista, who was even willing to spy for him. If Castro had not been helped by the United States Government to win power, or if his regime had been suppressed at the Bay of Pigs, or before, the President of the United States would be alive today.

I hope you will agree with me that the presence of Castro and his Communistic regime in Cuba is a very serious threat for the United States. I hope you will agree with me that, for the preservation of this country, the cancer must be extirpated. In the past, the United States has faced grave dangers and has always found the wisdom and the courage to deal with them. Communism, my friends, presents the gravest danger you ever faced, but in its glorious past the United States of America will find, with the help of God, the strength to save itself and Christian civilization.

It is noted that former Ambassador to Cuba (1957-59) EARL E. T. SMITH, in his book "The Fourth Floor," states on page 180:

> "JORGE GARCIA MONTES held the office of Prime Minister longer than any other Prime Minister in Cuba. In the opinion of the Embassy, he was a man of integrity and reliability. His opinions and his information were later borne out to be correct and reliable.

On June 8, 1964 the same confidential source, former Cuban police official, previously mentioned, furnished a copy of the magazine BOHEMIA dated January 7, 1962. He stated the many photographs, including that of the crowd holding the mock coffin which appears on page 69, were all apparently taken at the anniversary celebration of the CASTRO revolution in Havana on January 2, 1962. He said the text of the article is the speech made by FIDEL CASTRO at this celebration and contains no reference to the group holding the coffin.



El repudio popular a la política agresiva del imperialismo reviste las formas más pintorescas: "Kennedy (en el ataúd) yace aquí liquidado por la revolución cubana".

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Carl L. Maynard has claimed that he saw Lee Oswald dating a Mexican strip-tease dancer who worked at the Carousel and that further information in this regard could be obtained from Diana (LNU), an employee of Ruby. (Report November 27, 1963, p.335) Presumably, the Diana referred to is Diana Hunter.

Please advise us what further investigation has been made of this allegation. In addition, please provide an interview with Miss Hunter concerning her employment with Ruby and any personal observations of incidents where Ruby showed interest in President Kennedy. In addition, please ascertain any contact she had with Ruby, Ralph Paul, George Senator, Breck Wall or Ruby's other employees from November 22 through November 24 and any experiences she may have had with respect to Ruby's sensitivity to his position in Dallas as a person of Jewish background.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONT'D

Miss CROCE stated that she did not know the identity of the author of that portion of the column pertaining to "a former Russian national" and she was unable to furnish any information concerning the possible identity or location of the "former Russian national" referred to in the column. She remarked that WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR., Editor of "National Review", was unavailable for interview, but she stated that she would contact him and advise him of the information requested by the FBI.

On 6/10/64, Miss CROCE was recontacted and stated that she had spoken to Mr. BUCKLEY but that he was unable, at this time, to furnish the identity of the author of that portion of the column relating to "a former Russian national". She advised that their office is attempting "to get a message through to the author" of this information and that once he is contacted he will in turn contact the FBI. Miss CROCE stated she was unable to furnish any additional information concerning the identity of the author.

On 6/12/64, VLADIMIR PETROV, Stony Creek, New Haven, Connecticut, telephonically contacted the NYO and advised that he is the source referred to in the "Capital Bulletin" column appearing in the 6/9/64 issue of the "National Review Bulletin". He stated that he is associated with Yale University but may be contacted at his residence in Stony Creek.

Above information not set forth in details of this report since it does not reflect results of interview with the "former Russian national" but only efforts to locate him.

Information copies furnished to New Haven and Washington Field in view of their investigation concerning above information.

SAM ALTMAN, NYC taxicab driver, upon initial contact, stated that he did not wish to be interviewed by the FBI because he had previously contacted and related his information to the FBI at the time the incident occurred.

Mr. ALTMAN was informed that the NYO has no record of any such contact.

DETAILS

By letter dated May 15, 1964, Mr. JOHN B. DRURY, a Trial Attorney for the Civil Aeronautics Board, advised the Warren Commission that on May 11, 1964, while he was in New York City on business, he and two associates had a conversation with one SAM ALTMAN, a New York City taxicab driver. Mr. DRURY's letter contained the following information as related to Mr. DRURY by ALTMAN:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"About two or three months prior to the assassination of the late President Kennedy, he picked up a male passenger at Eastern Air Lines, and drove him to his destination, which was the Hotel Gotham. The passenger had a large footlocker, upon which his name was stencilled. During the drive, the passenger told Altman that he was a former Marine, and that he intended to kill President Kennedy. Altman noted the name on the footlocker, and wrote it on his trip-ticket for the day, which he turned in to the company from which he rents the cab. Although not positive, Altman believes that the name was Oswald, and as he recalls this passenger, he looked like the photographs of Lee Harvey Oswald."

The following investigation was conducted concerning the above information:

On June 9, 1964, inquiry at the residence of Mr. ALTMAN determined that he was unavailable for interview.

On June 10, 1964, ALTMAN telephonically contacted the New York Office of the FBI and was advised that the FBI was interested in speaking to him concerning an incident which, according to the contents of a letter written to the Warren Commission by an attorney on behalf of Mr. ALTMAN, took place in New York City about two or three months prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and which involved a taxi passenger who, according to the letter, ALTMAN believed might have been identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Initially, ALTMAN stated that he did not wish to speak to the FBI but would relate his story to the Warren Commission if so requested. Although still reluctant to be interviewed, ALTMAN generally advised that approximately two or three months prior to the assassination, he picked up a fare at Idlewild Airport, Queens, New York, and while en route to the Hotel Gotham, Fifth Avenue and 55th Street,

New York City, the passenger stated that he "was in New York City to kill the President". He stated he noted the passenger's name on his taxi trip ticket and this ticket is presently located in the files of his employer, 629 West 57th Street, New York City.

On June 10, 1964, ARTHUR LEVINE, Office Manager, 57th Street Management Corporation, 629 West 57th Street, New York City, advised that office records indicate that from April 22, 1963, to October 10, 1963, ALTMAN did not work due to a broken arm. ALTMAN's taxi trip tickets from April 1, 1963, to April 22, 1963, were located and reviewed concerning possible notation of passenger's name, but with negative results. No further review of taxi trip tickets was conducted in view of the fact that it appeared ALTMAN had been in error concerning the approximate date of this incident, and it was decided to recontact him regarding this discrepancy.

On June 10, 1964, Miss HOMEYER, Clerk, Reservations Office, Hotel Gotham, Fifth Avenue and 55th Street, New York City, made available the hotel records for 1963, but a review of same failed to reflect any information identifiable with the subject, LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

On June 10, 1964, attempts to recontact SAM ALTMAN met with negative results.

On June 11, 1964, ALTMAN was telephonically re-contacted and informed that, according to his employer's records, he was not working two or three months prior to the assassination. He agreed to a personal interview so that full details concerning the incident could be obtained.

On June 11, 1964, SAM ALTMAN, age 49, 364 Madison Street, New York City, stated that he has resided at the above address for 20 years and has been a taxi driver for approximately the past six years. He stated that he thought the incident took place approximately two or three months prior to the assassination but remarked that if he was not working at that time, it must have taken place some other time. He was unable to state whether the incident took place prior or subsequent to his broken arm; was unable to state with any degree of certainty that it could not have taken place in the year 1962 and was unable to advise of the approximate season of the year that the incident occurred. He repeated several times that his memory is very poor concerning dates and that he was confused regarding the approximate time the incident occurred.

ALTMAN related the following information:

He was operating his cab one night and at about 9:00 p.m. he picked up a white male passenger in front of the Eastern Airlines Terminal, Idlewild Airport, Queens, New York. He described this individual as about in his early 20's; 5'7"; very thin "but solid" build; light colored, full head of hair; and wearing blue dungarees with matching waist length jacket. He stated this passenger instructed him to drive to the Hotel Gotham, Fifth Avenue and 55th Street, New York City, and that his luggage consisted of one footlocker. ALTMAN stated that while en route to the hotel, the passenger remarked that he had been in a particular branch of the service, ALTMAN could not recall whether he said Army or Marines, and that while in the service he had "something to do with weapons". The passenger further stated, according to ALTMAN, that "I am here for one reason"; ALTMAN asked him what the reason was, and he replied "I am here to kill the President". ALTMAN asked him how he was going to do that with "all those FBI guys around". Passenger answered "I am going to use something that I made up and no one will know that I killed him".

ALTMAN stated he could not recall the remainder of the conversation with the passenger. He advised that when they arrived in front of the Gotham Hotel, he heard the doorman call to the passenger by name and then ALTMAN noticed a name stencilled on the footlocker and thought possibly the doorman saw the name on the locker when the passenger was alighting from the cab and that was the reason why he called to him by name. He stated that he does not recall the passenger's name but did write it on his trip ticket and now believes that it may have been OSWALD.

ALTMAN remarked that he is "99 per cent sure" that the passenger said he was from Texas. ALTMAN advised that he is "99 per cent sure" that he could identify this individual if he saw him again. A photograph of OSWALD, taken by the Dallas Police Department on November 23, 1963, was displayed to ALTMAN, and he stated that his passenger was not identical with the photograph of OSWALD, inasmuch as his passenger was younger and had a fuller head of hair. ALTMAN stated further that he has never seen this individual since then; that he had never known or heard of OSWALD until the time of the assassination; and that he was unable to furnish any additional information concerning the above incident.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Through a confidential source which has furnished reliable information in the past, we have been advised of some statements made by Fidel Castro, Cuban Prime Minister, concerning the assassination of President Kennedy.

In connection with these statements of Castro, your attention is called to the speech made by Castro on November 27, 1963, in Havana, Cuba, during which Castro made similar statements concerning this matter. The pertinent portions of this speech are set out in the report of Special Agent James J. O'Connor dated May 8, 1964, at Miami, Florida, beginning on page 30.

Re phone call from SAC, Dallas, to Assistant Director W. C. SULLIVAN 6/12/64.

Reference is made to a letter from the President's Commission dated 6/9/64, to the Bureau, requesting that a determination be made as to whether any of the latent prints found on cartons near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository Building, were made by persons employed in that building on November 22, 1963.

Reference is also made to Bureau airtel to Dallas, 6/11/64, instructing Dallas to endeavor to obtain major case prints of all TSBD employees known to have been in the building on November 22, 1963, and furnish such prints to the Identification Division.

On June 11, 1964, Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, TSBD Building, who has been most cooperative in every request made by the Dallas Office, advised that there are some fifteen to twenty employees who would have had occasion to handle these cartons, and he would make the necessary arrangements to permit taking of major case prints of these employees. Other persons employed in the building on that date would have had no occasion to handle these cartons, and to make them available for the taking of major case prints would seriously handicap the work of that company.

Lee Oswald

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letters dated March 26, 1964, and June 9, 1964, as well as to my letter dated March 30, 1964, relative to the identification of latent palm and fingerprints found on cartons on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building.

Based on your letter of June 9, 1964, our Dallas Office endeavored to arrange for appropriate printing of employees who were present in the Texas School Book Depository Building on November 22, 1963. On June 12, 1964, Mr. Roy S. Truly, Warehouse Superintendent, who has been very cooperative with this Bureau in the past, strongly objected to the printing of all employees as he felt it would seriously handicap the work of his firm. Mr. Truly stated there are about twenty employees who would have had occasion to handle the cartons in question and he desired the printing of employees be limited to this group.

20 JUN 16 COMM-FBI

In view of Mr. Truly's strenuous objections to the printing of all employees, our Dallas Office will only print those employees who would have had occasion to handle the cartons. No further efforts will be made by this Bureau to print all employees unless a specific request to the contrary is received from you.

When the results of palm and fingerprint comparisons are known, you will be promptly notified.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

ReBuairtel 6-11-64, and your airtel 6-12-64.

Unless advised to the contrary you should limit the taking of major case prints to those employees who would have had occasion to handle the cartons in question.

When replying to a communication containing the notation "Attention: Criminal Section" you are requested to reply in like form as it expedites the handling of the particular communication.

Every effort should be made to expedite the handling of this matter.

NOTE:

The Commission by letter 3-26-64, requested we endeavor to identify the individuals who left latent prints on the afore-mentioned cartons. This comparison was limited in accordance with the Commission's instructions to those TSBD employees on whom we could locate prints. Some 16 individuals were initially checked and the results furnished to the Commission by letter 3-30-64. The most recent request 6-9-64, reiterates this request but specifies that "all appropriate methods, including if necessary, the taking of new fingerprints" be used.

The most logical method of complying with the Commission's request, was to take major case prints of all employees, inasmuch as both latent palm and fingerprints are involved. However, in view of the objections of Mr. Truly, it is felt our efforts should be limited as set out above unless a specific request to the contrary is received. This matter will be closely followed.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated May 28, 1964, the President's Commission advised that it had information that EARLENE ROBERTS, who was the manager of the house on Beckley Street in which LEE HARVEY OSWALD lived at the time of the assassination of President KENNEDY, may have been in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1963, at the time President KENNEDY visited that city.

On June 8, 1964, Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON, 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, and proprietor of the rooming house located at that address, advised that EARLENE ROBERTS was formerly employed by her as a housekeeper at that address and was so employed on November 21, 1963.

Mrs. JOHNSON stated that EARLENE ROBERTS spent the entire day of November 21, 1963, at 1026 North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas, and stated any information to the contrary is absolutely false. Mrs. JOHNSON said that at various times on November 21, 1963, she personally observed EARLENE ROBERTS at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas.

Mrs. JOHNSON related that EARLENE ROBERTS is 59 years old, is a diabetic, obese, and has a low mentality. Further, she stated the only trip she knows EARLENE ROBERTS ever takes is to her doctor, who is also located in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. JOHNSON advised she does not know where EARLENE ROBERTS is presently employed.

On June 8, 1964, Mrs. BERTHA CARDELLA (VOGLE) CHEEK, 5901 Hillcrest, Dallas, Texas, telephone number LA 1-2705, advised she is the sister of EARLENE ROBERTS, who was formerly employed as a housekeeper by Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON at the residence located at 1026 North Beckley Street, Dallas, Texas. Mrs. CHEEK said EARLENE ROBERTS has had three different employments since leaving Mrs. JOHNSON and is presently employed by Mrs. O. B. NANCE, 624 West 5th Street, Dallas, Texas, as a practical nurse. Mrs. CHEEK advised that Mrs. NANCE is an elderly woman, practically bedfast, and EARLENE ROBERTS is engaged full time taking care of her.

6 COPIES DESTROYED
26 MAR 2 1973

Mrs. CHEEK related that EARLENE ROBERTS attributes her frequent changes in employment to the fact that she has been contacted many times by law enforcement officers. She stated EARLENE ROBERTS has informed her that once an employer finds she had anything at all to do with LEE HARVEY OSWALD she is discharged. She further stated EARLENE ROBERTS has requested that, if possible, she be contacted telephonically and suggested she (Mrs. CHEEK) first contact EARLENE ROBERTS and have her telephone the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Regarding the allegation that EARLENE ROBERTS may have been in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1963, at the time President KENNEDY visited that city, Mrs. CHEEK stated there is no truth at all to this. She recalled that EARLENE ROBERTS spent the entire day of November 21, 1963, at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas, where she was then employed as a housekeeper. Mrs. CHEEK pointed out that EARLENE ROBERTS is 59 years old, is a diabetic, obese, and unwilling to travel any distance from Dallas, Texas.

On June 8, 1964, Mrs. EARLENE ROBERTS, 624 West 5th Street, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised she is presently employed at that residence taking care of Mrs. O. B. (ETHEL) NANCE, an elderly woman who has phlebitis and is almost bedfast. She said she has been employed in this capacity for the past three weeks. She also stated she has had four jobs in the past three months and attributes this to the fact that when her employers find out she was formerly the housekeeper at the rooming house where LEE HARVEY OSWALD lived, they dismiss her. She requested that if it were necessary to contact her at any future date that this be done telephonically, if at all possible, so that her employment would not be jeopardized.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

EARLENE ROBERTS advised she was formerly employed by Mrs. GLADYS JOHNSON as a housekeeper at the rooming house located at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, and was so employed on November 21, 1963. Mrs. ROBERTS said she spent the entire day of November 21, 1963, at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas. She said she did not go to San Antonio, Texas, and, further, she has not been outside the city limits of Dallas, Texas, for the past five years, and only once in the last seventeen years. Mrs. ROBERTS explained she has diabetes and is afraid to leave Dallas and be away from her doctor. She said she has been in a diabetic coma on two occasions, and when in this coma appears to be intoxicated. She said she has been picked up by the police, who thought she was intoxicated, but later learned she was a diabetic. She said if she got too far away from her doctor, got in a diabetic coma, and was picked up by the police, they might think she was drunk and, while in this coma, she could die. She said she is very fearful of this and because of this will not take any trips. She again stated she spent the entire day of November 21, 1963, at 1026 North Beckley, Dallas, Texas.

The Commission had information Roberts may have been in San Antonio, Texas, at the time President Kennedy was there. Investigation determined Roberts was at the Beckley address all day on 11-21-63. She is a diabetic and due to this condition does not leave Dallas as she is fearful of a diabetic coma. Roberts is the sister of Mrs. Bertha Cardella (Vogle) Cheek, a wealthy woman who knew Jack Ruby in view of their mutual interest in night clubs. This phase of the investigation has been thoroughly investigated.

For your information Lettie Jane Cogar interviewed 6/16/64 and advised her brother is Dana Cogar who works at Merrill's, Inc., Clarksburg, West Virginia. She has seen him only once since 11/63. He knows she works for the FBI but she has never discussed her work with him. So far as she knows he has never been in Texas. He possesses a .22 caliber rifle which his uncle gave him and which does not have a telescopic sight on it. To the best of her knowledge, he has no interest in Russia and she has never seen any magazines from Russia or about Russia in his possession.

She indicated he had told his boss at Merrill's, Inc., that she was with the FBI and carried a derringer. She said she had no idea where her brother had gott[illegible] his idea.

She noted her brother is quite de[illegible]. He was married in January, 1964, and lives with his wife in [illegible] apartment in Clarksburg. Miss Cogar has never been in the apartment.

Miss Cogar stated she has never been to Dallas; [illegible] advised she was not sent there by the FBI to work on the Oswald case or any other case. She stated she has never told anyone that she was sent to Dallas to work on the Oswald case or any other case.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

In the May 9, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian", there appears an article captioned "OSWALD CASE: A NEW ANGLE".

According to this article, MARK LANE claims that the United States Secret Service deliberately planted a false story in the press to cast further guilt on OSWALD. This article names a U. S. Secret Service Agent, MIKE (MICHAEL) HOWARD; PAT HOWARD, a Deputy Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, and a brother of the U. S. Secret Service Agent, MIKE HOWARD; and, THAYER WALDO, a reporter for the "Fort Worth Star Telegram". This article alleges that MIKE HOWARD, PAT HOWARD and THAYER WALDO engaged in conversations on or about February 9, 1964, in Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, concerning the existence of a Negro witness who saw OSWALD shoot at President KENNEDY.

On May 28, 1964, THAYER WALDO, news reporter, "Fort Worth Star Telegram", Fort Worth, Texas, dictated the following signed statement to "Star Telegram" stenographer, BETTY JOHNSON, in the conference room at the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" in the presence of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. After dictating the statement, WALDO said he intended to read it over after it was typed, make any corrections which he deemed necessary, in his own handwriting, maintain one copy for himself and another copy in the files of the "Fort Worth Star Telegram".

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation returned to the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" approximately five hours after this statement was dictated and WALDO handed over the original. He said that he had signed his name on each individual page and that all corrections in ink on the statement were made in his own handwriting, and for that reason did not consider it necessary to initial each correction.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The statement is as follows:

"Fort Worth, Texas
May 28, 1964

"I, Thayer Waldo, make the following voluntary statement to B. Tom Carter and Joseph L. Schott, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"On the morning of February 9, 1964, attorney Mark Lane called me from San Francisco and asked if I would accompany Mrs. Marguerite Oswald and a secret service man on the drive from Fort Worth to Dallas Love Field. Lane said Mrs. Oswald was to take a plane to Washington D. C. to appear before the Warren Commission and wanted 'someone she knew and could trust to make the ride with her.'

"I went to Mrs. Oswald's house shortly after noon. Two men were standing by a car in the driveway and one of them greeted me by name, saying, 'I'm Mike Howard.' The other one introduced himself as Pat Howard.

"We drove to Love Field; Mrs. Oswald and I were in the back seat, Mike Howard driving and Pat Howard by him. At the airport Forrest V. Sorrels, Chief of the Secret Service Office in Dallas and another agent who was to accompany Mrs. Oswald on the flight, met us.

"After Mrs. Oswald's plane took off, Sorrels invited all of us to have a cup of coffee with him. We sat at the counter in the coffee shop; Sorrels and Mike Howard conversed between themselves and I was talking to Pat Howard on my left. (Pat Howard at that time identified himself as a deputy in the Tarrant County Sheriff's Department, and as a brother of Mike Howard).

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

"We were discussing various angles of the assassination of President Kennedy, of the subsequent killing of Oswald when Pat put his hand on my knee and said; 'Waldo, if it hasn't already come out of the Warren Commission by then, after this Ruby trial is over I'm going to come up and give you a story that will blow everybody's head off.'

"I tried to get him to give me more details, but he refused. However, when we left the coffee shop--Sorrels and Mike Howard walking some distance ahead of us--Pat took me by the arm and added:

"'I'll tell you just this much right now. It has to do with a witness who saw the shooting of the President and can positively identify Oswald as the killer. Is that good enough?'

"In the car on the return trip, I sat alone in the back seat. Mike was driving and began talking, a rather long monologue about various aspects of the two killings. Then, very casually, he said:

"'Well, when that old black boy gets up before the Warren Commission and tells what he knows, that will stop them all talking.'

"Pat turned half around in his seat and gave me an elaborate wink, with raised eyebrows, as if to say, 'so here is what I was telling you about.'

"Then he leaned close to Mike and said something inaudible to me. But Mike appeared to pay no attention and continued telling his story.

"He stated that a Negro employee of the Texas School Book Depository had been on the sixth floor of that building at mid-day on November 22, 1963; that he was looking out the window at the passing presidential motorcade when he heard a shot close "beside him; then he looked and saw Oswald kneeling at the next window with a rifle aimed into the street.

"Mike Howard said the Negro later told Dallas Police officers to whom he surrendered, 'I was scared to death, I thought he would kill me_ too. I just turned and ran way over to the far side of that room and squeezed me down behind some empty crates. When I was running, I heard another shot, maybe two. When Oswald dropped his gun and ran out down the stairway, he almost stepped on me as he went by.'

"Mike said the unnamed Negro waited a few minutes, then left the building, and went straight to Dallas Police Headquarters, where he turned himself in to Special Services.

"'He said he knew about that branch because they handle gambling cases and he had been picked up a few times for shooting craps,' Mike Howard explained.

"Howard said he had seen this Negro witness once, while the latter was still in the Dallas City Jail.

"'They slapped a vagrancy charge on him so they could hold him,' Mike said. 'He was still just about the scaredest Negro I ever saw--nothing but whites to his eyes.

"'They have now transferred him somewhere else, I understand. I don't know where.'

"During this recital, Pat Howard kept giving me significant grins and broad winks. Nothing was said at anytime by either of them about not repeating this story, that it was off the record or in anyway confidential. There was no request to omit use of names.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

"Mike and Pat dropped me off at the Star-Telegram. This was not a normal working day for me, but I felt that the editors should know at once about what I had been told.

"The city editor naturally saw it as a sensationally good story. He called the managing editor and a decision was made to make it a copyright story in the first edition for Monday. It was then about 5:45 P.M.

"I wrote the story at once and it appeared under an eight column, double bank banner in the one star edition, which hit the streets shortly after 8:00 P.M. Within minutes the story was being broadcast on radio and TV.

"At about 8:25, I received a call from Pat Howard, who said:

"'Hey, boy, that's quite a story! You aren't using anybody's name on it, are you?'

"I assured him I was not, and he said, 'Good stuff.'

Less than ten minutes later, Mike Howard called me. He seemed considerably upset and agitated, but conceded that no request to withhold the story had been made.

"'Well, for God's sake at least don't use my name,' he said.

"I told him I had not and would not.

"Except for the Star-Telegram's editors and the local Associated Press correspondent, I did not mention Mike Howard's name to anyone--including the F.B.I., to whom I talked by telephone on Tuesday, February 11--until about one month ago.

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

"At that time, Mark Lane called me from Dallas, said he was on his way to give a talk at the University of Texas in Austin and asked if I could see him in Dallas.

"I explained that I was too busy to leave the newspaper, so he took a rent car and came to Fort Worth to see me.

"He said he was conducting an investigation on 'four or five important angles' of the Kennedy-Oswald-Ruby case and was particularly interested to know further details about my February 9th story.

"His manner of speaking gave me to understand that anything I told or showed him would be held in confidence. I took him to the reference room, where he read the Star-Telegram for the morning of February 10th. Then he asked if I would mind telling him my source. Believing this to be a lawyer's request with normal legal discretion, I told him the complete story.

"I heard nothing more from Mr. Lane. About two weeks later Mrs. Marguerite Oswald called and asked me if I could come to her home, 'as I have several important things to show you.'

"One of the items she showed me was a copy of the National Guardian for May 9th, 1964. In a front page article, Mark Lane was quoted, revealing all the details I had given him on the story.

"As regards identity of the Negro referred to by Mike Howard, Howard said he didn't know the name, 'or if I did, I've forgotten it now.'

"I dictated the above statement containing 7 pages to Star-Telegram stenographer, Betty Johnson, and it is true and correct.

Pat Howard

On June 1, 1964, PAT CLYDE HOWARD, Patrolman, Hurst Police Department, Hurst, Texas, advised he would make the following free and voluntary oral statement to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

HOWARD stated he presently resides at 508 Norwood, Hurst, Texas. He said he had come to work at the Hurst Police Department during the first part of May 1964, and for approximately one year prior to that had been employed as a Deputy Sheriff at the Tarrant County Sheriff's Office, Fort Worth, Texas.

James. M. Howard

HOWARD stated that his brother, MIKE HOWARD, had been employed for the past two or three years as a Special Agent of the U. S. Secret Service.

Texas

HOWARD said that about three or four months ago, probably during the month of February 1964, his brother, MIKE, called him on the telephone and asked him to go along when MIKE drove Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD from her residence in Fort Worth, Texas, to Love Field in Dallas, at which place she was to take an airplane to Washington, D. C., and testify before the President's Commission. PAT HOWARD said he accompanied his brother in MIKE's car to the residence of Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD and, while waiting for her to finish packing, she informed them that a friend of her attorney, MARK LANE, was going to accompany them on the ride from Fort Worth to Love Field in Dallas. Mrs. OSWALD identified this individual who was to accompany them as THAYER WALDO, a reporter for the "Fort Worth Star Telegram".

PAT HOWARD said that THAYER WALDO arrived at Mrs. OSWALD's residence by taxi, to the best of his recollection.

He accompanied them to Dallas. During the ride, MIKE HOWARD drove the car, PAT HOWARD sat in the front seat with his brother, and WALDO and Mrs. OSWALD sat in the back seat.

At Love Field in Dallas they met FORREST SORRELS, the Special Agent in Charge of the Secret Service in Dallas, and also another Secret Service Agent, whose name was not recalled by PAT HOWARD at this time. This Agent who accompanied SORRELS got on the plane for Washington with Mrs. OSWALD to accompany her on the trip.

After the plane departed, SORRELS, MIKE HOWARD, PAT HOWARD and THAYER WALDO went into the coffee shop at Love Field Terminal to have a cup of coffee. In the coffee shop, the four seated themselves in such a way that FORREST SORRELS and MIKE HOWARD could engage in a private conversation out of earshot of the other two, and PAT HOWARD and WALDO could converse privately. PAT HOWARD said this situation arose because of the way they were seated at either the counter or a long table.

In conversation with WALDO, PAT HOWARD said he had some interesting highlights on the events immediately following the Presidential assassination that he might tell WALDO sometime.

PAT HOWARD said what he had in mind when he made the statement was that he had accompanied Sheriff LON EVANS of Fort Worth and several Secret Service Agents to Dallas on November 22, 1963, after the news of the Presidential assassination was broadcast. They arrived at Parkland Hospital just about the time the news of the President's death was announced. When the news was announced, PAT HOWARD observed the reactions of many of the individuals in the hall and outside the hospital and referred to these reactions as "interesting human drama". He said that he thought these little incidents of human drama would make good newspaper stories, and these incidents were what he referred to when he told WALDO he would sometime like to give him some interesting sidelights on the events immediately after the assassination.

On the return trip to Fort Worth from Love Field, Dallas, MIKE HOWARD drove and PAT HOWARD sat in the front seat with him. THAYER WALDO sat in the back. On the return trip, MIKE HOWARD mentioned that there had been a Negro male in the Texas School Book Depository at the time the assassination had occurred. After the shooting, the Negro left the building hastily because he was afraid he might be implicated in some way as he had several minor arrests against him for gambling or vagrancy. PAT HOWARD said MIKE HOWARD told this as an amusing incident and never at any time did he indicate that this Negro male had actually been a witness to anyone shooting at the President.

PAT HOWARD recalled that MIKE HOWARD's source of information about the Negro male was a detective on the Dallas Police Department, whose name was not recalled by PAT HOWARD. PAT HOWARD said it was his recollection that this Negro male had been identified shortly after the assassination and had been checked out by the Dallas Police Department and the Secret Service.

PAT HOWARD said that the next morning after the story came out in the "Fort Worth Star Telegram", that a Negro witness had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD shooting the President, he called THAYER WALDO at the "Star Telegram" and protested, but had not received any sort of satisfactory answer from WALDO regarding his reasons for having written the story.

At the conclusion of the interview, PAT HOWARD reiterated that neither he nor his brother, MIKE, had told WALDO that the Negro male MIKE talked about had been a witness who had observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD shoot at the President in the Texas School Book Depository at Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963.

On June 2, 1964, Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas, Texas, Police Department, advised that Lieutenant JACK REVILL, of the Dallas Police Department, talked with a Negro male by the name of CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS on the day of the assassination.

GIVENS told REVILL that he had been in the Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, with OSWALD on the morning of

Re: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

November 22, 1963, but was on the street during the period the Presidential motorcade passed by the Texas School Book Depository. Chief CURRY related that everyone who might have any knowledge of OSWALD, known as LEE to GIVENS, was being questioned.

Lieutenant REVILL referred GIVENS to Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, who talked with GIVENS briefly on November 22, 1963, but never had GIVENS in custody at any time.

Chief CURRY stated that a rumor got out later that the Dallas Police Department had a Negro in protective custody who allegedly had knowledge of the assassination by OSWALD. CURRY stated that this was absolutely false and the Dallas Police Department never had GIVENS or anyone else in protective custody during the course of their investigation.

Chief CURRY stated these were all the facts known to the Dallas Police Department concerning GIVENS, and that any story to the contrary was not true.

On June 3, 1964, CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS, a warehouseman, Texas School Book Depository building, 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, advised he presently resides at 4208 1st Avenue, Dallas, Texas, and has home telephone number HA 1-2837. He said he moved to this address in March 1964, and had previously resided at 2511 Cochran Street, Dallas, Texas. GIVENS stated he was born May 16, 1925, at Kemp, Texas, and is married to DORIS GIVENS. He said they have no children.

GIVENS stated that on November 22, 1963, he was working on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building until about 11:30 A.M., when he used the elevator to travel to the first floor, where he washed his hands. He said he now recalls he returned to the sixth floor at about 11:45 A.M. to get his cigarettes which he had left there. GIVENS stated it was at this time he saw LEE HARVEY OSWALD, known then to him as LEE, standing in the southeast corner of the building on that floor. He said OSWALD had orders and a clip board in his hand, and, in response to a question by GIVENS as to whether or not OSWALD was going to come downstairs, OSWALD replied, "No, not now." GIVENS stated he then got on the elevator and, as he was leaving the sixth floor, OSWALD yelled at him to close the gates on the elevator so that he, OSWALD, could have the elevator returned to the sixth floor.

GIVENS advised he remained on the first floor of the Texas School Book Depository building until about 12:00 noon, at which time he walked out of the building and stood on the sidewalk in front of the building for several minutes. He said he then walked to the Classified Parking Lot at Elm and Record Streets, and then onto Main Street to watch the Presidential motorcade. He said he viewed the motorcade in company with EDWARD SHIELDS, who was then and is presently employed in the Texas School Book Depository warehouse, located behind the Texas School Book Depository building, and with JAMES LACY, who was then employed at the Classified Parking Lot at Elm and Record Streets.

After the motorcade passed, GIVENS said he walked back to the Classified Parking Lot, at which time he heard, as he now recalls it, three shots, which came from the direction of the Texas School Book Depository building. He said the time was around 12:30 P.M. Upon hearing these shots, GIVENS said he walked back to the Texas School Book Depository building and attempted to enter, but was unable to because the police were not letting anyone in or out of the building. GIVENS said he then crossed the street and stood with a number of others watching the activity at the Texas School Book Depository building.

GIVENS advised to the best of his recollection, between 1:30 P.M. and 2:00 P.M., Lieutenant DAWSON of the Dallas Police Department saw him and said, "GIVENS, we've been looking for you, they need you downtown to give a statement." GIVENS said he accompanied Lieutenant DAWSON in a police cruiser to the Dallas Police Station. He said other employees of the Texas School Book Depository were already at the Police Station. GIVENS stated these other employees had been interviewed by the Dallas

Police, and shortly after his arrival he was interviewed by Lieutenant REVILL for about fifteen minutes. He said Lieutenant REVILL referred him to Captain WILL FRITZ to ask him a few questions. He said he furnished them the same information as set out above, and signed a statement containing that information. He said around 3:00 or 3:30 P.M., he and the other employees of the Texas School Book Depository left the Dallas Police Station and returned to the Texas School Book Depository. He said they were permitted to go into the building, which he did, picked up his hat and coat, and went directly home.

GIVENS stated at no time during the course of the investigation of the assassination of President KENNEDY was he placed under arrest or held in protective custody by the Dallas Police Department.

CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS was previously interviewed on November 22, 1963, as reflected on page 329 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

An interview was conducted with Lieutenant JACK REVILL, Special Services Bureau, Dallas Police Department, on February 13, 1964, the results of which interview appear on page 296 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated March 10, 1964, at Dallas, Texas. On that occasion, Lieutenant REVILL stated that, in his opinion, the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" story concerning a witness being held in protective custody possibly referred to CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS.

In the May 9, 1964, issue of the "National Guardian", there appears an article captioned "OSWALD CASE: A NEW ANGLE".

According to this article, MARK LANE claims that the United States Secret Service deliberately planted a false story in the press to cast further guilt on OSWALD. This article names a U. S. Secret Service Agent, MIKE (MICHAEL) HOWARD; PAT HOWARD, a Deputy Sheriff of Tarrant County, Texas, and a brother of the U. S. Secret Service Agent, MIKE HOWARD; and, THAYER WALDO, a reporter for the "Fort Worth Star Telegram". This article alleges that MIKE HOWARD, PAT HOWARD and THAYER WALDO engaged in conversations on or about February 9, 1964, in Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas, concerning the existence of a Negro witness who saw OSWALD shoot at President KENNEDY.

On May 28, 1964, THAYER WALDO, news reporter, "Fort Worth Star Telegram", Fort Worth, Texas, dictated the following signed statement to "Star Telegram" stenographer, BETTY JOHNSON, in the conference room at the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" in the presence of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. After dictating the statement, WALDO said he intended to read it over after it was typed, make any corrections which he deemed necessary, in his own handwriting, maintain one copy for himself and another copy in the files of the "Fort Worth Star Telegram".

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation returned to the "Fort Worth Star Telegram" approximately five hours after this statement was dictated and WALDO handed over the original. He said that he had signed his name on each individual page and that all corrections in ink on the statement were made in his own handwriting, and for that reason did not consider it necessary to initial each correction.

ReBuairtel 5/26/64, with which was furnished a copy of a translation of a Mexican Government document furnished to the Bureau by Mexico City airtel of 5/12/64.

ReBuairtel called attention to the reference in the translation to a list of reservations said to be in lieu of a passengers' list of the Transportes Frontera Bus Line. This reservation list mentioned in the translation is the same as the manifest of Transportes Frontera Line (Exhibit D106) on which the name "OSWLD" was manifested in seat No. 4. As has been pointed out previously to the Bureau, officials of Transportes Frontera indicate that this list is utilized both for reservations and for assistance in the accounting office of the company.

Mexican Immigration Inspector JOSE MARIO DEL VALLE, who assisted in the preparation of the document which was translated, has advised that there is no list of passengers related to the Transportes Frontera bus trip on 10/2-3/63 from Mexico City to Nuevo Laredo in addition to the reservation list mentioned. Previous investigation by this office confirms this statement of Inspector DEL VALLE. The so-called reservation list mentioned in the Mexican Government report is the only list or manifest of passengers prepared by the Transportes Frontera Bus Line.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On June 10, 1964, NK T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised telephone number ES 5-8663, a non-published number, is subscribed to by Al Simon, 102 Paine Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey.

The 1961 Street Directory for Irvington, New Jersey, set forth Lawrence Simon, wife Sondra, 102 Paine Avenue, Irvington, was a wrestler. The 1954 Irvington Street Directory showed Lawrence L. Simon and Harry Simon resided at 75 Philip Place, Irvington, New Jersey.

The records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, City Hall, Newark, New Jersey, on June 12, 1964, set out Lawrence Simon, male, white, was born July 6, 1933, Beth Israel Hospital, Newark, New Jersey. His father was Harry Simon, tailor, age 35, born in Russia, and his mother was Ethel Rabinowitz, age 27, born in New York. Their residence was 760 Hunterdon Street, Newark, New Jersey, and he was one of two children both of whom were living at the time.

Mrs. Eleanor Calloway, Essex County Board of Naturalization, United States Post Office and Court House, Newark, New Jersey, on June 10, 1964, advised Harry Simon, born in Checeson, Russia, arrived in New York, New York, on January 21, 1921, occupation tailor, filed Petition for Naturalization #13717 on February 29, 1923, and received Certificate of Naturalization #2567270 on June 30, 1923. His wife was Ethel, born April 19, 1901, and daughter Selma, born July 4, 1927, Newark, New Jersey.

Mrs. Madeline Ricigliano, Essex County Board of Elections, Hall of Records, Newark, New Jersey, on June 10, 1964, advised Lawrence Simon had not registered to vote but Sondra S. Simon, 102 Paine Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey, registered for her first vote September 6, 1962, and still resided at that address.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On June 15, 1964, Detective John P. Holroyd, Irvington, New Jersey, Police Department, advised there was no record on Lawrence or Sondra Simon or the aliases of Lawrence.

Audrey Grunstra, Receptionist, Garden State Credit Bureau, Clifton, New Jersey, on June 11, 1964, stated the records showed Lawrence Simon, wife Sondra, 102 Paine Avenue, Irvington, New Jersey, had previously resided at 27 Philips Place, 75 Philips Place, 760 Philips Place, all in Irvington, New Jersey, and at 210½ South 14th Street, St. Joseph, Missouri. No dates of residences were given.

Simon was listed as a wrestler performing since 1954 and had also worked for Keller Insurance, Inc. (April 23, 1956) and Gash and Lefkowitz (December 8, 1954), locations not given. A notation in the credit file dated April 13, 1964, indicated Simon wrestles under the name Count Von Kroft Molenkroft.

Through a suitable pretext telephone call on June 9, 1964, to ES 5-8863 by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, it was ascertained that Simon was still wrestling and would be in Hempstead, Long Island, the night of June 12, 1964.

NOTE: Robert Kaye, aka Robert Klonowski, Roman Sokolowski, is an alien who reportedly was born in Poland. He has told many bizarre stories about himself, claiming that he expects to inherit a million dollars and will receive 2 million dollars for his life story. Also claims close personal relationship with former Presidents Truman and Eisenhower. He has told both FBI and Secret Service that in 10-63 he met a man in Denver by the name of "Lee" who hired him to travel to Mexico City to pick up some papers for which he was to be paid $3,000 by "Lee." Following the assassination, he claimed that after viewing a photo of Oswald he feels Oswald is identical to the "Lee" he met in Denver. We have conducted extensive investigation of Kaye and it appears he is a confidence man or is mentally unstable. INS is investigating him on the basis he is an alien and has not registered with INS since 1951.

On May 26, 1964, Mr. George Maddocks, Acting Agent in Charge, Passport Agency, Department of State, 701 Loyola Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that no records are maintained by his Agency at New Orleans, Louisiana, which would identify individuals who made applications for passports at New Orleans, Louisiana, from June 17, 1963, through July 1, 1963.

Mr. Maddocks advised that daily teletypes are sent to the Passport Office, Department of State, Washington, D. C., setting forth the names and birth dates of individuals who have made applications either on that date or the day before. Mr. Maddocks stated that his Agency at New Orleans, Louisiana, maintains copies of these daily teletypes for a period of three to six months, after which they are destroyed.

Mr. Maddocks advised that it is possible that his Agency in Washington, D. C., may keep copies of these daily teletypes. Therefore, it might be possible to ascertain the identities of persons who made applications at New Orleans, Louisiana, during the pertinent period by reviewing his Agency's daily teletypes from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Washington, D. C. for the period of June 17, 1963, through July 1, 1963.

Mr. Maddocks advised that during the period of June 17, 1963, through July 1, 1963, a total of 280 applications for passports were made in person by individuals at New Orleans, Louisiana. Mr. Maddocks further stated that during this same period, an additional 2091 applications for passports were received by his office through the mail.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

The above items were examined, as requested, in order to determine whether or not the photographs in the various publications originated from the photograph of Oswald holding the rifle, Commission Exhibit 133. It was not possible to positively associate these photographs since the photographs in the publications are reproductions by a halftone process, normal to such reproductions, and do not contain as much detail as the photographs from which the engraved halftone plates were made. In addition, this loss of detail tends to conceal retouching that is normally placed on photographs for the purpose of intensifying details that would otherwise be lost in the engraving process. However, a comparison of the photograph which is a part of Commission Exhibit 133 with the photographs and reproductions described above, shows that all of the photographs and reproductions are consistent in all general characteristics, except for some variations that appear to be retouching. Such retouching would have been placed on the photographs for retention of detail in the engraving process. It is noted that no characteristics were found that would suggest that the photographs and reproductions of photographs described above, originated from other than the photograph that is a part of Commission Exhibit 133 or a duplicate print of that photograph.

As requested in your letter dated June 9, 1964, Special Agent Lyndal L. Shaneyfelt will appear at the Commission on June 12, 1964, at 3:30 P.M. to furnish a deposition relative to the above examination.

Commission Exhibits 335, 336 and 338 are attached.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 6/9/64

ROBERT J. KAYE was interviewed at the Tucson Resident Agency. He was advised that he did not have to make a statement, that he could consult an attorney prior to making any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law.

KAYE stated that it was impossible for him to furnish any additional information relative to the identity of GLORIA (LNU), an exotic dancer he met at a small club in Juarez, Mexico, or MIGUEL (LNU), the individual who accompanied him from Juarez to Mexico City. In addition, KAYE stated that it was impossible for him to furnish any additional information relative to RAOUL (LNU) or RAUL (LNU), the individual he stayed with for several days in Chihuahua, Mexico.

KAYE stated that he had carefully reviewed the information he had previously furnished to the FBI and that he was certain he arrived in El Paso, Texas, the end of October, 1963. KAYE insisted that he had worked for the Colorado Vending Company and for GLENN A. JENKINS during the period January or February, 1963 to the end of October, 1963, and that during that period he had resided at 95 S. Ogden, Denver, Colorado. KAYE stated that he was positive that he arrived in El Paso the end of October, 1963. KAYE stated that during the period January, 1963, to October, 1963, he had not made any trips whatsoever outside of Denver.

KAYE was queried relative to his mode of transportation to El Paso and he stated that he was driving a 1961 Thunderbird, which he had purchased in Denver for $2,700.00. Upon questioning as to where the 1961 Thunderbird was purchased in Denver, KAYE stated that actually he had made one trip outside of Denver during the period January, 1963, to October, 1963, that being a trip to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he purchased the 1961 Thunderbird. KAYE stated at that time he owned a 1956 Ford station wagon and he drove that car to Tulsa, and traded it in for the 1961 Thunderbird. KAYE stated that he received a credit of approximately $900.00 for his vehicle and that he borrowed $700.00 from another party in Tulsa to complete the down payment on the purchase of the vehicle, the total price of the vehicle being $2,700.00. KAYE refused to identify the party who loaned him the $700.00 but added that he had repaid the money shortly after he returned to Denver. KAYE stated, however, that he had never received any additional funds from this source and had never entered into any business relationship with this individual.

KAYE stated that the information previously furnished to the FBI was as factually correct as possible and that he could only reaffirm his previous statements to the effect that he had left Denver during the latter part of October, 1963.

KAYE is presently residing at 2814 E. 6th, Tucson, Arizona, telephone 623-5009 and is still employed by Falcon Automatic, Inc., 727 S. Campbell, Tucson, Arizona.
